

HEAVEN IS SO REAL

The Supernatural Revelations of Choo Thomas

A visual pilgrimage into the visions, the glory, and the urgent warnings given by the Lord.

*'I want you to let everyone know that heaven is so real!
He has prepared a place for you.'* — Choo Thomas

The Fire of Preparation

The journey begins with surrender. Choo Thomas recounts physical shaking and quaking under the heavy anointing of the Holy Spirit, often lasting for hours, accompanied by deep spiritual groans and intense heat.

Key Insight: This is not a dream; it is a physical reality. The shaking is the tangible evidence of the Holy Spirit preparing a vessel for a heavy anointing.

“I am releasing My power into your being... I am preparing you to serve Me.” — The Lord

The Transformed Body

Flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom. To enter the supernatural, one must be transformed. On a secluded earthly beach, the laws of physics suspend, and the spiritual journey begins.

“Every time I have gone to heaven with Jesus, this exchange actually has occurred.”

The Gateway to Glory

Passing from the earthly dimension into a realm where beauty is infinite and colors are alive. The tunnel walls sparkle sparkle with a magnificent array of jewels, leading to the Kingdom.

“The only ones who will go there are the obedient and pure-hearted children.” — The Lord

The Throne Room of God

The ultimate purpose of all creation is worship. Here, the Patriarchs and Apostles—Abraham, Peter, Paul—gather in the heartbeat of eternity. ‘All nations whom You have made shall come and worship before You.’

A Place Prepared for You

Heaven is not an abstract concept; it is a physical home prepared for specific individuals. Jesus has prepared dwellings for His obedient children, decorated with a beauty that surpasses earthly palaces. Inside await silver beds with blue stones, red velvet chairs, and walls of sparkling gems.

“In My Father’s house are many mansions... I go to prepare a place for you.”

The River of Pleasures

The River of Pleasures

God desires the happiness of His children. Heaven is a restoration of Eden—a place of fishing, boating, and enjoying the company of the Lord in perfect peace.

“I want them to be happy.”

The Cost of Redemption

The bridge between humanity and Heaven is built entirely on the sacrifice of Jesus. This visual serves as an eternal reminder of the price paid for entrance into the Kingdom.

“It is My blood. It has washed away all the sins of My children.”

The Reality of Hell

The sobering reality that freedom includes the freedom to reject God, with eternal consequences. Choo Thomas witnesses the personal tragedy of seeing loved ones who did not know the Lord.

“Hot! Hot! So hot!” ... “There is nothing I can do for those who do not know Me.” — The Lord

The Tragedy of Disobedience

A warning to the church: partial obedience is disobedience. Those who knew the Word but loved the world, who did not live by the Spirit, find themselves outside the gates of glory.

“They are disobedient Christians.”

The Keeper of the Innocents

A revelation of God's heart regarding the unborn. The Lord's justice and mercy extend to the unwanted, gathering them until their mothers repent or giving them to others in the Kingdom.

“I will keep their babies.”

The Great Tribulation

A prophetic warning of the events to follow. The purpose of the visions is to warn the world to prepare now, before the day of judgment arrives.

“All the things you see are going to happen
happen very soon.”

Blessed are the Pure in Heart

Entrance to the Kingdom requires a heart cleansed by the Word and the Spirit.
Purity is not optional; it is the atmosphere of Heaven.

"The only ones who can come here are the ones whose hearts are as pure as the water."

The Final Commission

The purpose of the visions is not just for personal edification, but to warn the world. The book is the tool to wake up the sleeping church.

“I want the whole world to see this book, and I want them to realize that I am ready for them.”

“Maranatha!”

“I am coming sooner than they think.”

Body Text:

“The preparations are complete.
The mansions are built.
The invitation is open.
The King is coming.”

Closing Quote:

“Whosoever will may come.”
