Have mercy also on me, and answer me.

⁸ When you said, "Seek my face,"

my heart said to you, "I will seek your face, Yahweh."

⁹ Don't hide your face from me.

Don't put your servant away in anger.

You have been my help.

Don't abandon me,

neither forsake me, God of my salvation.

¹⁰ When my father and my mother forsake me, then Yahweh will take me up.

¹¹ Teach me your way, Yahweh.

Lead me in a straight path, because of my enemies.

¹² Don't deliver me over to the desire of my adversaries, for false witnesses have risen up against me,

such as breathe out cruelty.

¹³ I am still confident of this:

I will see the goodness of Yahweh in the land of the living.

¹⁴ Wait for Yahweh.

Be strong, and let your heart take courage.

Yes, wait for Yahweh.

By David.

28 To you, Yahweh, I call.

My rock, don't be deaf to me,

lest, if you are silent to me,

I would become like those who go down into the pit.

2 Hear the voice of my petitions, when I cry to you,
when I lift up my hands toward your Most Holy Place.

3 Don't draw me away with the wicked, with the workers of iniquity who speak peace with their neighbors,
but mischief is in their hearts.

4 Give them according to their work, and according to the wickedness of their doings.

Give them according to the operation of their hands.

Bring back on them what they deserve.

5 Because they don't respect the works of Yahweh,
nor the operation of his hands,
he will break them down and not build them up.

6 Blessed be Yahweh, because he has heard the voice of my petitions.

7 Yahweh is my strength and my shield.
My heart has trusted in him, and I am helped.
Therefore my heart greatly rejoices.

With my song I will thank him.

8 Yahweh is their strength.

He is a stronghold of salvation to his anointed.

9 Save your people,
and bless your inheritance.
Be their shepherd also,
and bear them up forever.

A Psalm by David.

29 Ascribe to Yahweh, you sons of the mighty,

ascribe to Yahweh glory and strength.

2 Ascribe to Yahweh the glory due to his name.

Worship Yahweh in holy array.

3 Yahweh's voice is on the waters.

The God of glory thunders, even Yahweh on many waters.

4 Yahweh's voice is powerful.

Yahweh's voice is full of majesty.

5 Yahweh's voice breaks the cedars.

Yes, Yahweh breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.

6 He makes them also to skip like a calf;
Lebanon and Sirion like a young, wild ox.

7 Yahweh's voice strikes with flashes of lightning.

8 Yahweh's voice shakes the wilderness.

Yahweh shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

9 Yahweh's voice makes the deer calve, and strips the forests bare.

In his temple everything says, "Glory!"

10 Yahweh sat enthroned at the Flood.

Yes, Yahweh sits as King forever.

11 Yahweh will give strength to his people.

Yahweh will bless his people with peace.

A Psalm. A Song for the Dedication of the Temple. By David.

30 I will extol you, Yahweh, for you have raised me up,

and have not made my foes to rejoice over me.

2 Yahweh my God, I cried to you, and you have healed me.

3 Yahweh, you have brought up my soul from Sheol. §§

You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.

4 Sing praise to Yahweh, you saints of his.

Give thanks to his holy name.

5 For his anger is but for a moment.

His favor is for a lifetime.

Weeping may stay for the night,

but joy comes in the morning.

6 As for me, I said in my prosperity,

"I shall never be moved."

7 You, Yahweh, when you favored me, made my mountain stand strong;

but when you hid your face, I was troubled.

8 I cried to you, Yahweh.

I made supplication to the Lord:

9 "What profit is there in my destruction, if I go down to the pit?"

§§30:3 Sheol is the place of the dead.

Shall the dust praise you?
 Shall it declare your truth?
 10 Hear, Yahweh, and have mercy on me.
 Yahweh, be my helper.”
 11 You have turned my mourning into dancing for me.
 You have removed my sackcloth, and clothed me with gladness, 12 to the end that my heart may sing praise to you, and not be silent.
 Yahweh my God, I will give thanks to you forever!

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

31 In you, Yahweh, I take refuge.
 Let me never be disappointed.
 Deliver me in your righteousness.
 2 Bow down your ear to me.
 Deliver me speedily.
 Be to me a strong rock,
 a house of defense to save me.
 3 For you are my rock and my fortress, therefore for your name's sake lead me and guide me.
 4 Pluck me out of the net that they have laid secretly for me,
 for you are my stronghold.
 5 Into your hand I commend my spirit.
 You redeem me, Yahweh, God of truth.
 6 I hate those who regard lying vanities,
 but I trust in Yahweh.
 7 I will be glad and rejoice in your loving kindness,
 for you have seen my affliction.
 You have known my soul in adversities.
 8 You have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy.
 You have set my feet in a large place.
 9 Have mercy on me, Yahweh, for I am in distress.
 My eye, my soul, and my body waste away with grief.
 10 For my life is spent with sorrow,
 my years with sighing.

My strength fails because of my iniquity.
 My bones are wasted away.
 11 Because of all my adversaries I have become utterly contemptible to my neighbors,
 a horror to my acquaintances.
 Those who saw me on the street fled from me.
 12 I am forgotten from their hearts like a dead
 man.
 I am like broken pottery.
 13 For I have heard the slander of many, terror on every side,
 while they conspire together against me,
 they plot to take away my life.
 14 But I trust in you, Yahweh.
 I said, “You are my God.”
 15 My times are in your hand.
 Deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.
 16 Make your face to shine on your servant.
 Save me in your loving kindness.
 17 Let me not be disappointed, Yahweh, for I have called on you.
 Let the wicked be disappointed.
 Let them be silent in Sheol.*
 18 Let the lying lips be mute, which speak against the righteous insolently, with pride and contempt.
 19 Oh how great is your goodness, which you have laid up for those who fear you,
 which you have worked for those who take refuge in you,
 before the sons of men!
 20 In the shelter of your presence you will hide them from the plotting of man.
 You will keep them secretly in a dwelling away from the strife of tongues.
 21 Praise be to Yahweh, for he has shown me his marvelous loving kindness in a strong city.
 22 As for me, I said in my haste, “I am cut off from before your eyes.”
 Nevertheless you heard the voice of my petitions when I cried to you.

*31:17 Sheol is the place of the dead.

23 Oh love Yahweh, all you his saints!
 Yahweh preserves the faithful, and fully recompenses him who behaves arrogantly.
 24 Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who hope in Yahweh.

By David. A contemplative psalm.

32 Blessed is he whose disobedience is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man to whom Yahweh doesn't impute iniquity,
 in whose spirit there is no deceit.

3 When I kept silence, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long.

4 For day and night your hand was heavy on
 me.

My strength was sapped in the heat of summer. Selah.

5 I acknowledged my sin to you.

I didn't hide my iniquity.

I said, I will confess my transgressions to Yahweh,

and you forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

6 For this, let everyone who is godly pray to you in a time when you may be found.

Surely when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach to him.

7 You are my hiding place.

You will preserve me from trouble.

You will surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah.

8 I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you shall go.

I will counsel you with my eye on you.

9 Don't be like the horse, or like the mule, which have no understanding,

who are controlled by bit and bridle, or else
 they will not come near to you.

10 Many sorrows come to the wicked, but loving kindness shall surround him who trusts in Yahweh.

11 Be glad in Yahweh, and rejoice, you righteous!

Shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart!

Rejoice in Yahweh, you righteous!
33 Praise is fitting for the upright.

2 Give thanks to Yahweh with the lyre.

Sing praises to him with the harp of ten strings.

3 Sing to him a new song.

Play skillfully with a shout of joy!

4 For Yahweh's word is right.

All his work is done in faithfulness.

5 He loves righteousness and justice.

The earth is full of the loving kindness of Yahweh.

6 By Yahweh's word, the heavens were made:
 all their army by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathers the waters of the sea together as a heap.

He lays up the deeps in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear Yahweh.

Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9 For he spoke, and it was done.

He commanded, and it stood firm.

10 Yahweh brings the counsel of the nations to nothing.

He makes the thoughts of the peoples to be of no effect.

11 The counsel of Yahweh stands fast forever,
 the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

12 Blessed is the nation whose God is Yahweh, the people whom he has chosen for his own inheritance.

13 Yahweh looks from heaven.

He sees all the sons of men.

14 From the place of his habitation he looks out on all the inhabitants of the earth,

15 he who fashions all of their hearts;

and he considers all of their works.

16 There is no king saved by the multitude of an army.

A mighty man is not delivered by great strength.

17 A horse is a vain thing for safety,

neither does he deliver any by his great power.

18 Behold, Yahweh's eye is on those who fear
 him,

on those who hope in his loving kindness,

19 to deliver their soul from death,
to keep them alive in famine.
20 Our soul has waited for Yahweh.
He is our help and our shield.
21 For our heart rejoices in him,
because we have trusted in his holy name.
22 Let your loving kindness be on us, Yahweh, since we have hoped in you.

By David; when he pretended to be insane before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

34 †I will bless Yahweh at all times.
His praise will always be in my mouth.
2 My soul shall boast in Yahweh.
The humble shall hear of it and be glad.
3 Oh magnify Yahweh with me.
Let's exalt his name together.
4 I sought Yahweh, and he answered me,
and delivered me from all my fears.
5 They looked to him, and were radiant.
Their faces shall never be covered with shame.
6 This poor man cried, and Yahweh heard him,
and saved him out of all his troubles.
7 Yahweh's angel encamps around those who fear him,
and delivers them.
8 Oh taste and see that Yahweh is good.
Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him.
9 Oh fear Yahweh, you his saints, for there is no lack with those who fear him.
10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger, but those who seek Yahweh shall not lack any good thing.
11 Come, you children, listen to me.
I will teach you the fear of Yahweh.
12 Who is someone who desires life,
and loves many days, that he may see good?
13 Keep your tongue from evil,
and your lips from speaking lies.
14 Depart from evil, and do good.
Seek peace, and pursue it.
15 Yahweh's eyes are toward the righteous.

His ears listen to their cry.
16 Yahweh's face is against those who do evil,
to cut off their memory from the earth.
17 The righteous cry, and Yahweh hears,
and delivers them out of all their troubles.
18 Yahweh is near to those who have a broken heart,
and saves those who have a crushed spirit.
19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous,
but Yahweh delivers him out of them all.
20 He protects all of his bones.
Not one of them is broken.
21 Evil shall kill the wicked.
Those who hate the righteous shall be condemned.
22 Yahweh redeems the soul of his servants.
None of those who take refuge in him shall be condemned.

By David.

35 Contend, Yahweh, with those who contend with me.
Fight against those who fight against me.
2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for my help.
3 Brandish the spear and block those who pursue me.
Tell my soul, "I am your salvation."
4 Let those who seek after my soul be disappointed and brought to dishonor.
Let those who plot my ruin be turned back and confounded.
5 Let them be as chaff before the wind, Yahweh's angel driving them on.
6 Let their way be dark and slippery,
Yahweh's angel pursuing them.
7 For without cause they have hidden their net
in a pit for me.
Without cause they have dug a pit for my soul.
8 Let destruction come on him unawares.
Let his net that he has hidden catch himself.
Let him fall into that destruction.
9 My soul shall be joyful in Yahweh.

†34:1 Psalm 34 is an acrostic poem, with each verse starting with a letter of the alphabet (ordered from Alef to Tav).

It shall rejoice in his salvation.

¹⁰ All my bones shall say, "Yahweh, who is like you, who delivers the poor from him who is too strong for him;

yes, the poor and the needy from him who robs him?"

¹¹ Unrighteous witnesses rise up.

They ask me about things that I don't know about.

¹² They reward me evil for good, to the bereaving of my soul.

¹³ But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth.

I afflicted my soul with fasting.

My prayer returned into my own bosom.

¹⁴ I behaved myself as though it had been my friend or my brother.

I bowed down mourning, as one who mourns his mother.

¹⁵ But in my adversity, they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together.

The attackers gathered themselves together against me, and I didn't know it.

They tore at me, and didn't cease.

¹⁶ Like the profane mockers in feasts, they gnashed their teeth at me.

¹⁷ Lord, how long will you look on?

Rescue my soul from their destruction, my precious life from the lions.

¹⁸ I will give you thanks in the great assembly.

I will praise you among many people.

¹⁹ Don't let those who are my enemies wrongfully rejoice over me;

neither let those who hate me without a cause wink their eyes.

²⁰ For they don't speak peace,

but they devise deceitful words against those who are quiet in the land.

²¹ Yes, they opened their mouth wide against me.

They said, "Aha! Aha! Our eye has seen it!"

²² You have seen it, Yahweh. Don't keep silent.

Lord, don't be far from me.

²³ Wake up! Rise up to defend me, my God!

My Lord, contend for me!

²⁴ Vindicate me, Yahweh my God, according to your righteousness.

Don't let them gloat over me.

²⁵ Don't let them say in their heart, "Aha! That's the way we want it!"

Don't let them say, "We have swallowed him up!"

²⁶ Let them be disappointed and confounded together who rejoice at my calamity.

Let them be clothed with shame and dishonor who magnify themselves against me.

²⁷ Let those who favor my righteous cause shout for joy and be glad.

Yes, let them say continually, "May Yahweh be magnified, who has pleasure in the prosperity of his servant!"

²⁸ My tongue shall talk about your righteousness and about your praise all day long.

For the Chief Musician. By David,
the servant of Yahweh.

36 A revelation is within my heart about the disobedience of the wicked:

"There is no fear of God before his eyes."

² For he flatters himself in his own eyes, too much to detect and hate his sin.

³ The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit.

He has ceased to be wise and to do good.

⁴ He plots iniquity on his bed.

He sets himself in a way that is not good.

He doesn't abhor evil.

⁵ Your loving kindness, Yahweh, is in the heavens.

Your faithfulness reaches to the skies.

⁶ Your righteousness is like the mountains of God.

Your judgments are like a great deep.

Yahweh, you preserve man and animal.

⁷ How precious is your loving kindness, God!

The children of men take refuge under the shadow of your wings.

⁸ They shall be abundantly satisfied with the abundance of your house.

You will make them drink of the river of your pleasures.

⁹For with you is the spring of life.

In your light we will see light.

¹⁰Oh continue your loving kindness to those who know you, your righteousness to the upright in heart.

¹¹Don't let the foot of pride come against me.

Don't let the hand of the wicked drive me away.

¹²There are workers of iniquity are fallen.

They are thrust down, and shall not be able to rise.

By David.

37 Don't fret because of evildoers, neither be envious against those who work unrighteousness.

²For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither like the green herb.

³Trust in Yahweh, and do good.

Dwell in the land, and enjoy safe pasture.

⁴Also delight yourself in Yahweh, and he will give you the desires of your heart.

⁵Commit your way to Yahweh.

Trust also in him, and he will do this:

⁶he will make your righteousness shine out like light, and your justice as the noon day sun.

⁷Rest in Yahweh, and wait patiently for him.

Don't fret because of him who prospers in his way,

because of the man who makes wicked plots happen.

⁸Cease from anger, and forsake wrath.

Don't fret; it leads only to evildoing.

⁹For evildoers shall be cut off,

but those who wait for Yahweh shall inherit the land.

¹⁰For yet a little while, and the wicked will be no more.

Yes, though you look for his place, he isn't there.

¹¹But the humble shall inherit the land, and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

¹²The wicked plots against the just, and gnashes at him with his teeth.

¹³The Lord will laugh at him, for he sees that his day is coming.

¹⁴The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, to kill those who are upright on the path.

¹⁵Their sword shall enter into their own heart. Their bows shall be broken.

¹⁶Better is a little that the righteous has, than the abundance of many wicked.

¹⁷For the arms of the wicked shall be broken, but Yahweh upholds the righteous.

¹⁸Yahweh knows the days of the perfect.

Their inheritance shall be forever.

¹⁹They shall not be disappointed in the time of evil.

In the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

²⁰But the wicked shall perish.

The enemies of Yahweh shall be like the beauty of the fields.

They will vanish—vanish like smoke.

²¹The wicked borrow, and don't pay back, but the righteous give generously.

²²For such as are blessed by him shall inherit the land.

Those who are cursed by him shall be cut off.

²³A man's steps are established by Yahweh. He delights in his way.

²⁴Though he stumble, he shall not fall, for Yahweh holds him up with his hand.

²⁵I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his children begging for bread.

²⁶All day long he deals graciously, and lends. His offspring is blessed.

²⁷Depart from evil, and do good. Live securely forever.

²⁸For Yahweh loves justice, and doesn't forsake his saints.

They are preserved forever, but the children of the wicked shall be cut off.

29 The righteous shall inherit the land,
and live in it forever.

30 The mouth of the righteous talks of wisdom.
His tongue speaks justice.

31 The law of his God is in his heart.
None of his steps shall slide.

32 The wicked watch the righteous, and seek to kill him.

33 Yahweh will not leave him in his hand,
nor condemn him when he is judged.

34 Wait for Yahweh, and keep his way,
and he will exalt you to inherit the land.
When the wicked are cut off, you shall see it.

35 I have seen the wicked in great power, spreading himself like a green tree in its native soil.

36 But he passed away, and behold, he was not.
Yes, I sought him, but he could not be found.

37 Mark the perfect man, and see the upright, for there is a future for the man of peace.

38 As for transgressors, they shall be destroyed together.
The future of the wicked shall be cut off.

39 But the salvation of the righteous is from Yahweh.
He is their stronghold in the time of trouble.

40 Yahweh helps them and rescues them.
He rescues them from the wicked and saves
them,
because they have taken refuge in him.

A Psalm by David, for a memorial.

38 Yahweh, don't rebuke me in your wrath, neither chasten me in your hot displeasure.

2 For your arrows have pierced me, your hand presses hard on me.

3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation, neither is there any health in my bones because of my sin.

4 For my iniquities have gone over my head.
As a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me.

5 My wounds are loathsome and corrupt because of my foolishness.

6 I am in pain and bowed down greatly.
I go mourning all day long.

7 For my waist is filled with burning.
There is no soundness in my flesh.

8 I am faint and severely bruised.
I have groaned by reason of the anguish of my heart.

9 Lord, all my desire is before you.
My groaning is not hidden from you.

10 My heart throbs.
My strength fails me.
As for the light of my eyes, it has also left me.

11 My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my plague.
My kinsmen stand far away.

12 They also who seek after my life lay snares.
Those who seek my hurt speak mischievous
things,
and meditate deceits all day long.

13 But I, as a deaf man, don't hear.
I am as a mute man who doesn't open his mouth.

14 Yes, I am as a man who doesn't hear,
in whose mouth are no reproofs.

15 For I hope in you, Yahweh.
You will answer, Lord my God.

16 For I said, "Don't let them gloat over me, or exalt themselves over me when my foot slips."

17 For I am ready to fall.
My pain is continually before me.

18 For I will declare my iniquity.
I will be sorry for my sin.

19 But my enemies are vigorous and many.
Those who hate me without reason are numerous.

20 They who render evil for good are also adversaries to me, because I follow what is good.

21 Don't forsake me, Yahweh.
My God, don't be far from me.

22 Hurry to help me,
Lord, my salvation.

For the Chief Musician.

For Jeduthun. A Psalm by David.

39 I said, "I will watch my ways, so that I don't sin with my tongue.
I will keep my mouth with a bridle while the wicked is before me."
2 I was mute with silence.
I held my peace, even from good.
My sorrow was stirred.
3 My heart was hot within me.
While I meditated, the fire burned.
I spoke with my tongue:
4 "Yahweh, show me my end,
what is the measure of my days.
Let me know how frail I am.
5 Behold, you have made my days hand widths.
My lifetime is as nothing before you.
Surely every man stands as a breath." Selah.
6 "Surely every man walks like a shadow.
Surely they busy themselves in vain.
He heaps up, and doesn't know who shall gather.
7 Now, Lord, what do I wait for?
My hope is in you.
8 Deliver me from all my transgressions.
Don't make me the reproach of the foolish.
9 I was mute.
I didn't open my mouth,
because you did it.
10 Remove your scourge away from me.
I am overcome by the blow of your hand.
11 When you rebuke and correct man for iniquity, you consume his wealth like a moth.
Surely every man is but a breath." Selah.
12 "Hear my prayer, Yahweh, and give ear to my cry.
Don't be silent at my tears.
For I am a stranger with you,
a foreigner, as all my fathers were.
13 Oh spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go away and exist no more."

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

40 I waited patiently for Yahweh.
He turned to me, and heard my cry.
2 He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay.
He set my feet on a rock,
and gave me a firm place to stand.
3 He has put a new song in my mouth, even praise to our God.
Many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in Yahweh.
4 Blessed is the man who makes Yahweh his trust,
and doesn't respect the proud, nor such as turn away to lies.
5 Many, Yahweh, my God, are the wonderful works which you have done, and your thoughts which are toward us.
They can't be declared back to you.
If I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be counted.
6 Sacrifice and offering you didn't desire.
You have opened my ears.
You have not required burnt offering and sin offering.
7 Then I said, "Behold, I have come.
It is written about me in the book in the scroll.
8 I delight to do your will, my God.
Yes, your law is within my heart."
9 I have proclaimed glad news of righteousness in the great assembly.
Behold, I will not seal my lips, Yahweh, you know.
10 I have not hidden your righteousness within my heart.
I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation.
I have not concealed your loving kindness and your truth from the great assembly.
11 Don't withhold your tender mercies from me, Yahweh.
Let your loving kindness and your truth continually preserve me.
12 For innumerable evils have surrounded me.

My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up.

They are more than the hairs of my head.

My heart has failed me.

¹³ Be pleased, Yahweh, to deliver me.

Hurry to help me, Yahweh.

¹⁴ Let them be disappointed and confounded together who seek after my soul to destroy it.

Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonor who delight in my hurt.

¹⁵ Let them be desolate by reason of their shame that tell me, "Aha! Aha!"

¹⁶ Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you.

Let such as love your salvation say continually,
"Let Yahweh be exalted!"

¹⁷ But I am poor and needy.

May the Lord think about me.

You are my help and my deliverer.

Don't delay, my God.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

41 Blessed is he who considers the poor.
Yahweh will deliver him in the day of evil.

² Yahweh will preserve him, and keep him alive.

He shall be blessed on the earth, and he will not surrender him to the will of his enemies.

³ Yahweh will sustain him on his sickbed, and restore him from his bed of illness.

⁴ I said, "Yahweh, have mercy on me!
Heal me, for I have sinned against you."

⁵ My enemies speak evil against me:
"When will he die, and his name perish?"

⁶ If he comes to see me, he speaks falsehood.
His heart gathers iniquity to itself.

When he goes abroad, he tells it.

⁷ All who hate me whisper together against
me.

They imagine the worst for me.

⁸ "An evil disease", they say, "has afflicted
him.

Now that he lies he shall rise up no more."

⁹ Yes, my own familiar friend, in whom I trusted,

who ate bread with me,

has lifted up his heel against me.

¹⁰ But you, Yahweh, have mercy on me, and raise me up,

that I may repay them.

¹¹ By this I know that you delight in me, because my enemy doesn't triumph over me.

¹² As for me, you uphold me in my integrity, and set me in your presence forever.

¹³ Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, from everlasting and to everlasting!

Amen and amen.

BOOK 2

For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by the sons of Korah.

42 As the deer pants for the water brooks, so my soul pants after you, God.‡

² My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.
When shall I come and appear before God?

³ My tears have been my food day and night, while they continually ask me, "Where is your God?"

⁴ These things I remember, and pour out my soul within me,

how I used to go with the crowd, and led them to God's house,

with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping a holy day.

⁵ Why are you in despair, my soul?

Why are you disturbed within me?

Hope in God!

For I shall still praise him for the saving help of his presence.

⁶ My God, my soul is in despair within me.
Therefore I remember you from the land of the Jordan,

the heights of Hermon, from the hill Mizar.

‡42:1 The Hebrew word rendered "God" is "ֵלֹהִים" (Elohim).

7 Deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls.

All your waves and your billows have swept over me.

8 Yahweh¹ will command his loving kindness in the daytime.

In the night his song shall be with me: a prayer to the God of my life.

9 I will ask God, my rock, "Why have you forgotten me?"

Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?"

10 As with a sword in my bones, my adversaries reproach me, while they continually ask me, "Where is your God?"

11 Why are you in despair, my soul?

Why are you disturbed within me?

Hope in God! For I shall still praise him, the saving help of my countenance, and my God.

43 Vindicate me, God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation.

Oh, deliver me from deceitful and wicked men.

2 For you are the God of my strength. Why have you rejected me?

Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

3 Oh, send out your light and your truth.

Let them lead me.

Let them bring me to your holy hill, to your tents.

4 Then I will go to the altar of God, to God, my exceeding joy.

I will praise you on the harp, God, my God.

5 Why are you in despair, my soul?

Why are you disturbed within me?

Hope in God!

For I shall still praise him:

my Savior, my helper, and my God.

For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Korah. A contemplative psalm.

44 We have heard with our ears, God; our fathers have told us what work you did in their days, in the days of old.

2 You drove out the nations with your hand, but you planted them.

You afflicted the peoples, but you spread them abroad.

3 For they didn't get the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them;

but your right hand, your arm, and the light of your face, because you were favorable to them.

4 You are my King, God.

Command victories for Jacob!

5 Through you, will we push down our adversaries.

Through your name, we will tread down those who rise up against us.

6 For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.

7 But you have saved us from our adversaries, and have shamed those who hate us.

8 In God we have made our boast all day long, we will give thanks to your name forever. Selah.

9 But now you rejected us, and brought us to dishonor, and don't go out with our armies.

10 You make us turn back from the adversary. Those who hate us take plunder for themselves.

11 You have made us like sheep for food, and have scattered us among the nations.

12 You sell your people for nothing, and have gained nothing from their sale.

13 You make us a reproach to our neighbors, a scoffing and a derision to those who are around us.

¹42:8 "Yahweh" is God's proper Name, sometimes rendered "LORD" (all caps) in other translations.

14 You make us a byword among the nations,
 a shaking of the head among the peoples.
 15 All day long my dishonor is before me,
 and shame covers my face, 16 at the taunt of one who reproaches and verbally abuses,
 because of the enemy and the avenger.
 17 All this has come on us,
 yet we haven't forgotten you.
 We haven't been false to your covenant.
 18 Our heart has not turned back,
 neither have our steps strayed from your path, 19 though you have crushed us in the haunt of jackals,
 and covered us with the shadow of death.
 20 If we have forgotten the name of our God, or spread out our hands to a strange god, 21 won't God search this out?
 For he knows the secrets of the heart.
 22 Yes, for your sake we are killed all day long.
 We are regarded as sheep for the slaughter.
 23 Wake up!
 Why do you sleep, Lord?^s Arise!
 Don't reject us forever.
 24 Why do you hide your face, and forget our affliction and our oppression?
 25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust.
 Our body clings to the earth.
 26 Rise up to help us.
 Redeem us for your loving kindness' sake.

For the Chief Musician. Set to "The Lilies." A contemplation by the sons of Korah. A wedding song.

45 My heart overflows with a noble theme.
 I recite my verses for the king.
 My tongue is like the pen of a skillful writer.
 2 You are the most excellent of the sons of men.
 Grace has anointed your lips,
 therefore God has blessed you forever.
 3 Strap your sword on your thigh, mighty one:
 your splendor and your majesty.

4 In your majesty ride on victoriously on behalf of truth, humility, and righteousness.
 Let your right hand display awesome deeds.
 5 Your arrows are sharp.
 The nations fall under you, with arrows in the heart of the king's enemies.
 6 Your throne, God, is forever and ever.
 A scepter of equity is the scepter of your kingdom.
 7 You have loved righteousness, and hated wickedness.
 Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows.
 8 All your garments smell like myrrh, aloes, and cassia.
 Out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made you glad.
 9 Kings' daughters are among your honorable women.
 At your right hand the queen stands in gold of Ophir.
 10 Listen, daughter, consider, and turn your ear.
 Forget your own people, and also your father's house.
 11 So the king will desire your beauty, honor him, for he is your lord.
 12 The daughter of Tyre comes with a gift.
 The rich among the people entreat your favor.
 13 The princess inside is all glorious.
 Her clothing is interwoven with gold.
 14 She shall be led to the king in embroidered work.
 The virgins, her companions who follow her,
 shall be brought to you.
 15 With gladness and rejoicing they shall be led.
 They shall enter into the king's palace.
 16 Your sons will take the place of your fathers.
 You shall make them princes in all the earth.
 17 I will make your name to be remembered in all generations.

^s44:23 The word translated "Lord" is "Adonai."

Therefore the peoples shall give you thanks forever and ever.

For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Korah. According to Alamothe. **

46 God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.
2 Therefore we won't be afraid, though the earth changes,
though the mountains are shaken into the heart of the seas;
3 though its waters roar and are troubled, though the mountains tremble with their swelling. Selah.
4 There is a river, the streams of which make the city of God glad,
the holy place of the tents of the Most High.
5 God is within her. She shall not be moved.
God will help her at dawn.
6 The nations raged. The kingdoms were moved.
He lifted his voice and the earth melted.
7 Yahweh of Armies is with us.
The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.
8 Come, see Yahweh's works,
what desolations he has made in the earth.
9 He makes wars cease to the end of the earth.
He breaks the bow, and shatters the spear.
He burns the chariots in the fire.
10 "Be still, and know that I am God.
I will be exalted among the nations.
I will be exalted in the earth."
11 Yahweh of Armies is with us.
The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

For the Chief Musician.
A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

47 Oh clap your hands, all you nations.
Shout to God with the voice of triumph!
2 For Yahweh Most High is awesome.
He is a great King over all the earth.
3 He subdues nations under us,
and peoples under our feet.
4 He chooses our inheritance for us,

the glory of Jacob whom he loved. Selah.
5 God has gone up with a shout,
Yahweh with the sound of a trumpet.
6 Sing praises to God! Sing praises!
Sing praises to our King! Sing praises!
7 For God is the King of all the earth.
Sing praises with understanding.
8 God reigns over the nations.
God sits on his holy throne.
9 The princes of the peoples are gathered together,
the people of the God of Abraham.
For the shields of the earth belong to God.
He is greatly exalted!

A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

48 Great is Yahweh, and greatly to be praised,
in the city of our God, in his holy mountain.
2 Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole
earth,
is Mount Zion, on the north sides,
the city of the great King.
3 God has shown himself in her citadels as a refuge.
4 For, behold, the kings assembled themselves,
they passed by together.
5 They saw it, then they were amazed.
They were dismayed.
They hurried away.
6 Trembling took hold of them there, pain, as of a woman in travail.
7 With the east wind, you break the ships of Tarshish.
8 As we have heard, so we have seen, in the city of Yahweh of Armies, in the city of our God.
God will establish it forever. Selah.
9 We have thought about your loving kindness,
God,
in the middle of your temple.
10 As is your name, God,
so is your praise to the ends of the earth.

46:0 Alamothe is a musical term.

Your right hand is full of righteousness.

¹¹ Let Mount Zion be glad!

Let the daughters of Judah rejoice because of your judgments.

¹² Walk about Zion, and go around her.

Number its towers.

¹³ Notice her bulwarks.

Consider her palaces,

that you may tell it to the next generation.

¹⁴ For this God is our God forever and ever.

He will be our guide even to death.

For the Chief Musician.

49 Hear this, all you peoples.

² both low and high,

rich and poor together.

³ My mouth will speak words of wisdom.

My heart will utter understanding.

⁴ I will incline my ear to a proverb.

I will solve my riddle on the harp.

⁵ Why should I fear in the days of evil,
when iniquity at my heels surrounds me?

⁶ Those who trust in their wealth,

and boast in the multitude of their riches—

⁷ none of them can by any means redeem his brother,

nor give God a ransom for him.

⁸ For the redemption of their life is costly,

no payment is ever enough,

⁹ that he should live on forever,

that he should not see corruption.

¹⁰ For he sees that wise men die;

likewise the fool and the senseless perish,

and leave their wealth to others.

¹¹ Their inward thought is that their houses will endure forever,

and their dwelling places to all generations.

They name their lands after themselves.

¹² But man, despite his riches, doesn't endure.

He is like the animals that perish.

¹³ This is the destiny of those who are foolish, and of those who approve their sayings. Selah.

¹⁴ They are appointed as a flock for Sheol.^{††}

Death shall be their shepherd.

The upright shall have dominion over them in the morning.

Their beauty shall decay in Sheol,^{‡‡}

far from their mansion.

¹⁵ But God will redeem my soul from the power of Sheol,^{¶¶}

for he will receive me. Selah.

¹⁶ Don't be afraid when a man is made rich,

when the glory of his house is increased;

¹⁷ for when he dies he will carry nothing away.

His glory won't descend after him.

¹⁸ Though while he lived he blessed his soul—and men praise you when you do well for yourself—

¹⁹ he shall go to the generation of his fathers.

They shall never see the light.

²⁰ A man who has riches without understanding,

is like the animals that perish.

A Psalm by Asaph.

50 The Mighty One, God, Yahweh, speaks, and calls the earth from sunrise to sunset.

² Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,

God shines out.

³ Our God comes, and does not keep silent.

A fire devours before him.

It is very stormy around him.

⁴ He calls to the heavens above,

to the earth, that he may judge his people:

⁵ "Gather my saints together to me, those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice."

⁶ The heavens shall declare his righteousness, for God himself is judge. Selah.

⁷ "Hear, my people, and I will speak.

Israel, I will testify against you.

^{††}49:14 Sheol is the place of the dead.

^{‡‡}49:14 Sheol is the place of the dead.

^{¶¶}49:15 Sheol is the place of the dead.

I am God, your God.

8 I don't rebuke you for your sacrifices.
Your burnt offerings are continually before me.

9 I have no need for a bull from your stall, nor male goats from your pens.

10 For every animal of the forest is mine,
and the livestock on a thousand hills.

11 I know all the birds of the mountains.
The wild animals of the field are mine.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the world is mine, and all that is in it.

13 Will I eat the meat of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

14 Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving.
Pay your vows to the Most High.

15 Call on me in the day of trouble.
I will deliver you, and you will honor me."

16 But to the wicked God says,
"What right do you have to declare my statutes,

that you have taken my covenant on your lips, 17 since you hate instruction, and throw my words behind you?

18 When you saw a thief, you consented with him,
and have participated with adulterers.

19 "You give your mouth to evil.
Your tongue frames deceit.

20 You sit and speak against your brother.
You slander your own mother's son.

21 You have done these things, and I kept silent.

You thought that I was just like you.
I will rebuke you, and accuse you in front of your eyes.

22 "Now consider this, you who forget God, lest I tear you into pieces, and there be no one to deliver.

23 Whoever offers the sacrifice of thanksgiving glorifies me, and prepares his way so that I will show God's salvation to him."

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David,
when Nathan the prophet came to him,
after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

51 Have mercy on me, God, according to your loving kindness.

According to the multitude of your tender mercies, blot out my transgressions.

2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity.
Cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I know my transgressions.
My sin is constantly before me.

4 Against you, and you only, I have sinned,
and done that which is evil in your sight,
so you may be proved right when you speak,
and justified when you judge.

5 Behold, I was born in iniquity.
My mother conceived me in sin.

6 Behold, you desire truth in the inward parts.
You teach me wisdom in the inmost place.

7 Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean.
Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

8 Let me hear joy and gladness, that the bones which you have broken may rejoice.

9 Hide your face from my sins,
and blot out all of my iniquities.

10 Create in me a clean heart, O God.
Renew a right spirit within me.

11 Don't throw me from your presence, and don't take your Holy Spirit from me.

12 Restore to me the joy of your salvation.
Uphold me with a willing spirit.

13 Then I will teach transgressors your ways.
Sinners will be converted to you.

14 Deliver me from the guilt of bloodshed, O God, the God of my salvation.
My tongue will sing aloud of your righteousness.

15 Lord, open my lips.
My mouth will declare your praise.

16 For you don't delight in sacrifice, or else I would give it.

You have no pleasure in burnt offering.

17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit.

O God, you will not despise a broken and contrite heart.

¹⁸ Do well in your good pleasure to Zion.

Build the walls of Jerusalem.

¹⁹ Then you will delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, in burnt offerings and in whole burnt offerings.

Then they will offer bulls on your altar.

For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, "David has come to Ahimelech's house."

52 Why do you boast of mischief, mighty man?

God's loving kindness endures continually.

² Your tongue plots destruction, like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

³ You love evil more than good, lying rather than speaking the truth. Selah.

⁴ You love all devouring words, you deceitful tongue.

⁵ God will likewise destroy you forever.

He will take you up, and pluck you out of your tent, and root you out of the land of the living. Selah.

⁶ The righteous also will see it, and fear, and laugh at him, saying,

⁷ "Behold, this is the man who didn't make God his strength, but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness."

⁸ But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in God's house.

I trust in God's loving kindness forever and ever.

⁹ I will give you thanks forever, because you have done it.

I will hope in your name, for it is good, in the presence of your saints.

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Mahalath." A contemplation by David.

53 The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God."

They are corrupt, and have done abominable iniquity.

There is no one who does good.

² God looks down from heaven on the children of men, to see if there are any who understood, who seek after God.

³ Every one of them has gone back.

They have become filthy together.

There is no one who does good, no, not one.

⁴ Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge, who eat up my people as they eat bread, and don't call on God?

⁵ There they were in great fear, where no fear was,

for God has scattered the bones of him who encamps against you.

You have put them to shame,

because God has rejected them.

⁶ Oh that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!

When God brings back his people from captivity,

then Jacob shall rejoice,

and Israel shall be glad.

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A contemplation by David, when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, "Isn't David hiding himself among us?"

54 Save me, God, by your name.

Vindicate me in your might.

² Hear my prayer, God.

Listen to the words of my mouth.

³ For strangers have risen up against me.

Violent men have sought after my soul.

They haven't set God before them. Selah.

⁴ Behold, God is my helper.

The Lord is the one who sustains my soul.

⁵ He will repay the evil to my enemies.

Destroy them in your truth.

⁶ With a free will offering, I will sacrifice to you.

I will give thanks to your name, Yahweh, for it is good.

⁷ For he has delivered me out of all trouble.

My eye has seen triumph over my enemies.

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A contemplation by David.

55 Listen to my prayer, God.
Don't hide yourself from my supplication.

² Attend to me, and answer me.
I am restless in my complaint,
and moan ³ because of the voice of the enemy,
because of the oppression of the wicked.

For they bring suffering on me.
In anger they hold a grudge against me.

⁴ My heart is severely pained within me.
The terrors of death have fallen on me.

⁵ Fearfulness and trembling have come on me.
Horror has overwhelmed me.

⁶ I said, "Oh that I had wings like a dove!
Then I would fly away, and be at rest.

⁷ Behold, then I would wander far off.
I would lodge in the wilderness." Selah.

⁸ "I would hurry to a shelter from the stormy wind and storm."

⁹ Confuse them, Lord, and confound their language,

for I have seen violence and strife in the city.
¹⁰ Day and night they prowl around on its walls.

Malice and abuse are also within her.

¹¹ Destructive forces are within her.
Threats and lies don't depart from her streets.

¹² For it was not an enemy who insulted me,
then I could have endured it.

Neither was it he who hated me who raised himself up against me,

then I would have hidden myself from him.

¹³ But it was you, a man like me,
my companion, and my familiar friend.

¹⁴ We took sweet fellowship together.
We walked in God's house with company.

¹⁵ Let death come suddenly on them.

Let them go down alive into Sheol. §§

For wickedness is among them, in their dwelling.

¹⁶ As for me, I will call on God.
Yahweh will save me.

¹⁷ Evening, morning, and at noon, I will cry out in distress.

He will hear my voice.

¹⁸ He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle that was against me,

although there are many who oppose me.

¹⁹ God, who is enthroned forever, will hear and answer them. Selah.

They never change,
who don't fear God.

²⁰ He raises his hands against his friends.

He has violated his covenant.

²¹ His mouth was smooth as butter,
but his heart was war.

His words were softer than oil,
yet they were drawn swords.

²² Cast your burden on Yahweh and he will sustain you.

He will never allow the righteous to be moved.

²³ But you, God, will bring them down into the pit of destruction.

Bloodthirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days,

but I will trust in you.

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Silent Dove in Distant Lands." A poem by David, when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

56 Be merciful to me, God, for man wants to swallow me up.

All day long, he attacks and oppresses me.

² My enemies want to swallow me up all day long,

for they are many who fight proudly against
me.

³ When I am afraid,
I will put my trust in you.

⁴ In God, I praise his word.

In God, I put my trust.

I will not be afraid.

What can flesh do to me?

⁵ All day long they twist my words.

§§55:15 Sheol is the place of the dead.

All their thoughts are against me for evil.

6 They conspire and lurk, watching my steps.

They are eager to take my life.

7 Shall they escape by iniquity?

In anger cast down the peoples, God.

8 You count my wanderings.

You put my tears into your container.

Aren't they in your book?

9 Then my enemies shall turn back in the day that I call.

I know this: that God is for me.

10 In God, I will praise his word.

In Yahweh, I will praise his word.

11 I have put my trust in God.

I will not be afraid.

What can man do to me?

12 Your vows are on me, God.

I will give thank offerings to you.

13 For you have delivered my soul from death,
and prevented my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living.

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David, when he fled from Saul, in the cave.

57 Be merciful to me, God, be merciful to
me,

for my soul takes refuge in you.

Yes, in the shadow of your wings, I will take refuge,

until disaster has passed.

2 I cry out to God Most High,

to God who accomplishes my requests for me.

3 He will send from heaven, and save me,
he rebukes the one who is pursuing me. Selah.

God will send out his loving kindness and his truth.

4 My soul is among lions.

I lie among those who are set on fire,

even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows,

and their tongue a sharp sword.

5 Be exalted, God, above the heavens!

Let your glory be above all the earth!

6 They have prepared a net for my steps.

My soul is bowed down.

They dig a pit before me.

They fall into the middle of it themselves.

Selah.

7 My heart is steadfast, God.

My heart is steadfast.

I will sing, yes, I will sing praises.

8 Wake up, my glory! Wake up, lute and harp!

I will wake up the dawn.

9 I will give thanks to you, Lord, among the peoples.

I will sing praises to you among the nations.

10 For your great loving kindness reaches to
the heavens,

and your truth to the skies.

11 Be exalted, God, above the heavens.

Let your glory be over all the earth.

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do
Not Destroy." A poem by David.

58 Do you indeed speak righteousness, silent ones?

Do you judge blamelessly, you sons of men?

2 No, in your heart you plot injustice.

You measure out the violence of your hands in the earth.

3 The wicked go astray from the womb.

They are wayward as soon as they are born,
speaking lies.

4 Their poison is like the poison of a snake,
like a deaf cobra that stops its ear,

5 which doesn't listen to the voice of charmers, no matter how skillful the charmer may be.

6 Break their teeth, God, in their mouth.

Break out the great teeth of the young lions,
Yahweh.

7 Let them vanish like water that flows away.

When they draw the bow, let their arrows be made blunt.

8 Let them be like a snail which melts and passes away,

like the stillborn child, who has not seen the sun.

9 Before your pots can feel the heat of the thorns,

he will sweep away the green and the burning alike.

¹⁰ The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance.

He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked,

¹¹ so that men shall say, "Most certainly there is a reward for the righteous.

Most certainly there is a God who judges the earth."

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David, when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

59 Deliver me from my enemies, my God. Set me on high from those who rise up against me.

² Deliver me from the workers of iniquity.

Save me from the bloodthirsty men.

³ For, behold, they lie in wait for my soul.

The mighty gather themselves together against me,

not for my disobedience, nor for my sin, Yahweh.

⁴ I have done no wrong, yet they are ready to attack me.

Rise up, behold, and help me!

⁵ You, Yahweh God of Armies, the God of Israel, rouse yourself to punish the nations.

Show no mercy to the wicked traitors. Selah.

⁶ They return at evening, howling like dogs, and prowl around the city.

⁷ Behold, they spew with their mouth.

Swords are in their lips,

"For", they say, "who hears us?"

⁸ But you, Yahweh, laugh at them.

You scoff at all the nations.

⁹ Oh, my Strength, I watch for you, for God is my high tower.

¹⁰ My God will go before me with his loving kindness.

God will let me look at my enemies in triumph.

¹¹ Don't kill them, or my people may forget.

Scatter them by your power, and bring them down, Lord our shield.

¹² For the sin of their mouth, and the words of their lips, let them be caught in their pride,

for the curses and lies which they utter.

¹³ Consume them in wrath.

Consume them, and they will be no more.

Let them know that God rules in Jacob, to the ends of the earth. Selah.

¹⁴ At evening let them return.

Let them howl like a dog, and go around the city.

¹⁵ They shall wander up and down for food, and wait all night if they aren't satisfied.

¹⁶ But I will sing of your strength.

Yes, I will sing aloud of your loving kindness in the morning.

For you have been my high tower, a refuge in the day of my distress.

¹⁷ To you, my strength, I will sing praises.

For God is my high tower, the God of my mercy.

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lily of the Covenant." A teaching poem by David, when he fought with Aram Naharaim and with Aram Zobah, and Joab returned, and killed twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt.

60 God, you have rejected us.

You have broken us down.

You have been angry.

Restore us, again.

² You have made the land tremble.

You have torn it.

Mend its fractures,

for it quakes.

³ You have shown your people hard things.

You have made us drink the wine that makes us stagger.

⁴ You have given a banner to those who fear you, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah.

⁵ So that your beloved may be delivered,

save with your right hand, and answer us.

⁶ God has spoken from his sanctuary:

“I will triumph.

I will divide Shechem,

and measure out the valley of Succoth.

⁷ Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine.

Ephraim also is the defense of my head.

Judah is my scepter.

⁸ Moab is my wash basin.

I will throw my sandal on Edom.

I shout in triumph over Philistia.”

⁹ Who will bring me into the strong city?

Who has led me to Edom?

¹⁰ Haven't you, God, rejected us?

You don't go out with our armies, God.

¹¹ Give us help against the adversary,

for the help of man is vain.

¹² Through God we will do valiantly, for it is he who will tread down our adversaries.

For the Chief Musician. For a stringed instrument. By David.

61 Hear my cry, God.
Listen to my prayer.

² From the end of the earth, I will call to you when my heart is overwhelmed.

Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

³ For you have been a refuge for me,
a strong tower from the enemy.

⁴ I will dwell in your tent forever.

I will take refuge in the shelter of your wings.
Selah.

⁵ For you, God, have heard my vows.

You have given me the heritage of those who fear your name.

⁶ You will prolong the king's life.

His years will be for generations.

⁷ He shall be enthroned in God's presence
forever.

Appoint your loving kindness and truth, that they may preserve him.

⁸ So I will sing praise to your name forever, that I may fulfill my vows daily.

For the Chief Musician.
To Jeduthun. A Psalm by David.

62 My soul rests in God alone.
My salvation is from him.

² He alone is my rock, my salvation, and my fortress.

I will never be greatly shaken.

³ How long will you assault a man?

Would all of you throw him down,
like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence?

⁴ They fully intend to throw him down from his lofty place.

They delight in lies.

They bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. Selah.

⁵ My soul, wait in silence for God alone, for my expectation is from him.

⁶ He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress.

I will not be shaken.

⁷ My salvation and my honor is with God.

The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in
God.

⁸ Trust in him at all times, you people.

Pour out your heart before him.

God is a refuge for us. Selah.

⁹ Surely men of low degree are just a breath, and men of high degree are a lie.

In the balances they will go up.

They are together lighter than a breath.

¹⁰ Don't trust in oppression.

Don't become vain in robbery.

If riches increase,

don't set your heart on them.

¹¹ God has spoken once;

twice I have heard this,

that power belongs to God.

¹² Also to you, Lord, belongs loving kindness, for you reward every man according to his work.

A Psalm by David, when he was in the desert of Judah.

63 God, you are my God.
I will earnestly seek you.

My soul thirsts for you.
 My flesh longs for you,
 in a dry and weary land, where there is no water.

2 So I have seen you in the sanctuary, watching your power and your glory.

3 Because your loving kindness is better than life,

my lips shall praise you.

4 So I will bless you while I live.

I will lift up my hands in your name.

5 My soul shall be satisfied as with the richest food.

My mouth shall praise you with joyful lips,

6 when I remember you on my bed,
 and think about you in the night watches.

7 For you have been my help.

I will rejoice in the shadow of your wings.

8 My soul stays close to you.

Your right hand holds me up.

9 But those who seek my soul to destroy it shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

10 They shall be given over to the power of the sword.

They shall be jackal food.

11 But the king shall rejoice in God.

Everyone who swears by him will praise him, for the mouth of those who speak lies shall be silenced.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

Hear my voice, God, in my complaint.

64 Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the conspiracy of the wicked,
 from the noisy crowd of the ones doing evil;

3 who sharpen their tongue like a sword,
 and aim their arrows, deadly words,

4 to shoot innocent men from ambushes.

They shoot at him suddenly and fearlessly.

5 They encourage themselves in evil plans.

They talk about laying snares secretly.

They say, "Who will see them?"

6 They plot injustice, saying, "We have made a perfect plan!"

Surely man's mind and heart are cunning.

7 But God will shoot at them.

They will be suddenly struck down with an arrow.

8 Their own tongues shall ruin them.

All who see them will shake their heads.

9 All mankind shall be afraid.

They shall declare the work of God,

and shall wisely ponder what he has done.

10 The righteous shall be glad in Yahweh, and shall take refuge in him.

All the upright in heart shall praise him!

For the Chief Musician. A
 Psalm by David. A song.

Praise waits for you, God, in Zion.
 65 Vows shall be performed to you.

2 You who hear prayer,
 all men will come to you.

3 Sins overwhelmed me,
 but you atoned for our transgressions.

4 Blessed is the one whom you choose and cause to come near,

that he may live in your courts.

We will be filled with the goodness of your house,

your holy temple.

5 By awesome deeds of righteousness, you answer us,

God of our salvation.

You who are the hope of all the ends of the
 earth,

of those who are far away on the sea.

6 By your power, you form the mountains, having armed yourself with strength.

7 You still the roaring of the seas,
 the roaring of their waves,

and the turmoil of the nations.

8 They also who dwell in faraway places are afraid at your wonders.

You call the morning's dawn and the evening with songs of joy.

9 You visit the earth, and water it.

You greatly enrich it.

The river of God is full of water.

You provide them grain, for so you have ordained it.

10 You drench its furrows.

You level its ridges.
 You soften it with showers.
 You bless it with a crop.
 11 You crown the year with your bounty.
 Your carts overflow with abundance.
 12 The wilderness grasslands overflow.
 The hills are clothed with gladness.
 13 The pastures are covered with flocks.
 The valleys also are clothed with grain.
 They shout for joy!
 They also sing.

For the Chief Musician. A song. A Psalm.

66 Make a joyful shout to God, all the earth!

2 Sing to the glory of his name!

Offer glory and praise!

3 Tell God, "How awesome are your deeds!

Through the greatness of your power, your enemies submit themselves to you.

4 All the earth will worship you, and will sing to you; they will sing to your name." Selah.

5 Come, and see God's deeds—awesome work on behalf of the children of men.

6 He turned the sea into dry land. They went through the river on foot. There, we rejoiced in him.

7 He rules by his might forever. His eyes watch the nations. Don't let the rebellious rise up against him. Selah.

8 Praise our God, you peoples! Make the sound of his praise heard, 9 who preserves our life among the living, and doesn't allow our feet to be moved.

10 For you, God, have tested us. You have refined us, as silver is refined.

11 You brought us into prison. You laid a burden on our backs. 12 You allowed men to ride over our heads. We went through fire and through water, but you brought us to the place of abundance. 13 I will come into your temple with burnt offerings.

I will pay my vows to you, 14 which my lips promised, and my mouth spoke, when I was in distress. 15 I will offer to you burnt offerings of fat animals, with the offering of rams, I will offer bulls with goats. Selah. 16 Come and hear, all you who fear God. I will declare what he has done for my soul. 17 I cried to him with my mouth. He was extolled with my tongue. 18 If I cherished sin in my heart, the Lord wouldn't have listened. 19 But most certainly, God has listened. He has heard the voice of my prayer. 20 Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer, nor his loving kindness from me.

For the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. A Psalm. A song.

67 May God be merciful to us, bless us, and cause his face to shine on us. Selah.

2 That your way may be known on earth, and your salvation among all nations,

3 let the peoples praise you, God. Let all the peoples praise you.

4 Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you will judge the peoples with equity, and govern the nations on earth. Selah.

5 Let the peoples praise you, God. Let all the peoples praise you.

6 The earth has yielded its increase. God, even our own God, will bless us.

7 God will bless us. All the ends of the earth shall fear him.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. A song.

68 Let God arise! Let his enemies be scattered! Let them who hate him also flee before him. 2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away. As wax melts before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad.

Let them rejoice before God.

Yes, let them rejoice with gladness.

4 Sing to God! Sing praises to his name!

Extol him who rides on the clouds:

to Yah, his name!

Rejoice before him!

5 A father of the fatherless, and a defender of the widows,

is God in his holy habitation.

6 God sets the lonely in families.

He brings out the prisoners with singing, but the rebellious dwell in a sun-scorched
land.

7 God, when you went out before your people,
when you marched through the wilderness...
Selah.

8 The earth trembled.

The sky also poured down rain at the presence of the God of Sinai—

at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

9 You, God, sent a plentiful rain.

You confirmed your inheritance when it was weary.

10 Your congregation lived therein.

You, God, prepared your goodness for the poor.

11 The Lord announced the word.

The ones who proclaim it are a great company.

12 “Kings of armies flee! They flee!”

She who waits at home divides the plunder,

13 while you sleep among the camp fires,
the wings of a dove sheathed with silver,
her feathers with shining gold.

14 When the Almighty scattered kings in her,
it snowed on Zalmon.

15 The mountains of Bashan are majestic mountains.

The mountains of Bashan are rugged.

16 Why do you look in envy, you rugged
mountains,

at the mountain where God chooses to reign?
Yes, Yahweh will dwell there forever.

17 The chariots of God are tens of thousands and thousands of thousands.

The Lord is among them, from Sinai, into the sanctuary.

18 You have ascended on high.

You have led away captives.

You have received gifts among people,
yes, among the rebellious also, that Yah God might dwell there.

19 Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears our burdens,

even the God who is our salvation. Selah.

20 God is to us a God of deliverance.

To Yahweh, the Lord, belongs escape from death.

21 But God will strike through the head of his
enemies,

the hairy scalp of such a one as still continues in his guiltiness.

22 The Lord said, “I will bring you again from Bashan,

I will bring you again from the depths of the sea,

23 that you may crush them, dipping your foot
in blood,

that the tongues of your dogs may have their portion from your enemies.”

24 They have seen your processions, God, even the processions of my God, my King,
into the sanctuary.

25 The singers went before, the minstrels followed after,

among the ladies playing with tambourines,

26 “Bless God in the congregations, even the Lord in the assembly of Israel!”

27 There is little Benjamin, their ruler,
the princes of Judah, their council, the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali.

28 Your God has commanded your strength.
Strengthen, God, that which you have done for us.

29 Because of your temple at Jerusalem, kings shall bring presents to you.

30 Rebuke the wild animal of the reeds,

the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the peoples.

Being humbled, may it bring bars of silver.

Scatter the nations that delight in war.

31 Princes shall come out of Egypt.

Ethiopia shall hurry to stretch out her hands to God.

32 Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth!

Sing praises to the Lord! Selah.

33 To him who rides on the heaven of heavens, which are of old;

behold, he utters his voice, a mighty voice.

34 Ascribe strength to God!

His excellency is over Israel,

his strength is in the skies.

35 You are awesome, God, in your sanctuaries.

The God of Israel gives strength and power to his people.

Praise be to God!

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Lilies." By David.

69 Save me, God, for the waters have come up to my neck!

2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no foothold.

I have come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

3 I am weary with my crying.

My throat is dry.

My eyes fail looking for my God.

4 Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head.

Those who want to cut me off, being my enemies wrongfully, are mighty.

I have to restore what I didn't take away.

5 God, you know my foolishness.

My sins aren't hidden from you.

6 Don't let those who wait for you be shamed through me, Lord Yahweh of Armies.

Don't let those who seek you be brought to dishonor through me, God of Israel.

7 Because for your sake, I have borne reproach.

Shame has covered my face.

8 I have become a stranger to my brothers,

an alien to my mother's children.

9 For the zeal of your house consumes me.

The reproaches of those who reproach you have fallen on me.

10 When I wept and I fasted, that was to my reproach.

11 When I made sackcloth my clothing,

I became a byword to them.

12 Those who sit in the gate talk about me.

I am the song of the drunkards.

13 But as for me, my prayer is to you, Yahweh, in an acceptable time.

God, in the abundance of your loving kindness, answer me in the truth of your salvation.

14 Deliver me out of the mire, and don't let me sink.

Let me be delivered from those who hate me, and out of the deep waters.

15 Don't let the flood waters overwhelm me, neither let the deep swallow me up.

Don't let the pit shut its mouth on me.

16 Answer me, Yahweh, for your loving kindness is good.

According to the multitude of your tender mercies, turn to me.

17 Don't hide your face from your servant,

for I am in distress.

Answer me speedily!

18 Draw near to my soul and redeem it.

Ransom me because of my enemies.

19 You know my reproach, my shame, and my dishonor.

My adversaries are all before you.

20 Reproach has broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness.

I looked for some to take pity, but there was none;

for comforters, but I found none.

21 They also gave me poison for my food.

In my thirst, they gave me vinegar to drink.

22 Let their table before them become a snare.

May it become a retribution and a trap.

23 Let their eyes be darkened, so that they can't see.

Let their backs be continually bent.

24 Pour out your indignation on them.
 Let the fierceness of your anger overtake them.
 25 Let their habitation be desolate.
 Let no one dwell in their tents.
 26 For they persecute him whom you have wounded.
 They tell of the sorrow of those whom you have hurt.
 27 Charge them with crime upon crime.
 Don't let them come into your righteousness.
 28 Let them be blotted out of the book of life,
 and not be written with the righteous.
 29 But I am in pain and distress.
 Let your salvation, God, protect me.
 30 I will praise the name of God with a song,
 and will magnify him with thanksgiving.
 31 It will please Yahweh better than an ox, or a bull that has horns and hoofs.
 32 The humble have seen it, and are glad.
 You who seek after God, let your heart live.
 33 For Yahweh hears the needy, and doesn't despise his captive people.
 34 Let heaven and earth praise him;
 the seas, and everything that moves therein!
 35 For God will save Zion, and build the cities of Judah.
 They shall settle there, and own it.
 36 The children also of his servants shall inherit it.
 Those who love his name shall dwell therein.

For the Chief Musician.
 By David. A reminder.

70 Hurry, God, to deliver me.
 Come quickly to help me, Yahweh.
 2 Let them be disappointed and confounded who seek my soul.
 Let those who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace.
 3 Let them be turned because of their shame who say, "Aha! Aha!"
 4 Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you.
 Let those who love your salvation continually say,

"Let God be exalted!"

5 But I am poor and needy.
 Come to me quickly, God.
 You are my help and my deliverer.
 Yahweh, don't delay.
71 In you, Yahweh, I take refuge.
 Never let me be disappointed.
 2 Deliver me in your righteousness, and rescue
 me.
 Turn your ear to me, and save me.
 3 Be to me a rock of refuge to which I may always go.
 Give the command to save me,
 for you are my rock and my fortress.
 4 Rescue me, my God, from the hand of the wicked,
 from the hand of the unrighteous and cruel
 man.
 5 For you are my hope, Lord Yahweh,
 my confidence from my youth.
 6 I have relied on you from the womb.
 You are he who took me out of my mother's womb.
 I will always praise you.
 7 I am a marvel to many,
 but you are my strong refuge.
 8 My mouth shall be filled with your praise,
 with your honor all day long.
 9 Don't reject me in my old age.
 Don't forsake me when my strength fails.
 10 For my enemies talk about me.
 Those who watch for my soul conspire
 together,
 11 saying, "God has forsaken him.
 Pursue and take him, for no one will rescue
 him."
 12 God, don't be far from me.
 My God, hurry to help me.
 13 Let my accusers be disappointed and consumed.
 Let them be covered with disgrace and scorn
 who want to harm me.
 14 But I will always hope,
 and will add to all of your praise.
 15 My mouth will tell about your
 righteousness,

and of your salvation all day,
 though I don't know its full measure.
 16 I will come with the mighty acts of the Lord
 Yahweh.
 I will make mention of your righteousness,
 even of yours alone.
 17 God, you have taught me from my youth.
 Until now, I have declared your wondrous works.
 18 Yes, even when I am old and gray-haired,
 God, don't forsake me, until I have declared your strength to the next generation,
 your might to everyone who is to come.
 19 Your righteousness also, God, reaches to
 the heavens;
 you have done great things.
 God, who is like you?
 20 You, who have shown us many and bitter troubles,
 you will let me live.
 You will bring us up again from the depths of
 the earth.
 21 Increase my honor
 and comfort me again.
 22 I will also praise you with the harp for your faithfulness, my God.
 I sing praises to you with the lyre, Holy One of Israel.
 23 My lips shall shout for joy!
 My soul, which you have redeemed, sings praises to you!
 24 My tongue will also talk about your righteousness all day long, for they are disappointed, and they are confounded,
 who want to harm me.

By Solomon.

72 God, give the king your justice;
 your righteousness to the royal son.
 2 He will judge your people with
 righteousness,
 and your poor with justice.
 3 The mountains shall bring prosperity to the people.

The hills bring the fruit of righteousness.
 4 He will judge the poor of the people.
 He will save the children of the needy,
 and will break the oppressor in pieces.
 5 They shall fear you while the sun endures;
 and as long as the moon, throughout all generations.
 6 He will come down like rain on the mown
 grass,
 as showers that water the earth.
 7 In his days, the righteous shall flourish, and abundance of peace, until the moon is no more.
 8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea,
 from the River to the ends of the earth.
 9 Those who dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him.
 His enemies shall lick the dust.
 10 The kings of Tarshish and of the islands will bring tribute.
 The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.
 11 Yes, all kings shall fall down before him.
 All nations shall serve him.
 12 For he will deliver the needy when he cries;
 the poor, who has no helper.
 13 He will have pity on the poor and needy.
 He will save the souls of the needy.
 14 He will redeem their soul from oppression and violence.
 Their blood will be precious in his sight.
 15 They shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba.
 Men shall pray for him continually.
 They shall bless him all day long.
 16 Abundance of grain shall be throughout the land.
 Its fruit sways like Lebanon.
 Let it flourish, thriving like the grass of the field.
 17 His name endures forever.
 His name continues as long as the sun.
 Men shall be blessed by him.
 All nations will call him blessed.
 18 Praise be to Yahweh God, the God of Israel, who alone does marvelous deeds.
 19 Blessed be his glorious name forever!

Let the whole earth be filled with his glory!
Amen and amen.

²⁰This ends the prayers by David, the son of Jesse.

BOOK 3

A Psalm by Asaph.

73 Surely God* is good to Israel,
to those who are pure in heart.
²But as for me, my feet were almost gone.
My steps had nearly slipped.
³For I was envious of the arrogant,
when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
⁴For there are no struggles in their death,
but their strength is firm.
⁵They are free from burdens of men, neither are they plagued like other men.
⁶Therefore pride is like a chain around their neck.
Violence covers them like a garment.
⁷Their eyes bulge with fat.
Their minds pass the limits of conceit.
⁸They scoff and speak with malice.
In arrogance, they threaten oppression.
⁹They have set their mouth in the heavens.
Their tongue walks through the earth.
¹⁰Therefore their people return to them,
and they drink up waters of abundance.
¹¹They say, "How does God know?
Is there knowledge in the Most High?"
¹²Behold, these are the wicked.
Being always at ease, they increase in riches.
¹³Surely I have cleansed my heart in vain,
and washed my hands in innocence, ¹⁴For all day long I have been plagued,
and punished every morning.
¹⁵If I had said, "I will speak thus"; behold, I would have betrayed the generation of your children.
¹⁶When I tried to understand this,

it was too painful for me, ¹⁷until I entered God's sanctuary, and considered their latter end.
¹⁸Surely you set them in slippery places.
You throw them down to destruction.
¹⁹How they are suddenly destroyed!
They are completely swept away with terrors.
²⁰As a dream when one wakes up, so, Lord,† when you awake, you will despise their fantasies.
²¹For my soul was grieved.
I was embittered in my heart.
²²I was so senseless and ignorant.
I was a brute beast before you.
²³Nevertheless, I am continually with you.
You have held my right hand.
²⁴You will guide me with your counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.
²⁵Whom do I have in heaven?
There is no one on earth whom I desire besides
you.
²⁶My flesh and my heart fails, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.
²⁷For, behold, those who are far from you shall perish.
You have destroyed all those who are unfaithful to you.
²⁸But it is good for me to come close to God.
I have made the Lord Yahweh‡ my refuge, that I may tell of all your works.

A contemplation by Asaph.

74 God, why have you rejected us forever?
Why does your anger smolder against the sheep of your pasture?
²Remember your congregation, which you purchased of old,
which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your inheritance:
Mount Zion, in which you have lived.

*73:1 The Hebrew word rendered "God" is "אֱלֹהִים" (Elohim).

†73:20 The word translated "Lord" is "Adonai."

3 Lift up your feet to the perpetual ruins, all the evil that the enemy has done in the
sanctuary.

4 Your adversaries have roared in the middle of your assembly.

They have set up their standards as signs.

5 They behaved like men wielding axes, cutting through a thicket of trees.

6 Now they break all its carved work down with hatchet and hammers.

7 They have burned your sanctuary to the ground.

They have profaned the dwelling place of your Name.

8 They said in their heart, "We will crush them completely."

They have burned up all the places in the land where God was worshiped.

9 We see no miraculous signs.

There is no longer any prophet, neither is there among us anyone who knows how long.

10 How long, God, shall the adversary
reproach?

Shall the enemy blaspheme your name
forever?

11 Why do you draw back your hand, even your right hand?

Take it from your chest and consume them!

12 Yet God is my King of old, working salvation throughout the earth.

13 You divided the sea by your strength.
You broke the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.

14 You broke the heads of Leviathan in pieces.
You gave him as food to people and desert creatures.

15 You opened up spring and stream.
You dried up mighty rivers.

16 The day is yours, the night is also yours.
You have prepared the light and the sun.

17 You have set all the boundaries of the earth.
You have made summer and winter.

18 Remember this, that the enemy has mocked you, Yahweh.

Foolish people have blasphemed your name.

19 Don't deliver the soul of your dove to wild beasts.

Don't forget the life of your poor forever.

20 Honor your covenant, for haunts of violence fill the dark places of
the earth.

21 Don't let the oppressed return ashamed.
Let the poor and needy praise your name.

22 Arise, God! Plead your own cause.

Remember how the foolish man mocks you all day.

23 Don't forget the voice of your adversaries.
The tumult of those who rise up against you ascends continually.

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do
Not Destroy." A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

75 We give thanks to you, God.
We give thanks, for your Name is near.
Men tell about your wondrous works.

2 When I choose the appointed time,
I will judge blamelessly.

3 The earth and all its inhabitants quake.
I firmly hold its pillars. Selah.

4 I said to the arrogant, "Don't boast!"
I said to the wicked, "Don't lift up the horn.

5 Don't lift up your horn on high.
Don't speak with a stiff neck."

6 For neither from the east, nor from the west,
nor yet from the south, comes exaltation.

7 But God is the judge.

He puts down one, and lifts up another.

8 For in Yahweh's hand there is a cup, full of foaming wine mixed with spices.

He pours it out.

Indeed the wicked of the earth drink and drink
it to its very dregs.

9 But I will declare this forever:

I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

10 I will cut off all the horns of the wicked, but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted
up.

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

76 In Judah, God is known.
 His name is great in Israel.
 His tabernacle is also in Salem;
 His dwelling place in Zion.
 There he broke the flaming arrows of the bow,
 the shield, and the sword, and the weapons of war. Selah.
 Glorious are you, and excellent,
 more than mountains of game.
 Valiant men lie plundered,
 they have slept their last sleep.
 None of the men of war can lift their hands.
 At your rebuke, God of Jacob,
 both chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.
 You, even you, are to be feared.
 Who can stand in your sight when you are angry?
 You pronounced judgment from heaven.
 The earth feared, and was silent,
 when God arose to judgment,
 to save all the afflicted ones of the earth. Selah.
 Surely the wrath of man praises you.
 The survivors of your wrath are restrained.
 Make vows to Yahweh your God, and fulfill them!
 Let all of his neighbors bring presents to him who is to be feared.
 He will cut off the spirit of princes.
 He is feared by the kings of the earth.

For the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm by Asaph.

77 My cry goes to God!
 Indeed, I cry to God for help,
 and for him to listen to me.
 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord.
 My hand was stretched out in the night, and didn't get tired.
 My soul refused to be comforted.
 I remember God, and I groan.

I complain, and my spirit is overwhelmed.
 Selah.

You hold my eyelids open.
 I am so troubled that I can't speak.
 I have considered the days of old,
 the years of ancient times.
 I remember my song in the night.
 I consider in my own heart;
 my spirit diligently inquires:
 "Will the Lord reject us forever?
 Will he be favorable no more?
 Has his loving kindness vanished forever?
 Does his promise fail for generations?
 Has God forgotten to be gracious?
 Has he, in anger, withheld his compassion?"
 Selah.
 Then I thought, "I will appeal to this:
 the years of the right hand of the Most High."
 I will remember Yah's deeds;
 for I will remember your wonders of old.
 I will also meditate on all your work,
 and consider your doings.
 Your way, God, is in the sanctuary.
 What god is great like God?
 You are the God who does wonders.
 You have made your strength known among the peoples.
 You have redeemed your people with your arm,
 the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.
 The waters saw you, God.
 The waters saw you, and they writhed.
 The depths also convulsed.
 The clouds poured out water.
 The skies resounded with thunder.
 Your arrows also flashed around.
 The voice of your thunder was in the whirlwind.
 The lightnings lit up the world.
 The earth trembled and shook.
 Your way was through the sea;
 your paths through the great waters.
 Your footsteps were not known.
 You led your people like a flock,
 by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

A contemplation by Asaph.

78 Hear my teaching, my people.
Turn your ears to the words of my mouth.

² I will open my mouth in a parable.

I will utter dark sayings of old,

³ Which we have heard and known,
and our fathers have told us.

⁴ We will not hide them from their children, telling to the generation to come the praises of Yahweh,

his strength, and his wondrous deeds that he has done.

⁵ For he established a covenant in Jacob,
and appointed a teaching in Israel,
which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children;

⁶ that the generation to come might know,
even the children who should be born;

who should arise and tell their children,

⁷ that they might set their hope in God,
and not forget God's deeds,

but keep his commandments,

⁸ and might not be as their fathers,
a stubborn and rebellious generation,
a generation that didn't make their hearts loyal,

whose spirit was not steadfast with God.

⁹ The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows,

turned back in the day of battle.

¹⁰ They didn't keep God's covenant, and refused to walk in his law.

¹¹ They forgot his doings,
his wondrous deeds that he had shown them.

¹² He did marvelous things in the sight of their fathers,

in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

¹³ He split the sea, and caused them to pass through.

He made the waters stand as a heap.

¹⁴ In the daytime he also led them with a cloud,

and all night with a light of fire.

¹⁵ He split rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.

¹⁶ He brought streams also out of the rock,
and caused waters to run down like rivers.

¹⁷ Yet they still went on to sin against him,
to rebel against the Most High in the desert.

¹⁸ They tempted God in their heart
by asking food according to their desire.

¹⁹ Yes, they spoke against God.

They said, "Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?"

²⁰ Behold, he struck the rock, so that waters gushed out,

and streams overflowed.

Can he give bread also?

Will he provide meat for his people?"

²¹ Therefore Yahweh heard, and was angry.

A fire was kindled against Jacob, anger also went up against Israel,

²² because they didn't believe in God,
and didn't trust in his salvation.

²³ Yet he commanded the skies above, and opened the doors of heaven.

²⁴ He rained down manna on them to eat, and gave them food from the sky.

²⁵ Man ate the bread of angels.

He sent them food to the full.

²⁶ He caused the east wind to blow in the sky.
By his power he guided the south wind.

²⁷ He also rained meat on them as the dust, winged birds as the sand of the seas.

²⁸ He let them fall in the middle of their camp, around their habitations.

²⁹ So they ate, and were well filled.

He gave them their own desire.

³⁰ They didn't turn from their cravings.

Their food was yet in their mouths,

³¹ when the anger of God went up against
them,

killed some of their fattest,
and struck down the young men of Israel.

³² For all this they still sinned,
and didn't believe in his wondrous works.

³³ Therefore he consumed their days in vanity,
and their years in terror.

34 When he killed them, then they inquired after him.

They returned and sought God earnestly.

35 They remembered that God was their rock, the Most High God, their redeemer.

36 But they flattered him with their mouth, and lied to him with their tongue.

37 For their heart was not right with him, neither were they faithful in his covenant.

38 But he, being merciful, forgave iniquity, and didn't destroy them.

Yes, many times he turned his anger away, and didn't stir up all his wrath.

39 He remembered that they were but flesh, a wind that passes away, and doesn't come again.

40 How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness, and grieved him in the desert!

41 They turned again and tempted God, and provoked the Holy One of Israel.

42 They didn't remember his hand, nor the day when he redeemed them from the adversary;

43 how he set his signs in Egypt, his wonders in the field of Zoan, 44 he turned their rivers into blood, and their streams, so that they could not drink.

45 He sent among them swarms of flies, which devoured them;

and frogs, which destroyed them.

46 He gave also their increase to the caterpillar, and their labor to the locust.

47 He destroyed their vines with hail, their sycamore fig trees with frost.

48 He gave over their livestock also to the hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts.

49 He threw on them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, indignation, and trouble, and a band of angels of evil.

50 He made a path for his anger.

He didn't spare their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence,

51 and struck all the firstborn in Egypt,

the chief of their strength in the tents of Ham.

52 But he led out his own people like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

53 He led them safely, so that they weren't afraid, but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

54 He brought them to the border of his sanctuary, to this mountain, which his right hand had taken.

55 He also drove out the nations before them, allotted them for an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

56 Yet they tempted and rebelled against the Most High God, and didn't keep his testimonies,

57 but turned back, and dealt treacherously like their fathers.

They were twisted like a deceitful bow.

58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their engraved images.

59 When God heard this, he was angry, and greatly abhorred Israel,

60 so that he abandoned the tent of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men, 61 and delivered his strength into captivity, his glory into the adversary's hand.

62 He also gave his people over to the sword, and was angry with his inheritance.

63 Fire devoured their young men. Their virgins had no wedding song.

64 Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows couldn't weep.

65 Then the Lord awakened as one out of sleep, like a mighty man who shouts by reason of wine.

66 He struck his adversaries backward.

He put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover he rejected the tent of Joseph, and didn't choose the tribe of Ephraim,

68 But chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion which he loved.

69 He built his sanctuary like the heights,
like the earth which he has established forever.

70 He also chose David his servant,
and took him from the sheepfolds;

71 from following the ewes that have their young,

he brought him to be the shepherd of Jacob,
his people,
and Israel, his inheritance.

72 So he was their shepherd according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

A Psalm by Asaph.

79 God, the nations have come into your inheritance.

They have defiled your holy temple.

They have laid Jerusalem in heaps.

2 They have given the dead bodies of your servants to be food for the birds of the sky, the flesh of your saints to the animals of the
earth.

3 They have shed their blood like water around Jerusalem.

There was no one to bury them.

4 We have become a reproach to our neighbors,

a scoffing and derision to those who are around us.

5 How long, Yahweh?

Will you be angry forever?

Will your jealousy burn like fire?

6 Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't know you,

on the kingdoms that don't call on your name;

7 for they have devoured Jacob,

and destroyed his homeland.

8 Don't hold the iniquities of our forefathers against us.

Let your tender mercies speedily meet us,
for we are in desperate need.

9 Help us, God of our salvation, for the glory of your name.

Deliver us, and forgive our sins, for your name's sake.

10 Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?"

Let it be known among the nations, before our eyes,

that vengeance for your servants' blood is being poured out.

11 Let the sighing of the prisoner come before
you.

According to the greatness of your power, preserve those who are sentenced to death.

12 Pay back to our neighbors seven times into their bosom

their reproach with which they have reproached you, Lord.

13 So we, your people and sheep of your pasture,

will give you thanks forever.

We will praise you forever, to all generations.

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lilies of the Covenant." A Psalm by Asaph.

80 Hear us, Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph like a flock,

you who sit above the cherubim, shine out.

2 Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up your might!

Come to save us!

3 Turn us again, God.

Cause your face to shine,

and we will be saved.

4 Yahweh God of Armies,

how long will you be angry against the prayer of your people?

5 You have fed them with the bread of tears, and given them tears to drink in large measure.

6 You make us a source of contention to our neighbors.

Our enemies laugh among themselves.

7 Turn us again, God of Armies.

Cause your face to shine,

and we will be saved.

8 You brought a vine out of Egypt.

You drove out the nations, and planted it.

9 You cleared the ground for it.

It took deep root, and filled the land.

10 The mountains were covered with its shadow.
 Its boughs were like God's cedars.
 11 It sent out its branches to the sea, its shoots to the River.
 12 Why have you broken down its walls, so that all those who pass by the way pluck it?
 13 The boar out of the wood ravages it. The wild animals of the field feed on it.
 14 Turn again, we beg you, God of Armies. Look down from heaven, and see, and visit this vine, 15 the stock which your right hand planted, the branch that you made strong for yourself.
 16 It's burned with fire. It's cut down. They perish at your rebuke.
 17 Let your hand be on the man of your right hand, on the son of man whom you made strong for yourself.
 18 So we will not turn away from you. Revive us, and we will call on your name.
 19 Turn us again, Yahweh God of Armies. Cause your face to shine, and we will be saved.

For the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath. By Asaph.

81 Sing aloud to God, our strength!
 Make a joyful shout to the God of Jacob!
 2 Raise a song, and bring here the tambourine, the pleasant lyre with the harp.
 3 Blow the trumpet at the New Moon, at the full moon, on our feast day.
 4 For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.
 5 He appointed it in Joseph for a covenant, when he went out over the land of Egypt, I heard a language that I didn't know.
 6 "I removed his shoulder from the burden. His hands were freed from the basket.
 7 You called in trouble, and I delivered you. I answered you in the secret place of thunder. I tested you at the waters of Meribah." Selah.
 8 "Hear, my people, and I will testify to you,

Israel, if you would listen to me!
 9 There shall be no strange god in you, neither shall you worship any foreign god.
 10 I am Yahweh, your God, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.
 11 But my people didn't listen to my voice. Israel desired none of me.
 12 So I let them go after the stubbornness of their hearts, that they might walk in their own counsels.
 13 Oh that my people would listen to me, that Israel would walk in my ways!
 14 I would soon subdue their enemies, and turn my hand against their adversaries.
 15 The haters of Yahweh would cringe before him, and their punishment would last forever.
 16 But he would have also fed them with the finest of the wheat.
 I will satisfy you with honey out of the rock."

A Psalm by Asaph.

82 God presides in the great assembly. He judges among the gods.
 2 "How long will you judge unjustly, and show partiality to the wicked?" Selah.
 3 "Defend the weak, the poor, and the fatherless. Maintain the rights of the poor and oppressed.
 4 Rescue the weak and needy. Deliver them out of the hand of the wicked."
 5 They don't know, neither do they understand. They walk back and forth in darkness. All the foundations of the earth are shaken.
 6 I said, "You are gods, all of you are sons of the Most High.
 7 Nevertheless you shall die like men, and fall like one of the rulers."
 8 Arise, God, judge the earth, for you inherit all of the nations.

A song. A Psalm by Asaph.

83 God, don't keep silent. Don't keep silent, and don't be still, God.

²For, behold, your enemies are stirred up.
Those who hate you have lifted up their heads.

³They conspire with cunning against your people.

They plot against your cherished ones.

⁴"Come," they say, "let's destroy them as a nation, that the name of Israel may be remembered no more."

⁵For they have conspired together with one mind.

They form an alliance against you.

⁶The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites;
Moab, and the Hagrites;

⁷Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek;
Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre;

⁸Assyria also is joined with them.
They have helped the children of Lot. Selah.

⁹Do to them as you did to Midian,
as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the river Kishon;

¹⁰who perished at Endor,
who became as dung for the earth.

¹¹Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb, yes, all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna,

¹²who said, "Let's take possession of God's pasture lands."

¹³My God, make them like tumbleweed, like chaff before the wind.

¹⁴As the fire that burns the forest,
as the flame that sets the mountains on fire,

¹⁵so pursue them with your tempest, and terrify them with your storm.

¹⁶Fill their faces with confusion, that they may seek your name, Yahweh.

¹⁷Let them be disappointed and dismayed forever.

Yes, let them be confounded and perish;

¹⁸that they may know that you alone, whose name is Yahweh, are the Most High over all the earth.

For the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

84 How lovely are your dwellings,
Yahweh of Armies!

²My soul longs, and even faints for the courts of Yahweh.

My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

³Yes, the sparrow has found a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may have her young,
near your altars, Yahweh of Armies, my King, and my God.

⁴Blessed are those who dwell in your house.
They are always praising you. Selah.

⁵Blessed are those whose strength is in you, who have set their hearts on a pilgrimage.

⁶Passing through the valley of Weeping, they make it a place of springs.

Yes, the autumn rain covers it with blessings.

⁷They go from strength to strength.
Every one of them appears before God in Zion.

⁸Yahweh, God of Armies, hear my prayer.
Listen, God of Jacob. Selah.

⁹Behold, God our shield,
look at the face of your anointed.

¹⁰For a day in your courts is better than a thousand.

I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God,

than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

¹¹For Yahweh God is a sun and a shield.
Yahweh will give grace and glory.

He withholds no good thing from those who walk blamelessly.

¹²Yahweh of Armies,
blessed is the man who trusts in you.

For the Chief Musician.
A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

85 Yahweh, you have been favorable to your land.

You have restored the fortunes of Jacob.

2 You have forgiven the iniquity of your people.

You have covered all their sin. Selah.

3 You have taken away all your wrath.

You have turned from the fierceness of your anger.

4 Turn us, God of our salvation, and cause your indignation toward us to cease.

5 Will you be angry with us forever?

Will you draw out your anger to all generations?

6 Won't you revive us again, that your people may rejoice in you?

7 Show us your loving kindness, Yahweh. Grant us your salvation.

8 I will hear what God, Yahweh, will speak, for he will speak peace to his people, his saints;

but let them not turn again to folly.

9 Surely his salvation is near those who fear him,

that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth meet together.

Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

11 Truth springs out of the earth.

Righteousness has looked down from heaven.

12 Yes, Yahweh will give that which is good.

Our land will yield its increase.

13 Righteousness goes before him,

And prepares the way for his steps.

A Prayer by David.

86 Hear, Yahweh, and answer me, for I am poor and needy.

2 Preserve my soul, for I am godly.

You, my God, save your servant who trusts in you.

3 Be merciful to me, Lord,

for I call to you all day long.

4 Bring joy to the soul of your servant,

for to you, Lord, do I lift up my soul.

5 For you, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive, abundant in loving kindness to all those who call on you.

6 Hear, Yahweh, my prayer.

Listen to the voice of my petitions.

7 In the day of my trouble I will call on you, for you will answer me.

8 There is no one like you among the gods, Lord, nor any deeds like your deeds.

9 All nations you have made will come and worship before you, Lord.

They shall glorify your name.

10 For you are great, and do wondrous things.

You are God alone.

11 Teach me your way, Yahweh.

I will walk in your truth.

Make my heart undivided to fear your name.

12 I will praise you, Lord my God, with my whole heart.

I will glorify your name forever more.

13 For your loving kindness is great toward me.

You have delivered my soul from the lowest Sheol.¶

14 God, the proud have risen up against me.

A company of violent men have sought after my soul,

and they don't hold regard for you before them.

15 But you, Lord, are a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness and truth.

16 Turn to me, and have mercy on me!

Give your strength to your servant.

Save the son of your servant.

17 Show me a sign of your goodness, that those who hate me may see it, and be shamed,

because you, Yahweh, have helped me, and comforted me.

¶86:13 Sheol is the place of the dead.

A Psalm by the sons of Korah; a Song.

87 His foundation is in the holy mountains.
 2 Yahweh loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

3 Glorious things are spoken about you, city of God. Selah.

4 I will record Rahab^s and Babylon among those who acknowledge me.

Behold, Philistia, Tyre, and also Ethiopia:
 "This one was born there."

5 Yes, of Zion it will be said, "This one and that one was born in her;"

the Most High himself will establish her.

6 Yahweh will count, when he writes up the peoples,

"This one was born there." Selah.

7 Those who sing as well as those who dance say,

"All my springs are in you."

A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Korah. For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Suffering of Affliction." A contemplation by Heman, the Ezrahite.

88 Yahweh, the God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before you.

2 Let my prayer enter into your presence. Turn your ear to my cry.

3 For my soul is full of troubles. My life draws near to Sheol.

4 I am counted among those who go down into the pit.

I am like a man who has no help,
 5 set apart among the dead,
 like the slain who lie in the grave,
 whom you remember no more.
 They are cut off from your hand.

6 You have laid me in the lowest pit,
 in the darkest depths.

7 Your wrath lies heavily on me.

You have afflicted me with all your waves.
 Selah.

8 You have taken my friends from me.
 You have made me an abomination to them.

I am confined, and I can't escape.

9 My eyes are dim from grief.

I have called on you daily, Yahweh.

I have spread out my hands to you.

10 Do you show wonders to the dead?

Do the departed spirits rise up and praise you?
 Selah.

11 Is your loving kindness declared in the grave?

Or your faithfulness in Destruction?

12 Are your wonders made known in the dark?

Or your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

13 But to you, Yahweh, I have cried.

In the morning, my prayer comes before you.

14 Yahweh, why do you reject my soul?

Why do you hide your face from me?

15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up.

While I suffer your terrors, I am distracted.

16 Your fierce wrath has gone over me.

Your terrors have cut me off.

17 They came around me like water all day long.

They completely engulfed me.

18 You have put lover and friend far from me,
 and my friends into darkness.

A contemplation by Ethan, the Ezrahite.

89 I will sing of the loving kindness of Yahweh forever.

With my mouth, I will make known your faithfulness to all generations.

2 I indeed declare, "Love stands firm forever. You established the heavens.

Your faithfulness is in them."

3 "I have made a covenant with my chosen one, I have sworn to David, my servant,

4 "I will establish your offspring forever, and build up your throne to all generations.'" Selah.

^s87:4 Rahab is a reference to Egypt.

88:3 Sheol is the place of the dead.

5 The heavens will praise your wonders,
Yahweh,
your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.

6 For who in the skies can be compared to Yahweh?

Who among the sons of the heavenly beings is like Yahweh,

7 a very awesome God in the council of the holy ones,

to be feared above all those who are around
him?

8 Yahweh, God of Armies, who is a mighty one, like you?

Yah, your faithfulness is around you.

9 You rule the pride of the sea.

When its waves rise up, you calm them.

10 You have broken Rahab in pieces, like one of the slain.

You have scattered your enemies with your mighty arm.

11 The heavens are yours.

The earth also is yours,
the world and its fullness.

You have founded them.

12 You have created the north and the south.

Tabor and Hermon rejoice in your name.

13 You have a mighty arm.

Your hand is strong, and your right hand is exalted.

14 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne.

Loving kindness and truth go before your face.

15 Blessed are the people who learn to acclaim
you.

They walk in the light of your presence,
Yahweh.

16 In your name they rejoice all day.

In your righteousness, they are exalted.

17 For you are the glory of their strength.

In your favor, our horn will be exalted.

18 For our shield belongs to Yahweh,

our king to the Holy One of Israel.

19 Then you spoke in vision to your saints,
and said, "I have given strength to the warrior.
I have exalted a young man from the people.

20 I have found David, my servant.

I have anointed him with my holy oil,

21 with whom my hand shall be established.

My arm will also strengthen him.

22 No enemy will tax him.

No wicked man will oppress him.

23 I will beat down his adversaries before him,
and strike those who hate him.

24 But my faithfulness and my loving kindness will be with him.

In my name, his horn will be exalted.

25 I will set his hand also on the sea,
and his right hand on the rivers.

26 He will call to me, "You are my Father,
my God, and the rock of my salvation!"

27 I will also appoint him my firstborn, the highest of the kings of the earth.

28 I will keep my loving kindness for him forever more.

My covenant will stand firm with him.

29 I will also make his offspring endure
forever,

and his throne as the days of heaven.

30 If his children forsake my law,
and don't walk in my ordinances;

31 if they break my statutes, and don't keep my commandments;

32 then I will punish their sin with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.

33 But I will not completely take my loving kindness from him,

nor allow my faithfulness to fail.

34 I will not break my covenant,

nor alter what my lips have uttered.

35 Once I have sworn by my holiness,

I will not lie to David.

36 His offspring will endure forever,

his throne like the sun before me.

37 It will be established forever like the moon, the faithful witness in the sky." Selah.

38 But you have rejected and spurned.

You have been angry with your anointed.

39 You have renounced the covenant of your servant.

You have defiled his crown in the dust.

40 You have broken down all his hedges.

You have brought his strongholds to ruin.
 41 All who pass by the way rob him.
 He has become a reproach to his neighbors.
 42 You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries.
 You have made all of his enemies rejoice.
 43 Yes, you turn back the edge of his sword,
 and haven't supported him in battle.
 44 You have ended his splendor,
 and thrown his throne down to the ground.
 45 You have shortened the days of his youth.
 You have covered him with shame. Selah.
 46 How long, Yahweh?
 Will you hide yourself forever?
 Will your wrath burn like fire?
 47 Remember how short my time is,
 for what vanity you have created all the children of men!
 48 What man is he who shall live and not see
 death,
 who shall deliver his soul from the power of Sheol?^{††} Selah.
 49 Lord, where are your former loving kindnesses,
 which you swore to David in your faithfulness?
 50 Remember, Lord, the reproach of your servants,
 how I bear in my heart the taunts of all the mighty peoples,
 51 With which your enemies have mocked,
 Yahweh,
 with which they have mocked the footsteps of your anointed one.
 52 Blessed be Yahweh forever more.
 Amen, and Amen.

BOOK 4

A Prayer by Moses, the man of God.^{‡‡}

90 Lord,^{¶¶} you have been our dwelling place for all generations.
 2 Before the mountains were born, before you had formed the earth and the world,
 even from everlasting to everlasting, you are
 God.
 3 You turn man to destruction, saying,
 "Return, you children of men."
 4 For a thousand years in your sight are just like yesterday when it is past, like a watch in the night.
 5 You sweep them away as they sleep.
 In the morning they sprout like new grass.
 6 In the morning it sprouts and springs up.
 By evening, it is withered and dry.
 7 For we are consumed in your anger.
 We are troubled in your wrath.
 8 You have set our iniquities before you,
 our secret sins in the light of your presence.
 9 For all our days have passed away in your wrath.
 We bring our years to an end as a sigh.
 10 The days of our years are seventy,
 or even by reason of strength eighty years;
 yet their pride is but labor and sorrow,
 for it passes quickly, and we fly away.
 11 Who knows the power of your anger, your wrath according to the fear that is due to
 you?
 12 So teach us to count our days,
 that we may gain a heart of wisdom.
 13 Relent, Yahweh!^{§§}
 How long?
 Have compassion on your servants!

^{††}89:48 Sheol is the place of the dead.

^{‡‡}90:0 The Hebrew word rendered "God" is "אֱלֹהִים" (Elohim).

^{¶¶}90:1 The word translated "Lord" is "Adonai."

^{§§}90:13 "Yahweh" is God's proper Name, sometimes rendered "LORD" (all caps) in other translations.

14 Satisfy us in the morning with your loving kindness, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us, for as many years as we have seen evil.

16 Let your work appear to your servants, your glory to their children.

17 Let the favor of the Lord our God be on us.

Establish the work of our hands for us.

Yes, establish the work of our hands.

91 He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say of Yahweh, "He is my refuge and my fortress;

my God, in whom I trust."

3 For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler, and from the deadly pestilence.

4 He will cover you with his feathers.

Under his wings you will take refuge.

His faithfulness is your shield and rampart.

5 You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, nor of the arrow that flies by day,

6 nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, nor of the destruction that wastes at noonday.

7 A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand;

but it will not come near you.

8 You will only look with your eyes, and see the recompense of the wicked.

9 Because you have made Yahweh your refuge, and the Most High your dwelling place,

10 no evil shall happen to you,

neither shall any plague come near your dwelling.

11 For he will put his angels in charge of you, to guard you in all your ways.

12 They will bear you up in their hands, so that you won't dash your foot against a stone.

13 You will tread on the lion and cobra.

You will trample the young lion and the serpent underfoot.

14 "Because he has set his love on me, therefore I will deliver him.

I will set him on high, because he has known my name.

15 He will call on me, and I will answer him.

I will be with him in trouble.

I will deliver him, and honor him.

16 I will satisfy him with long life, and show him my salvation."

A Psalm. A song for the Sabbath day.

92 It is a good thing to give thanks to Yahweh, to sing praises to your name, Most High,

2 to proclaim your loving kindness in the morning, and your faithfulness every night,

3 with the ten-stringed lute, with the harp, and with the melody of the lyre.

4 For you, Yahweh, have made me glad through your work.

I will triumph in the works of your hands.

5 How great are your works, Yahweh!

Your thoughts are very deep.

6 A senseless man doesn't know, neither does a fool understand this:

7 though the wicked spring up as the grass, and all the evildoers flourish, they will be destroyed forever.

8 But you, Yahweh, are on high forever more.

9 For, behold, your enemies, Yahweh, for, behold, your enemies shall perish.

All the evildoers will be scattered.

10 But you have exalted my horn like that of the wild ox.

I am anointed with fresh oil.

11 My eye has also seen my enemies.

My ears have heard of the wicked enemies who rise up against me.

12 The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree.

He will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

13 They are planted in Yahweh's house.

They will flourish in our God's courts.

14 They will still produce fruit in old age.

They will be full of sap and green,

15 to show that Yahweh is upright.
He is my rock,
and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Yahweh reigns!

93 He is clothed with majesty!

Yahweh is armed with strength.

The world also is established.

It can't be moved.

2 Your throne is established from long ago.

You are from everlasting.

3 The floods have lifted up, Yahweh,

the floods have lifted up their voice.

The floods lift up their waves.

4 Above the voices of many waters,

the mighty breakers of the sea,

Yahweh on high is mighty.

5 Your statutes stand firm.

Holiness adorns your house,

Yahweh, forever more.

94 Yahweh, you God to whom vengeance belongs,

you God to whom vengeance belongs, shine
out.

2 Rise up, you judge of the earth.

Pay back the proud what they deserve.

3 Yahweh, how long will the wicked,

how long will the wicked triumph?

4 They pour out arrogant words.

All the evildoers boast.

5 They break your people in pieces, Yahweh, and afflict your heritage.

6 They kill the widow and the alien,
and murder the fatherless.

7 They say, "Yah will not see, neither will Jacob's God consider."

8 Consider, you senseless among the people;
you fools, when will you be wise?

9 He who implanted the ear, won't he hear?

He who formed the eye, won't he see?

10 He who disciplines the nations, won't he punish?

He who teaches man knows.

11 Yahweh knows the thoughts of man,
that they are futile.

12 Blessed is the man whom you discipline,
Yah,

and teach out of your law,

13 that you may give him rest from the days of adversity,

until the pit is dug for the wicked.

14 For Yahweh won't reject his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.

15 For judgment will return to righteousness.

All the upright in heart shall follow it.

16 Who will rise up for me against the wicked?

Who will stand up for me against the evildoers?

17 Unless Yahweh had been my help,
my soul would have soon lived in silence.

18 When I said, "My foot is slipping!"

Your loving kindness, Yahweh, held me up.

19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me, your comforts delight my soul.

20 Shall the throne of wickedness have fellowship with you,

which brings about mischief by statute?

21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.

22 But Yahweh has been my high tower,
my God, the rock of my refuge.

23 He has brought on them their own iniquity, and will cut them off in their own wickedness.

Yahweh, our God, will cut them off.

95 Oh come, let's sing to Yahweh.

Let's shout aloud to the rock of our salvation!

2 Let's come before his presence with thanksgiving.

Let's extol him with songs!

3 For Yahweh is a great God,

a great King above all gods.

4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth.

The heights of the mountains are also his.

5 The sea is his, and he made it.

His hands formed the dry land.

6 Oh come, let's worship and bow down.

Let's kneel before Yahweh, our Maker,

7 for he is our God.

We are the people of his pasture,

and the sheep in his care.

Today, oh that you would hear his voice!

8 Don't harden your heart, as at Meribah,
 as in the day of Massah in the wilderness, 9 when your fathers tempted me, tested me, and saw my work.
 10 Forty long years I was grieved with that generation,
 and said, "It is a people that errs in their heart.
 They have not known my ways."
 11 Therefore I swore in my wrath,
 "They won't enter into my rest."

96 Sing to Yahweh a new song!
 Sing to Yahweh, all the earth.
 2 Sing to Yahweh!
 Bless his name!
 Proclaim his salvation from day to day!
 3 Declare his glory among the nations,
 his marvelous works among all the peoples.
 4 For Yahweh is great, and greatly to be praised!
 He is to be feared above all gods.
 5 For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
 but Yahweh made the heavens.
 6 Honor and majesty are before him.
 Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
 7 Ascribe to Yahweh, you families of nations,
 ascribe to Yahweh glory and strength.
 8 Ascribe to Yahweh the glory due to his
 name.
 Bring an offering, and come into his courts.
 9 Worship Yahweh in holy array.
 Tremble before him, all the earth.
 10 Say among the nations, "Yahweh reigns."
 The world is also established.
 It can't be moved.

He will judge the peoples with equity.
 11 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice.
 Let the sea roar, and its fullness!
 12 Let the field and all that is in it exult!
 Then all the trees of the woods shall sing for joy
 13 before Yahweh; for he comes,
 for he comes to judge the earth.
 He will judge the world with righteousness,

the peoples with his truth.

97 Yahweh reigns!
 Let the earth rejoice!
 Let the multitude of islands be glad!
 2 Clouds and darkness are around him.
 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
 3 A fire goes before him,
 and burns up his adversaries on every side.
 4 His lightning lights up the world.
 The earth sees, and trembles.
 5 The mountains melt like wax at the presence of Yahweh,
 at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
 6 The heavens declare his righteousness.
 All the peoples have seen his glory.
 7 Let all them be shamed who serve engraved images,
 who boast in their idols.
 Worship him, all you gods!*

8 Zion heard and was glad.
 The daughters of Judah rejoiced because of your judgments, Yahweh.
 9 For you, Yahweh, are most high above all the
 earth.
 You are exalted far above all gods.
 10 You who love Yahweh, hate evil!
 He preserves the souls of his saints.
 He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.
 11 Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.
 12 Be glad in Yahweh, you righteous people!
 Give thanks to his holy Name.

A Psalm.

98 Sing to Yahweh a new song,
 for he has done marvelous things!
 His right hand and his holy arm have worked salvation for him.
 2 Yahweh has made known his salvation.
 He has openly shown his righteousness in the sight of the nations.

*97:7 LXX reads "angels" instead of "gods".

3 He has remembered his loving kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel.

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

4 Make a joyful noise to Yahweh, all the earth!
Burst out and sing for joy, yes, sing praises!

5 Sing praises to Yahweh with the harp, with the harp and the voice of melody.

6 With trumpets and sound of the ram's horn, make a joyful noise before the King, Yahweh.

7 Let the sea roar with its fullness;
the world, and those who dwell therein.

8 Let the rivers clap their hands.
Let the mountains sing for joy together.

9 Let them sing before Yahweh,
for he comes to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with righteousness,
and the peoples with equity.

99 Yahweh reigns! Let the peoples tremble.
He sits enthroned among the cherubim.
Let the earth be moved.

2 Yahweh is great in Zion.
He is high above all the peoples.

3 Let them praise your great and awesome
name.

He is Holy!

4 The King's strength also loves justice.
You establish equity.
You execute justice and righteousness in Jacob.

5 Exalt Yahweh our God.
Worship at his footstool.

He is Holy!

6 Moses and Aaron were among his priests, Samuel was among those who call on his
name.

They called on Yahweh, and he answered
them.

7 He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud.
They kept his testimonies,
the statute that he gave them.

8 You answered them, Yahweh our God.
You are a God who forgave them,
although you took vengeance for their doings.

9 Exalt Yahweh, our God.

Worship at his holy hill, for Yahweh, our God, is holy!

A Psalm of thanksgiving.

100 Shout for joy to Yahweh, all you lands!

2 Serve Yahweh with gladness.
Come before his presence with singing.

3 Know that Yahweh, he is God.
It is he who has made us, and we are his.

We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise.

Give thanks to him, and bless his name.

5 For Yahweh is good.
His loving kindness endures forever,
his faithfulness to all generations.

A Psalm by David.

101 I will sing of loving kindness and justice.

To you, Yahweh, I will sing praises.

2 I will be careful to live a blameless life.
When will you come to me?

I will walk within my house with a blameless
heart.

3 I will set no vile thing before my eyes.
I hate the deeds of faithless men.

They will not cling to me.
4 A perverse heart will be far from me.

I will have nothing to do with evil.

5 I will silence whoever secretly slanders his neighbor.

I won't tolerate one who is arrogant and conceited.

6 My eyes will be on the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me.

He who walks in a perfect way,
he will serve me.

7 He who practices deceit won't dwell within my house.

He who speaks falsehood won't be established before my eyes.

8 Morning by morning, I will destroy all the wicked of the land,

to cut off all the workers of iniquity from Yahweh's city.

A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before Yahweh.

102 Hear my prayer, Yahweh!
 Let my cry come to you.
 2 Don't hide your face from me in the day of my distress.
 Turn your ear to me.
 Answer me quickly in the day when I call.
 3 For my days consume away like smoke.
 My bones are burned as a torch.
 4 My heart is blighted like grass, and withered, for I forget to eat my bread.
 5 By reason of the voice of my groaning, my bones stick to my skin.
 6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness.
 I have become as an owl of the waste places.
 7 I watch, and have become like a sparrow that is alone on the housetop.
 8 My enemies reproach me all day.
 Those who are mad at me use my name as a curse.
 9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mixed my drink with tears,
 10 because of your indignation and your wrath; for you have taken me up and thrown me away.
 11 My days are like a long shadow.
 I have withered like grass.
 12 But you, Yahweh, will remain forever; your renown endures to all generations.
 13 You will arise and have mercy on Zion; for it is time to have pity on her.
 Yes, the set time has come.
 14 For your servants take pleasure in her stones, and have pity on her dust.
 15 So the nations will fear Yahweh's name, all the kings of the earth your glory.
 16 For Yahweh has built up Zion.
 He has appeared in his glory.
 17 He has responded to the prayer of the destitute, and has not despised their prayer.

18 This will be written for the generation to come.

A people which will be created will praise Yah.

19 For he has looked down from the height of his sanctuary.

From heaven, Yahweh saw the earth;

20 to hear the groans of the prisoner;

to free those who are condemned to death;

21 that men may declare Yahweh's name in Zion,

and his praise in Jerusalem;

22 when the peoples are gathered together, the kingdoms, to serve Yahweh.

23 He weakened my strength along the course. He shortened my days.

24 I said, "My God, don't take me away in the middle of my days.

Your years are throughout all generations.

25 Of old, you laid the foundation of the earth. The heavens are the work of your hands.

26 They will perish, but you will endure.

Yes, all of them will wear out like a garment. You will change them like a cloak, and they will be changed.

27 But you are the same.

Your years will have no end.

28 The children of your servants will continue. Their offspring will be established before you."

By David.

103 Praise Yahweh, my soul!
 All that is within me, praise his holy name!

2 Praise Yahweh, my soul,

and don't forget all his benefits,

3 who forgives all your sins,

who heals all your diseases,

4 who redeems your life from destruction,

who crowns you with loving kindness and tender mercies,

5 who satisfies your desire with good things,

so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

6 Yahweh executes righteous acts, and justice for all who are oppressed.

⁷ He made known his ways to Moses,
his deeds to the children of Israel.

⁸ Yahweh is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in loving
kindness.

⁹ He will not always accuse;
neither will he stay angry forever.

¹⁰ He has not dealt with us according to our sins,
nor repaid us for our iniquities.

¹¹ For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is his loving kindness toward those who fear him.

¹² As far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us.

¹³ Like a father has compassion on his children,
so Yahweh has compassion on those who fear
him.

¹⁴ For he knows how we are made.
He remembers that we are dust.

¹⁵ As for man, his days are like grass.
As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.

¹⁶ For the wind passes over it, and it is gone.
Its place remembers it no more.

¹⁷ But Yahweh's loving kindness is from everlasting to everlasting with those who fear
him,

his righteousness to children's children,

¹⁸ to those who keep his covenant,
to those who remember to obey his precepts.

¹⁹ Yahweh has established his throne in the heavens.

His kingdom rules over all.

²⁰ Praise Yahweh, you angels of his,
who are mighty in strength, who fulfill his word,

obeying the voice of his word.

²¹ Praise Yahweh, all you armies of his,
you servants of his, who do his pleasure.

²² Praise Yahweh, all you works of his,
in all places of his dominion.

Praise Yahweh, my soul!

Bless Yahweh, my soul.
104 Yahweh, my God, you are very great.
You are clothed with honor and majesty.

² He covers himself with light as with a garment.

He stretches out the heavens like a curtain.

³ He lays the beams of his rooms in the waters.
He makes the clouds his chariot.

He walks on the wings of the wind.

⁴ He makes his messengers[†] winds, and his servants flames of fire.

⁵ He laid the foundations of the earth,
that it should not be moved forever.

⁶ You covered it with the deep as with a cloak.
The waters stood above the mountains.

⁷ At your rebuke they fled.

At the voice of your thunder they hurried away.

⁸ The mountains rose,
the valleys sank down,
to the place which you had assigned to them.

⁹ You have set a boundary that they may not pass over,
that they don't turn again to cover the earth.

¹⁰ He sends springs into the valleys.
They run among the mountains.

¹¹ They give drink to every animal of the field.
The wild donkeys quench their thirst.

¹² The birds of the sky nest by them.
They sing among the branches.

¹³ He waters the mountains from his rooms.
The earth is filled with the fruit of your works.

¹⁴ He causes the grass to grow for the livestock,

and plants for man to cultivate,
that he may produce food out of the earth:

¹⁵ wine that makes the heart of man glad,
oil to make his face to shine,

and bread that strengthens man's heart.

¹⁶ Yahweh's trees are well watered,
the cedars of Lebanon, which he has planted;

¹⁷ where the birds make their nests.
The stork makes its home in the cypress trees.

[†]104:4 or, angels

18 The high mountains are for the wild goats.
 The rocks are a refuge for the rock badgers.
 19 He appointed the moon for seasons.
 The sun knows when to set.
 20 You make darkness, and it is night,
 in which all the animals of the forest prowled.
 21 The young lions roar after their prey,
 and seek their food from God.
 22 The sun rises, and they steal away,
 and lie down in their dens.
 23 Man goes out to his work,
 to his labor until the evening.
 24 Yahweh, how many are your works!
 In wisdom, you have made them all.
 The earth is full of your riches.
 25 There is the sea, great and wide,
 in which are innumerable living things,
 both small and large animals.
 26 There the ships go,
 and leviathan, whom you formed to play there.
 27 These all wait for you,
 that you may give them their food in due season.
 28 You give to them; they gather.
 You open your hand; they are satisfied with good.
 29 You hide your face; they are troubled.
 You take away their breath; they die and return to the dust.
 30 You send out your Spirit and they are created.
 You renew the face of the ground.
 31 Let Yahweh's glory endure forever.
 Let Yahweh rejoice in his works.
 32 He looks at the earth, and it trembles.
 He touches the mountains, and they smoke.
 33 I will sing to Yahweh as long as I live.
 I will sing praise to my God while I have any being.
 34 Let my meditation be sweet to him.
 I will rejoice in Yahweh.
 35 Let sinners be consumed out of the earth.
 Let the wicked be no more.
 Bless Yahweh, my soul.
 Praise Yah!

105 Give thanks to Yahweh! Call on his
 name!
 Make his doings known among the peoples.
 2 Sing to him, sing praises to him!
 Tell of all his marvelous works.
 3 Glory in his holy name.
 Let the heart of those who seek Yahweh
 rejoice.
 4 Seek Yahweh and his strength.
 Seek his face forever more.
 5 Remember his marvelous works that he has done:
 his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth,
 6 you offspring of Abraham, his servant,
 you children of Jacob, his chosen ones.
 7 He is Yahweh, our God.
 His judgments are in all the earth.
 8 He has remembered his covenant forever,
 the word which he commanded to a thousand
 generations,
 9 the covenant which he made with Abraham,
 his oath to Isaac,
 10 and confirmed it to Jacob for a statute;
 to Israel for an everlasting covenant, 11 saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan,
 the lot of your inheritance," 12 when they were but a few men in number,
 yes, very few, and foreigners in it.
 13 They went about from nation to nation,
 from one kingdom to another people.
 14 He allowed no one to do them wrong.
 Yes, he reproved kings for their sakes,
 15 "Don't touch my anointed ones!
 Do my prophets no harm!"
 16 He called for a famine on the land.
 He destroyed the food supplies.
 17 He sent a man before them.
 Joseph was sold for a slave.
 18 They bruised his feet with shackles.
 His neck was locked in irons, 19 until the time that his word happened,
 and Yahweh's word proved him true.
 20 The king sent and freed him,
 even the ruler of peoples, and let him go free.
 21 He made him lord of his house,

and ruler of all of his possessions, 22 to discipline his princes at his pleasure,
 and to teach his elders wisdom.
 23 Israel also came into Egypt.
 Jacob lived in the land of Ham.
 24 He increased his people greatly, and made them stronger than their
 adversaries.
 25 He turned their heart to hate his people,
 to conspire against his servants.
 26 He sent Moses, his servant,
 and Aaron, whom he had chosen.
 27 They performed miracles among them,
 and wonders in the land of Ham.
 28 He sent darkness, and made it dark.
 They didn't rebel against his words.
 29 He turned their waters into blood,
 and killed their fish.
 30 Their land swarmed with frogs,
 even in the rooms of their kings.
 31 He spoke, and swarms of flies came,
 and lice in all their borders.
 32 He gave them hail for rain,
 with lightning in their land.
 33 He struck their vines and also their fig trees,
 and shattered the trees of their country.
 34 He spoke, and the locusts came with the grasshoppers, without number, 35 ate up every plant in their land,
 and ate up the fruit of their ground.
 36 He struck also all the firstborn in their land,
 the first fruits of all their manhood.
 37 He brought them out with silver and gold.
 There was not one feeble person among his tribes.
 38 Egypt was glad when they departed,
 for the fear of them had fallen on them.
 39 He spread a cloud for a covering,
 fire to give light in the night.
 40 They asked, and he brought quails,
 and satisfied them with the bread of the sky.
 41 He opened the rock, and waters gushed out.
 They ran as a river in the dry places.
 42 For he remembered his holy word,
 and Abraham, his servant.
 43 He brought his people out with joy,

his chosen with singing.
 44 He gave them the lands of the nations.
 They took the labor of the peoples in possession, 45 that they might keep his statutes,
 and observe his laws.
 Praise Yah!

Praise Yahweh!
 106 Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is
 good,
 for his loving kindness endures forever.
 2 Who can utter the mighty acts of Yahweh, or fully declare all his praise?
 3 Blessed are those who keep justice.
 Blessed is one who does what is right at all times.
 4 Remember me, Yahweh, with the favor that you show to your people.
 Visit me with your salvation,
 5 that I may see the prosperity of your chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation,
 that I may glory with your inheritance.
 6 We have sinned with our fathers.
 We have committed iniquity.
 We have done wickedly.
 7 Our fathers didn't understand your wonders in Egypt.
 They didn't remember the multitude of your loving kindnesses,
 but were rebellious at the sea, even at the Red Sea.
 8 Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake,
 that he might make his mighty power known.
 9 He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up;
 so he led them through the depths, as through a desert.
 10 He saved them from the hand of him who hated them,
 and redeemed them from the hand of the
 enemy.
 11 The waters covered their adversaries.
 There was not one of them left.
 12 Then they believed his words.

They sang his praise.

13 They soon forgot his works.

They didn't wait for his counsel,

14 but gave in to craving in the desert,
and tested God in the wasteland.

15 He gave them their request,
but sent leanness into their soul.

16 They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron, Yahweh's saint.

17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan,

and covered the company of Abiram.

18 A fire was kindled in their company.

The flame burned up the wicked.

19 They made a calf in Horeb, and worshiped a molten image.

20 Thus they exchanged their glory for an image of a bull that eats grass.

21 They forgot God, their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt,

22 wondrous works in the land of Ham,
and awesome things by the Red Sea.

23 Therefore he said that he would destroy
them,

had Moses, his chosen, not stood before him
in the breach,

to turn away his wrath, so that he wouldn't destroy them.

24 Yes, they despised the pleasant land.

They didn't believe his word,

25 but murmured in their tents,
and didn't listen to Yahweh's voice.

26 Therefore he swore to them that he would overthrow them in the wilderness,

27 that he would overthrow their offspring
among the nations,

and scatter them in the lands.

28 They joined themselves also to Baal Peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their deeds.

The plague broke in on them.

30 Then Phinehas stood up and executed judgment,

so the plague was stopped.

31 That was credited to him for righteousness, for all generations to come.

32 They angered him also at the waters of Meribah,

so that Moses was troubled for their sakes;

33 because they were rebellious against his spirit,

he spoke rashly with his lips.

34 They didn't destroy the peoples,

as Yahweh commanded them,

35 but mixed themselves with the nations,
and learned their works.

36 They served their idols,

which became a snare to them.

37 Yes, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.

38 They shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters,

whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan.

The land was polluted with blood.

39 Thus they were defiled with their works,
and prostituted themselves in their deeds.

40 Therefore Yahweh burned with anger against his people.

He abhorred his inheritance.

41 He gave them into the hand of the nations.

Those who hated them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies also oppressed them.

They were brought into subjection under their hand.

43 He rescued them many times,

but they were rebellious in their counsel,

and were brought low in their iniquity.

44 Nevertheless he regarded their distress,
when he heard their cry.

45 He remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.

46 He made them also to be pitied
by all those who carried them captive.

47 Save us, Yahweh, our God, gather us from among the nations,

to give thanks to your holy name,

to triumph in your praise!

48 Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel,

from everlasting even to everlasting!
 Let all the people say, "Amen."
 Praise Yah!

BOOK 5

107 Give thanks to Yahweh,[‡] for he is good,
 for his loving kindness endures forever.
 2 Let the redeemed by Yahweh say so,
 whom he has redeemed from the hand of the adversary, 3 And gathered out of the lands,
 from the east and from the west,
 from the north and from the south.
 4 They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way.
 They found no city to live in.
 5 Hungry and thirsty,
 their soul fainted in them.
 6 Then they cried to Yahweh in their trouble,
 and he delivered them out of their distresses, 7 he led them also by a straight way, that they might go to a city to live in.
 8 Let them praise Yahweh for his loving kindness,
 for his wonderful deeds to the children of men!
 9 For he satisfies the longing soul.
 He fills the hungry soul with good.
 10 Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death,
 being bound in affliction and iron, 11 because they rebelled against the words of God,[¶] and condemned the counsel of the Most High.
 12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labor.
 They fell down, and there was no one to help.
 13 Then they cried to Yahweh in their trouble,
 and he saved them out of their distresses.

14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and broke away their chains.
 15 Let them praise Yahweh for his loving kindness,
 for his wonderful deeds to the children of men!
 16 For he has broken the gates of bronze,
 and cut through bars of iron.
 17 Fools are afflicted because of their disobedience, and because of their iniquities.
 18 Their soul abhors all kinds of food.
 They draw near to the gates of death.
 19 Then they cry to Yahweh in their trouble,
 he saves them out of their distresses.
 20 He sends his word, and heals them,
 and delivers them from their graves.
 21 Let them praise Yahweh for his loving kindness,
 for his wonderful deeds to the children of men!
 22 Let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving,
 and declare his deeds with singing.
 23 Those who go down to the sea in ships,
 who do business in great waters;
 24 These see Yahweh's deeds, and his wonders in the deep.
 25 For he commands, and raises the stormy wind, which lifts up its waves.
 26 They mount up to the sky; they go down again to the depths.
 Their soul melts away because of trouble.
 27 They reel back and forth, and stagger like a drunken man,
 and are at their wits' end.
 28 Then they cry to Yahweh in their trouble,
 and he brings them out of their distress.
 29 He makes the storm a calm,
 so that its waves are still.

[‡]107:1 "Yahweh" is God's proper Name, sometimes rendered "LORD" (all caps) in other translations.

[¶]107:11 The Hebrew word rendered "God" is "אֱלֹהִים" (Elohim).

30 Then they are glad because it is calm,
so he brings them to their desired haven.
31 Let them praise Yahweh for his loving kindness,
for his wonderful deeds for the children of
men!
32 Let them exalt him also in the assembly of the people,
and praise him in the seat of the elders.
33 He turns rivers into a desert,
water springs into a thirsty ground, 34 and a fruitful land into a salt waste,
for the wickedness of those who dwell in it.
35 He turns a desert into a pool of water,
and a dry land into water springs.
36 There he makes the hungry live, that they may prepare a city to live in, 37 sow fields, plant vineyards,
and reap the fruits of increase.
38 He blesses them also, so that they are multiplied greatly.
He doesn't allow their livestock to decrease.
39 Again, they are diminished and bowed down
through oppression, trouble, and sorrow.
40 He pours contempt on princes, and causes them to wander in a trackless waste.
41 Yet he lifts the needy out of their affliction,
and increases their families like a flock.
42 The upright will see it, and be glad.
All the wicked will shut their mouths.
43 Whoever is wise will pay attention to these things.
They will consider the loving kindnesses of Yahweh.

A Song. A Psalm by David.

108 My heart is steadfast, God.
I will sing and I will make music with my soul.
2 Wake up, harp and lyre!
I will wake up the dawn.
3 I will give thanks to you, Yahweh, among the nations.
I will sing praises to you among the peoples.

4 For your loving kindness is great above the heavens.
Your faithfulness reaches to the skies.
5 Be exalted, God, above the heavens!
Let your glory be over all the earth.
6 That your beloved may be delivered,
save with your right hand, and answer us.
7 God has spoken from his sanctuary: "In triumph,
I will divide Shechem, and measure out the valley of Succoth.
8 Gilead is mine. Manasseh is mine.
Ephraim also is my helmet.
Judah is my scepter.
9 Moab is my wash pot.
I will toss my sandal on Edom.
I will shout over Philistia."
10 Who will bring me into the fortified city?
Who has led me to Edom?
11 Haven't you rejected us, God?
You don't go out, God, with our armies.
12 Give us help against the enemy,
for the help of man is vain.
13 Through God, we will do valiantly.
For it is he who will tread down our enemies.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

109 God of my praise, don't remain silent,
2 for they have opened the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of deceit against me.
They have spoken to me with a lying tongue.
3 They have also surrounded me with words of hatred,
and fought against me without a cause.
4 In return for my love, they are my
adversaries;
but I am in prayer.
5 They have rewarded me evil for good,
and hatred for my love.
6 Set a wicked man over him.
Let an adversary stand at his right hand.
7 When he is judged, let him come out guilty.
Let his prayer be turned into sin.
8 Let his days be few.
Let another take his office.

9 Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.
10 Let his children be wandering beggars.
Let them be sought from their ruins.
11 Let the creditor seize all that he has.
Let strangers plunder the fruit of his labor.
12 Let there be no one to extend kindness to
him, neither let there be anyone to have pity on his fatherless children.
13 Let his posterity be cut off.
In the generation following let their name be blotted out.
14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered by Yahweh.
Don't let the sin of his mother be blotted out.
15 Let them be before Yahweh continually, that he may cut off their memory from the
earth;
16 because he didn't remember to show
kindness,
but persecuted the poor and needy man,
the broken in heart, to kill them.
17 Yes, he loved cursing, and it came to him.
He didn't delight in blessing, and it was far from him.
18 He clothed himself also with cursing as with his garment.
It came into his inward parts like water,
like oil into his bones.
19 Let it be to him as the clothing with which he covers himself,
for the belt that is always around him.
20 This is the reward of my adversaries from Yahweh,
of those who speak evil against my soul.
21 But deal with me, Yahweh the Lord,^s for your name's sake, because your loving kindness is good, deliver
me;
22 for I am poor and needy.
My heart is wounded within me.
23 I fade away like an evening shadow.
I am shaken off like a locust.

24 My knees are weak through fasting.
My body is thin and lacks fat.
25 I have also become a reproach to them.
When they see me, they shake their head.
26 Help me, Yahweh, my God.
Save me according to your loving kindness;
27 that they may know that this is your hand;
that you, Yahweh, have done it.
28 They may curse, but you bless.
When they arise, they will be shamed,
but your servant shall rejoice.
29 Let my adversaries be clothed with dishonor.
Let them cover themselves with their own shame as with a robe.
30 I will give great thanks to Yahweh with my
mouth.
Yes, I will praise him among the multitude.
31 For he will stand at the right hand of the needy,
to save him from those who judge his soul.

A Psalm by David.

110 Yahweh says to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool for your feet."
2 Yahweh will send out the rod of your strength out of Zion.
Rule among your enemies.
3 Your people offer themselves willingly in the day of your power, in holy array.
Out of the womb of the morning, you have the dew of your youth.
4 Yahweh has sworn, and will not change his mind:
"You are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek."
5 The Lord is at your right hand.
He will crush kings in the day of his wrath.
6 He will judge among the nations.
He will heap up dead bodies.
He will crush the ruler of the whole earth.
7 He will drink of the brook on the way;

^s109:21 The word translated "Lord" is "Adonai."

therefore he will lift up his head.

111 Praise Yah!
I will give thanks to Yahweh with my whole heart,
in the council of the upright, and in the congregation.

²Yahweh's works are great,
pondered by all those who delight in them.

³His work is honor and majesty.
His righteousness endures forever.

⁴He has caused his wonderful works to be remembered.

Yahweh is gracious and merciful.

⁵He has given food to those who fear him.
He always remembers his covenant.

⁶He has shown his people the power of his works,

in giving them the heritage of the nations.

⁷The works of his hands are truth and justice.
All his precepts are sure.

⁸They are established forever and ever.
They are done in truth and uprightness.

⁹He has sent redemption to his people.
He has ordained his covenant forever.

His name is holy and awesome!

¹⁰The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of wisdom.

All those who do his work have a good
understanding.

His praise endures forever!

112 Praise Yah!††
Blessed is the man who fears
Yahweh,

who delights greatly in his commandments.

²His offspring will be mighty in the land.
The generation of the upright will be blessed.

³Wealth and riches are in his house.
His righteousness endures forever.

⁴Light dawns in the darkness for the upright, gracious, merciful, and righteous.

⁵It is well with the man who deals graciously and lends.

He will maintain his cause in judgment.

⁶For he will never be shaken.

The righteous will be remembered forever.

⁷He will not be afraid of evil news.

His heart is steadfast, trusting in Yahweh.

⁸His heart is established.

He will not be afraid in the end when he sees his adversaries.

⁹He has dispersed, he has given to the poor.
His righteousness endures forever.

His horn will be exalted with honor.

¹⁰The wicked will see it, and be grieved.

He shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away.

The desire of the wicked will perish.

113 Praise Yah!
Praise, you servants of Yahweh,
praise Yahweh's name.

²Blessed be Yahweh's name,
from this time forward and forever more.

³From the rising of the sun to its going down,
Yahweh's name is to be praised.

⁴Yahweh is high above all nations, his glory above the heavens.

⁵Who is like Yahweh, our God,
who has his seat on high,

⁶Who stoops down to see in heaven and in the
earth?

⁷He raises up the poor out of the dust.

Lifts up the needy from the ash heap,

⁸that he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his people.

⁹He settles the barren woman in her home
as a joyful mother of children.

Praise Yah!

114 When Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of foreign language,

²Judah became his sanctuary,

Israel his dominion.

³The sea saw it, and fled.

The Jordan was driven back.

⁴The mountains skipped like rams,

the little hills like lambs.

5 What was it, you sea, that you fled?

You Jordan, that you turned back?

6 You mountains, that you skipped like rams;
you little hills, like lambs?

7 Tremble, you earth, at the presence of the Lord,

at the presence of the God of Jacob, 8 who turned the rock into a pool of water,
the flint into a spring of waters.

115 Not to us, Yahweh, not to us, but to your name give glory,
for your loving kindness, and for your truth's sake.

2 Why should the nations say,
“Where is their God, now?”

3 But our God is in the heavens.
He does whatever he pleases.

4 Their idols are silver and gold,
the work of men's hands.

5 They have mouths, but they don't speak.
They have eyes, but they don't see.

6 They have ears, but they don't hear.
They have noses, but they don't smell.

7 They have hands, but they don't feel.
They have feet, but they don't walk,
neither do they speak through their throat.

8 Those who make them will be like them;
yes, everyone who trusts in them.

9 Israel, trust in Yahweh!
He is their help and their shield.

10 House of Aaron, trust in Yahweh!
He is their help and their shield.

11 You who fear Yahweh, trust in Yahweh!
He is their help and their shield.

12 Yahweh remembers us. He will bless us.
He will bless the house of Israel.

He will bless the house of Aaron.
13 He will bless those who fear Yahweh, both small and great.

14 May Yahweh increase you more and more,
you and your children.

15 Blessed are you by Yahweh,
who made heaven and earth.

16 The heavens are Yahweh's heavens, but he has given the earth to the children of men.

17 The dead don't praise Yah, neither any who go down into silence;

18 but we will bless Yah,
from this time forward and forever more.
Praise Yah!

116 I love Yahweh, because he listens to my voice,
and my cries for mercy.

2 Because he has turned his ear to me,
therefore I will call on him as long as I live.

3 The cords of death surrounded me,
the pains of Sheol[‡] got a hold of me.
I found trouble and sorrow.

4 Then I called on Yahweh's name:
“Yahweh, I beg you, deliver my soul.”

5 Yahweh is Gracious and righteous.
Yes, our God is merciful.

6 Yahweh preserves the simple.
I was brought low, and he saved me.

7 Return to your rest, my soul,
for Yahweh has dealt bountifully with you.

8 For you have delivered my soul from death,
my eyes from tears,
and my feet from falling.

9 I will walk before Yahweh in the land of the living.

10 I believed, therefore I said,
“I was greatly afflicted.”

11 I said in my haste,
“All people are liars.”

12 What will I give to Yahweh for all his benefits toward me?

13 I will take the cup of salvation, and call on Yahweh's name.

14 I will pay my vows to Yahweh,
yes, in the presence of all his people.

15 Precious in Yahweh's sight is the death of his saints.

16 Yahweh, truly I am your servant.
I am your servant, the son of your servant girl.
You have freed me from my chains.

‡116:3 Sheol is the place of the dead.

17 I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call on Yahweh's name.

18 I will pay my vows to Yahweh,

yes, in the presence of all his people,

19 in the courts of Yahweh's house,

in the middle of you, Jerusalem.

Praise Yah!

117 Praise Yahweh, all you nations!
Extol him, all you peoples!

2 For his loving kindness is great toward us.

Yahweh's faithfulness endures forever.

Praise Yah!

118 Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good,

for his loving kindness endures forever.

2 Let Israel now say

that his loving kindness endures forever.

3 Let the house of Aaron now say

that his loving kindness endures forever.

4 Now let those who fear Yahweh say

that his loving kindness endures forever.

5 Out of my distress, I called on Yah.

Yah answered me with freedom.

6 Yahweh is on my side. I will not be afraid.

What can man do to me?

7 Yahweh is on my side among those who help me.

Therefore I will look in triumph at those who hate me.

8 It is better to take refuge in Yahweh, than to put confidence in man.

9 It is better to take refuge in Yahweh, than to put confidence in princes.

10 All the nations surrounded me, but in Yahweh's name, I cut them off.

11 They surrounded me, yes, they surrounded me.

In Yahweh's name I indeed cut them off.

12 They surrounded me like bees.

They are quenched like the burning thorns.

In Yahweh's name I cut them off.

13 You pushed me back hard, to make me fall, but Yahweh helped me.

14 Yah is my strength and song.

He has become my salvation.

15 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous.

"The right hand of Yahweh does valiantly.

16 The right hand of Yahweh is exalted!

The right hand of Yahweh does valiantly!"

17 I will not die, but live, and declare Yah's works.

18 Yah has punished me severely,

but he has not given me over to death.

19 Open to me the gates of righteousness.

I will enter into them.

I will give thanks to Yah.

20 This is the gate of Yahweh;

the righteous will enter into it.

21 I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me,

and have become my salvation.

22 The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.¶¶

23 This is Yahweh's doing.

It is marvelous in our eyes.

24 This is the day that Yahweh has made.

We will rejoice and be glad in it!

25 Save us now, we beg you, Yahweh!

Yahweh, we beg you, send prosperity now.

26 Blessed is he who comes in Yahweh's name!

We have blessed you out of Yahweh's house.

27 Yahweh is God, and he has given us light.

Bind the sacrifice with cords, even to the horns of the altar.

28 You are my God, and I will give thanks to you.

You are my God, I will exalt you.

29 Oh give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good, for his loving kindness endures forever.

ALEPH

119 Blessed are those whose ways are blameless, who walk according to Yahweh's law.

2 Blessed are those who keep his statutes, who seek him with their whole heart.

¶¶118:22 Literally, head of the corner

3 Yes, they do nothing wrong.
 They walk in his ways.
 4 You have commanded your precepts, that we should fully obey them.
 5 Oh that my ways were steadfast to obey your statutes!
 6 Then I wouldn't be disappointed,
 when I consider all of your commandments.
 7 I will give thanks to you with uprightness of
 heart,
 when I learn your righteous judgments.
 8 I will observe your statutes.
 Don't utterly forsake me.

BET

9 How can a young man keep his way pure?
 By living according to your word.
 10 With my whole heart, I have sought you.
 Don't let me wander from your commandments.
 11 I have hidden your word in my heart,
 that I might not sin against you.
 12 Blessed are you, Yahweh.
 Teach me your statutes.
 13 With my lips,
 I have declared all the ordinances of your
 mouth.
 14 I have rejoiced in the way of your testimonies,
 as much as in all riches.
 15 I will meditate on your precepts,
 and consider your ways.
 16 I will delight myself in your statutes.
 I will not forget your word.

GIMEL

17 Do good to your servant.
 I will live and I will obey your word.
 18 Open my eyes, that I may see wondrous things out of your law.
 19 I am a stranger on the earth.
 Don't hide your commandments from me.
 20 My soul is consumed with longing for your ordinances at all times.

21 You have rebuked the proud who are cursed,
 who wander from your commandments.
 22 Take reproach and contempt away from me,
 for I have kept your statutes.
 23 Though princes sit and slander me,
 your servant will meditate on your statutes.
 24 Indeed your statutes are my delight, and my counselors.

DALED

25 My soul is laid low in the dust.
 Revive me according to your word!
 26 I declared my ways, and you answered me.
 Teach me your statutes.
 27 Let me understand the teaching of your precepts!
 Then I will meditate on your wondrous works.
 28 My soul is weary with sorrow:
 strengthen me according to your word.
 29 Keep me from the way of deceit.
 Grant me your law graciously!
 30 I have chosen the way of truth.
 I have set your ordinances before me.
 31 I cling to your statutes, Yahweh.
 Don't let me be disappointed.
 32 I run in the path of your commandments,
 for you have set my heart free.

HEY

33 Teach me, Yahweh, the way of your statutes.
 I will keep them to the end.
 34 Give me understanding, and I will keep your law.
 Yes, I will obey it with my whole heart.
 35 Direct me in the path of your
 commandments,
 for I delight in them.
 36 Turn my heart toward your statutes,
 not toward selfish gain.
 37 Turn my eyes away from looking at worthless things.
 Revive me in your ways.
 38 Fulfill your promise to your servant,
 that you may be feared.

39 Take away my disgrace that I dread, for your ordinances are good.

40 Behold, I long for your precepts!
Revive me in your righteousness.

WAW

41 Let your loving kindness also come to me,
Yahweh,
your salvation, according to your word.

42 So I will have an answer for him who re-proaches me,
for I trust in your word.

43 Don't snatch the word of truth out of my
mouth,
for I put my hope in your ordinances.

44 So I will obey your law continually,
forever and ever.

45 I will walk in liberty,
for I have sought your precepts.

46 I will also speak of your statutes before kings,
and will not be disappointed.

47 I will delight myself in your
commandments,
because I love them.

48 I reach out my hands for your commandments, which I love.

I will meditate on your statutes.

ZAYIN

49 Remember your word to your servant,
because you gave me hope.

50 This is my comfort in my affliction, for your word has revived me.

51 The arrogant mock me excessively,
but I don't swerve from your law.

52 I remember your ordinances of old,
Yahweh,
and have comforted myself.

53 Indignation has taken hold on me,
because of the wicked who forsake your law.

54 Your statutes have been my songs
in the house where I live.

55 I have remembered your name, Yahweh, in the night,
and I obey your law.

56 This is my way,
that I keep your precepts.

CHET

57 Yahweh is my portion.
I promised to obey your words.

58 I sought your favor with my whole heart.
Be merciful to me according to your word.

59 I considered my ways,
and turned my steps to your statutes.

60 I will hurry, and not delay,
to obey your commandments.

61 The ropes of the wicked bind me,
but I won't forget your law.

62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks to you,
because of your righteous ordinances.

63 I am a friend of all those who fear you,
of those who observe your precepts.

64 The earth is full of your loving kindness,
Yahweh.

Teach me your statutes.

TET

65 Do good to your servant,
according to your word, Yahweh.

66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge,
for I believe in your commandments.

67 Before I was afflicted, I went astray;
but now I observe your word.

68 You are good, and do good.
Teach me your statutes.

69 The proud have smeared a lie upon me.
With my whole heart, I will keep your precepts.

70 Their heart is as callous as the fat,
but I delight in your law.

71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted, that I may learn your statutes.

72 The law of your mouth is better to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.

YUD

73 Your hands have made me and formed me.
Give me understanding, that I may learn your commandments.

74 Those who fear you will see me and be glad,

because I have put my hope in your word.
 75 Yahweh, I know that your judgments are righteous, that in faithfulness you have afflicted me.
 76 Please let your loving kindness be for my comfort,
 according to your word to your servant.
 77 Let your tender mercies come to me, that I may live;
 for your law is my delight.
 78 Let the proud be disappointed, for they have overthrown me wrongfully.
 I will meditate on your precepts.
 79 Let those who fear you turn to me.
 They will know your statutes.
 80 Let my heart be blameless toward your decrees, that I may not be disappointed.

KAF

81 My soul faints for your salvation.
 I hope in your word.
 82 My eyes fail for your word.
 I say, "When will you comfort me?"
 83 For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke.
 I don't forget your statutes.
 84 How many are the days of your servant?
 When will you execute judgment on those who persecute me?
 85 The proud have dug pits for me,
 contrary to your law.
 86 All of your commandments are faithful.
 They persecute me wrongfully.
 Help me!
 87 They had almost wiped me from the earth,
 but I didn't forsake your precepts.
 88 Preserve my life according to your loving kindness, so I will obey the statutes of your mouth.

LAMED

89 Yahweh, your word is settled in heaven forever.
 90 Your faithfulness is to all generations.
 You have established the earth, and it remains.

91 Your laws remain to this day,
 for all things serve you.
 92 Unless your law had been my delight,
 I would have perished in my affliction.
 93 I will never forget your precepts, for with them, you have revived me.
 94 I am yours.
 Save me, for I have sought your precepts.
 95 The wicked have waited for me, to destroy me.
 I will consider your statutes.
 96 I have seen a limit to all perfection, but your commands are boundless.

MEM

97 How I love your law!
 It is my meditation all day.
 98 Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies,
 for your commandments are always with me.
 99 I have more understanding than all my teachers,
 for your testimonies are my meditation.
 100 I understand more than the aged,
 because I have kept your precepts.
 101 I have kept my feet from every evil way,
 that I might observe your word.
 102 I have not turned away from your ordinances,
 for you have taught me.
 103 How sweet are your promises to my taste,
 more than honey to my mouth!
 104 Through your precepts, I get understanding;
 therefore I hate every false way.

NUN

105 Your word is a lamp to my feet,
 and a light for my path.
 106 I have sworn, and have confirmed it,
 that I will obey your righteous ordinances.
 107 I am afflicted very much.
 Revive me, Yahweh, according to your word.
 108 Accept, I beg you, the willing offerings of my mouth.
 Yahweh, teach me your ordinances.

109 My soul is continually in my hand,
 yet I won't forget your law.
 110 The wicked have laid a snare for me,
 yet I haven't gone astray from your precepts.
 111 I have taken your testimonies as a heritage
 forever,
 for they are the joy of my heart.
 112 I have set my heart to perform your statutes
 forever,
 even to the end.

SAMEKH

113 I hate double-minded men,
 but I love your law.
 114 You are my hiding place and my shield.
 I hope in your word.
 115 Depart from me, you evildoers, that I may keep the commandments of my
 God.
 116 Uphold me according to your word, that I may live.
 Let me not be ashamed of my hope.
 117 Hold me up, and I will be safe, and will have respect for your statutes continually.
 118 You reject all those who stray from your statutes,
 for their deceit is in vain.
 119 You put away all the wicked of the earth like dross.
 Therefore I love your testimonies.
 120 My flesh trembles for fear of you.
 I am afraid of your judgments.

AYIN

121 I have done what is just and righteous.
 Don't leave me to my oppressors.
 122 Ensure your servant's well-being.
 Don't let the proud oppress me.
 123 My eyes fail looking for your salvation,
 for your righteous word.
 124 Deal with your servant according to your loving kindness.
 Teach me your statutes.
 125 I am your servant. Give me understanding, that I may know your testimonies.

126 It is time to act, Yahweh,
 for they break your law.
 127 Therefore I love your commandments more than gold,
 yes, more than pure gold.
 128 Therefore I consider all of your precepts to be right.
 I hate every false way.

PEY

129 Your testimonies are wonderful, therefore my soul keeps them.
 130 The entrance of your words gives light.
 It gives understanding to the simple.
 131 I opened my mouth wide and panted,
 for I longed for your commandments.
 132 Turn to me, and have mercy on me,
 as you always do to those who love your name.
 133 Establish my footsteps in your word.
 Don't let any iniquity have dominion over me.
 134 Redeem me from the oppression of man,
 so I will observe your precepts.
 135 Make your face shine on your servant.
 Teach me your statutes.
 136 Streams of tears run down my eyes, because they don't observe your law.

TZADI

137 You are righteous, Yahweh.
 Your judgments are upright.
 138 You have commanded your statutes in
 righteousness.
 They are fully trustworthy.
 139 My zeal wears me out, because my enemies ignore your words.
 140 Your promises have been thoroughly tested,
 and your servant loves them.
 141 I am small and despised.
 I don't forget your precepts.
 142 Your righteousness is an everlasting
 righteousness.
 Your law is truth.
 143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold of
 me.
 Your commandments are my delight.

144 Your testimonies are righteous forever.
Give me understanding, that I may live.

KUF

145 I have called with my whole heart.
Answer me, Yahweh!
I will keep your statutes.
146 I have called to you. Save me!
I will obey your statutes.
147 I rise before dawn and cry for help.
I put my hope in your words.
148 My eyes stay open through the night watches,
that I might meditate on your word.
149 Hear my voice according to your loving kindness.
Revive me, Yahweh, according to your ordinances.
150 They draw near who follow after wickedness.
They are far from your law.
151 You are near, Yahweh.
All your commandments are truth.
152 Of old I have known from your testimonies,
that you have founded them forever.

RESH

153 Consider my affliction, and deliver me,
for I don't forget your law.
154 Plead my cause, and redeem me!
Revive me according to your promise.
155 Salvation is far from the wicked,
for they don't seek your statutes.
156 Great are your tender mercies, Yahweh.
Revive me according to your ordinances.
157 Many are my persecutors and my adversaries.
I haven't swerved from your testimonies.
158 I look at the faithless with loathing, because they don't observe your word.
159 Consider how I love your precepts.
Revive me, Yahweh, according to your loving kindness.
160 All of your words are truth.

Every one of your righteous ordinances endures forever.

SIN AND SHIN

161 Princes have persecuted me without a cause,
but my heart stands in awe of your words.
162 I rejoice at your word,
as one who finds great plunder.
163 I hate and abhor falsehood.
I love your law.
164 Seven times a day, I praise you,
because of your righteous ordinances.
165 Those who love your law have great peace.
Nothing causes them to stumble.
166 I have hoped for your salvation, Yahweh.
I have done your commandments.
167 My soul has observed your testimonies.
I love them exceedingly.
168 I have obeyed your precepts and your testimonies,
for all my ways are before you.

TAV

169 Let my cry come before you, Yahweh.
Give me understanding according to your word.
170 Let my supplication come before you.
Deliver me according to your word.
171 Let my lips utter praise,
for you teach me your statutes.
172 Let my tongue sing of your word,
for all your commandments are righteousness.
173 Let your hand be ready to help me,
for I have chosen your precepts.
174 I have longed for your salvation, Yahweh.
Your law is my delight.
175 Let my soul live, that I may praise you.
Let your ordinances help me.
176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep.
Seek your servant, for I don't forget your commandments.

A Song of Ascents.

120 In my distress, I cried to Yahweh.
He answered me.

2 Deliver my soul, Yahweh, from lying lips,
 from a deceitful tongue.
 3 What will be given to you, and what will be done more to you,
 you deceitful tongue?
 4 Sharp arrows of the mighty,
 with coals of juniper.
 5 Woe is me, that I live in Meshech, that I dwell among the tents of Kedar!
 6 My soul has had her dwelling too long with him who hates peace.
 7 I am for peace,
 but when I speak, they are for war.

A Song of Ascents.

121 I will lift up my eyes to the hills.
 Where does my help come from?
 2 My help comes from Yahweh,
 who made heaven and earth.
 3 He will not allow your foot to be moved.
 He who keeps you will not slumber.
 4 Behold, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
 5 Yahweh is your keeper.
 Yahweh is your shade on your right hand.
 6 The sun will not harm you by day,
 nor the moon by night.
 7 Yahweh will keep you from all evil.
 He will keep your soul.
 8 Yahweh will keep your going out and your coming in,
 from this time forward, and forever more.

A Song of Ascents. By David.

122 I was glad when they said to me,
 "Let's go to Yahweh's house!"
 2 Our feet are standing within your gates,
 Jerusalem,
 3 Jerusalem, that is built as a city that is compact together,
 4 where the tribes go up, even Yah's tribes,
 according to an ordinance for Israel,
 to give thanks to Yahweh's name.
 5 For there are set thrones for judgment,
 the thrones of David's house.
 6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem.

Those who love you will prosper.
 7 Peace be within your walls,
 and prosperity within your palaces.
 8 For my brothers' and companions' sakes,
 I will now say, "Peace be within you."
 9 For the sake of the house of Yahweh our
 God,
 I will seek your good.

A Song of Ascents.

123 I lift up my eyes to you,
 you who sit in the heavens.
 2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress;
 so our eyes look to Yahweh, our God,
 until he has mercy on us.
 3 Have mercy on us, Yahweh, have mercy on us,
 for we have endured much contempt.
 4 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scoff-ing of those who are at ease, with the contempt of the proud.

A Song of Ascents. By David.

124 If it had not been Yahweh who was on our side,
 let Israel now say,
 2 if it had not been Yahweh who was on our side,
 when men rose up against us;
 3 then they would have swallowed us up alive,
 when their wrath was kindled against us;
 4 then the waters would have overwhelmed us,
 the stream would have gone over our soul;
 5 then the proud waters would have gone over our soul.
 6 Blessed be Yahweh,
 who has not given us as a prey to their teeth.
 7 Our soul has escaped like a bird out of the fowler's snare.
 The snare is broken, and we have escaped.
 8 Our help is in Yahweh's name,
 who made heaven and earth.

A Song of Ascents.

125 Those who trust in Yahweh are as Mount Zion,
which can't be moved, but remains forever.
2 As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so Yahweh surrounds his people from this time forward and forever more.
3 For the scepter of wickedness won't remain over the allotment of the righteous;
so that the righteous won't use their hands to do evil.
4 Do good, Yahweh, to those who are good,
to those who are upright in their hearts.
5 But as for those who turn away to their crooked ways,
Yahweh will lead them away with the workers of iniquity.
Peace be on Israel.

A Song of Ascents.

126 When Yahweh brought back those who returned to Zion,
we were like those who dream.
2 Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
and our tongue with singing.
Then they said among the nations,
"Yahweh has done great things for them."
3 Yahweh has done great things for us, and we are glad.
4 Restore our fortunes again, Yahweh,
like the streams in the Negev.
5 Those who sow in tears will reap in joy.
6 He who goes out weeping, carrying seed for sowing,
will certainly come again with joy, carrying his sheaves.

A Song of Ascents. By Solomon.

127 Unless Yahweh builds the house,
they who build it labor in vain.
Unless Yahweh watches over the city,
the watchman guards it in vain.
2 It is vain for you to rise up early,
to stay up late,
eating the bread of toil,

for he gives sleep to his loved ones.
3 Behold, children are a heritage of Yahweh.
The fruit of the womb is his reward.

4 As arrows in the hand of a mighty man,
so are the children of youth.

5 Happy is the man who has his quiver full of
them.

They won't be disappointed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

A Song of Ascents.

128 Blessed is everyone who fears
Yahweh,
who walks in his ways.

2 For you will eat the labor of your hands.

You will be happy, and it will be well with you.

3 Your wife will be as a fruitful vine in the innermost parts of your house, your children like olive plants around your table.

4 Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears
Yahweh.

5 May Yahweh bless you out of Zion, and may you see the good of Jerusalem all the days of your life.

6 Yes, may you see your children's children.
Peace be upon Israel.

A Song of Ascents.

129 Many times they have afflicted me from my youth up.

Let Israel now say,

2 many times they have afflicted me from my youth up,

yet they have not prevailed against me.

3 The plowers plowed on my back.

They made their furrows long.

4 Yahweh is righteous.

He has cut apart the cords of the wicked.

5 Let them be disappointed and turned backward,

all those who hate Zion.

6 Let them be as the grass on the housetops, which withers before it grows up,

7 with which the reaper doesn't fill his hand,
nor he who binds sheaves, his bosom.

8 Neither do those who go by say,
 “The blessing of Yahweh be on you.
 We bless you in Yahweh’s name.”

A Song of Ascents.

130 Out of the depths I have cried to you,
 Yahweh.
 2 Lord, hear my voice.
 Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my petitions.
 3 If you, Yah, kept a record of sins,
 Lord, who could stand?
 4 But there is forgiveness with you, therefore you are feared.
 5 I wait for Yahweh.
 My soul waits.
 I hope in his word.
 6 My soul longs for the Lord more than watchmen long for the morning,
 more than watchmen for the morning.
 7 Israel, hope in Yahweh,
 for there is loving kindness with Yahweh.
 Abundant redemption is with him.
 8 He will redeem Israel from all their sins.

A Song of Ascents. By David.

131 Yahweh, my heart isn’t arrogant, nor my eyes lofty;
 nor do I concern myself with great matters,
 or things too wonderful for me.
 2 Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul,
 like a weaned child with his mother,
 like a weaned child is my soul within me.
 3 Israel, hope in Yahweh,
 from this time forward and forever more.

A Song of Ascents.

132 Yahweh, remember David and all his affliction,
 2 how he swore to Yahweh,
 and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob:
 3 “Surely I will not come into the structure of
 my house,
 nor go up into my bed;
 4 I will not give sleep to my eyes,
 or slumber to my eyelids;

5 until I find out a place for Yahweh,
 a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob.”
 6 Behold, we heard of it in Ephrathah.
 We found it in the field of Jaar:
 7 “We will go into his dwelling place.
 We will worship at his footstool.
 8 Arise, Yahweh, into your resting place,
 you, and the ark of your strength.
 9 Let your priests be clothed with
 righteousness.
 Let your saints shout for joy!”
 10 For your servant David’s sake, don’t turn away the face of your anointed one.
 11 Yahweh has sworn to David in truth.
 He will not turn from it:
 “I will set the fruit of your body on your throne.
 12 If your children will keep my covenant,
 my testimony that I will teach them, their children also will sit on your throne forever more.”
 13 For Yahweh has chosen Zion.
 He has desired it for his habitation.
 14 “This is my resting place forever.
 I will live here, for I have desired it.
 15 I will abundantly bless her provision.
 I will satisfy her poor with bread.
 16 I will also clothe her priests with salvation.
 Her saints will shout aloud for joy.
 17 I will make the horn of David to bud there.
 I have ordained a lamp for my anointed.
 18 I will clothe his enemies with shame,
 but on himself, his crown will shine.”

A Song of Ascents. By David.

133 See how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to live together in unity!
 2 It is like the precious oil on the head,
 that ran down on the beard,
 even Aaron’s beard,
 that came down on the edge of his robes,
 3 like the dew of Hermon,
 that comes down on the hills of Zion;
 for there Yahweh gives the blessing,
 even life forever more.

A Song of Ascents.

134 Look! Praise Yahweh, all you servants of Yahweh, who stand by night in Yahweh's house!
 2 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary.
 Praise Yahweh!

3 May Yahweh bless you from Zion, even he who made heaven and earth.

135 Praise Yah!
 Praise Yahweh's name!
 Praise him, you servants of Yahweh,
 2 you who stand in Yahweh's house,
 in the courts of our God's house.
 3 Praise Yah, for Yahweh is good.
 Sing praises to his name, for that is pleasant.
 4 For Yah has chosen Jacob for himself,
 Israel for his own possession.
 5 For I know that Yahweh is great,
 that our Lord is above all gods.
 6 Whatever Yahweh pleased, that he has done, in heaven and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps.
 7 He causes the clouds to rise from the ends of
 the earth.
 He makes lightnings with the rain.
 He brings the wind out of his treasuries.
 8 He struck the firstborn of Egypt,
 both of man and animal.
 9 He sent signs and wonders into the middle of you, Egypt,
 on Pharaoh, and on all his servants.
 10 He struck many nations,
 and killed mighty kings,
 11 Sihon king of the Amorites,
 Og king of Bashan,
 and all the kingdoms of Canaan, 12 and gave their land for a heritage,
 a heritage to Israel, his people.
 13 Your name, Yahweh, endures forever; your renown, Yahweh, throughout all
 generations.
 14 For Yahweh will judge his people and have compassion on his servants.
 15 The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
 the work of men's hands.

16 They have mouths, but they can't speak.
 They have eyes, but they can't see.

17 They have ears, but they can't hear,
 neither is there any breath in their mouths.
 18 Those who make them will be like them,
 yes, everyone who trusts in them.
 19 House of Israel, praise Yahweh!
 House of Aaron, praise Yahweh!
 20 House of Levi, praise Yahweh!
 You who fear Yahweh, praise Yahweh!
 21 Blessed be Yahweh from Zion, who dwells at Jerusalem.
 Praise Yah!

136 Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is
 good;
 for his loving kindness endures forever.
 2 Give thanks to the God of gods;
 for his loving kindness endures forever.
 3 Give thanks to the Lord of lords;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
 4 to him who alone does great wonders;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
 5 to him who by understanding made the heavens;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
 6 to him who spread out the earth above the waters;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
 7 to him who made the great lights;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
 8 the sun to rule by day;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
 9 the moon and stars to rule by night;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
 10 to him who struck down the Egyptian
 firstborn;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
 11 and brought out Israel from among them;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
 12 with a strong hand, and with an outstretched
 arm;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
 13 to him who divided the Red Sea apart;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
 14 and made Israel to pass through the middle of it;

for his loving kindness endures forever;
 15 but overthrew Pharaoh and his army in the Red Sea;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
 16 to him who led his people through the
 wilderness;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
 17 to him who struck great kings;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
 18 and killed mighty kings;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
 19 Sihon king of the Amorites;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
 20 Og king of Bashan;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
 21 and gave their land as an inheritance;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
 22 even a heritage to Israel his servant;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
 23 who remembered us in our low estate;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
 24 and has delivered us from our adversaries;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
 25 who gives food to every creature;
 for his loving kindness endures forever.
 26 Oh give thanks to the God of heaven;
 for his loving kindness endures forever.

137 By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down.

Yes, we wept, when we remembered Zion.
 2 On the willows in that land,
 we hung up our harps.
 3 For there, those who led us captive asked us for songs.
 Those who tormented us demanded songs of
 joy:
 "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"
 4 How can we sing Yahweh's song in a foreign land?
 5 If I forget you, Jerusalem,
 let my right hand forget its skill.
 6 Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth
 if I don't remember you,

if I don't prefer Jerusalem above my chief joy.
 7 Remember, Yahweh, against the children of Edom in the day of Jerusalem, who said, "Raze it!
 Raze it even to its foundation!"
 8 Daughter of Babylon, doomed to destruction,
 he will be happy who repays you,
 as you have done to us.
 9 Happy shall he be,
 who takes and dashes your little ones against the rock.

By David.

138 I will give you thanks with my whole
 heart.
 Before the gods,§§ I will sing praises to you.
 2 I will bow down toward your holy temple, and give thanks to your Name for your loving kindness and for your truth;
 for you have exalted your Name and your Word above all.
 3 In the day that I called, you answered me.
 You encouraged me with strength in my soul.
 4 All the kings of the earth will give you thanks, Yahweh,
 for they have heard the words of your mouth.
 5 Yes, they will sing of the ways of Yahweh, for Yahweh's glory is great!
 6 For though Yahweh is high, yet he looks after the lowly;
 but he knows the proud from afar.
 7 Though I walk in the middle of trouble, you will revive me.
 You will stretch out your hand against the wrath of my enemies.
 Your right hand will save me.
 8 Yahweh will fulfill that which concerns me.
 Your loving kindness, Yahweh, endures
 forever.
 Don't forsake the works of your own hands.

§§138:1 The word elohim, used here, usually means "God" but can also mean "gods", "princes", or "angels".

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

139 Yahweh, you have searched me,
and you know me.
 2 You know my sitting down and my rising up.
You perceive my thoughts from afar.
 3 You search out my path and my lying down,
and are acquainted with all my ways.
 4 For there is not a word on my tongue,
but, behold, Yahweh, you know it altogether.
 5 You hem me in behind and before.
You laid your hand on me.
 6 This knowledge is beyond me.
It's lofty.
I can't attain it.
 7 Where could I go from your Spirit?
Or where could I flee from your presence?
 8 If I ascend up into heaven, you are there.
If I make my bed in Sheol,* behold, you are there!
 9 If I take the wings of the dawn,
and settle in the uttermost parts of the sea, 10 even there your hand will lead me,
and your right hand will hold me.
 11 If I say, "Surely the darkness will overwhelm me.
The light around me will be night," 12 even the darkness doesn't hide from you,
but the night shines as the day.
The darkness is like light to you.
 13 For you formed my inmost being.
You knit me together in my mother's womb.
 14 I will give thanks to you,
for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.
Your works are wonderful.
My soul knows that very well.
 15 My frame wasn't hidden from you,
when I was made in secret,
woven together in the depths of the earth.
 16 Your eyes saw my body.
In your book they were all written,
the days that were ordained for me,
when as yet there were none of them.

17 How precious to me are your thoughts,
God!

How vast is their sum!

18 If I would count them, they are more in number than the sand.

When I wake up, I am still with you.

19 If only you, God, would kill the wicked.

Get away from me, you bloodthirsty men!

20 For they speak against you wickedly.

Your enemies take your name in vain.

21 Yahweh, don't I hate those who hate you?

Am I not grieved with those who rise up against you?

22 I hate them with perfect hatred.

They have become my enemies.

23 Search me, God, and know my heart.

Try me, and know my thoughts.

24 See if there is any wicked way in me,
and lead me in the everlasting way.

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

140 Deliver me, Yahweh, from the evil
man.

Preserve me from the violent man:

2 those who devise mischief in their hearts.

They continually gather themselves together for war.

3 They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent.

Viper's poison is under their lips. Selah.

4 Yahweh, keep me from the hands of the wicked.

Preserve me from the violent men who have determined to trip my feet.

5 The proud have hidden a snare for me,
they have spread the cords of a net by the path.

They have set traps for me. Selah.

6 I said to Yahweh, "You are my God."

Listen to the cry of my petitions, Yahweh.

7 Yahweh, the Lord, the strength of my salvation,

you have covered my head in the day of battle.

8 Yahweh, don't grant the desires of the wicked.

*139:8 Sheol is the place of the dead.

Don't let their evil plans succeed, or they will become proud. Selah.

⁹ As for the head of those who surround me, let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

¹⁰ Let burning coals fall on them.

Let them be thrown into the fire, into miry pits, from where they never rise.

¹¹ An evil speaker won't be established in the earth.

Evil will hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

¹² I know that Yahweh will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and justice for the needy.

¹³ Surely the righteous will give thanks to your name.

The upright will dwell in your presence.

A Psalm by David.

141 Yahweh, I have called on you. Come to me quickly!

Listen to my voice when I call to you.

² Let my prayer be set before you like incense; the lifting up of my hands like the evening sacrifice.

³ Set a watch, Yahweh, before my mouth. Keep the door of my lips.

⁴ Don't incline my heart to any evil thing, to practice deeds of wickedness with men who work iniquity.

Don't let me eat of their delicacies.

⁵ Let the righteous strike me, it is kindness; let him reprove me, it is like oil on the head; don't let my head refuse it;

Yet my prayer is always against evil deeds.

⁶ Their judges are thrown down by the sides of the rock.

They will hear my words, for they are well spoken.

⁷ "As when one plows and breaks up the earth, our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol."†

⁸ For my eyes are on you, Yahweh, the Lord. In you, I take refuge.

Don't leave my soul destitute.

⁹ Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me,

from the traps of the workers of iniquity.

¹⁰ Let the wicked fall together into their own nets while I pass by.

A contemplation by David, when he was in the cave. A Prayer.

142 I cry with my voice to Yahweh. With my voice, I ask Yahweh for mercy.

² I pour out my complaint before him.

I tell him my troubles.

³ When my spirit was overwhelmed within me,

you knew my route.

On the path in which I walk, they have hidden a snare for me.

⁴ Look on my right, and see;

for there is no one who is concerned for me.

Refuge has fled from me.

No one cares for my soul.

⁵ I cried to you, Yahweh.

I said, "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living."

⁶ Listen to my cry,

for I am in desperate need.

Deliver me from my persecutors, for they are too strong for me.

⁷ Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks to your name.

The righteous will surround me, for you will be good to me.

A Psalm by David.

143 Hear my prayer, Yahweh. Listen to my petitions.

In your faithfulness and righteousness, relieve me.

² Don't enter into judgment with your servant, for in your sight no man living is righteous.

³ For the enemy pursues my soul.

†141:7 Sheol is the place of the dead.

He has struck my life down to the ground.
 He has made me live in dark places, as those who have been long dead.
 4 Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within
 me.
 My heart within me is desolate.
 5 I remember the days of old.
 I meditate on all your doings.
 I contemplate the work of your hands.
 6 I spread out my hands to you.
 My soul thirsts for you, like a parched land.
 Selah.
 7 Hurry to answer me, Yahweh.
 My spirit fails.
 Don't hide your face from me,
 so that I don't become like those who go down into the pit.
 8 Cause me to hear your loving kindness in the morning,
 for I trust in you.
 Cause me to know the way in which I should walk,
 for I lift up my soul to you.
 9 Deliver me, Yahweh, from my enemies.
 I flee to you to hide me.
 10 Teach me to do your will,
 for you are my God.
 Your Spirit is good.
 Lead me in the land of uprightness.
 11 Revive me, Yahweh, for your name's sake.
 In your righteousness, bring my soul out of trouble.
 12 In your loving kindness, cut off my enemies,
 and destroy all those who afflict my soul,
 For I am your servant.

By David.

144 Blessed be Yahweh, my rock, who teaches my hands to war,
 and my fingers to battle:
 2 my loving kindness, my fortress,
 my high tower, my deliverer,
 my shield, and he in whom I take refuge,

who subdues my people under me.
 3 Yahweh, what is man, that you care for him?
 Or the son of man, that you think of him?
 4 Man is like a breath.
 His days are like a shadow that passes away.
 5 Part your heavens, Yahweh, and come down.
 Touch the mountains, and they will smoke.
 6 Throw out lightning, and scatter them.
 Send out your arrows, and rout them.
 7 Stretch out your hand from above, rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters,
 out of the hands of foreigners,
 8 whose mouths speak deceit,
 whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
 9 I will sing a new song to you, God.
 On a ten-stringed lyre, I will sing praises to
 you.
 10 You are he who gives salvation to kings, who rescues David, his servant, from the deadly sword.
 11 Rescue me, and deliver me out of the hands of foreigners,
 whose mouths speak deceit,
 whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
 12 Then our sons will be like well-nurtured plants,
 our daughters like pillars carved to adorn a palace.
 13 Our barns are full, filled with all kinds of provision.
 Our sheep produce thousands and ten thousands in our fields.
 14 Our oxen will pull heavy loads.
 There is no breaking in, and no going away,
 and no outcry in our streets.
 15 Happy are the people who are in such a situation.
 Happy are the people whose God is Yahweh.

A praise psalm by David.‡

145 I will exalt you, my God, the King.
 I will praise your name forever and ever.

‡145:0 This is an acrostic psalm, with every verse (including the second half of verse 13) starting with a consecutive letter of the Hebrew alphabet.

2 Every day I will praise you.
 I will extol your name forever and ever.
 3 Great is Yahweh, and greatly to be praised!
 His greatness is unsearchable.
 4 One generation will commend your works to another,
 and will declare your mighty acts.
 5 I will meditate on the glorious majesty of your honor,
 on your wondrous works.
 6 Men will speak of the might of your awesome acts.
 I will declare your greatness.
 7 They will utter the memory of your great goodness,
 and will sing of your righteousness.
 8 Yahweh is gracious, merciful, slow to anger, and of great loving kindness.
 9 Yahweh is good to all.
 His tender mercies are over all his works.
 10 All your works will give thanks to you,
 Yahweh.
 Your saints will extol you.
 11 They will speak of the glory of your kingdom,
 and talk about your power, 12 to make known to the sons of men his mighty acts,
 the glory of the majesty of his kingdom.
 13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom.
 Your dominion endures throughout all
 generations.
 Yahweh is faithful in all his words,
 and loving in all his deeds.¶ 14 Yahweh upholds all who fall,
 and raises up all those who are bowed down.
 15 The eyes of all wait for you.
 You give them their food in due season.
 16 You open your hand,
 and satisfy the desire of every living thing.
 17 Yahweh is righteous in all his ways,
 and gracious in all his works.
 18 Yahweh is near to all those who call on him,
 to all who call on him in truth.

19 He will fulfill the desire of those who fear
 him.
 He also will hear their cry, and will save them.
 20 Yahweh preserves all those who love him,
 but he will destroy all the wicked.
 21 My mouth will speak the praise of Yahweh.
 Let all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever.

Praise Yah!

146 Praise Yahweh, my soul.

2 While I live, I will praise Yahweh.
 I will sing praises to my God as long as I exist.
 3 Don't put your trust in princes, in a son of man in whom there is no help.
 4 His spirit departs, and he returns to the earth.
 In that very day, his thoughts perish.
 5 Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help,
 whose hope is in Yahweh, his God:
 6 who made heaven and earth,
 the sea, and all that is in them;
 who keeps truth forever;
 7 who executes justice for the oppressed;
 who gives food to the hungry.
 Yahweh frees the prisoners.
 8 Yahweh opens the eyes of the blind.
 Yahweh raises up those who are bowed down.
 Yahweh loves the righteous.
 9 Yahweh preserves the foreigners.
 He upholds the fatherless and widow,
 but he turns the way of the wicked upside
 down.
 10 Yahweh will reign forever;
 your God, O Zion, to all generations.
 Praise Yah!

Praise Yah,

147 for it is good to sing praises to our
 God;

for it is pleasant and fitting to praise him.
 2 Yahweh builds up Jerusalem.
 He gathers together the outcasts of Israel.
 3 He heals the broken in heart,
 and binds up their wounds.
 4 He counts the number of the stars.

¶145:13 Some manuscripts omit these last two lines.

He calls them all by their names.
 5 Great is our Lord, and mighty in power.
 His understanding is infinite.
 6 Yahweh upholds the humble.
 He brings the wicked down to the ground.
 7 Sing to Yahweh with thanksgiving.
 Sing praises on the harp to our God,
 8 who covers the sky with clouds,
 who prepares rain for the earth,
 who makes grass grow on the mountains.
 9 He provides food for the livestock,
 and for the young ravens when they call.
 10 He doesn't delight in the strength of the horse.
 He takes no pleasure in the legs of a man.
 11 Yahweh takes pleasure in those who fear
 him,
 in those who hope in his loving kindness.
 12 Praise Yahweh, Jerusalem!
 Praise your God, Zion!
 13 For he has strengthened the bars of your gates.
 He has blessed your children within you.
 14 He makes peace in your borders.
 He fills you with the finest of the wheat.
 15 He sends out his commandment to the
 earth.
 His word runs very swiftly.
 16 He gives snow like wool,
 and scatters frost like ashes.
 17 He hurls down his hail like pebbles.
 Who can stand before his cold?
 18 He sends out his word, and melts them.
 He causes his wind to blow, and the waters flow.
 19 He shows his word to Jacob,
 his statutes and his ordinances to Israel.
 20 He has not done this for just any nation.
 They don't know his ordinances.
 Praise Yah!
 Praise Yah!
148 Praise Yahweh from the heavens!
 Praise him in the heights!
 2 Praise him, all his angels!
 Praise him, all his army!
 3 Praise him, sun and moon!

Praise him, all you shining stars!
 4 Praise him, you heavens of heavens,
 you waters that are above the heavens.
 5 Let them praise Yahweh's name, for he commanded, and they were created.
 6 He has also established them forever and
 ever.
 He has made a decree which will not pass
 away.
 7 Praise Yahweh from the earth,
 you great sea creatures, and all depths;
 8 lightning and hail, snow and clouds;
 stormy wind, fulfilling his word;
 9 mountains and all hills;
 fruit trees and all cedars; 10 wild animals and all livestock;
 small creatures and flying birds;
 11 kings of the earth and all peoples;
 princes and all judges of the earth;
 12 both young men and maidens;
 old men and children:
 13 let them praise Yahweh's name,
 for his name alone is exalted.
 His glory is above the earth and the heavens.
 14 He has lifted up the horn of his people,
 the praise of all his saints, even of the children of Israel, a people near to
 him.
 Praise Yah!
 Praise Yahweh!
149 Sing to Yahweh a new song,
 his praise in the assembly of the saints.
 2 Let Israel rejoice in him who made them.
 Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
 3 Let them praise his name in the dance!
 Let them sing praises to him with tambourine and harp!
 4 For Yahweh takes pleasure in his people.
 He crowns the humble with salvation.
 5 Let the saints rejoice in honor.
 Let them sing for joy on their beds.
 6 May the high praises of God be in their mouths,
 and a two-edged sword in their hand,
 7 to execute vengeance on the nations,

and punishments on the peoples;
 8 to bind their kings with chains,
 and their nobles with fetters of iron;
 9 to execute on them the written judgment.

All his saints have this honor.

Praise Yah!

150 Praise Yah!

 power!

² Praise him for his mighty acts!

³ Praise him with the sounding of the trumpet!

⁶ Let everything that has breath praise Yah!

Praise Yah!

The Proverbs

1 The proverbs of Solomon, the son of David, king of Israel:

² to know wisdom and instruction;
to discern the words of understanding;
³ to receive instruction in wise dealing,
in righteousness, justice, and equity;
⁴ to give prudence to the simple,
knowledge and discretion to the young man:
⁵ that the wise man may hear, and increase in learning;
that the man of understanding may attain to sound counsel:

⁶ to understand a proverb, and parables,
the words and riddles of the wise.
⁷ The fear of Yahweh[§] is the beginning of knowledge;
but the foolish despise wisdom and instruction.

⁸ My son, listen to your father's instruction,
and don't forsake your mother's teaching:
⁹ for they will be a garland to grace your head,
and chains around your neck.

¹⁰ My son, if sinners entice you,
don't consent.
¹¹ If they say, "Come with us.
Let's lay in wait for blood.
Let's lurk secretly for the innocent without cause.

¹² Let's swallow them up alive like Sheol,
and whole, like those who go down into the pit.

¹³ We'll find all valuable wealth.
We'll fill our houses with plunder.
¹⁴ You shall cast your lot among us.
We'll all have one purse."

¹⁵ My son, don't walk on the path with them.
Keep your foot from their path,
¹⁶ for their feet run to evil.

They hurry to shed blood.
¹⁷ For the net is spread in vain in the sight of any bird;

¹⁸ but these lay in wait for their own blood.
They lurk secretly for their own lives.
¹⁹ So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain.

It takes away the life of its owners.
²⁰ Wisdom calls aloud in the street.
She utters her voice in the public squares.
²¹ She calls at the head of noisy places.
At the entrance of the city gates, she utters her words:

²² "How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity?
How long will mockers delight themselves in mockery,
and fools hate knowledge?

²³ Turn at my reproof.
Behold,^{††} I will pour out my spirit on you.
I will make known my words to you.
²⁴ Because I have called, and you have refused;

I have stretched out my hand, and no one has paid attention;
²⁵ but you have ignored all my counsel, and wanted none of my reproof;
²⁶ I also will laugh at your disaster.

I will mock when calamity overtakes you, ²⁷ when calamity overtakes you like a storm,
when your disaster comes on like a whirlwind,
when distress and anguish come on you.

²⁸ Then they will call on me, but I will not answer.
They will seek me diligently, but they will not find me;

²⁹ because they hated knowledge, and didn't choose the fear of Yahweh.
³⁰ They wanted none of my counsel.
They despised all my reproof.

§1:7 "Yahweh" is God's proper Name, sometimes rendered "LORD" (all caps) in other translations.

1:12 Sheol is the place of the dead.

††1:23 "Behold", from "הִנֵּה" means look at, take notice, observe, see, or gaze at. It is often used as an interjection.

31 Therefore they will eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own schemes.

32 For the backsliding of the simple will kill them.

The careless ease of fools will destroy them.

33 But whoever listens to me will dwell securely, and will be at ease, without fear of harm.”

2 My son, if you will receive my words,
and store up my commandments within you,

2 so as to turn your ear to wisdom,
and apply your heart to understanding;

3 yes, if you call out for discernment, and lift up your voice for understanding;

4 if you seek her as silver,
and search for her as for hidden treasures:

5 then you will understand the fear of Yahweh, and find the knowledge of God.##

6 For Yahweh gives wisdom.

Out of his mouth comes knowledge and understanding.

7 He lays up sound wisdom for the upright.
He is a shield to those who walk in integrity,

8 that he may guard the paths of justice, and preserve the way of his saints.

9 Then you will understand righteousness and justice, equity and every good path.

10 For wisdom will enter into your heart.

Knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.

11 Discretion will watch over you.

Understanding will keep you,

12 to deliver you from the way of evil,
from the men who speak perverse things,

13 who forsake the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness,

14 who rejoice to do evil,

and delight in the perverseness of evil,

15 who are crooked in their ways,
and wayward in their paths,

16 to deliver you from the strange woman,

even from the foreigner who flatters with her words,

17 who forsakes the friend of her youth,
and forgets the covenant of her God;

18 for her house leads down to death,
her paths to the departed spirits.

19 None who go to her return again,
neither do they attain to the paths of life.

20 So you may walk in the way of good men,
and keep the paths of the righteous.

21 For the upright will dwell in the land.
The perfect will remain in it.

22 But the wicked will be cut off from the land.
The treacherous will be rooted out of it.

3 My son, don't forget my teaching;
but let your heart keep my commandments:

2 for they will add to you length of days,
years of life, and peace.

3 Don't let kindness and truth forsake you.
Bind them around your neck.

Write them on the tablet of your heart.

4 So you will find favor, and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

5 Trust in Yahweh with all your heart, and don't lean on your own understanding.

6 In all your ways acknowledge him,
and he will make your paths straight.

7 Don't be wise in your own eyes.

Fear Yahweh, and depart from evil.

8 It will be health to your body,
and nourishment to your bones.

9 Honor Yahweh with your substance, with the first fruits of all your increase:

10 so your barns will be filled with plenty,
and your vats will overflow with new wine.

11 My son, don't despise Yahweh's discipline, neither be weary of his correction;

12 for whom Yahweh loves, he corrects, even as a father reproves the son in whom he delights.

13 Happy is the man who finds wisdom,
the man who gets understanding.

##2:5 The Hebrew word rendered "God" is "אֱלֹהִים" (Elohim).

14 For her good profit is better than getting silver, and her return is better than fine gold.

15 She is more precious than rubies.

None of the things you can desire are to be compared to her.

16 Length of days is in her right hand.

In her left hand are riches and honor.

17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness.

All her paths are peace.

18 She is a tree of life to those who lay hold of her.

Happy is everyone who retains her.

19 By wisdom Yahweh founded the earth.

By understanding, he established the heavens.

20 By his knowledge, the depths were broken up, and the skies drop down the dew.

21 My son, let them not depart from your eyes.

Keep sound wisdom and discretion:

22 so they will be life to your soul, and grace for your neck.

23 Then you shall walk in your way securely. Your foot won't stumble.

24 When you lie down, you will not be afraid.

Yes, you will lie down, and your sleep will be sweet.

25 Don't be afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it comes;

26 for Yahweh will be your confidence, and will keep your foot from being taken.

27 Don't withhold good from those to whom it is due,

when it is in the power of your hand to do it.

28 Don't say to your neighbor, "Go, and come again;

tomorrow I will give it to you,"

when you have it by you.

29 Don't devise evil against your neighbor, since he dwells securely by you.

30 Don't strive with a man without cause, if he has done you no harm.

31 Don't envy the man of violence.

Choose none of his ways.

32 For the perverse is an abomination to Yahweh,

but his friendship is with the upright.

33 Yahweh's curse is in the house of the wicked,

but he blesses the habitation of the righteous.

34 Surely he mocks the mockers,

but he gives grace to the humble.

35 The wise will inherit glory,

but shame will be the promotion of fools.

4 Listen, sons, to a father's instruction.

4 Pay attention and know understanding;

2 for I give you sound learning.

Don't forsake my law.

3 For I was a son to my father, tender and an only child in the sight of my mother.

4 He taught me, and said to me:

"Let your heart retain my words.

Keep my commandments, and live.

5 Get wisdom.

Get understanding.

Don't forget, and don't deviate from the words of my mouth.

6 Don't forsake her, and she will preserve you.

Love her, and she will keep you.

7 Wisdom is supreme.

Get wisdom.

Yes, though it costs all your possessions, get understanding.

8 Esteem her, and she will exalt you.

She will bring you to honor when you embrace her.

9 She will give to your head a garland of grace.

She will deliver a crown of splendor to you."

10 Listen, my son, and receive my sayings.

The years of your life will be many.

11 I have taught you in the way of wisdom.

I have led you in straight paths.

12 When you go, your steps will not be hampered.

When you run, you will not stumble.

13 Take firm hold of instruction.

Don't let her go.

Keep her, for she is your life.

14 Don't enter into the path of the wicked.

Don't walk in the way of evil men.
 15 Avoid it, and don't pass by it.
 Turn from it, and pass on.
 16 For they don't sleep unless they do evil.
 Their sleep is taken away, unless they make someone fall.
 17 For they eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.
 18 But the path of the righteous is like the dawning light
 that shines more and more until the perfect
 day.
 19 The way of the wicked is like darkness.
 They don't know what they stumble over.
 20 My son, attend to my words.
 Turn your ear to my sayings.
 21 Let them not depart from your eyes.
 Keep them in the center of your heart.
 22 For they are life to those who find them,
 and health to their whole body.
 23 Keep your heart with all diligence, for out of it is the wellspring of life.
 24 Put away from yourself a perverse mouth.
 Put corrupt lips far from you.
 25 Let your eyes look straight ahead.
 Fix your gaze directly before you.
 26 Make the path of your feet level.
 Let all of your ways be established.
 27 Don't turn to the right hand nor to the left.
 Remove your foot from evil.
 5 My son, pay attention to my wisdom.
 5 Turn your ear to my understanding,
 2 that you may maintain discretion, that your lips may preserve knowledge.
 3 For the lips of an adulteress drip honey.
 Her mouth is smoother than oil,
 4 but in the end she is as bitter as wormwood,
 and as sharp as a two-edged sword.
 5 Her feet go down to death.
 Her steps lead straight to Sheol.¶¶
 6 She gives no thought to the way of life.
 Her ways are crooked, and she doesn't know
 it.
 7 Now therefore, my sons, listen to me.

Don't depart from the words of my mouth.
 8 Remove your way far from her.
 Don't come near the door of her house,
 9 lest you give your honor to others,
 and your years to the cruel one;
 10 lest strangers feast on your wealth,
 and your labors enrich another man's house.
 11 You will groan at your latter end,
 when your flesh and your body are consumed, 12 and say, "How I have hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof;
 13 neither have I obeyed the voice of my teachers,
 nor turned my ear to those who instructed me!
 14 I have come to the brink of utter ruin,
 among the gathered assembly."
 15 Drink water out of your own cistern, running water out of your own well.
 16 Should your springs overflow in the streets, streams of water in the public squares?
 17 Let them be for yourself alone,
 not for strangers with you.
 18 Let your spring be blessed.
 Rejoice in the wife of your youth.
 19 A loving doe and a graceful deer—
 let her breasts satisfy you at all times.
 Be captivated always with her love.
 20 For why should you, my son, be captivated with an adulteress?
 Why embrace the bosom of another?
 21 For the ways of man are before Yahweh's
 eyes.
 He examines all his paths.
 22 The evil deeds of the wicked ensnare him.
 The cords of his sin hold him firmly.
 23 He will die for lack of instruction.
 In the greatness of his folly, he will go astray.
 6 My son, if you have become collateral for your neighbor,
 if you have struck your hands in pledge for a stranger,
 2 you are trapped by the words of your mouth;
 you are ensnared with the words of your
 mouth.

¶¶5:5 Sheol is the place of the dead.

3 Do this now, my son, and deliver yourself, since you have come into the hand of your neighbor.

Go, humble yourself.

Press your plea with your neighbor.

4 Give no sleep to your eyes,
nor slumber to your eyelids.

5 Free yourself, like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter,

like a bird from the snare of the fowler.

6 Go to the ant, you sluggard.

Consider her ways, and be wise;

7 which having no chief, overseer, or ruler,

8 provides her bread in the summer, and gathers her food in the harvest.

9 How long will you sleep, sluggard?

When will you arise out of your sleep?

10 A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to sleep:

11 so your poverty will come as a robber,
and your scarcity as an armed man.

12 A worthless person, a man of iniquity, is he who walks with a perverse mouth,

13 who winks with his eyes, who signals with his feet,

who motions with his fingers,

14 in whose heart is perverseness, who devises evil continually,

who always sows discord.

15 Therefore his calamity will come suddenly.
He will be broken suddenly, and that without remedy.

16 There are six things which Yahweh hates;
yes, seven which are an abomination to him:

17 arrogant eyes, a lying tongue,

hands that shed innocent blood,

18 a heart that devises wicked schemes, feet that are swift in running to mischief,

19 a false witness who utters lies,

and he who sows discord among brothers.

20 My son, keep your father's commandment,
and don't forsake your mother's teaching.

21 Bind them continually on your heart.

Tie them around your neck.

22 When you walk, it will lead you.

When you sleep, it will watch over you.

When you awake, it will talk with you.

23 For the commandment is a lamp,
and the law is light.

Reproofs of instruction are the way of life,

24 to keep you from the immoral woman, from the flattery of the wayward wife's tongue.

25 Don't lust after her beauty in your heart, neither let her captivate you with her eyelids.

26 For a prostitute reduces you to a piece of bread.

The adulteress hunts for your precious life.

27 Can a man scoop fire into his lap,
and his clothes not be burned?

28 Or can one walk on hot coals,
and his feet not be scorched?

29 So is he who goes in to his neighbor's wife.
Whoever touches her will not be unpunished.

30 Men don't despise a thief if he steals to satisfy himself when he is hungry;

31 but if he is found, he shall restore seven times.

He shall give all the wealth of his house.

32 He who commits adultery with a woman is void of understanding.

He who does it destroys his own soul.

33 He will get wounds and dishonor.

His reproach will not be wiped away.

34 For jealousy arouses the fury of the husband.

He won't spare in the day of vengeance.

35 He won't regard any ransom, neither will he rest content, though you give many gifts.

7 My son, keep my words.

Lay up my commandments within you.

2 Keep my commandments and live!

Guard my teaching as the apple of your eye.

3 Bind them on your fingers.

Write them on the tablet of your heart.

4 Tell wisdom, "You are my sister."

Call understanding your relative,

5 that they may keep you from the strange woman,

from the foreigner who flatters with her words.

6 For at the window of my house,
 I looked out through my lattice.
 7 I saw among the simple ones.
 I discerned among the youths a young man
 void of understanding,
 8 passing through the street near her corner,
 he went the way to her house, 9 in the twilight, in the evening of the day,
 in the middle of the night and in the darkness.
 10 Behold, there a woman met him with the attire of a prostitute,
 and with crafty intent.
 11 She is loud and defiant.
 Her feet don't stay in her house.
 12 Now she is in the streets, now in the squares,
 and lurking at every corner.
 13 So she caught him, and kissed him.
 With an impudent face she said to him:
 14 "Sacrifices of peace offerings are with me.
 Today I have paid my vows.
 15 Therefore I came out to meet you,
 to diligently seek your face,
 and I have found you.
 16 I have spread my couch with carpets of tapestry,
 with striped cloths of the yarn of Egypt.
 17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
 18 Come, let's take our fill of loving until the morning.
 Let's solace ourselves with loving.
 19 For my husband isn't at home.
 He has gone on a long journey.
 20 He has taken a bag of money with him.
 He will come home at the full moon."
 21 With persuasive words, she led him astray.
 With the flattering of her lips, she seduced
 him.
 22 He followed her immediately,
 as an ox goes to the slaughter,
 as a fool stepping into a noose.
 23 Until an arrow strikes through his liver,
 as a bird hurries to the snare,
 and doesn't know that it will cost his life.

24 Now therefore, sons, listen to me.
 Pay attention to the words of my mouth.
 25 Don't let your heart turn to her ways.
 Don't go astray in her paths,
 26 for she has thrown down many wounded.
 Yes, all her slain are a mighty army.
 27 Her house is the way to Sheol,^{§§} going down to the rooms of death.
 Doesn't wisdom cry out?
 8 Doesn't understanding raise her voice?
 2 On the top of high places by the way,
 where the paths meet, she stands.
 3 Beside the gates, at the entry of the city,
 at the entry doors, she cries aloud:
 4 "I call to you men!
 I send my voice to the sons of mankind.
 5 You simple, understand prudence!
 You fools, be of an understanding heart!
 6 Hear, for I will speak excellent things.
 The opening of my lips is for right things.
 7 For my mouth speaks truth.
 Wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
 8 All the words of my mouth are in
 righteousness.
 There is nothing crooked or perverse in them.
 9 They are all plain to him who understands,
 right to those who find knowledge.
 10 Receive my instruction rather than silver, knowledge rather than choice gold.
 11 For wisdom is better than rubies.
 All the things that may be desired can't be compared to it.
 12 "I, wisdom, have made prudence my dwelling.
 Find out knowledge and discretion.
 13 The fear of Yahweh is to hate evil.
 I hate pride, arrogance, the evil way, and the perverse mouth.
 14 Counsel and sound knowledge are mine.
 I have understanding and power.
 15 By me kings reign,
 and princes decree justice.
 16 By me princes rule,

§§7:27 Sheol is the place of the dead.

nobles, and all the righteous rulers of the earth.

¹⁷ I love those who love me.

Those who seek me diligently will find me.

¹⁸ With me are riches, honor, enduring wealth, and prosperity.

¹⁹ My fruit is better than gold, yes, than fine gold,

my yield than choice silver.

²⁰ I walk in the way of righteousness, in the middle of the paths of justice, ²¹ that I may give wealth to those who love me. I fill their treasuries.

²² "Yahweh possessed me in the beginning of his work,

before his deeds of old.

²³ I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning,

before the earth existed.

²⁴ When there were no depths, I was born, when there were no springs abounding with water.

²⁵ Before the mountains were settled in place, before the hills, I was born;

²⁶ while as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields,

nor the beginning of the dust of the world.

²⁷ When he established the heavens, I was there.

When he set a circle on the surface of the deep,

²⁸ when he established the clouds above, when the springs of the deep became strong,

²⁹ when he gave to the sea its boundary, that the waters should not violate his commandment, when he marked out the foundations of the earth,

³⁰ then I was the craftsman by his side.

I was a delight day by day, always rejoicing before him,

³¹ rejoicing in his whole world.

My delight was with the sons of men.

³² "Now therefore, my sons, listen to me, for blessed are those who keep my ways.

³³ Hear instruction, and be wise.

Don't refuse it.

³⁴ Blessed is the man who hears me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at my door posts.

³⁵ For whoever finds me, finds life, and will obtain favor from Yahweh.

³⁶ But he who sins against me wrongs his own soul.

All those who hate me love death."

Wisdom has built her house.

9 She has carved out her seven pillars.

² She has prepared her meat.

She has mixed her wine.

She has also set her table.

³ She has sent out her maidens.

She cries from the highest places of the city:

⁴ "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here!"

As for him who is void of understanding, she says to him,

⁵ "Come, eat some of my bread,

Drink some of the wine which I have mixed!

⁶ Leave your simple ways, and live.

Walk in the way of understanding."

⁷ One who corrects a mocker invites insult.

One who reproves a wicked man invites abuse.

⁸ Don't reprove a scoffer, lest he hate you.

Reprove a wise person, and he will love you.

⁹ Instruct a wise person, and he will be still wiser.

Teach a righteous person, and he will increase in learning.

¹⁰ The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of wisdom.

The knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.

¹¹ For by me your days will be multiplied.

The years of your life will be increased.

¹² If you are wise, you are wise for yourself.

If you mock, you alone will bear it.

¹³ The foolish woman is loud, undisciplined, and knows nothing.

¹⁴ She sits at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city,

¹⁵ to call to those who pass by,

who go straight on their ways,

¹⁶ "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here."

as for him who is void of understanding, she says to him,

¹⁷“Stolen water is sweet.

Food eaten in secret is pleasant.”

¹⁸But he doesn't know that the departed spirits are there,

that her guests are in the depths of Sheol.*

The proverbs of Solomon.

10 A wise son makes a glad father;
but a foolish son brings grief to his mother.

²Treasures of wickedness profit nothing,

but righteousness delivers from death.

³Yahweh will not allow the soul of the righteous to go hungry,

but he thrusts away the desire of the wicked.

⁴He becomes poor who works with a lazy
hand,

but the hand of the diligent brings wealth.

⁵He who gathers in summer is a wise son, but he who sleeps during the harvest is a son who causes shame.

⁶Blessings are on the head of the righteous,
but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

⁷The memory of the righteous is blessed,
but the name of the wicked will rot.

⁸The wise in heart accept commandments,
but a chattering fool will fall.

⁹He who walks blamelessly walks surely,
but he who perverts his ways will be found out.

¹⁰One winking with the eye causes sorrow,
but a chattering fool will fall.

¹¹The mouth of the righteous is a spring of
life,

but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

¹²Hatred stirs up strife,
but love covers all wrongs.

¹³Wisdom is found on the lips of him who has discernment,

but a rod is for the back of him who is void of
understanding.

¹⁴Wise men lay up knowledge,
but the mouth of the foolish is near ruin.

¹⁵The rich man's wealth is his strong city.
The destruction of the poor is their poverty.

¹⁶The labor of the righteous leads to life.

The increase of the wicked leads to sin.

¹⁷He is in the way of life who heeds correction,

but he who forsakes reproof leads others
astray.

¹⁸He who hides hatred has lying lips.

He who utters a slander is a fool.

¹⁹In the multitude of words there is no lack of disobedience,

but he who restrains his lips does wisely.

²⁰The tongue of the righteous is like choice
silver.

The heart of the wicked is of little worth.

²¹The lips of the righteous feed many,
but the foolish die for lack of understanding.

²²Yahweh's blessing brings wealth,
and he adds no trouble to it.

²³It is a fool's pleasure to do wickedness, but wisdom is a man of understanding's pleasure.

²⁴What the wicked fear, will overtake them,
but the desire of the righteous will be granted.

²⁵When the whirlwind passes, the wicked is no more;

but the righteous stand firm forever.

²⁶As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the
eyes,

so is the sluggard to those who send him.

²⁷The fear of Yahweh prolongs days,
but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.

²⁸The prospect of the righteous is joy,
but the hope of the wicked will perish.

²⁹The way of Yahweh is a stronghold to the upright,

but it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity.

³⁰The righteous will never be removed,
but the wicked will not dwell in the land.

³¹The mouth of the righteous produces
wisdom,

but the perverse tongue will be cut off.

³²The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable,

*9:18 Sheol is the place of the dead.

but the mouth of the wicked is perverse.

11 A false balance is an abomination to Yahweh,

but accurate weights are his delight.

2 When pride comes, then comes shame,
but with humility comes wisdom.

3 The integrity of the upright shall guide them, but the perverseness of the treacherous shall destroy them.

4 Riches don't profit in the day of wrath,
but righteousness delivers from death.

5 The righteousness of the blameless will direct his way,
but the wicked shall fall by his own
wickedness.

6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver
them,
but the unfaithful will be trapped by evil desires.

7 When a wicked man dies, hope perishes, and expectation of power comes to nothing.

8 A righteous person is delivered out of trouble,
and the wicked takes his place.

9 With his mouth the godless man destroys his
neighbor,
but the righteous will be delivered through knowledge.

10 When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices.

When the wicked perish, there is shouting.

11 By the blessing of the upright, the city is exalted,
but it is overthrown by the mouth of the
wicked.

12 One who despises his neighbor is void of
wisdom,
but a man of understanding holds his peace.

13 One who brings gossip betrays a confidence,
but one who is of a trustworthy spirit is one who keeps a secret.

14 Where there is no wise guidance, the nation falls,

but in the multitude of counselors there is victory.

15 He who is collateral for a stranger will suffer for it,

but he who refuses pledges of collateral is secure.

16 A gracious woman obtains honor,
but violent men obtain riches.

17 The merciful man does good to his own
soul,

but he who is cruel troubles his own flesh.

18 Wicked people earn deceitful wages, but one who sows righteousness reaps a sure reward.

19 He who is truly righteous gets life.

He who pursues evil gets death.

20 Those who are perverse in heart are an abomination to Yahweh, but those whose ways are blameless are his delight.

21 Most certainly, the evil man will not be unpunished,
but the offspring[†] of the righteous will be delivered.

22 Like a gold ring in a pig's snout, is a beautiful woman who lacks discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous is only good.
The expectation of the wicked is wrath.

24 There is one who scatters, and increases yet
more.

There is one who withholds more than is appropriate, but gains poverty.

25 The liberal soul shall be made fat.

He who waters shall be watered also himself.

26 People curse someone who withholds grain, but blessing will be on the head of him who sells it.

27 He who diligently seeks good seeks favor, but he who searches after evil, it shall come to
him.

28 He who trusts in his riches will fall, but the righteous shall flourish as the green leaf.

[†]11:21 or, seed

29 He who troubles his own house shall inherit the wind.

The foolish shall be servant to the wise of heart.

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life. He who is wise wins souls.

31 Behold, the righteous shall be repaid in the earth, how much more the wicked and the sinner!

12 Whoever loves correction loves knowledge, but he who hates reproof is stupid.

2 A good man shall obtain favor from Yahweh, but he will condemn a man of wicked plans.

3 A man shall not be established by wickedness, but the root of the righteous shall not be moved.

4 A worthy woman is the crown of her husband, but a disgraceful wife is as rotteness in his bones.

5 The thoughts of the righteous are just, but the advice of the wicked is deceitful.

6 The words of the wicked are about lying in wait for blood, but the speech of the upright rescues them.

7 The wicked are overthrown, and are no more, but the house of the righteous shall stand.

8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom, but he who has a warped mind shall be despised.

9 Better is he who is little known, and has a servant, than he who honors himself, and lacks bread.

10 A righteous man respects the life of his animal, but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

11 He who tills his land shall have plenty of bread, but he who chases fantasies is void of understanding.

12 The wicked desires the plunder of evil men, but the root of the righteous flourishes.

13 An evil man is trapped by sinfulness of lips, but the righteous shall come out of trouble.

14 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth.

The work of a man's hands shall be rewarded to him.

15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes, but he who is wise listens to counsel.

16 A fool shows his annoyance the same day, but one who overlooks an insult is prudent.

17 He who is truthful testifies honestly, but a false witness lies.

18 There is one who speaks rashly like the piercing of a sword, but the tongue of the wise heals.

19 Truth's lips will be established forever, but a lying tongue is only momentary.

20 Deceit is in the heart of those who plot evil, but joy comes to the promoters of peace.

21 No mischief shall happen to the righteous, but the wicked shall be filled with evil.

22 Lying lips are an abomination to Yahweh, but those who do the truth are his delight.

23 A prudent man keeps his knowledge, but the hearts of fools proclaim foolishness.

24 The hands of the diligent ones shall rule, but laziness ends in slave labor.

25 Anxiety in a man's heart weighs it down, but a kind word makes it glad.

26 A righteous person is cautious in friendship, but the way of the wicked leads them astray.

27 The slothful man doesn't roast his game, but the possessions of diligent men are prized.

28 In the way of righteousness is life; in its path there is no death.

13 A wise son listens to his father's instruction, but a scoffer doesn't listen to rebuke.

2 By the fruit of his lips, a man enjoys good things, but the unfaithful crave violence.

3 He who guards his mouth guards his soul. One who opens wide his lips comes to ruin.

4 The soul of the sluggard desires, and has nothing, but the desire of the diligent shall be fully satisfied.

5 A righteous man hates lies, but a wicked man brings shame and disgrace.

6 Righteousness guards the way of integrity, but wickedness overthrows the sinner.

7 There are some who pretend to be rich, yet have nothing.

There are some who pretend to be poor, yet have great wealth.

8 The ransom of a man's life is his riches, but the poor hear no threats.

9 The light of the righteous shines brightly, but the lamp of the wicked is snuffed out.

10 Pride only breeds quarrels, but wisdom is with people who take advice.

11 Wealth gained dishonestly dwindles away, but he who gathers by hand makes it grow.

12 Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but when longing is fulfilled, it is a tree of life.

13 Whoever despises instruction will pay for it, but he who respects a command will be rewarded.

14 The teaching of the wise is a spring of life, to turn from the snares of death.

15 Good understanding wins favor, but the way of the unfaithful is hard.

16 Every prudent man acts from knowledge, but a fool exposes folly.

17 A wicked messenger falls into trouble, but a trustworthy envoy gains healing.

18 Poverty and shame come to him who refuses discipline,

but he who heeds correction shall be honored.

19 Longing fulfilled is sweet to the soul, but fools detest turning from evil.

20 One who walks with wise men grows wise, but a companion of fools suffers harm.

21 Misfortune pursues sinners, but prosperity rewards the righteous.

22 A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, but the wealth of the sinner is stored for the righteous.

23 An abundance of food is in poor people's fields,

but injustice sweeps it away.

24 One who spares the rod hates his son, but one who loves him is careful to discipline him.

25 The righteous one eats to the satisfying of his soul,

but the belly of the wicked goes hungry.

14 Every wise woman builds her house, but the foolish one tears it down with her own hands.

2 He who walks in his uprightness fears Yahweh,

but he who is perverse in his ways despises him.

3 The fool's talk brings a rod to his back, but the lips of the wise protect them.

4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean, but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

5 A truthful witness will not lie, but a false witness pours out lies.

6 A scoffer seeks wisdom, and doesn't find it, but knowledge comes easily to a discerning person.

7 Stay away from a foolish man, for you won't find knowledge on his lips.

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to think about his way,

but the folly of fools is deceit.

9 Fools mock at making atonement for sins, but among the upright there is good will.

10 The heart knows its own bitterness and joy; he will not share these with a stranger.

11 The house of the wicked will be overthrown,

but the tent of the upright will flourish.

12 There is a way which seems right to a man, but in the end it leads to death.

13 Even in laughter the heart may be sorrowful, and mirth may end in heaviness.

14 The unfaithful will be repaid for his own ways;

likewise a good man will be rewarded for his ways.

15 A simple man believes everything,

but the prudent man carefully considers his ways.

16 A wise man fears and shuns evil, but the fool is hot headed and reckless.

17 He who is quick to become angry will commit folly, and a crafty man is hated.

18 The simple inherit folly, but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

19 The evil bow down before the good, and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

20 The poor person is shunned even by his own neighbor,

but the rich person has many friends.

21 He who despises his neighbor sins, but he who has pity on the poor is blessed.

22 Don't they go astray who plot evil? But love and faithfulness belong to those who plan good.

23 In all hard work there is profit, but the talk of the lips leads only to poverty.

24 The crown of the wise is their riches, but the folly of fools crowns them with folly.

25 A truthful witness saves souls, but a false witness is deceitful.

26 In the fear of Yahweh is a secure fortress, and he will be a refuge for his children.

27 The fear of Yahweh is a fountain of life, turning people from the snares of death.

28 In the multitude of people is the king's glory,

but in the lack of people is the destruction of the prince.

29 He who is slow to anger has great understanding, but he who has a quick temper displays folly.

30 The life of the body is a heart at peace, but envy rots the bones.

31 He who oppresses the poor shows contempt for his Maker, but he who is kind to the needy honors him.

32 The wicked is brought down in his calamity, but in death, the righteous has a refuge.

33 Wisdom rests in the heart of one who has understanding, and is even made known in the inward part of fools.

34 Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a disgrace to any people.

35 The king's favor is toward a servant who deals wisely, but his wrath is toward one who causes shame.

15 A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.

2 The tongue of the wise commends knowledge,

but the mouth of fools gush out folly.

3 Yahweh's eyes are everywhere, keeping watch on the evil and the good.

4 A gentle tongue is a tree of life, but deceit in it crushes the spirit.

5 A fool despises his father's correction, but he who heeds reproof shows prudence.

6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure,

but the income of the wicked brings trouble.

7 The lips of the wise spread knowledge; not so with the heart of fools.

8 The sacrifice made by the wicked is an abomination to Yahweh, but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

9 The way of the wicked is an abomination to Yahweh,

but he loves him who follows after righteousness.

10 There is stern discipline for one who forsakes the way:

whoever hates reproof shall die.

11 Sheol[‡] and Abaddon are before Yahweh—how much more than the hearts of the children of men!

12 A scoffer doesn't love to be reproved; he will not go to the wise.

13 A glad heart makes a cheerful face, but an aching heart breaks the spirit.

14 The heart of one who has understanding seeks knowledge,

[‡]15:11 Sheol is the place of the dead.

but the mouths of fools feed on folly.

¹⁵ All the days of the afflicted are wretched, but one who has a cheerful heart enjoys a continual feast.

¹⁶ Better is little, with the fear of Yahweh, than great treasure with trouble.

¹⁷ Better is a dinner of herbs, where love is,
than a fattened calf with hatred.

¹⁸ A wrathful man stirs up contention,
but one who is slow to anger appeases strife.

¹⁹ The way of the sluggard is like a thorn patch,
but the path of the upright is a highway.

²⁰ A wise son makes a father glad,
but a foolish man despises his mother.

²¹ Folly is joy to one who is void of wisdom, but a man of understanding keeps his way straight.

²² Where there is no counsel, plans fail;
but in a multitude of counselors they are established.

²³ Joy comes to a man with the reply of his mouth.

How good is a word at the right time!

²⁴ The path of life leads upward for the wise, to keep him from going downward to Sheol.¶

²⁵ Yahweh will uproot the house of the proud,
but he will keep the widow's borders intact.

²⁶ Yahweh detests the thoughts of the wicked,
but the thoughts of the pure are pleasing.

²⁷ He who is greedy for gain troubles his own
house,
but he who hates bribes will live.

²⁸ The heart of the righteous weighs answers,
but the mouth of the wicked gushes out evil.

²⁹ Yahweh is far from the wicked,
but he hears the prayer of the righteous.

³⁰ The light of the eyes rejoices the heart.
Good news gives health to the bones.

³¹ The ear that listens to reproof lives,
and will be at home among the wise.

³² He who refuses correction despises his own
soul,

but he who listens to reproof gets
understanding.

³³ The fear of Yahweh teaches wisdom.
Before honor is humility.

16 The plans of the heart belong to man, but the answer of the tongue is from
Yahweh.

² All the ways of a man are clean in his own
eyes;

but Yahweh weighs the motives.

³ Commit your deeds to Yahweh, and your plans shall succeed.

⁴ Yahweh has made everything for its own end—

yes, even the wicked for the day of evil.

⁵ Everyone who is proud in heart is an abomination to Yahweh:

they shall certainly not be unpunished.

⁶ By mercy and truth iniquity is atoned for.
By the fear of Yahweh men depart from evil.

⁷ When a man's ways please Yahweh, he makes even his enemies to be at peace with
him.

⁸ Better is a little with righteousness, than great revenues with injustice.

⁹ A man's heart plans his course,
but Yahweh directs his steps.

¹⁰ Inspired judgments are on the lips of the king.

He shall not betray his mouth.

¹¹ Honest balances and scales are Yahweh's;
all the weights in the bag are his work.

¹² It is an abomination for kings to do wrong,
for the throne is established by righteousness.

¹³ Righteous lips are the delight of kings.
They value one who speaks the truth.

¹⁴ The king's wrath is a messenger of death,
but a wise man will pacify it.

¹⁵ In the light of the king's face is life.
His favor is like a cloud of the spring rain.

¹⁶ How much better it is to get wisdom than gold!

Yes, to get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver.

¶15:24 Sheol is the place of the dead.

17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil.

He who keeps his way preserves his soul.

18 Pride goes before destruction, and an arrogant spirit before a fall.

19 It is better to be of a lowly spirit with the poor, than to divide the plunder with the proud.

20 He who heeds the Word finds prosperity.

Whoever trusts in Yahweh is blessed.

21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent.

Pleasantness of the lips promotes instruction.

22 Understanding is a fountain of life to one who has it, but the punishment of fools is their folly.

23 The heart of the wise instructs his mouth, and adds learning to his lips.

24 Pleasant words are a honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

25 There is a way which seems right to a man,
but in the end it leads to death.

26 The appetite of the laboring man labors for him;

for his mouth urges him on.

27 A worthless man devises mischief.

His speech is like a scorching fire.

28 A perverse man stirs up strife.
A whisperer separates close friends.

29 A man of violence entices his neighbor, and leads him in a way that is not good.

30 One who winks his eyes to plot perversities,
one who compresses his lips, is bent on evil.

31 Gray hair is a crown of glory.

It is attained by a life of righteousness.

32 One who is slow to anger is better than the mighty;

one who rules his spirit, than he who takes a city.

33 The lot is cast into the lap,
but its every decision is from Yahweh.

17 Better is a dry morsel with quietness, than a house full of feasting with strife.

2 A servant who deals wisely will rule over a son who causes shame, and shall have a part in the inheritance among the brothers.

3 The refining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold,

but Yahweh tests the hearts.

4 An evildoer heeds wicked lips.

A liar gives ear to a mischievous tongue.

5 Whoever mocks the poor reproaches his Maker.

He who is glad at calamity shall not be unpunished.

6 Children's children are the crown of old men;

the glory of children are their parents.

7 Arrogant speech isn't fitting for a fool, much less do lying lips fit a prince.

8 A bribe is a precious stone in the eyes of him who gives it;

wherever he turns, he prospers.

9 He who covers an offense promotes love;
but he who repeats a matter separates best friends.

10 A rebuke enters deeper into one who has understanding than a hundred lashes into a fool.

11 An evil man seeks only rebellion;
therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

12 Let a bear robbed of her cubs meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.

13 Whoever rewards evil for good,
evil shall not depart from his house.

14 The beginning of strife is like breaching a dam, therefore stop contention before quarreling breaks out.

15 He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the righteous, both of them alike are an abomination to Yahweh.

16 Why is there money in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom, since he has no understanding?

17 A friend loves at all times;
and a brother is born for adversity.

18 A man void of understanding strikes hands,
and becomes collateral in the presence of his neighbor.

19 He who loves disobedience loves strife.
 One who builds a high gate seeks destruction.
 20 One who has a perverse heart doesn't find prosperity,
 and one who has a deceitful tongue falls into trouble.
 21 He who becomes the father of a fool grieves.
 The father of a fool has no joy.
 22 A cheerful heart makes good medicine,
 but a crushed spirit dries up the bones.
 23 A wicked man receives a bribe in secret,
 to pervert the ways of justice.
 24 Wisdom is before the face of one who has understanding, but the eyes of a fool wander to the ends of the earth.
 25 A foolish son brings grief to his father,
 and bitterness to her who bore him.
 26 Also to punish the righteous is not good,
 nor to flog officials for their integrity.
 27 He who spares his words has knowledge.
 He who is even tempered is a man of understanding.
 28 Even a fool, when he keeps silent, is counted wise.
 When he shuts his lips, he is thought to be discerning.
18 A man who isolates himself pursues selfishness, and defies all sound judgment.
 2 A fool has no delight in understanding, but only in revealing his own opinion.
 3 When wickedness comes, contempt also comes,
 and with shame comes disgrace.
 4 The words of a man's mouth are like deep waters.
 The fountain of wisdom is like a flowing brook.
 5 To be partial to the faces of the wicked is not good,
 nor to deprive the innocent of justice.
 6 A fool's lips come into strife,
 and his mouth invites beatings.
 7 A fool's mouth is his destruction,

and his lips are a snare to his soul.
 8 The words of a gossip are like dainty morsels:
 they go down into a person's innermost parts.
 9 One who is slack in his work is brother to him who is a master of destruction.
 10 Yahweh's name is a strong tower:
 the righteous run to him, and are safe.
 11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city,
 like an unscalable wall in his own imagination.
 12 Before destruction the heart of man is proud,
 but before honor is humility.
 13 He who answers before he hears,
 that is folly and shame to him.
 14 A man's spirit will sustain him in sickness,
 but a crushed spirit, who can bear?
 15 The heart of the discerning gets knowledge.
 The ear of the wise seeks knowledge.
 16 A man's gift makes room for him,
 and brings him before great men.
 17 He who pleads his cause first seems right;
 until another comes and questions him.
 18 The lot settles disputes, and keeps strong ones apart.
 19 A brother offended is more difficult than a fortified city.
 Disputes are like the bars of a fortress.
 20 A man's stomach is filled with the fruit of his mouth.
 With the harvest of his lips he is satisfied.
 21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue;
 those who love it will eat its fruit.
 22 Whoever finds a wife finds a good thing,
 and obtains favor of Yahweh.
 23 The poor plead for mercy,
 but the rich answer harshly.
 24 A man of many companions may be ruined,
 but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.
19 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity than he who is perverse in his lips and is a fool.
 2 It isn't good to have zeal without knowledge,

nor being hasty with one's feet and missing the way.

3 The foolishness of man subverts his way; his heart rages against Yahweh.

4 Wealth adds many friends, but the poor is separated from his friend.

5 A false witness shall not be unpunished. He who pours out lies shall not go free.

6 Many will entreat the favor of a ruler, and everyone is a friend to a man who gives gifts.

7 All the relatives of the poor shun him: how much more do his friends avoid him! He pursues them with pleas, but they are gone.

8 He who gets wisdom loves his own soul. He who keeps understanding shall find good.

9 A false witness shall not be unpunished. He who utters lies shall perish.

10 Delicate living is not appropriate for a fool, much less for a servant to have rule over princes.

11 The discretion of a man makes him slow to anger. It is his glory to overlook an offense.

12 The king's wrath is like the roaring of a lion, but his favor is like dew on the grass.

13 A foolish son is the calamity of his father. A wife's quarrels are a continual dripping.

14 House and riches are an inheritance from fathers, but a prudent wife is from Yahweh.

15 Slothfulness casts into a deep sleep. The idle soul shall suffer hunger.

16 He who keeps the commandment keeps his soul, but he who is contemptuous in his ways shall die.

17 He who has pity on the poor lends to Yahweh; he will reward him.

18 Discipline your son, for there is hope; don't be a willing party to his death.

19 A hot-tempered man must pay the penalty, for if you rescue him, you must do it again.

20 Listen to counsel and receive instruction, that you may be wise in your latter end.

21 There are many plans in a man's heart, but Yahweh's counsel will prevail.

22 That which makes a man to be desired is his kindness.

A poor man is better than a liar.

23 The fear of Yahweh leads to life, then contentment;

he rests and will not be touched by trouble.

24 The sluggard buries his hand in the dish; he will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

25 Flog a scoffer, and the simple will learn prudence;

rebuke one who has understanding, and he will gain knowledge.

26 He who robs his father and drives away his mother, is a son who causes shame and brings reproach.

27 If you stop listening to instruction, my son, you will stray from the words of knowledge.

28 A corrupt witness mocks justice, and the mouth of the wicked gulps down iniquity.

29 Penalties are prepared for scoffers, and beatings for the backs of fools.

20 Wine is a mocker and beer is a brawler. Whoever is led astray by them is not wise.

2 The terror of a king is like the roaring of a lion.

He who provokes him to anger forfeits his own life.

3 It is an honor for a man to keep aloof from strife, but every fool will be quarreling.

4 The sluggard will not plow by reason of the winter; therefore he shall beg in harvest, and have nothing.

5 Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water, but a man of understanding will draw it out.

6 Many men claim to be men of unfailing love, but who can find a faithful man?

7 A righteous man walks in integrity.

Blessed are his children after him.

8 A king who sits on the throne of judgment scatters away all evil with his eyes.

9 Who can say, "I have made my heart pure. I am clean and without sin?"

10 Differing weights and differing measures, both of them alike are an abomination to Yahweh.

11 Even a child makes himself known by his doings, whether his work is pure, and whether it is right.

12 The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, Yahweh has made even both of them.

13 Don't love sleep, lest you come to poverty. Open your eyes, and you shall be satisfied with bread.

14 "It's no good, it's no good," says the buyer; but when he is gone his way, then he boasts.

15 There is gold and abundance of rubies, but the lips of knowledge are a rare jewel.

16 Take the garment of one who puts up collateral for a stranger; and hold him in pledge for a wayward woman.

17 Fraudulent food is sweet to a man, but afterwards his mouth is filled with gravel.

18 Plans are established by advice; by wise guidance you wage war!

19 He who goes about as a tale-bearer reveals secrets; therefore don't keep company with him who opens wide his lips.

20 Whoever curses his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in blackness of darkness.

21 An inheritance quickly gained at the beginning, won't be blessed in the end.

22 Don't say, "I will pay back evil." Wait for Yahweh, and he will save you.

23 Yahweh detests differing weights, and dishonest scales are not pleasing.

24 A man's steps are from Yahweh; how then can man understand his way?

25 It is a snare to a man to make a rash dedication, then later to consider his vows.

26 A wise king winnows out the wicked, and drives the threshing wheel over them.

27 The spirit of man is Yahweh's lamp, searching all his innermost parts.

28 Love and faithfulness keep the king safe. His throne is sustained by love.

29 The glory of young men is their strength. The splendor of old men is their gray hair.

30 Wounding blows cleanse away evil, and beatings purge the innermost parts.

21 The king's heart is in Yahweh's hand like the watercourses. He turns it wherever he desires.

2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes, but Yahweh weighs the hearts.

3 To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to Yahweh than sacrifice.

4 A high look and a proud heart, the lamp of the wicked, is sin.

5 The plans of the diligent surely lead to profit; and everyone who is hasty surely rushes to poverty.

6 Getting treasures by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapor for those who seek death.

7 The violence of the wicked will drive them away, because they refuse to do what is right.

8 The way of the guilty is devious, but the conduct of the innocent is upright.

9 It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop than to share a house with a contentious woman.

10 The soul of the wicked desires evil; his neighbor finds no mercy in his eyes.

11 When the mocker is punished, the simple gains wisdom.

When the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.

12 The Righteous One considers the house of the wicked, and brings the wicked to ruin.

13 Whoever stops his ears at the cry of the poor, he will also cry out, but shall not be heard.

14 A gift in secret pacifies anger,
and a bribe in the cloak, strong wrath.
15 It is joy to the righteous to do justice;
but it is a destruction to the workers of
iniquity.
16 The man who wanders out of the way of understanding shall rest in the assembly of the departed spirits.
17 He who loves pleasure will be a poor man.
He who loves wine and oil won't be rich.
18 The wicked is a ransom for the righteous,
the treacherous for the upright.
19 It is better to dwell in a desert land,
than with a contentious and fretful woman.
20 There is precious treasure and oil in the dwelling of the wise;
but a foolish man swallows it up.
21 He who follows after righteousness and
kindness
finds life, righteousness, and honor.
22 A wise man scales the city of the mighty,
and brings down the strength of its confidence.
23 Whoever guards his mouth and his tongue keeps his soul from troubles.
24 The proud and arrogant man—"Scoffer" is his name—
he works in the arrogance of pride.
25 The desire of the sluggard kills him,
for his hands refuse to labor.
26 There are those who covet greedily all day
long;
but the righteous give and don't withhold.
27 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination—
how much more, when he brings it with a wicked mind!
28 A false witness will perish.
A man who listens speaks to eternity.
29 A wicked man hardens his face;
but as for the upright, he establishes his ways.
30 There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against Yahweh.
31 The horse is prepared for the day of battle;
but victory is with Yahweh.

22 A good name is more desirable than great riches,
and loving favor is better than silver and gold.
2 The rich and the poor have this in common:
Yahweh is the maker of them all.
3 A prudent man sees danger and hides himself;
but the simple pass on, and suffer for it.
4 The result of humility and the fear of
Yahweh
is wealth, honor, and life.
5 Thorns and snares are in the path of the
wicked:
whoever guards his soul stays from them.
6 Train up a child in the way he should go,
and when he is old he will not depart from it.
7 The rich rule over the poor.
The borrower is servant to the lender.
8 He who sows wickedness reaps trouble,
and the rod of his fury will be destroyed.
9 He who has a generous eye will be blessed;
for he shares his food with the poor.
10 Drive out the mocker, and strife will go out;
yes, quarrels and insults will stop.
11 He who loves purity of heart and speaks gracefully
is the king's friend.
12 Yahweh's eyes watch over knowledge;
but he frustrates the words of the unfaithful.
13 The sluggard says, "There is a lion outside!
I will be killed in the streets!"
14 The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit.
He who is under Yahweh's wrath will fall into
it.
15 Folly is bound up in the heart of a child:
the rod of discipline drives it far from him.
16 Whoever oppresses the poor for his own increase and whoever gives to the rich, both come to poverty.
17 Turn your ear, and listen to the words of the wise.
Apply your heart to my teaching.
18 For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you,
if all of them are ready on your lips.
19 I teach you today, even you,

So that your trust may be in Yahweh.

²⁰ Haven't I written to you thirty excellent things of counsel and knowledge,

²¹ To teach you truth, reliable words,

to give sound answers to the ones who sent you?

²² Don't exploit the poor, because he is poor; and don't crush the needy in court;

²³ for Yahweh will plead their case, and plunder the life of those who plunder them.

²⁴ Don't befriend a hot-tempered man, and don't associate with one who harbors anger:

²⁵ lest you learn his ways, and ensnare your soul.

²⁶ Don't you be one of those who strike hands, of those who are collateral for debts.

²⁷ If you don't have means to pay, why should he take away your bed from under you?

²⁸ Don't move the ancient boundary stone which your fathers have set up.

²⁹ Do you see a man skilled in his work? He will serve kings.

He won't serve obscure men.

23 When you sit to eat with a ruler, consider diligently what is before you;

² put a knife to your throat, if you are a man given to appetite.

³ Don't be desirous of his dainties, since they are deceitful food.

⁴ Don't weary yourself to be rich.

In your wisdom, show restraint.

⁵ Why do you set your eyes on that which is not?

For it certainly sprouts wings like an eagle and flies in the sky.

⁶ Don't eat the food of him who has a stingy eye,

and don't crave his delicacies:

⁷ for as he thinks about the cost, so he is. "Eat and drink!" he says to you,

but his heart is not with you.

⁸ The morsel which you have eaten you shall vomit up,

and lose your good words.

⁹ Don't speak in the ears of a fool,

for he will despise the wisdom of your words.

¹⁰ Don't move the ancient boundary stone.

Don't encroach on the fields of the fatherless, for their Defender is strong.

He will plead their case against you.

¹² Apply your heart to instruction, and your ears to the words of knowledge.

¹³ Don't withhold correction from a child.

If you punish him with the rod, he will not die.

¹⁴ Punish him with the rod, and save his soul from Sheol.[§]

¹⁵ My son, if your heart is wise, then my heart will be glad, even mine.

¹⁶ Yes, my heart will rejoice when your lips speak what is right.

¹⁷ Don't let your heart envy sinners, but rather fear Yahweh all day long.

¹⁸ Indeed surely there is a future hope, and your hope will not be cut off.

¹⁹ Listen, my son, and be wise, and keep your heart on the right path!

²⁰ Don't be among ones drinking too much wine,

or those who gorge themselves on meat:

²¹ for the drunkard and the glutton shall become poor;

and drowsiness clothes them in rags.

²² Listen to your father who gave you life, and don't despise your mother when she is old.

²³ Buy the truth, and don't sell it.

Get wisdom, discipline, and understanding.

²⁴ The father of the righteous has great joy.

Whoever fathers a wise child delights in him.

²⁵ Let your father and your mother be glad!

Let her who bore you rejoice!

²⁶ My son, give me your heart; and let your eyes keep in my ways.

²⁷ For a prostitute is a deep pit; and a wayward wife is a narrow well.

^{§23:14} Sheol is the place of the dead.

28 Yes, she lies in wait like a robber,
and increases the unfaithful among men.

29 Who has woe?

Who has sorrow?

Who has strife?

Who has complaints?

Who has needless bruises?

Who has bloodshot eyes?

30 Those who stay long at the wine;
those who go to seek out mixed wine.

31 Don't look at the wine when it is red,
when it sparkles in the cup,
when it goes down smoothly.

32 In the end, it bites like a snake,
and poisons like a viper.

33 Your eyes will see strange things,
and your mind will imagine confusing things.

34 Yes, you will be as he who lies down in the middle of the sea,

or as he who lies on top of the rigging:

35 "They hit me, and I was not hurt!

They beat me, and I don't feel it!

When will I wake up? I can do it again.

I can find another."

24 Don't be envious of evil men, neither desire to be with them;

2 for their hearts plot violence and their lips talk about mischief.

3 Through wisdom a house is built;
by understanding it is established;

4 by knowledge the rooms are filled with all rare and beautiful treasure.

5 A wise man has great power;
and a knowledgeable man increases strength;

6 for by wise guidance you wage your war;
and victory is in many advisors.

7 Wisdom is too high for a fool.

He doesn't open his mouth in the gate.

8 One who plots to do evil will be called a schemer.

9 The schemes of folly are sin.

The mocker is detested by men.

10 If you falter in the time of trouble,
your strength is small.

11 Rescue those who are being led away to death!

Indeed, hold back those who are staggering to
the slaughter!

12 If you say, "Behold, we didn't know this," doesn't he who weighs the hearts consider it?
He who keeps your soul, doesn't he know it?
Shall he not render to every man according to his work?

13 My son, eat honey, for it is good,
the droppings of the honeycomb, which are sweet to your taste;

14 so you shall know wisdom to be to your
soul.

If you have found it, then there will be a reward:

Your hope will not be cut off.

15 Don't lay in wait, wicked man, against the habitation of the righteous.

Don't destroy his resting place;

16 for a righteous man falls seven times and rises up again;

but the wicked are overthrown by calamity.

17 Don't rejoice when your enemy falls.

Don't let your heart be glad when he is overthrown,

18 lest Yahweh see it, and it displease him,
and he turn away his wrath from him.

19 Don't fret yourself because of evildoers, neither be envious of the wicked;

20 for there will be no reward to the evil man.

The lamp of the wicked will be snuffed out.

21 My son, fear Yahweh and the king.

Don't join those who are rebellious;

22 for their calamity will rise suddenly.

Who knows what destruction may come from them both?

23 These also are sayings of the wise.

To show partiality in judgment is not good.

24 He who says to the wicked, "You are righteous,"

peoples will curse him, and nations will abhor
him—

25 but it will go well with those who convict the guilty,

and a rich blessing will come on them.

26 An honest answer is like a kiss on the lips.

27 Prepare your work outside,
and get your fields ready.
Afterwards, build your house.
28 Don't be a witness against your neighbor without cause.
Don't deceive with your lips.
29 Don't say, "I will do to him as he has done to me;
I will repay the man according to his work."
30 I went by the field of the sluggard, by the vineyard of the man void of
understanding:
31 Behold, it was all grown over with thorns.
Its surface was covered with nettles,
and its stone wall was broken down.
32 Then I saw, and considered well.
I saw, and received instruction:
33 a little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to sleep,
34 so your poverty will come as a robber
and your want as an armed man.

25 These also are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

2 It is the glory of God to conceal a thing,
but the glory of kings is to search out a matter.
3 As the heavens for height, and the earth for depth,
so the hearts of kings are unsearchable.
4 Take away the dross from the silver,
and material comes out for the refiner;
5 Take away the wicked from the king's presence,
and his throne will be established in
righteousness.
6 Don't exalt yourself in the presence of the king,
or claim a place among great men;
7 for it is better that it be said to you, "Come up here,"
than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince,
whom your eyes have seen.
8 Don't be hasty in bringing charges to court.
What will you do in the end when your neighbor shames you?

9 Debate your case with your neighbor,
and don't betray the confidence of another, 10 lest one who hears it put you to shame,
and your bad reputation never depart.
11 A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver.
12 As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold,
so is a wise reprover to an obedient ear.
13 As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to those who send
him;
for he refreshes the soul of his masters.
14 As clouds and wind without rain,
so is he who boasts of gifts deceptively.
15 By patience a ruler is persuaded.
A soft tongue breaks the bone.
16 Have you found honey?
Eat as much as is sufficient for you,
lest you eat too much, and vomit it.
17 Let your foot be seldom in your neighbor's
house,
lest he be weary of you, and hate you.
18 A man who gives false testimony against his neighbor
is like a club, a sword, or a sharp arrow.
19 Confidence in someone unfaithful in time of trouble
is like a bad tooth or a lame foot.
20 As one who takes away a garment in cold weather,
or vinegar on soda,
so is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.
21 If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat.
If he is thirsty, give him water to drink;
22 for you will heap coals of fire on his head, and Yahweh will reward you.
23 The north wind produces rain;
so a backbiting tongue brings an angry face.
24 It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop than to share a house with a contentious
woman.
25 Like cold water to a thirsty soul,
so is good news from a far country.

26 Like a muddied spring and a polluted well, so is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked.

27 It is not good to eat much honey,
nor is it honorable to seek one's own honor.

28 Like a city that is broken down and without walls
is a man whose spirit is without restraint.

26 Like snow in summer, and as rain in harvest,
so honor is not fitting for a fool.

2 Like a fluttering sparrow,
like a darting swallow,
so the undeserved curse doesn't come to rest.

3 A whip is for the horse,
a bridle for the donkey,
and a rod for the back of fools!

4 Don't answer a fool according to his folly, lest you also be like him.

5 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own eyes.

6 One who sends a message by the hand of a fool
is cutting off feet and drinking violence.

7 Like the legs of the lame that hang loose,
so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

8 As one who binds a stone in a sling,
so is he who gives honor to a fool.

9 Like a thorn bush that goes into the hand of a drunkard,
so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

10 As an archer who wounds all,
so is he who hires a fool or he who hires those who pass by.

11 As a dog that returns to his vomit,
so is a fool who repeats his folly.

12 Do you see a man wise in his own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

13 The sluggard says, "There is a lion in the road!

A fierce lion roams the streets!"

14 As the door turns on its hinges, so does the sluggard on his bed.

15 The sluggard buries his hand in the dish.
He is too lazy to bring it back to his mouth.

16 The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who answer with discretion.

17 Like one who grabs a dog's ears is one who passes by and meddles in a quarrel not his own.

18 Like a madman who shoots torches, arrows,
and death,

19 is the man who deceives his neighbor and says, "Am I not joking?"

20 For lack of wood a fire goes out.
Without gossip, a quarrel dies down.

21 As coals are not to hot embers,
and wood to fire,
so is a contentious man to kindling strife.

22 The words of a whisperer are as dainty morsels,
they go down into the innermost parts.

23 Like silver dross on an earthen vessel are the lips of a fervent one with an evil heart.

24 A malicious man disguises himself with his lips,
but he harbors evil in his heart.

25 When his speech is charming, don't believe
him,
for there are seven abominations in his heart.

26 His malice may be concealed by deception, but his wickedness will be exposed in the assembly.

27 Whoever digs a pit shall fall into it.
Whoever rolls a stone, it will come back on
him.

28 A lying tongue hates those it hurts;
and a flattering mouth works ruin.

27 Don't boast about tomorrow; for you don't know what a day may bring.

2 Let another man praise you,
and not your own mouth;
a stranger, and not your own lips.

3 A stone is heavy,
and sand is a burden;
but a fool's provocation is heavier than both.

4 Wrath is cruel,
and anger is overwhelming;
but who is able to stand before jealousy?

5 Better is open rebuke than hidden love.

6 The wounds of a friend are faithful,
 although the kisses of an enemy are profuse.
 7 A full soul loathes a honeycomb;
 but to a hungry soul, every bitter thing is sweet.
 8 As a bird that wanders from her nest,
 so is a man who wanders from his home.
 9 Perfume and incense bring joy to the heart;
 so does earnest counsel from a man's friend.
 10 Don't forsake your friend and your father's friend.
 Don't go to your brother's house in the day of your disaster.
 A neighbor who is near is better than a distant
 brother.
 11 Be wise, my son,
 and bring joy to my heart,
 then I can answer my tormentor.
 12 A prudent man sees danger and takes refuge;
 but the simple pass on, and suffer for it.
 13 Take his garment when he puts up collateral for a stranger.
 Hold it for a wayward woman!
 14 He who blesses his neighbor with a loud voice early in the morning,
 it will be taken as a curse by him.
 15 A continual dropping on a rainy day
 and a contentious wife are alike:
 16 restraining her is like restraining the wind,
 or like grasping oil in his right hand.
 17 Iron sharpens iron;
 so a man sharpens his friend's countenance.
 18 Whoever tends the fig tree shall eat its fruit.
 He who looks after his master shall be honored.
 19 Like water reflects a face,
 so a man's heart reflects the man.
 20 Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied;
 and a man's eyes are never satisfied.
 21 The crucible is for silver,
 and the furnace for gold;
 but man is refined by his praise.

22 Though you grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with grain, yet his foolishness will not be removed from
 him.
 23 Know well the state of your flocks,
 and pay attention to your herds:
 24 for riches are not forever,
 nor does the crown endure to all generations.
 25 The hay is removed, and the new growth appears,
 the grasses of the hills are gathered in.
 26 The lambs are for your clothing,
 and the goats are the price of a field.
 27 There will be plenty of goats' milk for your food,
 for your family's food,
 and for the nourishment of your servant girls.
28 The wicked flee when no one pursues;
 but the righteous are as bold as a lion.
 2 In rebellion, a land has many rulers, but order is maintained by a man of understanding and knowledge.
 3 A needy man who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain which leaves no crops.
 4 Those who forsake the law praise the
 wicked;
 but those who keep the law contend with
 them.
 5 Evil men don't understand justice;
 but those who seek Yahweh understand it fully.
 6 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity, than he who is perverse in his ways, and he is rich.
 7 Whoever keeps the law is a wise son;
 but he who is a companion of gluttons shames
 his father.
 8 He who increases his wealth by excessive interest
 gathers it for one who has pity on the poor.
 9 He who turns away his ear from hearing the
 law,
 even his prayer is an abomination.

27:20 Sheol is the place of the dead.

10 Whoever causes the upright to go astray in an evil way, he will fall into his own trap;
but the blameless will inherit good.

11 The rich man is wise in his own eyes;
but the poor who has understanding sees through him.

12 When the righteous triumph, there is great glory;
but when the wicked rise, men hide themselves.

13 He who conceals his sins doesn't prosper,
but whoever confesses and renounces them finds mercy.

14 Blessed is the man who always fears;
but one who hardens his heart falls into trouble.

15 As a roaring lion or a charging bear,
so is a wicked ruler over helpless people.

16 A tyrannical ruler lacks judgment.
One who hates ill-gotten gain will have long days.

17 A man who is tormented by life blood will be a fugitive until death;
no one will support him.

18 Whoever walks blamelessly is kept safe;
but one with perverse ways will fall suddenly.

19 One who works his land will have an abundance of food;
but one who chases fantasies will have his fill of poverty.

20 A faithful man is rich with blessings;
but one who is eager to be rich will not go unpunished.

21 To show partiality is not good;
yet a man will do wrong for a piece of bread.

22 A stingy man hurries after riches,
and doesn't know that poverty waits for him.

23 One who rebukes a man will afterward find more favor than one who flatters with the tongue.

24 Whoever robs his father or his mother and says, "It's not wrong," is a partner with a destroyer.

25 One who is greedy stirs up strife;
but one who trusts in Yahweh will prosper.

26 One who trusts in himself is a fool;
but one who walks in wisdom is kept safe.

27 One who gives to the poor has no lack;
but one who closes his eyes will have many curses.

28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves;
but when they perish, the righteous thrive.

29 He who is often rebuked and stiffens his neck will be destroyed suddenly, with no remedy.

2 When the righteous thrive, the people rejoice;
but when the wicked rule, the people groan.

3 Whoever loves wisdom brings joy to his father;
but a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth.

4 The king by justice makes the land stable,
but he who takes bribes tears it down.

5 A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.

6 An evil man is snared by his sin, but the righteous can sing and be glad.

7 The righteous care about justice for the poor.
The wicked aren't concerned about knowledge.

8 Mockers stir up a city,
but wise men turn away anger.

9 If a wise man goes to court with a foolish man,
the fool rages or scoffs, and there is no peace.

10 The bloodthirsty hate a man of integrity;
and they seek the life of the upright.

11 A fool vents all of his anger,
but a wise man brings himself under control.

12 If a ruler listens to lies,
all of his officials are wicked.

13 The poor man and the oppressor have this in common:
Yahweh gives sight to the eyes of both.

14 The king who fairly judges the poor,
his throne shall be established forever.

15 The rod of correction gives wisdom,
but a child left to himself causes shame to his mother.

16 When the wicked increase, sin increases;
but the righteous will see their downfall.

17 Correct your son, and he will give you
peace;
yes, he will bring delight to your soul.

18 Where there is no revelation, the people cast off restraint;
but one who keeps the law is blessed.

19 A servant can't be corrected by words.
Though he understands, yet he will not respond.

20 Do you see a man who is hasty in his words?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

21 He who pampers his servant from youth will have him become a son in the end.

22 An angry man stirs up strife,
and a wrathful man abounds in sin.

23 A man's pride brings him low,
but one of lowly spirit gains honor.

24 Whoever is an accomplice of a thief is an enemy of his own soul.
He takes an oath, but dares not testify.

25 The fear of man proves to be a snare, but whoever puts his trust in Yahweh is kept safe.

26 Many seek the ruler's favor,
but a man's justice comes from Yahweh.

27 A dishonest man detests the righteous, and the upright in their ways detest the
wicked.

30 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh; the revelation:
the man says to Ithiel,
to Ithiel and Ucal:
2 "Surely I am the most ignorant man,
and don't have a man's understanding.
3 I have not learned wisdom, neither do I have the knowledge of the Holy One.
4 Who has ascended up into heaven, and descended?
Who has gathered the wind in his fists?
Who has bound the waters in his garment?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?

What is his name, and what is his son's name,
if you know?

5 "Every word of God is flawless.
He is a shield to those who take refuge in him.

6 Don't you add to his words,
lest he reprove you, and you be found a liar.

7 "Two things I have asked of you.
Don't deny me before I die.
8 Remove far from me falsehood and lies.
Give me neither poverty nor riches.
Feed me with the food that is needful for me, 9 lest I be full, deny you, and say, 'Who is Yahweh?'
or lest I be poor, and steal,
and so dishonor the name of my God.

10 "Don't slander a servant to his master,
lest he curse you, and you be held guilty.

11 There is a generation that curses their father,
and doesn't bless their mother.

12 There is a generation that is pure in their own eyes,
yet are not washed from their filthiness.

13 There is a generation, oh how lofty are their eyes!
Their eyelids are lifted up.

14 There is a generation whose teeth are like swords,
and their jaws like knives, to devour the poor from the earth, and the needy from among men.

15 "The leech has two daughters:
'Give, give.'
"There are three things that are never satisfied;
four that don't say, 'Enough.'
16 Sheol,^{††}
the barren womb;
the earth that is not satisfied with water;
and the fire that doesn't say, 'Enough.'

17 "The eye that mocks at his father, and scorns obedience to his mother:
the ravens of the valley shall pick it out,
the young eagles shall eat it.

^{††}30:16 Sheol is the place of the dead.

18 “There are three things which are too amazing for me, four which I don’t understand:

19 The way of an eagle in the air,
the way of a serpent on a rock,
the way of a ship in the middle of the sea,
and the way of a man with a maiden.

20 “So is the way of an adulterous woman:
She eats and wipes her mouth,
and says, ‘I have done nothing wrong.’

21 “For three things the earth trembles, and under four, it can’t bear up:

22 For a servant when he is king,
a fool when he is filled with food, 23 for an unloved woman when she is married,
and a servant who is heir to her mistress.

24 “There are four things which are little on the earth,

but they are exceedingly wise:

25 The ants are not a strong people,
yet they provide their food in the summer.

26 The hyraxes are but a feeble folk,
yet make they their houses in the rocks.

27 The locusts have no king,
yet they advance in ranks.

28 You can catch a lizard with your hands,
yet it is in kings’ palaces.

29 “There are three things which are stately in their march,

four which are stately in going:

30 The lion, which is mightiest among animals, and doesn’t turn away for any;

31 the greyhound;

the male goat;

and the king against whom there is no rising up.

32 “If you have done foolishly in lifting up yourself, or if you have thought evil,

put your hand over your mouth.

33 For as the churning of milk produces butter,
and the wringing of the nose produces blood;
so the forcing of wrath produces strife.”

31 The words of king Lemuel; the revelation which his mother taught him.

2 “Oh, my son!

Oh, son of my womb!

Oh, son of my vows!

3 Don’t give your strength to women,
nor your ways to that which destroys kings.

4 It is not for kings, Lemuel,
it is not for kings to drink wine,
nor for princes to say, ‘Where is strong drink?’

5 lest they drink, and forget the law, and pervert the justice due to anyone who is afflicted.

6 Give strong drink to him who is ready to perish,

and wine to the bitter in soul.

7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.

8 Open your mouth for the mute,
in the cause of all who are left desolate.

9 Open your mouth, judge righteously, and serve justice to the poor and needy.”

10 ††Who can find a worthy woman?
For her price is far above rubies.

11 The heart of her husband trusts in her.
He shall have no lack of gain.

12 She does him good, and not harm,
all the days of her life.

13 She seeks wool and flax,
and works eagerly with her hands.

14 She is like the merchant ships.
She brings her bread from afar.

15 She rises also while it is yet night,
gives food to her household,

and portions for her servant girls.

16 She considers a field, and buys it.

With the fruit of her hands, she plants a vineyard.

17 She arms her waist with strength, and makes her arms strong.

18 She perceives that her merchandise is profitable.

Her lamp doesn’t go out by night.

††31:10 Proverbs 31:10-31 form an acrostic, with each verse starting with each letter of the Hebrew alphabet, in order.

19 She lays her hands to the distaff, and her hands hold the spindle.
20 She opens her arms to the poor;
yes, she extends her hands to the needy.
21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household;
for all her household are clothed with scarlet.
22 She makes for herself carpets of tapestry.
Her clothing is fine linen and purple.
23 Her husband is respected in the gates,
when he sits among the elders of the land.
24 She makes linen garments and sells them,
and delivers sashes to the merchant.
25 Strength and dignity are her clothing.

She laughs at the time to come.
26 She opens her mouth with wisdom.
Kind instruction is on her tongue.
27 She looks well to the ways of her household, and doesn't eat the bread of idleness.
28 Her children rise up and call her blessed.
Her husband also praises her:
29 "Many women do noble things,
but you excel them all."
30 Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain;
but a woman who fears Yahweh, she shall be praised.
31 Give her of the fruit of her hands!
Let her works praise her in the gates!

Ecclesiastes
or, The Preacher

1 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem:

²“Vanity of vanities,” says the Preacher; “Vanity of vanities, all is vanity.” ³What does man gain from all his labor in which he labors under the sun? ⁴One generation goes, and another generation comes; but the earth remains forever. ⁵The sun also rises, and the sun goes down, and hurries to its place where it rises. ⁶The wind goes toward the south, and turns around to the north. It turns around continually as it goes, and the wind returns again to its courses. ⁷All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full. To the place where the rivers flow, there they flow again. ⁸All things are full of weariness beyond uttering. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. ⁹That which has been is that which shall be; and that which has been done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun. ¹⁰Is there a thing of which it may be said, “Behold, ¶¶ this is new?” It has been long ago, in the ages which were before us. ¹¹There is no memory of the former; neither shall there be any memory of the latter that are to come, among those that shall come after.

¹²I, the Preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. ¹³I applied my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under the sky. It is a heavy burden that God§§ has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. ¹⁴I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and behold, all is vanity and a chasing after wind. ¹⁵That which is crooked can't be made straight; and that which is lacking can't be counted. ¹⁶I said to myself, “Behold, I have obtained for myself great wisdom above all who were before me in Jerusalem. Yes, my heart has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.” ¹⁷I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also was a chasing after wind. ¹⁸For in much wisdom is much grief; and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

2 I said in my heart, “Come now, I will test you with mirth: therefore enjoy pleasure;” and behold, this also was vanity. ²I said of laughter, “It is foolishness;” and of mirth, “What does it accomplish?”

³I searched in my heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, my heart yet guiding me with wisdom, and how to lay hold of folly, until I might see what it was good for the sons of men that they should do under heaven all the days of their lives. ⁴I made myself great works. I built myself houses. I planted myself vineyards. ⁵I made myself gardens and parks, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruit. ⁶I made myself pools of water, to water from it the forest where trees were grown. ⁷I bought male servants and female servants, and had servants born in my house. I also had great possessions of herds and flocks, above all who were before me in Jerusalem. ⁸I also gathered silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and of the provinces. I got myself male and female singers, and the delights of the sons of men: musical instruments, and that of all sorts. ⁹So I was great, and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also remained with me. ¹⁰Whatever my eyes desired, I didn't keep from them. I didn't withhold my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced because of all my labor, and this was my portion from all my labor. ¹¹Then I looked at all the works that my hands had worked, and at the labor that I had labored to do; and behold, all was vanity and a chasing after wind, and there was no profit under the sun.

¶¶1:10 “Behold”, from ,”הנה“ means look at, take notice, observe, see, or gaze at. It is often used as an interjection.

§§1:13 The Hebrew word rendered “God” is ”אלהים“ (Elohim).

¹²I turned myself to consider wisdom, madness, and folly; for what can the king's successor do? Just that which has been done long ago. ¹³Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness. ¹⁴The wise man's eyes are in his head, and the fool walks in darkness—and yet I perceived that one event happens to them all. ¹⁵Then I said in my heart, “As it happens to the fool, so will it happen even to me; and why was I then more wise?” Then I said in my heart that this also is vanity. ¹⁶For of the wise man, even as of the fool, there is no memory forever, since in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. Indeed, the wise man must die just like the fool!

¹⁷So I hated life, because the work that is worked under the sun was grievous to me; for all is vanity and a chasing after wind. ¹⁸I hated all my labor in which I labored under the sun, because I must leave it to the man who comes after me. ¹⁹Who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have rule over all of my labor in which I have labored, and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity.

²⁰Therefore I began to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labor in which I had labored under the sun. ²¹For there is a man whose labor is with wisdom, with knowledge, and with skillfulness; yet he shall leave it for his portion to a man who has not labored for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. ²²For what does a man have of all his labor and of the striving of his heart, in which he labors under the sun? ²³For all his days are sorrows, and his travail is grief; yes, even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity. ²⁴There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and make his soul enjoy good in his labor. This also I saw, that it is from the hand of God. ²⁵For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment, more than I? ²⁶For to the man who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner he gives travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him who pleases God. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

3 For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven:

²a time to be born,

and a time to die;

a time to plant,

and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

³a time to kill,

and a time to heal;

a time to break down,

and a time to build up;

⁴a time to weep,

and a time to laugh;

a time to mourn,

and a time to dance;

⁵a time to cast away stones,

and a time to gather stones together;

a time to embrace,

and a time to refrain from embracing;

⁶a time to seek,

and a time to lose;

a time to keep,

and a time to cast away;

⁷a time to tear,

and a time to sew;

a time to keep silence,

and a time to speak;

⁸a time to love,

and a time to hate;

a time for war,

and a time for peace.

⁹What profit has he who works in that in which he labors? ¹⁰I have seen the burden which God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. ¹¹He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in their hearts, yet so that man can't find out the work that God has done from the beginning even to the end. ¹²I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice, and to do good as long as they live. ¹³Also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy good in all his labor, is the gift of God. ¹⁴I know that whatever God does, it shall be forever. Nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; and God has done it, that men should fear before him. ¹⁵That which is has been long ago, and that which is to be has been long ago. God seeks again that which is passed away.

¹⁶Moreover I saw under the sun, in the place of justice, that wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, that wickedness was there. ¹⁷I said in my heart, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work." ¹⁸I said in my heart, "As for the sons of men, God tests them, so that they may see that they themselves are like animals. ¹⁹For that which happens to the sons of men happens to animals. Even one thing happens to them. As the one dies, so the other dies. Yes, they have all one breath; and man has no advantage over the animals; for all is vanity. ²⁰All go to one place. All are from the dust, and all turn to dust again. ²¹Who knows the spirit of man, whether it goes upward, and the spirit of the animal, whether it goes downward to the earth?"

²²Therefore I saw that there is nothing better than that a man should rejoice in his works; for that is his portion: for who can bring him to see what will be after him?

4 Then I returned and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold, the tears of those who were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter. ²Therefore I praised the dead who have been long dead more than the living who are yet alive. ³Yes, better than them both is him who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. ⁴Then I saw all the labor and achievement that is the envy of a man's neighbor. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.

⁵The fool folds his hands together and ruins himself. ⁶Better is a handful, with quietness, than two handfuls with labor and chasing after wind.

⁷Then I returned and saw vanity under the sun. ⁸There is one who is alone, and he has neither son nor brother. There is no end to all of his labor, neither are his eyes satisfied with wealth. "For whom then, do I labor and deprive my soul of enjoyment?" This also is vanity. Yes, it is a miserable business.

⁹Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labor. ¹⁰For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him who is alone when he falls, and doesn't have another to lift him up. ¹¹Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth; but how can one keep warm alone? ¹²If a man prevails against one who is alone, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

¹³Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king who doesn't know how to receive admonition any more. ¹⁴For out of prison he came out to be king; yes, even in his kingdom he was born poor. ¹⁵I saw all the living who walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the other, who succeeded him. ¹⁶There was no end of all the people, even of all them over whom he was—yet those who come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

5 Guard your steps when you go to God's house; for to draw near to listen is better than to give the sacrifice of fools, for they don't know that they do evil. ²Don't be rash with your mouth, and don't let your heart be hasty to utter anything before God; for God is in heaven, and you on earth. Therefore let your words be few. ³For as a dream comes with a multitude of cares, so a fool's speech with a multitude of words. ⁴When you vow a vow to God, don't defer to pay it; for he has no pleasure in fools. Pay that which you vow. ⁵It is better that you should not vow, than that you should vow and not pay. ⁶Don't allow your mouth to lead you into sin. Don't protest before the messenger that this was a mistake.

Why should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands? ⁷For in the multitude of dreams there are vanities, as well as in many words; but you must fear God.

⁸If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of justice and righteousness in a district, don't marvel at the matter, for one official is eyed by a higher one, and there are officials over them. ⁹Moreover the profit of the earth is for all. The king profits from the field.

¹⁰He who loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he who loves abundance, with increase: this also is vanity. ¹¹When goods increase, those who eat them are increased; and what advantage is there to its owner, except to feast on them with his eyes?

¹²The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eats little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not allow him to sleep.

¹⁸Behold, that which I have seen to be good and proper is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy good in all his labor, in which he labors under the sun, all the days of his life which God has given him; for this is his portion. ¹⁹Every man also to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat of it, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor—this is the gift of God. ²⁰For he shall not often reflect on the days of his life; because God occupies him with the joy of his heart.

6 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy on men: ²a man to whom God gives riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet God gives him no power to eat of it, but an alien eats it. This is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

³If a man fathers a hundred children, and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not filled with good, and moreover he has no burial; I say, that a stillborn child is better than he: ⁴for it comes in vanity, and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness. ⁵Moreover it has not seen the sun nor known it. This has rest rather than the other. ⁶Yes, though he live a thousand years twice told, and yet fails to enjoy good, don't all go to one place? ⁷All the labor of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. ⁸For what advantage has the wise more than the fool? What has the poor man, that knows how to walk before the living? ⁹Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind. ¹⁰Whatever has been, its name was given long ago; and it is known what man is; neither can he contend with him who is mightier than he. ¹¹For there are many words that create vanity. What does that profit man? ¹²For who knows what is good for man in life, all the days of his vain life which he spends like a shadow? For who can tell a man what will be after him under the sun?

7 A good name is better than fine perfume; and the day of death better than the day of one's birth. ²It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting; for that is the end of all men, and the living should take this to heart. ³Sorrow is better than laughter; for by the sadness of the face the heart is made good. ⁴The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. ⁵It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise than for a man to hear the song of fools. ⁶For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity. ⁷ Surely extortion makes the wise man foolish; and a bribe destroys the understanding. ⁸ Better is the end of a thing than its beginning.

The patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. ⁹ Don't be hasty in your spirit to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools. ¹⁰ Don't say, "Why were the former days better than these?" For you do not ask wisely about this.

¹¹ Wisdom is as good as an inheritance. Yes, it is more excellent for those who see the sun. ¹² For wisdom is a defense, even as money is a defense; but the excellency of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it.

¹³ Consider the work of God, for who can make that straight, which he has made crooked? ¹⁴ In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; yes, God has made the one side by side with the other, to the end that man should not find out anything after him.

¹⁵ All this I have seen in my days of vanity: there is a righteous man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who lives long in his evildoing. ¹⁶ Don't be overly righteous, neither make yourself overly wise. Why should you destroy yourself? ¹⁷ Don't be too wicked, neither be foolish. Why should you die before your time? ¹⁸ It is good that you should take hold of this. Yes, also don't withdraw your hand from that; for he who fears God will come out of them all. ¹⁹ Wisdom is a strength to the wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city. ²⁰ Surely there is not a righteous man on earth who does good and doesn't sin. ²¹ Also don't take heed to all words that are spoken, lest you hear your servant curse you; ²² for often your own heart knows that you yourself have likewise cursed others. ²³ All this I have proved in wisdom. I said, "I will be wise;" but it was far from me. ²⁴ That which is, is far off and exceedingly deep. Who can find it out? ²⁵ I turned around, and my heart sought to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the scheme of things, and to know that wickedness is stupidity, and that foolishness is madness.

²⁷ "Behold, I have found this," says the Preacher, "to one another, to find out the scheme ²⁸ which my soul still seeks, but I have not found. I have found one man among a thousand, but I have not found a woman among all those. ²⁹ Behold, I have only found this: that God made man upright; but they search for many schemes."

8 Who is like the wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom makes his face shine, and the hardness of his face is changed. ² I say, "Keep the king's command!" because of the oath to God. ³ Don't be hasty to go out of his presence. Don't persist in an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him, ⁴ for the king's word is supreme. Who can say to him, "What are you doing?" ⁵ Whoever keeps the commandment shall not come to harm, and his wise heart will know the time and procedure. ⁶ For there is a time and procedure for every purpose, although the misery of man is heavy on him. ⁷ For he doesn't know that which will be; for who can tell him how it will be? ⁸ There is no man who has power over the spirit to contain the spirit; neither does he have power over the day of death. There is no discharge in war; neither shall wickedness deliver those who practice it.

⁹ All this I have seen, and applied my mind to every work that is done under the sun. There is a time in which one man has power over another to his hurt. ¹⁰ So I saw the wicked buried. Indeed they came also from holiness. They went and were forgotten in the city where they did this. This also is vanity. ¹¹ Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. ¹² Though a sinner commits crimes a hundred times, and lives long, yet surely I know that it will be better with those who fear God, who are reverent before him. ¹³ But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he lengthen days like a shadow, because he doesn't fear God.

¹⁴ There is a vanity which is done on the earth, that there are righteous men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked. Again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity. ¹⁵ Then I commended mirth, because a man has no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be joyful: for that will accompany him in his labor all the days of his life which God has given him under the sun.

¹⁶ When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on the earth (even though eyes see no sleep day or night), ¹⁷ then I saw all the work of God, that man can't find out the work that is done under the sun, because however much a man labors to seek it out, yet he won't find it. Yes even though a wise man thinks he can comprehend it, he won't be able to find it.

9 For all this I laid to my heart, even to explore all this: that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God; whether it is love or hatred, man doesn't know it; all is before them. ² All things come alike to all. There is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good, to the clean, to the unclean, to him who sacrifices, and to him who doesn't sacrifice. As is the good, so is the sinner; he who takes an oath, as he who fears an oath. ³ This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that there is one event to all: yes also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. ⁴ For to him who is joined with all the living there is hope; for a living dog is better than a dead lion. ⁵ For the living know that they will die, but the dead don't know anything, neither do they have any more a reward; for their memory is forgotten. ⁶ Also their love, their hatred, and their envy has perished long ago; neither do they any longer have a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun.

⁷ Go your way—eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has already accepted your works. ⁸ Let your garments be always white, and don't let your head lack oil. ⁹ Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your life of vanity, which he has given you under the sun, all your days of vanity, for that is your portion in life, and in your labor in which you labor under the sun. ¹⁰ Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work, nor plan, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in Sheol,* where you are going.

¹¹ I returned and saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men of skill; but time and chance happen to them all. ¹² For man also doesn't know his time. As the fish that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, even so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly on them.

¹³ I have also seen wisdom under the sun in this way, and it seemed great to me. ¹⁴ There was a little city, and few men within it; and a great king came against it, besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it. ¹⁵ Now a poor wise man was found in it, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man. ¹⁶ Then I said, "Wisdom is better than strength." Nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. ¹⁷ The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than the cry of him who rules among fools. ¹⁸ Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroys much good.

10 Dead flies cause the oil of the perfumer to produce an evil odor; so does a little folly outweigh wisdom and honor.

² A wise man's heart is at his right hand, but a fool's heart at his left. ³ Yes also when the fool walks by the way, his understanding fails him, and he says to everyone that he is a fool. ⁴ If the spirit of the ruler rises up against you, don't leave your place; for gentleness lays great offenses to rest.

Man doesn't know what will be; and that which will be after him, who can tell him? ¹⁵ The labor of fools wearies every one of them; for he doesn't know how to go to the city.

¹⁶ Woe to you, land, when your king is a child, and your princes eat in the morning!

¹⁷ Happy are you, land, when your king is the son of nobles, and your princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

¹⁸ By slothfulness the roof sinks in; and through idleness of the hands the house leaks.

¹⁹ A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes the life glad; and money is the answer for all things.

²⁰ Don't curse the king, no, not in your thoughts; and don't curse the rich in your bedroom: for a bird of the sky may carry your voice, and that which has wings may tell the matter.

11 Cast your bread on the waters; for you shall find it after many days.

² Give a portion to seven, yes, even to eight; for you don't know what evil will be on the earth.

³ If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on the earth; and if a tree falls toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falls, there shall it be.

⁴ He who observes the wind won't sow; and he who regards the clouds won't reap.

⁶ In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening don't withhold your hand; for you don't know which will prosper, whether this or that, or whether they both will be equally good.

⁷ Truly the light is sweet, and it is a pleasant thing for the eyes to see the sun.

⁸ Yes, if a man lives many years, let him rejoice in them all; but let him remember the days of darkness, for they shall be many.

All that comes is vanity.

⁹ Rejoice, young man, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth, and walk in the ways of your heart,

and in the sight of your eyes;
but know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment.

¹⁰ Therefore remove sorrow from your heart, and put away evil from your flesh;
for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

12 Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth,
before the evil days come, and the years draw near,
when you will say, "I have no pleasure in
them;"

² Before the sun, the light, the moon, and the stars are darkened,
and the clouds return after the rain;

³ in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble,
and the strong men shall bow themselves,
and the grinders cease because they are few,
and those who look out of the windows are darkened,

⁴ and the doors shall be shut in the street;
when the sound of the grinding is low,
and one shall rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low;

⁵ yes, they shall be afraid of heights,
and terrors will be on the way;
and the almond tree shall blossom,

and the grasshopper shall be a burden,
and desire shall fail;

because man goes to his everlasting home,
and the mourners go about the streets:

⁶ before the silver cord is severed, or the golden bowl is broken,
or the pitcher is broken at the spring,
or the wheel broken at the cistern,

⁷ and the dust returns to the earth as it was,
and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

⁸ "Vanity of vanities," says the Preacher.
"All is vanity!"

⁹ Further, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge. Yes, he pondered, sought out, and set in order many proverbs. ¹⁰ The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written blamelessly, words of truth. ¹¹ The words of the wise are like goads; and like nails well fastened are words from the masters of as-semblies, which are given from one shepherd.
¹² Furthermore, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

¹³ This is the end of the matter. All has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man. ¹⁴ For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it is good,
or whether it is evil.

The Song of Solomon

1 The Song of songs, which is Solomon's.
Beloved

²Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth;

for your love is better than wine.

³Your oils have a pleasing fragrance.

Your name is oil poured out, therefore the virgins love you.

⁴Take me away with you.

Let's hurry.

The king has brought me into his rooms.

Friends

We will be glad and rejoice in you.

We will praise your love more than wine!

Beloved

They are right to love you.

⁵I am dark, but lovely,
you daughters of Jerusalem,
like Kedar's tents,
like Solomon's curtains.

⁶Don't stare at me because I am dark,
because the sun has scorched me.

My mother's sons were angry with me.

They made me keeper of the vineyards.

I haven't kept my own vineyard.

⁷Tell me, you whom my soul loves,
where you graze your flock,
where you rest them at noon;
for why should I be as one who is veiled beside the flocks of your companions?

Lover

⁸If you don't know, most beautiful among women, follow the tracks of the sheep.

Graze your young goats beside the shepherds' tents.

⁹I have compared you, my love,
to a steed in Pharaoh's chariots.

¹⁰Your cheeks are beautiful with earrings,
your neck with strings of jewels.

Friends

¹¹We will make you earrings of gold, with studs of silver.

Beloved

¹²While the king sat at his table,
my perfume spread its fragrance.

¹³My beloved is to me a satchet of myrrh, that lies between my breasts.

¹⁴My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms from the vineyards of En Gedi.

Lover

¹⁵Behold,[†] you are beautiful, my love.

Behold, you are beautiful.

Your eyes are like doves.

Beloved

¹⁶Behold, you are beautiful, my beloved, yes, pleasant;
and our couch is verdant.

Lover

¹⁷The beams of our house are cedars.

Our rafters are firs.

Beloved

2 I am a rose of Sharon,
a lily of the valleys.

Lover

²As a lily among thorns,
so is my love among the daughters.

Beloved

³As the apple tree among the trees of the wood,

[†]1:15 "Behold", from , "הִנֵּה" means look at, take notice, observe, see, or gaze at. It is often used as an interjection.

so is my beloved among the sons.
 I sat down under his shadow with great delight,
 his fruit was sweet to my taste.
 4 He brought me to the banquet hall.
 His banner over me is love.
 5 Strengthen me with raisins, refresh me with apples;
 for I am faint with love.
 6 His left hand is under my head.
 His right hand embraces me.
 7 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
 by the roes, or by the hinds of the field,
 that you not stir up, nor awaken love,
 until it so desires.
 8 The voice of my beloved!
 Behold, he comes,
 leaping on the mountains,
 skipping on the hills.
 9 My beloved is like a roe or a young deer.
 Behold, he stands behind our wall!
 He looks in at the windows.
 He glances through the lattice.
 10 My beloved spoke, and said to me,
 "Rise up, my love, my beautiful one, and come
 away.
 11 For behold, the winter is past.
 The rain is over and gone.
 12 The flowers appear on the earth.
 The time of the singing has come,
 and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our
 land.
 13 The fig tree ripens her green figs.
 The vines are in blossom.
 They give out their fragrance.
 Arise, my love, my beautiful one,
 and come away."

Lover

14 My dove in the clefts of the rock, in the hiding places of the mountainside,
 let me see your face.
 let me hear your voice;
 for your voice is sweet and your face is lovely.
 15 Catch for us the foxes,
 the little foxes that plunder the vineyards;
 for our vineyards are in blossom.

Beloved

16 My beloved is mine, and I am his.
 He browses among the lilies.
 17 Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee
 away,
 turn, my beloved,
 and be like a roe or a young deer on the mountains of Bether.

3 By night on my bed,
 I sought him whom my soul loves.
 I sought him, but I didn't find him.
 2 I will get up now, and go about the city;
 in the streets and in the squares I will seek him whom my soul loves.
 I sought him, but I didn't find him.
 3 The watchmen who go about the city found
 me;
 "Have you seen him whom my soul loves?"
 4 I had scarcely passed from them,
 when I found him whom my soul loves.
 I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's
 house,
 into the room of her who conceived me.
 5 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
 by the roes, or by the hinds of the field,
 that you not stir up nor awaken love,
 until it so desires.
 6 Who is this who comes up from the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
 with all spices of the merchant?
 7 Behold, it is Solomon's carriage!
 Sixty mighty men are around it,
 of the mighty men of Israel.
 8 They all handle the sword, and are expert in war.

Every man has his sword on his thigh,
 because of fear in the night.

9 King Solomon made himself a carriage of the wood of Lebanon.
 10 He made its pillars of silver, its bottom of gold, its seat of purple,
 the middle of it being paved with love,
 from the daughters of Jerusalem.

11 Go out, you daughters of Zion, and see king Solomon, with the crown with which his mother has crowned him,
in the day of his weddings,
in the day of the gladness of his heart.

Lover

Behold, you are beautiful, my love.
4 Behold, you are beautiful.
Your eyes are like doves behind your veil.
Your hair is as a flock of goats,
that descend from Mount Gilead.
2 Your teeth are like a newly shorn flock,
which have come up from the washing,
where every one of them has twins.
None is bereaved among them.
3 Your lips are like scarlet thread.
Your mouth is lovely.
Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil.
4 Your neck is like David's tower built for an armory, on which a thousand shields hang,
all the shields of the mighty men.
5 Your two breasts are like two fawns
that are twins of a roe,
which feed among the lilies.
6 Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away,
I will go to the mountain of myrrh,
to the hill of frankincense.
7 You are all beautiful, my love.
There is no spot in you.
8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, with me from Lebanon.
Look from the top of Amana,
from the top of Senir and Hermon,
from the lions' dens,
from the mountains of the leopards.
9 You have ravished my heart, my sister, my bride.
You have ravished my heart with one of your eyes,
with one chain of your neck.

10 How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride!

How much better is your love than wine,
the fragrance of your perfumes than all kinds of spices!

11 Your lips, my bride, drip like the honeycomb.

Honey and milk are under your tongue.
The smell of your garments is like the smell of Lebanon.

12 My sister, my bride, is a locked up garden;
a locked up spring,
a sealed fountain.

13 Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates,
with precious fruits,
henna with spikenard plants,

14 spikenard and saffron,
calamus and cinnamon, with every kind of incense tree;

myrrh and aloes, with all the best spices,

15 a fountain of gardens,
a well of living waters, flowing streams from Lebanon.

Beloved

16 Awake, north wind, and come, you south!
Blow on my garden, that its spices may flow out.

Let my beloved come into his garden,
and taste his precious fruits.

Lover

5 I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride.

I have gathered my myrrh with my spice;
I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey;
I have drunk my wine with my milk.

Friends

Eat, friends!
Drink, yes, drink abundantly, beloved.

Beloved

2 I was asleep, but my heart was awake.
It is the voice of my beloved who knocks:

“Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled;

for my head is filled with dew,
and my hair with the dampness of the night.”

³ I have taken off my robe. Indeed, must I put it on?

I have washed my feet. Indeed, must I soil them?

⁴ My beloved thrust his hand in through the latch opening.

My heart pounded for him.

⁵ I rose up to open for my beloved.

My hands dripped with myrrh,
my fingers with liquid myrrh,
on the handles of the lock.

⁶ I opened to my beloved;
but my beloved left, and had gone away.

My heart went out when he spoke.
I looked for him, but I didn't find him.

I called him, but he didn't answer.

⁷ The watchmen who go about the city found me.

They beat me.

They bruised me.

The keepers of the walls took my cloak away from me.

⁸ I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
If you find my beloved,
that you tell him that I am faint with love.

Friends

⁹ How is your beloved better than another beloved,

you fairest among women?

How is your beloved better than another beloved,

that you do so adjure us?

Beloved

¹⁰ My beloved is white and ruddy.

The best among ten thousand.

¹¹ His head is like the purest gold.

His hair is bushy, black as a raven.

¹² His eyes are like doves beside the water brooks, washed with milk, mounted like jewels.

¹³ His cheeks are like a bed of spices with towers of perfumes.

His lips are like lilies, dropping liquid myrrh.

¹⁴ His hands are like rings of gold set with beryl.

His body is like ivory work overlaid with sapphires.

¹⁵ His legs are like pillars of marble set on sockets of fine gold.

His appearance is like Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

¹⁶ His mouth is sweetness;

yes, he is altogether lovely.

This is my beloved, and this is my friend, daughters of Jerusalem.

Friends

6 Where has your beloved gone, you fairest among women?

Where has your beloved turned, that we may seek him with you?

Beloved

² My beloved has gone down to his garden,
to the beds of spices,

to pasture his flock in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

³ I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine.
He browses among the lilies.

Lover

⁴ You are beautiful, my love, as Tirzah, lovely as Jerusalem,

awesome as an army with banners.

⁵ Turn away your eyes from me,
for they have overcome me.

Your hair is like a flock of goats,
that lie along the side of Gilead.

⁶ Your teeth are like a flock of ewes,
which have come up from the washing,

of which every one has twins;
not one is bereaved among them.

⁷ Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil.

⁸ There are sixty queens, eighty concubines, and virgins without number.

9 My dove, my perfect one, is unique.
 She is her mother's only daughter.
 She is the favorite one of her who bore her.
 The daughters saw her, and called her blessed.
 The queens and the concubines saw her, and they praised her.

10 Who is she who looks out as the morning, beautiful as the moon,
 clear as the sun,
 and awesome as an army with banners?

11 I went down into the nut tree grove,
 to see the green plants of the valley,
 to see whether the vine budded,
 and the pomegranates were in flower.

12 Without realizing it, my desire set me with my royal people's chariots.

Friends

13 Return, return, Shulammitte!
 Return, return, that we may gaze at you.

Lover

Why do you desire to gaze at the Shulammitte, as at the dance of Mahanaim?

7 How beautiful are your feet in sandals, prince's daughter!

Your rounded thighs are like jewels,
 the work of the hands of a skillful workman.

2 Your body is like a round goblet,
 no mixed wine is wanting.

Your waist is like a heap of wheat, set about with lilies.

3 Your two breasts are like two fawns,
 that are twins of a roe.

4 Your neck is like an ivory tower.
 Your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bathrabbim.

Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus.

5 Your head on you is like Carmel.
 The hair of your head like purple.

The king is held captive in its tresses.
 6 How beautiful and how pleasant you are,
 love, for delights!

7 This, your stature, is like a palm tree,

your breasts like its fruit.

8 I said, "I will climb up into the palm tree.
 I will take hold of its fruit."

Let your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
 the smell of your breath like apples.

9 Your mouth is like the best wine, that goes down smoothly for my beloved, gliding through the lips of those who are asleep.

Beloved

10 I am my beloved's.
 His desire is toward me.

11 Come, my beloved! Let's go out into the field.

Let's lodge in the villages.

12 Let's go early up to the vineyards.

Let's see whether the vine has budded,
 its blossom is open,

and the pomegranates are in flower.

There I will give you my love.

13 The mandrakes produce fragrance.

At our doors are all kinds of precious fruits,
 new and old,

which I have stored up for you, my beloved.

8 Oh that you were like my brother, who nursed from the breasts of my mother!

If I found you outside, I would kiss you;
 yes, and no one would despise me.

2 I would lead you, bringing you into the house of my mother,

who would instruct me.

I would have you drink spiced wine,
 of the juice of my pomegranate.

3 His left hand would be under my head.

His right hand would embrace me.

4 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
 that you not stir up, nor awaken love,
 until it so desires.

Friends

5 Who is this who comes up from the
 wilderness,
 leaning on her beloved?

Beloved

Under the apple tree I aroused you.
 There your mother conceived you.
 There she was in labor and bore you.
 6 Set me as a seal on your heart,
 as a seal on your arm;
 for love is strong as death.
 Jealousy is as cruel as Sheol.‡
 Its flashes are flashes of fire,
 a very flame of Yahweh.¶ 7 Many waters can't quench love, neither can floods drown it.
 If a man would give all the wealth of his house for love,
 he would be utterly scorned.

Brothers

8 We have a little sister.
 She has no breasts.
 What shall we do for our sister in the day when she is to be spoken for?
 9 If she is a wall,
 we will build on her a turret of silver.

If she is a door,
 we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

Beloved

10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers, then I was in his eyes like one who found peace.
 11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon.
 He leased out the vineyard to keepers.
 Each was to bring a thousand shekels§ of silver for its fruit.
 12 My own vineyard is before me.
 The thousand are for you, Solomon,
 two hundred for those who tend its fruit.

Lover

13 You who dwell in the gardens, with friends in attendance,
 let me hear your voice!

Beloved

14 Come away, my beloved!
 Be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices!

‡8:6 Sheol is the place of the dead.

¶8:6 “Yahweh” is God’s proper Name, sometimes rendered “LORD” (all caps) in other translations.

§8:11 A shekel is about 10 grams or about 0.35 ounces, so 1000 shekels is about 10 kilograms or about 22 pounds.

The Book of the Prophet

Isaiah

1 The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 Hear, heavens, and listen, earth; for Yahweh has spoken: "I have nourished and brought up children and they have rebelled against me.

3 The ox knows his owner, and the donkey his master's crib; but Israel doesn't know. My people don't consider."

4 Ah sinful nation, a people loaded with iniquity, offspring†† of evildoers, children who deal corruptly! They have forsaken Yahweh. They have despised the Holy One of Israel. They are estranged and backward.

5 Why should you be beaten more, that you revolt more and more? The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

6 From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it: wounds, welts, and open sores. They haven't been closed, bandaged, or soothed with oil.

7 Your country is desolate. Your cities are burned with fire. Strangers devour your land in your presence and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

8 The daughter of Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard, like a hut in a field of melons, like a besieged city.

9 Unless Yahweh of Armies had left to us a very small remnant, we would have been as Sodom. We would have been like Gomorrah.

10 Hear Yahweh's word, you rulers of Sodom! Listen to the law of our God,‡‡ you people of Gomorrah!

11 "What are the multitude of your sacrifices to me?", says Yahweh.

"I have had enough of the burnt offerings of rams and the fat of fed animals. I don't delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of male goats.

12 When you come to appear before me, who has required this at your hand, to trample my courts?

13 Bring no more vain offerings. Incense is an abomination to me. New moons, Sabbaths, and convocations: I can't stand evil assemblies.

14 My soul hates your New Moons and your appointed feasts. They are a burden to me. I am weary of bearing them.

15 When you spread out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you. Yes, when you make many prayers, I will not hear.

Your hands are full of blood.

16 Wash yourselves. Make yourself clean. Put away the evil of your doings from before my eyes.

Cease to do evil.

17 Learn to do well.

Seek justice.

Relieve the oppressed.

Defend the fatherless.

Plead for the widow."

1:2 "Yahweh" is God's proper Name, sometimes rendered "LORD" (all caps) in other translations.

††1:4 or, seed

‡‡1:10 The Hebrew word rendered "God" is "אֱלֹהִים" (Elohim).

18 “Come now, and let’s reason together,” says
Yahweh:

“Though your sins are as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow.

Though they are red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

19 If you are willing and obedient,
you will eat the good of the land;

20 but if you refuse and rebel, you will be devoured with the sword;

for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken it.”

21 How the faithful city has become a prostitute!

She was full of justice.

Righteousness lodged in her,
but now there are murderers.

22 Your silver has become dross,
your wine mixed with water.

23 Your princes are rebellious and companions of thieves.

Everyone loves bribes and follows after rewards.

They don’t defend the fatherless, neither does the cause of the widow come to
them.

24 Therefore the Lord, ^{¶¶}Yahweh of Armies,
the Mighty One of Israel, says:

“Ah, I will get relief from my adversaries, and avenge myself on my enemies.

25 I will turn my hand on you, thoroughly purge away your dross,
and will take away all your tin.^{§§}

26 I will restore your judges as at the first,
and your counselors as at the beginning.
Afterward you shall be called “The city of
righteousness,
a faithful town.”

27 Zion shall be redeemed with justice, and her converts with righteousness.

28 But the destruction of transgressors and sinners shall be together, and those who forsake Yahweh shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which you have desired,
and you shall be confounded for the gardens
that you have chosen.

30 For you shall be as an oak whose leaf fades, and as a garden that has no water.

31 The strong will be like tinder,
and his work like a spark.

They will both burn together,
and no one will quench them.”

2 This is what Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 It shall happen in the latter days, that the mountain of Yahweh’s house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and shall be raised above the hills;
and all nations shall flow to it.

3 Many peoples shall go and say,
“Come, let’s go up to the mountain of
Yahweh,

to the house of the God of Jacob;
and he will teach us of his ways,
and we will walk in his paths.”

For the law shall go out of Zion,
and Yahweh’s word from Jerusalem.

4 He will judge between the nations,
and will decide concerning many peoples.
They shall beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks.

Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
neither shall they learn war any more.

5 House of Jacob, come, and let’s walk in the light of Yahweh.

6 For you have forsaken your people, the house of Jacob,

because they are filled from the east,
with those who practice divination like the Philistines,

and they clasp hands with the children of foreigners.

7 Their land is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures.

Their land also is full of horses,

^{¶¶}1:24 The word translated “Lord” is “Adonai.”

^{§§}1:25 tin is a metal that is separated from silver during the refining and purification process.

neither is there any end of their chariots.
 8 Their land also is full of idols.
 They worship the work of their own hands,
 that which their own fingers have made.
 9 Man is brought low,
 and mankind is humbled;
 therefore don't forgive them.
 10 Enter into the rock,
 and hide in the dust,
 from before the terror of Yahweh,
 and from the glory of his majesty.
 11 The lofty looks of man will be brought low,
 the arrogance of men will be bowed down,
 and Yahweh alone will be exalted in that day.
 12 For there will be a day of Yahweh of Armies for all that is proud and arrogant, and for all that is lifted up;
 and it shall be brought low:
 13 for all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up,
 for all the oaks of Bashan, 14 for all the high mountains,
 for all the hills that are lifted up, 15 for every lofty tower,
 for every fortified wall, 16 for all the ships of Tarshish,
 and for all pleasant imagery.
 17 The loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the arrogance of men shall be brought
 low;
 and Yahweh alone shall be exalted in that day.
 18 The idols shall utterly pass away.
 19 Men shall go into the caves of the rocks,
 and into the holes of the earth,
 from before the terror of Yahweh,
 and from the glory of his majesty,
 when he arises to shake the earth mightily.
 20 In that day, men shall cast away their idols of silver
 and their idols of gold, which have been made for themselves to worship,
 to the moles and to the bats,

21 to go into the caverns of the rocks,
 and into the clefts of the ragged rocks,
 from before the terror of Yahweh,
 and from the glory of his majesty,
 when he arises to shake the earth mightily.
 22 Stop trusting in man, whose breath is in his nostrils;
 for of what account is he?
 3 For, behold,* the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah supply and support,
 the whole supply of bread,
 and the whole supply of water;
 2 the mighty man,
 the man of war,
 the judge,
 the prophet,
 the diviner,
 the elder,
 3 the captain of fifty,
 the honorable man,
 the counselor,
 the skilled craftsman,
 and the clever enchanter.
 4 I will give boys to be their princes,
 and children shall rule over them.
 5 The people will be oppressed, everyone by another,
 and everyone by his neighbor.
 The child will behave himself proudly against the old man,
 and the wicked against the honorable.
 6 Indeed a man shall take hold of his brother in the house of his father, saying,
 "You have clothing, you be our ruler,
 and let this ruin be under your hand."
 7 In that day he will cry out, saying, "I will not be a healer;
 for in my house is neither bread nor clothing.
 You shall not make me ruler of the people."
 8 For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen; because their tongue and their doings are against Yahweh,

*3:1 "Behold", from ,”הנה“ means look at, take notice, observe, see, or gaze at. It is often used as an interjection.

to provoke the eyes of his glory.

⁹ The look of their faces testify against them.

They parade their sin like Sodom.

They don't hide it.

Woe to their soul!

For they have brought disaster upon themselves.

¹⁰ Tell the righteous "Good!"

For they shall eat the fruit of their deeds.

¹¹ Woe to the wicked!

Disaster is upon them;

for the deeds of his hands will be paid back to him.

¹² As for my people, children are their oppressors,

and women rule over them.

My people, those who lead you cause you to err,

and destroy the way of your paths.

¹³ Yahweh stands up to contend,

and stands to judge the peoples.

¹⁴ Yahweh will enter into judgment with the elders of his people and their leaders:

"It is you who have eaten up the vineyard.

The plunder of the poor is in your houses.

¹⁵ What do you mean that you crush my people, and grind the face of the poor?" says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies.

¹⁶ Moreover Yahweh said, "Because the daughters of Zion are arrogant, and walk with outstretched necks and flirting eyes,

walking to trip as they go,

jingling ornaments on their feet;

¹⁷ therefore the Lord brings sores on the crown of the head of the women of Zion, and Yahweh will make their scalps bald."

¹⁸ In that day the Lord will take away the beauty of their anklets, the headbands, the crescent necklaces, ¹⁹ the earrings, the bracelets, the veils, ²⁰ the headdresses, the ankle chains, the sashes, the perfume containers, the charms, ²¹ the signet rings, the nose rings, ²² the fine robes, the capes, the cloaks, the purses, ²³ the hand mirrors, the fine linen garments, the tiaras, and the shawls.

²⁴ It shall happen that instead of sweet spices, there shall be rotteness;

instead of a belt, a rope;

instead of well set hair, baldness;

instead of a robe, a wearing of sackcloth;

and branding instead of beauty.

²⁵ Your men shall fall by the sword,

and your mighty in the war.

²⁶ Her gates shall lament and mourn.

She shall be desolate and sit on the ground.

4 Seven women shall take hold of one man in that day, saying, "We will eat our own bread, and wear our own clothing. Just let us be called by your name. Take away our reproach."

² In that day, Yahweh's branch will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the beauty and glory of the survivors of Israel. ³ It will happen that he who is left in Zion and he who remains in Jerusalem shall be called holy, even everyone who is written among the living in Jerusalem, ⁴ when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from within it, by the spirit of justice and by the spirit of burning. ⁵ Yahweh will create over the whole habitation of Mount Zion and over her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night, for over all the glory will be a canopy. ⁶ There will be a pavilion for a shade in the daytime from the heat, and for a refuge and for a shelter from storm and from rain.

5 Let me sing for my well beloved a song of my beloved about his vineyard. My beloved had a vineyard on a very fruitful hill.

² He dug it up,

gathered out its stones,

planted it with the choicest vine,

built a tower in the middle of it,

and also cut out a wine press in it.

He looked for it to yield grapes,

but it yielded wild grapes.

3 “Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, please judge between me and my vineyard.

4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it?

Why, when I looked for it to yield grapes, did it yield wild grapes?

5 Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard.

I will take away its hedge, and it will be eaten up.

I will break down its wall, and it will be trampled down.

6 I will lay it a wasteland.

It won't be pruned or hoed,
but it will grow briars and thorns.

I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain on it.”

7 For the vineyard of Yahweh of Armies is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant:

and he looked for justice, but, behold, oppression;

for righteousness, but, behold, a cry of distress.

8 Woe to those who join house to house,
who lay field to field, until there is no room,
and you are made to dwell alone in the middle of the land!

9 In my ears, Yahweh of Armies says: “Surely many houses will be desolate, even great and beautiful, unoccupied.

10 For ten acres† of vineyard shall yield one bath,‡ and a homer¶ of seed shall yield an ephah.”§

11 Woe to those who rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink, who stay late into the night, until wine inflames them!

12 The harp, lyre, tambourine, and flute, with wine, are at their feasts;

but they don't respect the work of Yahweh, neither have they considered the operation of his hands.

13 Therefore my people go into captivity for lack of knowledge.

Their honorable men are famished,
and their multitudes are parched with thirst.

14 Therefore Sheol has enlarged its desire, and opened its mouth without measure;
and their glory, their multitude, their pomp,
and he who rejoices among them, descend into it.

15 So man is brought low, mankind is humbled,

and the eyes of the arrogant ones are humbled;
16 but Yahweh of Armies is exalted in justice, and God the Holy One is sanctified in righteousness.

17 Then the lambs will graze as in their pasture, and strangers will eat the ruins of the rich.

18 Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of falsehood, and wickedness as with cart rope,

19 who say, “Let him make haste, let him hasten his work, that we may see it;

let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come,
that we may know it!”

20 Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil;

who put darkness for light,

and light for darkness;

who put bitter for sweet,

and sweet for bitter!

21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes,

†5:10 literally, ten yokes, or the amount of land that ten yokes of oxen can plow in one day, which is about 10 acres or 4 hectares.

‡5:10 1 bath is about 22 liters or 5.8 U. S. gallons

¶5:10 1 homer is about 220 liters or 6 bushels

§5:10 1 ephah is about 22 liters or 0.6 bushels or about 2 pecks—only one tenth of what was sown.

5:14 Sheol is the place of the dead.

and prudent in their own sight!

²² Woe to those who are mighty to drink wine,
and champions at mixing strong drink;

²³ who acquit the guilty for a bribe,
but deny justice for the innocent!

²⁴ Therefore as the tongue of fire devours the stubble,

and as the dry grass sinks down in the flame,
so their root shall be as rottenness,

and their blossom shall go up as dust, because they have rejected the law of Yahweh
of Armies,

and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

²⁵ Therefore Yahweh's anger burns against his people,

and he has stretched out his hand against them
and has struck them.

The mountains tremble,
and their dead bodies are as refuse in the middle of the streets.

For all this, his anger is not turned away,
but his hand is still stretched out.

²⁶ He will lift up a banner to the nations from far away,

and he will whistle for them from the end of
the earth.

Behold, they will come speedily and swiftly.

²⁷ No one shall be weary nor stumble among
them;

no one shall slumber nor sleep,
neither shall the belt of their waist be untied,
nor the strap of their sandals be broken,

²⁸ whose arrows are sharp,
and all their bows bent.

Their horses' hoofs will be like flint,
and their wheels like a whirlwind.

²⁹ Their roaring will be like a lioness.
They will roar like young lions.

Yes, they shall roar,
and seize their prey and carry it off,
and there will be no one to deliver.

³⁰ They will roar against them in that day like the roaring of the sea.

If one looks to the land, behold, darkness and distress.

The light is darkened in its clouds.

⁶ In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up; and his train filled the temple. ² Above him stood the seraphim. Each one had six wings. With two he covered his face. With two he covered his feet. With two he flew. ³ One called to another, and said,
"Holy, holy, holy, is Yahweh of Armies!
The whole earth is full of his glory!"

⁴ The foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who called, and the house was filled with smoke. ⁵ Then I said, "Woe is me! For I am undone, because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell among a people of unclean lips: for my eyes have seen the King, Yahweh of Armies!"

⁶ Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar. ⁷ He touched my mouth with it, and said, "Behold, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away, and your sin forgiven."

⁸ I heard the Lord's voice, saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?"

Then I said, "Here I am. Send me!"

⁹ He said, "Go, and tell this people,
'You hear indeed,
but don't understand.

You see indeed,
but don't perceive.'

¹⁰ Make the heart of this people fat.
Make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes;
lest they see with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their heart,
and turn again, and be healed."

¹¹ Then I said, "Lord, how long?"

He answered,
"Until cities are waste without inhabitant, houses without man,
the land becomes utterly waste, ¹² and Yahweh has removed men far away, and the forsaken places are many within the
land.

¹³ If there is a tenth left in it,

that also will in turn be consumed, as a terebinth, and as an oak, whose stump remains when they are cut down; so the holy seed is its stock.”

7 In the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. ² David’s house was told, “Syria is allied with Ephraim.” His heart trembled, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest tremble with the wind.

³ Then Yahweh said to Isaiah, “Go out now to meet Ahaz, you, and Shearjashub your son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, on the highway of the fuller’s field. ⁴ Tell him, ‘Be careful, and keep calm. Don’t be afraid, neither let your heart be faint because of these two tails of smoking torches, for the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. ⁵ Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have plotted evil against you, saying, ⁶ “Let’s go up against Judah, and tear it apart, and let’s divide it among ourselves, and set up a king within it, even the son of Tabeel.” ⁷ This is what the Lord Yahweh says: “It shall not stand, neither shall it happen.” ⁸ For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin. Within sixty-five years Ephraim shall be broken in pieces, so that it shall not be a people. ⁹ The head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah’s son. If you will not believe, surely you shall not be established.”

¹⁰ Yahweh spoke again to Ahaz, saying, ¹¹ “Ask a sign of Yahweh your God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.”

¹² But Ahaz said, “I won’t ask. I won’t tempt Yahweh.”

¹³ He said, “Listen now, house of David. Is it not enough for you to try the patience of men, that you will try the patience of my God also? ¹⁴ Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin will conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.†† ¹⁵ He shall eat butter and honey when he knows to refuse the evil and choose the good. ¹⁶ For before the child knows to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land whose two kings you abhor shall be forsaken. ¹⁷ Yahweh will bring on you, on your people, and on your father’s house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah, even the king of Assyria.

¹⁸ It will happen in that day that Yahweh will whistle for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. ¹⁹ They shall come, and shall all rest in the desolate valleys, in the clefts of the rocks, on all thorn hedges, and on all pastures.

²⁰ In that day the Lord will shave with a razor that is hired in the parts beyond the River, even with the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the feet; and it shall also consume the beard.

²³ It will happen in that day that every place where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silver shekels,‡‡ shall be for briers and thorns. ²⁴ People will go there with arrows and with bow, because all the land will be briers and thorns. ²⁵ All the hills that were cultivated with the hoe, you shall not come there for fear of briers and thorns; but it shall be for the sending out of oxen, and for sheep to tread on.”

††7:14 “Immanuel” means “God with us”.

‡‡7:23 A shekel is about 10 grams or about 0.35 ounces, so 1000 shekels is about 10 kilograms or 22 pounds.

8 Yahweh said to me, “Take a large tablet, and write on it with a man’s pen, ‘For Maher Shalal Hash Baz’;^{¶¶} 2 and I will take for myself faithful witnesses to testify: Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.”

3 I went to the prophetess, and she conceived, and bore a son. Then Yahweh said to me, “Call his name ‘Maher Shalal Hash Baz.’ 4 For before the child knows how to say, ‘My father,’ and, ‘My mother,’ the riches of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be carried away by the king of Assyria.”

5 Yahweh spoke to me yet again, saying, 6 “Because this people has refused the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah’s son; 7 now therefore, behold, the Lord brings upon them the mighty flood waters of the River: the king of Assyria and all his glory. It will come up over all its channels, and go over all its banks. 8 It will sweep onward into Judah. It will overflow and pass through. It will reach even to the neck. The stretching out of its wings will fill the width of your land, Immanuel. 9 Make an uproar, you peoples, and be broken in pieces! Listen, all you from far countries: dress for battle, and be shattered! Dress for battle, and be shattered! 10 Take counsel together, and it will be brought to nothing; speak the word, and it will not stand, for God is with us.” 11 For Yahweh spoke this to me with a strong hand, and instructed me not to walk in the way of this people, saying, 12 “Don’t say, ‘A conspiracy!’ concerning all about which this people say, ‘A conspiracy!’ neither fear their threats, nor be terrorized. 13 Yahweh of Armies is who you must respect as holy. He is the one you must fear. He is the one you must dread. 14 He will be a sanctuary, but for both houses of Israel, he will be a stumbling stone and a rock that makes them fall. For the people of Jerusalem, he will be a trap and a snare. 15 Many will stumble over it, fall, be broken, be snared, and be captured.”

16 Wrap up the covenant. Seal the law among my disciples. 17 I will wait for Yahweh, who hides his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him. 18 Behold, I and the children whom Yahweh has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from Yahweh of Armies, who dwells in Mount Zion.

19 When they tell you, “Consult with those who have familiar spirits and with the wizards, who chirp and who mutter,” shouldn’t a people consult with their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living? 20 Turn to the law and to the covenant! If they don’t speak according to this word, surely there is no morning for them. 21 They will pass through it, very distressed and hungry. It will happen that when they are hungry, they will worry, and curse by their king and by their God. They will turn their faces upward, 22 and look to the earth, and see distress, darkness, and the gloom of anguish. They will be driven into thick darkness.

9 But there shall be no more gloom for her who was in anguish. In the former time, he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali; but in the latter time he has made it glorious, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

2 The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.

The light has shined on those who lived in the land of the shadow of death.

3 You have multiplied the nation.

You have increased their joy.

They rejoice before you according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the plunder. 4 For the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, you have broken as in the day of Midian. 5 For all the armor of the armed man in the noisy battle, and the garments rolled in blood, will be for burning, fuel for the fire. 6 For a child is born to us. A son is given to us; and the government will be on his shoulders.

¶¶8:1 “Maher Shalal Hash Baz” means “quick to the plunder, swift to the prey”.

His name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. ⁷Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, on David's throne, and on his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from that time on, even forever. The zeal of Yahweh of Armies will perform this.

⁸The Lord sent a word into Jacob, and it falls on Israel.

⁹All the people will know, including Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who say in pride and in arrogance of heart,

¹⁰"The bricks have fallen, but we will build with cut stone.

The sycamore fig trees have been cut down, but we will put cedars in their place."

¹¹Therefore Yahweh will set up on high against him the adversaries of Rezin, and will stir up his enemies, ¹²The Syrians in front, and the Philistines behind; and they will devour Israel with open mouth. For all this, his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

¹³Yet the people have not turned to him who struck them, neither have they sought Yahweh of Armies.

¹⁴Therefore Yahweh will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm branch and reed, in one day.

¹⁵The elder and the honorable man is the head, and the prophet who teaches lies is the tail.

¹⁶For those who lead this people lead them astray; and those who are led by them are destroyed.

¹⁷Therefore the Lord will not rejoice over their young men, neither will he have compassion on their fatherless and widows;

for everyone is profane and an evildoer, and every mouth speaks folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

¹⁸For wickedness burns like a fire.

It devours the briars and thorns; yes, it kindles in the thickets of the forest, and they roll upward in a column of smoke.

¹⁹Through Yahweh of Armies' wrath, the land is burned up; and the people are the fuel for the fire. No one spares his brother.

²⁰One will devour on the right hand, and be hungry; and he will eat on the left hand, and they will not be satisfied.

Everyone will eat the flesh of his own arm:

²¹Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh; and they together shall be against Judah.

For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

10 Woe to those who decree unrighteous decrees, and to the writers who write oppressive decrees; ²to deprive the needy from justice, and to rob the poor among my people of their rights, that widows may be their plunder, and that they may make the fatherless their prey! ³What will you do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which will come from afar? To whom will you flee for help? Where will you leave your wealth?

⁴They will only bow down under the prisoners, and will fall under the slain.

For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

⁵Alas Assyrian, the rod of my anger, the staff in whose hand is my indignation! ⁶I will send him against a profane nation, and against the people who anger me I will give him a command to take the plunder and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets. ⁷However he doesn't mean so, neither does his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy, and to cut off not a few nations. ⁸For he says, "Aren't all of my princes kings? ⁹Isn't Calno like Carchemish? Isn't Hamath like Arpad? Isn't Samaria like Damascus?" ¹⁰As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols, whose engraved images exceeded those of Jerusalem and of Samaria; ¹¹ shall I not, as I have done to Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

¹² Therefore it will happen that when the Lord has performed his whole work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the willful proud heart of the king of Assyria, and the insolence of his arrogant looks. ¹³ For he has said, "By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I have understanding. I have removed the boundaries of the peoples, and have robbed their treasures. Like a valiant man I have brought down their rulers. ¹⁴ My hand has found the riches of the peoples like a nest, and like one gathers eggs that are abandoned, I have gathered all the earth. There was no one who moved their wing, or that opened their mouth, or chirped."

²⁰ It will come to pass in that day that the remnant of Israel, and those who have escaped from the house of Jacob will no more again lean on him who struck them, but shall lean on Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. ²¹ A remnant will return, even the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God. ²² For though your people, Israel, are like the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will return. A destruction is determined, overflowing with righteousness. ²³ For the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, will make a full end, and that determined, throughout all the earth.

²⁴ Therefore the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, says "My people who dwell in Zion, don't be afraid of the Assyrian, though he strike you with the rod, and lift up his staff against you, as Egypt did. ²⁵ For yet a very little while, and the indignation against you will be accomplished, and my anger will be directed to his destruction." ²⁶ Yahweh of Armies will stir up a scourge against him, as in the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb. His rod will be over the sea, and he will lift it up like he did against Egypt. ²⁷ It will happen in that day that his burden will depart from off your shoulder, and his yoke from off your neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing oil.

²⁸ He has come to Aiath. He has passed through Migron. At Michmash he stores his baggage. ²⁹ They have gone over the pass. They have taken up their lodging at Geba. Ramah trembles. Gibeah of Saul has fled. ³⁰ Cry aloud with your voice, daughter of Galim! Listen, Laishah! You poor Anathoth! ³¹ Madmenah is a fugitive. The inhabitants of Gebim flee for safety. ³² This very day he will halt at Nob. He shakes his hand at the mountain of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

³³ Behold, the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, will lop the boughs with terror. The tall will be cut down, and the lofty will be brought low. ³⁴ He will cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon will fall by the Mighty One.

11 A shoot will come out of the stock of Jesse, and a branch out of his roots will bear fruit.

² Yahweh's Spirit will rest on him: the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Yahweh.

³ His delight will be in the fear of Yahweh. He will not judge by the sight of his eyes, neither decide by the hearing of his ears; 4 but he will judge the poor with

 righteousness,
 and decide with equity for the humble of the
 earth.

He will strike the earth with the rod of his
 mouth;
 and with the breath of his lips he will kill the
 wicked.

5 Righteousness will be the belt of his waist,
 and faithfulness the belt of his waist.

6 The wolf will live with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down with the young goat,
 the calf, the young lion, and the fattened calf
 together;
 and a little child will lead them.

7 The cow and the bear will graze.
 Their young ones will lie down together.
 The lion will eat straw like the ox.

8 The nursing child will play near a cobra's hole,
 and the weaned child will put his hand on the viper's den.

9 They will not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain;
 for the earth will be full of the knowledge of Yahweh,
 as the waters cover the sea.

10 It will happen in that day that the nations will seek the root of Jesse, who stands as a banner of the peoples; and his resting place will be glorious.

11 It will happen in that day that the Lord will set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. 12 He will set up a banner for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. 13 The envy also of Ephraim will depart, and those who persecute Judah will be cut off. Ephraim won't envy Judah, and Judah won't persecute Ephraim. 14 They will fly down on the shoulders of the Philistines on the west. Together they will plunder the children of the east. They will extend their power over Edom and Moab, and the children of Ammon will obey them. 15 Yahweh will utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his scorching wind he will wave his hand over the River, and will split it into seven streams, and cause men to march over in sandals. 16 There will be a highway for the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, like there was for Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

12 In that day you will say, "I will give thanks to you, Yahweh; for though you were angry with me, your anger has turned away and you comfort me. 2 Behold, God is my salvation. I will trust, and will not be afraid; for Yah, Yahweh, is my strength and song; and he has become my salvation."
 3 Therefore with joy you will draw water out of the wells of salvation. 4 In that day you will say, "Give thanks to Yahweh! Call on his name. Declare his doings among the peoples.
 Proclaim that his name is exalted! 5 Sing to Yahweh, for he has done excellent things! Let this be known in all the earth! 6 Cry aloud and shout, you inhabitant of Zion; for the Holy
 One of Israel is great among you!"

13 The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.

2 Set up a banner on the bare mountain! Lift up your voice to them! Wave your hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles. 3 I have commanded my consecrated ones; yes,
 I have called my mighty men for my anger, even my proudly exulting ones. 4 The noise of a multitude is in the mountains, as of a great people; the noise of an uproar of the kingdoms of the nations gathered together! Yahweh of Armies is mustering the army for the battle. 5 They come from a far country, from the uttermost part of heaven, even Yahweh, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

6 Wail, for Yahweh's day is at hand! It will come as destruction from the Almighty. 7 Therefore all hands will be feeble, and everyone's heart will melt. 8 They will be dismayed. Pangs and sorrows will seize them. They will be in pain like a woman in labor. They will look in amazement one at another. Their faces will be faces of flame. 9 Behold, the day of Yahweh comes, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger; to make the land a desolation, and to destroy its sinners out of it. 10 For the stars of the sky and its constellations will not give their light. The sun will be darkened in its going out, and the moon will not cause its light to shine. 11 I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity. I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will humble the arrogance of the terrible. 12 I will make people more rare than fine gold, even a person than the pure gold of Ophir. 13 Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place in Yahweh of Armies' wrath, and in the day of his fierce anger. 14 It will happen that like a hunted gazelle, and like sheep that no one gathers, they will each turn to their own people, and will each flee to their own land. 15 Everyone who is found will be thrust through. Everyone who is captured will fall by the sword. 16 Their infants also will be dashed in pieces before their eyes. Their houses will be ransacked, and their wives raped.

17 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, who will not value silver, and as for gold, they will not delight in it. 18 Their bows will dash the young men in pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb. Their eyes will not spare children. 19 Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldeans' pride, will be like when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. 20 It will never be inhabited, neither will it be lived in from generation to generation. The Arabian will not pitch a tent there, neither will shepherds make their flocks lie down there. 21 But wild animals of the desert will lie there, and their houses will be full of jackals. Ostriches will dwell there, and wild goats will frolic there. 22 Wolves will cry in their fortresses, and jackals in the pleasant palaces. Her time is near to come, and her days will not be prolonged.

14 For Yahweh will have compassion on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land. The foreigner will join himself with them, and they will unite with the house of Jacob. 2 The peoples will take them, and bring them to their place. The house of Israel will possess them in Yahweh's land for servants and for handmaids. They will take as captives those whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors.

3 It will happen in the day that Yahweh will give you rest from your sorrow, from your trouble, and from the hard service in which you were made to serve, 4 that you will take up this parable against the king of Babylon, and say, "How the oppressor has ceased! The golden city has ceased!" 5 Yahweh has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of the rulers, 6 who struck the peoples in wrath with a continual stroke, who ruled the nations in anger, with a persecution that no one restrained. 7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet. They break out in song. 8 Yes, the cypress trees rejoice with you, with the cedars of Lebanon, saying, "Since you are humbled, no lumberjack has come up against us." 9 Sheol§§ from beneath has moved for you to meet you at your coming. It stirs up the departed spirits for you, even all the rulers of the earth. It has raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations. 10 They all will answer and ask you, "Have you also become as weak as we are? Have you become like us?" 11 Your pomp is brought down to Sheol,* with the sound of your stringed instruments. Maggots are spread out under you, and worms cover you.

§§14:9 Sheol is the place of the dead.

*14:11 Sheol is the place of the dead.

¹² How you have fallen from heaven, shining one, son of the dawn! How you are cut down to the ground, who laid the nations low!

¹³ You said in your heart, "I will ascend into heaven! I will exalt my throne above the stars of God! I will sit on the mountain of assembly, in the far north! ¹⁴ I will ascend above the heights of the clouds! I will make myself like the Most High!" ¹⁵ Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol,[†] to the depths of the pit. ¹⁶ Those who see you will stare at you. They will ponder you, saying, "Is this the man who made the earth to tremble, who shook kingdoms, ¹⁷ who made the world like a wilderness, and overthrew its cities, who didn't release his prisoners to their home?"

¹⁸ All the kings of the nations, sleep in glory, everyone in his own house. ¹⁹ But you are cast away from your tomb like an abominable branch, clothed with the slain, who are thrust through with the sword, who go down to the stones of the pit; like a dead body trodden under foot. ²⁰ You will not join them in burial, because you have destroyed your land. You have killed your people. The offspring of evildoers will not be named forever.

²⁴ Yahweh of Armies has sworn, saying, "Surely, as I have thought, so shall it happen; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand: ²⁵ that I will break the Assyrian in my land, and tread him under foot on my mountains. Then his yoke will leave them, and his burden leave their shoulders. ²⁶ This is the plan that is determined for the whole earth. This is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations. ²⁷ For Yahweh of Armies has planned, and who can stop it? His hand is stretched out, and who can turn it back?"

²⁸ This burden was in the year that king Ahaz died.

²⁹ Don't rejoice, O Philistia, all of you, because the rod that struck you is broken; for out of the serpent's root an adder will emerge, and his fruit will be a fiery flying serpent. ³⁰ The firstborn of the poor will eat, and the needy will lie down in safety; and I will kill your root with famine, and your remnant will be killed.

³¹ Howl, gate! Cry, city! You are melted away, Philistia, all of you; for smoke comes out of the north, and there is no straggler in his ranks.

³² What will they answer the messengers of the nation? That Yahweh has founded Zion, and in her the afflicted of his people will take refuge.

15 The burden of Moab.
 For in a night, Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nothing. For in a night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nothing. ² They have gone up to Bayith, and to Dibon, to the high places, to weep. Moab wails over Nebo and over Medeba. Baldness is on all of their heads. Every beard is cut off. ³ In their streets, they clothe themselves in sackcloth. In their streets and on their rooftops, everyone wails, weeping abundantly. ⁴ Heshbon cries out with Elealeh. Their voice is heard even to Jahaz. Therefore the armed men of Moab cry aloud. Their souls tremble within them. ⁵ My heart cries out for Moab! Her nobles flee to Zoar, to Eglath Shelishiyah; for they go up by the ascent of Luhith with weeping; for on the way to Horonaim, they raise up a cry of destruction. ⁶ For the waters of Nimrim will be desolate; for the grass has withered away, the tender grass fails, there is no green thing. ⁷Therefore they will carry away the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have stored up, over the brook of the willows. ⁸For the cry has gone around the borders of Moab, its wailing to Eglaim, and its wailing to Beer Elim. ⁹For the waters of Dimon are full of blood; for I will bring yet more on Dimon, a lion on those of Moab who escape, and on the remnant of the land.

16 Send the lambs for the ruler of the land from Selah to the wilderness, to the mountain of the daughter of Zion. ²For it will be that as wandering birds, as a scattered nest, so will the daughters of Moab be at the fords of the Arnon. ³Give counsel! Execute justice! Make your shade like the night in the middle of the noonday! Hide the outcasts! Don't betray the fugitive! ⁴Let my outcasts dwell with you! As for Moab, be a hiding place for him from the face of the destroyer. For the extortionist is brought to nothing. Destruction ceases. The oppressors are consumed out of the land. ⁵A throne will be established in loving kindness. One will sit on it in truth, in the tent of David, judging, seeking justice, and swift to do righteousness.

⁶We have heard of the pride of Moab, that he is very proud; even of his arrogance, his pride, and his wrath. His boastings are nothing. ⁷Therefore Moab will wail for Moab. Everyone will wail. You will mourn for the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth, utterly stricken. ⁸For the fields of Heshbon languish with the vine of Sibmah. The lords of the nations have broken down its choice branches, which reached even to Jazer, which wandered into the wilderness. Its shoots were spread abroad. They passed over the sea. ⁹Therefore I will weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vine of Sibmah. I will water you with my tears, Heshbon, and Elealeh: for on your summer fruits and on your harvest the battle shout has fallen. ¹⁰Gladness is taken away, and joy out of the fruitful field; and in the vineyards there will be no singing, neither joyful noise. Nobody will tread out wine in the presses. I have made the shouting stop. ¹¹Therefore my heart sounds like a harp for Moab, and my inward parts for Kir Heres. ¹²It will happen that when Moab presents himself, when he wears himself on the high place, and comes to his sanctuary to pray, that he will not prevail.

¹³This is the word that Yahweh spoke concerning Moab in time past. ¹⁴But now Yahweh has spoken, saying, "Within three years, as a worker bound by contract would count them, the glory of Moab shall be brought into contempt, with all his great multitude; and the remnant will be very small and feeble."

17 The burden of Damascus. "Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it will be a ruinous heap. ²The cities of Aroer are forsaken. They will be for flocks, which shall lie down, and no one shall make them afraid. ³The fortress shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria. They will be as the glory of the children of Israel," says Yahweh of Armies.

⁴"It will happen in that day that the glory of Jacob will be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh will become lean. ⁵It will be like when the harvester gathers the wheat, and his arm reaps the grain. Yes, it will be like when one gleanes grain in the valley of Rephaim. ⁶Yet gleanings will be left there, like the shaking of an olive tree, two or three olives in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outermost branches of a fruitful tree," says Yahweh, the God of Israel. ⁷In that day, people will look to their Maker, and their eyes will have respect for the Holy One of Israel. ⁸They will not look to the altars, the work of their hands; neither shall they respect that which their fingers have made, either the Asherah poles, or the incense altars. ⁹In that day, their strong cities will be like the forsaken places in the woods and on the mountain top, which were forsaken from before the children of Israel; and it will be a desolation. ¹⁰For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not remembered the rock of your strength. Therefore you plant pleasant plants, and set out foreign seedlings. ¹¹ In the day of your planting, you hedge it in. In the morning, you make your seed blossom, but the harvest flees away in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

¹² Ah, the uproar of many peoples, who roar like the roaring of the seas; and the rushing of nations, that rush like the rushing of mighty waters! ¹³ The nations will rush like the rushing of many waters: but he will rebuke them, and they will flee far off, and will be chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like the whirling dust before the storm. ¹⁴ At evening, behold, terror! Before the morning, they are no more. This is the portion of those who plunder us, and the lot of those who rob us.

⁴ For Yahweh said to me, "I will be still, and I will see in my dwelling place, like clear heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest." ⁵ For before the harvest, when the blossom is over, and the flower becomes a ripening grape, he will cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and he will cut down and take away the spreading branches. ⁶ They will be left together for the ravenous birds of the mountains, and for the animals of the earth. The ravenous birds will eat them in the summer, and all the animals of the earth will eat them in the winter. ⁷ In that time, a present will be brought to Yahweh of Armies from a people tall and smooth, even from a people awesome from their beginning onward, a nation that measures out and treads down, whose land the rivers divide, to the place of the name of Yahweh of Armies, Mount Zion.

19 The burden of Egypt.
 "Behold, Yahweh rides on a swift cloud, and comes to Egypt. The idols of Egypt will tremble at his presence; and the heart of Egypt will melt within it. ² I will stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians, and they will fight everyone against his brother, and everyone against his neighbor; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. ³ The spirit of Egypt will fail within it. I will destroy its counsel. They will seek the idols, the charmers, those who have familiar spirits, and the wizards. ⁴ I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord. A fierce king will rule over them," says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies.

⁵ The waters will fail from the sea, and the river will be wasted and become dry. ⁶ The rivers will become foul. The streams of Egypt will be diminished and dried up. The reeds and flags will wither away. ⁷ The meadows by the Nile, by the brink of the Nile, and all the sown fields of the Nile, will become dry, be driven away, and be no more. ⁸ The fishermen will lament, and all those who fish in the Nile will mourn, and those who spread nets on the waters will languish. ⁹ Moreover those who work in combed flax, and those who weave white cloth, will be confounded. ¹⁰ The pillars will be broken in pieces. All those who work for hire will be grieved in soul.

¹¹ The princes of Zoan are utterly foolish. The counsel of the wisest counselors of Pharaoh has become stupid. How do you say to Pharaoh, "I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?" ¹² Where then are your wise men? Let them tell you now; and let them know what Yahweh of Armies has purposed concerning Egypt. ¹³ The princes of Zoan have become fools. The princes of Memphis are deceived. They have caused Egypt to go astray, who are the cornerstone of her tribes. ¹⁴ Yahweh has mixed a spirit of perverseness in the middle of her; and they have caused Egypt to go astray in all of its works, like a drunken man staggers in his vomit. ¹⁵ Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which head or tail, palm branch or rush, may do. ¹⁶ In that day the Egyptians will be like women. They will tremble and fear because of the shaking of Yahweh of Armies's hand, which he shakes over them. ¹⁷ The land of Judah will become a terror to Egypt. Everyone to whom mention is made of it will be afraid, because of the plans of Yahweh of Armies, which he determines against it. ¹⁸ In that day, there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan, and swear to Yahweh of Armies. One will be called "The city of destruction."

¹⁹ In that day, there will be an altar to Yahweh in the middle of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to Yahweh at its border. ²⁰ It will be for a sign and for a witness to Yahweh of Armies in the land of Egypt; for they will cry to Yahweh because of oppressors, and he will send them a savior and a defender, and he will deliver them. ²¹ Yahweh will be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know Yahweh in that day. Yes, they will worship with sacrifice and offering, and will vow a vow to Yahweh, and will perform it. ²² Yahweh will strike Egypt, striking and healing. They will return to Yahweh, and he will be entreated by them, and will heal them.

²³ In that day there will be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.

²⁴ In that day, Israel will be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing within the earth; ²⁵ because Yahweh of Armies has blessed them, saying, "Blessed be Egypt my people, Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my inheritance."

20 In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it; ² at that time Yahweh spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, "Go, and loosen the sackcloth from off your waist, and take your sandals from off your feet." He did so, walking naked and barefoot. ³ Yahweh said, "As my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a wonder concerning Egypt and concerning Ethiopia, ⁴ so the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. ⁵ They will be dismayed and confounded, because of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory. ⁶ The inhabitants of this coast land will say in that day, 'Behold, this is our expectation, where we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria. And we, how will we escape?'"

21 The burden of the wilderness of the sea. As whirlwinds in the South sweep through, it comes from the wilderness, from an awesome land. ² A grievous vision is declared to me. The treacherous man deals treacherously, and the destroyer destroys. Go up, Elam; attack! I have stopped all of Media's sighing. ³ Therefore my thighs are filled with anguish. Pains have seized me, like the pains of a woman in labor. I am in so much pain that I can't hear. I so am dismayed that I can't see. ⁴ My heart flutters. Horror has frightened me. The twilight that I desired has been turned into trembling for me. ⁵ They prepare the table. They set the watch. They eat. They drink. Rise up, you princes, oil the shield! ⁶ For the Lord said to me, "Go, set a watchman. Let him declare what he sees. ⁷ When he sees a troop, horsemen in pairs, a troop of donkeys, a troop of camels, he shall listen diligently with great attentiveness." ⁸ He cried like a lion: "Lord, I stand continually on the watchtower in the daytime, and every night I stay at my post. ⁹ Behold, here comes a troop of men, horsemen in pairs." He answered, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon; and all the engraved images of her gods are broken to the ground.

¹⁰ You are my threshing, and the grain of my floor!" That which I have heard from Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, I have declared to you.

¹¹ The burden of Dumah.

One calls to me out of Seir, "Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?" ¹² The watchman said, "The morning comes, and also the night. If you will inquire, inquire. Come back again."

¹³ The burden on Arabia.

In the forest in Arabia you will lodge, you caravans of Dedanites. ¹⁴ They brought water to him who was thirsty. The inhabitants of the land of Tema met the fugitives with their bread. ¹⁵ For they fled away from the swords, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the heat of battle. ¹⁶ For the Lord said to me, "Within a year, as a worker bound by contract would count it, all the glory of Kedar will fail, ¹⁷ and the residue of the number of the archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, will be few; for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has spoken it."

22 The burden of the valley of vision.
What ails you now, that you have all gone up to the housetops? ² You that are full of shouting, a tumultuous city, a joyous town; your slain are not slain with the sword, neither are they dead in battle. ³ All your rulers fled away together. They were bound by the archers. All who were found by you were bound together. They fled far away. ⁴ Therefore I said, "Look away from me. I will weep bitterly. Don't labor to comfort me for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

⁵ For it is a day of confusion, and of treading down, and of perplexity, from the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, in the valley of vision, a breaking down of the walls, and a crying to the mountains." ⁶ Elam carried his quiver, with chariots of men and horsemen; and Kir uncovered the shield. ⁷ Your choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen set themselves in array at the gate. ⁸ He took away the covering of Judah; and you looked in that day to the armor in the house of the forest. ⁹ You saw the breaches of David's city, that they were many; and you gathered together the waters of the lower pool. ¹⁰ You counted the houses of Jerusalem, and you broke down the houses to fortify the wall. ¹¹ You also made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But you didn't look to him who had done this, neither did you have respect for him who planed it long ago.

¹² In that day, the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, called to weeping, to mourning, to baldness, and to dressing in sackcloth; ¹³ and behold, joy and gladness, killing cattle and killing sheep, eating meat and drinking wine: "Let's eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die." ¹⁴ Yahweh of Armies revealed himself in my ears, "Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you until you die," says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies.

¹⁵ The Lord, Yahweh of Armies says, "Go, get yourself to this treasurer, even to Shebna, who is over the house, and say, ¹⁶ 'What are you doing here? Who has you here, that you have dug out a tomb here?' Cutting himself out a tomb on high, chiseling a habitation for himself in the rock!" ¹⁷ Behold, Yahweh will overcome you and hurl you away violently. Yes, he will grasp you firmly. ¹⁸ He will surely wind you around and around, and throw you like a ball into a large country. There you will die, and there the chariots of your glory will be, you shame of your lord's house. ¹⁹ I will thrust you from your office. You will be pulled down from your station.

²⁰ It will happen in that day that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, ²¹ and I will clothe him with your robe, and strengthen him with your belt. I will commit your government into his hand; and he will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. ²² I will lay the key of David's house on his shoulder. He will open, and no one will shut. He will shut, and no one will open. ²³ I will fasten him like a nail in a sure place. He will be for a throne of glory to his father's house. ²⁴ They will hang on him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, every small vessel, from the cups even to all the pitchers. ²⁵ “In that day,” says Yahweh of Armies, “the nail that was fastened in a sure place will give way. It will be cut down and fall. The burden that was on it will be cut off, for Yahweh has spoken it.”

23 The burden of Tyre.
Howl, you ships of Tarshish! For it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in. From the land of Kittim it is revealed to them. ² Be still, you inhabitants of the coast, you whom the merchants of Sidon that pass over the sea, have replenished. ³ On great waters, the seed of the Shihor, the harvest of the Nile, was her revenue. She was the market of nations. ⁴ Be ashamed, Sidon; for the sea has spoken, the stronghold of the sea, saying, “I have not travailed, nor given birth, neither have I nourished young men, nor brought up virgins.” ⁵ When the report comes to Egypt, they will be in anguish at the report of Tyre. ⁶ Pass over to Tarshish! Wail, you inhabitants of the coast! ⁷ Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days, whose feet carried her far away to travel?

⁸ Who has planned this against Tyre, the giver of crowns, whose merchants are princes, whose traders are the honorable of the earth? ⁹ Yahweh of Armies has planned it, to stain the pride of all glory, to bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth. ¹⁰ Pass through your land like the Nile, daughter of Tarshish. There is no restraint any more. ¹¹ He has stretched out his hand over the sea. He has shaken the kingdoms. Yahweh has ordered the destruction of Canaan’s strongholds. ¹² He said, “You shall rejoice no more, you oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon. Arise, pass over to Kittim. Even there you will have no rest.”

¹⁵ It will come to pass in that day that Tyre will be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king. After the end of seventy years it will be to Tyre like in the song of the prostitute. ¹⁶ Take a harp; go about the city, you prostitute that has been forgotten. Make sweet melody. Sing many songs, that you may be remembered. ¹⁷ It will happen after the end of seventy years that Yahweh will visit Tyre. She will return to her wages, and will play the prostitute with all the kingdoms of the world on the surface of the earth. ¹⁸ Her merchandise and her wages will be holiness to Yahweh. It will not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise will be for those who dwell before Yahweh, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

24 Behold, Yahweh makes the earth empty, makes it waste, turns it upside down, and scatters its inhabitants. ² It will be as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the creditor, so with the debtor; as with the taker of interest, so with the giver of interest. ³ The earth will be utterly emptied and utterly laid waste; for Yahweh has spoken this word. ⁴ The earth mourns and fades away. The world languishes and fades away. The lofty people of the earth languish. ⁵ The earth also is polluted under its inhabitants, because they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, and broken the everlasting covenant. ⁶ Therefore the curse has devoured the earth, and those who dwell therein are found guilty. Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men are left. ⁷ The new wine mourns. The vine languishes. All the merry-hearted sigh. ⁸ The mirth of tambourines ceases. The sound of those who rejoice ends. The joy of the harp ceases. ⁹ They will not drink wine with a song. Strong drink will be bitter to those who drink it. ¹⁰ The confused city is broken down. Every house is shut up, that no man may come in. ¹¹ There is a crying in the streets because of the wine. All joy is darkened. The mirth of the land is gone. ¹²The city is left in desolation, and the gate is struck with destruction. ¹³For it will be so within the earth among the peoples, as the shaking of an olive tree, as the gleanings when the vintage is done.

¹⁴These shall lift up their voice. They will shout for the majesty of Yahweh. They cry aloud from the sea. ¹⁵Therefore glorify Yahweh in the east, even the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel, in the islands of the sea! ¹⁶From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs. Glory to the righteous!

But I said, "I pine away! I pine away! woe is me!" The treacherous have dealt treacherously. Yes, the treacherous have dealt very treacherously. ¹⁷Fear, the pit, and the snare, are on you who inhabit the earth. ¹⁸It will happen that he who flees from the noise of the fear will fall into the pit; and he who comes up out of the middle of the pit will be taken in the snare; for the windows on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble. ¹⁹The earth is utterly broken. The earth is torn apart. The earth is shaken violently. ²⁰The earth will stagger like a drunken man, and will sway back and forth like a hammock. Its disobedience will be heavy on it, and it will fall and not rise again.

²¹It will happen in that day that Yahweh will punish the army of the high ones on high, and the kings of the earth on the earth. ²²They will be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and will be shut up in the prison; and after many days they will be visited. ²³Then the moon will be confounded, and the sun ashamed; for Yahweh of Armies will reign on Mount Zion, and in Jerusalem; and glory will be before his elders.

25 Yahweh, you are my God. I will exalt you! I will praise your name, for you have done wonderful things, things planned long ago, in complete faithfulness and truth.

²For you have made a city into a heap, a fortified city into a ruin, a palace of strangers to be no city. It will never be built. ³Therefore a strong people will glorify you. A city of awesome nations will fear you. ⁴For you have been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat, when the blast of the dreaded ones is like a storm against the wall. ⁵As the heat in a dry place you will bring down the noise of strangers; as the heat by the shade of a cloud, the song of the dreaded ones will be brought low.

⁹It shall be said in that day, "Behold, this is our God! We have waited for him, and he will save us! This is Yahweh! We have waited for him. We will be glad and rejoice in his salvation!" ¹⁰For Yahweh's hand will rest in this mountain.

Moab will be trodden down in his place, even like straw is trodden down in the water of the dunghill. ¹¹He will spread out his hands in the middle of it, like one who swims spreads out hands to swim, but his pride will be humbled together with the craft of his hands. ¹²He has brought the high fortress of your walls down, laid low, and brought to the ground, even to the dust.

26 In that day, this song will be sung in the land of Judah:
"We have a strong city.
God appoints salvation for walls and bulwarks.

[‡]25:6 literally, fat things

2 Open the gates, that the righteous nation may enter:

the one which keeps faith.

3 You will keep whoever's mind is steadfast in perfect peace, because he trusts in you.

4 Trust in Yahweh forever;

for in Yah, Yahweh, is an everlasting Rock.

5 For he has brought down those who dwell on high, the lofty city.

He lays it low.

He lays it low even to the ground.

He brings it even to the dust.

6 The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor and the steps of the needy.”

7 The way of the just is uprightness.

You who are upright make the path of the righteous level.

8 Yes, in the way of your judgments, Yahweh, we have waited for you.

Your name and your renown are the desire of our soul.

9 With my soul I have desired you in the night.

Yes, with my spirit within me I will seek you earnestly;

for when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.

10 Let favor be shown to the wicked,

yet he will not learn righteousness.

In the land of uprightness he will deal wrongfully,

and will not see Yahweh's majesty.

11 Yahweh, your hand is lifted up, yet they don't see;

but they will see your zeal for the people, and be disappointed.

Yes, fire will consume your adversaries.

12 Yahweh, you will ordain peace for us, for you have also done all our work for us.

13 Yahweh our God, other lords besides you have had dominion over us, but we will only acknowledge your name.

14 The dead shall not live.

The departed spirits shall not rise.

Therefore you have visited and destroyed them, and caused all memory of them to perish.

15 You have increased the nation, O Yahweh. You have increased the nation!

You are glorified!

You have enlarged all the borders of the land.

16 Yahweh, in trouble they have visited you.

They poured out a prayer when your chastening was on them.

17 Just as a woman with child, who draws near the time of her delivery, is in pain and cries out in her pangs,

so we have been before you, Yahweh.

18 We have been with child.

We have been in pain.

We gave birth, it seems, only to wind.

We have not worked any deliverance in the earth;

neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 Your dead shall live.

My dead bodies shall arise.

Awake and sing, you who dwell in the dust;

for your dew is like the dew of herbs,

and the earth will cast out the departed spirits.

20 Come, my people, enter into your rooms,

and shut your doors behind you.

Hide yourself for a little moment,

until the indignation is past.

21 For, behold, Yahweh comes out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity.

The earth also will disclose her blood, and will no longer cover her slain.

27 In that day, Yahweh with his hard and great and strong sword will punish leviathan, the fleeing serpent, and leviathan the twisted serpent; and he will kill the dragon that is in the sea.

2 In that day, sing to her, “A pleasant vineyard! 3 I, Yahweh, am its keeper. I will water it every moment. Lest anyone damage it, I will keep it night and day. 4 Wrath is not in me, but if I should find briars and thorns, I would do battle! I would march on them and I would burn them together. ⁵ Or else let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me. Let him make peace with me.”

⁶ In days to come, Jacob will take root. Israel will blossom and bud. They will fill the surface of the world with fruit. ⁷ Has he struck them as he struck those who struck them? Or are they killed like those who killed them were killed? ⁸ In measure, when you send them away, you contend with them. He has removed them with his rough blast in the day of the east wind. ⁹ Therefore by this the iniquity of Jacob will be forgiven, and this is all the fruit of taking away his sin: that he makes all the stones of the altar as chalk stones that are beaten in pieces, so that the Asherah poles and the incense altars shall rise no more. ¹⁰ For the fortified city is solitary, a habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness. The calf will feed there, and there he will lie down, and consume its branches. ¹¹ When its boughs are withered, they will be broken off. The women will come and set them on fire, for they are a people of no understanding. Therefore he who made them will not have compassion on them, and he who formed them will show them no favor.

¹² It will happen in that day that Yahweh will thresh from the flowing stream of the Euphrates to the brook of Egypt; and you will be gathered one by one, children of Israel.

¹³ It will happen in that day that a great trumpet will be blown; and those who were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and those who were outcasts in the land of Egypt, shall come; and they will worship Yahweh in the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

28 Woe to the crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim, and to the fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley of those who are overcome with wine! ² Behold, the Lord has a mighty and strong one. Like a storm of hail, a destroying storm, and like a storm of mighty waters overflowing, he will cast them down to the earth with his hand. ³ The crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim will be trodden under foot. ⁴ The fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley, shall be like the first-ripe fig before the summer; which someone picks and eats as soon as he sees it. ⁵ In that day, Yahweh of Armies will become a crown of glory and a diadem of beauty to the residue of his people, ⁶ and a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment, and strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate.

¹¹ But he will speak to this nation with stammering lips and in another language, ¹² to whom he said, “This is the resting place. Give rest to weary,” and “This is the refreshing;” yet they would not hear. ¹³ Therefore Yahweh’s word will be to them precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little; that they may go, fall backward, be broken, be snared, and be taken.

¹⁴ Therefore hear Yahweh’s word, you scoffers, that rule this people in Jerusalem: ¹⁵ “Because you have said, ‘We have made a covenant with death, and we are in agreement with Sheol. ¶When the overflowing scourge passes through, it won’t come to us; for we have made lies our refuge, and we have hidden ourselves under falsehood.’” ¹⁶ Therefore the Lord Yahweh says, “Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone of a sure foundation. He who believes shall not act hastily. ¹⁷I will make justice the measuring line, and righteousness the plumb line. The hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters will overflow the hiding place. ¹⁸Your covenant with death shall be annulled, and your agreement with Sheol shall not stand. When the overflowing scourge passes through, then you will be trampled down by it. ¹⁹As often as it passes through, it will seize you; for morning by morning it will pass through, by day and by night; and it will be nothing but terror to understand the message.” ²⁰For the bed is too short to stretch out on, and the blanket is too narrow to wrap oneself in. ²¹For Yahweh will rise up as on Mount Perazim. He will be angry as in the valley of Gibeon; that he may do his work, his unusual work, and bring to pass his act, his extraordinary act. ²²Now therefore don't be scoffers, lest your bonds be made strong; for I have heard a decree of destruction from the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, on the whole earth.

²³Give ear, and hear my voice! Listen, and hear my speech! ²⁴Does he who plows to sow plow continually? Does he keep turning the soil and breaking the clods? ²⁵When he has leveled its surface, doesn't he plant the dill, and scatter the cumin seed, and put in the wheat in rows, the barley in the appointed place, and the spelt in its place? ²⁶For his God instructs him in right judgment and teaches him. ²⁷For the dill are not threshed with a sharp instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned over the cumin; but the dill is beaten out with a stick, and the cumin with a rod. ²⁸Bread flour must be ground; so he will not always be threshing it. Although he drives the wheel of his threshing cart over it, his horses don't grind it. ²⁹This also comes out from Yahweh of Armies, who is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in wisdom.

29 Woe to Ariel! Ariel, the city where David encamped! Add year to year; let the feasts come around; ²then I will distress Ariel, and there will be mourning and lamentation. She shall be to me as an altar hearth. ³I will encamp against you all around you, and will lay siege against you with posted troops. I will raise siege works against you. ⁴You will be brought down, and will speak out of the ground. Your speech will mumble out of the dust. Your voice will be as of one who has a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and your speech will whisper out of the dust.

⁵But the multitude of your foes will be like fine dust, and the multitude of the ruthless ones like chaff that blows away. Yes, it will be in an instant, suddenly. ⁶She will be visited by Yahweh of Armies with thunder, with earthquake, with great noise, with whirlwind and storm, and with the flame of a devouring fire. ⁷The multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all who fight against her and her stronghold, and who distress her, will be like a dream, a vision of the night. ⁸It will be like when a hungry man dreams, and behold, he eats; but he awakes, and his hunger isn't satisfied; or like when a thirsty man dreams, and behold, he drinks; but he awakes, and behold, he is faint, and he is still thirsty. The multitude of all the nations that fight against Mount Zion will be like that.

⁹Pause and wonder! Blind yourselves and be blind! They are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. ¹⁰For Yahweh has poured out on you a spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes, the prophets; and he has covered your heads, the seers. ¹¹All vision has become to you like the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one who is educated, saying, “Read this, please;” and he says, “I can't, for it is sealed;”

§28:18 Sheol is the place of the dead.

29:2 or, Ariel

12 and the book is delivered to one who is not educated, saying, "Read this, please;" and he says, "I can't read."

13 The Lord said, "Because this people draws near with their mouth and honors me with their lips, but they have removed their heart far from me, and their fear of me is a commandment of men which has been taught; 14 therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people, even a marvelous work and a wonder; and the wisdom of their wise men will perish, and the understanding of their prudent men will be hidden."

15 Woe to those who deeply hide their counsel from Yahweh, and whose deeds are in the dark, and who say, "Who sees us?" and "Who knows us?" 16 You turn things upside down! Should the potter be thought to be like clay; that the thing made should say about him who made it, "He didn't make me;" or the thing formed say of him who formed it, "He has no understanding?"

17 Isn't it yet a very little while, and Lebanon will be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field will be regarded as a forest? 18 In that day, the deaf will hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind will see out of obscurity and out of darkness. 19 The humble also will increase their joy in Yahweh, and the poor among men will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. 20 For the ruthless is brought to nothing, and the scoffer ceases, and all those who are alert to do evil are cut off— 21 who cause a person to be indicted by a word, and lay a snare for the arbiter in the gate, and who deprive the innocent of justice with false testimony.

22 Therefore Yahweh, who redeemed Abraham, says concerning the house of Jacob: "Jacob shall no longer be ashamed, neither shall his face grow pale. 23 But when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in the middle of him, they will sanctify my name. Yes, they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and will stand in awe of the God of Israel. 24 They also who err in spirit will come to understanding, and those who grumble will receive instruction."

30 "Woe to the rebellious children", says Yahweh, "who take counsel, but not from me; and who make an alliance, but not with my Spirit, that they may add sin to sin, 2 who set out to go down into Egypt, and have not asked my advice, to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to take refuge in the shadow of Egypt! 3 Therefore the strength of Pharaoh will be your shame, and the refuge in the shadow of Egypt your confusion. 4 For their princes are at Zoan, and their ambassadors have come to Hanes. 5 They shall all be ashamed because of a people that can't profit them, that are not a help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach."

6 The burden of the animals of the South.

Through the land of trouble and anguish, of the lioness and the lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they carry their riches on the shoulders of young donkeys, and their treasures on the humps of camels, to an unprofitable people. 7 For Egypt helps in vain, and to no purpose; therefore I have called her Rahab who sits still. 8 Now go, write it before them on a tablet, and inscribe it in a book, that it may be for the time to come forever and ever. 9 For it is a rebellious people, lying children, children who will not hear Yahweh's law; 10 who tell the seers, "Don't see!" and the prophets, "Don't prophesy to us right things. Tell us pleasant things. Prophecy deceits. 11 Get out of the way. Turn away from the path. Cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us." 12 Therefore the Holy One of Israel says, "Because you despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and rely on it, 13 therefore this iniquity shall be to you like a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly in an instant. 14 He will break it as a potter's vessel is broken, breaking it in pieces without sparing, so that there won't be found among the broken pieces a piece good enough to take fire from the hearth, or to dip up water out of the cistern.”

¹⁵ For thus said the Lord Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel, “You will be saved in returning and rest. Your strength will be in quietness and in confidence.” You refused, ¹⁶ but you said, “No, for we will flee on horses;” therefore you will flee; and, “We will ride on the swift;” therefore those who pursue you will be swift. ¹⁷ One thousand will flee at the threat of one. At the threat of five, you will flee until you are left like a beacon on the top of a mountain, and like a banner on a hill.

¹⁸ Therefore Yahweh will wait, that he may be gracious to you; and therefore he will be exalted, that he may have mercy on you, for Yahweh is a God of justice. Blessed are all those who wait for him. ¹⁹ For the people will dwell in Zion at Jerusalem. You will weep no more. He will surely be gracious to you at the voice of your cry. When he hears you, he will answer you. ²⁰ Though the Lord may give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your teachers won’t be hidden any more, but your eyes will see your teachers; ²¹ and when you turn to the right hand, and when you turn to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, “This is the way. Walk in it.” ²² You shall defile the overlaying of your engraved images of silver, and the plating of your molten images of gold. You shall cast them away as an unclean thing. You shall tell it, “Go away!”

²³ He will give the rain for your seed, with which you will sow the ground; and bread of the increase of the ground will be rich and plentiful. In that day, your livestock will feed in large pastures. ²⁴ The oxen likewise and the young donkeys that till the ground will eat savory feed, which has been winnowed with the shovel and with the fork. ²⁵ There will be brooks and streams of water on every lofty mountain and on every high hill in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. ²⁶ Moreover the light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter, like the light of seven days, in the day that Yahweh binds up the fracture of his people, and heals the wound they were struck with.

²⁷ Behold, Yahweh’s name comes from far away, burning with his anger, and in thick rising smoke. His lips are full of indignation. His tongue is as a devouring fire. ²⁸ His breath is as an overflowing stream that reaches even to the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction. A bridle that leads to ruin will be in the jaws of the peoples. ²⁹ You will have a song, as in the night when a holy feast is kept, and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a flute to come to Yahweh’s mountain, to Israel’s Rock. ³⁰ Yahweh will cause his glorious voice to be heard, and will show the descent of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and the flame of a devouring fire, with a blast, storm, and hailstones. ³¹ For through Yahweh’s voice the Assyrian will be dismayed. He will strike him with his rod. ³² Every stroke of the rod of punishment, which Yahweh will lay on him, will be with the sound of tambourines and harps. He will fight with them in battles, brandishing weapons. ³³ For his burning place has long been ready. Yes, for the king it is prepared. He has made its pyre deep and large with fire and much wood. Yahweh’s breath, like a stream of sulfur, kindles it.

31 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help, and rely on horses,

and trust in chariots because they are many, and in horsemen because they are very strong, but they don’t look to the Holy One of Israel, and they don’t seek Yahweh!

² Yet he also is wise, and will bring disaster, and will not call back his words, but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of those who work iniquity.

³ Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit.

When Yahweh stretches out his hand, both he who helps shall stumble, and he who is helped shall fall,

and they all shall be consumed together.
4 For Yahweh says to me,
“As the lion and the young lion growling over his prey,
if a multitude of shepherds is called together against him,
will not be dismayed at their voice,
nor abase himself for their noise,
so Yahweh of Armies will come down to fight on Mount Zion and on its heights.
5 As birds hovering, so Yahweh of Armies will protect Jerusalem.
He will protect and deliver it.
He will pass over and preserve it.”
6 Return to him from whom you have deeply revolted, children of Israel. 7 For in that day everyone shall cast away his idols of silver and his idols of gold—sin which your own hands have made for you.
8 “The Assyrian will fall by the sword, not of man;
and the sword, not of mankind, shall devour
him.
He will flee from the sword, and his young men will become subject to forced labor.
9 His rock will pass away by reason of terror,
and his princes will be afraid of the banner,” says Yahweh, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.
32 Behold, a king shall reign in
righteousness,
and princes shall rule in justice.
2 A man shall be as a hiding place from the wind,
and a covert from the storm,
as streams of water in a dry place,
as the shade of a large rock in a weary land.
3 The eyes of those who see will not be dim,
and the ears of those who hear will listen.
4 The heart of the rash will understand
knowledge,
and the tongue of the stammerers will be ready to speak plainly.
5 The fool will no longer be called noble,

nor the scoundrel be highly respected.
6 For the fool will speak folly,
and his heart will work iniquity,
to practice profanity,
and to utter error against Yahweh,
to make empty the soul of the hungry,
and to cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.
7 The ways of the scoundrel are evil.
He devises wicked plans to destroy the humble with lying words,
even when the needy speaks right.
8 But the noble devises noble things;
and he will continue in noble things.
9 Rise up, you women who are at ease! Hear
my voice!
You careless daughters, give ear to my speech!
10 For days beyond a year you will be troubled,
you careless women;
for the vintage will fail.
The harvest won't come.
11 Tremble, you women who are at ease!
Be troubled, you careless ones!
Strip yourselves, make yourselves naked,
and put sackcloth on your waist.
12 Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields,
for the fruitful vine.
13 Thorns and briers will come up on my people's land;
yes, on all the houses of joy in the joyous city.
14 For the palace will be forsaken.
The populous city will be deserted.
The hill and the watchtower will be for dens
forever,
a delight for wild donkeys,
a pasture of flocks,
15 until the Spirit is poured on us from on high,
and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field,
and the fruitful field is considered a forest.
16 Then justice will dwell in the wilderness;
and righteousness will remain in the fruitful
field.
17 The work of righteousness will be peace, and the effect of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever.
18 My people will live in a peaceful habitation,
in safe dwellings,

and in quiet resting places,

¹⁹ though hail flattens the forest, and the city is leveled completely.

²⁰ Blessed are you who sow beside all waters, who send out the feet of the ox and the donkey.

33 Woe to you who destroy, but you weren't destroyed,
and who betray, but nobody betrayed you!

When you have finished destroying, you will be destroyed;

and when you have finished betrayal, you will be betrayed.

² Yahweh, be gracious to us. We have waited for you.

Be our strength every morning,
our salvation also in the time of trouble.

³ At the noise of the thunder, the peoples have fled.

When you lift yourself up, the nations are scattered.

⁴ Your plunder will be gathered as the caterpillar gathers.

Men will leap on it as locusts leap.

⁵ Yahweh is exalted, for he dwells on high.

He has filled Zion with justice and
righteousness.

⁶ There will be stability in your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge.

The fear of Yahweh is your treasure.

⁷ Behold, their valiant ones cry outside;
the ambassadors of peace weep bitterly.

⁸ The highways are desolate.

The traveling man ceases.

The covenant is broken.

He has despised the cities.

He doesn't respect man.

⁹ The land mourns and languishes.

Lebanon is confounded and withers away.

Sharon is like a desert, and Bashan and Carmel are stripped bare.

¹⁰ "Now I will arise," says Yahweh.

"Now I will lift myself up.

Now I will be exalted.

¹¹ You will conceive chaff.

You will give birth to stubble.

Your breath is a fire that will devour you.

¹² The peoples will be like the burning of lime, like thorns that are cut down and burned in the fire.

¹³ Hear, you who are far off, what I have done;
and, you who are near, acknowledge my might."

¹⁴ The sinners in Zion are afraid.

Trembling has seized the godless ones.

Who among us can live with the devouring
fire?

Who among us can live with everlasting burning?

¹⁵ He who walks righteously and speaks blamelessly,

he who despises the gain of oppressions, who gestures with his hands, refusing to take a bribe,

who stops his ears from hearing of blood,
and shuts his eyes from looking at evil—

¹⁶ he will dwell on high.

His place of defense will be the fortress of rocks.

His bread will be supplied.

His waters will be sure.

¹⁷ Your eyes will see the king in his beauty.

They will see a distant land.

¹⁸ Your heart will meditate on the terror.

Where is he who counted?

Where is he who weighed?

Where is he who counted the towers?

¹⁹ You will no longer see the fierce people,

a people of a deep speech that you can't comprehend,

with a strange language that you can't understand.

²⁰ Look at Zion, the city of our appointed festivals.

Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a quiet
habitation,

a tent that won't be removed.

Its stakes will never be plucked up,

nor will any of its cords be broken.

²¹ But there Yahweh will be with us in majesty,

a place of wide rivers and streams,
in which no galley with oars will go,
neither will any gallant ship pass by there.

²² For Yahweh is our judge.

Yahweh is our lawgiver.

Yahweh is our king.

He will save us.

²³ Your rigging is untied.

They couldn't strengthen the foot of their mast.

They couldn't spread the sail.

Then the prey of a great plunder was divided.

The lame took the prey.

²⁴ The inhabitant won't say, "I am sick."

The people who dwell therein will be forgiven their iniquity.

Come near, you nations, to hear!

34 Listen, you peoples.

Let the earth and all it contains hear,
the world, and everything that comes from it.

² For Yahweh is enraged against all the
nations,

and angry with all their armies.

He has utterly destroyed them.

He has given them over for slaughter.

³ Their slain will also be cast out, and the stench of their dead bodies will come
up.

The mountains will melt in their blood.

⁴ All of the army of the sky will be dissolved.

The sky will be rolled up like a scroll,

and all its armies will fade away,

as a leaf fades from off a vine or a fig tree.

⁵ For my sword has drunk its fill in the sky.

Behold, it will come down on Edom,

and on the people of my curse, for judgment.

⁶ Yahweh's sword is filled with blood.

It is covered with fat, with the blood of lambs and goats,

with the fat of the kidneys of rams;

for Yahweh has a sacrifice in Bozrah,

And a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

⁷ The wild oxen will come down with them,
and the young bulls with the mighty bulls;

and their land will be drunken with blood,
and their dust made greasy with fat.

⁸ For Yahweh has a day of vengeance,
a year of recompense for the cause of Zion.

⁹ Its streams will be turned into pitch,
its dust into sulfur,

And its land will become burning pitch.

¹⁰ It won't be quenched night nor day.

Its smoke will go up forever.

From generation to generation, it will lie
waste.

No one will pass through it forever and ever.

¹¹ But the pelican and the porcupine will possess it.

The owl and the raven will dwell in it.

He will stretch the line of confusion over it,
and the plumb line of emptiness.

¹² They shall call its nobles to the kingdom,
but none shall be there;

and all its princes shall be nothing.

¹³ Thorns will come up in its palaces, nettles and thistles in its fortresses;

and it will be a habitation of jackals,

a court for ostriches.

¹⁴ The wild animals of the desert will meet with the wolves,

and the wild goat will cry to his fellow.

Yes, the night creature†† shall settle there,

and shall find herself a place of rest.

¹⁵ The arrow snake will make her nest there,

and lay, hatch, and gather under her shade.

Yes, the kites will be gathered there, every one with her mate.

¹⁶ Search in the book of Yahweh, and read:
not one of these will be missing.

None will lack her mate.

For my mouth has commanded,

and his Spirit has gathered them.

¹⁷ He has cast the lot for them, and his hand has divided it to them with a measuring line.

They shall possess it forever.

From generation to generation they will dwell in it.

††34:14 literally, lilith, which could also be a night demon or night monster

35 The wilderness and the dry land will be glad.

The desert will rejoice and blossom like a rose.

² It will blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing. Lebanon's glory will be given to it, the excellence of Carmel and Sharon. They will see Yahweh's glory, the excellence of our God.

³ Strengthen the weak hands, and make the feeble knees firm.

⁴ Tell those who have a fearful heart, "Be strong!

Don't be afraid!

Behold, your God will come with vengeance, God's retribution.

He will come and save you.

⁵ Then the eyes of the blind will be opened, and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped.

⁶ Then the lame man will leap like a deer, and the tongue of the mute will sing; for waters will break out in the wilderness, and streams in the desert.

⁷ The burning sand will become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water. Grass with reeds and rushes will be in the habitation of jackals, where they lay.

⁸ A highway will be there, a road, and it will be called "The Holy Way". The unclean shall not pass over it, but it will be for those who walk in the Way. Wicked fools shall not go there.

⁹ No lion will be there, nor will any ravenous animal go up on it. They will not be found there; but the redeemed will walk there.

¹⁰ Then Yahweh's ransomed ones will return, and come with singing to Zion; and everlasting joy will be on their heads. They will obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing will flee away."

36 Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all of the fortified cities of Judah and captured them. ² The king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem to king Hezekiah with a large army. He stood by the aqueduct from the upper pool in the fuller's field highway. ³ Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder came out to him.

⁴ Rabshakeh said to them, "Now tell Hezekiah, 'The great king, the king of Assyria, says, "What confidence is this in which you trust? ⁵ I say that your counsel and strength for the war are only vain words. Now in whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me? ⁶ Behold, you trust in the staff of this bruised reed, even in Egypt, which if a man leans on it, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. ⁷ But if you tell me, 'We trust in Yahweh our God,' isn't that he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar?'" ⁸ Now therefore, please make a pledge to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them. ⁹ How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? ¹⁰ Have I come up now without Yahweh against this land to destroy it? Yahweh said to me, "Go up against this land, and destroy it."'" for he will not be able to deliver you. ¹⁵ Don't let Hezekiah make you trust in Yahweh, saying, "Yahweh will surely deliver us. This city won't be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." ¹⁶ Don't listen to Hezekiah, for the king of Assyria says, "Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and each of you eat from his vine, and each one from his fig tree, and each one of you drink the waters of his own cistern; ¹⁷ until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards. ¹⁸ Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, "Yahweh will deliver us." Have any of the gods of the nations delivered their lands from the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹⁹ Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria from my hand? ²⁰ Who are they among all the gods of these countries that have delivered their country out of my hand, that Yahweh should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?"

¹¹ Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah said to Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it. Don't speak to us in the Jews' language in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

¹² But Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me only to your master and to you, to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who will eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?" ¹³ Then Rabshakeh stood, and called out with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! ¹⁴ The king says, 'Don't let Hezekiah deceive you;

²¹ But they remained silent, and said nothing in reply, for the king's commandment was, "Don't answer him."

²² Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

37 When king Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into Yahweh's house. ² He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. ³ They said to him, "Hezekiah says, 'Today is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of rejection; for the children have come to the birth, and there is no strength to give birth. ⁴ It may be Yahweh your God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Yahweh your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.'"

⁵ So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

⁶ Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master, 'Yahweh says, "Don't be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. ⁷ Behold, I will put a spirit in him and he will hear news, and will return to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.'"

⁸ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish. ⁹ He heard news concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "He has come out to fight against you." When he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰ "Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, 'Don't let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem won't be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." ¹¹ Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly. Shall you be delivered? ¹² Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the children of Eden who were in Telassar? ¹³ Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?"

¹⁴ Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to Yahweh's house, and spread it before Yahweh. ¹⁵ Hezekiah prayed to Yahweh, saying, ¹⁶ "Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, who is enthroned among the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. ¹⁷ Turn your ear, Yahweh, and hear. Open your eyes, Yahweh, and behold. Hear all of the words of Sennacherib, who has sent to defy the living God. ¹⁸ Truly, Yahweh, the kings of Assyria have destroyed all the countries and their land, ¹⁹ and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them. ²⁰Now therefore, Yahweh our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you are Yahweh, even you only."

²¹Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Yahweh, the God of Israel says, 'Because you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, ²²this is the word which Yahweh has spoken concerning him. The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and ridiculed you. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. ²³Whom have you defied and blasphemed? Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel. ²⁴By your servants, you have defied the Lord, and have said, "With the multitude of my chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon. I will cut down its tall cedars and its choice cypress trees. I will enter into its farthest height, the forest of its fruitful field. ²⁵I have dug and drunk water, and with the sole of my feet I will dry up all the rivers of Egypt."

²⁶"Have you not heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it in ancient times? Now I have brought it to pass, that it should be yours to destroy fortified cities, turning them into ruinous heaps. ²⁷Therefore their inhabitants had little power. They were dismayed and confounded. They were like the grass of the field, and like the green herb, like the grass on the housetops, and like a field before its crop has grown. ²⁸But I know your sitting down, your going out, your coming in, and your raging against me. ²⁹Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has come up into my ears, therefore I will put my hook in your nose and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came.

³⁰"This shall be the sign to you. You will eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs from it; and in the third year sow and reap and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit. ³¹The remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah will again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. ³²For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go out, and survivors will escape from Mount Zion. The zeal of Yahweh of Armies will perform this.'

³³"Therefore Yahweh says concerning the king of Assyria, 'He will not come to this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither will he come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it. ³⁴He will return the way that he came, and he won't come to this city,' says Yahweh. ³⁵'For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake, and for my servant David's sake.'"

³⁶Then Yahweh's angel went out and struck one hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the camp of the Assyrians. When men arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies. ³⁷So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, went away, returned to Nineveh, and stayed there. ³⁸As he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, Adramelech and Sharezer his sons struck him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Esar Haddon his son reigned in his place.

38 In those days Hezekiah was sick and near death. Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him, and said to him, "Yahweh says, 'Set your house in order, for you will die, and not live.'"

²Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to Yahweh, ³and said, "Remember now, Yahweh, I beg you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in your sight." Then Hezekiah wept bitterly.

⁴Then Yahweh's word came to Isaiah, saying, ⁵"Go, and tell Hezekiah, 'Yahweh, the God of David your father, says, "I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Behold, I will add fifteen years to your life. ⁶I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city.

 7 This shall be the sign to you from Yahweh, that Yahweh will do this thing that he has spoken. 8 Behold, I will cause the shadow on the sundial, which has gone down on the sundial of Ahaz with the sun, to return backward ten steps.”” So the sun returned ten steps on the sundial on which it had gone down.

9 The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and had recovered of his sickness.

10 I said, “In the middle of my life I go into the gates of Sheol.##

I am deprived of the residue of my years.”

11 I said, “I won’t see Yah,
 Yah in the land of the living.

I will see man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

12 My dwelling is removed,
 and is carried away from me like a shepherd’s tent.

I have rolled up my life like a weaver.
 He will cut me off from the loom.
 From day even to night you will make an end of me.

13 I waited patiently until morning.
 He breaks all my bones like a lion.
 From day even to night you will make an end of me.

14 I chattered like a swallow or a crane.
 I moaned like a dove.
 My eyes weaken looking upward.
 Lord, I am oppressed.
 Be my security.”

15 What will I say?
 He has both spoken to me, and himself has done it.

I will walk carefully all my years because of the anguish of my soul.

16 Lord, men live by these things;
 and my spirit finds life in all of them:
 you restore me, and cause me to live.

17 Behold, for peace I had great anguish, but you have in love for my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption;
 for you have cast all my sins behind your back.
 18 For Sheol¶¶ can’t praise you.
 Death can’t celebrate you.

Those who go down into the pit can’t hope for your truth.

19 The living, the living, he shall praise you, as I do today.

The father shall make known your truth to the children.

20 Yahweh will save me.

Therefore we will sing my songs with stringed instruments all the days of our life in Yahweh’s house.

21 Now Isaiah had said, “Let them take a cake of figs, and lay it for a poultice on the boil, and he shall recover.” 22 Hezekiah also had said, “What is the sign that I will go up to Yahweh’s house?”

39 At that time, Merodach Baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he heard that he had been sick, and had recovered. 2 Hezekiah was pleased with them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, the gold, the spices, and the precious oil, and all the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah didn’t show them. 3 Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah, and asked him, “What did these men say? From where did they come to you?”

Hezekiah said, “They have come from a country far from me, even from Babylon.”

4 Then he asked, “What have they seen in your house?”

Hezekiah answered, “They have seen all that is in my house. There is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them.”

##38:10 Sheol is the place of the dead.

¶¶38:18 Sheol is the place of the dead.

5 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of Yahweh of Armies: 6 'Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have stored up until today, will be carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left,' says Yahweh. 7 'They will take away your sons who will issue from you, whom you shall father, and they will be eunuchs in the king of Babylon's palace.'"

8 Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "Yahweh's word which you have spoken is good." He said moreover, "For there will be peace and truth in my days."

40 "Comfort, comfort my people," says your God. 2 "Speak comfortably to Jerusalem; and call out to her that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received of Yahweh's hand double for all her sins."

3 The voice of one who calls out, "Prepare the way of Yahweh in the wilderness! Make a level highway in the desert for our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low.

The uneven shall be made level, and the rough places a plain.

5 Yahweh's glory shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken it."

6 The voice of one saying, "Cry!"

One said, "What shall I cry?"

"All flesh is like grass, and all its glory is like the flower of the field.

7 The grass withers, the flower fades, because Yahweh's breath blows on it. Surely the people are like grass.

8 The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God stands forever."

9 You who tell good news to Zion, go up on a high mountain.

You who tell good news to Jerusalem, lift up your voice with strength!

Lift it up! Don't be afraid!

Say to the cities of Judah, "Behold, your God!"

10 Behold, the Lord Yahweh will come as a mighty one,

and his arm will rule for him.

Behold, his reward is with him,

and his recompense before him.

11 He will feed his flock like a shepherd.

He will gather the lambs in his arm,

and carry them in his bosom.

He will gently lead those who have their young.

12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and marked off the sky with his span,

and calculated the dust of the earth in a measuring basket,

and weighed the mountains in scales,

and the hills in a balance?

13 Who has directed Yahweh's Spirit, or has taught him as his counselor?

14 Who did he take counsel with,

and who instructed him,

and taught him in the path of justice,

and taught him knowledge,

and showed him the way of understanding?

15 Behold, the nations are like a drop in a bucket, and are regarded as a speck of dust on a balance.

Behold, he lifts up the islands like a very little thing.

16 Lebanon is not sufficient to burn,

nor its animals sufficient for a burnt offering.

17 All the nations are like nothing before him.

They are regarded by him as less than nothing, and vanity.

18 To whom then will you liken God?

Or what likeness will you compare to him?

19 A workman has cast an image, and the goldsmith overlays it with gold,

and casts silver chains for it.

20 He who is too impoverished for such an offering chooses a tree that will not rot.
He seeks a skillful workman to set up a carved image for him that will not be moved.

21 Haven't you known?

Haven't you heard?

Haven't you been told from the beginning?

Haven't you understood from the foundations of the earth?

22 It is he who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in,

23 who brings princes to nothing, who makes the judges of the earth meaningless.

24 They are planted scarcely.

They are sown scarcely.

Their stock has scarcely taken root in the ground.

He merely blows on them, and they wither, and the whirlwind takes them away as stubble.

25 "To whom then will you liken me?

Who is my equal?" says the Holy One.

26 Lift up your eyes on high, and see who has created these, who brings out their army by number.

He calls them all by name.

by the greatness of his might,

and because he is strong in power,

not one is lacking.

27 Why do you say, Jacob,

and speak, Israel,

"My way is hidden from Yahweh,

and the justice due me is disregarded by my God?"

28 Haven't you known?

Haven't you heard?

The everlasting God, Yahweh,

the Creator of the ends of the earth, doesn't faint.

He isn't weary.

His understanding is unsearchable.

29 He gives power to the weak.

He increases the strength of him who has no might.

30 Even the youths faint and get weary, and the young men utterly fall;

31 but those who wait for Yahweh will renew their strength.

They will mount up with wings like eagles.

They will run, and not be weary.

They will walk, and not faint.

41 "Keep silent before me, islands, and let the peoples renew their strength.

Let them come near,

then let them speak.

Let's meet together for judgment.

2 Who has raised up one from the east?

Who called him to his foot in righteousness?

He hands over nations to him and makes him rule over kings.

He gives them like the dust to his sword,

like the driven stubble to his bow.

3 He pursues them

and passes by safely,

even by a way that he had not gone with his feet.

4 Who has worked and done it, calling the generations from the beginning?

I, Yahweh, the first, and with the last, I am he."

5 The islands have seen, and fear.

The ends of the earth tremble.

They approach, and come.

6 Everyone helps his neighbor.

They say to their brothers, "Be strong!"

7 So the carpenter encourages the goldsmith.

He who smoothes with the hammer encourages him who strikes the anvil, saying of the soldering, "It is good;"

and he fastens it with nails, that it might not totter.

8 "But you, Israel, my servant,

Jacob whom I have chosen,

the offspring of Abraham my friend,

9 You whom I have taken hold of from the ends of the earth, and called from its corners,

and said to you, 'You are my servant, I have chosen you and have not cast you away.'

10 Don't you be afraid, for I am with you.

Don't be dismayed, for I am your God.

I will strengthen you.
 Yes, I will help you.
 Yes, I will uphold you with the right hand of my righteousness.
 11 Behold, all those who are incensed against you will be disappointed and confounded.
 Those who strive with you will be like nothing, and shall perish.
 12 You will seek them, and won't find them, even those who contend with you.
 Those who war against you will be as nothing, as a non-existent thing.
 13 For I, Yahweh your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you, 'Don't be afraid.
 I will help you.'
 14 Don't be afraid, you worm Jacob,
 and you men of Israel.
 I will help you," says Yahweh.
 "Your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.
 15 Behold, I have made you into a new sharp threshing instrument with teeth.
 You will thresh the mountains, and beat them small,
 and will make the hills like chaff.
 16 You will winnow them,
 and the wind will carry them away,
 and the whirlwind will scatter them.
 You will rejoice in Yahweh.
 You will glory in the Holy One of Israel.
 17 The poor and needy seek water, and there is none.
 Their tongue fails for thirst.
 I, Yahweh, will answer them.
 I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.
 18 I will open rivers on the bare heights, and springs in the middle of the valleys.
 I will make the wilderness a pool of water,
 and the dry land springs of water.
 19 I will put cedar, acacia, myrtle, and oil trees in the wilderness.
 I will set cypress trees, pine, and box trees together in the desert;
 20 that they may see, know, consider, and understand together, that Yahweh's hand has done this,

 and the Holy One of Israel has created it.
 21 Produce your cause," says Yahweh.
 "Bring out your strong reasons!" says the King of Jacob.
 22 "Let them announce and declare to us what will happen!
 Declare the former things, what they are,
 that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them;
 or show us things to come.
 23 Declare the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that you are gods.
 Yes, do good, or do evil,
 that we may be dismayed,
 and see it together.
 24 Behold, you are nothing,
 and your work is nothing.
 He who chooses you is an abomination.
 25 "I have raised up one from the north, and he has come, from the rising of the sun, one who calls on my name,
 and he shall come on rulers as on mortar,
 and as the potter treads clay.
 26 Who has declared it from the beginning,
 that we may know?
 and before, that we may say, 'He is right?'
 Surely, there is no one who declares.
 Surely, there is no one who shows.
 Surely, there is no one who hears your words.
 27 I am the first to say to Zion, 'Behold, look at them;'
 and I will give one who brings good news to Jerusalem.
 28 When I look, there is no man, even among them there is no counselor who,
 when I ask of them, can answer a word.
 29 Behold, all of their deeds are vanity and nothing.
 Their molten images are wind and confusion.
 42 "Behold, my servant, whom I uphold,
 my chosen, in whom my soul delights:
 I have put my Spirit on him.
 He will bring justice to the nations.

2 He will not shout,
 nor raise his voice,
 nor cause it to be heard in the street.
 3 He won't break a bruised reed.
 He won't quench a dimly burning wick.
 He will faithfully bring justice.
 4 He will not fail nor be discouraged, until he has set justice in the earth,
 and the islands wait for his law."
 5 God Yahweh,
 he who created the heavens and stretched them out,
 he who spread out the earth and that which comes out of it,
 he who gives breath to its people and spirit to those who walk in it, says:
 6 "I, Yahweh, have called you in righteousness.
 I will hold your hand.
 I will keep you,
 and make you a covenant for the people,
 as a light for the nations, 7 to open the blind eyes,
 to bring the prisoners out of the dungeon,
 and those who sit in darkness out of the prison.
 8 "I am Yahweh.
 That is my name.
 I will not give my glory to another,
 nor my praise to engraved images.
 9 Behold, the former things have happened and I declare new things.
 I tell you about them before they come up."
 10 Sing to Yahweh a new song,
 and his praise from the end of the earth,
 you who go down to the sea,
 and all that is therein,
 the islands and their inhabitants.
 11 Let the wilderness and its cities raise their voices,
 with the villages that Kedar inhabits.
 Let the inhabitants of Sela sing.
 Let them shout from the top of the mountains!
 12 Let them give glory to Yahweh, and declare his praise in the islands.
 13 Yahweh will go out like a mighty man.
 He will stir up zeal like a man of war.
 He will raise a war cry.

Yes, he will shout aloud.
 He will triumph over his enemies.
 14 "I have been silent a long time.
 I have been quiet and restrained myself.
 Now I will cry out like a travailing woman. I will both gasp and pant.
 15 I will destroy mountains and hills,
 and dry up all their herbs.
 I will make the rivers islands,
 and will dry up the pools.
 16 I will bring the blind by a way that they don't know.
 I will lead them in paths that they don't know.
 I will make darkness light before them,
 and crooked places straight.
 I will do these things,
 and I will not forsake them.
 17 "Those who trust in engraved images, who tell molten images,
 'You are our gods,'
 will be turned back.
 They will be utterly disappointed.
 18 "Hear, you deaf,
 and look, you blind,
 that you may see.
 19 Who is blind, but my servant?
 Or who is as deaf as my messenger whom I send?
 Who is as blind as he who is at peace,
 and as blind as Yahweh's servant?
 20 You see many things, but don't observe.
 His ears are open, but he doesn't listen.
 21 It pleased Yahweh, for his righteousness' sake, to magnify the law
 and make it honorable.
 22 But this is a robbed and plundered people.
 All of them are snared in holes,
 and they are hidden in prisons.
 They have become captives, and no one delivers,
 and a plunder, and no one says, 'Restore
 them!'
 23 Who is there among you who will give ear to this?
 Who will listen and hear for the time to come?
 24 Who gave Jacob as plunder, and Israel to the robbers?

Didn't Yahweh, he against whom we have sinned?

For they would not walk in his ways, and they disobeyed his law.

²⁵ Therefore he poured the fierceness of his anger on him, and the strength of battle.

It set him on fire all around, but he didn't know.

It burned him, but he didn't take it to heart."

43 But now Yahweh who created you, Jacob, and he who formed you, Israel, says:

"Don't be afraid, for I have redeemed you.

I have called you by your name.

You are mine.

² When you pass through the waters, I will be with you, and through the rivers, they will not overflow you.

When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned, and flame will not scorch you.

³ For I am Yahweh your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior.

I have given Egypt as your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in your place.

⁴ Since you have been precious and honored in my sight,

and I have loved you,

therefore I will give people in your place, and nations instead of your life.

⁵ Don't be afraid, for I am with you.

I will bring your offspring from the east, and gather you from the west.

⁶ I will tell the north, 'Give them up!'

and tell the south, 'Don't hold them back!'

Bring my sons from far away, and my daughters from the ends of the earth—

⁷ everyone who is called by my name, and whom I have created for my glory, whom I have formed,

yes, whom I have made."

⁸ Bring out the blind people who have eyes, and the deaf who have ears.

⁹ Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the peoples be assembled.

Who among them can declare this, and show us former things?

Let them bring their witnesses, that they may be justified, or let them hear, and say, "That is true."

¹⁰ "You are my witnesses," says Yahweh,

"With my servant whom I have chosen;

that you may know and believe me,

and understand that I am he.

Before me there was no God formed, neither will there be after me.

¹¹ I myself am Yahweh.

Besides me, there is no savior.

¹² I have declared, I have saved, and I have shown,

and there was no strange god among you.

Therefore you are my witnesses", says Yahweh, "and I am God.

¹³ Yes, since the day was, I am he.

There is no one who can deliver out of my hand.

I will work, and who can hinder it?"

¹⁴ Yahweh, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel says: "For your sake, I have sent to Babylon, and I will bring all of them down as fugitives, even the Chaldeans, in the ships of their rejoicing. ¹⁵ I am Yahweh, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King."

¹⁶ Yahweh, who makes a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters,

¹⁷ who brings out the chariot and horse,

the army and the mighty man

(they lie down together, they shall not rise;

they are extinct, they are quenched like a wick) says:

¹⁸ "Don't remember the former things,

and don't consider the things of old.

¹⁹ Behold, I will do a new thing.

It springs out now.

Don't you know it?

I will even make a way in the wilderness,

and rivers in the desert.

20 The animals of the field, the jackals and the ostriches, shall honor me, because I give water in the wilderness and rivers in the desert,

to give drink to my people, my chosen,
21 the people which I formed for myself, that they might declare my praise.

22 Yet you have not called on me, Jacob; but you have been weary of me, Israel.

23 You have not brought me any of your sheep for burnt offerings, neither have you honored me with your sacrifices.

I have not burdened you with offerings, nor wearied you with frankincense.

24 You have bought me no sweet cane with money, nor have you filled me with the fat of your sacrifices, but you have burdened me with your sins. You have wearied me with your iniquities.

25 I, even I, am he who blots out your transgressions for my own sake; and I will not remember your sins.

26 Put me in remembrance.

Let us plead together.

Declare your case, that you may be justified.

27 Your first father sinned, and your teachers have transgressed against me.

28 Therefore I will profane the princes of the sanctuary; and I will make Jacob a curse, and Israel an insult."

44 Yet listen now, Jacob my servant, and Israel, whom I have chosen.

2 This is what Yahweh who made you, and formed you from the womb, who will help you says: "Don't be afraid, Jacob my servant; and you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.

3 For I will pour water on him who is thirsty, and streams on the dry ground. I will pour my Spirit on your descendants, and my blessing on your offspring:

4 and they will spring up among the grass, as willows by the watercourses.

5 One will say, 'I am Yahweh's;' and another will be called by the name of Jacob;

and another will write with his hand 'to Yahweh,' and honor the name of Israel."

6 This is what Yahweh, the King of Israel, and his Redeemer, Yahweh of Armies, says: "I am the first, and I am the last; and besides me there is no God.

7 Who is like me?

Who will call, and will declare it, and set it in order for me, since I established the ancient people?

Let them declare the things that are coming, and that will happen.

8 Don't fear, neither be afraid.

Haven't I declared it to you long ago, and shown it?

You are my witnesses.

Is there a God besides me?

Indeed, there is not.

I don't know any other Rock."

9 Everyone who makes a carved image is vain. The things that they delight in will not profit.

Their own witnesses don't see, nor know, that they may be disappointed.

10 Who has fashioned a god, or molds an image that is profitable for nothing?

11 Behold, all his fellows will be disappointed; and the workmen are mere men.

Let them all be gathered together.

Let them stand up.

They will fear.

They will be put to shame together.

12 The blacksmith takes an ax, works in the coals, fashions it with hammers, and works it with his strong arm.

He is hungry, and his strength fails;

he drinks no water,
and is faint.

¹³ The carpenter stretches out a line.
He marks it out with a pencil.
He shapes it with planes.
He marks it out with compasses, and shapes it like the figure of a man,
with the beauty of a man,
to reside in a house.

¹⁴ He cuts down cedars for himself, and takes the cypress and the oak,
and strengthens for himself one among the trees of the forest.

He plants a cypress tree,
and the rain nourishes it.

¹⁵ Then it will be for a man to burn;
and he takes some of it, and warms himself.
Yes, he burns it, and bakes bread.
Yes, he makes a god, and worships it;
he makes it a carved image, and falls down to
it.

¹⁶ He burns part of it in the fire.
With part of it, he eats meat.
He roasts a roast, and is satisfied.
Yes, he warms himself, and says, "Aha! I am warm. I have seen the fire."

¹⁷ The rest of it he makes into a god,
even his engraved image.
He bows down to it and worships, and prays to it, and says, "Deliver me; for you are my god!"

¹⁸ They don't know, neither do they consider:
for he has shut their eyes, that they can't see;
and their hearts, that they can't understand.

¹⁹ No one thinks,
neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say,

"I have burned part of it in the fire.
Yes, I have also baked bread on its coals.
I have roasted meat and eaten it.
Shall I make the rest of it into an abomination?
Shall I bow down to a tree trunk?"

²⁰ He feeds on ashes.

A deceived heart has turned him aside;
and he can't deliver his soul,

nor say, "Isn't there a lie in my right hand?"

²¹ Remember these things, Jacob and Israel;
for you are my servant.

I have formed you.

You are my servant.

Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.

²² I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, your transgressions,
and, as a cloud, your sins.

Return to me, for I have redeemed you.

²³ Sing, you heavens, for Yahweh has done it!

Shout, you lower parts of the earth!

Break out into singing, you mountains, O forest, all of your trees,

for Yahweh has redeemed Jacob,
and will glorify himself in Israel.

²⁴ Yahweh, your Redeemer, and he who formed you from the womb says:

"I am Yahweh, who makes all things;
who alone stretches out the heavens;
who spreads out the earth by myself;

²⁵ who frustrates the signs of the liars,
and makes diviners mad;

who turns wise men backward,
and makes their knowledge foolish;

²⁶ who confirms the word of his servant,
and performs the counsel of his messengers;
who says of Jerusalem, 'She will be inhabited;'
and of the cities of Judah, 'They will be built,'
and 'I will raise up its waste places;'

²⁷ who says to the deep, 'Be dry,'

and 'I will dry up your rivers;'

²⁸ Who says of Cyrus, 'He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure,' even saying of Jerusalem, 'She will be built,' and of the temple, 'Your foundation will be laid.'"

45 Yahweh says to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have held, to subdue nations before him, and strip kings of their armor; to open the doors before him, and the gates shall not be shut:

² "I will go before you and make the rough places smooth.

I will break the doors of bronze in pieces and cut apart the bars of iron.

3 I will give you the treasures of darkness and hidden riches of secret places, that you may know that it is I, Yahweh, who call you by your name,
even the God of Israel.

4 For Jacob my servant's sake,
and Israel my chosen,
I have called you by your name.
I have given you a title,
though you have not known me.

5 I am Yahweh, and there is no one else.
Besides me, there is no God.
I will strengthen^{§§} you,
though you have not known me, 6 that they may know from the rising of the
sun,

and from the west,
that there is no one besides me.
I am Yahweh, and there is no one else.

7 I form the light
and create darkness.
I make peace
and create calamity.

I am Yahweh,
who does all these things.

8 Rain, you heavens, from above,
and let the skies pour down righteousness.
Let the earth open, that it may produce
salvation,
and let it cause righteousness to spring up with
it.

I, Yahweh, have created it.

9 Woe to him who strives with his Maker—
a clay pot among the clay pots of the earth!
Shall the clay ask him who fashions it, "What are you making?"

or your work, "He has no hands?" 10 Woe to him who says to a father, "What have you become the father of?"
or to a mother, "What have you given birth to?"

11 Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel and his Maker says:

"You ask me about the things that are to come,
concerning my sons,
and you command me concerning the work of my hands!

12 I have made the earth, and created man on
it.

I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens.

I have commanded all their army.

13 I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will make all his ways straight.

He shall build my city,
and he shall let my exiles go free, not for price nor reward," says Yahweh of Armies.

14 Yahweh says: "The labor of Egypt, and the merchandise of Ethiopia, and the Sabeans, men of stature, will come over to you,

and they will be yours.

They will go after you.

They shall come over in chains.

They will bow down to you.

They will make supplication to you:

"Surely God is in you; and there is no one else.
There is no other god.

15 Most certainly you are a God who has hidden yourself,
God of Israel, the Savior."

16 They will be disappointed,
yes, confounded, all of them.

Those who are makers of idols will go into confusion together.

17 Israel will be saved by Yahweh with an everlasting salvation.

You will not be disappointed nor confounded to ages everlasting.

18 For Yahweh who created the heavens,
the God who formed the earth and made it,
who established it and didn't create it a waste,
who formed it to be inhabited says:

"I am Yahweh.

There is no other.

19 I have not spoken in secret,

§§45:5 or, equip

in a place of the land of darkness.
I didn't say to the offspring of Jacob, 'Seek me in vain.'

I, Yahweh, speak righteousness.

I declare things that are right.

²⁰ "Assemble yourselves and come.

Draw near together, you who have escaped from the nations.

Those have no knowledge who carry the wood
of their engraved image, and pray to a god that can't save.

²¹ Declare and present it.

Yes, let them take counsel together.

Who has shown this from ancient time?

Who has declared it of old?

Haven't I, Yahweh?

There is no other God besides me, a just God and a Savior.

There is no one besides me.

²² "Look to me, and be saved, all the ends of
the earth;

for I am God, and there is no other.

²³ I have sworn by myself.

The word has gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and will not be revoked, that to me every knee shall bow,

every tongue shall take an oath.

²⁴ They will say of me,

'There is righteousness and strength only in
Yahweh.'

Even to him will men come.

All those who raged against him will be disappointed.

²⁵ All the offspring of Israel will be justified in Yahweh,

and will rejoice!

Bel bows down.

46 Nebo stoops.

Their idols are carried by animals,

and on the livestock.

The things that you carried around are heavy loads,

a burden for the weary.

² They stoop and they bow down together.

They could not deliver the burden,
but they have gone into captivity.

³ "Listen to me, house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel,
that have been carried from their birth,
that have been carried from the womb.

⁴ Even to old age I am he,

and even to gray hairs I will carry you.

I have made, and I will bear.

Yes, I will carry, and will deliver.

⁵ "To whom will you compare me, and consider my equal,

and compare me, as if we were the same?

⁶ Some pour out gold from the bag,

and weigh silver in the balance.

They hire a goldsmith,

and he makes it a god.

They fall down—

yes, they worship.

⁷ They bear it on their shoulder.

They carry it, and set it in its place, and it stands there.

It cannot move from its place.

Yes, one may cry to it, yet it can not answer.

It cannot save him out of his trouble.

⁸ "Remember this, and show yourselves men.

Bring it to mind again, you transgressors.

⁹ Remember the former things of old:

for I am God, and there is no other.

I am God, and there is none like me.

¹⁰ I declare the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things that are not yet done.

I say: My counsel will stand,

and I will do all that I please.

¹¹ I call a ravenous bird from the east,

the man of my counsel from a far country.

Yes, I have spoken.

I will also bring it to pass.

I have planned.

I will also do it.

¹² Listen to me, you stubborn-hearted, who are far from righteousness!

¹³ I bring my righteousness near.

It is not far off,

and my salvation will not wait.

I will grant salvation to Zion,
my glory to Israel.

47 “Come down and sit in the dust, virgin daughter of Babylon.

Sit on the ground without a throne, daughter of the Chaldeans.

For you will no longer be called tender and delicate.

² Take the millstones and grind flour.

Remove your veil, lift up your skirt, uncover your legs,

and wade through the rivers.

³ Your nakedness will be uncovered.

Yes, your shame will be seen.

I will take vengeance, and will spare no one.”

⁴ Our Redeemer, Yahweh of Armies is his name, is the Holy One of Israel.

⁵ “Sit in silence, and go into darkness, daughter of the Chaldeans.

For you shall no longer be called the mistress of kingdoms.

⁶ I was angry with my people.

I profaned my inheritance and gave them into your hand.

You showed them no mercy.

You laid a very heavy yoke on the aged.

⁷ You said, ‘I will be a princess forever,’

so that you didn’t lay these things to your heart, nor did you remember the results.

⁸ “Now therefore hear this, you who are given to pleasures, who sit securely,

who say in your heart,

‘I am, and there is no one else besides me.

I won’t sit as a widow,

neither will I know the loss of children.’

⁹ But these two things will come to you in a moment in one day, the loss of children and widowhood.

They will come on you in their full measure,

in the multitude of your sorceries,

and the great abundance of your enchantments.

¹⁰ For you have trusted in your wickedness.

You have said, ‘No one sees me.’

Your wisdom and your knowledge has perverted you.

You have said in your heart, ‘I am, and there is no one else besides me.’

¹¹ Therefore disaster will come on you.

You won’t know when it dawns.

Mischief will fall on you.

You won’t be able to put it away.

Desolation will come on you suddenly, which you don’t understand.

¹² “Stand now with your enchantments and with the multitude of your sorceries, in which you have labored from your youth, as if you might profit, as if you might prevail.

¹³ You are wearied in the multitude of your counsels.

Now let the astrologers, the stargazers, and the monthly prognosticators, stand up and save you from the things that will happen to you.

¹⁴ Behold, they are like stubble.

The fire will burn them.

They won’t deliver themselves from the power of the flame.

It won’t be a coal to warm at or a fire to sit by.

¹⁵ The things that you labored in will be like this:

those who have trafficked with you from your youth will each wander in his own way.

There will be no one to save you.

48 “Hear this, house of Jacob, you who are called by the name of Israel, and have come out of the waters of Judah.

You swear by Yahweh’s name, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness—

² for they call themselves citizens of the holy city, and rely on the God of Israel;

Yahweh of Armies is his name.

³ I have declared the former things from of old.

Yes, they went out of my mouth, and I revealed them.

I did them suddenly, and they happened.

4 Because I knew that you are obstinate, and your neck is an iron sinew, and your brow bronze;

5 therefore I have declared it to you from of old;

before it came to pass I showed it to you;

lest you should say, 'My idol has done them.

My engraved image and my molten image has commanded them.'

6 You have heard it.

Now see all this.

And you, won't you declare it?

'I have shown you new things from this time, even hidden things, which you have not known.

7 They are created now, and not from of old.

Before today, you didn't hear them,

lest you should say, 'Behold, I knew them.'

8 Yes, you didn't hear.

Yes, you didn't know.

Yes, from of old your ear was not opened, for I knew that you dealt very treacherously, and were called a transgressor from the womb.

9 For my name's sake, I will defer my anger, and for my praise, I hold it back for you so that I don't cut you off.

10 Behold, I have refined you, but not as silver.

I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction.

11 For my own sake,

for my own sake, I will do it;

for how would my name be profaned?

I will not give my glory to another.

12 "Listen to me, O Jacob,

and Israel my called:

I am he.

I am the first.

I am also the last.

13 Yes, my hand has laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand has spread out the heavens. when I call to them, they stand up together.

14 "Assemble yourselves, all of you, and hear!

Who among them has declared these things?

He whom Yahweh loves will do what he likes to Babylon, and his arm will be against the Chaldeans.

15 I, even I, have spoken.

Yes, I have called him.

I have brought him

and he shall make his way prosperous.

16 "Come near to me and hear this:

"From the beginning I have not spoken in secret;

from the time that it happened, I was there."

Now the Lord Yahweh has sent me with his Spirit.

17 Yahweh,

your Redeemer,

the Holy One of Israel says:

"I am Yahweh your God,

who teaches you to profit,

who leads you by the way that you should go.

18 Oh that you had listened to my commandments!

Then your peace would have been like a river and your righteousness like the waves of the sea.

19 Your offspring also would have been as the sand and the descendants of your body like its grains.

His name would not be cut off nor destroyed from before me."

20 Leave Babylon!

Flee from the Chaldeans!

With a voice of singing announce this,

tell it even to the end of the earth:

say, "Yahweh has redeemed his servant Jacob!"

21 They didn't thirst when he led them through the deserts.

He caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them.

He also split the rock and the waters gushed out.

22 "There is no peace", says Yahweh, "for the wicked."

49 Listen, islands, to me.
 Listen, you peoples, from afar:
 Yahweh has called me from the womb;
 from the inside of my mother, he has mentioned my name.
 2 He has made my mouth like a sharp sword.
 He has hidden me in the shadow of his hand.
 He has made me a polished shaft.
 He has kept me close in his quiver.
 3 He said to me, "You are my servant,
 Israel, in whom I will be glorified."
 4 But I said, "I have labored in vain.
 I have spent my strength in vain for nothing;
 yet surely the justice due to me is with
 Yahweh,
 and my reward with my God."
 5 Now Yahweh, he who formed me from the womb to be his servant,
 says to bring Jacob again to him,
 and to gather Israel to him,
 for I am honorable in Yahweh's eyes,
 and my God has become my strength.
 6 Indeed, he says, "It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob,
 and to restore the preserved of Israel.
 I will also give you as a light to the nations, that you may be my salvation to the end of the
 earth."
 7 Yahweh, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One,
 says to him whom man despises, to him whom the nation abhors, to a servant of rulers:
 "Kings shall see and rise up, princes, and they shall worship, because of Yahweh who is faithful, even the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."
 8 Yahweh says, "I have answered you in an acceptable time.
 I have helped you in a day of salvation.
 I will preserve you and give you for a covenant of the people,
 to raise up the land, to make them inherit the desolate heritage,
 9 saying to those who are bound, 'Come out!';

to those who are in darkness, 'Show yourselves!'
 "They shall feed along the paths, and their pasture shall be on all treeless heights.
 10 They shall not hunger nor thirst;
 neither shall the heat nor sun strike them:
 for he who has mercy on them will lead them.
 He will guide them by springs of water.
 11 I will make all my mountains a road,
 and my highways shall be exalted.
 12 Behold, these shall come from afar, and behold, these from the north and from the west;
 and these from the land of Sinim."
 13 Sing, heavens, and be joyful, earth!
 Break out into singing, mountains,
 for Yahweh has comforted his people,
 and will have compassion on his afflicted.
 14 But Zion said, "Yahweh has forsaken me,
 and the Lord has forgotten me." 15 "Can a woman forget her nursing child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb?
 Yes, these may forget,
 yet I will not forget you!
 16 Behold, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands.
 Your walls are continually before me.
 17 Your children hurry.
 Your destroyers and those who devastated you will leave you.
 18 Lift up your eyes all around, and see:
 all these gather themselves together, and come
 to you.
 As I live," says Yahweh, "you shall surely clothe yourself with them all as with an ornament,
 and dress yourself with them, like a bride.
 19 "For, as for your waste and your desolate places,
 and your land that has been destroyed, surely now that land will be too small for the inhabitants,
 and those who swallowed you up will be far
 away.

20 The children of your bereavement will say in your ears,

‘This place is too small for me.

Give me a place to live in.’

21 Then you will say in your heart, ‘Who has conceived these for me, since I have been bereaved of my children and am alone, an exile, and wandering back and forth?

Who has brought these up?

Behold, I was left alone. Where were these?’”

22 The Lord Yahweh says, “Behold, I will lift up my hand to the nations, and lift up my banner to the peoples.

They shall bring your sons in their bosom, and your daughters shall be carried on their shoulders.

23 Kings shall be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers.

They will bow down to you with their faces to
the earth,

and lick the dust of your feet.

Then you will know that I am Yahweh;

and those who wait for me shall not be disappointed.”

24 Shall the plunder be taken from the mighty,
or the lawful captives be delivered?

25 But Yahweh says, “Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away,

and the plunder retrieved from the fierce,

for I will contend with him who contends with
you

and I will save your children.

26 I will feed those who oppress you with their own flesh;

and they will be drunk on their own blood, as with sweet wine.

Then all flesh shall know that I, Yahweh, am your Savior

and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.”

50 Yahweh says, “Where is the bill of your mother’s divorce, with which I have put her away?

Or to which of my creditors have I sold you?

Behold, you were sold for your iniquities, and your mother was put away for your transgressions.

2 Why, when I came, was there no one?

When I called, why was there no one to answer?

Is my hand shortened at all, that it can’t redeem?

Or have I no power to deliver?

Behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea.

I make the rivers a wilderness.

Their fish stink because there is no water, and die of thirst.

3 I clothe the heavens with blackness.

I make sackcloth their covering.”

4 The Lord Yahweh has given me the tongue of those who are taught,

that I may know how to sustain with words him who is weary.

He awakens morning by morning,

he awakens my ear to hear as those who are taught.

5 The Lord Yahweh has opened my ear.

I was not rebellious.

I have not turned back.

6 I gave my back to those who beat me, and my cheeks to those who plucked off the hair.

I didn’t hide my face from shame and spitting.

7 For the Lord Yahweh will help me.

Therefore I have not been confounded.

Therefore I have set my face like a flint,

and I know that I won’t be disappointed.

8 He who justifies me is near.

Who will bring charges against me?

Let us stand up together.

Who is my adversary?

Let him come near to me.

9 Behold, the Lord Yahweh will help me!

Who is he who will condemn me?

Behold, they will all grow old like a garment.

The moths will eat them up.

10 Who among you fears Yahweh and obeys the voice of his servant?

He who walks in darkness

and has no light,

let him trust in Yahweh’s name,

and rely on his God.

¹¹ Behold, all you who kindle a fire, who adorn yourselves with torches around
 yourselves,
 walk in the flame of your fire,
 and among the torches that you have kindled.
 You will have this from my hand:
 you will lie down in sorrow.

51 “Listen to me, you who follow after
 righteousness,
 you who seek Yahweh.

Look to the rock you were cut from,
 and to the quarry you were dug from.

² Look to Abraham your father, and to Sarah who bore you;
 for when he was but one I called him,
 I blessed him,
 and made him many.

³ For Yahweh has comforted Zion.
 He has comforted all her waste places,
 and has made her wilderness like Eden,
 and her desert like the garden of Yahweh.
 Joy and gladness will be found in them,
 thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

⁴ “Listen to me, my people;
 and hear me, my nation,
 for a law will go out from me, and I will establish my justice for a light to the peoples.

⁵ My righteousness is near.
 My salvation has gone out,
 and my arms will judge the peoples.
 The islands will wait for me,
 and they will trust my arm.

⁶ Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth beneath;
 for the heavens will vanish away like smoke,
 and the earth will wear out like a garment.
 Its inhabitants will die in the same way,
 but my salvation will be forever,
 and my righteousness will not be abolished.

⁷ “Listen to me, you who know righteousness,
 the people in whose heart is my law.
 Don’t fear the reproach of men,
 and don’t be dismayed at their insults.

⁸ For the moth will eat them up like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool;

 but my righteousness will be forever,
 and my salvation to all generations.”

⁹ Awake, awake, put on strength, arm of
 Yahweh!

Awake, as in the days of old,
 the generations of ancient times.
 Isn’t it you who cut Rahab in pieces,
 who pierced the monster?

¹⁰ Isn’t it you who dried up the sea,
 the waters of the great deep;
 who made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass over?

¹¹ Those ransomed by Yahweh will return,
 and come with singing to Zion.
 Everlasting joy shall be on their heads.
 They will obtain gladness and joy.
 Sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

¹² “I, even I, am he who comforts you.
 Who are you, that you are afraid of man who shall die,
 and of the son of man who will be made as grass?

¹³ Have you forgotten Yahweh your Maker, who stretched out the heavens,
 and laid the foundations of the earth?
 Do you live in fear continually all day because of the fury of the oppressor,
 when he prepares to destroy?

Where is the fury of the oppressor?

¹⁴ The captive exile will speedily be freed.
 He will not die and go down into the pit.
 His bread won’t fail.

¹⁵ For I am Yahweh your God, who stirs up the sea
 so that its waves roar.

Yahweh of Armies is his name.

¹⁶ I have put my words in your mouth and have covered you in the shadow of my hand,

that I may plant the heavens,
 and lay the foundations of the earth,
 and tell Zion, “You are my people.”

¹⁷ Awake, awake!
 Stand up, Jerusalem,

you who have drunk from Yahweh's hand the cup of his wrath.

You have drunken the bowl of the cup of staggering, and drained it.

¹⁸ There is no one to guide her among all the sons to whom she has given birth; and there is no one who takes her by the hand among all the sons who she has brought up.

¹⁹ These two things have happened to you— who will grieve with you?— desolation and destruction, and famine and the sword.

How can I comfort you?

²⁰ Your sons have fainted.

They lie at the head of all the streets, like an antelope in a net.

They are full of Yahweh's wrath, the rebuke of your God.

²¹ Therefore now hear this, you afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine:

²² Your Lord Yahweh, your God who pleads the cause of his people, says, “Behold, I have taken out of your hand the cup of staggering, even the bowl of the cup of my wrath.

You will not drink it any more.

²³ I will put it into the hand of those who afflict you, who have said to your soul, ‘Bow down, that we may walk over you;’

and you have laid your back as the ground, like a street to those who walk over.”

52 Awake, awake! Put on your strength, Zion.

Put on your beautiful garments, Jerusalem, the holy city:

for from now on the uncircumcised and the unclean will no more come into you.

² Shake yourself from the dust!

Arise, sit up, Jerusalem!

Release yourself from the bonds of your neck, captive daughter of Zion!

³ For Yahweh says, “You were sold for nothing;

and you will be redeemed without money.”

⁴ For the Lord Yahweh says:

“My people went down at the first into Egypt to live there:

and the Assyrian has oppressed them without cause.

⁵ “Now therefore, what do I do here,” says Yahweh,

“seeing that my people are taken away for nothing?

Those who rule over them mock,” says Yahweh,

“and my name is blasphemed continually all day long.

⁶ Therefore my people shall know my name.

Therefore they shall know in that day that I am he who speaks.

Behold, it is I.”

⁷ How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news,

who publishes peace,

who brings good news,

who proclaims salvation,

who says to Zion, “Your God reigns!”

⁸ Your watchmen lift up their voice.

Together they sing;

for they shall see eye to eye when Yahweh returns to Zion.

⁹ Break out into joy!

Sing together, you waste places of Jerusalem; for Yahweh has comforted his people.

He has redeemed Jerusalem.

¹⁰ Yahweh has made his holy arm bare in the eyes of all the nations.

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

¹¹ Depart! Depart! Go out from there! Touch no unclean thing!

Go out from among her!

Cleanse yourselves, you who carry Yahweh's vessels.

¹² For you shall not go out in haste, neither shall you go by flight: for Yahweh will go before you;

and the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

¹³ Behold, my servant will deal wisely.

He will be exalted and lifted up,

and will be very high.

¹⁴ Just as many were astonished at you—

his appearance was marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men—

¹⁵ so he will cleanse* many nations.

Kings will shut their mouths at him;

for they will see that which had not been told them,

and they will understand that which they had not heard.

Who has believed our message?

53 To whom has Yahweh's arm been revealed?

² For he grew up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of dry ground.

He has no good looks or majesty.

When we see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

³ He was despised and rejected by men,

a man of suffering and acquainted with disease.

He was despised as one from whom men hide their face;

and we didn't respect him.

⁴ Surely he has borne our sickness and carried our suffering;

yet we considered him plagued,

struck by God, and afflicted.

⁵ But he was pierced for our transgressions.

He was crushed for our iniquities.

The punishment that brought our peace was on him;

and by his wounds we are healed.

⁶ All we like sheep have gone astray.

Everyone has turned to his own way;

and Yahweh has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

⁷ He was oppressed,

yet when he was afflicted he didn't open his mouth.

As a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he didn't open his mouth.

⁸ He was taken away by oppression and judgment.

As for his generation, who considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living and stricken for the disobedience of my people?

⁹ They made his grave with the wicked,

and with a rich man in his death,

although he had done no violence,

nor was any deceit in his mouth.

¹⁰ Yet it pleased Yahweh to bruise him.

He has caused him to suffer.

When you make his soul an offering for sin, he will see his offspring.

He will prolong his days and Yahweh's pleasure will prosper in his hand.

¹¹ After the suffering of his soul,

he will see the light† and be satisfied.

My righteous servant will justify many by the knowledge of himself;

and he will bear their iniquities.

¹² Therefore I will give him a portion with the great.

He will divide the plunder with the strong;

because he poured out his soul to death and was counted with the transgressors;

yet he bore the sins of many

and made intercession for the transgressors.

54 "Sing, barren, you who didn't give birth;

break out into singing, and cry aloud,

you who didn't travail with child:

for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife," says Yahweh.

² "Enlarge the place of your tent,

*52:15 or, sprinkle

†53:11 So read the Dead Sea Scrolls and Septuagint. Masoretic Text omits "the light".

and let them stretch out the curtains of your habitations;

don't spare: lengthen your cords, and strengthen your stakes.

3 For you will spread out on the right hand and on the left;

and your offspring will possess the nations and settle in desolate cities.

4 "Don't be afraid, for you will not be ashamed.

Don't be confounded, for you will not be disappointed.

For you will forget the shame of your youth.

You will remember the reproach of your widowhood no more.

5 For your Maker is your husband; Yahweh of Armies is his name.

The Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer.

He will be called the God of the whole earth.

6 For Yahweh has called you as a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, even a wife of youth, when she is cast off," says your God.

7 "For a small moment I have forsaken you, but I will gather you with great mercies.

8 In overflowing wrath I hid my face from you for a moment, but with everlasting loving kindness I will have mercy on you," says Yahweh your Redeemer.

9 "For this is like the waters of Noah to me; for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah will no more go over the earth, so I have sworn that I will not be angry with you, nor rebuke you.

10 For the mountains may depart, and the hills be removed;

but my loving kindness will not depart from you,

and my covenant of peace will not be removed,"

says Yahweh who has mercy on you.

11 "You afflicted, tossed with storms, and not comforted, behold, I will set your stones in beautiful colors,

and lay your foundations with sapphires.

12 I will make your pinnacles of rubies, your gates of sparkling jewels, and all your walls of precious stones.

13 All your children will be taught by Yahweh; and your children's peace will be great.

14 You will be established in righteousness.

You will be far from oppression,

for you will not be afraid,

and far from terror,

for it shall not come near you.

15 Behold, they may gather together, but not by me.

Whoever gathers together against you will fall because of you.

16 "Behold, I have created the blacksmith who fans the coals into flame, and forges a weapon for his work;

and I have created the destroyer to destroy.

17 No weapon that is formed against you will prevail;

and you will condemn every tongue that rises against you in judgment.

This is the heritage of Yahweh's servants, and their righteousness is of me," says Yahweh.

55 "Hey! Come, everyone who thirsts, to the waters!

Come, he who has no money, buy, and eat!

Yes, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

2 Why do you spend money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which doesn't satisfy?

Listen diligently to me, and eat that which is good,

and let your soul delight itself in richness.

3 Turn your ear, and come to me.

Hear, and your soul will live.

I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the peoples,

a leader and commander to the peoples.

5 Behold, you shall call a nation that you don't know;

and a nation that didn't know you shall run to you,

because of Yahweh your God,
and for the Holy One of Israel;
for he has glorified you."

6 Seek Yahweh while he may be found.

Call on him while he is near.

7 Let the wicked forsake his way,
and the unrighteous man his thoughts.

Let him return to Yahweh, and he will have mercy on him, to our God, for he will freely pardon.

8 "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, and your ways are not my ways," says Yahweh.

9 "For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
so are my ways higher than your ways,
and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For as the rain comes down and the snow
from the sky,

and doesn't return there, but waters the earth,
and makes it grow and bud,
and gives seed to the sower and bread to the eater;

11 so is my word that goes out of my mouth:
it will not return to me void,

but it will accomplish that which I please,
and it will prosper in the thing I sent it to do.

12 For you shall go out with joy,
and be led out with peace.

The mountains and the hills will break out before you into singing;

and all the trees of the fields will clap their hands.

13 Instead of the thorn the cypress tree will come up;

and instead of the brier the myrtle tree will come up.

It will make a name for Yahweh, for an everlasting sign that will not be cut off."

56 Yahweh says,
"Maintain justice
and do what is right,

for my salvation is near
and my righteousness will soon be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man who does this,
and the son of man who holds it fast;

who keeps the Sabbath without profaning it and keeps his hand from doing any evil."

3 Let no foreigner who has joined himself to Yahweh speak, saying,

"Yahweh will surely separate me from his people."

Do not let the eunuch say, "Behold, I am a dry tree."

4 For Yahweh says, "To the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths, choose the things that please me,

and hold fast to my covenant,

5 I will give them in my house and within my walls a memorial and a name better than of sons and of daughters.

I will give them an everlasting name that will not be cut off.

6 Also the foreigners who join themselves to Yahweh to serve him,

and to love Yahweh's name,

to be his servants,

everyone who keeps the Sabbath from profaning it,

and holds fast my covenant,

7 I will bring these to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer.

Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar;

for my house will be called a house of prayer for all peoples."

8 The Lord Yahweh, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, says,

"I will yet gather others to him,
in addition to his own who are gathered."

9 All you animals of the field,

come to devour,

all you animals in the forest.

10 His watchmen are blind.

They are all without knowledge.

They are all mute dogs.

They can't bark—

dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber.

11 Yes, the dogs are greedy.

They can never have enough.

They are shepherds who can't understand.

They have all turned to their own way,
 each one to his gain, from every quarter.
 12 “Come,” say they, “I will get wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink;
 and tomorrow will be as today,
 great beyond measure.”

57 The righteous perish,
 and no one lays it to heart.
 Merciful men are taken away, and no one considers that the righteous is taken away from the evil.

2 He enters into peace.
 They rest in their beds,
 each one who walks in his uprightness.

3 “But draw near here, you sons of a sorceress,
 you offspring of adulterers and prostitutes.

4 Whom do you mock?
 Against whom do you make a wide mouth
 and stick out your tongue?
 Aren’t you children of disobedience
 and offspring of falsehood, 5 you who inflame yourselves among the oaks,
 under every green tree;
 who kill the children in the valleys,
 under the clefts of the rocks?

6 Among the smooth stones of the valley is your portion.

They, they are your lot.
 You have even poured a drink offering to
 them.

You have offered an offering.
 Shall I be appeased for these things?

7 On a high and lofty mountain you have set your bed.

You also went up there to offer sacrifice.

8 You have set up your memorial behind the doors and the posts,

for you have exposed yourself to someone besides me,
 and have gone up.

You have enlarged your bed and made you a covenant with them.

You loved what you saw on their bed.

9 You went to the king with oil,

increased your perfumes,
 sent your ambassadors far off,
 and degraded yourself even to Sheol.‡ 10 You were wearied with the length of your ways;

yet you didn’t say, ‘It is in vain.’
 You found a reviving of your strength;
 therefore you weren’t faint.

11 “Whom have you dreaded and feared,
 so that you lie,
 and have not remembered me, nor laid it to
 your heart?

Haven’t I held my peace for a long time,
 and you don’t fear me?

12 I will declare your righteousness;
 and as for your works, they will not benefit
 you.

13 When you cry,
 let those whom you have gathered deliver you;
 but the wind will take them.

a breath will carry them all away;
 but he who takes refuge in me will possess the
 land,
 and will inherit my holy mountain.”

14 He will say, “Build up, build up, prepare the way!

Remove the stumbling-block out of the way of my people.”

15 For the high and lofty One who inhabits eternity,

whose name is Holy, says:

“I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also who is of a contrite and humble
 spirit,

to revive the spirit of the humble,
 and to revive the heart of the contrite.

16 For I will not contend forever, neither will I always be angry;

for the spirit would faint before me,
 and the souls whom I have made.

17 I was angry because of the iniquity of his covetousness and struck him.

I hid myself and was angry;

‡57:9 Sheol is the place of the dead.

and he went on backsliding in the way of his heart.

18 I have seen his ways, and will heal him.

I will lead him also,

and restore comforts to him and to his mourners.

19 I create the fruit of the lips:

Peace, peace, to him who is far off and to him who is near,"

says Yahweh; "and I will heal them."

20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea;

for it can't rest and its waters cast up mire and mud.

21 "There is no peace", says my God,

"for the wicked."

58 "Cry aloud! Don't spare!
Lift up your voice like a trumpet!

Declare to my people their disobedience,
and to the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily,

and delight to know my ways.

As a nation that did righteousness,

and didn't forsake the ordinance of their God,
they ask of me righteous judgments.

They delight to draw near to God.

3 'Why have we fasted,' they say, 'and you don't see?'

Why have we afflicted our soul, and you don't notice?'

"Behold, in the day of your fast you find pleasure, and oppress all your laborers.

4 Behold, you fast for strife and contention,

and to strike with the fist of wickedness.
You don't fast today so as to make your voice to be heard on high.

5 Is this the fast that I have chosen?

A day for a man to humble his soul?

Is it to bow down his head like a reed,

and to spread sackcloth and ashes under himself?

Will you call this a fast,

and an acceptable day to Yahweh?

6 "Isn't this the fast that I have chosen:

to release the bonds of wickedness,

to undo the straps of the yoke,

to let the oppressed go free,

and that you break every yoke?

7 Isn't it to distribute your bread to the hungry, and that you bring the poor who are cast out to your house?

When you see the naked,

that you cover him;

and that you not hide yourself from your own flesh?

8 Then your light will break out as the morning,
and your healing will appear quickly;

then your righteousness shall go before you,
and Yahweh's glory will be your rear guard.

9 Then you will call, and Yahweh will answer.

You will cry for help, and he will say, 'Here I am.'

"If you take away from among you the yoke, finger pointing,

and speaking wickedly;

10 and if you pour out your soul to the hungry,
and satisfy the afflicted soul,

then your light will rise in darkness,

and your obscurity will be as the noonday;

11 and Yahweh will guide you continually, satisfy your soul in dry places,

and make your bones strong.

You will be like a watered garden,

and like a spring of water

whose waters don't fail.

12 Those who will be of you will build the old waste places.

You will raise up the foundations of many generations.

You will be called Repairer of the Breach,

Restorer of Paths with Dwellings.

13 "If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure on my holy day;

and call the Sabbath a delight,

and the holy of Yahweh honorable;

and honor it,

not doing your own ways,

nor finding your own pleasure,

nor speaking your own words,

14 then you will delight yourself in Yahweh, and I will make you to ride on the high places

of the earth,
and I will feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father;”

for Yahweh’s mouth has spoken it.

59 Behold, Yahweh’s hand is not shortened, that it can’t save;
nor his ear dull, that it can’t hear.

2 But your iniquities have separated you and your God,

and your sins have hidden his face from you,
so that he will not hear.

3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity.
Your lips have spoken lies.

Your tongue mutters wickedness.

4 No one sues in righteousness, and no one pleads in truth.

They trust in vanity,
and speak lies.

They conceive mischief,
and give birth to iniquity.

5 They hatch adders’ eggs,
and weave the spider’s web.

He who eats of their eggs dies;
and that which is crushed breaks out into a viper.

6 Their webs won’t become garments.
They won’t cover themselves with their works.
Their works are works of iniquity,
and acts of violence are in their hands.

7 Their feet run to evil,
and they hurry to shed innocent blood.
Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity.
Desolation and destruction are in their paths.

8 They don’t know the way of peace;
and there is no justice in their ways.
They have made crooked paths for themselves;

whoever goes in them doesn’t know peace.

9 Therefore justice is far from us,
and righteousness doesn’t overtake us.

We look for light, but see darkness;
for brightness, but we walk in obscurity.

10 We grope for the wall like the blind.
Yes, we grope as those who have no eyes.

We stumble at noon as if it were twilight.
Among those who are strong, we are like dead
men.

11 We all roar like bears and moan bitterly like doves.

We look for justice, but there is none,
for salvation, but it is far off from us.

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before
you,

and our sins testify against us;
for our transgressions are with us,
and as for our iniquities, we know them:

13 transgressing and denying Yahweh,
and turning away from following our God,
speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.

14 Justice is turned away backward,
and righteousness stands far away;
for truth has fallen in the street,
and uprightness can’t enter.

15 Yes, truth is lacking;
and he who departs from evil makes himself a prey.

Yahweh saw it,
and it displeased him that there was no justice.

16 He saw that there was no man,
and wondered that there was no intercessor.
Therefore his own arm brought salvation to
him;

and his righteousness sustained him.

17 He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on his head.
He put on garments of vengeance for clothing,
and was clad with zeal as a mantle.

18 According to their deeds,
he will repay as appropriate,
wrath to his adversaries,
recompense to his enemies;
he will repay the islands their due.

19 So they will fear Yahweh’s name from the west,

and his glory from the rising of the sun;
for he will come as a rushing stream,
which Yahweh’s breath drives.

20 “A Redeemer will come to Zion, and to those who turn from disobedience in Jacob," says Yahweh.

²¹ "As for me, this is my covenant with them," says Yahweh. "My Spirit who is on you, and my words which I have put in your mouth shall not depart out of your mouth, nor out of the mouth of your offspring, nor out of the mouth of your offspring's offspring," says Yahweh, "from now on and forever."

60 "Arise, shine; for your light has come, and Yahweh's glory has risen on you.

² For, behold, darkness will cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but Yahweh will arise on you, and his glory shall be seen on you.

³ Nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising.

⁴ "Lift up your eyes all around, and see: they all gather themselves together. They come to you.

Your sons will come from far away, and your daughters will be carried in arms.

⁵ Then you shall see and be radiant, and your heart will thrill and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea will be turned to you.

The wealth of the nations will come to you.

⁶ A multitude of camels will cover you, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah. All from Sheba will come.

They will bring gold and frankincense, and will proclaim the praises of Yahweh.

⁷ All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered together to you.

The rams of Nebaioth will serve you.

They will be accepted as offerings on my altar; and I will beautify my glorious house.

⁸ "Who are these who fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?"

⁹ Surely the islands will wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring your sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, for the name of Yahweh your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he has glorified you.

¹⁰ "Foreigners will build up your walls, and their kings will serve you: for in my wrath I struck you, but in my favor I have had mercy on you.

¹¹ Your gates also shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night, that men may bring to you the wealth of the nations, and their kings led captive.

¹² For that nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish; yes, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

¹³ "The glory of Lebanon shall come to you, the cypress tree, the pine, and the box tree together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

¹⁴ The sons of those who afflicted you will come bowing to you; and all those who despised you will bow themselves down at the soles of your feet.

They will call you Yahweh's City, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵ "Whereas you have been forsaken and hated,

so that no one passed through you, I will make you an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

¹⁶ You will also drink the milk of the nations, and will nurse from royal breasts.

Then you will know that I, Yahweh, am your Savior, your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

¹⁷ For bronze I will bring gold;

for iron I will bring silver;

for wood, bronze,

and for stones, iron.

I will also make peace your governor, and righteousness your ruler.

¹⁸ Violence shall no more be heard in your land,

nor desolation or destruction within your borders;

but you will call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise.

¹⁹ The sun will be no more your light by day;

nor will the brightness of the moon give light
to you,

but Yahweh will be your everlasting light,
and your God will be your glory.

²⁰Your sun will not go down any more,
nor will your moon withdraw itself;
for Yahweh will be your everlasting light,
and the days of your mourning will end.

²¹Then your people will all be righteous.
They will inherit the land forever,
the branch of my planting,
the work of my hands,
that I may be glorified.

²²The little one will become a thousand,
and the small one a strong nation.
I, Yahweh, will do this quickly in its time.”

61 The Lord Yahweh's Spirit is on me, because Yahweh has anointed me to preach good news to the humble.

He has sent me to bind up the broken hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and release to those who are bound,

²to proclaim the year of Yahweh's favor and the day of vengeance of our God,
to comfort all who mourn,

³to provide for those who mourn in Zion,
to give to them a garland for ashes,
the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness,

that they may be called trees of righteousness,
the planting of Yahweh,
that he may be glorified.

⁴They will rebuild the old ruins.
They will raise up the former devastated
places.

They will repair the ruined cities that have been devastated for many generations.

⁵Strangers will stand and feed your flocks.
Foreigners will work your fields and your vineyards.

⁶But you will be called Yahweh's priests.
Men will call you the servants of our God.
You will eat the wealth of the nations.
You will boast in their glory.

⁷Instead of your shame you will have double.
Instead of dishonor, they will rejoice in their portion.

Therefore in their land they will possess double.

Everlasting joy will be to them.

⁸“For I, Yahweh, love justice.

I hate robbery and iniquity.

I will give them their reward in truth and I will make an everlasting covenant with
them.

⁹Their offspring will be known among the
nations,

and their offspring among the peoples.

All who see them will acknowledge them, that they are the offspring which Yahweh has blessed.”

¹⁰I will greatly rejoice in Yahweh!
My soul will be joyful in my God, for he has clothed me with the garments of
salvation.

He has covered me with the robe of
righteousness,

as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

¹¹For as the earth produces its bud, and as the garden causes the things that are sown in it to spring up,

so the Lord Yahweh will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations.

62 For Zion's sake I will not hold my peace,
and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her righteousness shines out like the dawn,

and her salvation like a burning lamp.

²The nations will see your righteousness, and all kings your glory.

You will be called by a new name, which Yahweh's mouth will name.

³You will also be a crown of beauty in Yah-weh's hand,

and a royal diadem in your God's hand.

⁴You will not be called Forsaken any more, nor will your land be called Desolate any more;

but you will be called Hephzibah,[¶] and your land Beulah;[§] for Yahweh delights in you,
 and your land will be married.
 5 For as a young man marries a virgin,
 so your sons will marry you.
 As a bridegroom rejoices over his bride,
 so your God will rejoice over you.
 6 I have set watchmen on your walls,
 Jerusalem.
 They will never be silent day nor night.
 You who call on Yahweh, take no rest, 7 and give him no rest, until he establishes, and until he makes Jerusalem a praise in the
 earth.
 8 Yahweh has sworn by his right hand,
 and by the arm of his strength, “Surely I will no more give your grain to be food for your enemies,
 and foreigners will not drink your new wine,
 for which you have labored, 9 but those who have harvested it will eat it,
 and praise Yahweh.
 Those who have gathered it will drink it in the courts of my sanctuary.”
 10 Go through, go through the gates!
 Prepare the way of the people!
 Build up, build up the highway!
 Gather out the stones!
 Lift up a banner for the peoples.
 11 Behold, Yahweh has proclaimed to the end
 of the earth,
 “Say to the daughter of Zion, ‘Behold, your salvation comes!
 Behold, his reward is with him,
 and his recompense before him!’” 12 They will call them “The Holy People, Yahweh’s Redeemed”.
 You will be called “Sought Out,
 A City Not Forsaken”.
 63 Who is this who comes from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah?
 Who is this who is glorious in his clothing,

marching in the greatness of his strength?
 “It is I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save.”
 2 Why is your clothing red,
 and your garments like him who treads in the wine vat?
 3 “I have trodden the wine press alone.
 Of the peoples, no one was with me.
 Yes, I trod them in my anger and trampled them in my wrath.
 Their lifeblood is sprinkled on my garments,
 and I have stained all my clothing.
 4 For the day of vengeance was in my heart,
 and the year of my redeemed has come.
 5 I looked, and there was no one to help;
 and I wondered that there was no one to uphold.
 Therefore my own arm brought salvation to
 me.
 My own wrath upheld me.
 6 I trod down the peoples in my anger and made them drunk in my wrath.
 I poured their lifeblood out on the earth.”
 7 I will tell of the loving kindnesses of Yahweh and the praises of Yahweh,
 according to all that Yahweh has given to us,
 and the great goodness toward the house of Israel,
 which he has given to them according to his mercies,
 and according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.
 8 For he said, “Surely, they are my people, children who will not deal falsely;”
 so he became their Savior.
 9 In all their affliction he was afflicted,
 and the angel of his presence saved them.
 In his love and in his pity he redeemed them.
 He bore them,
 and carried them all the days of old.
 10 But they rebelled and grieved his Holy Spirit.
 Therefore he turned and became their enemy,

[¶]62:4 Hephzibah means “I delight in her”.

[§]62:4 Beulah means “married” and he himself fought against them.

¹¹ Then he remembered the days of old,
Moses and his people, saying, “Where is he who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock?
Where is he who put his Holy Spirit among
them?”

¹² Who caused his glorious arm to be at Moses’ right hand?

Who divided the waters before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

¹³ Who led them through the depths,
like a horse in the wilderness,
so that they didn’t stumble?

¹⁴ As the livestock that go down into the valley,
Yahweh’s Spirit caused them to rest.

So you led your people to make yourself a glorious name.

¹⁵ Look down from heaven, and see from the habitation of your holiness and of your glory.

Where are your zeal and your mighty acts?
The yearning of your heart and your compassion is restrained toward me.

¹⁶ For you are our Father, though Abraham doesn’t know us,
and Israel does not acknowledge us.
You, Yahweh, are our Father.

Our Redeemer from everlasting is your name.

¹⁷ O Yahweh, why do you make us wander from your ways,
and harden our heart from your fear?

Return for your servants’ sake,
the tribes of your inheritance.

¹⁸ Your holy people possessed it but a little while.

Our adversaries have trodden down your
sanctuary.

¹⁹ We have become like those over whom you never ruled,
like those who were not called by your name.

64 Oh that you would tear the heavens,
that you would come down,
that the mountains might quake at your presence.

² As when fire kindles the brushwood,
and the fire causes the water to boil;
Make your name known to your adversaries,
that the nations may tremble at your presence!

³ When you did awesome things which we didn’t look for,
you came down, and the mountains quaked at your presence.

⁴ For from of old men have not heard,
nor perceived by the ear,
nor has the eye seen a God besides you,
who works for him who waits for him.

⁵ You meet him who rejoices and does
righteousness,

those who remember you in your ways.
Behold, you were angry, and we sinned.
We have been in sin for a long time.

Shall we be saved?

⁶ For we have all become like one who is unclean,

and all our righteousness is like a polluted
garment.

We all fade like a leaf;
and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.

⁷ There is no one who calls on your name, who stirs himself up to take hold of you;
for you have hidden your face from us,
and have consumed us by means of our iniquities.

⁸ But now, Yahweh, you are our Father.
We are the clay and you our potter.

We all are the work of your hand.

⁹ Don’t be furious, Yahweh.
Don’t remember iniquity forever.

Look and see, we beg you,
we are all your people.

¹⁰ Your holy cities have become a wilderness.
Zion has become a wilderness,
Jerusalem a desolation.

¹¹ Our holy and our beautiful house where our fathers praised you is burned with fire.

All our pleasant places are laid waste.

¹² Will you hold yourself back for these things, Yahweh?

Will you keep silent and punish us very severely?

65 “I am inquired of by those who didn’t ask.

I am found by those who didn’t seek me.

I said, ‘See me, see me,’ to a nation that was not called by my name.

2 I have spread out my hands all day to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good, after their own thoughts;

3 a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens, and burning incense on bricks;

4 who sit among the graves, and spend nights in secret places;

who eat pig’s meat, and broth of abominable things is in their vessels;

5 who say, ‘Stay by yourself, don’t come near to me,

for I am holier than you.’

These are smoke in my nose, a fire that burns all day.

6 “Behold, it is written before me:

I will not keep silence,

but will repay,

yes, I will repay into their bosom,

7 your own iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together”, says Yahweh,

“who have burned incense on the mountains, and blasphemed me on the hills.

Therefore I will first measure their work into their bosom.”

8 Yahweh says,

“As the new wine is found in the cluster,

and one says, ‘Don’t destroy it, for a blessing is in it:’

so I will do for my servants’ sake, that I may not destroy them all.

9 I will bring offspring out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains.

My chosen will inherit it,

and my servants will dwell there.

10 Sharon will be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down in,

for my people who have sought me.

11 “But you who forsake Yahweh, who forget my holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune,

and who fill up mixed wine to Destiny;

12 I will destine you to the sword, and you will all bow down to the slaughter; because when I called, you didn’t answer.

When I spoke, you didn’t listen;

but you did that which was evil in my eyes, and chose that in which I didn’t delight.”

13 Therefore the Lord Yahweh says,

“Behold, my servants will eat,

but you will be hungry;

behold, my servants will drink,

but you will be thirsty.

Behold, my servants will rejoice,

but you will be disappointed;

14 Behold, my servants will sing for joy of heart,

but you will cry for sorrow of heart,

and will wail for anguish of spirit.

15 You will leave your name for a curse to my chosen;

and the Lord Yahweh will kill you.

He will call his servants by another name,

16 so that he who blesses himself in the earth will bless himself in the God of truth;

and he who swears in the earth will swear by the God of truth;

because the former troubles are forgotten,

and because they are hidden from my eyes.

17 “For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth;

and the former things will not be remembered, nor come into mind.

18 But be glad and rejoice forever in that which I create;

for, behold, I create Jerusalem to be a delight, and her people a joy.

19 I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and delight in my people;

and the voice of weeping and the voice of crying will be heard in her no more.

²⁰ “No more will there be an infant who only lives a few days, nor an old man who has not filled his days; for the child will die one hundred years old, and the sinner being one hundred years old will be accursed.

²¹ They will build houses and inhabit them.

They will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

²² They will not build and another inhabit.

They will not plant and another eat:

for the days of my people will be like the days of a tree, and my chosen will long enjoy the work of their hands.

²³ They will not labor in vain

nor give birth for calamity;

for they are the offspring of Yahweh’s blessed and their descendants with them.

²⁴ It will happen that before they call, I will answer;

and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

²⁵ The wolf and the lamb will feed together.

The lion will eat straw like the ox.

Dust will be the serpent’s food.

They will not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain,”

says Yahweh.

Yahweh says,

66 “Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool.

What kind of house will you build to me?

Where will I rest?

² For my hand has made all these things,

and so all these things came to be,” says Yahweh:

“but I will look to this man,

even to he who is poor and of a contrite spirit, and who trembles at my word.

³ He who kills an ox is as he who kills a man; he who sacrifices a lamb, as he who breaks a dog’s neck;

he who offers an offering, as he who offers pig’s blood;

he who burns frankincense, as he who blesses an idol.

Yes, they have chosen their own ways,

and their soul delights in their abominations:

⁴ I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears on them;

because when I called, no one answered;

when I spoke, they didn’t listen;

but they did that which was evil in my eyes,

and chose that in which I didn’t delight.”

⁵ Hear Yahweh’s word,

you who tremble at his word:

“Your brothers who hate you,

who cast you out for my name’s sake, have said,

‘Let Yahweh be glorified,

that we may see your joy;’

but it is those who shall be disappointed.

⁶ A voice of tumult from the city,

a voice from the temple,

a voice of Yahweh that repays his enemies what they deserve.

⁷ “Before she travailed, she gave birth.

Before her pain came, she delivered a son.

⁸ Who has heard of such a thing?

Who has seen such things?

Shall a land be born in one day?

Shall a nation be born at once?

For as soon as Zion travailed,

she gave birth to her children.

⁹ Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to be delivered?” says Yahweh.

“Shall I who cause to give birth shut the womb?” says your God.

¹⁰ “Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all you who love her.

Rejoice for joy with her, all you who mourn over her;

¹¹ that you may nurse and be satisfied at the comforting breasts;

that you may drink deeply,

and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.”

¹² For Yahweh says, “Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream;

and you will nurse.

You will be carried on her side,
and will be dandled on her knees.

¹³ As one whom his mother comforts,
so I will comfort you.

You will be comforted in Jerusalem.”

¹⁴ You will see it, and your heart shall rejoice, and your bones will flourish like the tender grass.

Yahweh's hand will be known among his servants;
and he will have indignation against his enemies.

¹⁵ For, behold, Yahweh will come with fire,
and his chariots will be like the whirlwind;
to render his anger with fierceness,
and his rebuke with flames of fire.

¹⁶ For Yahweh will execute judgment by fire and by his sword on all flesh;
and those slain by Yahweh will be many.

¹⁷ “Those who sanctify themselves and purify themselves to go to the gardens, behind one in the middle, eating pig's meat, abominable things, and the mouse, they shall come to an end together,” says Yahweh.

¹⁸ “For I know their works and their thoughts. The time comes that I will gather all nations and languages, and they will come, and will see my glory.

¹⁹ “I will set a sign among them, and I will send those who escape of them to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to far-away islands, who have not heard my fame, nor have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the nations. ²⁰ They shall bring all your brothers out of all the nations for an offering to Yahweh, on horses, in chariots, in litters, on mules, and on camels, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, says Yahweh, as the children of Israel bring their offering in a clean vessel into Yahweh's house. ²¹ Of them I will also select priests and Levites,” says Yahweh.

²² “For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me,” says Yahweh, “so your offspring and your name shall remain. ²³ It shall happen that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, all flesh will come to worship before me,” says Yahweh. ²⁴ “They will go out, and look at the dead bodies of the men who have transgressed against me; for their worm will not die, nor will their fire be quenched, and they will be loathsome to all mankind.”

The Book of Jeremiah

1 The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, one of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin. ²Yahweh's word came to him in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. ³It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month. ⁴Now Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ⁵"Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you.

Before you were born, I sanctified you. I have appointed you a prophet to the nations."

⁶Then I said, "Ah, Lord†† Yahweh! Behold,‡‡ I don't know how to speak; for I am a child."

⁷But Yahweh said to me, "Don't say, 'I am a child;' for you must go to whomever I send you, and you must say whatever I command you. ⁸Don't be afraid because of them, for I am with you to rescue you," says Yahweh.

⁹Then Yahweh stretched out his hand, and touched my mouth. Then Yahweh said to me, "Behold, I have put my words in your mouth. ¹⁰Behold, I have today set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to uproot and to tear down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant."

¹¹Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, "Jeremiah, what do you see?"

I said, "I see a branch of an almond tree."

¹²Then Yahweh said to me, "You have seen well; for I watch over my word to perform it."

¹³Yahweh's word came to me the second time, saying, "What do you see?"

I said, "I see a boiling cauldron; and it is tipping away from the north."

¹⁴Then Yahweh said to me, "Out of the north, evil will break out on all the inhabitants of the land. ¹⁵For, behold, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north," says Yahweh.

"They will come, and they will each set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all its walls all around, and against all the cities of Judah.

¹⁶I will utter my judgments against them concerning all their wickedness, in that they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, and worshiped the works of their own hands.

¹⁷"You therefore put your belt on your waist, arise, and say to them all that I command you. Don't be dismayed at them, lest I dismay you before them. ¹⁸For, behold, I have made you today a fortified city, an iron pillar, and bronze walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against its princes, against its priests, and against the people of the land. ¹⁹They will fight against you, but they will not prevail against you; for I am with you", says Yahweh, "to rescue you."

2 Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²"Go and proclaim in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, 'Yahweh says,

"I remember for you the kindness of your youth,

the love of your weddings; how you went after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

³Israel was holiness to Yahweh, the first fruits of his increase.

All who devour him will be held guilty.

1:2 "Yahweh" is God's proper Name, sometimes rendered "LORD" (all caps) in other translations.

††1:6 The word translated "Lord" is "Adonai."

‡‡1:6 "Behold", from , "הִנֵּה" means look at, take notice, observe, see, or gaze at. It is often used as an interjection.

Evil will come on them,” says Yahweh.”

⁴Hear Yahweh’s word, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel!
⁵Yahweh says,

“What unrighteousness have your fathers found in me,
that they have gone far from me,
and have walked after worthless vanity,
and have become worthless?

⁶They didn’t say, ‘Where is Yahweh who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, who led us through the wilderness,
through a land of deserts and of pits,
through a land of drought and of the shadow of death,
through a land that no one passed through,
and where no man lived?’

⁷I brought you into a plentiful land to eat its fruit and its goodness;
but when you entered, you defiled my land,
and made my heritage an abomination.

⁸The priests didn’t say, ‘Where is Yahweh?’
and those who handle the law didn’t know me.
The rulers also transgressed against me,
and the prophets prophesied by Baal
and followed things that do not profit.

⁹“Therefore I will yet contend with you,” says
Yahweh,
“and I will contend with your children’s children.

¹⁰For pass over to the islands of Kittim, and see.

Send to Kedar, and consider diligently,
and see if there has been such a thing.

¹¹Has a nation changed its gods,
which really are no gods?

But my people have changed their glory for that which doesn’t profit.

¹²“Be astonished, you heavens, at this and be horribly afraid.

Be very desolate,” says Yahweh.

¹³“For my people have committed two evils:

they have forsaken me, the spring of living
waters,
and cut out cisterns for themselves: broken cisterns that can’t hold water.

¹⁴Is Israel a slave?

Is he born into slavery?

Why has he become a captive?

¹⁵The young lions have roared at him and yelled.

They have made his land waste.

His cities are burned up, without inhabitant.

¹⁶The children also of Memphis and Tahpan-hes have broken the crown of your head.

¹⁷“Haven’t you brought this on yourself, in that you have forsaken Yahweh your God,^{¶¶}
when he led you by the way?

¹⁸Now what do you gain by going to Egypt,
to drink the waters of the Shihor?

Or why do you to go on the way to Assyria, to drink the waters of the River?^{§§}

¹⁹“Your own wickedness will correct you, and your backsliding will rebuke you.

Know therefore and see that it is an evil and bitter thing,

that you have forsaken Yahweh your God,
and that my fear is not in you,” says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies.

²⁰“For long ago I broke off your yoke,
and burst your bonds.

You said, ‘I will not serve;’

for on every high hill and under every green tree you bowed yourself,

playing the prostitute.

²¹Yet I had planted you a noble vine, a pure and faithful seed.

How then have you turned into the degenerate branches of a foreign vine to me?

²²For though you wash yourself with lye,
and use much soap,

yet your iniquity is marked before me,” says
the Lord Yahweh.

²³“How can you say, ‘I am not defiled.
I have not gone after the Baals’?

^{¶¶}2:17 The Hebrew word rendered “God” is ^{אֱלֹהִים} (Elohim).

^{§§}2:18 i.e., the Euphrates River

See your way in the valley.
 Know what you have done.
 You are a swift dromedary traversing her ways,²⁴ a wild donkey used to the wilderness, that sniffs the wind in her craving.
 When she is in heat, who can turn her away?
 All those who seek her will not weary themselves. In her month, they will find her.
²⁵ “Keep your feet from being bare,
 and your throat from thirst.
 But you said, ‘It is in vain.
 No, for I have loved strangers,
 and I will go after them.’
²⁶ As the thief is ashamed when he is found,
 so the house of Israel is ashamed:
 they, their kings, their princes, their priests,
 and their prophets,
²⁷ who tell wood, ‘You are my father,’
 and a stone, ‘You have given birth to me,’
 for they have turned their back to me,
 and not their face;
 but in the time of their trouble they will say, ‘Arise, and save us!’
²⁸ “But where are your gods that you have made for yourselves?
 Let them arise, if they can save you in the time
 of your trouble;
 for you have as many gods as you have towns,
 O Judah.
²⁹ “Why will you contend with me?
 You all have transgressed against me,” says
 Yahweh.
³⁰ “I have struck your children in vain.
 They received no correction.
 Your own sword has devoured your prophets,
 like a destroying lion.
³¹ Generation, consider Yahweh’s word.
 Have I been a wilderness to Israel?
 Or a land of thick darkness?
 Why do my people say, ‘We have broken loose.
 We will come to you no more?’
³² “Can a virgin forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire?
 Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number.

³³ How well you prepare your way to seek love!

Therefore you have even taught the wicked women your ways.

³⁴ Also the blood of the souls of the innocent poor is found in your skirts.

You didn’t find them breaking in,
 but it is because of all these things.

³⁵ “Yet you said, ‘I am innocent.
 Surely his anger has turned away from me.’

“Behold, I will judge you, because you say, ‘I have not sinned.’

³⁶ Why do you go about so much to change your ways?

You will be ashamed of Egypt also,
 as you were ashamed of Assyria.

³⁷ You will also leave that place with your hands on your head;

for Yahweh has rejected those in whom you
 trust,

and you won’t prosper with them.

3 “They say, ‘If a man puts away his wife, and she goes from him, and becomes another man’s, should he return to her again?’
 Wouldn’t that land be greatly polluted? But you have played the prostitute with many lovers; yet return again to me,” says Yahweh.

² “Lift up your eyes to the bare heights, and see! Where have you not been lain with?
 You have sat waiting for them by the road, as an Arabian in the wilderness. You have polluted the land with your prostitution and with your wickedness. ³ Therefore the showers have been withheld and there has been no latter rain; yet you have had a prostitute’s forehead and you refused to be ashamed. ⁴ Will you not from this time cry to me, ‘My Father,
 you are the guide of my youth?’

⁵ “Will he retain his anger forever? Will he keep it to the end?” Behold, you have spoken and have done evil things, and have had your way.”

⁶ Moreover, Yahweh said to me in the days of Josiah the king, “Have you seen that which backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green

tree, and has played the prostitute there. ⁷I said after she had done all these things, ‘She will return to me;’ but she didn’t return, and her treacherous sister Judah saw it. ⁸I saw when, for this very cause, that backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a certificate of divorce, yet treacherous Judah, her sister, had no fear; but she also went and played the prostitute. ⁹Because she took her prostitution lightly, the land was polluted, and she committed adultery with stones and with wood. ¹⁰Yet for all this her treacherous sister, Judah, has not returned to me with her whole heart, but only in pretense,” says Yahweh.

¹¹Yahweh said to me, “Backsliding Israel has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Judah. ¹²Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, ‘Return, you backsliding Israel,’ says Yahweh; ‘I will not look in anger on you; for I am merciful,’ says Yahweh. ‘I will not keep anger forever. ¹³Only acknowledge your iniquity, that you have transgressed against Yahweh your God, and have scattered your ways to the strangers under every green tree, and you have not obeyed my voice,’ says Yahweh.” ¹⁴“Return, backsliding children,” says Yahweh; “for I am a husband to you. I will take one of you from a city, and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion. ¹⁵I will give you shepherds according to my heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding. ¹⁶It will come to pass, when you are multiplied and increased in the land, in those days,” says Yahweh, “they will no longer say, ‘the ark of Yahweh’s covenant!’ It will not come to mind. They won’t remember it. They won’t miss it, nor will another be made. ¹⁷At that time they will call Jerusalem ‘Yahweh’s Throne;’ and all the nations will be gathered to it, to Yahweh’s name, to Jerusalem. They will no longer walk after the stubbornness of their evil heart. ¹⁸In those days the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel, and they will come together out of the land of the north to the land that I gave for an inheritance to your fathers.

¹⁹“But I said, ‘How I desire to put you among the children, and give you a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the armies of the nations!’ and I said, ‘You shall call me “My Father”, and shall not turn away from following me.’

²⁰“Surely as a wife treacherously departs from her husband, so you have dealt treacherously with me, house of Israel,” says Yahweh. ²¹A voice is heard on the bare heights, the weeping and the petitions of the children of Israel; because they have perverted their way, they have forgotten Yahweh their God. ²²Return, you backsliding children, and I will heal your backsliding.

“Behold, we have come to you; for you are Yahweh our God. ²³Truly help from the hills, the tumult on the mountains, is in vain. Truly the salvation of Israel is in Yahweh our God. ²⁴But the shameful thing has devoured the labor of our fathers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. ²⁵Let us lie down in our shame, and let our confusion cover us; for we have sinned against Yahweh our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day. We have not obeyed Yahweh our God’s voice.”

4 “If you will return, Israel,” says Yahweh, “if you will return to me, and if you will put away your abominations out of my sight; then you will not be removed; ²and you will swear, ‘As Yahweh lives,’ in truth, in justice, and in righteousness. The nations will bless themselves in him, and they will glory in him.”

³For Yahweh says to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem, “Break up your fallow ground, and don’t sow among thorns. ⁴Circumcise yourselves to Yahweh, and take away the foreskins of your heart, you men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go out like fire, and burn so that no one can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. ⁵Declare in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, ‘Blow the trumpet in the land!’ Cry aloud and say, ‘Assemble yourselves! Let’s go into the fortified cities!’ ⁶Set up a standard toward Zion. Flee for safety! Don’t wait; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction.”

¹⁰Then I said, “Ah, Lord Yahweh! Surely you have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, ‘You will have peace;’ whereas the sword reaches to the heart.”

¹¹At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, “A hot wind from the bare heights in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to winnow, nor to cleanse; ¹²a full wind from these will come for me. Now I will also utter judgments against them.”

¹³Behold, he will come up as clouds, and his chariots will be as the whirlwind. His horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us! For we are ruined. ¹⁴Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness, that you may be saved. How long will your evil thoughts lodge within you? ¹⁵For a voice declares from Dan, and publishes evil from the hills of Ephraim: ¹⁶“Tell the nations, behold, publish against Jerusalem, ‘Watchers come from a far country, and raise their voice against the cities of Judah. ¹⁷As keepers of a field, they are against her all around, because she has been rebellious against me,’” says Yahweh. ¹⁸“Your way and your doings have brought these things to you. This is your wickedness; for it is bitter, for it reaches to your heart.”

¹⁹My anguish, my anguish! I am pained at my very heart! My heart trembles within me. I can’t hold my peace, because you have heard,

O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. ²⁰Destruction on destruction is decreed, for the whole land is laid waste. Suddenly my tents are destroyed, and my curtains gone in a moment. ²¹How long will I see the standard and hear the sound of the trumpet?

²²“For my people are foolish. They don’t know me. They are foolish children, and they have no understanding. They are skillful in doing evil, but they don’t know how to do good.” ²³I saw the earth, and, behold, it was waste and void, and the heavens, and they had no light. ²⁴I saw the mountains, and behold, they trembled, and all the hills moved back and forth. ²⁵I saw, and behold, there was no man, and all the birds of the sky had fled. ²⁶I saw, and behold, the fruitful field was a wilderness, and all its cities were broken down at the presence of Yahweh, before his fierce anger. ²⁷For Yahweh says, “The whole land will be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end. ²⁸For this the earth will mourn, and the heavens above be black, because I have spoken it. I have planned it, and I have not repented, neither will I turn back from it.”

²⁹Every city flees for the noise of the horsemen and archers. They go into the thickets, and climb up on the rocks. Every city is forsaken, and not a man dwells therein. ³⁰You, when you are made desolate, what will you do? Though you clothe yourself with scarlet, though you deck yourself with ornaments of gold, though you enlarge your eyes with makeup, you make yourself beautiful in vain. Your lovers despise you. They seek your life. ³¹For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, the anguish as of her who gives birth to her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, who gasps for breath, who spreads her hands, saying, “Woe is me now! For my soul faints before the murderers.”

5 “Run back and forth through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in its wide places, if you can find a man, if there is anyone who does justly, who seeks truth, then I will pardon her. ²Though they say, 'As Yahweh lives,' surely they swear falsely."

³O Yahweh, don't your eyes look on truth? You have stricken them, but they were not grieved. You have consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction. They have made their faces harder than a rock. They have refused to return.

⁴Then I said, "Surely these are poor. They are foolish; for they don't know the Yahweh's way, nor the law of their God. ⁵I will go to the great men and will speak to them, for they know the way of Yahweh, and the law of their God." But these with one accord have broken the yoke, and burst the bonds. ⁶Therefore a lion out of the forest will kill them. A wolf of the evenings will destroy them. A leopard will watch against their cities. Everyone who goes out there will be torn in pieces, because their transgressions are many and their backsliding has increased.

⁷"How can I pardon you? Your children have forsaken me, and sworn by what are no gods. When I had fed them to the full, they committed adultery, and assembled themselves in troops at the prostitutes' houses. ⁸They were as fed horses roaming at large. Everyone neighed after his neighbor's wife. ⁹Shouldn't I punish them for these things?" says Yahweh. "Shouldn't my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?"

¹⁰"Go up on her walls, and destroy; but don't make a full end. Take away her branches, for they are not Yahweh's. ¹¹For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me," says Yahweh.

¹²They have denied Yahweh, and said, "It is not he. Evil will won't come on us. We won't see sword or famine. ¹³The prophets will become wind, and the word is not in them. Thus it will be done to them."

¹⁴Therefore Yahweh, the God of Armies says, "Because you speak this word, behold, I will make my words in your mouth fire, and this people wood, and it will devour them. ¹⁵Behold, I will bring a nation on you from far away, house of Israel," says Yahweh. "It is a mighty nation. It is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you don't know and don't understand what they say. ¹⁶Their quiver is an open tomb. They are all mighty men. ¹⁷They will eat up your harvest and your bread, which your sons and your daughters should eat. They will eat up your flocks and your herds. They will eat up your vines and your fig trees. They will beat down your fortified cities in which you trust with the sword.

¹⁸"But even in those days," says Yahweh, "I will not make a full end of you. ¹⁹It will happen when you say, 'Why has Yahweh our God done all these things to us?' Then you shall say to them, 'Just as you have forsaken me and served foreign gods in your land, so you will serve strangers in a land that is not yours.'

²⁰"Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, ²¹'Hear this now, foolish people without understanding, who have eyes, and don't see, who have ears, and don't hear: ²²Don't you fear me?' says Yahweh 'Won't you tremble at my presence, who have placed the sand for the bound of the sea, by a perpetual decree, that it can't pass it? Though its waves toss themselves, yet they can't prevail. Though they roar, they still can't pass over it.'

²³"But this people has a revolting and a rebellious heart. They have revolted and gone. ²⁴They don't say in their heart, 'Let's now fear Yahweh our God, who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season, who preserves to us the appointed weeks of the harvest.'

²⁵"Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good from you. ²⁶For wicked men are found among my people. They watch, as fowlers lie in wait. They set a trap. They catch men. ²⁷As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit. Therefore they have become great, and grew rich. ²⁸They have grown fat. They shine; yes, they excel in deeds of wickedness. They don't plead the cause, the cause of the fatherless, that they may prosper; and they don't defend the rights of the needy.

²⁹ "Shouldn't I punish for these things?" says Yahweh. "Shouldn't my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?"

³⁰ "An astonishing and horrible thing has happened in the land. ³¹ The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests rule by their own authority; and my people love to have it so. What will you do in the end of it?"

6 "Flee for safety, you children of Benjamin, out of the middle of Jerusalem! Blow the trumpet in Tekoa and raise up a signal on Beth Haccherem, for evil looks out from the north with a great destruction. ² I will cut off the beautiful and delicate one, the daughter of Zion. ³ Shepherds with their flocks will come to her. They will pitch their tents against her all around. They will feed everyone in his place."

⁴ "Prepare war against her! Arise! Let's go up at noon. Woe to us! For the day declines, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. ⁵ Arise! Let's go up by night, and let's destroy her palaces." ⁶ For Yahweh of Armies said, "Cut down trees, and cast up a mound against Jerusalem. This is the city to be visited. She is wholly oppression within herself. ⁷ As a well produces its waters, so she produces her wickedness. Violence and destruction is heard in her. Sickness and wounds are continually before me. ⁸ Be instructed, Jerusalem, lest my soul be alienated from you, lest I make you a desolation, an uninhabited land."

⁹ Yahweh of Armies says, "They will thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel like a vine. Turn again your hand as a grape gatherer into the baskets."

¹⁰ To whom should I speak and testify, that they may hear? Behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they can't listen. Behold, Yahweh's word has become a reproach to them. They have no delight in it. ¹¹ Therefore I am full of Yahweh's wrath. I am weary with holding it in.

"Pour it out on the children in the street, and on the assembly of young men together; for even the husband with the wife will be taken,

the aged with him who is full of days.

¹² Their houses will be turned to others, their fields and their wives together; for I will stretch out my hand on the inhabitants of the land, says Yahweh."

¹³ "For from their least even to their greatest, everyone is given to covetousness.

From the prophet even to the priest, everyone deals falsely.

¹⁴ They have healed also the hurt of my people superficially, saying, 'Peace, peace!' when there is no peace.

¹⁵ Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination?

No, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush.

Therefore they will fall among those who fall. When I visit them, they will be cast down," says Yahweh.

¹⁶ Yahweh says, "Stand in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, 'Where is the good way?' and walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls. But they said, 'We will not walk in it.' ¹⁷ I set watchmen over you, saying, 'Listen to the sound of the trumpet!' But they said, 'We will not listen!' ¹⁸ Therefore hear, you nations, and know, congregation, what is among them. ¹⁹ Hear, earth! Behold, I will bring evil on this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not listened to my words; and as for my law, they have rejected it. ²⁰ To what purpose does frankincense from Sheba come to me, and the sweet cane from a far country? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable, and your sacrifices are not pleasing to me."

tion will be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. ²³They take hold of bow and spear. They are cruel, and have no mercy. Their voice roars like the sea, and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Zion.”

²⁴We have heard its report. Our hands become feeble. Anguish has taken hold of us, and pains as of a woman in labor. ²⁵Don't go out into the field or walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and terror are on every side. ²⁶Daughter of my people, clothe yourself with sackcloth, and wallow in ashes! Mourn, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation, for the destroyer will suddenly come on us.

²⁷“I have made you a tester of metals and a fortress among my people, that you may know and try their way. ²⁸They are all grievous rebels, going around to slander. They are bronze and iron. All of them deal corruptly. ²⁹The bellows blow fiercely. The lead is consumed in the fire. In vain they go on refining, for the wicked are not plucked away. ³⁰Men will call them rejected silver, because Yahweh has rejected them.”

7 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ²“Stand in the gate of Yahweh's house, and proclaim this word there, and say, ‘Hear Yahweh's word, all you of Judah, who enter in at these gates to worship Yahweh.’”

³Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says, “Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. ⁴Don't trust in lying words, saying, ‘Yahweh's temple, Yahweh's temple, Yahweh's temple, are these.’ ⁵For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings, if you thoroughly execute justice between a man and his neighbor; ⁶if you don't oppress the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, and don't shed innocent blood in this place, and don't walk after other gods to your own hurt; ⁷then I will cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, from of old even forever more. ⁸Behold, you trust in lying words that can't profit. ⁹Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods that you have not known, ¹⁰then come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, ‘We are delivered,’ that you may do all these abominations? ¹¹Has this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I myself have seen it,” says Yahweh.

¹²“But go now to my place which was in Shiloh, where I caused my name to dwell at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel. ¹³Now, because you have done all these works,” says Yahweh, “and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you didn't hear; and I called you, but you didn't answer; ¹⁴therefore I will do to the house which is called by my name, in which you trust, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I did to Shiloh. ¹⁵I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brothers, even the whole offspring* of Ephraim.

¹⁶“Therefore don't pray for this people. Don't lift up a cry or prayer for them or make intercession to me; for I will not hear you. ¹⁷Don't you see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁸The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead the dough, to make cakes to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke me to anger. ¹⁹Do they provoke me to anger?” says Yahweh. “Don't they provoke themselves, to the confusion of their own faces?”

²⁰Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: “Behold, my anger and my wrath will be poured out on this place, on man, on animal, on the trees of the field, and on the fruit of the ground; and it will burn and will not be quenched.”

*7:15 or, seed

²¹Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: “Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices and eat meat. ²²For I didn’t speak to your fathers or command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices; ²³but this thing I commanded them, saying, ‘Listen to my voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be my people. Walk in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you.’ ²⁴But they didn’t listen or turn their ear, but walked in their own counsels and in the stubbornness of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward. ²⁵Since the day that your fathers came out of the land of Egypt to this day, I have sent to you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them. ²⁶Yet they didn’t listen to me or incline their ear, but made their neck stiff. They did worse than their fathers.

²⁷“You shall speak all these words to them, but they will not listen to you. You shall also call to them, but they will not answer you. ²⁸You shall tell them, ‘This is the nation that has not listened to Yahweh their God’s voice, nor received instruction. Truth has perished, and is cut off from their mouth.’ ²⁹Cut off your hair, and throw it away, and take up a lamentation on the bare heights; for Yahweh has rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

³⁰“For the children of Judah have done that which is evil in my sight,” says Yahweh. “They have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. ³¹They have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I didn’t command, nor did it come into my mind. ³²Therefore behold, the days come”, says Yahweh, “that it will no more be called ‘Topheth’ or ‘The valley of the son of Hinnom’, but ‘The valley of Slaughter’; for they will bury in Topheth until there is no place to bury. ³³The dead bodies of this people will be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth. No one will frighten them away. ³⁴Then I will cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride; for the land will become a waste.”

8 “At that time,” says Yahweh, “they will bring the bones of the kings of Judah, the bones of his princes, the bones of the priests, the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves. ²They will spread them before the sun, the moon, and all the army of the sky, which they have loved, which they have served, after which they have walked, which they have sought, and which they have worshiped. They will not be gathered or be buried. They will be like dung on the surface of the earth. ³Death will be chosen rather than life by all the residue that remain of this evil family, that remain in all the places where I have driven them,” says Yahweh of Armies. ⁴“Moreover you shall tell them, ‘Yahweh says:

“‘Do men fall, and not rise up again?

Does one turn away, and not return?

⁵Why then have the people of Jerusalem fallen back by a perpetual backsliding?

They cling to deceit.

They refuse to return.

⁶I listened and heard, but they didn’t say what is right.

No one repents of his wickedness, saying, “What have I done?”

Everyone turns to his course,

as a horse that rushes headlong in the battle.

⁷Yes, the stork in the sky knows her appointed times.

The turtledove, the swallow, and the crane observe the time of their coming;

but my people don’t know Yahweh’s law.

⁸“How do you say, “We are wise, and Yahweh’s law is with us?”

But, behold, the false pen of the scribes has made that a lie.

⁹ The wise men are disappointed.

They are dismayed and trapped.

Behold, they have rejected Yahweh's word.

What kind of wisdom is in them?

¹⁰ Therefore I will give their wives to others and their fields to those who will possess them.

For everyone from the least even to the greatest is given to covetousness;

from the prophet even to the priest everyone deals falsely.

¹¹ They have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying,

"Peace, peace," when there is no peace.

¹² Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination?

No, they were not at all ashamed.

They couldn't blush.

Therefore they will fall among those who fall.

In the time of their visitation they will be cast down, says Yahweh.

¹³ "I will utterly consume them, says Yahweh. No grapes will be on the vine, no figs on the fig tree,

and the leaf will fade.

The things that I have given them will pass away from them."

¹⁴ "Why do we sit still?

Assemble yourselves!

Let's enter into the fortified cities, and let's be silent there;

for Yahweh our God has put us to silence, and given us poisoned water to drink, because we have sinned against Yahweh.

¹⁵ We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and behold, dismay!

¹⁶ The snorting of his horses is heard from Dan.

The whole land trembles at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones;

for they have come, and have devoured the land and all that is in it,

the city and those who dwell therein."

¹⁷ "For, behold, I will send serpents, adders among you,

which will not be charmed;

and they will bite you," says Yahweh.

¹⁸ Oh that I could comfort myself against sorrow!

My heart is faint within me.

¹⁹ Behold, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people from a land that is very far off:

"Isn't Yahweh in Zion?

Isn't her King in her?"

"Why have they provoked me to anger with their engraved images, and with foreign idols?"

²⁰ "The harvest is past.

The summer has ended,

and we are not saved."

²¹ For the hurt of the daughter of my people, I am hurt.

I mourn.

Dismay has taken hold of me.

²² Is there no balm in Gilead?

Is there no physician there?

Why then isn't the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

9 Oh that my head were waters,

and my eyes a spring of tears,

that I might weep day and night

for the slain of the daughter of my people!

² Oh that I had in the wilderness

a lodging place of wayfaring men;

that I might leave my people,

and go from them!

For they are all adulterers,

an assembly of treacherous men.

³ "They bend their tongue,

as their bow, for falsehood.

They have grown strong in the land,

but not for truth;

for they proceed from evil to evil,

and they don't know me," says Yahweh.

⁴ "Everyone beware of his neighbor, and don't trust in any brother;

for every brother will utterly supplant,

and every neighbor will go around like a slanderer.

⁵ Friends deceive each other,

and will not speak the truth.

They have taught their tongue to speak lies.

They weary themselves committing iniquity.

6 Your habitation is in the middle of deceit.

Through deceit, they refuse to know me," says Yahweh.

7 Therefore Yahweh of Armies says,

"Behold, I will melt them and test them;

for how should I deal with the daughter of my people?"

8 Their tongue is a deadly arrow.

It speaks deceit.

One speaks peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth,

but in his heart, he waits to ambush him.

9 Shouldn't I punish them for these things?" says Yahweh.

"Shouldn't my soul be avenged on a nation such as this?"

10 I will weep and wail for the mountains, and lament for the pastures of the wilderness, because they are burned up, so that no one passes through;

Men can't hear the voice of the livestock.

Both the birds of the sky and the animals have fled.

They are gone.

11 "I will make Jerusalem heaps,

a dwelling place of jackals.

I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant."

12 Who is wise enough to understand this? Who is he to whom the mouth of Yahweh has spoken, that he may declare it? Why has the land perished and burned up like a wilderness, so that no one passes through?

13 Yahweh says, "Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice or walked in my ways, 14 but have walked after the stubbornness of their own heart and after the Baals, which their fathers taught them." 15 Therefore Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says, "Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood and give them poisoned water to drink. 16 I will scatter them also among the nations, whom neither they nor their fathers have known. I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them."

17 Yahweh of Armies says,

"Consider, and call for the mourning women, that they may come.

Send for the skillful women, that they may come.

18 Let them make haste and take up a wailing for us,

that our eyes may run down with tears and our eyelids gush out with waters.

19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, 'How we are ruined!

We are greatly confounded because we have forsaken the land, because they have cast down our dwellings.'" 20 Yet hear Yahweh's word, you women.

Let your ear receive the word of his mouth.

Teach your daughters wailing.

Everyone teach her neighbor a lamentation.

21 For death has come up into our windows.

It has entered into our palaces to cut off the children from outside,

and the young men from the streets.

22 Speak, "Yahweh says,

"The dead bodies of men will fall as dung on the open field,

and as the handful after the harvester.

No one will gather them."

23 Yahweh says,

"Don't let the wise man glory in his wisdom.

Don't let the mighty man glory in his might.

Don't let the rich man glory in his riches.

24 But let him who glories glory in this,

that he has understanding, and knows me, that I am Yahweh who exercises loving kindness, justice, and righteousness in the earth, for I delight in these things," says Yahweh.

25 "Behold, the days come," says Yahweh, "that I will punish all those who are circumcised only in their flesh: 26 Egypt, Judah, Edom, the children of Ammon, Moab, and all who have the corners of their hair cut off, who dwell in the wilderness, for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart.”

10 Hear the word which Yahweh speaks to you, house of Israel! ²Yahweh says, “Don’t learn the way of the nations, and don’t be dismayed at the signs of the sky; for the nations are dismayed at them.

³For the customs of the peoples are vanity; for one cuts a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman with the ax.

⁴They deck it with silver and with gold. They fasten it with nails and with hammers, so that it can’t move.

⁵They are like a palm tree, of turned work, and don’t speak.

They must be carried, because they can’t move. Don’t be afraid of them; for they can’t do evil, neither is it in them to do good.”

⁶There is no one like you, Yahweh.

You are great, and your name is great in might.

⁷Who shouldn’t fear you, King of the nations?

For it belongs to you. Because among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their royal estate, there is no one like you.

⁸But they are together brutish and foolish, instructed by idols!

It is just wood.

⁹There is silver beaten into plates, which is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the engraver and of the hands of the goldsmith.

Their clothing is blue and purple. They are all the work of skillful men.

¹⁰But Yahweh is the true God.

He is the living God, and an everlasting King. At his wrath, the earth trembles.

The nations aren’t able to withstand his indignation.

¹¹“You shall say this to them: “The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth will perish from the earth, and from under the heavens.””

¹²God has made the earth by his power. He has established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding has he stretched out the heavens.

¹³When he utters his voice, the waters in the heavens roar, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth.

He makes lightnings for the rain, and brings the wind out of his treasuries.

¹⁴Every man has become brutish and without knowledge.

Every goldsmith is disappointed by his engraved image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

¹⁵They are vanity, a work of delusion. In the time of their visitation they will perish.

¹⁶The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the maker of all things; and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance: Yahweh of Armies is his name.

¹⁷Gather up your wares out of the land, you who live under siege.

¹⁸For Yahweh says, “Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and will distress them, that they may feel it.”

¹⁹Woe is me because of my injury!

My wound is serious; but I said, “Truly this is my grief, and I must bear it.”

²⁰My tent has been destroyed, and all my cords are broken. My children have gone away from me, and they are no more.

There is no one to spread my tent any more, to set up my curtains.

²¹For the shepherds have become brutish, and have not inquired of Yahweh.

Therefore they have not prospered,
and all their flocks have scattered.
²² The voice of news, behold, it comes,
and a great commotion out of the north country,
to make the cities of Judah a desolation,
a dwelling place of jackals.
²³ Yahweh, I know that the way of man is not in himself.
It is not in man who walks to direct his steps.
²⁴ Yahweh, correct me, but gently;
not in your anger,
lest you reduce me to nothing.
²⁵ Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't know you,
and on the families that don't call on your
name;
for they have devoured Jacob.
Yes, they have devoured him, consumed him,
and have laid waste his habitation.

11 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ² "Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem; ³ and say to them, Yahweh, the God of Israel says:
'Cursed is the man who doesn't hear the words of this covenant, ⁴ which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace,' saying, 'Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you; so you shall be my people, and I will be your God; ⁵ that I may establish the oath which I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey,' as it is today."

Then I answered, and said, "Amen,
Yahweh."

⁶ Yahweh said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, 'Hear the words of this covenant, and do them. ⁷ For I earnestly protested to your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even to this day, rising early and protesting, saying, "Obey my voice." ⁸ Yet they didn't obey, nor turn their ear, but everyone walked in the stubbornness of their evil heart. Therefore I brought on them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they didn't do them."

⁹ Yahweh said to me, "A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁰ They have turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, who refused to hear my words. They have gone after other gods to serve them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers. ¹¹ Therefore Yahweh says, 'Behold, I will bring evil on them, which they will not be able to escape; and they will cry to me, but I will not listen to them. ¹² Then the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and cry to the gods to which they offer incense, but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble. ¹³ For according to the number of your cities are your gods, Judah;
and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have you set up altars to the shameful thing, even altars to burn incense to Baal.'

¹⁴ "Therefore don't pray for this people.
Don't lift up cry or prayer for them; for I will not hear them in the time that they cry to me because of their trouble.

¹⁵ What has my beloved to do in my house, since she has behaved lewdly with many,
and the holy flesh has passed from you?

When you do evil,
then you rejoice."

¹⁶ Yahweh called your name, "A green olive tree,

beautiful with goodly fruit."

With the noise of a great roar he has kindled fire on it,

and its branches are broken.

¹⁷ For Yahweh of Armies, who planted you, has pronounced evil against you, because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done to themselves in provoking me to anger by offering incense to Baal.

18 Yahweh gave me knowledge of it, and I knew it. Then you showed me their doings.
 19 But I was like a gentle lamb that is led to the slaughter. I didn't know that they had devised plans against me, saying,
 "Let's destroy the tree with its fruit, and let's cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered."
 20 But, Yahweh of Armies, who judges righteously, who tests the heart and the mind,
 I will see your vengeance on them;
 for to you I have revealed my cause.

21 "Therefore Yahweh says concerning the men of Anathoth, who seek your life, saying, 'You shall not prophesy in Yahweh's name, that you not die by our hand;'
 22 therefore Yahweh of Armies says, 'Behold, I will punish them. The young men will die by the sword. Their sons and their daughters will die by famine.
 23 There will be no remnant to them, for I will bring evil on the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.'"

12 You are righteous, Yahweh, when I contend with you;
 yet I would like to reason the cause with you. Why does the way of the wicked prosper?
 Why are they all at ease who deal very treacherously?
 2 You have planted them. Yes, they have taken root.
 They grow. Yes, they produce fruit.
 You are near in their mouth, and far from their heart.
 3 But you, Yahweh, know me.
 You see me, and test my heart toward you.
 Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.
 4 How long will the land mourn, and the herbs of the whole country wither?
 Because of the wickedness of those who dwell therein,
 the animals and birds are consumed; because they said,
 "He won't see our latter end."

5 "If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, then how can you contend with horses?
 Though in a land of peace you are secure, yet how will you do in the pride of the Jordan?
 6 For even your brothers, and the house of your father, even they have dealt treacherously with you! Even they have cried aloud after you!
 Don't believe them,
 though they speak beautiful words to you.
 7 "I have forsaken my house.
 I have cast off my heritage.
 I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.
 8 My heritage has become to me as a lion in the forest.
 She has uttered her voice against me. Therefore I have hated her.
 9 Is my heritage to me as a speckled bird of prey?
 Are the birds of prey against her all around?
 Go, assemble all the animals of the field.
 Bring them to devour.
 10 Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard.
 They have trodden my portion under foot.
 They have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.
 11 They have made it a desolation.
 It mourns to me, being desolate.
 The whole land is made desolate, because no one cares.
 12 Destroyers have come on all the bare heights in the wilderness;
 for the sword of Yahweh devours from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land.
 No flesh has peace.
 13 They have sown wheat,
 and have reaped thorns.
 They have exhausted themselves, and profit nothing.
 You will be ashamed of your fruits,
 because of Yahweh's fierce anger."

¹⁴ Yahweh says, “Concerning all my evil neighbors, who touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: Behold, I will pluck them up from off their land, and will pluck up the house of Judah from among them. ¹⁵ It will happen that after I have plucked them up, I will return and have compassion on them. I will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land. ¹⁶ It will happen, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, ‘As Yahweh lives;’ even as they taught my people to swear by Baal, then they will be built up in the middle of my people. ¹⁷ But if they will not hear, then I will pluck up that nation, plucking up and destroying it,” says Yahweh.

13 Yahweh said to me, “Go, and buy yourself a linen belt, and put it on your waist, and don’t put it in water.”

² So I bought a belt according to Yahweh’s word, and put it on my waist.

³ Yahweh’s word came to me the second time, saying, ⁴ “Take the belt that you have bought, which is on your waist, and arise, go to the Euphrates, and hide it there in a cleft of the rock.”

⁵ So I went and hid it by the Euphrates, as Yahweh commanded me.

⁶ After many days, Yahweh said to me, “Arise, go to the Euphrates, and take the belt from there, which I commanded you to hide there.”

⁷ Then I went to the Euphrates, and dug, and took the belt from the place where I had hidden it; and behold, the belt was ruined. It was profitable for nothing.

⁸ Then Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ⁹ “Yahweh says, ‘In this way I will ruin the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. ¹⁰ This evil people, who refuse to hear my words, who walk in the stubbornness of their heart, and have gone after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, will even be as this belt, which is profitable for nothing.

¹¹ For as the belt clings to the waist of a man, so I have caused the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to cling to me,’ says Yahweh; ‘that they may be to me for a people, for a name, for praise, and for glory; but they would not hear.’

¹² “Therefore you shall speak to them this word: ‘Yahweh, the God of Israel says, “Every container should be filled with wine.”’ They will tell you, ‘Do we not certainly know that every container should be filled with wine?’ ¹³ Then tell them, ‘Yahweh says, “Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings who sit on David’s throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. ¹⁴ I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together,” says Yahweh: “I will not pity, spare, or have compassion, that I should not destroy them.”’”

¹⁵ Hear, and give ear.

Don’t be proud,
for Yahweh has spoken.

¹⁶ Give glory to Yahweh your God, before he causes darkness,
and before your feet stumble on the dark mountains,

and while you look for light,
he turns it into the shadow of death,
and makes it deep darkness.

¹⁷ But if you will not hear it,
my soul will weep in secret for your pride.
My eye will weep bitterly,
and run down with tears,

because Yahweh’s flock has been taken captive.

¹⁸ Say to the king and to the queen mother, “Humble yourselves.

Sit down, for your crowns have come down,
even the crown of your glory.

¹⁹ The cities of the South are shut up,
and there is no one to open them.
Judah is carried away captive: all of them.
They are wholly carried away captive.

²⁰ Lift up your eyes,
and see those who come from the north.
Where is the flock that was given to you,
your beautiful flock?

21 What will you say, when he sets over you as head those whom you have yourself taught to be friends to you?

Won't sorrows take hold of you, as of a woman in travail?

22 If you say in your heart,

"Why have these things come on me?"

Your skirts are uncovered because of the greatness of your iniquity, and your heels suffer violence.

23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots?

Then may you also do good,
who are accustomed to do evil.

24 "Therefore I will scatter them, as the stubble that passes away,
by the wind of the wilderness.

25 This is your lot,
the portion measured to you from me," says
Yahweh,

"because you have forgotten me,
and trusted in falsehood."

26 Therefore I will also uncover your skirts on your face,
and your shame will appear.

27 I have seen your abominations, even your adulteries,
and your neighing, the lewdness of your prostitution,

on the hills in the field.

Woe to you, Jerusalem!

You will not be made clean.

How long will it yet be?"

14 This is Yahweh's word that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought.

2 "Judah mourns,
and its gates languish.

They sit in black on the ground.

The cry of Jerusalem goes up.

3 Their nobles send their little ones to the waters.

They come to the cisterns,
and find no water.

They return with their vessels empty.

They are disappointed and confounded,
and cover their heads.

4 Because of the ground which is cracked, because no rain has been in the land,
the plowmen are disappointed.

They cover their heads.

5 Yes, the doe in the field also calves and forsakes her young,

because there is no grass.

6 The wild donkeys stand on the bare heights.
They pant for air like jackals.

Their eyes fail,

because there is no vegetation.

7 Though our iniquities testify against us, work for your name's sake, Yahweh;
for our rebellions are many.

We have sinned against you.

8 You hope of Israel,

its Savior in the time of trouble,

why should you be as a foreigner in the land,
and as a wayfaring man who turns aside to stay for a night?

9 Why should you be like a scared man,
as a mighty man who can't save?

Yet you, Yahweh, are in the middle of us,
and we are called by your name.

Don't leave us.

10 Yahweh says to this people,

"Even so they have loved to wander.

They have not restrained their feet.

Therefore Yahweh does not accept them.

Now he will remember their iniquity,
and punish them for their sins."

11 Yahweh said to me, "Don't pray for this people for their good. 12 When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and meal offering, I will not accept them; but I will consume them by the sword,
by famine, and by pestilence."

13 Then I said, "Ah, Lord Yahweh! Behold, the prophets tell them, 'You will not see the sword, neither will you have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place.'"

14 Then Yahweh said to me, "The prophets prophecy lies in my name. I didn't send them.
I didn't command them. I didn't speak to them. They prophecy to you a lying vision, divination, and a thing of nothing, and the deceit of their own heart. ¹⁵Therefore Yahweh says concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name, but I didn't send them, yet they say, 'Sword and famine will not be in this land.' Those prophets will be consumed by sword and famine. ¹⁶The people to whom they prophesy will be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword. They will have no one to bury them—they, their wives, their sons, or their daughters, for I will pour their wickedness on them.

¹⁷"You shall say this word to them:

"Let my eyes run down with tears night and day,

and let them not cease;

for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach,

with a very grievous wound.

¹⁸If I go out into the field, then, behold, the slain with the sword!

If I enter into the city, then, behold, those who are sick with famine! For both the prophet and the priest go about in the land, and have no knowledge."

¹⁹Have you utterly rejected Judah?

Has your soul loathed Zion?

Why have you struck us, and there is no healing for us?

We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and behold, dismay!

²⁰We acknowledge, Yahweh, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against you.

²¹Do not abhor us, for your name's sake.

Do not disgrace the throne of your glory.

Remember, and don't break your covenant with us.

²²Are there any among the vanities of the nations that can cause rain?

Or can the sky give showers?

Aren't you he, Yahweh our God?

Therefore we will wait for you;

for you have made all these things.

15 Then Yahweh said to me, "Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind would not turn toward this people. Cast them out of my sight, and let them go out!

²It will happen, when they ask you, 'Where shall we go out?' then you shall tell them, 'Yahweh says:

"Such as are for death, to death;

such as are for the sword, to the sword;

such as are for the famine, to the famine;

and such as are for captivity, to captivity."

³"I will appoint over them four kinds," says Yahweh: "the sword to kill, the dogs to tear, the birds of the sky, and the animals of the earth, to devour and to destroy. ⁴I will cause them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

⁵For who will have pity on you, Jerusalem?

Who will mourn you?

Who will come to ask of your welfare?

⁶You have rejected me," says Yahweh.

"You have gone backward.

Therefore I have stretched out my hand against you and destroyed you.

I am weary of showing compassion.

⁷I have winnowed them with a fan in the gates of the land.

I have bereaved them of children.

I have destroyed my people.

They didn't return from their ways.

⁸Their widows are increased more than the sand of the seas.

I have brought on them against the mother of the young men a destroyer at noonday.

I have caused anguish and terrors to fall on her suddenly.

⁹She who has borne seven languishes.

She has given up the spirit.

Her sun has gone down while it was yet day.

She has been disappointed and confounded.

I will deliver their residue to the sword before their enemies," says Yahweh.

¹⁰Woe is me, my mother, that you have borne me, a man of strife, and a man of contention to the whole earth!

I have not lent, neither have men lent to me;
yet every one of them curses me.

¹¹ Yahweh said,

“Most certainly I will strengthen you for good.
Most certainly I will cause the enemy to make supplication to you in the time of evil and in the time of affliction.

¹² Can one break iron,
even iron from the north, and bronze?

¹³ I will give your substance and your treasures for a plunder without price, and that for all your sins,
even in all your borders.

¹⁴ I will make them to pass with your enemies into a land which you don't know;
for a fire is kindled in my anger,
which will burn on you.”

¹⁵ Yahweh, you know.

Remember me, visit me,
and avenge me of my persecutors.
You are patient, so don't take me away.
Know that for your sake I have suffered reproach.

¹⁶ Your words were found,
and I ate them.
Your words were to me a joy and the rejoicing of my heart,
for I am called by your name, Yahweh, God
of Armies.

¹⁷ I didn't sit in the assembly of those who make merry and rejoice.

I sat alone because of your hand,
for you have filled me with indignation.

¹⁸ Why is my pain perpetual,
and my wound incurable,
which refuses to be healed?
Will you indeed be to me as a deceitful brook,
like waters that fail?

¹⁹ Therefore Yahweh says,
“If you return, then I will bring you again,
that you may stand before me;
and if you take out the precious from the vile,
you will be as my mouth.
They will return to you,
but you will not return to them.

²⁰ I will make you to this people a fortified bronze wall.

They will fight against you,
but they will not prevail against you;
for I am with you to save you and to deliver you,” says Yahweh.

²¹ “I will deliver you out of the hand of the
wicked,
and I will redeem you out of the hand of the terrible.”

¹⁶ Yahweh's word came also to me, saying,
² “You shall not take a wife, neither shall you have sons or daughters, in this place.”

³ For Yahweh says concerning the sons and concerning the daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them, and concerning their fathers who became their father in this land: ⁴ “They will die grievous deaths. They will not be lamented, neither will they be buried. They will be as dung on the surface of the ground. They will be consumed by the sword and by famine.
Their dead bodies will be food for the birds of the sky and for the animals of the earth.”

⁵ For Yahweh says, “Don't enter into the house of mourning. Don't go to lament. Don't bemoan them, for I have taken away my peace from this people,” says Yahweh, “even loving kindness and tender mercies. ⁶ Both great and small will die in this land. They will not be buried. Men won't lament for them, cut themselves, or make themselves bald for them.
⁷ Men won't break bread for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead. Men won't give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother.

⁸ “You shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and to drink.” ⁹ For Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says:
“Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.
¹⁰ It will happen, when you tell this people all these words, and they ask you, ‘Why has Yahweh pronounced all this great evil against us?' or 'What is our iniquity?' or 'What is our sin that we have committed against Yahweh our God?' ¹¹ then you shall tell them, 'Because your fathers have forsaken me,' says Yahweh, 'and have walked after other gods, have served them, have worshiped them, have forsaken me, and have not kept my law.' ¹² You have done evil more than your fathers, for behold, you each walk after the stubbornness of his evil heart, so that you don't listen to me. ¹³ Therefore I will cast you out of this land into the land that you have not known, neither you nor your fathers. There you will serve other gods day and night, for I will show you no favor.'

¹⁴ "Therefore behold, the days come," says Yahweh, "that it will no more be said, 'As Yahweh lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;' ¹⁵ but, 'As Yahweh lives, who brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the countries where he had driven them.' I will bring them again into their land that I gave to their fathers.

¹⁶ "Behold, I will send for many fishermen," says Yahweh, "and they will fish them up. Afterward I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them from every mountain, from every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks. ¹⁷ For my eyes are on all their ways. They are not hidden from my face. Their iniquity isn't concealed from my eyes. ¹⁸ First I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double, because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable things, and have filled my inheritance with their abominations."

¹⁹ Yahweh, my strength, and my stronghold, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the nations will come to you from the ends of the earth, and will say, "Our fathers have inherited nothing but lies, vanity and things in which there is no profit. ²⁰ Should a man make to himself gods which yet are no gods?"

²¹ "Therefore behold, I will cause them to know, this once I will cause them to know my hand and my might. Then they will know that my name is Yahweh."

17 "The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond. It is engraved on the tablet of their heart, and on the horns of your altars.

² Even their children remember their altars and their Asherah poles by the green trees on the high hills.

³ My mountain in the field, I will give your substance and all your treasures for a plunder, and your high places, because of sin, throughout all your borders.

⁴ You, even of yourself, will discontinue from your heritage that I gave you. I will cause you to serve your enemies in the land which you don't know, for you have kindled a fire in my anger which will burn forever."

⁵ Yahweh says: "Cursed is the man who trusts in man, relies on strength of flesh, and whose heart departs from Yahweh. ⁶ For he will be like a bush in the desert, and will not see when good comes, but will inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, an uninhabited salt land.

⁷ "Blessed is the man who trusts in Yahweh, and whose confidence is in Yahweh. ⁸ For he will be as a tree planted by the waters, who spreads out its roots by the river, and will not fear when heat comes, but its leaf will be green, and will not be concerned in the year of drought.

It won't cease from yielding fruit. ⁹ The heart is deceitful above all things and it is exceedingly corrupt. Who can know it?"

10 “I, Yahweh, search the mind.
I try the heart,
even to give every man according to his ways,
according to the fruit of his doings.”

11 As the partridge that sits on eggs which she has not laid,
so is he who gets riches, and not by right.
In the middle of his days, they will leave him.
At his end, he will be a fool.

12 A glorious throne, set on high from the beginning,
is the place of our sanctuary.

13 Yahweh, the hope of Israel,
all who forsake you will be disappointed.
Those who depart from me will be written in
the earth,

because they have forsaken Yahweh,
the spring of living waters.

14 Heal me, O Yahweh, and I will be healed.
Save me, and I will be saved;
for you are my praise.

15 Behold, they ask me,
“Where is Yahweh’s word?
Let it be fulfilled now.”

16 As for me, I have not hurried from being a shepherd after you.

I haven’t desired the woeful day. You know.
That which came out of my lips was before
your face.

17 Don’t be a terror to me.
You are my refuge in the day of evil.

18 Let them be disappointed who persecute
me,

but let not me be disappointed.
Let them be dismayed,
but don’t let me be dismayed.
Bring on them the day of evil,
and destroy them with double destruction.

19 Yahweh said this to me: “Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, through which the kings of Judah come in and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem. 20 Tell them, ‘Hear Yahweh’s word, you kings of Judah, all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates: 21 Yahweh says, “Be careful, and bear no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem. 22 Don’t carry a burden out of your houses on the Sabbath day. Don’t do any work, but make the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded your fathers. 23 But they didn’t listen. They didn’t turn their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, and might not receive instruction. 24 It will happen, if you diligently listen to me,” says Yahweh, “to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but to make the Sabbath day holy, to do no work therein; 25 then there will enter in by the gates of this city kings and princes sitting on David’s throne, riding in chariots and on horses, they,

and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city will remain forever. 26 They will come from the cities of Judah, and from the places around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin, from the lowland, from the hill country, and from the South, bringing burnt offerings, sacrifices, meal offerings, and frankincense, and bringing sacrifices of thanksgiving, to Yahweh’s house. 27 But if you will not listen to me to make the Sabbath day holy, and not to bear a burden and enter in at the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle a fire in its gates, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem. It will not be quenched.””

18 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, 2 “Arise, and go down to the potter’s house, and there I will cause you to hear my words.”

3 Then I went down to the potter’s house, and behold, he was making something on the wheels. 4 When the vessel that he made of the clay was marred in the hand of the potter, he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then Yahweh’s word came to me, saying,
6 “House of Israel, can’t I do with you as this potter?” says Yahweh. “Behold, as the clay in the potter’s hand, so are you in my hand, house of Israel. 7 At the instant I speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy it; ⁸ if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turns from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do to them. ⁹ At the instant I speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it; ¹⁰ if they do that which is evil in my sight, that they not obey my voice, then I will repent of the good with which I said I would benefit them.

¹¹ “Now therefore, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, ‘Yahweh says: “Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a plan against you. Everyone return from his evil way now, and amend your ways and your doings.”’ ¹² But they say, ‘It is in vain; for we will walk after our own plans, and we will each follow the stubbornness of his evil heart.’”

¹³ Therefore Yahweh says: “Ask now among the nations, ‘Who has heard such things?’ The virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing.

¹⁴ Will the snow of Lebanon fail from the rock of the field?

Will the cold waters that flow down from afar be dried up?

¹⁵ For my people have forgotten me. They have burned incense to false gods. They have been made to stumble in their ways, in the ancient paths, to walk in byways, in a way not built up,

¹⁶ to make their land an astonishment, and a perpetual hissing.

Everyone who passes by it will be astonished, and shake his head.

¹⁷ I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy.

I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

¹⁸ Then they said, “Come! Let’s devise plans against Jeremiah; for the law won’t perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let’s strike him with the tongue, and let’s not give heed to any of his words.”

¹⁹ Give heed to me, Yahweh, and listen to the voice of those who contend with me.

²⁰ Should evil be recompensed for good?

For they have dug a pit for my soul.

Remember how I stood before you to speak good for them, to turn away your wrath from them.

²¹ Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and give them over to the power of the sword. Let their wives become childless and widows.

Let their men be killed and their young men struck by the sword in battle.

²² Let a cry be heard from their houses when you bring a troop suddenly on them;

for they have dug a pit to take me and hidden snares for my feet.

²³ Yet, Yahweh, you know all their counsel against me to kill me.

Don’t forgive their iniquity.

Don’t blot out their sin from your sight,

Let them be overthrown before you.

Deal with them in the time of your anger.

19 Thus said Yahweh, “Go, and buy a potter’s earthen container, and take some of the elders of the people, and of the elders of the priests; ² and go out to the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the gate Harsith, and proclaim there the words that I will tell you. ³ Say, ‘Hear Yahweh’s word, kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem: Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says, “Behold, I will bring evil on this place, which whoever hears, his ears will tingle. ⁴ Because they have forsaken me, and have defiled this place, and have burned incense in it to other gods that they didn’t know, they, their fathers, and the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents, ⁵ and have built the high places of Baal, to burn their children in the fire for burnt offerings to Baal, which I didn’t command, nor speak, which didn’t even enter into my mind. ⁶ Therefore, behold, the days come,” says Yahweh, “that this place will no more be called ‘Topheth’, nor ‘The Valley of the son of Hinnom’, but ‘The valley of Slaughter’.

⁷“I will make the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem void in this place. I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of those who seek their life. I will give their dead bodies to be food for the birds of the sky and for the animals of the earth. ⁸I will make this city an astonishment and a hissing. Everyone who passes by it will be astonished and hiss because of all its plagues. ⁹I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters. They will each eat the flesh of his friend in the siege and in the distress, with which their enemies, and those who seek their life, will distress them.”

¹⁰“Then you shall break the container in the sight of the men who go with you, ¹¹and shall tell them, ‘Yahweh of Armies says: “Even so I will break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter’s vessel, that can’t be made whole again. They will bury in Topheth, until there is no place to bury. ¹²This is what I will do to this place,” says Yahweh, “and to its inhabitants, even making this city as Topheth. ¹³The houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, which are defiled, will be as the place of Topheth, even all the houses on whose roofs they have burned incense to all the army of the sky and have poured out drink offerings to other gods.””

¹⁴Then Jeremiah came from Topheth, where Yahweh had sent him to prophesy, and he stood in the court of Yahweh’s house, and said to all the people: ¹⁵“Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says, ‘Behold, I will bring on this city and on all its towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because they have made their neck stiff, that they may not hear my words.””

20 Now Pashhur, the son of Immer the priest, who was chief officer in Yahweh’s house, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things. ²Then Pashhur struck Jeremiah the prophet and put him in the stocks that were in the upper gate of Benjamin, which was in Yahweh’s house. ³On the next day, Pashhur released Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, “Yahweh has not called your name Pashhur, but Magormissabib.† ⁴For Yahweh says, ‘Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends. They will fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes will see it. I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will carry them captive to Babylon, and will kill them with the sword. ⁵Moreover I will give all the riches of this city, and all its gains, and all its precious things, yes, I will give all the treasures of the kings of Judah into the hand of their enemies. They will make them captives, take them, and carry them to Babylon. ⁶You, Pashhur, and all who dwell in your house will go into captivity. You will come to Babylon, and there you will die, and there you will be buried, you, and all your friends, to whom you have prophesied falsely.”

⁷Yahweh, you have persuaded me, and I was persuaded.

You are stronger than I, and have prevailed. I have become a laughingstock all day. Everyone mocks me.

⁸For as often as I speak, I cry out; I cry, “Violence and destruction!”

because Yahweh’s word has been made a reproach to me, and a derision, all day.

⁹If I say, I will not make mention of him, or speak any more in his name, then there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones.

I am weary with holding it in. I can’t.

¹⁰For I have heard the defaming of many, “Terror on every side!

Denounce, and we will denounce him!” say all my familiar friends,

†20:3 “Magormissabib” means “surrounded by terror”

those who watch for my fall.

“Perhaps he will be persuaded,
and we will prevail against him,
and we will take our revenge on him.”

11 But Yahweh is with me as an awesome mighty one.

Therefore my persecutors will stumble,
and they won't prevail.

They will be utterly disappointed,
because they have not dealt wisely, even with an everlasting dishonor which will never be forgotten.

12 But Yahweh of Armies, who tests the righteous,

who sees the heart and the mind,
let me see your vengeance on them,
for I have revealed my cause to you.

13 Sing to Yahweh!

Praise Yahweh,
for he has delivered the soul of the needy from the hand of evildoers.

14 Cursed is the day in which I was born.

Don't let the day in which my mother bore me be blessed.

15 Cursed is the man who brought news to my father, saying,

“A boy is born to you,” making him very glad.

16 Let that man be as the cities which Yahweh overthrew,

and didn't repent.

Let him hear a cry in the morning,
and shouting at noontime;

17 because he didn't kill me from the womb.

So my mother would have been my grave,
and her womb always great.

18 Why did I come out of the womb to see labor and sorrow,

that my days should be consumed with shame?

21 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, when king Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur the son of Malchijah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, saying, ² “Please inquire of Yahweh for us; for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon makes war against us. Perhaps Yahweh will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may withdraw from us.”

³ Then Jeremiah said to them, “Tell Zedekiah: ⁴ Yahweh, the God of Israel says, “Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans who besiege you outside the walls; and I will gather them into the middle of this city. ⁵ I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, in wrath, and in great indignation. ⁶ I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and animal. They will die of a great pestilence. ⁷ Afterward,” says Yahweh, “I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, his servants, and the people, even those who are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life. He will strike them with the edge of the sword. He will not spare them, have pity, or have mercy.”

⁸ “You shall say to this people, ‘Yahweh says: “Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death. ⁹ He who remains in this city will die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goes out and passes over to the Chaldeans who besiege you,
he will live, and he will escape with his life.
¹⁰ For I have set my face on this city for evil, and not for good,” says Yahweh. “It will be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire.”

¹¹ “Concerning the house of the king of Judah, hear Yahweh's word: ¹² House of David,
Yahweh says,

“Execute justice in the morning, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor,
lest my wrath go out like fire,
and burn so that no one can quench it,
because of the evil of your doings.

13 Behold, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley, and of the rock of the plain,' says Yahweh.
'You that say, "Who would come down against us?"

or "Who would enter into our homes?"

14 I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, says Yahweh;
and I will kindle a fire in her forest,
and it will devour all that is around her.'"

22 Yahweh said, "Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak this word, there: 2 Hear Yahweh's word, king of Judah, who sits on David's throne, you, your servants, and your people who enter in by these gates. 3 Yahweh says: "Execute justice and righteousness, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor. Do no wrong. Do no violence to the foreigner, the fatherless, or the widow. Don't shed innocent blood in this place. 4 For if you do this thing indeed, then kings sitting on David's throne will enter in by the gates of this house, riding in chariots and on horses, he, his servants, and his people. 5 But if you will not hear these words, I swear by myself," says Yahweh, "that this house will become a desolation.'"

6 For Yahweh says concerning the house of the king of Judah:

"You are Gilead to me,
the head of Lebanon.

Yet surely I will make you a wilderness, cities which are not inhabited.

7 I will prepare destroyers against you,
everyone with his weapons,
and they will cut down your choice cedars,
and cast them into the fire.

8 "Many nations will pass by this city, and they will each ask his neighbor, 'Why has Yahweh done this to this great city?' 9 Then they will answer, 'Because they abandoned the covenant of Yahweh their God, worshiped other gods, and served them.'"

10 Don't weep for the dead.

Don't bemoan him;

but weep bitterly for him who goes away,

for he will return no more,
and not see his native country.

11 For Yahweh says touching Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, and who went out of this place: "He won't return there any more. 12 But he will die in the place where they have led him captive. He will see this land no more."

13 "Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness, and his rooms by injustice;

who uses his neighbor's service without wages,

and doesn't give him his hire;

14 who says, 'I will build myself a wide house and spacious rooms,'

and cuts out windows for himself;

with a cedar ceiling,

and painted with red.

15 "Should you reign, because you strive to excel in cedar?

Didn't your father eat and drink,

and do justice and righteousness?

Then it was well with him.

16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy;
so it was well, then.

Wasn't this to know me?"

says Yahweh.

17 But your eyes and your heart are only for your covetousness, for shedding innocent blood,

for oppression, and for doing violence."

18 Therefore Yahweh says concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah:

"They won't lament for him,

saying, 'Ah my brother!' or, 'Ah sister!'

They won't lament for him,

saying 'Ah lord!' or, 'Ah his glory!'

19 He will be buried with the burial of a donkey, drawn and cast out beyond the gates of Jerusalem."

20 "Go up to Lebanon, and cry.

Lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry from Abarim;

for all your lovers have been destroyed.

²¹ I spoke to you in your prosperity;
but you said, 'I will not listen.'
This has been your way from your youth,
that you didn't obey my voice.

²² The wind will feed all your shepherds, and your lovers will go into captivity.
Surely then you will be ashamed and confounded for all your wickedness.

²³ Inhabitant of Lebanon, who makes your nest in the cedars, how greatly to be pitied you will be when pangs come on you,
the pain as of a woman in travail!

²⁴ "As I live," says Yahweh, "though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet on my right hand, I would still pluck you from there. ²⁵ I would give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of them of whom you are afraid, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. ²⁶ I will cast you out with your mother who bore you into another country, where you were not born; and there you will die. ²⁷ But to the land to which their soul longs to return, there they will not return."

²⁸ Is this man Coniah a despised broken vessel?

Is he a vessel in which no one delights?
Why are they cast out, he and his offspring,
and cast into a land which they don't know?

²⁹ O earth, earth, earth, hear Yahweh's word!

³⁰ Yahweh says,
"Record this man as childless,
a man who will not prosper in his days;
for no more will a man of his offspring prosper,
sitting on David's throne,
and ruling in Judah."

23 "Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture!" says Yahweh. ² Therefore Yahweh, the God of Israel, says against the shepherds who feed my people: "You have scattered my flock, driven them away, and have not visited them. Behold,

I will visit on you the evil of your doings," says Yahweh. ³ "I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they will be fruitful and multiply.
⁴ I will set up shepherds over them, who will feed them. They will no longer be afraid or dismayed, neither will any be lacking," says
Yahweh.

⁵ "Behold, the days come," says Yahweh,
"that I will raise to David a righteous Branch,
and he will reign as king and deal wisely, and will execute justice and righteousness in
the land.

⁶ In his days Judah will be saved,
and Israel will dwell safely.
This is his name by which he will be called:
Yahweh our righteousness.

⁷ "Therefore behold, the days come," says Yahweh, "that they will no more say, 'As Yahweh lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;' ⁸ but, 'As Yahweh lives, who brought up and who led the offspring of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all the countries where I had driven them.' Then they will dwell in their own land."

⁹ Concerning the prophets:
My heart within me is broken.
All my bones shake.
I am like a drunken man,
and like a man whom wine has overcome,
because of Yahweh,
and because of his holy words.

¹⁰ For the land is full of adulterers;
for because of the curse the land mourns.
The pastures of the wilderness have dried up.
Their course is evil,
and their might is not right;

¹¹ for both prophet and priest are profane.
Yes, in my house I have found their wickedness," says Yahweh.

¹² Therefore their way will be to them as slippery places in the darkness.
They will be driven on,
and fall therein;

for I will bring evil on them,
even the year of their visitation,” says Yahweh.

¹³“I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria.

They prophesied by Baal,
and caused my people Israel to err.

¹⁴In the prophets of Jerusalem I have also seen a horrible thing:

they commit adultery and walk in lies.

They strengthen the hands of evildoers,
so that no one returns from his wickedness.

They have all become to me as Sodom,
and its inhabitants as Gomorrah.”

¹⁵Therefore Yahweh of Armies says concerning the prophets:

“Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink poisoned water;
for from the prophets of Jerusalem ungodliness has gone out into all the land.”

¹⁶Yahweh of Armies says,

“Don’t listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you.

They teach you vanity.

They speak a vision of their own heart,
and not out of the mouth of Yahweh.

¹⁷They say continually to those who despise
me,

‘Yahweh has said, “You will have peace;”’

and to everyone who walks in the stubbornness of his own heart they say,

‘No evil will come on you.’

¹⁸For who has stood in the council of
Yahweh,

that he should perceive and hear his word?

Who has listened to my word, and heard it?

¹⁹Behold, Yahweh’s storm, his wrath, has gone out.

Yes, a whirling storm:

It will burst on the head of the wicked.

²⁰Yahweh’s anger will not return until he has executed,

and until he has performed the intents of his heart.

In the latter days, you will understand it perfectly.

²¹I didn’t send these prophets, yet they ran.

I didn’t speak to them, yet they prophesied.

²²But if they had stood in my council, then they would have caused my people to hear my words,

and would have turned them from their evil
way,

and from the evil of their doings.

²³“Am I a God at hand,” says Yahweh,
“and not a God afar off?”

²⁴Can anyone hide himself in secret places
so that I can’t see him?” says Yahweh.

“Don’t I fill heaven and earth?” says Yahweh.

²⁵“I have heard what the prophets have said, who prophesy lies in my name, saying, ‘I had a dream! I had a dream!’ ²⁶How long will this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies, even the prophets of the deceit of their own heart? ²⁷They intend to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they each tell his neighbor, as their fathers forgot my name because of Baal.

²⁸The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream; and he who has my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the straw to the wheat?” says Yahweh. ²⁹“Isn’t my word like fire?” says Yahweh; “and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces?”

³⁰“Therefore behold, I am against the prophets,” says Yahweh, “who each steal my words from his neighbor. ³¹Behold, I am against the prophets,” says Yahweh, “who use their tongues, and say, ‘He says.’ ³²Behold, I am against those who prophesy lying dreams,” says Yahweh, “who tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their vain boasting; yet I didn’t send them or command them. They don’t profit this people at all,” says
Yahweh.

³³“When this people, or the prophet, or a priest, asks you, saying, ‘What is the message from Yahweh?’ Then you shall tell them, “‘What message? I will cast you off,’” says Yahweh.’ ³⁴As for the prophet, the priest, and the people, who say, ‘The message from Yahweh,’ I will even punish that man and his household. ³⁵You will say everyone to his neighbor, and everyone to his brother, ‘What has Yahweh answered?’ and, ‘What has Yahweh said?’³⁶ You will mention the message from Yahweh no more: for every man’s own word has become his message; for you have perverted the words of the living God, of Yahweh of Armies, our God.³⁷ You will say to the prophet, ‘What has Yahweh answered you?’ and, ‘What has Yahweh spoken?’³⁸ Although you say, ‘The message from Yahweh;’ therefore Yahweh says: ‘Because you say this word, “The message from Yahweh,” and I have sent to you, telling you not to say, “The message from Yahweh;”³⁹ therefore, behold, I will utterly forget you, and I will cast you off, and the city that I gave to you and to your fathers, away from my presence.⁴⁰ I will bring an everlasting reproach on you, and a perpetual shame, which will not be forgotten.”

24 Yahweh showed me, and behold, two baskets of figs were set before Yahweh’s temple, after Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the craftsmen and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.² One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first-ripe; and the other basket had very bad figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad.

³ Then Yahweh asked me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?”

I said, “Figs. The good figs are very good, and the bad are very bad, so bad that can’t be eaten.”

⁴ Yahweh’s word came to me, saying,⁵ “Yahweh, the God of Israel says: ‘Like these good figs, so I will regard the captives of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans, for good.’⁶ For I will set my eyes on them for good, and I will bring them again to this land. I will build them, and not pull them down. I will plant them, and not pluck them up.⁷ I will give them a heart to know me, that I am Yahweh. They will be my people, and I will be their God; for they will return to me with their whole heart.

⁸ “As the bad figs, which can’t be eaten, they are so bad,’ surely Yahweh says, ‘So I will give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the remnant of Jerusalem, who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt.⁹ I will even give them up to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth for evil; to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I will drive them.¹⁰ I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, until they are consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their fathers.”

25 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (this was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon),² which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem:³ From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, these twenty-three years, Yahweh’s word has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; but you have not listened.

⁴ Yahweh has sent to you all his servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them (but you have not listened or inclined your ear to hear),⁵ saying, “Return now everyone from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that Yahweh has given to you and to your fathers, from of old and even forever more.⁶ Don’t go after other gods to serve them or worship them, and don’t provoke me to anger with the work of your hands; then I will do you no harm.”

⁷ “Yet you have not listened to me,” says Yahweh; “that you may provoke me to anger with the work of your hands to your own hurt.”

⁸ Therefore Yahweh of Armies says: “Because you have not heard my words,⁹ behold, I will send and take all the families of the north," says Yahweh, "and I will send to Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against its inhabitants, and against all these nations around. I will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations. ¹⁰ Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the lamp. ¹¹ This whole land will be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations will serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

¹² "It will happen, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation," says Yahweh, "for their iniquity. I will make the land of the Chaldeans desolate forever. ¹³ I will bring on that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. ¹⁴ For many nations and great kings will make bondservants of them, even of them. I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the work of their hands."

¹⁵ For Yahweh, the God of Israel, says to me: "Take this cup of the wine of wrath from my hand, and cause all the nations to whom I send you to drink it. ¹⁶ They will drink, and reel back and forth, and be insane, because of the sword that I will send among them."

¹⁷ Then I took the cup at Yahweh's hand, and made all the nations to drink, to whom Yahweh had sent me: ¹⁸ Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, with its kings and its princes, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and a curse, as it is today; ¹⁹ Pharaoh king of Egypt, with his servants, his princes, and all his people; ²⁰ and all the mixed people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, all the kings of the Philistines, Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod; ²¹ Edom, Moab, and the children of Ammon; ²² and all the kings of Tyre, all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the isle which is beyond the sea; ²³ Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who have the corners of their beard cut off; ²⁴ and all the kings of Arabia, all the kings of the mixed people who dwell in the wilderness; ²⁵ and all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes; ²⁶ and all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world, which are on the surface of the earth. The king of She-shach will drink after them.

²⁷ "You shall tell them, 'Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: "Drink, and be drunk, vomit, fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.'" ²⁸ It shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at your hand to drink, then you shall tell them, 'Yahweh of Armies says: "You shall surely drink. ²⁹ For, behold, I begin to work evil at the city which is called by my name; and should you be utterly unpunished? You will not be unpunished; for I will call for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth, says Yahweh of Armies.'"

³⁰ "Therefore prophesy against them all these words, and tell them, "Yahweh will roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation. He will mightily roar against his fold. He will give a shout, as those who tread grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

³¹ A noise will come even to the end of the earth; for Yahweh has a controversy with the nations. He will enter into judgment with all flesh. As for the wicked, he will give them to the sword," says Yahweh."

³² Yahweh of Armies says, "Behold, evil will go out from nation to nation, and a great storm will be raised up from the uttermost parts of the earth."

³³ The slain of Yahweh will be at that day from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth. They won't be lamented. They won't be gathered or buried. They will be dung on the surface of the ground.

³⁴ Wail, you shepherds, and cry.

Wallow in dust, you leader of the flock; for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions have fully come, and you will fall like fine pottery.

³⁵ The shepherds will have no way to flee.

The leader of the flock will have no escape.

³⁶ A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and the wailing of the leader of the flock, for Yahweh destroys their pasture.

³⁷ The peaceful folds are brought to silence because of the fierce anger of Yahweh.

26 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from Yahweh: ² “Yahweh says: ‘Stand in the court of Yahweh’s house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in Yahweh’s house, all the words that I command you to speak to them. Don’t omit a word. ³ It may be they will listen, and every man turn from his evil way; that I may relent from the evil which I intend to do to them because of the evil of their doings.’ ⁴ You shall tell them, “Yahweh says: ‘If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you, ⁵ to listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I send to you, even rising up early and sending them, but you have not listened; ⁶ then I will make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.’”

⁷ The priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in Yahweh’s house. ⁸ When Jeremiah had finished speaking all that Yahweh had commanded him to speak to all the people, the priests and the prophets and all the people seized him, saying, “You shall surely die! ⁹ Why have you prophesied in Yahweh’s name, saying, ‘This house will be like Shiloh, and this city will be desolate, without inhabitant?’” All the people were crowded around Jeremiah in Yahweh’s house.

¹⁰ When the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king’s house to Yahweh’s house; and they sat in the entry of the new gate of Yahweh’s house. ¹¹ Then the priests and the prophets spoke to the princes and to all the people, saying, “This man is worthy of death; for he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears.”

¹² Then Jeremiah spoke to all the princes and to all the people, saying, “Yahweh sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard. ¹³ Now therefore amend your ways and your doings, and obey Yahweh your God’s voice; then Yahweh will relent from the evil that he has pronounced against you. ¹⁴ But as for me, behold, I am in your hand. Do with me what is good and right in your eyes. ¹⁵ Only know for certain that, if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood on yourselves, on this city, and on its inhabitants; for in truth Yahweh has sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears.”

¹⁶ Then the princes and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets: “This man is not worthy of death; for he has spoken to us in the name of Yahweh our God.”

¹⁷ Then certain of the elders of the land rose up, and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying, ¹⁸ “Micah the Morashtite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and he spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, ‘Yahweh of Armies says: “Zion will be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem will become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.’”

¹⁹ Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death? Didn’t he fear Yahweh, and entreat the favor of Yahweh, and Yahweh relented of the disaster which he had pronounced against them? We would commit great evil against our own souls that way!”

²⁰ There was also a man who prophesied in Yahweh's name, Uriah the son of She-maiah of Kiriath Jearim; and he prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah. ²¹ When Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men and all the princes heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Uriah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt. ²² Then Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him, into Egypt; ²³ and they fetched Uriah out of Egypt, and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who killed him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

²⁴ But the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so that they didn't give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

27 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ² Yahweh says to me: "Make bonds and bars, and put them on your neck. ³ Then send them to the king of Edom, to the king of Moab, to the king of the children of Ammon, to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers who come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah. ⁴ Give them a command to their masters, saying, 'Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says, "You shall tell your masters: ⁵ 'I have made the earth, the men, and the animals that are on the surface of the earth by my great power and by my outstretched arm. I give it to whom it seems right to me. ⁶ Now I have given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant. I have also given the animals of the field to him to serve him. ⁷ All the nations will serve him, his son, and his son's son, until the time of his own land comes. Then many nations and great kings will make him their bondservant.

⁸ "It will happen that I will punish the nation and the kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon,' says Yahweh, 'with the sword, with famine, and with pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand. ⁹ But as for you, don't listen to your prophets, to your diviners, to your dreams, to your soothsayers, or to your sorcerers, who speak to you, saying, "You shall not serve the king of Babylon;" ¹⁰ for they prophesy a lie to you, to remove you far from your land, so that I would drive you out, and you would perish. ¹¹ But the nation that brings their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serves him, that nation I will let remain in their own land,' says Yahweh; 'and they will till it and dwell in it.'"

¹² I spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, "Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. ¹³ Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as Yahweh has spoken concerning the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? ¹⁴ Don't listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, 'You shall not serve the king of Babylon;' for they prophesy a lie to you. ¹⁵ For I have not sent them," says Yahweh, "but they prophesy falsely in my name; that I may drive you out, and that you may perish, you, and the prophets who prophesy to you."

¹⁶ Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, Yahweh says, "Don't listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, 'Behold, the vessels of Yahweh's house will now shortly be brought again from Babylon;' for they prophesy a lie to you. ¹⁷ Don't listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon, and live. Why should this city become a desolation? ¹⁸ But if they are prophets, and if Yahweh's word is with them, let them now make intercession to Yahweh of Armies, that the vessels which are left in Yahweh's house, in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, don't go to Babylon. ¹⁹ For Yahweh of Armies says concerning the pillars, concerning the sea, concerning the bases, and concerning the rest of the vessels that are left in this city, ²⁰ which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon didn't take when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem; ²¹ yes, Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says concerning the vessels that are left in Yahweh's house, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem: ²² 'They will be carried to Babylon, and there they will be, until the day that I visit them,' says Yahweh; 'then I will bring them up, and restore them to this place.'

28 That same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, Hananiah the son of Azzur, the prophet, who was of Gibeon, spoke to me in Yahweh's house, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, ² "Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says, 'I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. ³ Within two full years I will bring again into this place all the vessels of Yahweh's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried to Babylon. ⁴ I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, who went to Babylon,' says Yahweh; 'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'"

⁵ Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people who stood in Yahweh's house, ⁶ even the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May Yahweh do so. May Yahweh perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring again the vessels of Yahweh's house, and all those who are captives, from Babylon to this place. ⁷ Nevertheless listen now to this word that I speak in your ears, and in the ears of all the people: ⁸ The prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, of evil, and of pestilence. ⁹ The prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet happens, then the prophet will be known, that Yahweh has truly sent him."

¹⁰ Then Hananiah the prophet took the bar from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and broke it. ¹¹ Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, "Yahweh says: 'Even so I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from off the neck of all the nations within two full years.'" Then the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

¹² Then Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, after Hananiah the prophet had broken the bar from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, ¹³ "Go, and tell Hananiah, saying, 'Yahweh says, "You have broken the bars of wood, but you have made in their place bars of iron." ¹⁴ For Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says, "I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they will serve him. I have also given him the animals of the field.'"

¹⁵ Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, "Listen, Hananiah! Yahweh has not sent you, but you make this people trust in a lie. ¹⁶ Therefore Yahweh says, 'Behold, I will send you away from off the surface of the earth. This year you will die, because you have spoken rebellion against Yahweh.'"

¹⁷ So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

29 Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the residue of the elders of the captivity, and to the priests, to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon, ² (after Jeconiah the king, the queen mother, the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the smiths, had departed from Jerusalem), ³ by the hand of Elashah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon). It said:

⁴Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says to all the captives whom I have caused to be carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon: ⁵“Build houses and dwell in them. Plant gardens and eat their fruit. ⁶Take wives and father sons and daughters. Take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters. Multiply there, and don’t be diminished. ⁷Seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray to Yahweh for it; for in its peace you will have peace.” ⁸For Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: “Don’t let your prophets who are among you and your diviners deceive you. Don’t listen to your dreams which you cause to be dreamed. ⁹For they prophesy falsely to you in my name. I have not sent them,” says Yahweh. ¹⁰For Yahweh says, “After seventy years are accomplished for Babylon, I will visit you and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. ¹¹For I know the thoughts that I think toward you,” says Yahweh, “thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you hope and a future. ¹²You shall call on me, and you shall go and pray to me, and I will listen to you. ¹³You shall seek me, and find me, when you search for me with all your heart. ¹⁴I will be found by you,” says Yahweh, “and I will turn again your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places where I have driven you, says Yahweh. I will bring you again to the place from where I caused you to be carried away captive.”

¹⁵Because you have said, “Yahweh has raised us up prophets in Babylon;” ¹⁶Yahweh says concerning the king who sits on David’s throne, and concerning all the people who dwell in this city, your brothers who haven’t gone with you into captivity; ¹⁷Yahweh of Armies says: “Behold, I will send on them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like rotten figs that can’t be eaten, they are so bad. ¹⁸I will pursue after them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, to be an object of horror, an astonishment, a hissing, and a reproach among all the nations where I have driven them, ¹⁹because they have not listened to my words,” says Yahweh, “with which I sent to them my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but you would not hear,” says Yahweh.

²⁰Hear therefore Yahweh’s word, all you captives, whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon. ²¹Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in my name: “Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he will kill them before your eyes. ²²A curse will be taken up about them by all the captives of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, ‘Yahweh make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire;’ ²³because they have done foolish things in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbors’ wives, and have spoken words in my name falsely, which I didn’t command them. I am he who knows, and am witness,” says Yahweh.

²⁴Concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite you shall speak, saying, ²⁵“Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says, ‘Because you have sent letters in your own name to all the people who are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, and to all the priests, saying, ²⁶“Yahweh has made you priest in the place of Jehoiada the priest, that there may be officers in Yahweh’s house, for every man who is crazy, and makes himself a prophet, that you should put him in the stocks and in shackles. ²⁷Now therefore, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who makes himself a prophet to you, ²⁸because he has sent to us in Babylon, saying, The captivity is long. Build houses, and dwell in them. Plant gardens, and eat their fruit?””

²⁹Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the hearing of Jeremiah the prophet. ³⁰Then Yahweh’s word came to Jeremiah, saying, ³¹“Send to all of the captives, saying, ‘Yahweh says concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: “Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I didn’t send him, and he has caused you to trust in a lie;” ³²therefore Yahweh says, “Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his offspring. He will not have a man to dwell among this people. He won’t see the good that I will do to my people,” says Yahweh, “because he has spoken rebellion against Yahweh.””

30 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ²“Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, ‘Write all the words that I have spoken to you in a book. ³For, behold, the days come,’ says Yahweh, ‘that I will reverse the captivity of my people Israel and Judah,’ says Yahweh. ‘I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they will possess it.”

⁴These are the words that Yahweh spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah. ⁵For Yahweh says:

“We have heard a voice of trembling;
a voice of fear, and not of peace.

⁶Ask now, and see whether a man travails with child.

Why do I see every man with his hands on his waist, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned pale?

⁷Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like
it.

It is even the time of Jacob’s trouble;
but he will be saved out of it.

⁸It will come to pass in that day, says Yahweh of Armies, that I will break his yoke from off your neck,
and will burst your bonds.

Strangers will no more make them their bondservants;

⁹but they will serve Yahweh their God,
and David their king,
whom I will raise up to them.

¹⁰Therefore don’t be afraid, O Jacob my servant, says Yahweh.

Don’t be dismayed, Israel.

For, behold, I will save you from afar,
and save your offspring from the land of their captivity.

Jacob will return,
and will be quiet and at ease.

No one will make him afraid.

¹¹For I am with you, says Yahweh, to save
you;

for I will make a full end of all the nations
where I have scattered you,

but I will not make a full end of you;
but I will correct you in measure,
and will in no way leave you unpunished.”

¹²For Yahweh says,

“Your hurt is incurable.

Your wound is grievous.

¹³There is no one to plead your cause,
that you may be bound up.

You have no healing medicines.

¹⁴All your lovers have forgotten you.

They don’t seek you.

For I have wounded you with the wound of an
enemy,

with the chastisement of a cruel one,
for the greatness of your iniquity,
because your sins were increased.

¹⁵Why do you cry over your injury?
Your pain is incurable.

For the greatness of your iniquity,
because your sins have increased,

I have done these things to you.

¹⁶ Therefore all those who devour you will be devoured.

All your adversaries, everyone of them, will go into captivity.

Those who plunder you will be plunder.

I will make all who prey on you become prey.

¹⁷ For I will restore health to you, and I will heal you of your wounds," says Yahweh;

"because they have called you an outcast, saying, 'It is Zion, whom no man seeks after.'"

¹⁸ Yahweh says:

"Behold, I will reverse the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have compassion on his dwelling places.

The city will be built on its own hill,

and the palace will be inhabited in its own place.

¹⁹ Thanksgiving will proceed out of them with the voice of those who make merry.

I will multiply them,

and they will not be few;

I will also glorify them,

and they will not be small.

²⁰ Their children also will be as before, and their congregation will be established before me.

I will punish all who oppress them.

²¹ Their prince will be one of them, and their ruler will proceed from among them.

I will cause him to draw near,

and he will approach me;

for who is he who has had boldness to approach me?" says Yahweh.

²² "You shall be my people, and I will be your God.

²³ Behold, Yahweh's storm, his wrath, has gone out,

a sweeping storm:

it will burst on the head of the wicked.

²⁴ The fierce anger of Yahweh will not return until he has accomplished, and until he has performed the intentions of his heart.

In the latter days you will understand it."

31 "At that time," says Yahweh, "I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be my people."

² Yahweh says, "The people who survive the sword found favor in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest."

³ Yahweh appeared of old to me, saying, "Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love.

Therefore I have drawn you with loving kindness.

⁴ I will build you again,

and you will be built, O virgin of Israel.

You will again be adorned with your tambourines, and will go out in the dances of those who make merry.

⁵ Again you will plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria.

The planters will plant,

and will enjoy its fruit.

⁶ For there will be a day that the watchmen on the hills of Ephraim cry,

'Arise! Let's go up to Zion to Yahweh our God.'"

⁷ For Yahweh says,

"Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout for the chief of the nations.

Publish, praise, and say,

'Yahweh, save your people,

the remnant of Israel!'

⁸ Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the uttermost parts of the earth,

along with the blind and the lame,

the woman with child and her who travails with child together.

They will return as a great company.

⁹ They will come with weeping.

I will lead them with petitions.

I will cause them to walk by rivers of waters,

in a straight way in which they won't stumble; for I am a father to Israel.

Ephraim is my firstborn.

¹⁰ "Hear Yahweh's word, you nations, and declare it in the distant islands. Say,

‘He who scattered Israel will gather him,
and keep him, as a shepherd does his flock.’

11 For Yahweh has ransomed Jacob, and redeemed him from the hand of him who was stronger than he.

12 They will come and sing in the height of Zion,

and will flow to the goodness of Yahweh,
to the grain, to the new wine, to the oil,
and to the young of the flock and of the herd.
Their soul will be as a watered garden.
They will not sorrow any more at all.

13 Then the virgin will rejoice in the dance;
the young men and the old together;
for I will turn their mourning into joy,
and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.

14 I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness,
and my people will be satisfied with my goodness,” says Yahweh.

15 Yahweh says:

“A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation and bitter weeping,
Rachel weeping for her children.
She refuses to be comforted for her children, because they are no more.”

16 Yahweh says:

“Refrain your voice from weeping,
and your eyes from tears;
for your work will be rewarded,” says
Yahweh.

“They will come again from the land of the enemy.

17 There is hope for your latter end,” says
Yahweh.

“Your children will come again to their own territory.

18 “I have surely heard Ephraim grieving thus,
‘You have chastised me,
and I was chastised, as an untrained calf.
Turn me, and I will be turned;
for you are Yahweh my God.

19 Surely after that I was turned,
I repented.

After that I was instructed.

I struck my thigh.

I was ashamed, yes, even confounded, because I bore the reproach of my youth.’

20 Is Ephraim my dear son?

Is he a darling child?

For as often as I speak against him,

I still earnestly remember him.

therefore my heart yearns for him.

I will surely have mercy on him,” says
Yahweh.

21 “Set up road signs.

Make guideposts.

Set your heart toward the highway,
even the way by which you went.

Turn again, virgin of Israel.

Turn again to these your cities.

22 How long will you go here and there,
you backsliding daughter?

For Yahweh has created a new thing in the
earth:

a woman will encompass a man.”

23 Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: “Yet again they will use this speech in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I reverse their captivity: ‘Yahweh bless you, habitation of righteousness, mountain of holiness.’

24 Judah and all its cities will dwell therein together, the farmers, and those who go about with flocks. 25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful
soul.”

26 On this I awakened, and saw; and my sleep was sweet to me.

27 “Behold, the days come,” says Yahweh, “that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and with the seed of animal. 28 It will happen that, like as I have watched over them to pluck up and to break down and to overthrow and to destroy and to afflict, so I will watch over them to build and to plant,” says Yahweh. 29 “In those days they will say no more,
““The fathers have eaten sour grapes,
and the children’s teeth are set on edge.’

30 But everyone will die for his own iniquity. Every man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth will be set on edge.

31 “Behold, the days come,” says Yahweh, “that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:

32 not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt;

which covenant of mine they broke, although I was a husband to them,” says Yahweh.

33 “But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days,” says Yahweh:

“I will put my law in their inward parts, and I will write it in their heart.

I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 They will no longer each teach his neighbor, and every man teach his brother, saying, ‘Know Yahweh;’

for they will all know me, from their least to their greatest,” says Yahweh:

“for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.”

35 Yahweh, who gives the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, who stirs up the sea, so that its waves roar; Yahweh of Armies is his name, says:

36 “If these ordinances depart from before me,” says Yahweh,

“then the offspring of Israel also will cease from being a nation before me forever.”

37 Yahweh says: “If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, then I will also cast off all the offspring of Israel for all that they have done,” says Yahweh.

38 “Behold, the days come,” says Yahweh, “that the city will be built to Yahweh from the tower of Hananel to the gate of the corner. 39 The measuring line will go out further straight onward to the hill Gareb, and will turn toward Goah. 40 The whole valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields to the brook Kidron, to the corner of the horse gate toward the east, will be holy to Yahweh. It will not be plucked up or thrown down any more forever.”

32 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. 2 Now at that time the king of Babylon’s army was besieging Jerusalem. Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the guard, which was in the king of Judah’s house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, “Why do you prophesy, and say, ‘Yahweh says, “Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will take it; 4 and Zedekiah king of Judah won’t escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but will surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and will speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes will see his eyes; 5 and he will bring Zedekiah to Babylon, and he will be there until I visit him,” says Yahweh: “though you fight with the Chaldeans, you will not prosper?””

6 Jeremiah said, “Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, 7 ‘Behold, Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle will come to you, saying, “Buy my field that is in Anathoth; for the right of redemption is yours to buy it.””

8 “So Hanamel my uncle’s son came to me in the court of the guard according to Yahweh’s word, and said to me, ‘Please buy my field that is in Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption is yours. Buy it for yourself.’

“Then I knew that this was Yahweh’s word. 9 I bought the field that was in Anathoth of Hanamel my uncle's son, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels[‡] of silver. ¹⁰ I signed the deed, sealed it, called witnesses, and weighed the money in the balances to him. ¹¹ So I took the deed of the purchase, both that which was sealed, containing the terms and conditions, and that which was open; ¹² and I delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses who signed the deed of the purchase, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the guard.

¹³ "I commanded Baruch before them, saying, ¹⁴ Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: 'Take these deeds, this deed of the purchase which is sealed, and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may last many days.' ¹⁵ For Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: 'Houses and fields and vineyards will yet again be bought in this land.'

¹⁶ Now after I had delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to Yahweh, saying,

¹⁷ "Ah Lord Yahweh! Behold, you have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm. There is nothing too hard for you.

with wonders, with a strong hand, with an outstretched arm, and with great terror; ²² and gave them this land, which you swore to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey. ²³ They came in and possessed it, but they didn't obey your voice and didn't walk in your law. They have done nothing of all that you commanded them to do. Therefore you have caused all this evil to come upon them.

²⁴ "Behold, siege ramps have come to the city to take it. The city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of the sword, of the famine, and of the pestilence. What you have spoken has happened. Behold, you see it. ²⁵ You have said to me, Lord Yahweh, 'Buy the field for money, and call witnesses;' whereas the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans."

²⁶ Then Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁷ "Behold, I am Yahweh, the God of all flesh. Is there anything too hard for me? ²⁸ Therefore Yahweh says: Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will take it. ²⁹ The Chaldeans, who fight against this city, will come and set this city on fire, and burn it with the houses on whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal, and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke me to anger.

³⁰ "For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done only that which was evil in my sight from their youth; for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, says Yahweh. ³¹ For this city has been to me a provocation of my anger and of my wrath from the day that they built it even to this day, so that I should remove it from before my face, ³² because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger: they, their kings, their princes, their priests, their prophets, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ³³They have turned their backs to me, and not their faces. Although I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction. ³⁴But they set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. ³⁵They built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through fire to Molech, which I didn't command them. It didn't even come into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin."

³⁶Now therefore Yahweh, the God of Israel, says concerning this city, about which you say, "It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence:" ³⁷"Behold, I will gather them out of all the countries where I have driven them in my anger, and in my wrath, and in great indignation; and I will bring them again to this place. I will cause them to dwell safely. ³⁸Then they will be my people, and I will be their God. ³⁹I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for their good, and the good of their children after them. ⁴⁰I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from following them, to do them good. I will put my fear in their hearts, that they may not depart from me. ⁴¹Yes, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul."

⁴²For Yahweh says: "Just as I have brought all this great evil on this people, so I will bring on them all the good that I have promised them. ⁴³Fields will be bought in this land, about which you say, 'It is desolate, without man or animal. It is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.' ⁴⁴Men will buy fields for money, sign the deeds, seal them, and call witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, and in the places around Jerusalem, in the cities of Judah, in the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South; for I will cause their captivity to be reversed," says Yahweh.

33 Moreover Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was still locked up in the court of the guard, saying, ²"Yahweh who does it, Yahweh who forms it to establish it—Yahweh is his name, says: ³'Call to me, and I will answer you, and will show you great and difficult things, which you don't know.' ⁴For Yahweh, the God of Israel, says concerning the houses of this city and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are broken down to make a defense against the mounds and against the sword; ⁵while men come to fight with the Chaldeans, and to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have killed in my anger and in my wrath, and for all whose wickedness I have hidden my face from this city: ⁶'Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them; and I will reveal to them abundance of peace and truth. ⁷I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first. ⁸I will cleanse them from all their iniquity by which they have sinned against me. I will pardon all their iniquities by which they have sinned against me and by which they have transgressed against me. ⁹This city will be to me for a name of joy, for praise, and for glory, before all the nations of the earth, which will hear all the good that I do to them, and will fear and tremble for all the good and for all the peace that I provide to it."

¹⁰Yahweh says: "Yet again there will be heard in this place, about which you say, 'It is waste, without man and without animal, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant and without animal,' ¹¹the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those who say, 'Give thanks to Yahweh of Armies, for Yahweh is good, for his loving kindness endures forever;’ who bring thanksgiving into Yahweh’s house. For I will cause the captivity of the land to be reversed as at the first,” says Yahweh.

¹² Yahweh of Armies says: “Yet again there will be in this place, which is waste, without man and without animal, and in all its cities, a habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down. ¹³ In the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the lowland, in the cities of the South, in the land of Benjamin, in the places around Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, the flocks will again pass under the hands of him who counts them,” says Yahweh.

¹⁴ “Behold, the days come,” says Yahweh, “that I will perform that good word which I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and concerning the house of Judah.

¹⁵ “In those days and at that time, I will cause a Branch of righteousness to grow up to David.

He will execute justice and righteousness in the land.

¹⁶ In those days Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will dwell safely.

This is the name by which she will be called: Yahweh our righteousness.”

²³ Yahweh’s word came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁴ “Don’t consider what this people has spoken, saying, ‘Has Yahweh cast off the two families which he chose?’ Thus they despise my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.” ²⁵ Yahweh says: “If my covenant of day and night fails, if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; ²⁶ then I will also cast away the offspring of Jacob, and of David my servant, so that I will not take of his offspring to be rulers over the offspring of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to be reversed and will have mercy on them.”

34 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, with all his army, all the kingdoms of the earth that were under his dominion, and all the peoples, were fighting against Jerusalem and against all its cities, saying: ² “Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, ‘Go, and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Yahweh says, “Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon and he will burn it with fire. ³ You won’t escape out of his hand, but will surely be taken and delivered into his hand. Your eyes will see the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he will speak with you mouth to mouth. You will go to Babylon.”’

⁴ “Yet hear Yahweh’s word, O Zedekiah king of Judah: Yahweh says concerning you, ‘You won’t die by the sword. ⁵ You will die in peace; and with the burnings of your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so they will make a burning for you. They will lament you, saying, “Ah Lord!”’ for I have spoken the word,’ says Yahweh.”

8 The word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, after king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them; 9 that every man should let his male servant, and every man his female servant, who is a Hebrew or a Hebrewess, go free; that no one should make bondservants of them, of a Jew his brother. 10 All the princes and all the people obeyed who had entered into the covenant, that everyone should let his male servant, and everyone his female servant go free, that no one should make bondservants of them any more. They obeyed and let them go; 11 but afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

12 Therefore Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, 13 "Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: 'I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying, 14 At the end of seven years, every man of you shall release his brother who is a Hebrew, who has been sold to you, and has served you six years. You shall let him go free from you; but your fathers didn't listen to me, and didn't incline their ear. 15 You had now turned, and had done that which is right in my eyes, in every man proclaiming liberty to his neighbor. You had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name; 16 but you turned and profaned my name, and every man caused his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom you had let go free at their pleasure, to return. You brought them into subjection, to be to you for servants and for handmaids.'"

17 Therefore Yahweh says: "You have not listened to me, to proclaim liberty, every man to his brother, and every man to his neighbor. Behold, I proclaim to you a liberty," says Yahweh, "to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine. I will make you be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth. 18 I will give the men who have transgressed my covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between its parts: 19 the princes of Judah, the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, the priests, and all the people of the land, who passed between the parts of the calf; 20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life. Their dead bodies will be food for the birds of the sky and for the animals of the earth.

21 "I will give Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes into the hands of their enemies, into the hands of those who seek their life and into the hands of the king of Babylon's army, who has gone away from you. 22 Behold, I will command," says Yahweh, "and cause them to return to this city. They will fight against it, take it, and burn it with fire. I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant."

35 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, 2 "Go to the house of the Rechabites, and speak to them, and bring them into Yahweh's house, into one of the rooms, and give them wine to drink."

3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, with his brothers, all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites; 4 and I brought them into Yahweh's house, into the room of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah, the man of God, which was by the room of the princes, which was above the room of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the threshold. 5 I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, "Drink wine!"

6 But they said, "We will drink no wine; for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, 'You shall drink no wine, neither you, nor your sons, forever. 7 You shall not build a house, sow seed, plant a vineyard, or have any; but all your days you shall dwell in tents, that you may live many days in the land in which you live as nomads.’⁸ We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters;⁹ and not to build houses for ourselves to dwell in. We have no vineyard, field, or seed;¹⁰ but we have lived in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.¹¹ But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, we said, ‘Come! Let’s go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians; so we will dwell at Jerusalem.’”

¹² Then Yahweh’s word came to Jeremiah, saying, ¹³ “Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, “Will you not receive instruction to listen to my words?” says Yahweh. ¹⁴ “The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab that he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are performed; and to this day they drink none, for they obey their father’s commandment; but I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking, and you have not listened to me. ¹⁵ I have sent also to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, ‘Every one of you must return now from his evil way, amend your doings, and don’t go after other gods to serve them, then you will dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers:’ but you have not inclined your ear, nor listened to me. ¹⁶ The sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father which he commanded them, but this people has not listened to me.”

¹⁷ “Therefore Yahweh, the God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘Behold, I will bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them, but they have not heard; and I have called to them, but they have not answered.’”

¹⁸ Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, “Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according to all that he commanded you;’¹⁹ therefore Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘Jonadab the son of Rechab will not lack a man to stand before me forever.’”

36 In the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ² “Take a scroll of a book, and write in it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah, even to this day. ³ It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I intend to do to them; that they may each return from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.”

⁴ Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah; and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all Yahweh’s words, which he had spoken to him, on a scroll of a book. ⁵ Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, “I am restricted. I can’t go into Yahweh’s house. ⁶ Therefore you go, and read from the scroll which you have written from my mouth, Yahweh’s words, in the ears of the people in Yahweh’s house on the fast day. Also you shall read them in the ears of all Judah who come out of their cities. ⁷ It may be they will present their supplication before Yahweh, and will each return from his evil way; for Yahweh has pronounced great anger and wrath against this people.”

⁸ Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book Yahweh’s words in Yahweh’s house. ⁹ Now in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, all the people in Jerusalem, and all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem, proclaimed a fast before Yahweh. ¹⁰Then Baruch read the words of Jeremiah from the book in Yahweh's house, in the room of Gemariah the son of Shaphan, the scribe, in the upper court, at the entry of the new gate of Yahweh's house, in the ears of all the people.

¹¹When Micaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all Yahweh's words, ¹²he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's room: and behold, all the princes were sitting there, Elishama the scribe, Delaiah the son of Shemariah, Elnathan the son of Achbor, Gemariah the son of Shaphan, Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. ¹³Then Micaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people. ¹⁴Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, "Take in your hand the scroll in which you have read in the ears of the people, and come."

So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand, and came to them. ¹⁵They said to him, "Sit down now, and read it in our hearing."

So Baruch read it in their hearing.

¹⁶Now when they had heard all the words, they turned in fear one toward another, and said to Baruch, "We will surely tell the king of all these words." ¹⁷They asked Baruch, saying, "Tell us now, how did you write all these words at his mouth?"

¹⁸Then Baruch answered them, "He dictated all these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book."

¹⁹Then the princes said to Baruch, "You and Jeremiah go hide. Don't let anyone know where you are."

hudi read it in the hearing of the king, and in the hearing of all the princes who stood beside the king. ²²Now the king was sitting in the winter house in the ninth month; and there was a fire in the brazier burning before him. ²³When Jehudi had read three or four leaves, the king cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was in the brazier, until all the scroll was consumed in the fire that was in the brazier. ²⁴The king and his servants who heard all these words were not afraid, and didn't tear their garments. ²⁵Moreover Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the scroll; but he would not listen to them. ²⁶The king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to arrest Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet; but Yahweh hid them.

²⁷Then Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, after the king had burned the scroll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, ²⁸"Take again another scroll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first scroll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned. ²⁹Concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah you shall say, 'Yahweh says: "You have burned this scroll, saying, "Why have you written therein, saying, "The king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land, and will cause to cease from there man and animal?"'" ³⁰Therefore Yahweh says concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: "He will have no one to sit on David's throne. His dead body will be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. ³¹I will punish him, his offspring, and his servants for their iniquity. I will bring on them, on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they didn't listen."'"

³²Then took Jeremiah another scroll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire; and many similar words were added to them.

37 Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned as king, instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. ² But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, listened to Yahweh's words, which he spoke by the prophet Jeremiah.

³ Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maa-seiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, "Pray now to Yahweh our God for us."

⁴ Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prison. ⁵ Pharaoh's army had come out of Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they broke up from Jerusalem.

⁶ Then Yahweh's word came to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, ⁷ "Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, 'You shall tell the king of Judah, who sent you to me to inquire of me: "Behold, Pharaoh's army, which has come out to help you, will return to Egypt into their own land. ⁸ The Chaldeans will come again, and fight against this city. They will take it and burn it with fire.'"

⁹ "Yahweh says, 'Don't deceive yourselves, saying, "The Chaldeans will surely depart from us;" for they will not depart. ¹⁰ For though you had struck the whole army of the Chaldeans who fight against you, and only wounded men remained among them, they would each rise up in his tent and burn this city with fire.'"

¹¹ When the army of the Chaldeans had broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, ¹² then Jeremiah went out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to receive his portion there, in the middle of the people. ¹³ When he was in Benjamin's gate, a captain of the guard was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he seized Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "You are defecting to the Chaldeans!"

¹⁴ Then Jeremiah said, "That is false! I am not defecting to the Chaldeans."

But he didn't listen to him; so Irijah seized Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes. ¹⁵ The princes were angry with Jeremiah, and struck him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison.

¹⁶ When Jeremiah had come into the dungeon house, and into the cells, and Jeremiah had remained there many days, ¹⁷ then Zedekiah the king sent, and had him brought out. The king asked him secretly in his house, "Is there any word from Yahweh?"

Jeremiah said, "There is." He also said, "You will be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon."

¹⁸ Moreover Jeremiah said to king Zedekiah, "How have I sinned against you, against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison? ¹⁹ Now where are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, "The king of Babylon will not come against you, nor against this land?" ²⁰ Now please hear, my lord the king: please let my supplication be presented before you, that you not cause me to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there."

²¹ Then Zedekiah the king commanded, and they committed Jeremiah into the court of the guard. They gave him daily a loaf of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was gone. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

38 Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchijah, heard the words that Jeremiah spoke to all the people, saying, ² "Yahweh says, 'He who remains in this city will die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goes out to the Chaldeans will live, and he will escape with his life, and he will live.' ³ Yahweh says, 'This city will surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he will take it.”

⁴Then the princes said to the king, “Please let this man be put to death; because he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words to them: for this man doesn’t seek the welfare of this people, but harm.”

⁵Zedekiah the king said, “Behold, he is in your hand; for the king can’t do anything to oppose you.”

⁶Then they took Jeremiah and threw him into the dungeon of Malchijah the king’s son, that was in the court of the guard. They let down Jeremiah with cords. In the dungeon there was no water, but mire; and Jeremiah sank in the mire.

⁷Now when Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, a eunuch, who was in the king’s house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon (the king was then sitting in Benjamin’s gate), ⁸Ebedmelech went out of the king’s house, and spoke to the king, saying, ⁹“My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon. He is likely to die in the place where he is, because of the famine; for there is no more bread in the city.”

¹⁰Then the king commanded Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, “Take from here thirty men with you, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he dies.”

¹¹So Ebedmelech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took from there rags and worn-out garments, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah. ¹²Ebedmelech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, “Now put these rags and worn-out garments under your armpits under the cords.”

Jeremiah did so. ¹³So they drew up Jeremiah with the cords, and took him up out of the dungeon; and Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

¹⁴Then Zedekiah the king sent and took Jeremiah the prophet to himself into the third entry that is in Yahweh’s house. Then the king said to Jeremiah, “I will ask you something. Hide nothing from me.”

¹⁵Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? If I give you counsel, you will not listen to me.”

¹⁶So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, “As Yahweh lives, who made us this soul, I will not put you to death, neither will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life.”

¹⁷Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “Yahweh, the God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘If you will go out to the king of Babylon’s princes, then your soul will live, and this city will not be burned with fire. You will live, along with your house. ¹⁸But if you will not go out to the king of Babylon’s princes, then this city will be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they will burn it with fire, and you won’t escape out of their hand.’”

¹⁹Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, “I am afraid of the Jews who have defected to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.”

²⁰But Jeremiah said, “They won’t deliver you. Obey, I beg you, Yahweh’s voice, in that which I speak to you; so it will be well with you, and your soul will live. ²¹But if you refuse to go out, this is the word that Yahweh has shown me: ²²‘Behold, all the women who are left in the king of Judah’s house will be brought out to the king of Babylon’s princes, and those women will say, “Your familiar friends have turned on you, and have prevailed over you. Your feet are sunk in the mire, they have turned away from you.”’

²⁴ Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Let no man know of these words, and you won't die. ²⁵ But if the princes hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you, and tell you, 'Declare to us now what you have said to the king; don't hide it from us, and we will not put you to death; also tell us what the king said to you;' ²⁶ then you shall tell them, 'I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there.'"

²⁷ Then all the princes came to Jeremiah, and asked him; and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they stopped speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

²⁸ So Jeremiah stayed in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken.

39 In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem, and besieged it. ² In the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, a breach was made in the city. ³ All the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, Nergal Sharezer, Samgarnebo, Sar-sechim, Rabsaris, Nergal Sharezer, Rabmag, with all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon. ⁴ When Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, then they fled, and went out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, through the gate between the two walls; and he went out toward the Arabah.

⁸ The Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. ⁹ Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the residue of the people who remained in the city, the deserters also who fell away to him, and the residue of the people who remained. ¹⁰ But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, who had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

¹¹ Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon commanded Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard concerning Jeremiah, saying, ¹² "Take him, and take care of him. Do him no harm; but do to him even as he tells you."

¹³ So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent, with Nebushazban, Rabsaris, and Nergal Sharezer, Rabmag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon; ¹⁴ they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the guard, and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home. So he lived among the people.

¹⁵ Now Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the guard, saying, ¹⁶ "Go, and speak to Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, 'Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: "Behold, I will bring my words on this city for evil, and not for good; and they will be accomplished before you in that day. ¹⁷ But I will deliver you in that day," says Yahweh; "and you will not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid. ¹⁸ For I will surely save you, and you won't fall by the sword, but you will escape with your life; because you have put your trust in me," says Yahweh."

40 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon. ²The captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said to him, “Yahweh your God pronounced this evil on this place; ³and Yahweh has brought it, and done according as he spoke. Because you have sinned against Yahweh, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing has come on you. ⁴Now, behold, I release you today from the chains which are on your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will take care of you; but if it seems bad to you to come with me into Babylon, don’t. Behold, all the land is before you. Where it seems good and right to you to go, there go.” ⁵Now while he had not yet gone back, “Go back then,” he said, “to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go wherever it seems right to you to go.”

So the captain of the guard gave him food and a present, and let him go. ⁶Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and lived with him among the people who were left in the land.

⁷Now when all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, women, children, and of the poorest of the land, of those who were not carried away captive to Babylon; ⁸then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men came to Gedaliah to Mizpah. ⁹Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan swore to them and to their men, saying, “Don’t be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it will be well with you. ¹⁰As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to stand before the Chaldeans who will come to us; but you, gather wine and summer fruits and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you have taken.”

¹¹Likewise when all the Jews who were in Moab, and among the children of Ammon, and in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; ¹²then all the Jews returned out of all places where they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, and gathered very much wine and summer fruits.

¹³Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, ¹⁴and said to him, “Do you know that Baalis the king of the children of Ammon has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take your life?”

But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam didn’t believe them.

¹⁵Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, “Please let me go, and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man will know it. Why should he take your life, that all the Jews who are gathered to you should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish?”

41 Now in the seventh month, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal offspring and one of the chief officers of the king, and ten men with him, came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they ate bread together in Mizpah. ²Then Ishmael the son of Nethaniah arose, and the ten men who were with him, and struck Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword and killed him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. ³Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with him, with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war.

So he stopped, and didn't kill them among their brothers. ⁹Now the pit in which Ishmael cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had killed, by the side of Gedaliah (this was that which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel), Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with those who were killed.

¹¹But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, ¹²then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. ¹³Now when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, then they were glad. ¹⁴So all the people who Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah. ¹⁵But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the children of Ammon.

¹⁶Then Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces who were with him took all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after he had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the men of war, with the women, the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon. ¹⁷They departed and lived in Geruth Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt ¹⁸because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor over the land.

42 Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Je-zaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, came near, ²and said to Jeremiah the prophet, "Please let our supplication be presented before you, and pray for us to Yahweh your God, even for all this remnant; for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes see us; ³that Yahweh your God may show us the way in which we should walk, and the things that we should do."

⁴Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard you. Behold, I will pray to Yahweh your God according to your words; and it will happen that whatever thing Yahweh answers you, I will declare it to you. I will keep nothing back from you."

⁵Then they said to Jeremiah, "May Yahweh be a true and faithful witness among us, if we don't do according to all the word with which Yahweh your God sends you to tell us. ⁶Whether it is good, or whether it is bad, we will obey the voice of Yahweh our God, to whom we send you; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of Yahweh our God."

⁷After ten days, Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah. ⁸Then he called Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, ⁹and said to them, "Yahweh, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your supplication before him, says: ¹⁰'If you will still live in this land, then I will build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I grieve over the distress that I have brought on you. ¹¹Don't be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid. Don't be afraid of him,' says Yahweh: 'for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand. ¹²I will grant you mercy, that he may have mercy on you, and cause you to return to your own land.

¹³"But if you say, "We will not dwell in this land;" so that you don't obey Yahweh your God's voice, ¹⁴saying, "No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we will see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell:" ¹⁵now therefore hear Yahweh's word, O remnant of Judah: Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says, 'If you indeed set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to live there; ¹⁶then it will happen that the sword, which you fear, will overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine, about which you are afraid, will follow close behind you there in Egypt; and you will die there. ¹⁷So will it be with all the men who set their faces to go into Egypt to live there. They will die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. None of them will remain or escape from the evil that I will bring on them.' ¹⁸For Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'As my anger and my wrath has been poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so my wrath will be poured out on you, when you enter into Egypt; and you will be an object of horror, an astonishment, a curse, and a reproach; and you will see this place no more.'

¹⁹"Yahweh has spoken concerning you, remnant of Judah, 'Don't go into Egypt!' Know certainly that I have testified to you today. ²⁰For you have dealt deceitfully against your own souls; for you sent me to Yahweh your God, saying, 'Pray for us to Yahweh our God; and according to all that Yahweh our God says, so declare to us, and we will do it.' ²¹I have declared it to you today; but you have not obeyed Yahweh your God's voice in anything for which he has sent me to you. ²²Now therefore know certainly that you will die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence in the place where you desire to go to live there."

43 When Jeremiah had finished speaking to all the people all the words of Yahweh their God, with which Yahweh their God had sent him to them, even all these words, ²then Azariah the son of Hoshaiiah, Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men spoke, saying to Jeremiah, "You speak falsely. Yahweh our God has not sent you to say, 'You shall not go into Egypt to live there;'³ but Baruch the son of Neriah has turned you against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death, and carry us away captive to Babylon."

⁴So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, didn't obey Yahweh's voice, to dwell in the land of Judah. ⁵But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, who had returned from all the nations where they had been driven, to live in the land of Judah; ⁶the men, and the women, and the children, and the king's daughters, and every person who Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah; ⁷and they came into the land of Egypt; for they didn't obey Yahweh's voice: and they came to Tahpanhes.

⁸Then Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, ⁹"Take great stones in your hand, and hide them in mortar in the brick work, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah; ¹⁰and tell them, Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne on these stones that I have hidden; and he will spread his royal pavilion over them. ¹¹He will come, and will strike the land of Egypt; such as are for death will be put to death, and such as are for captivity to captivity, and such as are for the sword to the sword. ¹²I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt. He will burn them, and carry them away captive. He will array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment; and he will go out from there in peace. ¹³He will also break the pillars of Beth Shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and he will burn the houses of the gods of Egypt with fire.'"

44 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who lived in the land of Egypt, who lived at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Memphis, and in the country of Pathros, saying, ²"Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'You have seen all the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, and on all the cities of Judah. Behold, today they are a desolation, and no man dwells in them, ³because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, to serve other gods that they didn't know, neither they, nor you, nor your fathers. ⁴However I sent to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, "Oh, don't do this abominable thing that I hate." ⁵But they didn't listen and didn't incline their ear. They didn't turn from their wickedness, to stop burning incense to other gods. ⁶Therefore my wrath and my anger was poured out, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is today.'

⁷"Therefore now Yahweh, the God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Why do you commit great evil against your own souls, to cut off from yourselves man and woman, infant and nursing child out of the middle of Judah, to leave yourselves no one remaining; ⁸in that you provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have gone to live; that you may be cut off, and that you may be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? ⁹Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁰They are not humbled even to this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.'

¹¹"Therefore Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, even to cut off all Judah. ¹²I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to live there, and they will all be consumed. They will fall in the land of Egypt. They will be consumed by the sword and by the famine. They will die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword and by the famine. They will be an object of horror, an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach. ¹³For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; ¹⁴so that none of the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there, will escape or be left to return into the land of Judah, to which they have a desire to return to dwell there; for no one will return except those who will escape.'"

¹⁵Then all the men who knew that their wives burned incense to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great assembly, even all the people who lived in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

16 “As for the word that you have spoken to us in Yahweh’s name, we will not listen to you.

17 But we will certainly perform every word that has gone out of our mouth, to burn incense to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; for then had we plenty of food, and were well, and saw no evil. 18 But since we stopped burning incense to the queen of the sky, and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

19 “When we burned incense to the queen of the sky, and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her, without our husbands?”

20 Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men, and to the women, even to all the people who had given him an answer, saying,

21 “The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, didn’t Yahweh remember them, and didn’t it come into his mind?

22 Thus Yahweh could no longer bear it, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which you have committed. Therefore your land has become a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is today. 23 Because you have burned incense, and because you have sinned against Yahweh, and have not obeyed Yahweh’s voice, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil has happened to you, as it is today.”

24 Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people, including all the women, “Hear Yahweh’s word, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt! 25 Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says, ‘You and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and with your hands have fulfilled it, saying, “We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to her.”

26 “Therefore hear Yahweh’s word, all Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: ‘Behold, I have sworn by my great name,’ says Yahweh, ‘that my name will no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, “As the Lord Yahweh lives.”’ 27 Behold, I watch over them for evil, and not for good; and all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt will be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until they are all gone. 28 Those who escape the sword will return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah few in number. All the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there, will know whose word will stand, mine or theirs.

29 “‘This will be the sign to you,’ says Yahweh, ‘that I will punish you in this place, that you may know that my words will surely stand against you for evil.’ 30 Yahweh says, ‘Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of those who seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy, and sought his life.’”

45 The message that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, 2 “Yahweh, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch: 3 ‘You said, “Woe is me now! For Yahweh has added sorrow to my pain! I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest.”’

4 “You shall tell him, Yahweh says: ‘Behold, that which I have built, I will break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up; and this in the whole land. 5 Do you seek great things for yourself? Don’t seek them; for, behold, I will bring evil on all flesh,’ says Yahweh; 'but I will let you escape with your life wherever you go.'"

46 Yahweh's word which came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations.

²Of Egypt: concerning the army of Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon struck in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah.

³"Prepare the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle!

⁴Harness the horses, and get up, you horsemen, and stand up with your helmets.

Polish the spears, put on the coats of mail.

⁵Why have I seen it?

They are dismayed and are turned backward. Their mighty ones are beaten down, have fled in haste, and don't look back.

Terror is on every side," says Yahweh.

⁶"Don't let the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape.

In the north by the river Euphrates they have stumbled and fallen.

⁷"Who is this who rises up like the Nile, whose waters toss themselves like the rivers?

⁸Egypt rises up like the Nile, and his waters toss themselves like the rivers.

He says, 'I will rise up. I will cover the earth. I will destroy cities and its inhabitants.'

⁹Go up, you horses!

Rage, you chariots!

Let the mighty men go out:

Cush and Put, who handle the shield;

and the Ludim, who handle and bend the bow.

¹⁰For that day is of the Lord, Yahweh of Armies,

a day of vengeance,

that he may avenge himself of his adversaries.

The sword will devour and be satiated, and will drink its fill of their blood;

for the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, has a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

¹¹Go up into Gilead, and take balm, virgin daughter of Egypt.

You use many medicines in vain.

There is no healing for you.

¹²The nations have heard of your shame, and the earth is full of your cry;

for the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty,

they both fall together."

¹³The word that Yahweh spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon should come and strike the land of Egypt.

¹⁴"Declare in Egypt,

publish in Migdol,

and publish in Memphis and in Tahpanhes: say, 'Stand up, and prepare;

for the sword has devoured around you.'

¹⁵Why are your strong ones swept away?

They didn't stand, because Yahweh pushed them.

¹⁶He made many to stumble.

Yes, they fell on one another.

They said, 'Arise! Let's go again to our own people, and to the land of our birth,

from the oppressing sword.'

¹⁷They cried there, 'Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise;

he has let the appointed time pass by.'

¹⁸"As I live," says the King, whose name is Yahweh of Armies,

"surely like Tabor among the mountains,

and like Carmel by the sea,

so he will come.

¹⁹You daughter who dwells in Egypt, furnish yourself to go into captivity;

for Memphis will become a desolation,

and will be burned up,

without inhabitant.

²⁰"Egypt is a very beautiful heifer;

but destruction out of the north has come.

It has come.

21 Also her hired men in the middle of her are like calves of the stall;
for they also are turned back.
They have fled away together.
They didn't stand,
for the day of their calamity has come on
them,
the time of their visitation.

22 Its sound will go like the serpent;
for they will march with an army,
and come against her with axes, as wood cutters.

23 They will cut down her forest," says
Yahweh,
"though it can't be searched;
because they are more than the locusts,
and are innumerable.

24 The daughter of Egypt will be disappointed;
she will be delivered into the hand of the people of the north."

25 Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: "Behold, I will punish Amon of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with her gods, and her kings; even Pharaoh, and those who trust in him. 26 I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants. Afterwards it will be inhabited, as in the days of old," says Yahweh.
27 "But don't you be afraid, Jacob my servant.
Don't be dismayed, Israel;
for, behold, I will save you from afar,
and your offspring from the land of their captivity.

Jacob will return,
and will be quiet and at ease.
No one will make him afraid.

28 Don't be afraid, O Jacob my servant," says
Yahweh;
"for I am with you;
for I will make a full end of all the nations
where I have driven you;
but I will not make a full end of you,
but I will correct you in measure,

and will in no way leave you unpunished."

47 Yahweh's word that came to Jeremiah
the prophet concerning the Philistines, before Pharaoh struck Gaza.

2 Yahweh says:

"Behold, waters rise up out of the north,
and will become an overflowing stream, and will overflow the land and all that is therein,

the city and those who dwell therein.

The men will cry,
and all the inhabitants of the land will wail.

3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong ones,

at the rushing of his chariots,
at the rumbling of his wheels,
the fathers don't look back to their children
for feebleness of hands;

4 because of the day that comes to destroy all the Philistines,

to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every helper who remains;

for Yahweh will destroy the Philistines,
the remnant of the isle of Caphtor.

5 Baldness has come on Gaza; Ashkelon is brought to nothing,
the remnant of their valley:
how long will you cut yourself?

6 "Your sword of Yahweh, how long will it be before you are quiet?

Put yourself back into your scabbard;
rest, and be still."

7 "How can you be quiet,
since Yahweh has given you a command?
Against Ashkelon, and against the seashore,
there has he appointed it."

48 Of Moab. Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says:

"Woe to Nebo!
For it is laid waste.
Kiriathaim is disappointed.
It is taken.
Misgab is put to shame
and broken down.

2 The praise of Moab is no more.
 In Heshbon they have devised evil against her:
 'Come! Let's cut her off from being a nation.'
 You also, Madmen, will be brought to silence.
 The sword will pursue you.
 3 The sound of a cry from Horonaim, desolation and great destruction!
 4 Moab is destroyed.
 Her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.
 5 For they will go up by the ascent of Luhith with continual weeping.
 For at the descent of Horonaim they have heard the distress of the cry of destruction.
 6 Flee! Save your lives!
 Be like the juniper bush in the wilderness.
 7 For, because you have trusted in your works and in your treasures,
 you also will be taken.
 Chemosh will go out into captivity,
 his priests and his princes together.
 8 The destroyer will come on every city,
 and no city will escape;
 the valley also will perish, and the plain will be destroyed; as Yahweh has spoken.
 9 Give wings to Moab,
 that she may fly and get herself away:
 and her cities will become a desolation,
 without anyone to dwell in them.
 10 "Cursed is he who does the work of Yahweh negligently;
 and cursed is he who keeps back his sword
 from blood.
 11 "Moab has been at ease from his youth,
 and he has settled on his lees, and has not been emptied from vessel to
 vessel,
 neither has he gone into captivity:
 therefore his taste remains in him,
 and his scent is not changed.
 12 Therefore behold, the days come," says
 Yahweh,
 "that I will send to him those who pour off,
 and they will pour him off;
 and they will empty his vessels,

and break their containers in pieces.
 13 Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel,
 their confidence.
 14 "How do you say, 'We are mighty men,
 and valiant men for the war?'
 15 Moab is laid waste, and they have gone up into his cities,
 and his chosen young men have gone down to
 the slaughter,"
 says the King, whose name is Yahweh of Armies.
 16 "The calamity of Moab is near to come,
 and his affliction hurries fast.
 17 All you who are around him, bemoan him,
 and all you who know his name; say,
 'How the strong staff is broken,
 the beautiful rod!'
 18 "You daughter who dwells in Dibon, come down from your glory,
 and sit in thirst;
 for the destroyer of Moab has come up against
 you.
 He has destroyed your strongholds.
 19 Inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way and watch.
 Ask him who flees, and her who escapes;
 say, 'What has been done?'
 20 Moab is disappointed;
 for it is broken down.
 Wail and cry!
 Tell it by the Arnon, that Moab is laid waste.
 21 Judgment has come on the plain country,
 on Holon, on Jahzah, on Mephaath, 22 on Dibon, on Nebo, on Beth Diblathaim, 23 on Kiriathaim, on Beth Gamul, on Beth Meon,
 24 on Kerioth, on Bozrah, and on all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.
 25 The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken," says Yahweh.
 26 "Make him drunken;
 for he magnified himself against Yahweh.
 Moab will wallow in his vomit,
 and he also will be in derision.

27 For wasn't Israel a derision to you?
 Was he found among thieves?
 For as often as you speak of him,
 you shake your head.
 28 You inhabitants of Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock.
 Be like the dove that makes her nest over the mouth of the abyss.
 29 "We have heard of the pride of Moab.
 He is very proud in his loftiness, his pride,
 his arrogance, and the arrogance of his heart.
 30 I know his wrath," says Yahweh, "that it is nothing;
 his boastings have done nothing.
 31 Therefore I will wail for Moab.
 Yes, I will cry out for all Moab.
 They will mourn for the men of Kir Heres.
 32 With more than the weeping of Jazer
 I will weep for you, vine of Sibmah.
 Your branches passed over the sea.
 They reached even to the sea of Jazer.
 The destroyer has fallen on your summer fruits and on your vintage.
 33 Gladness and joy is taken away from the fruitful field
 and from the land of Moab.
 I have caused wine to cease from the wine presses.
 No one will tread with shouting.
 The shouting will be no shouting.
 34 From the cry of Heshbon even to Elealeh, even to Jahaz they have uttered their voice,
 from Zoar even to Horonaim, to Eglath Shelishiyah;
 for the waters of Nimrim will also become desolate.
 35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab,"
 says Yahweh,
 "him who offers in the high place,
 and him who burns incense to his gods.
 36 Therefore my heart sounds for Moab like pipes,
 and my heart sounds like pipes for the men of Kir Heres.
 Therefore the abundance that he has gotten has perished.

37 For every head is bald,
 and every beard clipped.
 There are cuttings on all the hands,
 and sackcloth on the waist.
 38 On all the housetops of Moab, and in its streets, there is lamentation everywhere;
 for I have broken Moab like a vessel in which no one delights," says Yahweh.
 39 "How it is broken down!
 How they wail!
 How Moab has turned the back with shame!
 So will Moab become a derision and a terror to all who are around him." 40 For Yahweh says: "Behold, he will fly as an eagle,
 and will spread out his wings against Moab.
 41 Kerioth is taken,
 and the strongholds are seized.
 The heart of the mighty men of Moab at that day
 will be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.
 42 Moab will be destroyed from being a people,
 because he has magnified himself against
 Yahweh.
 43 Terror, the pit, and the snare are on you, inhabitant of Moab," says Yahweh.
 44 "He who flees from the terror will fall into the pit;
 and he who gets up out of the pit will be taken in the snare:
 for I will bring on him, even on Moab,
 the year of their visitation," says Yahweh.
 45 "Those who fled stand without strength under the shadow of Heshbon;
 for a fire has gone out of Heshbon,
 and a flame from the middle of Sihon,
 and has devoured the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones.
 46 Woe to you, O Moab!
 The people of Chemosh are undone;
 for your sons are taken away captive,
 and your daughters into captivity.

47 “Yet I will reverse the captivity of Moab in the latter days,”

says Yahweh.

Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

49 Of the children of Ammon. Yahweh says:

“Has Israel no sons?

Has he no heir?

Why then does Malcam possess Gad, and his people dwell in its cities?

2 Therefore behold, the days come,”

says Yahweh,

“that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard against Rabbah of the children of Ammon;

and it will become a desolate heap,

and her daughters will be burned with fire:

then Israel will possess those who possessed him,”

says Yahweh.

3 “Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste!

Cry, you daughters of Rabbah!

Clothe yourself in sackcloth.

Lament, and run back and forth among the fences;

for Malcam will go into captivity,

his priests and his princes together.

4 Why do you boast in the valleys,

your flowing valley, backsliding daughter?

You trusted in her treasures, saying, ‘Who will come to me?’

5 Behold, I will bring a terror on you,”

says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies,

“from all who are around you.

All of you will be driven completely out, and there will be no one to gather together the fugitives.

6 “But afterward I will reverse the captivity of the children of Ammon,”

says Yahweh.

7 Of Edom, Yahweh of Armies says:

“Is wisdom no more in Teman?

Has counsel perished from the prudent?

Has their wisdom vanished?

8 Flee! Turn back!

Dwell in the depths, inhabitants of Dedan;

for I will bring the calamity of Esau on him when I visit him.

9 If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes?

If thieves came by night,

wouldn't they steal until they had enough?

10 But I have made Esau bare,

I have uncovered his secret places,

and he will not be able to hide himself.

His offspring is destroyed,

with his brothers and his neighbors;

and he is no more.

11 Leave your fatherless children.

I will preserve them alive.

Let your widows trust in me.”

12 For Yahweh says: “Behold, they to whom it didn't pertain to drink of the cup will certainly drink; and are you he who will altogether go unpunished? You won't go unpunished, but you will surely drink. 13 For I have sworn by myself,” says Yahweh, “that Bozrah will become an astonishment, a reproach, a waste, and a curse. All its cities will be perpetual wastes.”

14 I have heard news from Yahweh, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, “Gather yourselves together!

Come against her!

Rise up to the battle!”

15 “For, behold, I have made you small among the nations, and despised among men.

16 As for your terror,

the pride of your heart has deceived you,

O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock,

who hold the height of the hill,

though you should make your nest as high as the eagle,

I will bring you down from there,” says Yahweh.

17 “Edom will become an astonishment.

Everyone who passes by it will be astonished, and will hiss at all its plagues.

18 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and its neighbor cities,” says Yahweh,

“no man will dwell there,

neither will any son of man live therein.

¹⁹ “Behold, he will come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation:

for I will suddenly make them run away from it;

and whoever is chosen,

I will appoint him over it.

For who is like me?

Who will appoint me a time?

Who is the shepherd who will stand before me?”

²⁰ Therefore hear the counsel of Yahweh, that he has taken against Edom;

and his purposes, that he has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman:

Surely they will drag them away,

the little ones of the flock.

Surely he will make their habitation desolate over them.

²¹ The earth trembles at the noise of their fall; there is a cry, the noise which is heard in the Red Sea.

²² Behold, he will come up and fly as the eagle, and spread out his wings against Bozrah.

The heart of the mighty men of Edom at that day will be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

²³ Of Damascus:

“Hamath is confounded, and Arpad;

for they have heard evil news.

They have melted away.

There is sorrow on the sea.

It can't be quiet.

²⁴ Damascus has grown feeble,

she turns herself to flee,

and trembling has seized her.

Anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her, as of a woman in travail.

²⁵ How is the city of praise not forsaken, the city of my joy?

²⁶ Therefore her young men will fall in her streets, and all the men of war will be brought to silence in that day,” says Yahweh of Armies.

²⁷ “I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it will devour the palaces of Ben Hadad.”

²⁸ Of Kedar, and of the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon struck. Yahweh says:

“Arise, go up to Kedar,

and destroy the children of the east.

²⁹ They will take their tents and their flocks.

They will carry away for themselves their curtains,

all their vessels, and their camels;

and they will cry to them, “Terror on every side!”

³⁰ Flee!

Wander far off!

Dwell in the depths, you inhabitants of Hazor,” says Yahweh;

“for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel against you,

and has conceived a purpose against you.

³¹ Arise! Go up to a nation that is at ease, that dwells without care,” says Yahweh;

“that has neither gates nor bars,

that dwells alone.

³² Their camels will be a booty,

and the multitude of their livestock a plunder.

I will scatter to all winds those who have the corners of their beards cut off;

and I will bring their calamity from every side of them,”

says Yahweh.

³³ Hazor will be a dwelling place of jackals,

a desolation forever.

No man will dwell there,

neither will any son of man live therein.”

³⁴ Yahweh's word that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying,

³⁵ “Yahweh of Armies says:

‘Behold, I will break the bow of Elam,

the chief of their might.

³⁶ I will bring on Elam the four winds from the four quarters of the sky, and will scatter them toward all those winds.

There will be no nation where the outcasts of Elam will not come.

37 I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies,
 and before those who seek their life.
 I will bring evil on them, even my fierce anger,' says Yahweh;
 'and I will send the sword after them,
 until I have consumed them.
 38 I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from there king and princes,'
 says Yahweh.
 39 'But it will happen in the latter days that I will reverse the captivity of Elam,' says
 Yahweh."

50 The word that Yahweh spoke concerning Babylon, concerning the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremiah the prophet.

2 "Declare among the nations and publish,
 and set up a standard;
 publish, and don't conceal:
 say, 'Babylon has been taken,
 Bel is disappointed,
 Merodach is dismayed!
 Her images are disappointed.
 Her idols are dismayed.'

3 For a nation comes up out of the north against her,
 which will make her land desolate,
 and no one will dwell in it.
 They have fled.
 They are gone,
 both man and animal.

4 "In those days, and in that time," says
 Yahweh,
 "the children of Israel will come,
 they and the children of Judah together;
 they will go on their way weeping,
 and will seek Yahweh their God.

5 They will inquire concerning Zion with their faces turned toward it, saying, 'Come, and join yourselves to Yahweh in an everlasting covenant that will not be forgotten.'

6 My people have been lost sheep.
 Their shepherds have caused them to go astray.

They have turned them away on the mountains.

They have gone from mountain to hill.
 They have forgotten their resting place.

7 All who found them have devoured them.
 Their adversaries said, 'We are not guilty,
 because they have sinned against Yahweh,
 the habitation of righteousness,
 even Yahweh, the hope of their fathers.'

8 "Flee out of the middle of Babylon!
 Go out of the land of the Chaldeans,
 and be as the male goats before the flocks.

9 For, behold, I will stir up and cause to come up against Babylon a company of great nations from the north country;

and they will set themselves in array against her.

She will be taken from there.

Their arrows will be as of an expert mighty
 man.

None of them will return in vain.

10 Chaldea will be a prey.

All who prey on her will be satisfied," says
 Yahweh.

11 "Because you are glad,

because you rejoice,

O you who plunder my heritage,

because you are wanton as a heifer that treads
 out the grain,

and neigh as strong horses;

12 your mother will be utterly disappointed.

She who bore you will be confounded.

Behold, she will be the least of the nations,
 a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of Yahweh's wrath she won't be inhabited,

but she will be wholly desolate.

Everyone who goes by Babylon will be astonished,

and hiss at all her plagues.

14 Set yourselves in array against Babylon all around,

all you who bend the bow;
 shoot at her.

Spare no arrows;

for she has sinned against Yahweh.

15 Shout against her all around.

She has submitted herself.

Her bulwarks have fallen.

Her walls have been thrown down,

for it is the vengeance of Yahweh.

Take vengeance on her.

As she has done, do to her.

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him who handles the sickle in the time of harvest.

For fear of the oppressing sword,

they will each return to their own people,

and they will each flee to their own land.

17 "Israel is a hunted sheep.

The lions have driven him away.

First, the king of Assyria devoured him, and now at last Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones."

18 Therefore Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says:

"Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land,

as I have punished the king of Assyria.

19 I will bring Israel again to his pasture, and he will feed on Carmel and Bashan.

His soul will be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and in Gilead.

20 In those days, and in that time," says Yahweh,

"the iniquity of Israel will be sought for,

and there will be none;

also the sins of Judah,

and they won't be found;

for I will pardon them whom I leave as a remnant.

21 "Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod.

Kill and utterly destroy after them," says Yahweh,

"and do according to all that I have commanded you.

22 A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.

23 How the hammer of the whole earth is cut apart and broken!

How Babylon has become a desolation among the nations!

24 I have laid a snare for you, and you are also taken, Babylon,

and you weren't aware.

You are found,

and also caught,

because you have fought against Yahweh.

25 Yahweh has opened his armory,

and has brought out the weapons of his indignation;

for the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, has a work to do in the land of the Chaldeans.

26 Come against her from the farthest border.

Open her storehouses.

Cast her up as heaps.

Destroy her utterly.

Let nothing of her be left.

27 Kill all her bulls.

Let them go down to the slaughter.

Woe to them! For their day has come, the time of their visitation.

28 Listen to those who flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of Yahweh our God,

the vengeance of his temple.

29 "Call together the archers against Babylon, all those who bend the bow.

Encamp against her all around.

Let none of it escape.

Pay her back according to her work.

According to all that she has done, do to her; for she has been proud against Yahweh, against the Holy One of Israel.

30 Therefore her young men will fall in her streets.

All her men of war will be brought to silence in that day," says Yahweh.

31 "Behold, I am against you, you proud one," says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies;

"for your day has come,

the time that I will visit you.

32 The proud one will stumble and fall,

and no one will raise him up.
 I will kindle a fire in his cities,
 and it will devour all who are around him.”

33 Yahweh of Armies says: “The children of Israel and the children of Judah are oppressed together.
 All who took them captive hold them fast.
 They refuse to let them go.
 34 Their Redeemer is strong:
 Yahweh of Armies is his name.
 He will thoroughly plead their cause,
 that he may give rest to the earth,
 and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.
 35 “A sword is on the Chaldeans,” says
 Yahweh,
 “and on the inhabitants of Babylon,
 on her princes,
 and on her wise men.
 36 A sword is on the boasters, and they will become fools.
 A sword is on her mighty men,
 and they will be dismayed.
 37 A sword is on their horses,
 on their chariots,
 and on all the mixed people who are in the middle of her;
 and they will become as women.
 A sword is on her treasures,
 and they will be robbed.
 38 A drought is on her waters,
 and they will be dried up;
 for it is a land of engraved images,
 and they are mad over idols.
 39 Therefore the wild animals of the desert with the wolves will dwell there.
 The ostriches will dwell therein;
 and it will be inhabited no more forever;
 neither will it be lived in from generation to generation.
 40 As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and its neighbor cities,” says
 Yahweh,
 “so no man will dwell there,
 neither will any son of man live therein.
 41 “Behold, a people comes from the north;

and a great nation and many kings will be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the
 earth.
 42 They take up bow and spear.
 They are cruel, and have no mercy.
 Their voice roars like the sea.
 They ride on horses,
 everyone set in array,
 as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Babylon.
 43 The king of Babylon has heard the news of
 them,
 and his hands become feeble:
 anguish has taken hold of him,
 pains as of a woman in labor.
 44 Behold, the enemy will come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation;
 for I will suddenly make them run away from
 it.
 Whoever is chosen,
 I will appoint him over it;
 for who is like me?
 Who will appoint me a time?
 Who is the shepherd who can stand before
 me?”

45 Therefore hear the counsel of Yahweh, that he has taken against Babylon;
 and his purposes,
 that he has purposed against the land of the Chaldeans:
 Surely they will drag them away,
 even the little ones of the flock.
 Surely he will make their habitation desolate over them.
 46 At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth trembles;
 and the cry is heard among the nations.
 Yahweh says:
51 “Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against those who dwell in Lebkamai, a destroying wind.
 2 I will send to Babylon strangers, who will winnow her.
 They will empty her land;

for in the day of trouble they will be against her all around.

³ Against him who bends, let the archer bend his bow, also against him who lifts himself up in his coat of mail.

Don't spare her young men!

Utterly destroy all her army!

⁴ They will fall down slain in the land of the Chaldeans, and thrust through in her streets.

⁵ For Israel is not forsaken, nor Judah, by his God,

by Yahweh of Armies;

though their land is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel.

⁶ "Flee out of the middle of Babylon!

Everyone save his own life!

Don't be cut off in her iniquity;

for it is the time of Yahweh's vengeance.

He will render to her a recompense.

⁷ Babylon has been a golden cup in Yahweh's hand, who made all the earth drunk.

The nations have drunk of her wine;

therefore the nations have gone mad.

⁸ Babylon has suddenly fallen and been destroyed!

Wail for her!

Take balm for her pain.

Perhaps she may be healed.

⁹ "We would have healed Babylon,

but she is not healed.

Forsake her,

and let's each go into his own country;

for her judgment reaches to heaven,

and is lifted up even to the skies.

¹⁰ "Yahweh has produced our righteousness:

come, and let's declare in Zion the work of Yahweh our God."

¹¹ "Make the arrows sharp!

Hold the shields firmly!

Yahweh has stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes, because his purpose is against Babylon, to destroy it;

for it is the vengeance of Yahweh, the vengeance of his temple.

¹² Set up a standard against the walls of Babylon!

Make the watch strong!

Set the watchmen,

and prepare the ambushes;

for Yahweh has both purposed and done that which he spoke concerning the inhabitants of Babylon.

¹³ You who dwell on many waters, abundant in treasures,

your end has come, the measure of your covetousness.

¹⁴ Yahweh of Armies has sworn by himself, saying,

"Surely I will fill you with men,

as with the canker worm;

and they will lift up a shout against you."

¹⁵ "He has made the earth by his power.

He has established the world by his wisdom.

By his understanding he has stretched out the heavens.

¹⁶ When he utters his voice,

there is a roar of waters in the heavens, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth.

He makes lightning for the rain,

and brings the wind out of his treasuries.

¹⁷ "Every man has become brutish without knowledge.

Every goldsmith is disappointed by his image;

for his molten image is falsehood,

and there is no breath in them.

¹⁸ They are vanity,

a work of delusion.

In the time of their visitation, they will perish.

¹⁹ The portion of Jacob is not like these,

for he is the former of all things;

including the tribe of his inheritance:

Yahweh of Armies is his name.

²⁰ "You are my battle ax and weapons of war.

With you I will break the nations into pieces.

With you I will destroy kingdoms.

²¹ With you I will break in pieces

the horse and his rider.

22 With you I will break in pieces
the chariot and him who rides therein.
With you I will break in pieces
man and woman.

With you I will break in pieces
the old man and the youth.
With you I will break in pieces
the young man and the virgin.

23 With you I will break in pieces
the shepherd and his flock.
With you I will break in pieces
the farmer and his yoke.
With you I will break in pieces
governors and deputies.

24 "I will render to Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight," says Yahweh.

25 "Behold, I am against you, destroying mountain," says Yahweh,
"which destroys all the earth.

I will stretch out my hand on you,
roll you down from the rocks,
and will make you a burned mountain.

26 They won't take a cornerstone from you,
nor a stone for foundations;
but you will be desolate forever," says
Yahweh.

27 "Set up a standard in the land!
Blow the trumpet among the nations!
Prepare the nations against her!

Call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz!

Appoint a marshal against her!
Cause the horses to come up as the rough canker worm!

28 Prepare against her the nations, the kings of the Medes, its governors, and all its deputies, and all the land of their dominion!

29 The land trembles and is in pain;
for the purposes of Yahweh against Babylon stand,
to make the land of Babylon a desolation,
without inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Babylon have stopped fighting,

they remain in their strongholds.
Their might has failed.

They have become as women.
Her dwelling places are set on fire.
Her bars are broken.

31 One runner will run to meet another,
and one messenger to meet another, to show the king of Babylon that his city is taken on every quarter.

32 So the passages are seized.
They have burned the reeds with fire.
The men of war are frightened."

33 For Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says:

"The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time when it is trodden.
Yet a little while, and the time of harvest comes for her."

34 "Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me.

He has crushed me.

He has made me an empty vessel.

He has, like a monster, swallowed me up.

He has filled his mouth with my delicacies.

He has cast me out.

35 May the violence done to me and to my flesh be on Babylon!"

the inhabitant of Zion will say; and,

"May my blood be on the inhabitants of Chaldea!"

will Jerusalem say.

36 Therefore Yahweh says:

"Behold, I will plead your cause,
and take vengeance for you.

I will dry up her sea,
and make her fountain dry.

37 Babylon will become heaps,
a dwelling place for jackals,
an astonishment, and a hissing,
without inhabitant.

38 They will roar together like young lions.
They will growl as lions' cubs.

39 When they are heated, I will make their feast,

and I will make them drunk,
that they may rejoice,

and sleep a perpetual sleep,
and not wake up," says Yahweh.

40 "I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter,
like rams with male goats.

41 "How Sheshach is taken!

How the praise of the whole earth seized!

How Babylon has become a desolation among the nations!

42 The sea has come up on Babylon.

She is covered with the multitude of its waves.

43 Her cities have become a desolation,
a dry land, and a desert,
a land in which no man dwells.

No son of man passes by it.

44 I will execute judgment on Bel in Babylon, and I will bring out of his mouth that which he has swallowed up.

The nations will not flow any more to him.

Yes, the wall of Babylon will fall.

45 "My people, go away from the middle of
her,

and each of you save yourselves from Yah-weh's fierce anger.

46 Don't let your heart faint.

Don't fear for the news that will be heard in
the land.

For news will come one year,

and after that in another year news will come,
and violence in the land,
ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore behold, the days come that I will execute judgment on the engraved images of Babylon;

and her whole land will be confounded.

All her slain will fall in the middle of her.

48 Then the heavens and the earth,

and all that is therein,

will sing for joy over Babylon;

for the destroyers will come to her from the north," says Yahweh.

49 "As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall,

so the slain of all the land will fall at Babylon.

50 You who have escaped the sword, go!

Don't stand still!

Remember Yahweh from afar,
and let Jerusalem come into your mind."

51 "We are confounded,

because we have heard reproach.

Confusion has covered our faces,

for strangers have come into the sanctuaries of Yahweh's house."

52 "Therefore behold, the days come," says
Yahweh,

"that I will execute judgment on her engraved images;

and through all her land the wounded will groan.

53 Though Babylon should mount up to the sky,

and though she should fortify the height of her
strength,

yet destroyers will come to her from me," says
Yahweh.

54 "The sound of a cry comes from Babylon, and of great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans!

55 For Yahweh lays Babylon waste, and destroys out of her the great voice!

Their waves roar like many waters.

The noise of their voice is uttered.

56 For the destroyer has come on her,
even on Babylon.

Her mighty men are taken.

Their bows are broken in pieces,

for Yahweh is a God of retribution.

He will surely repay.

57 I will make her princes, her wise men,

her governors, her deputies, and her mighty men drunk.

They will sleep a perpetual sleep,

and not wake up,"

says the King, whose name is Yahweh of Armies.

58 Yahweh of Armies says:

"The wide walls of Babylon will be utterly overthrown.

Her high gates will be burned with fire.

The peoples will labor for vanity,

and the nations for the fire;

and they will be weary."

⁵⁹The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was chief quartermaster. ⁶⁰Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come on Babylon, even all these words that are written concerning Babylon. ⁶¹Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you come to Babylon, then see that you read all these words, ⁶²and say, 'Yahweh, you have spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that no one will dwell in it, neither man nor animal, but that it will be desolate forever.' ⁶³It will be, when you have finished reading this book, that you shall bind a stone to it, and cast it into the middle of the Euphrates. ⁶⁴Then you shall say, 'Thus will Babylon sink, and will not rise again because of the evil that I will bring on her; and they will be weary.'"

Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

52 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign. He reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ²He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. ³For through Yahweh's anger this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence.

Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. ⁴In the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round about. ⁵So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

⁶In the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. ⁷Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled, and went out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden. Now the Chaldeans were against the city all around. The men of war went toward the Arabah, ⁸but the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. ⁹Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he pronounced judgment on him. ¹⁰The king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes. He also killed all the princes of Judah in Riblah. ¹¹He put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison until the day of his death.

¹²Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, who stood before the king of Babylon, came into Jerusalem. ¹³He burned Yahweh's house, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, he burned with fire. ¹⁴All the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around. ¹⁵Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the poorest of the people, and the residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude. ¹⁶But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the land to be vineyard keepers and farmers.

¹⁷The Chaldeans broke the pillars of bronze that were in Yahweh's house, and the bases and the bronze sea that were in Yahweh's house in pieces, and carried all of their bronze to Babylon. ¹⁸They also took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the basins, the spoons, and all the vessels of bronze with which they ministered. ¹⁹The captain of the guard took away the cups, the fire pans, the basins, the pots, the lamp stands, the spoons, and the bowls; that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver.

²⁰They took the two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve bronze bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made for Yahweh's house. The bronze of all these vessels was without weight. ²¹As for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits;§ and a line of twelve cubits encircled it; and its thickness was four fingers. It was hollow. ²²A capital of bronze was on it; and the height of the one capital was five cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capital all around, all of bronze: and the second pillar also had like these, and pomegranates. ²³There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates were one hundred on the network all around.

²⁴The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold: ²⁵and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and seven men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the middle of the city. ²⁶Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. ²⁷The king of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath.

So Judah was carried away captive out of his land. ²⁸This is the number of the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year, three thousand twenty-three Jews;

²⁹in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar, he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty-two persons;

³⁰in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty-five people: all the people were four thousand six hundred.

³¹In the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the twenty-fifth day of the month, Evilmerodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and released him from prison. ³²He spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon, ³³and changed his prison garments. Jehoiachin ate bread before him continually all the days of his life. ³⁴For his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him by the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

The Lamentations of Jeremiah

1 How the city sits solitary, that was full of people!
She has become as a widow,
who was great among the nations!
She who was a princess among the provinces has become a slave!
2 She weeps bitterly in the night.
Her tears are on her cheeks.
Among all her lovers
she has no one to comfort her.
All her friends have dealt treacherously with
her.
They have become her enemies.
3 Judah has gone into captivity because of affliction,
and because of great servitude.
She dwells among the nations.
She finds no rest.
All her persecutors overtook her within the straits.
4 The roads to Zion mourn,
because no one comes to the solemn assembly.
All her gates are desolate.
Her priests sigh.
Her virgins are afflicted,
and she herself is in bitterness.
5 Her adversaries have become the head.
Her enemies prosper;
for Yahweh^{††} has afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions.
Her young children have gone into captivity before the adversary.
6 All majesty has departed from the daughter of Zion.
Her princes have become like deer that find no pasture.

They have gone without strength before the pursuer.
7 Jerusalem remembers in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that were from the days
of old;
when her people fell into the hand of the adversary,
and no one helped her.
The adversaries saw her.
They mocked at her desolations.
8 Jerusalem has grievously sinned.
Therefore she has become unclean.
All who honored her despise her,
because they have seen her nakedness.
Yes, she sighs, and turns backward.
9 Her filthiness was in her skirts.
She didn't remember her latter end.
Therefore she has come down astoundingly.
She has no comforter.
"See, Yahweh, my affliction;
for the enemy has magnified himself."
10 The adversary has spread out his hand on all her pleasant things;
for she has seen that the nations have entered into her sanctuary, concerning whom you commanded that they should not enter into your assembly.
11 All her people sigh.
They seek bread.
They have given their pleasant things for food to refresh their soul.
"Look, Yahweh, and see;
for I have become despised."
12 "Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Look, and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow,
which is brought on me,
with which Yahweh has afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.
13 "From on high has he sent fire into my bones,
and it prevails against them.

^{††}1:5 "Yahweh" is God's proper Name, sometimes rendered "LORD" (all caps) in other translations.

He has spread a net for my feet.
 He has turned me back.
 He has made me desolate and I faint all day long.
 14 “The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand.
 They are knit together.
 They have come up on my neck.
 He made my strength fail.
 The Lord^{##} has delivered me into their hands, against whom I am not able to stand.
 15 “The Lord has set at nothing all my mighty men within me.
 He has called a solemn assembly against me to crush my young men.
 The Lord has trodden the virgin daughter of Judah as in a wine press.
 16 “For these things I weep.
 My eye, my eye runs down with water, because the comforter who should refresh my soul is far from me.
 My children are desolate, because the enemy has prevailed.”
 17 Zion spreads out her hands.
 There is no one to comfort her.
 Yahweh has commanded concerning Jacob, that those who are around him should be his adversaries.
 Jerusalem is among them as an unclean thing.
 18 “Yahweh is righteous;
 for I have rebelled against his commandment.
 Please hear all you peoples, and see my sorrow.
 My virgins and my young men have gone into captivity.
 19 “I called for my lovers, but they deceived me.
 My priests and my elders gave up the spirit in the city, while they sought food for themselves to refresh their souls.
 20 “Look, Yahweh; for I am in distress.
 My heart is troubled.
 My heart turns over within me,

for I have grievously rebelled.
 Abroad, the sword bereaves.
 At home, it is like death.
 21 “They have heard that I sigh.
 There is no one to comfort me.
 All my enemies have heard of my trouble.
 They are glad that you have done it.
 You will bring the day that you have proclaimed,
 and they will be like me.
 22 “Let all their wickedness come before you.
 Do to them as you have done to me for all my transgressions.
 For my sighs are many,
 and my heart is faint.
 2 How has the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger!
 He has cast the beauty of Israel down from heaven to the earth, and hasn’t remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.
 2 The Lord has swallowed up all the dwellings of Jacob without pity.
 He has thrown down in his wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Judah.
 He has brought them down to the ground.
 He has profaned the kingdom and its princes.
 3 He has cut off all the horn of Israel in fierce anger.
 He has drawn back his right hand from before the enemy.
 He has burned up Jacob like a flaming fire, which devours all around.
 4 He has bent his bow like an enemy.
 He has stood with his right hand as an adversary.
 He has killed all that were pleasant to the eye.
 In the tent of the daughter of Zion, he has poured out his wrath like fire.
 5 The Lord has become as an enemy.
 He has swallowed up Israel.
 He has swallowed up all her palaces.
 He has destroyed his strongholds.

^{##}1:14 The word translated “Lord” is “Adonai.”

He has multiplied mourning and lamentation in the daughter of Judah.

⁶ He has violently taken away his tabernacle,
as if it were of a garden.

He has destroyed his place of assembly.

Yahweh has caused solemn assembly and Sabbath to be forgotten in Zion.

In the indignation of his anger, he has despised the king and the priest.

⁷ The Lord has cast off his altar.

He has abhorred his sanctuary.

He has given the walls of her palaces into the hand of the enemy.

They have made a noise in Yahweh's house,
as in the day of a solemn assembly.

⁸ Yahweh has purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion.

He has stretched out the line.

He has not withdrawn his hand from destroying;

He has made the rampart and wall lament.

They languish together.

⁹ Her gates have sunk into the ground.

He has destroyed and broken her bars.

Her king and her princes are among the nations where the law is not.

Yes, her prophets find no vision from Yahweh.

¹⁰ The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground.

They keep silence.

They have cast up dust on their heads.

They have clothed themselves with sackcloth.

The virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

¹¹ My eyes fail with tears.

My heart is troubled.

My liver is poured on the earth, because of the destruction of the daughter of

my people,

because the young children and the infants swoon in the streets of the city.

¹² They ask their mothers,

"Where is grain and wine?"

when they swoon as the wounded in the streets of the city,

when their soul is poured out into their mothers' bosom.

¹³ What shall I testify to you?

What shall I liken to you, daughter of Jerusalem?

What shall I compare to you, that I may comfort you, virgin daughter of Zion?

For your breach is as big as the sea.

Who can heal you?

¹⁴ Your prophets have seen false and foolish visions for you.

They have not uncovered your iniquity,

to reverse your captivity,

but have seen for you false revelations and causes of banishment.

¹⁵ All that pass by clap their hands at you.

They hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying,

"Is this the city that men called 'The perfection of beauty,

the joy of the whole earth'?"

¹⁶ All your enemies have opened their mouth wide against you.

They hiss and gnash their teeth.

They say, "We have swallowed her up.

Certainly this is the day that we looked for.

We have found it.

We have seen it."

¹⁷ Yahweh has done that which he planned.

He has fulfilled his word that he commanded in the days of old.

He has thrown down,

and has not pitied.

He has caused the enemy to rejoice over you.

He has exalted the horn of your adversaries.

¹⁸ Their heart cried to the Lord.

O wall of the daughter of Zion,

let tears run down like a river day and night.

Give yourself no relief.

Don't let your eyes rest.

¹⁹ Arise, cry out in the night,

at the beginning of the watches!

Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord.

Lift up your hands toward him for the life of your young children, who faint for hunger at the head of every street.

20 "Look, Yahweh, and see to whom you have done thus!

Should the women eat their offspring, the children that they held and bounced on their knees?

Should the priest and the prophet be killed in the sanctuary of the Lord?

21 "The youth and the old man lie on the ground in the streets.

My virgins and my young men have fallen by the sword.

You have killed them in the day of your anger.
You have slaughtered, and not pitied.

22 "You have called, as in the day of a solemn assembly, my terrors on every side.

There was no one that escaped or remained in the day of Yahweh's anger.

My enemy has consumed those whom I have cared for and brought up.

3 I am the man who has seen affliction
by the rod of his wrath.

2 He has led me and caused me to walk in darkness,
and not in light.

3 Surely he turns his hand against me again and again all day long.

4 He has made my flesh and my skin old.

He has broken my bones.

5 He has built against me, and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.

6 He has made me dwell in dark places,
as those who have been long dead.

7 He has walled me about, so that I can't go
out.

He has made my chain heavy.

8 Yes, when I cry, and call for help,
he shuts out my prayer.

9 He has walled up my ways with cut stone.
He has made my paths crooked.

10 He is to me as a bear lying in wait,
as a lion in secret places.

11 He has turned away my ways,
and pulled me in pieces.

He has made me desolate.

12 He has bent his bow,
and set me as a mark for the arrow.

13 He has caused the shafts of his quiver to enter into my kidneys.

14 I have become a derision to all my people, and their song all day long.

15 He has filled me with bitterness.
He has stuffed me with wormwood.

16 He has also broken my teeth with gravel.
He has covered me with ashes.

17 You have removed my soul far away from peace.

I forgot prosperity.

18 I said, "My strength has perished, along with my expectation from Yahweh."

19 Remember my affliction and my misery,
the wormwood and the bitterness.

20 My soul still remembers them,
and is bowed down within me.

21 This I recall to my mind;
therefore I have hope.

22 It is because of Yahweh's loving kindnesses that we are not consumed, because his compassion doesn't fail.

23 They are new every morning.

Great is your faithfulness.

24 "Yahweh is my portion," says my soul.
"Therefore I will hope in him."

25 Yahweh is good to those who wait for him, to the soul who seeks him.

26 It is good that a man should hope and quietly wait for the salvation of Yahweh.

27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

28 Let him sit alone and keep silence, because he has laid it on him.

29 Let him put his mouth in the dust,
if it is so that there may be hope.

30 Let him give his cheek to him who strikes
him.

Let him be filled full of reproach.

31 For the Lord will not cast off forever.

32 For though he causes grief, yet he will have compassion according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.

33 For he does not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men.

34 To crush under foot all the prisoners of the
earth,

35 to turn away the right of a man before the face of the Most High,

36 to subvert a man in his cause, the Lord doesn't approve.

37 Who is he who says, and it comes to pass,
when the Lord doesn't command it?

38 Doesn't evil and good come out of the mouth of the Most High?

39 Why does a living man complain,
a man for the punishment of his sins?

40 Let us search and try our ways,
and turn again to Yahweh.

41 Let's lift up our heart with our hands to God¹ in the heavens.

42 "We have transgressed and have rebelled.
You have not pardoned.

43 "You have covered us with anger and pursued us.

You have killed.

You have not pitied.

44 You have covered yourself with a cloud,
so that no prayer can pass through.

45 You have made us an off-scouring and refuse

in the middle of the peoples.

46 "All our enemies have opened their mouth wide against us.

47 Terror and the pit have come on us, devastation and destruction."

48 My eye runs down with streams of water, for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49 My eye pours down
and doesn't cease,

without any intermission,

50 until Yahweh looks down,
and sees from heaven.

51 My eye affects my soul,

because of all the daughters of my city.

52 They have chased me relentlessly like a bird,

those who are my enemies without cause.

53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and have cast a stone on me.

54 Waters flowed over my head.

I said, "I am cut off."

55 I called on your name, Yahweh, out of the lowest dungeon.

56 You heard my voice:

"Don't hide your ear from my sighing, and my cry."

57 You came near in the day that I called on
you.

You said, "Don't be afraid."

58 Lord, you have pleaded the causes of my soul.

You have redeemed my life.

59 Yahweh, you have seen my wrong.

Judge my cause.

60 You have seen all their vengeance
and all their plans against me.

61 You have heard their reproach, Yahweh,
and all their plans against me,

62 the lips of those that rose up against me,
and their plots against me all day long.

63 You see their sitting down and their rising up.

I am their song.

64 You will pay them back, Yahweh,

according to the work of their hands.

65 You will give them hardness of heart,
your curse to them.

66 You will pursue them in anger, and destroy them from under the heavens of Yahweh.

4 How the gold has become dim!

The most pure gold has changed!

The stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the head of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold,

how they are esteemed as earthen pitchers,

¹13:41 The Hebrew word rendered "God" is "אֱלֹהִים" (Elohim).

the work of the hands of the potter!
 3 Even the jackals offer their breast.
 They nurse their young ones.
 But the daughter of my people has become cruel,
 like the ostriches in the wilderness.
 4 The tongue of the nursing child clings to the roof of his mouth for thirst.
 The young children ask bread,
 and no one breaks it for them.
 5 Those who ate delicacies are desolate in the streets.
 Those who were brought up in purple embrace dunghills.
 6 For the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom, which was overthrown as in a moment.
 No hands were laid on her.
 7 Her nobles were purer than snow.
 They were whiter than milk.
 They were more ruddy in body than rubies.
 Their polishing was like sapphire.
 8 Their appearance is blacker than a coal.
 They are not known in the streets.
 Their skin clings to their bones.
 It is withered.
 It has become like a stick.
 9 Those who are killed with the sword are better than those who are killed with hunger;
 For these pine away, stricken through,
 for lack of the fruits of the field.
 10 The hands of the pitiful women have boiled their own children.
 They were their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people.
 11 Yahweh has accomplished his wrath.
 He has poured out his fierce anger.
 He has kindled a fire in Zion,
 which has devoured its foundations.
 12 The kings of the earth didn't believe,
 neither did all the inhabitants of the world, that the adversary and the enemy would enter into the gates of Jerusalem.
 13 It is because of the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests,

That have shed the blood of the just in the middle of her.
 14 They wander as blind men in the streets.
 They are polluted with blood,
 So that men can't touch their garments.
 15 "Go away!" they cried to them.
 "Unclean! Go away! Go away! Don't touch!
 When they fled away and wandered, men said
 among the nations,
 "They can't live here any more."
 16 Yahweh's anger has scattered them.
 He will not pay attention to them any more.
 They didn't respect the persons of the priests.
 They didn't favor the elders.
 17 Our eyes still fail,
 looking in vain for our help.
 In our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save.
 18 They hunt our steps,
 so that we can't go in our streets.
 Our end is near.
 Our days are fulfilled,
 for our end has come.
 19 Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles of the sky.
 They chased us on the mountains.
 They set an ambush for us in the wilderness.
 20 The breath of our nostrils,
 the anointed of Yahweh,
 was taken in their pits;
 of whom we said,
 under his shadow we will live among the
 nations.
 21 Rejoice and be glad, daughter of Edom, that dwells in the land of Uz.
 The cup will pass through to you also.
 You will be drunken,
 and will make yourself naked.
 22 The punishment of your iniquity is accomplished, daughter of Zion.
 He will no more carry you away into captivity.
 He will visit your iniquity, daughter of Edom.
 He will uncover your sins.
 5 Remember, Yahweh, what has come on us.
 5 Look, and see our reproach.

2 Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers,
 our houses to aliens.
 3 We are orphans and fatherless.
 Our mothers are as widows.
 4 We have drunken our water for money.
 Our wood is sold to us.
 5 Our pursuers are on our necks.
 We are weary, and have no rest.
 6 We have given our hands to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.
 7 Our fathers sinned, and are no more.
 We have borne their iniquities.
 8 Servants rule over us.
 There is no one to deliver us out of their hand.
 9 We get our bread at the peril of our lives,
 because of the sword of the wilderness.
 10 Our skin is black like an oven,
 because of the burning heat of famine.
 11 They ravished the women in Zion,
 the virgins in the cities of Judah.
 12 Princes were hanged up by their hands.

The faces of elders were not honored.
 13 The young men carry millstones.
 The children stumbled under loads of wood.
 14 The elders have ceased from the gate,
 and the young men from their music.
 15 The joy of our heart has ceased.
 Our dance is turned into mourning.
 16 The crown has fallen from our head.
 Woe to us, for we have sinned!
 17 For this our heart is faint.
 For these things our eyes are dim.
 18 For the mountain of Zion, which is desolate.
 The foxes walk on it.
 19 You, Yahweh, remain forever.
 Your throne is from generation to generation.
 20 Why do you forget us forever,
 and forsake us for so long a time?
 21 Turn us to yourself, Yahweh, and we will be turned.
 Renew our days as of old.
 22 But you have utterly rejected us.
 You are very angry against us.

The Book of

Ezekiel

1 Now in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river Chebar, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.^{§§}

² In the fifth of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity, ³ Yahweh's* word came to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and Yahweh's hand was there on him.

¹⁰ As for the likeness of their faces, they had the face of a man. The four of them had the face of a lion on the right side. The four of them had the face of an ox on the left side. The four of them also had the face of an eagle. ¹¹ Such were their faces. Their wings were spread out above. Two wings of each one touched another, and two covered their bodies. ¹² Each one went straight forward: where the spirit was to go, they went. They didn't turn when they went. ¹³ As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches. The fire went up and down among the living creatures. The fire was bright, and lightning went out of the fire. ¹⁴ The living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

¹⁵ Now as I saw the living creatures, behold, there was one wheel on the earth beside the living creatures, for each of the four faces of it. ¹⁶ The appearance of the wheels and their work was like a beryl. The four of them had one likeness. Their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel within a wheel. ¹⁷ When they went, they went in their four directions. They didn't turn when they went. ¹⁸ As for their rims, they were high and dreadful; and the four of them had their rims full of eyes all around.

¹⁹ When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them. When the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. ²⁰ Wherever the spirit was to go, they went. The spirit was to go there. The wheels were lifted up beside them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. ²¹ When those went, these went. When those stood, these stood. When those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up beside them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

²² Over the head of the living creature there was the likeness of an expanse, like an awesome crystal to look at, stretched out over their heads above. ²³ Under the expanse, their wings were straight, one toward the other. Each one had two which covered on this side, and each one had two which covered their bodies on that side. ²⁴ When they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters, like the voice of the Almighty, a noise of tumult like the noise of an army. When they stood, they let down their wings.

§§1:1 The Hebrew word rendered "God" is "אֱלֹהִים" (Elohim).

*1:3 "Yahweh" is God's proper Name, sometimes rendered "LORD" (all caps) in other translations.

†1:4 "Behold", from "וַיַּבְהִי" means look at, take notice, observe, see, or gaze at. It is often used as an interjection.

²⁵ There was a voice above the expanse that was over their heads. When they stood, they let down their wings. ²⁶ Above the expanse that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire[‡] stone. On the likeness of the throne was a likeness as the appearance of a man on it above. ²⁷ I saw as it were glowing metal, as the appearance of fire within it all around, from the appearance of his waist and upward; and from the appearance of his waist and downward I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness around him. ²⁸ As the appearance of the rainbow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness all around.

This was the appearance of the likeness of Yahweh's glory. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice of one that spoke.

2 He said to me, "Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak with you." ² The Spirit entered into me when he spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard him who spoke to me.

³ He said to me, "Son of man, I send you to the children of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me. They and their fathers have transgressed against me even to this very day. ⁴ The children are impudent and stiff-hearted. I am sending you to them, and you shall tell them, 'This is what the Lord[¶] Yahweh says.' ⁵ They, whether they will hear, or whether they will refuse, for they are a rebellious house, yet they will know that there has been a prophet among them. ⁶ You, son of man, don't be afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns are with you, and you dwell among scorpions. Don't be afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. ⁷ You shall speak my words to them, whether they will hear, or whether they will refuse; for they are most rebellious. ⁸ But you, son of man, hear what I tell you. Don't be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth, and eat that which I give you."

⁹ When I looked, behold, a hand was stretched out to me; and, behold, a scroll of a book was in it. ¹⁰ He spread it before me. It was written within and without; and lamentations, mourning, and woe were written in it.

3 He said to me, "Son of man, eat what you find. Eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel."

² So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat the scroll.

³ He said to me, "Son of man, cause your belly to eat, and fill your bowels with this scroll that I give you."

Then I ate it; and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

⁴ He said to me, "Son of man, go to the house of Israel, and speak my words to them. ⁵ For you are not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel; ⁶ not to many peoples of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words you can't understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you. ⁷ But the house of Israel will not listen to you, for they will not listen to me; for all the house of Israel are obstinate[§] and hard-hearted. ⁸ Behold, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads. ⁹ I have made your forehead as a diamond, harder than flint. Don't be afraid of them, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house."

[‡]1:26 or, lapis lazuli

[§]3:7 Literally, have a hard forehead

10 Moreover he said to me, “Son of man, receive in your heart and hear with your ears all my words that I speak to you. 11 Go to them of the captivity, to the children of your people, and speak to them, and tell them, ‘This is what the Lord Yahweh says,’ whether they will hear, or whether they will refuse.

12 Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, saying, “Blessed be Yahweh’s glory from his place.” 13 I heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, even the noise of a great rushing. 14 So the Spirit lifted me up, and took me away; and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; and Yahweh’s hand was strong on me. 15 Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel Aviv, that lived by the river Chebar, and to where they lived; and I sat there overwhelmed among them seven days.

16 At the end of seven days, Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, 17 “Son of man, I have made you a watchman to the house of Israel. Therefore hear the word from my mouth, and warn them from me. 18 When I tell the wicked, ‘You will surely die;’ and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; that wicked man will die in his iniquity; but I will require his blood at your hand. 19 Yet if you warn the wicked, and he doesn’t turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he will die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul.”

20 “Again, when a righteous man turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he will die. Because you have not given him warning, he will die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he has done will not be remembered; but I will require his blood at your hand. 21 Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man, that the righteous not sin, and he does not sin, he will surely live, because he took warning; and you have delivered your soul.”

22 Yahweh’s hand was there on me; and he said to me, “Arise, go out into the plain, and I will talk with you there.”

23 Then I arose, and went out into the plain, and behold, Yahweh’s glory stood there, like the glory which I saw by the river Chebar. Then I fell on my face.

24 Then the Spirit entered into me, and set me on my feet. He spoke with me, and said to me, “Go, shut yourself inside your house. 25 But you, son of man, behold, they will put ropes on you, and will bind you with them, and you will not go out among them. 26 I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, that you will be mute, and will not be able to correct them; for they are a rebellious house. 27 But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall tell them, ‘This is what the Lord Yahweh says.’ He who hears, let him hear; and he who refuses, let him refuse; for they are a rebellious house.”

4 “You also, son of man, take a tile, and lay it before yourself, and portray on it a city, even Jerusalem. 2 Lay siege against it, build forts against it, and cast up a mound against it. Also set camps against it and plant battering rams against it all around. 3 Take for yourself an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between you and the city. Then set your face toward it. It will be besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

4 “Moreover lie on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel on it. According to the number of the days that you shall lie on it, you shall bear their iniquity. 5 For I have appointed the years of their iniquity to be to you a number of days, even three hundred ninety days. So you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 “Again, when you have accomplished these, you shall lie on your right side, and shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah. I have appointed forty days, each day for a year, to you. 7 You shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with your arm uncovered; and you shall prophesy against it. ⁸ Behold, I put ropes on you, and you shall not turn yourself from one side to the other, until you have accomplished the days of your siege.

⁹ “Take for yourself also wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel. Make bread of it. According to the number of the days that you will lie on your side, even three hundred ninety days, you shall eat of it. ¹⁰ Your food which you shall eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day. From time to time you shall eat it. ¹¹ You shall drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin.†† From time to time you shall drink. ¹² You shall eat it as barley cakes, and you shall bake it in their sight with dung that comes out of man.” ¹³ Yahweh said, “Even thus will the children of Israel eat their bread unclean, among the nations where I will drive them.”

¹⁴ Then I said, “Ah Lord Yahweh! Behold, my soul has not been polluted; for from my youth up even until now I have not eaten of that which dies of itself, or is torn of animals. No abominable meat has come into my mouth!”

¹⁵ Then he said to me, “Behold, I have given you cow’s dung for man’s dung, and you shall prepare your bread on it.”

¹⁶ Moreover he said to me, “Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem. They will eat bread by weight, and with fearfulness. They will drink water by measure, and in dismay; ¹⁷ that they may lack bread and water, be dismayed one with another, and pine away in their iniquity.

5 “You, son of man, take a sharp sword. You shall take it as a barber’s razor to yourself, and shall cause it to pass over your head and over your beard. Then take balances to weigh and divide the hair. ² A third part you shall burn in the fire in the middle of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled. You shall take a third part, and strike with the sword around it. A third part you shall scatter to the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them. ³ You shall take of it a few in number, and bind them in the folds of your robe. ⁴ Of these again you shall take, and cast them into the middle of the fire, and burn them in the fire. From it a fire will come out into all the house of Israel.

⁵ “The Lord Yahweh says: ‘This is Jerusalem. I have set her in the middle of the nations, and countries are around her. ⁶ She has rebelled against my ordinances in doing wickedness more than the nations, and against my statutes more than the countries that are around her; for they have rejected my ordinances, and as for my statutes, they have not walked in them.’

⁷ “Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: ‘Because you are more turbulent than the nations that are around you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my ordinances, neither have followed the ordinances of the nations that are around you; ⁸ therefore the Lord Yahweh says: ‘Behold, I, even I, am against you; and I will execute judgments among you in the sight of the nations. ⁹ I will do in you that which I have not done, and which I will not do anything like it any more, because of all your abominations. ¹⁰ Therefore the fathers will eat the sons within you, and the sons will eat their fathers. I will execute judgments on you; and I will scatter the whole remnant of you to all the winds. ¹¹ Therefore as I live,’ says the Lord Yahweh, ‘surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things, and with all your abominations, therefore I will also diminish you. My eye won’t spare, and I will have no pity. ¹² A third part of you will die with the pestilence, and they will be consumed with famine within you. A third part will fall by the sword around you. A third part I will scatter to all the winds, and will draw out a sword after them.

4:10 A shekel is about 10 grams or about 0.35 ounces.

††4:11 A hin is about 6.5 liters or 1.7 gallons.

13 “Thus my anger will be accomplished, and I will cause my wrath toward them to rest, and I will be comforted. They will know that I, Yahweh, have spoken in my zeal, when I have accomplished my wrath on them.

14 “Moreover I will make you a desolation and a reproach among the nations that are around you, in the sight of all that pass by. 15 So it will be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, to the nations that are around you, when I execute judgments on you in anger and in wrath, and in wrathful rebukes—I, Yahweh, have spoken it— 16 when I send on them the evil arrows of famine that are for destruction, which I will send to destroy you. I will increase the famine on you, and will break your staff of bread. 17 I will send on you famine and evil animals, and they will bereave you. Pestilence and blood will pass through you. I will bring the sword on you. I, Yahweh, have spoken it.”

6 Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, 2 “Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy to them, 3 and say, ‘You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Yahweh! The Lord Yahweh says to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys: “Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword on you, and I will destroy your high places. 4 Your altars will become desolate, and your incense altars will be broken. I will cast down your slain men before your idols. 5 I will lay the dead bodies of the children of Israel before their idols. I will scatter your bones around your altars. 6 In all your dwelling places, the cities will be laid waste and the high places will be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your incense altars may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. 7 The slain will fall among you, and you will know that I am Yahweh.

8 ““Yet I will leave a remnant, in that you will have some that escape the sword among the nations, when you are scattered through the countries. 9 Those of you that escape will remember me among the nations where they are carried captive, how I have been broken with their lewd heart, which has departed from me, and with their eyes, which play the prostitute after their idols. Then they will loathe themselves in their own sight for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. 10 They will know that I am Yahweh. I have not said in vain that I would do this evil to them.”

11 “The Lord Yahweh says: ‘Strike with your hand, and stamp with your foot, and say, “Alas!” Because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel; for they will fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. 12 He who is far off will die of the pestilence. He who is near will fall by the sword. He who remains and is besieged will die by the famine. Thus I will accomplish my wrath on them. 13 You will know that I am Yahweh, when their slain men are among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the places where they offered pleasant aroma to all their idols. 14 I will stretch out my hand on them, and make the land desolate and waste, from the wilderness toward Diblah, throughout all their habitations. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.”

7 Moreover Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, 2 “You, son of man, the Lord Yahweh says to the land of Israel, ‘An end! The end has come on the four corners of the land. 3 Now is the end on you, and I will send my anger on you, and will judge you according to your ways. I will bring on you all your abominations. 4 My eye will not spare you, neither will I have pity; but I will bring your ways on you, and your abominations will be among you. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.’

5 “The Lord Yahweh says: ‘An evil! A unique evil! Behold, it comes. 6 An end has come. The end has come! It awakes against you. Behold, it comes. 7 Your doom has come to you, inhabitant of the land! The time has come! The day is near, a day of tumult, and not of joyful shouting, on the mountains. ⁸ Now I will shortly pour out my wrath on you, and accomplish my anger against you, and will judge you according to your ways. I will bring on you all your abominations. ⁹ My eye won't spare, neither will I have pity. I will punish you according to your ways. Your abominations will be among you. Then you will know that I, Yahweh, strike.

¹⁰ "Behold, the day! Behold, it comes! Your doom has gone out. The rod has blossomed. Pride has budded. ¹¹ Violence has risen up into a rod of wickedness. None of them will remain, nor of their multitude, nor of their wealth. There will be nothing of value among them. ¹² The time has come! The day draws near. Don't let the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath is on all its multitude. ¹³ For the seller won't return to that which is sold, although they are still alive; for the vision concerns the whole multitude of it. None will return. None will strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life. ¹⁴ They have blown the trumpet, and have made all ready; but no one goes to the battle; for my wrath is on all its multitude.

¹⁵ "The sword is outside, and the pestilence and the famine within. He who is in the field will die by the sword. He who is in the city will be devoured by famine and pestilence. ¹⁶ But those of those who escape, they will escape and will be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, everyone in his iniquity. ¹⁷ All hands will be feeble, and all knees will be weak as water. ¹⁸ They will also clothe themselves with sackcloth, and horror will cover them. Shame will be on all faces, and baldness on all their heads. ¹⁹ They will cast their silver in the streets, and their gold will be as an unclean thing. Their silver and their gold won't be able to deliver them in the day of Yahweh's wrath. They won't satisfy their souls or fill their bellies; because it has been the stumbling block of their iniquity.

As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations and their detestable things therein. Therefore I have made it to them as an unclean thing. ²¹ I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a plunder; and they will profane it. ²² I will also turn my face from them, and they will profane my secret place. Robbers will enter into it, and profane it.

²³ "Make chains; for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence. ²⁴ Therefore I will bring the worst of the nations, and they will possess their houses. I will also make the pride of the strong to cease. Their holy places will be profaned. ²⁵ Destruction comes! They will seek peace, and there will be none. ²⁶ Mischief will come on mischief, and rumor will be on rumor. They will seek a vision of the prophet; but the law will perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders. ²⁷ The king will mourn, and the prince will be clothed with desolation. The hands of the people of the land will be troubled. I will do to them after their way, and according to their own judgments I will judge them. Then they will know that I am Yahweh."

8 In the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, the Lord Yahweh's hand fell on me there. ² Then I saw, and behold, a likeness as the appearance of fire; from the appearance of his waist and downward, fire; and from his waist and upward, as the appearance of brightness, as it were glowing metal. ³ He stretched out the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and the sky, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the gate of the inner court that looks toward the north; where there was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy. ⁴ Behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the appearance that I saw in the plain.

5 Then he said to me, "Son of man, lift up your eyes now the way toward the north."

So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and saw, northward of the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they do? Even the great abominations that the house of Israel commit here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? But you will again see yet other great abominations."

7 He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall. 8 Then he said to me, "Son of man, dig now in the wall."

When I had dug in the wall, I saw a door.

9 He said to me, "Go in, and see the wicked abominations that they do here."

10 So I went in and looked, and saw every form of creeping things, abominable animals, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed around on the wall. 11 Seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel stood before them. In the middle of them Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan stood, every man with his censer in his hand; and the smell of the cloud of incense went up.

12 Then he said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in his rooms of imagery? For they say, 'Yahweh doesn't see us. Yahweh has forsaken the land.'" 13 He said also to me, "You will again see more of the great abominations which they do."

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of Yahweh's house which was toward the north; and I saw the women sit there weeping for Tammuz. 15 Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? You will again see yet greater abominations than these."

16 He brought me into the inner court of Yahweh's house; and I saw at the door of Yahweh's temple, between the porch and the altar, there were about twenty-five men, with their backs toward Yahweh's temple, and their faces toward the east. They were worshiping the sun toward the east.

17 Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? For they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again to provoke me to anger. Behold, they put the branch to their nose. 18 Therefore I will also deal in wrath. My eye won't spare, neither will I have pity. Though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, yet I will not hear them."

9 Then he cried in my ears with a loud voice, saying, "Cause those who are in charge of the city to draw near, each man with his destroying weapon in his hand." 2 Behold, six men came from the way of the upper gate, which lies toward the north, every man with his slaughter weapon in his hand. One man in the middle of them was clothed in linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side. They went in, and stood beside the bronze altar.

3 The glory of the God of Israel went up from the cherub, whereupon it was, to the threshold of the house; and he called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writer's inkhorn by his side. 4 Yahweh said to him, "Go through the middle of the city, through the middle of Jerusalem, and set a mark on the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry over all the abominations that are done within it."

5 To the others he said in my hearing, "Go through the city after him, and strike. Don't let your eye spare, neither have pity. 6 Kill utterly the old man, the young man, the virgin, little children and women; but don't come near any man on whom is the mark. Begin at my sanctuary."

Then they began at the old men who were before the house.

7 He said to them, "Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain. Go out!"

They went out, and struck in the city. 8 While they were killing, and I was left, I fell on my face, and cried, and said, "Ah Lord Yahweh! Will you destroy all the residue of Israel in your pouring out of your wrath on Jerusalem?"

⁹Then he said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perversion; for they say, 'Yahweh has forsaken the land, and Yahweh doesn't see.'¹⁰ As for me also, my eye won't spare, neither will I have pity, but I will bring their way on their head."

10 Then I looked, and see, in the expanse that was over the head of the cherubim there appeared above them as it were a sapphire^{††} stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.² He spoke to the man clothed in linen, and said, "Go in between the whirling wheels, even under the cherub, and fill both your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city."

He went in as I watched.³ Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court.⁴ Yahweh's glory mounted up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of Yahweh's glory.⁵ The sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of God Almighty when he speaks.

⁶It came to pass, when he commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, "Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim," that he went in, and stood beside a wheel.⁷ The cherub stretched out his hand from between the cherubim to the fire that was between the cherubim, and took some of it, and put it into the hands of him who was clothed in linen, who took it and went out.⁸ The form of a man's hand appeared here in the cherubim under their wings.

⁹I looked, and behold, there were four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside one cherub, and another wheel beside another cherub. The appearance of the wheels was like a beryl stone.¹⁰ As for their appearance, the four of them had one likeness, like a wheel within a wheel.¹¹ When they went, they went in their four directions. They didn't turn as they went, but to the place where the head looked they followed it. They didn't turn as they went.¹² Their whole body, including their backs, their hands, their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes all around, even the wheels that the four of them had.¹³ As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, "the whirling wheels".¹⁴ Every one of them had four faces. The first face was the face of the cherub. The second face was the face of a man. The third face was the face of a lion. The fourth was the face of an eagle.

¹⁵The cherubim mounted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river Chebar.¹⁶ When the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels also didn't turn from beside them.¹⁷ When they stood, these stood. When they mounted up, these mounted up with them; for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

¹⁸Yahweh's glory went out from over the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim.¹⁹ The cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight when they went out, with the wheels beside them. Then they stood at the door of the east gate of Yahweh's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

²⁰This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim.²¹ Every one had four faces, and every one four wings. The likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. ²² As for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces which I saw by the river Chebar, their appearances and themselves. They each went straight forward.

11 Moreover the Spirit lifted me up, and brought me to the east gate of Yahweh's house, which looks eastward. Behold, twenty-five men were at the door of the gate; and I saw among them Jaazaniah the son of Az-zur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people. ² He said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity, and who give wicked counsel in this city; ³ who say, 'The time is not near to build houses. This is the cauldron, and we are the meat.' ⁴ Therefore prophesy against them. Prophesy, son of man."

⁵ Yahweh's Spirit fell on me, and he said to me, "Speak, 'Yahweh says: "Thus you have said, house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your mind. ⁶ You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled its streets with the slain.

⁷ "Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: "Your slain whom you have laid in the middle of it, they are the meat, and this is the cauldron; but you will be brought out of the middle of it. ⁸ You have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword on you," says the Lord Yahweh. ⁹ "I will bring you out of the middle of it, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you. ¹⁰ You will fall by the sword. I will judge you in the border of Israel. Then you will know that I am Yahweh. ¹¹ This will not be your cauldron, neither will you be the meat in the middle of it. I will judge you in the border of Israel. ¹² You will know that I am Yahweh, for you have not walked in my statutes, You have not executed my ordinances, but have done after the ordinances of the nations that are around you."'''

¹³ When I prophesied, Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then I fell down on my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, "Ah Lord Yahweh! Will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel?"

¹⁴ Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ¹⁵ "Son of man, your brothers, even your brothers, the men of your relatives, and all the house of Israel, all of them, are they to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, 'Go far away from Yahweh. This land has been given to us for a possession.'"

¹⁶ "Therefore say, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "Whereas I have removed them far off among the nations, and whereas I have scattered them among the countries, yet I will be to them a sanctuary for a little while in the countries where they have come.'"

¹⁷ "Therefore say, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel."

¹⁸ "They will come there, and they will take away all its detestable things and all its abominations from there. ¹⁹ I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you. I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh; ²⁰ that they may walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them. They will be my people, and I will be their God. ²¹ But as for them whose heart walks after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their way on their own heads,' says the Lord Yahweh."

²² Then the cherubim lifted up their wings, and the wheels were beside them. The glory of the God of Israel was over them above. ²³ Yahweh's glory went up from the middle of the city, and stood on the mountain which is on the east side of the city. ²⁴ The Spirit lifted me up, and brought me in the vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to the captives.

So the vision that I had seen went up from me. ²⁵ Then I spoke to the captives all the things that Yahweh had shown me.

12 ² Yahweh's word also came to me, saying, ² "Son of man, you dwell in the middle of the rebellious house, who have eyes to see, and don't see, who have ears to hear, and don't hear; for they are a rebellious house.

³“Therefore, you son of man, prepare your stuff for moving, and move by day in their sight. You shall move from your place to another place in their sight. It may be they will consider, though they are a rebellious house. ⁴You shall bring out your stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for moving. You shall go out yourself at evening in their sight, as when men go out into exile. ⁵Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry your stuff out that way. ⁶In their sight you shall bear it on your shoulder, and carry it out in the dark. You shall cover your face, so that you don't see the land, for I have set you for a sign to the house of Israel.”

⁷I did so as I was commanded. I brought out my stuff by day, as stuff for moving, and in the evening I dug through the wall with my hand. I brought it out in the dark, and bore it on my shoulder in their sight.

⁸In the morning, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ⁹“Son of man, hasn't the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, ‘What are you doing?’

¹⁰“Say to them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: “This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel among whom they are.”’

¹¹“Say, ‘I am your sign. As I have done, so will it be done to them. They will go into exile, into captivity.

¹²“The prince who is among them will bear on his shoulder in the dark, and will go out. They will dig through the wall to carry things out that way. He will cover his face, because he will not see the land with his eyes. ¹³I will also spread my net on him, and he will be taken in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet he will not see it, though he will die there. ¹⁴I will scatter toward every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his bands. I will draw out the sword after them.

them through the countries. ¹⁶But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence, that they may declare all their abominations among the nations where they come. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.”

¹⁷Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ¹⁸“Son of man, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and with fearfulness. ¹⁹Tell the people of the land, ‘The Lord Yahweh says concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the land of Israel: “They will eat their bread with fearfulness, and drink their water in dismay, that her land may be desolate, and all that is therein, because of the violence of all those who dwell therein. ²⁰The cities that are inhabited will be laid waste, and the land will be a desolation. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.”’”

²¹Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²²“Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Israel, saying, ‘The days are prolonged, and every vision fails?’ ²³Tell them therefore, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: “I will make this proverb to cease, and they will no more use it as a proverb in Israel;”’ but tell them, “‘The days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision. ²⁴For there will be no more any false vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel. ²⁵For I am Yahweh. I will speak, and the word that I speak will be performed. It will be no more deferred; for in your days, rebellious house, I will speak the word, and will perform it,” says the Lord Yahweh.”’

²⁶Again Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²⁷“Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, ‘The vision that he sees is for many days to come, and he prophesies of times that are far off.’

²⁸“Therefore tell them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: “None of my words will be deferred any more, but the word which I speak will be performed,” says the Lord Yahweh.”’

13 ²Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to those who prophesy out of their own heart, 'Hear Yahweh's word: ³The Lord Yahweh says, "Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! ⁴Israel, your prophets have been like foxes in the waste places. ⁵You have not gone up into the gaps or built up the wall for the house of Israel, to stand in the battle in Yahweh's day. ⁶They have seen falsehood and lying divination, who say, 'Yahweh says;' but Yahweh has not sent them. They have made men to hope that the word would be confirmed. ⁷Haven't you seen a false vision, and haven't you spoken a lying divination, in that you say, 'Yahweh says;' but I have not spoken?"

⁸"Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: "Because you have spoken falsehood and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you," says the Lord Yahweh. ⁹"My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and who utter lying divinations. They will not be in the council of my people, neither will they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither will they enter into the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh."

¹³"Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: "I will even tear it with a stormy wind in my wrath. There will be an overflowing shower in my anger, and great hailstones in wrath to consume it. ¹⁴So I will break down the wall that you have plastered with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation will be uncovered. It will fall, and you will be consumed in the middle of it. Then you will know that I am Yahweh. ¹⁵Thus I will accomplish my wrath on the wall, and on those who have plastered it with whitewash. I will tell you, "The wall is no more, neither those who plastered it; ¹⁶to wit, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace,"" says the Lord Yahweh."

¹⁷You, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy against them, ¹⁸and say, "The Lord Yahweh says: "Woe to the women who sew pillows on all elbows, and make kerchiefs for the head of persons of every stature to hunt souls! Will you hunt the souls of my people, and save souls alive for yourselves? ¹⁹You have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to kill the souls who should not die, and to save the souls alive who should not live, by your lying to my people who listen to lies."

²⁰"Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: "Behold, I am against your pillows, with which you hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms. I will let the souls go, even the souls whom you hunt to make them fly. ²¹I will also tear your kerchiefs, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they will be no more in your hand to be hunted. Then you will know that I am Yahweh. ²²Because with lies you have grieved the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, and be saved alive. ²³Therefore you shall no more see false visions, nor practice divination. I will deliver my people out of your hand. Then you will know that I am Yahweh."

14 Then some of the elders of Israel came to me, and sat before me. ²Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ³"Son of man, these men have taken their idols into their heart, and put the stumbling block of their iniquity before their face. Should I be inquired of at all by them? ⁴Therefore speak to them, and tell them, “The Lord Yahweh says: “Every man of the house of Israel who takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet; I Yahweh will answer him therein according to the multitude of his idols; ⁵ that I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.””

⁶ “Therefore tell the house of Israel, “The Lord Yahweh says: “Return, and turn yourselves from your idols! Turn away your faces from all your abominations.

⁷ ““For everyone of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who live in Israel, who separates himself from me, and takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet to inquire for himself of me; I Yahweh will answer him by myself. ⁸ I will set my face against that man, and will make him an astonishment, for a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from among my people. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.

⁹ ““If the prophet is deceived and speaks a word, I, Yahweh, have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand on him, and will destroy him from among my people Israel. ¹⁰ They will bear their iniquity. The iniquity of the prophet will be even as the iniquity of him who seeks him; ¹¹ that the house of Israel may no more go astray from me, neither defile themselves any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God,” says the Lord Yahweh.””

¹² Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ¹³ “Son of man, when a land sins against me by committing a trespass, and I stretch out my hand on it, and break the staff of its bread, and send famine on it, and cut off from it man and animal; ¹⁴ though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they would deliver only their own souls by their righteousness,” says the Lord Yahweh.

¹⁵ “If I cause evil animals to pass through the land, and they ravage it, and it is made desolate, so that no man may pass through because of the animals; ¹⁶ though these three men were in it, as I live,” says the Lord Yahweh, “they would deliver neither sons nor daughters. They only would be delivered, but the land would be desolate.

¹⁷ “Or if I bring a sword on that land, and say, ‘Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off from it man and animal;’ ¹⁸ though these three men were in it, as I live,” says the Lord Yahweh, “they would deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only would be delivered themselves.

¹⁹ “Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my wrath on it in blood, to cut off from it man and animal; ²⁰ though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live,” says the Lord Yahweh, “they would deliver neither son nor daughter; they would deliver only their own souls by their righteousness.”

²¹ For the Lord Yahweh says: “How much more when I send my four severe judgments on Jerusalem, the sword, the famine, the evil animals, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and animal! ²² Yet, behold, there will be left a remnant in it that will be carried out, both sons and daughters. Behold, they will come out to you, and you will see their way and their doings. Then you will be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought on it. ²³ They will comfort you, when you see their way and their doings; then you will know that I have not done all that I have done in it without cause,” says the Lord Yahweh.

15 Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ² “Son of man, what is the vine tree more than any tree, the vine-branch which is among the trees of the forest? ³ Will wood be taken of it to make anything? Will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel on it? ⁴ Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire has devoured both its ends, and the middle of it is burned. Is it profitable for any work? ⁵ Behold, when it was whole, it was suitable for no work. How much less, when the fire has devoured it, and it has been burned, will it yet be suitable for any work?"

⁶Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: "As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ⁷I will set my face against them. They will go out from the fire, but the fire will devour them. Then you will know that I am Yahweh, when I set my face against them. ⁸I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass," says the Lord Yahweh.

16 Again Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations; ³and say, "The Lord Yahweh says to Jerusalem: "Your origin and your birth is of the land of the Canaanite. An Amorite was your father, and your mother was a Hittite. ⁴As for your birth, in the day you were born your navel was not cut. You weren't washed in water to cleanse you. You weren't salted at all, nor wrapped in blankets at all. ⁵No eye pitied you, to do any of these things to you, to have compassion on you; but you were cast out in the open field, because you were abhorred in the day that you were born.

⁶"When I passed by you, and saw you wallowing in your blood, I said to you, "Though you are in your blood, live!" Yes, I said to you, "Though you are in your blood, live!" ⁷I caused you to multiply as that which grows in the field, and you increased and grew great, and you attained to excellent ornament. Your breasts were formed, and your hair grew; yet you were naked and bare.

⁸"Now when I passed by you, and looked at you, behold, your time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over you, and covered your nakedness. Yes, I swore to you, and entered into a covenant with you," says the Lord Yahweh, "and you became mine.

⁹"Then washed I you with water. Yes, I thoroughly washed away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil. ¹⁰I clothed you also with embroidered work, and put sealskin sandals on you. I dressed you with fine linen and covered you with silk. ¹¹I decked you with ornaments, put bracelets on your hands, and put a chain on your neck. ¹²I put a ring on your nose, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. ¹³Thus you were decked with gold and silver. Your clothing was of fine linen, silk, and embroidered work. You ate fine flour, honey, and oil. You were exceedingly beautiful, and you prospered to royal estate. ¹⁴Your renown went out among the nations for your beauty; for it was perfect, through my majesty which I had put on you," says the Lord Yahweh.

¹⁵"But you trusted in your beauty, and played the prostitute because of your renown, and poured out your prostitution on everyone who passed by. It was his. ¹⁶You took some of your garments, and made for yourselves high places decked with various colors, and played the prostitute on them. This shall not happen, neither shall it be. ¹⁷You also took your beautiful jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself images of men, and played the prostitute with them. ¹⁸You took your embroidered garments, covered them, and set my oil and my incense before them. ¹⁹My bread also which I gave you, fine flour, oil, and honey, with which I fed you, you even set it before them for a pleasant aroma; and so it was," says the Lord Yahweh.

²⁰"Moreover you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne to me, and you have sacrificed these to them to be devoured. Was your prostitution a small matter, ²¹that you have slain my children, and delivered them up, in causing them to pass through the fire to them? ²²In all your abominations and your prostitution you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and were wallowing in your blood.

²³"It has happened after all your wickedness. Woe, woe to you!" says the Lord Yahweh, ²⁴"that you have built for yourselves a vaulted place, and have made yourselves a lofty place in every street. ²⁵ You have built your lofty place at the head of every way, and have made your beauty an abomination, and have opened your feet to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your prostitution. ²⁶ You have also committed sexual immorality with the Egyptians, your neighbors, great of flesh; and have multiplied your prostitution, to provoke me to anger. ²⁷ See therefore, I have stretched out my hand over you, and have diminished your portion, and delivered you to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your lewd way. ²⁸ You have played the prostitute also with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; yes, you have played the prostitute with them, and yet you weren't satisfied. ²⁹ You have moreover multiplied your prostitution to the land of merchants, to Chaldea; and yet you weren't satisfied with this.

³⁰ "How weak is your heart," says the Lord Yahweh, "since you do all these things, the work of an impudent prostitute; ³¹ in that you build your vaulted place at the head of every way, and make your lofty place in every street, and have not been as a prostitute, in that you scorn pay.

³² "A wife who commits adultery! Who takes strangers instead of her husband! ³³ People give gifts to all prostitutes; but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and bribe them, that they may come to you on every side for your prostitution. ³⁴ You are different from other women in your prostitution, in that no one follows you to play the prostitute; and whereas you give hire, and no hire is given to you, therefore you are different."

³⁵ "Therefore, prostitute, hear Yahweh's word: ³⁶ The Lord Yahweh says, "Because your filthiness was poured out, and your nakedness uncovered through your prostitution with your lovers; and because of all the idols of your abominations, and for the blood of your children, that you gave to them; ³⁷ therefore see, I will gather all your lovers, with whom you have taken pleasure, and all those who you have loved, with all those who you have hated. I will even gather them against you on every side, and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness. ³⁸ I will judge you, as women who break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will bring on you the blood of wrath and jealousy. ³⁹ I will also give you into their hand, and they will throw down your vaulted place, and break down your lofty places. They will strip you of your clothes, and take your beautiful jewels. They will leave you naked and bare. ⁴⁰ They will also bring up a company against you, and they will stone you with stones, and thrust you through with their swords. ⁴¹ They will burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women. I will cause you to cease from playing the prostitute, and you will also give no hire any more. ⁴² So I will cause my wrath toward you to rest, and my jealousy will depart from you. I will be quiet, and will not be angry any more.

⁴³ "Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have raged against me in all these things; therefore, behold, I also will bring your way on your head," says the Lord Yahweh: "and you shall not commit this lewdness with all your abominations.

⁴⁴ "Behold, everyone who uses proverbs will use this proverb against you, saying, 'As is the mother, so is her daughter.' ⁴⁵ You are the daughter of your mother, who loathes her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite, and your father an Amorite. ⁴⁶ Your elder sister is Samaria, who dwells at your left hand, she and her daughters; and your younger sister, who dwells at your right hand, is Sodom with her daughters. ⁴⁷ Yet you have not walked in their ways, nor done their abominations; but soon you were more corrupt than they in all your ways. ⁴⁸ As I live," says the Lord Yahweh, "Sodom your sister has not done, she nor her daughters, as you have done, you and your daughters.

49 “Behold, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: pride, fullness of bread, and prosperous ease was in her and in her daughters. She also didn’t strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. 50 They were arrogant, and committed abomination before me. Therefore I took them away when I saw it. 51 Samaria hasn’t committed half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your sisters by all your abominations which you have done. 52 You also bear your own shame yourself, in that you have given judgment for your sisters; through your sins that you have committed more abominable than they, they are more righteous than you. Yes, be also confounded, and bear your shame, in that you have justified your sisters.

53 “I will reverse their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, and the captivity of your captives among them; 54 that you may bear your own shame, and may be ashamed because of all that you have done, in that you are a comfort to them. 55 Your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, will return to their former estate; and Samaria and her daughters will return to their former estate; and you and your daughters will return to your former estate. 56 For your sister Sodom was not mentioned by your mouth in the day of your pride, 57 before your wickedness was uncovered, as at the time of the reproach of the daughters of Syria, and of all who are around her, the daughters of the Philistines, who despise you all around. 58 You have borne your lewdness and your abominations,” says Yahweh.

59 “For the Lord Yahweh says: “I will also deal with you as you have done, who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant. 60 Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish to you an everlasting covenant. 61 Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed, when you receive your sisters, your elder sisters and your younger; and I will give them to you for daughters, but not by your covenant. 62 I will establish my covenant with you. Then you will know that I am Yahweh; 63 that you may remember, and be confounded, and never open your mouth any more, because of your shame, when I have forgiven you all that you have done,” says the Lord Yahweh.”

17 Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, 2 “Son of man, tell a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel; 3 and say, “The Lord Yahweh says: “A great eagle with great wings and long feathers, full of feathers, which had various colors, came to Lebanon, and took the top of the cedar. 4 He cropped off the topmost of its young twigs, and carried it to a land of traffic. He planted it in a city of merchants.

5 “He also took some of the seed of the land, and planted it in fruitful soil. He placed it beside many waters. He set it as a willow tree. 6 It grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and its roots were under him. So it became a vine, produced branches, and shot out sprigs.

7 “There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers. Behold, this vine bent its roots toward him, and shot out its branches toward him, from the beds of its plantation, that he might water it. 8 It was planted in a good soil by many waters, that it might produce branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a good vine.”

9 “Say, “The Lord Yahweh says: “Will it prosper? Won’t he pull up its roots, and cut off its fruit, that it may wither; that all its fresh springing leaves may wither? It can’t be raised from its roots by a strong arm or many people. 10 Yes, behold, being planted, will it prosper? Won’t it utterly wither when the east wind touches it? It will wither in the beds where it grew.”

11 Moreover Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, 12 “Say now to the rebellious house,

‘Don’t you know what these things mean?’ Tell them, ‘Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took its king, and its princes, and brought them to him to Babylon. ¹³ He took some of the royal offspring,^{¶¶} and made a covenant with him. He also brought him under an oath, and took away the mighty of the land; ¹⁴ that the kingdom might be brought low, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand. ¹⁵ But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and many people. Will he prosper? Will he who does such things escape? Will he break the covenant, and still escape?’

¹⁶ “As I live,” says the Lord Yahweh, ‘surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke, even with him in the middle of Babylon he will die. ¹⁷ Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company won’t help him in the war, when they cast up mounds and build forts, to cut off many persons. ¹⁸ For he has despised the oath by breaking the covenant; and behold, he had given his hand, and yet has done all these things. He won’t escape.

¹⁹ “Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: ‘As I live, I will surely bring on his own head my oath that he has despised and my covenant that he has broken. ²⁰ I will spread my net on him, and he will be taken in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon, and will enter into judgment with him there for his trespass that he has trespassed against me. ²¹ All his fugitives in all his bands will fall by the sword, and those who remain will be scattered toward every wind. Then you will know that I, Yahweh, have spoken it.’

²² “The Lord Yahweh says: ‘I will also take some of the lofty top of the cedar, and will plant it. I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain. ²³ I will plant it in the mountain of the height of Israel; and it will produce boughs, and bear fruit, and be a good cedar. Birds of every kind will dwell in the shade of its branches. ²⁴ All the trees of the field will know that I, Yahweh, have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree flourish.

“I, Yahweh, have spoken and have done it.”

18 Yahweh’s word came to me again, saying, ² “What do you mean, that you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying,

‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge?’

³ “As I live,” says the Lord Yahweh, “you shall not use this proverb any more in Israel. ⁴ Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine. The soul who sins, he shall die.

⁵ “But if a man is just, and does that which is lawful and right, ⁶ and has not eaten on the mountains, hasn’t lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hasn’t defiled his neighbor’s wife, hasn’t come near a woman in her impurity, ⁷ and has not wronged any, but has restored to the debtor his pledge, has taken nothing by robbery, has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; ⁸ he who hasn’t lent to them with interest, hasn’t taken any increase from them, who has withdrawn his hand from iniquity, has executed true justice between man and man,

⁹ has walked in my statutes, and has kept my ordinances, to deal truly;

he is just, he shall surely live,” says the Lord Yahweh.

¹⁰ “If he fathers a son who is a robber who sheds blood, and who does any one of these things, ¹¹ or who does not do any of those things, but even has eaten at the mountain shrines,

¶¶17:13 or, seed

 and defiled his neighbor's wife, ¹² has wronged the poor and needy,
 has taken by robbery,
 has not restored the pledge,
 and has lifted up his eyes to the idols,
 has committed abomination, ¹³ has lent with interest, and has taken increase from the poor;
 shall he then live? He shall not live. He has done all these abominations. He shall surely die. His blood will be on him.

¹⁴ "Now, behold, if he fathers a son, who sees all his father's sins, which he has done, and fears, and does not such like;
¹⁵ who hasn't eaten on the mountains, hasn't lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel,
 hasn't defiled his neighbor's wife, ¹⁶ hasn't wronged any,
 hasn't taken anything to pledge,
 hasn't taken by robbery,
 but has given his bread to the hungry,
 and has covered the naked with a garment;
¹⁷ who has withdrawn his hand from the poor,
 who hasn't received interest or increase,
 has executed my ordinances,
 has walked in my statutes;
 he shall not die for the iniquity of his father. He shall surely live. ¹⁸ As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, robbed his brother, and did that which is not good among his people, behold, he will die in his iniquity.

¹⁹ "Yet you say, 'Why doesn't the son bear the iniquity of the father?' When the son has done that which is lawful and right, and has kept all my statutes, and has done them, he will surely live. ²⁰ The soul who sins, he shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son. The righteousness of the righteous shall be on him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be on him.

²¹ "But if the wicked turns from all his sins that he has committed, and keeps all my statutes, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live. He shall not die.
²² None of his transgressions that he has committed will be remembered against him. In his righteousness that he has done, he shall live. ²³ Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked?" says the Lord Yahweh; "and not rather that he should return from his way, and live?"

²⁴ "But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, should he live? None of his righteous deeds that he has done will be remembered. In his trespass that he has trespassed, and in his sin that he has sinned, in them he shall die.

²⁵ "Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not equal.' Hear now, house of Israel: Is my way not equal? Aren't your ways unequal?
²⁶ When the righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and dies therein; in his iniquity that he has done he shall die. ²⁷ Again, when the wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has committed, and does that which is lawful and right, he will save his soul alive. ²⁸ Because he considers, and turns away from all his transgressions that he has committed, he shall surely live. He shall not die. ²⁹ Yet the house of Israel says,
 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' House of Israel, aren't my ways fair? Aren't your ways unfair?"

³⁰ "Therefore I will judge you, house of Israel, everyone according to his ways," says the Lord Yahweh. "Return, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity will not be your ruin. ³¹ Cast away from you all your transgressions, in which you have transgressed; and make yourself a new heart and a new spirit: for why will you die, house of Israel? ³² For I have no pleasure in the death of him who dies," says the Lord Yahweh.
 "Therefore turn yourselves, and live!"

19 “Moreover, take up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, ² and say, ‘What was your mother? A lioness. She couched among lions, in the middle of the young lions she nourished her cubs. ³ She brought up one of her cubs. He became a young lion. He learned to catch the prey. He devoured men. ⁴ The nations also heard of him. He was taken in their pit; and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt. ⁵ “Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her cubs, and made him a young lion. ⁶ He went up and down among the lions. He became a young lion. He learned to catch the prey. He devoured men. ⁷ He knew their palaces, and laid waste their cities. The land was desolate, with its fullness, because of the noise of his roaring. ⁸ Then the nations attacked him on every side from the provinces. They spread their net over him. He was taken in their pit. ⁹ They put him in a cage with hooks, and brought him to the king of Babylon. They brought him into strongholds, so that his voice should no more be heard on the mountains of Israel. ¹⁰ “Your mother was like a vine in your blood, planted by the waters. It was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters. ¹¹ It had strong branches for the scepters of those who ruled. Their stature was exalted among the thick boughs.

They were seen in their height with the multitude of their branches. ¹² But it was plucked up in fury. It was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up its fruit. Its strong branches were broken off and withered. The fire consumed them. ¹³ Now it is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land. ¹⁴ Fire has gone out of its branches. It has devoured its fruit, so that there is in it no strong branch to be a scepter to rule.’ This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.”

20 In the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, some of the elders of Israel came to inquire of Yahweh, and sat before me.

² Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ³ “Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and tell them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: “Is it to inquire of me that you have come? As I live,” says the Lord Yahweh, “I will not be inquired of by you.”’

⁴ “Will you judge them, son of man? Will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers. ⁵ Tell them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: “In the day when I chose Israel, and swore to the offspring of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I swore to them, saying, ‘I am Yahweh your God;’ ⁶ in that day I swore to them, to bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands. ⁷ I said to them, ‘Each of you throw away the abominations of his eyes. Don’t defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am Yahweh your God.’

⁸ ““But they rebelled against me, and would not listen to me. They didn’t all throw away the abominations of their eyes. They also didn’t forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the middle of the land of Egypt. ⁹ But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, among which they were, in whose sight I made myself known to them, in bringing them out of the land of Egypt. ¹⁰ So I caused them to go out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. ¹¹ I gave them my statutes, and showed them my ordinances, which if a man does, he will live in them. ¹² Moreover also I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am Yahweh who sanctifies them.

¹³ ““But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness. They didn't walk in my statutes, and they rejected my ordinances, which if a man keeps, he shall live in them. They greatly profaned my Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them in the wilderness, to consume them. ¹⁴ But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out. ¹⁵ Moreover also I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; ¹⁶ because they rejected my ordinances, and didn't walk in my statutes, and profaned my Sabbaths; for their heart went after their idols. ¹⁷ Nevertheless my eye spared them, and I didn't destroy them. I didn't make a full end of them in the wilderness. ¹⁸ I said to their children in the wilderness, 'Don't walk in the statutes of your fathers. Don't observe their ordinances or defile yourselves with their idols. ¹⁹ I am Yahweh your God. Walk in my statutes, keep my ordinances, and do them. ²⁰ Make my Sabbaths holy. They shall be a sign between me and you, that you may know that I am Yahweh your God.’

²¹ ““But the children rebelled against me. They didn't walk in my statutes, and didn't keep my ordinances to do them, which if a man does, he shall live in them. They profaned my Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness. ²² Nevertheless I withdrew my hand, and worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out. ²³ Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; ²⁴ because they had not executed my ordinances, but had rejected my statutes, and had profaned my Sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. ²⁵ Moreover also I gave them statutes that were not good, and ordinances in which they should not live. ²⁶ I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused all that opens the womb to pass through the fire, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am Yahweh.”

²⁷ “Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and tell them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: “Moreover, in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me. ²⁸ For when I had brought them into the land which I swore to give to them, then they saw every high hill, and every thick tree, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering. There they also made their pleasant aroma, and there they poured out their drink offerings. ²⁹ Then I said to them, ‘What does the high place where you go mean?’ So its name is called Bamah^{§§} to this day.’”

³⁰ “Therefore tell the house of Israel, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: “Do you pollute yourselves in the way of your fathers? Do you play the prostitute after their abominations? ³¹ When you offer your gifts, when you make your sons pass through the fire, do you pollute yourselves with all your idols to this day? Should §§20:29 “Bamah” means “High Place”.

I be inquired of by you, house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord Yahweh, I will not be inquired of by you!

³² “That which comes into your mind will not be at all, in that you say, ‘We will be as the nations, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.’ ³³ As I live, says the Lord Yahweh, surely with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, I will be king over you. ³⁴ I will bring you out from the peoples, and will gather you out of the countries in which you are scattered with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out. ³⁵ I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will enter into judgment with you face to face. ³⁶ Just as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you,” says the Lord Yahweh. ³⁷ “I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant. ³⁸ I will purge out from among you the rebels and those who disobey me. I will bring them out of the land where they live, but they shall not enter into the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.”

³⁹ “As for you, house of Israel, the Lord Yahweh says: “Go, everyone serve his idols, and hereafter also, if you will not listen to me; but you shall no more profane my holy name with your gifts and with your idols. ⁴⁰ For in my holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel,” says the Lord Yahweh, “there all the house of Israel, all of them, shall serve me in the land. There I will accept them, and there I will require your offerings and the first fruits of your offerings, with all your holy things. ⁴¹ I will accept you as a pleasant aroma when I bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries in which you have been scattered. I will be sanctified in you in the sight of the nations. ⁴² You will know that I am Yahweh when I bring you into the land of Israel, into the country which I swore to give to your fathers. ⁴³ There you will remember your ways, and all your deeds in which you have polluted yourselves. Then you will loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that you have committed. ⁴⁴ You will know that I am Yahweh, when I have dealt with you for my name’s sake, not according to your evil ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, you house of Israel,” says the Lord Yahweh.”

⁴⁵ Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ⁴⁶ “Son of man, set your face toward the south, and preach toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the field in the South. ⁴⁷ Tell the forest of the South, ‘Hear Yahweh’s word: The Lord Yahweh says, “Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it will devour every green tree in you, and every dry tree. The burning flame will not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north will be burned by it. ⁴⁸ All flesh will see that I, Yahweh, have kindled it. It will not be quenched.””

⁴⁹ Then I said, “Ah Lord Yahweh! They say of me, ‘Isn’t he a speaker of parables?’”

21 ² Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ² “Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and preach toward the sanctuaries, and prophesy against the land of Israel. ³ Tell the land of Israel, ‘Yahweh says: “Behold, I am against you, and will draw my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked. ⁴ Seeing then that I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore my sword will go out of its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north. ⁵ All flesh will know that I, Yahweh, have drawn my sword out of its sheath. It will not return any more.””

⁶ “Therefore sigh, you son of man. You shall sigh before their eyes with a broken heart* and with bitterness. ⁷ It shall be, when they ask you, ‘Why do you sigh?’ that you shall say, ‘Because of the news, for it comes! Every heart will melt, all hands will be feeble, every spirit will faint, and all knees will be weak as water. Behold, it comes, and it shall be done, says the Lord Yahweh.”

*21:6 literally, the breaking of your thighs

⁸ Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ⁹ “Son of man, prophesy, and say, ‘Yahweh says: “A sword! A sword!

It is sharpened,
and also polished.

¹⁰ It is sharpened that it may make a slaughter. It is polished that it may be as lightning. Should we then make mirth?

The rod of my son condemns every tree.

¹¹ It is given to be polished, that it may be handled.
The sword is sharpened.
Yes, it is polished
to give it into the hand of the killer.”

¹² Cry and wail, son of man;
for it is on my people.

It is on all the princes of Israel.
They are delivered over to the sword with my people.
Therefore beat your thigh.

¹³ “For there is a trial. What if even the rod that condemns will be no more?” says the Lord Yahweh.

¹⁴ “You therefore, son of man, prophesy, and strike your hands together.
Let the sword be doubled the third time,
the sword of the fatally wounded.
It is the sword of the great one who is fatally wounded,

which enters into their rooms.

¹⁵ I have set the threatening sword against all their gates,
that their heart may melt,
and their stumblings be multiplied.
Ah! It is made as lightning.

It is pointed for slaughter.
¹⁶ Gather yourselves together.
Go to the right.

Set yourselves in array.

Go to the left,
wherever your face is set.

¹⁷ I will also strike my hands together, and I will cause my wrath to rest.
I, Yahweh, have spoken it.”

¹⁸ Yahweh’s word came to me again, saying, ¹⁹ “Also, you son of man, appoint two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come. They both will come out of one land, and mark out a place. Mark it out at the head of the way to the city. ²⁰ You shall appoint a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and to Judah in Jerusalem the fortified. ²¹ For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination.
He shook the arrows back and forth. He consulted the teraphim.† He looked in the liver.
²² In his right hand was the lot for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds, and to build forts. ²³ It will be to them as a false divination in their sight, who have sworn oaths to them; but he brings iniquity to memory, that they may be taken.

²⁴ “Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: ‘Because you have caused your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins appear; because you have come to memory,
you will be taken with the hand.

²⁵ “You, deadly wounded wicked one, the prince of Israel, whose day has come, in the time of the iniquity of the end, ²⁶ the Lord Yahweh says: “Remove the turban, and take off the crown. This will not be as it was. Exalt that which is low, and humble that which is high. ²⁷ I will overturn, overturn, overturn it. This also will be no more, until he comes whose right it is; and I will give it.”

†21:21 teraphim were household idols that may have been associated with inheritance rights to the household property.

²⁸ “You, son of man, prophesy, and say, ‘The Lord Yahweh says this concerning the children of Ammon, and concerning their reproach:

“A sword! A sword is drawn!
It is polished for the slaughter,
to cause it to devour,
that it may be as lightning;

²⁹ while they see for you false visions,
while they divine lies to you,
to lay you on the necks of the wicked who are deadly wounded,
whose day has come in the time of the iniquity of the end.

³⁰ Cause it to return into its sheath.
In the place where you were created,
in the land of your birth, I will judge you.

³¹ I will pour out my indignation on you.
I will blow on you with the fire of my wrath.
I will deliver you into the hand of brutish men, skillful to destroy.

³² You will be for fuel to the fire.
Your blood will be in the middle of the land.
You will be remembered no more;
for I, Yahweh, have spoken it.”

22 Moreover Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ² “You, son of man, will you judge? Will you judge the bloody city? Then cause her to know all her abominations. ³ You shall say, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: “A city that sheds blood within herself, that her time may come, and that makes idols against herself to defile her! ⁴ You have become guilty in your blood that you have shed, and are defiled in your idols which you have made! You have caused your days to draw near, and have come even to your years. Therefore I have made you a reproach to the nations, and a mocking to all the countries. ⁵ Those who are near, and those who are far from you, will mock you, you infamous one, full of tumult.

⁶ “Behold, the princes of Israel, everyone according to his power, have been in you to shed blood. ⁷ In you have they treated father and mother with contempt.‡ Among you they have oppressed the foreigner. In you they have wronged the fatherless and the widow. ⁸ You have despised my holy things, and have profaned my Sabbaths. ⁹ Slanderous men have been in you to shed blood. In you they have eaten on the mountains. They have committed lewdness among you. ¹⁰ In you have they uncovered their fathers’ nakedness. In you have they humbled her who was unclean in her impurity. ¹¹ One has committed abomination with his neighbor’s wife; and another has lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law. Another in you has humbled his sister, his father’s daughter. ¹² In you have they taken bribes to shed blood. You have taken interest and increase, and you have greedily gained of your neighbors by oppression, and have forgotten me,” says the Lord Yahweh.

¹³ “Behold, therefore I have struck my hand at your dishonest gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been within you. ¹⁴ Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I will deal with you? I, Yahweh, have spoken it, and will do it. ¹⁵ I will scatter you among the nations, and disperse you through the countries. I will consume your filthiness out of you. ¹⁶ You will be profaned in yourself, in the sight of the nations. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.”

¹⁷ Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ¹⁸ “Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me. All of them are bronze, tin, iron, and lead in the middle of the furnace. They are the dross of silver. ¹⁹ Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: ‘Because you have all become dross, therefore, behold, I will gather you into the middle of Jerusalem. ²⁰ As they gather silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into the middle of the furnace, to blow the fire on it, to melt it; so I will gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will lay you there, and melt you. ²¹ Yes, I will gather you, and blow on you with the fire of my wrath, and you will be melted in the middle of it. ²² As silver is melted in the middle of the furnace, so you will be melted in the middle of it; and you will know that I, Yahweh, have poured out my wrath on you.”

²³ Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ²⁴ “Son of man, tell her, ‘You are a land that is not cleansed, nor rained on in the day of indignation.’ ²⁵ There is a conspiracy of her prophets within it, like a roaring lion ravaging the prey. They have devoured souls. They take treasure and precious things. They have made many widows within it. ²⁶ Her priests have done violence to my law, and have profaned my holy things. They have made no distinction between the holy and the common, neither have they caused men to discern between the unclean and the clean, and have hidden their eyes from my Sabbaths. So I am profaned among them. ²⁷ Her princes within it are like wolves ravaging the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, that they may get dishonest gain. ²⁸ Her prophets have plastered for them with whitewash, seeing false visions, and divining lies to them, saying, ‘The Lord Yahweh says,’ when Yahweh has not spoken. ²⁹ The people of the land have used oppression and exercised robbery. Yes, they have troubled the poor and needy, and have oppressed the foreigner wrongfully.

23 Yahweh’s word came again to me, saying, ² “Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother. ³ They played the prostitute in Egypt. They played the prostitute in their youth. Their breasts were fondled there, and their youthful nipples were caressed there. ⁴ Their names were Oholah the elder, and Oholibah her sister. They became mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem Oholibah.

⁵ “Oholah played the prostitute when she was mine. She doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbors, ⁶ who were clothed with blue, governors and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on horses. ⁷ She gave herself as a prostitute to them, all of them the choicest men of Assyria. She defiled herself with the idols of whoever she lusted after. ⁸ She hasn’t left her prostitution since leaving Egypt; for in her youth they lay with her. They caressed her youthful nipples; and they poured out their prostitution on her.

¹¹ “Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet she was more corrupt in her lusting than she, and in her prostitution which was more depraved than the prostitution of her sister. ¹² She lusted after the Assyrians, governors and rulers, her neighbors, clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men. ¹³ I saw that she was defiled. They both went the same way.

¹⁴ “She increased her prostitution; for she saw men portrayed on the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portrayed with red, ¹⁵ dressed with belts on their waists, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them looking like princes, after the likeness of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the land of their birth. ¹⁶ As soon as she saw them, she lusted after them and sent messengers to them into Chaldea. ¹⁷ The Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their prostitution. She was polluted with them, and her soul was alienated from them. ¹⁸ So she uncovered her prostitution and uncovered her nakedness. Then my soul was alienated from her, just like my soul was alienated from her sister. ¹⁹ Yet she multiplied her prostitution, remembering the days of her youth, in which she had played the prostitute in the land of Egypt. ²⁰ She lusted after their lovers, whose flesh is as the flesh of donkeys, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. ²¹ Thus you called to memory the lewdness of your youth, in the caressing of your nipples by the Egyptians because of your youthful breasts.

²² “Therefore, Oholibah, the Lord Yahweh says: ‘Behold, I will raise up your lovers against you, from whom your soul is alienated, and I will bring them against you on every side: ²³ the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, Shoa, Koa, and all the Assyrians with them; all of them desirable young men, governors and rulers, princes and men of renown, all of them riding on horses. ²⁴ They will come against you with weapons, chariots, and wagons, and with a company of peoples. They will set themselves against you with buckler, shield, and helmet all around. I will commit the judgment to them, and they will judge you according to their judgments. ²⁵ I will set my jealousy against you, and they will deal with you in fury. They will take away your nose and your ears. Your remnant will fall by the sword. They will take your sons and your daughters; and the rest of you will be devoured by the fire. ²⁶ They will also strip you of your clothes, and take away your beautiful jewels. ²⁷ Thus I will make your lewdness to cease from you, and remove your prostitution from the land of Egypt; so that you will not lift up your eyes to them, nor remember Egypt any more.’

²⁸ “For the Lord Yahweh says: ‘Behold, I will deliver you into the hand of them whom you hate, into the hand of them from whom your soul is alienated. ²⁹ They will deal with you in hatred, and will take away all your labor, and will leave you naked and bare. The nakedness of your prostitution will be uncovered, both your lewdness and your prostitution. ³⁰ These things will be done to you, because you have played the prostitute after the nations, and because you are polluted with their idols. ³¹ You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore I will give her cup into your hand.’

³² “The Lord Yahweh says:

‘You will drink of your sister’s cup, which is deep and large.

You will be ridiculed and held in derision.

It contains much.

³³ You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of your sister Samaria.

³⁴ You will even drink it and drain it out.

You will gnaw the broken pieces of it, and will tear your breasts;

for I have spoken it,’ says the Lord Yahweh.

³⁵ “Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: ‘Because you have forgotten me, and cast me behind your back, therefore you also bear your lewdness and your prostitution.’”

³⁶ Yahweh said moreover to me: “Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their abominations.

³⁷ For they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands. They have committed adultery with their idols. They have also caused their sons, whom they bore to me, to pass through the fire to them to be devoured.

³⁸ Moreover this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my Sabbaths. ³⁹ For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and behold, they have done this in the middle of my house.

42 “The voice of a multitude being at ease was with her. With men of the common sort were brought drunkards from the wilderness; and they put bracelets on their hands, and beautiful crowns on their heads. 43 Then I said of her who was old in adulteries, ‘Now they will play the prostitute with her, and she with them.’ 44 They went in to her, as they go in to a prostitute. So they went in to Oholah and to Oholibah, the lewd women. 45 Righteous men will judge them with the judgment of adulteresses and with the judgment of women who shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

46 “For the Lord Yahweh says: ‘I will bring up a mob against them, and will give them to be tossed back and forth and robbed. 47 The company will stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords. They will kill their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.

48 “Thus I will cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to be lewd like you. 49 They will recompense your lewdness on you, and you will bear the sins of your idols. Then you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh.”

24 Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, 2 “Son of man, write the name of the day, this same day. The king of Babylon drew close to Jerusalem this same day. 3 Utter a parable to the rebellious house, and tell them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says, “Put the cauldron on the fire.

Put it on,

and also pour water into it.

4 Gather its pieces into it,

even every good piece:

the thigh and the shoulder.

Fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the choice of the flock, and also a pile of wood for the bones under the cauldron.

Make it boil well.

Yes, let its bones be boiled within it.”

6 “Therefore the Lord Yahweh says:

“Woe to the bloody city,

to the cauldron whose rust is in it,

and whose rust hasn’t gone out of it!

Take out of it piece after piece.

No lot is fallen on it.

7 ““For her blood is in the middle of her.

She set it on the bare rock.

She didn’t pour it on the ground,

to cover it with dust.

8 That it may cause wrath to come up to take vengeance,

I have set her blood on the bare rock, that it should not be covered.”

9 “Therefore the Lord Yahweh says:

“Woe to the bloody city!

I also will make the pile great.

10 Heap on the wood.

Make the fire hot.

Boil the meat well.

Make the broth thick,

and let the bones be burned.

11 Then set it empty on its coals,

that it may be hot,

and its bronze may burn,

and that its filthiness may be molten in it,

that its rust may be consumed.

12 She is weary with toil;

yet her great rust,

rust by fire, doesn’t leave her.

13 ““In your filthiness is lewdness. Because I have cleansed you and you weren’t cleansed, you won’t be cleansed from your filthiness any more, until I have caused my wrath toward you to rest.

14 I, Yahweh, have spoken it. It will happen, and I will do it. I won’t go back. I won’t spare. I won’t repent. According to your ways, and according to your doings, they will judge you,” says the Lord Yahweh.”

15 Also Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, 16 “Son of man, behold, I will take away from you the desire of your eyes with a stroke: yet you shall neither mourn nor weep, neither shall your tears run down. 17 Sigh, but not aloud. Make no mourning for the dead. Bind your headdress on you, and put your sandals on your feet. Don't cover your lips, and don't eat mourner's bread."

¹⁸ So I spoke to the people in the morning; and at evening my wife died. So I did in the morning as I was commanded.

¹⁹ The people asked me, "Won't you tell us what these things are to us, that you do so?"

²⁰ Then I said to them, "Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²¹ 'Speak to the house of Israel, "The Lord Yahweh says: 'Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pities; and your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind will fall by the sword. ²² You will do as I have done. You won't cover your lips or eat mourner's bread. ²³ Your turbans will be on your heads, and your sandals on your feet. You won't mourn or weep; but you will pine away in your iniquities, and moan one toward another. ²⁴ Thus Ezekiel will be a sign to you; according to all that he has done, you will do. When this comes, then you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh.'"

²⁵ "You, son of man, shouldn't it be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their heart, their sons and their daughters, ²⁶ that in that day he who escapes will come to you, to cause you to hear it with your ears? ²⁷ In that day your mouth will be opened to him who has escaped, and you will speak, and be no more mute. So you will be a sign to them. Then they will know that I am Yahweh."

25 Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ² "Son of man, set your face toward the children of Ammon, and prophesy against them. ³ Tell the children of Ammon, 'Hear the word of the Lord Yahweh! The Lord Yahweh says, "Because you said, 'Aha!' against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was made desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity: ⁴ therefore, behold, I will deliver you to the children of the east for a possession. They will set their encampments in you, and make their dwellings in you. They will eat your fruit and they will drink your milk. ⁵ I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the children of Ammon a resting place for flocks. Then you will know that I am Yahweh." ⁶ For the Lord Yahweh says: "Because you have clapped your hands, stamped with the feet, and rejoiced with all the contempt of your soul against the land of Israel; ⁷ therefore, behold, I have stretched out my hand on you, and will deliver you for a plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish out of the countries. I will destroy you. Then you will know that I am Yahweh."

¹² "The Lord Yahweh says: "Because Edom has dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended, and taken revenge on them;" ¹³ therefore the Lord Yahweh says, "I will stretch out my hand on Edom, and will cut off man and animal from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman. They will fall by the sword even to Dedan. ¹⁴ I will lay my vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel. They will do in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath. Then they will know my vengeance," says the Lord Yahweh.

¹⁵ "The Lord Yahweh says: "Because the Philistines have taken revenge, and have taken vengeance with contempt of soul to destroy with perpetual hostility;”¹⁶ therefore the Lord Yahweh says, “Behold, I will stretch out my hand on the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast. ¹⁷I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful rebukes. Then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I lay my vengeance on them.””

26 In the eleventh year, in the first of the month, Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, ‘Aha! She is broken! She who was the gateway of the peoples has been returned to me. I will be replenished, now that she is laid waste;’ ³therefore the Lord Yahweh says, ‘Behold, I am against you, Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up. ⁴They will destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers. I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare rock. ⁵She will be a place for the spreading of nets in the middle of the sea; for I have spoken it,’ says the Lord Yahweh. ‘She will become plunder for the nations. ⁶Her daughters who are in the field will be slain with the sword. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.’

of your strength will go down to the ground. ¹²They will make a plunder of your riches, and make a prey of your merchandise. They will break down your walls, and destroy your pleasant houses. They will lay your stones, your timber, and your dust in the middle of the waters. ¹³I will cause the noise of your songs to cease. The sound of your harps won’t be heard any more. ¹⁴I will make you a bare rock. You will be a place for the spreading of nets. You will be built no more; for I Yahweh have spoken it,’ says the Lord Yahweh.

¹⁵“The Lord Yahweh says to Tyre: ‘Won’t the islands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when the slaughter is made within you? ¹⁶Then all the princes of the sea will come down from their thrones, and lay aside their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments. They will clothe themselves with trembling. They will sit on the ground, and will tremble every moment, and be astonished at you. ¹⁷They will take up a lamentation over you, and tell you, “How you are destroyed, who were inhabited by seafaring men, the renowned city, who was strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, who caused their terror to be on all who lived there!”

¹⁸Now the islands will tremble in the day of your fall.

Yes, the islands that are in the sea will be dismayed at your departure.’

¹⁹“For the Lord Yahweh says: ‘When I make you a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I bring up the deep on you, and the great waters cover you; ²⁰then I will bring you down with those who descend into the pit, to the people of old time, and will make you dwell in the lower parts of the earth, in the places that are desolate of old, with those who go down to the pit, that you be not inhabited; and I will set glory in the land of the living. ²¹I will make you a terror, and you will no more have any being. Though you are sought for, yet you will never be found again,' says the Lord Yahweh."

27 Yahweh's word came again to me, saying, ²"You, son of man, take up a lamentation over Tyre; ³and tell Tyre, 'You who dwell at the entry of the sea, who are the merchant of the peoples to many islands, the Lord Yahweh says:

"You, Tyre, have said, 'I am perfect in beauty.'

⁴Your borders are in the heart of the seas.

Your builders have perfected your beauty.

⁵They have made all your planks of cypress trees from Senir.

They have taken a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

⁶They have made your oars of the oaks of Bashan.

They have made your benches of ivory inlaid in cypress wood from the islands of Kittim.

⁷Your sail was of fine linen with embroidered work from Egypt, that it might be to you for a banner.

Blue and purple from the islands of Elishah was your awning.

⁸The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers.

Your wise men, Tyre, were in you.

They were your pilots.

⁹The old men of Gebal

and its wise men were your repairers of ship seams in you.

All the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you to deal in your merchandise.

¹⁰"Persia, Lud, and Put were in your army, your men of war.

They hung the shield and helmet in you.

They showed your beauty.

¹¹The men of Arvad with your army were on your walls all around,

and valiant men were in your towers.

They hung their shields on your walls all around.

They have perfected your beauty.

¹²"Tarshish was your merchant by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches. They traded for your wares with silver, iron, tin, and lead.

¹³"Javan, Tubal, and Meshech were your traders. They traded the persons of men and vessels of bronze for your merchandise.

¹⁴"They of the house of Togarmah traded for your wares with horses, war horses, and mules.

¹⁵"The men of Dedan traded with you. Many islands were the market of your hand. They brought you horns of ivory and ebony in exchange.

¹⁶"Syria was your merchant by reason of the multitude of your handiworks. They traded for your wares with emeralds, purple, embroidered work, fine linen, coral, and rubies.

¹⁷"Judah and the land of Israel were your traders. They traded wheat of Minnith, confections, honey, oil, and balm for your merchandise.

¹⁸"Damascus was your merchant for the multitude of your handiworks, by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches, with the wine of Helbon, and white wool.

¹⁹"Vedan and Javan traded with yarn for your wares: bright iron, cassia, and calamus were among your merchandise.

²⁰"Dedan was your trafficker in precious cloths for riding.

²¹"Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar were the merchants of your hand; in lambs, rams, and goats. In these, they were your merchants.

²²"The traders of Sheba and Raamah were your traders. They traded for your wares with the chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold.

²³"Haran, Canneh, and Eden, the traders of Sheba, Asshur and Chilmad, were your traders. ²⁴These were your traders in choice wares, in wrappings of blue and embroidered work, and in chests of rich clothing, bound with cords and made of cedar, among your merchandise.

25 ““The ships of Tarshish were your caravans for your merchandise.

You were replenished

and made very glorious in the heart of the seas.

26 Your rowers have brought you into great waters.

The east wind has broken you in the heart of the seas.

27 Your riches,

your wares,

your merchandise,

your mariners,

your pilots,

your repairers of ship seams,

the dealers in your merchandise,

and all your men of war, who are in you, will fall into the heart of the seas in the day of your ruin.

28 At the sound of the cry of your pilots, the pasture lands will shake.

29 All who handle the oars,

the mariners and all the pilots of the sea, will come down from their ships.

They will stand on the land,

30 and will cause their voice to be heard over you,

and will cry bitterly.

They will cast up dust on their heads.

They will wallow in the ashes.

31 They will make themselves bald for you, and clothe themselves with sackcloth.

They will weep for you in bitterness of soul, with bitter mourning.

32 In their wailing they will take up a lamentation for you, and lament over you, saying,

‘Who is there like Tyre,

like her who is brought to silence in the middle of the sea?’

33 When your wares went out of the seas,

you filled many peoples.

You enriched the kings of the earth with the multitude of your riches and of your merchandise.

34 In the time that you were broken by the seas, in the depths of the waters,

your merchandise

and all your company fell within you.

35 All the inhabitants of the islands are astonished at you,

and their kings are horribly afraid.

They are troubled in their face.

36 The merchants among the peoples hiss at you.

You have become a terror,

and you will be no more.””

28 Yahweh’s word came again to me, saying, 2 “Son of man, tell the prince of Tyre, ‘The Lord Yahweh says:

“Because your heart is lifted up,

and you have said, ‘I am a god,

I sit in the seat of God,

in the middle of the seas;’

yet you are man,

and not God,

though you set your heart as the heart of God—

3 behold, you are wiser than Daniel;

there is no secret that is hidden from you;

4 by your wisdom and by your understanding you have gotten yourself riches,

and have gotten gold and silver into your treasures;

5 by your great wisdom and by your trading you have increased your riches,

and your heart is lifted up because of your riches—”

6 ““therefore the Lord Yahweh says:

“Because you have set your heart as the heart of God,

7 therefore, behold, I will bring strangers on you,

the terrible of the nations.

They will draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom.

They will defile your brightness.

8 They will bring you down to the pit.

You will die the death of those who are slain
in the heart of the seas.

⁹ Will you yet say before him who kills you, ‘I am God’?

But you are man, and not God,
in the hand of him who wounds you.

¹⁰ You will die the death of the uncircumcised
by the hand of strangers;
for I have spoken it,” says the Lord Yahweh.”

¹¹ Moreover Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ¹² “Son of man, take up a lamentation over the king of Tyre, and tell him, “The Lord
Yahweh says:

“You were the seal of full measure,
full of wisdom,
and perfect in beauty.

¹³ You were in Eden,
the garden of God.

Every precious stone adorned you:
ruby, topaz, emerald,
chrysolite, onyx, jasper,
sapphire, ¶ turquoise, and beryl.

Gold work of tambourines and of pipes was in you.

They were prepared in the day that you were created.

¹⁴ You were the anointed cherub who covers.
Then I set you up on the holy mountain of
God.

You have walked up and down in the middle of the stones of fire.

¹⁵ You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created,
until unrighteousness was found in you.

¹⁶ By the abundance of your commerce, your insides were filled with violence, and you have sinned.

Therefore I have cast you as profane out of God’s mountain.

I have destroyed you, covering cherub,
from the middle of the stones of fire.

¹⁷ Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty.

You have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your splendor.

I have cast you to the ground.
I have laid you before kings,
that they may see you.

¹⁸ By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your commerce,
you have profaned your sanctuaries.

Therefore I have brought out a fire from the middle of you.

It has devoured you.

I have turned you to ashes on the earth
in the sight of all those who see you.

¹⁹ All those who know you among the peoples will be astonished at you.

You have become a terror,
and you will exist no more.”

²⁰ Yahweh’s word came to me, saying,
²¹ “Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against it, ²² and say, ‘The Lord
Yahweh says:

“Behold, I am against you, Sidon.

I will be glorified among you.

Then they will know that I am Yahweh,
when I have executed judgments in her,
and am sanctified in her.

²³ For I will send pestilence into her,
and blood into her streets.

The wounded will fall within her,
with the sword on her on every side.

Then they will know that I am Yahweh.

²⁴ ““There will be no more a pricking brier to the house of Israel, nor a hurting thorn of any that are around them that scorned them. Then they will know that I am the Lord
Yahweh.”

²⁵ “The Lord Yahweh says: “When I have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and am sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then they will dwell in their own land which I gave to my servant Jacob. ²⁶ They will dwell in it securely. Yes, they will build houses, plant vineyards, and will dwell securely, when I have executed judgments on all those who scorn them all around. Then they will know that I am Yahweh their God.””

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt.

³Speak and say, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: “Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great monster that lies in the middle of his rivers, that has said, ‘My river is my own, and I have made it for myself.’

⁴I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will make the fish of your rivers stick to your scales.

I will bring you up out of the middle of your rivers, with all the fish of your rivers which stick to your scales.

⁵I’ll cast you out into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers.

You’ll fall on the open field.

You won’t be brought together or gathered.

I have given you for food to the animals of the earth and to the birds of the sky.

⁶““All the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am Yahweh, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. ⁷When they took hold of you by your hand, you broke, and tore all their shoulders. When they leaned on you, you broke, and paralyzed all of their thighs.”

⁸“Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: “Behold, I will bring a sword on you, and will cut off man and animal from you. ⁹The land of Egypt will be a desolation and a waste. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.

““Because he has said, ‘The river is mine, and I have made it;’ ¹⁰therefore, behold, I am against you, and against your rivers. I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from the tower of Seveneh even to the border of Ethiopia. ¹¹No foot of man will pass through it, nor will any animal foot pass through it. It won’t be inhabited for forty years. ¹²I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the middle of the countries that are desolate. Her cities among the cities that are laid waste will be a desolation forty years. I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.”

¹³“For the Lord Yahweh says: “At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples where they were scattered. ¹⁴I will reverse the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their birth. They will be a lowly kingdom, there. ¹⁵It will be the lowest of the kingdoms. It won’t lift itself up above the nations any more. I will diminish them, so that they will no longer rule over the nations. ¹⁶It will no longer be the confidence of the house of Israel, bringing iniquity to memory, when they turn to look after them. Then they will know that I am the Lord Yahweh.””

¹⁷It came to pass in the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ¹⁸“Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre. Every head was made bald, and every shoulder was worn; yet he had no wages, nor did his army, from Tyre, for the service that he had served against it. ¹⁹Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: ‘Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He will carry off her multitude, take her plunder, and take her prey. That will be the wages for his army. ²⁰I have given him the land of Egypt as his payment for which he served, because they worked for me,’ says the Lord Yahweh.

²¹“In that day I will cause a horn to sprout for the house of Israel, and I will open your mouth among them. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.”

30 Yahweh's word came again to me, saying, ²“Son of man, prophesy, and say, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: ‘Wail, ‘Alas for the day!’

³For the day is near, even Yahweh's day is near. It will be a day of clouds, a time of the nations.

⁴A sword will come on Egypt, and anguish will be in Ethiopia, when the slain fall in Egypt. They take away her multitude, and her foundations are broken down.

⁵“‘Ethiopia, Put, Lud, all the mixed people, Cub, and the children of the land that is allied with them, will fall with them by the sword.’”

⁶“Yahweh says: ‘They also who uphold Egypt will fall. The pride of her power will come down. They will fall by the sword in it from the tower of Seveneh,’ says the Lord Yahweh.

⁷“They will be desolate in the middle of the countries that are desolate. Her cities will be among the cities that are wasted.

⁸They will know that I am Yahweh when I have set a fire in Egypt, and all her helpers are destroyed.

⁹“‘In that day messengers will go out from before me in ships to make the care-less Ethiopians afraid. There will be anguish on them, as in the day of Egypt; for, behold, it comes.’”

¹⁰“The Lord Yahweh says: ‘I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease, by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

¹¹He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, will be brought in to destroy the land. They will draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

¹²I will make the rivers dry, and will sell the land into the hand of evil men. I will make the land desolate, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I, Yahweh, have spoken it.”

¹³“The Lord Yahweh says: ‘I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause the images to cease from Memphis.

There will be no more a prince from the land of Egypt.

I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.

¹⁴I will make Pathros desolate, and will set a fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments on No.

¹⁵I will pour my wrath on Sin, the stronghold of Egypt. I will cut off the multitude of No.

¹⁶I will set a fire in Egypt Sin will be in great anguish. No will be broken up.

Memphis will have adversaries in the daytime.

¹⁷The young men of Aven and of Pibeseth will fall by the sword.

They will go into captivity.

¹⁸At Tehaphneches also the day will withdraw itself, when I break the yokes of Egypt, there. The pride of her power will cease in her.

As for her, a cloud will cover her, and her daughters will go into captivity.

¹⁹Thus I will execute judgments on Egypt. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.””

²⁰In the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²¹“Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. Behold, it has not been bound up, to apply medicines, to put a bandage to bind it, that it become strong to hold the sword. ²²Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: ‘Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong arm, and that which was broken. I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. ²³I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. ²⁴I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand; but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan before the king of Babylon with the groaning of a mortally wounded man. ²⁵I will hold up the arms of the king of Babylon; and the arms of Pharaoh will fall down. Then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he stretches it out on the land of Egypt. ²⁶I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them through the countries. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.”

31 In the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his multitude: ‘Whom are you like in your greatness?

³ Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with beautiful branches, and with a forest-like shade,

of high stature;

and its top was among the thick boughs.

⁴ The waters nourished it.

The deep made it to grow.

Its rivers ran all around its plantation;

and it sent out its channels to all the trees of the field.

⁵ Therefore its stature was exalted above all the trees of the field;

and its boughs were multiplied.

Its branches became long by reason of many waters,

when it spread them out.

⁶ All the birds of the sky made their nests in its boughs.

Under its branches, all the animals of the field gave birth to their young.

All great nations lived under its shadow.

⁷ Thus it was beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its branches;

for its root was by many waters.

⁸ The cedars in the garden of God could not hide it.

The cypress trees were not like its boughs.

The pine trees were not as its branches;

nor was any tree in the garden of God like it in its beauty.

⁹ I made it beautiful by the multitude of its branches,

so that all the trees of Eden,

that were in the garden of God, envied it.’

¹⁰ “Therefore thus said the Lord Yahweh: ‘Because you are exalted in stature, and he has set his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; ¹¹ I will even deliver him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations. He will surely deal with him. I have driven him out for his wickedness.

¹² Strangers, the tyrants of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him. His branches have fallen on the mountains and in all the valleys and his boughs are broken by all the watercourses of the land. All the peoples of the earth have gone down from his shadow, and have left him. ¹³ All the birds of the sky will dwell on his ruin, and all the animals of the field will be on his branches; ¹⁴ to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their stature, and don’t set their top among the thick boughs. Their mighty ones don’t stand up on their height, even all who drink water; for they are all delivered to death, to the lower parts of the earth, among the children of men, with those who go down to the pit.’

¹⁵ “The Lord Yahweh says: ‘In the day when he went down to Sheol §I caused a mourning. I covered the deep for him, and I restrained its rivers. The great waters were stopped. I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. ¹⁶ I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to Sheol with those who descend into the pit. All the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the lower parts of the earth. ¹⁷They also went down into Sheol with him to those who are slain by the sword; yes, those who were his arm, who lived under his shadow in the middle of the nations.

¹⁸“To whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? Yet you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lower parts of the earth. You will lie in the middle of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword.

32 In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, “Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ²‘Son of man, take up a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Egypt, and tell him,

“You were likened to a young lion of the nations;

yet you are as a monster in the seas.

You broke out with your rivers, and troubled the waters with your feet, and fouled their rivers.”

³The Lord Yahweh says:

“I will spread out my net on you with a company of many peoples; and they will bring you up in my net.

⁴I will leave you on the land.

I will cast you out on the open field, and will cause all the birds of the sky to settle on you.

I will satisfy the animals of the whole earth with you.

⁵I will lay your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your height.

⁶I will also water the land in which you swim with your blood, even to the mountains.

The watercourses will be full of you.

⁷When I extinguish you, I will cover the heavens and make its stars dark.

I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon won’t give its light.

⁸I will make all the bright lights of the sky dark over you, and set darkness on your land,” says the Lord Yahweh.

⁹“I will also trouble the hearts of many peoples,

when I bring your destruction among the nations,

into the countries which you have not known.

¹⁰Yes, I will make many peoples amazed at you, and their kings will be horribly afraid for you, when I brandish my sword before them.

They will tremble at every moment,

every man for his own life,

in the day of your fall.”

¹¹For the Lord Yahweh says:

“The sword of the king of Babylon will come on you.

¹²I will cause your multitude to fall by the swords of the mighty.

They are all the ruthless of the nations.

They will bring the pride of Egypt to nothing, and all its multitude will be destroyed.

¹³I will destroy also all its animals from beside many waters.

The foot of man won’t trouble them any more, nor will the hoofs of animals trouble them.

¹⁴Then I will make their waters clear, and cause their rivers to run like oil,”

says the Lord Yahweh.

¹⁵“When I make the land of Egypt desolate and waste,

a land destitute of that of which it was full,

when I strike all those who dwell therein,

then they will know that I am Yahweh.

¹⁶““This is the lamentation with which they will lament. The daughters of the nations will lament with this. They will lament with it over Egypt, and over all her multitude,” says the Lord Yahweh.”

¹⁷Also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ¹⁸“Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her and the daughters of the famous nations, to the lower parts of the earth, with those who go down into the pit. ¹⁹Whom do you pass in beauty? Go down, and be laid with the uncircumcised. ²⁰They will fall among those who are slain by the sword. She is delivered to the sword. Draw her away with all her multitudes. ²¹The strong among the mighty will speak to him out of the middle of Sheol ††with those who help him. They have gone down. The uncircumcised lie still, slain by the sword.

²²“Asshur is there with all her company. Her graves are all around her. All of them slain, fallen by the sword; ²³whose graves are set in the uttermost parts of the pit, and her company is around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who caused terror in the land of the living.

²⁸“But you will be broken among the uncircumcised, and will lie with those who are slain by the sword.

³⁰“There are the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who have gone down with the slain. They are put to shame in the terror which they caused by their might. They lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit.

³¹“Pharaoh will see them, and will be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword,” says the Lord Yahweh. ³²“For I have put his terror in the land of the living. He will be laid among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude,” says the Lord Yahweh.

33 Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ²“Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and tell them, ‘When I bring the sword on a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him for their watchman; ³if, when he sees the sword come on the land, he blows the trumpet, and warns the people; ⁴then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet, and doesn’t heed the warning, if the sword comes, and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head. ⁵He heard the sound of the trumpet, and didn’t take warning. His blood will be on him; whereas if he had heeded the warning, he would have delivered his soul. ⁶But if the watchman sees the sword come, and doesn’t blow the trumpet, and the people aren’t warned, and the sword comes, and takes any person from among them; he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at the watchman’s hand.’

⁷“So you, son of man: I have set you a watchman to the house of Israel. Therefore hear the word from my mouth, and give them warnings from me. ⁸ When I tell the wicked, ‘O wicked man, you will surely die,’ and you don’t speak to warn the wicked from his way; that wicked man will die in his iniquity, but I will require his blood at your hand. ⁹ Nevertheless, if you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he doesn’t turn from his way; he will die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your soul.

¹⁰ “You, son of man, tell the house of Israel: ‘You say this, “Our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we pine away in them. How then can we live?”’ ¹¹ Tell them, “As I live,” says the Lord Yahweh, “I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn, turn from your evil ways! For why will you die, house of Israel?”’

¹² “You, son of man, tell the children of your people, ‘The righteousness of the righteous will not deliver him in the day of his disobedience. And as for the wickedness of the wicked, he will not fall by it in the day that he turns from his wickedness; neither will he who is righteous be able to live by it in the day that he sins. ¹³ When I tell the righteous that he will surely live; if he trusts in his righteousness, and commits iniquity, none of his righteous deeds will be remembered; but he will die in his iniquity that he has committed. ¹⁴ Again, when I say to the wicked, “You will surely die;” if he turns from his sin, and does that which is lawful and right; ¹⁵ if the wicked restore the pledge, give again that which he had taken by robbery, walk in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity; he will surely live. He will not die. ¹⁶ None of his sins that he has committed will be remembered against him. He has done that which is lawful and right. He will surely live.

ness, and does that which is lawful and right, he will live by it. ²⁰ Yet you say, “The way of the Lord is not fair.” House of Israel, I will judge every one of you after his ways.”

²¹ In the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, one who had escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, “The city has been defeated!” ²² Now Yahweh’s hand had been on me in the evening, before he who had escaped came; and he had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no longer mute.

²³ Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ²⁴ “Son of man, those who inhabit the waste places in the land of Israel speak, saying, ‘Abraham was one, and he inherited the land; but we are many. The land is given us for inheritance.’ ²⁵ Therefore tell them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: “You eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood. So should you possess the land? ²⁶ You stand on your sword, you work abomination, and every one of you defiles his neighbor’s wife. So should you possess the land?”’

²⁷ “You shall tell them, “The Lord Yahweh says: “As I live, surely those who are in the waste places will fall by the sword. I will give he who is in the open field to the animals to be devoured; and those who are in the strongholds and in the caves will die of the pestilence. ²⁸ I will make the land a desolation and an astonishment. The pride of her power will cease. The mountains of Israel will be desolate, so that no one will pass through. ²⁹ Then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment, because of all their abominations which they have committed.”

³⁰ “As for you, son of man, the children of your people talk about you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak to one another, everyone to his brother, saying, ‘Please come and hear what the word is that comes out from Yahweh.’ ³¹ They come to you as the people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear your words, but don't do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their gain. ³²Behold, you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they don't do them.

³³"When this comes to pass—behold, it comes—then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

34 Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy, and tell them, even the shepherds, 'The Lord Yahweh says: "Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Shouldn't the shepherds feed the sheep? ³You eat the fat. You clothe yourself with the wool. You kill the fatlings, but you don't feed the sheep. ⁴You haven't strengthened the diseased. You haven't healed that which was sick. You haven't bound up that which was broken. You haven't brought back that which was driven away. You haven't sought that which was lost, but you have ruled over them with force and with rigor. ⁵They were scattered, because there was no shepherd. They became food to all the animals of the field, and were scattered. ⁶My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill. Yes, my sheep were scattered on all the surface of the earth. There was no one who searched or sought."

⁷"Therefore, you shepherds, hear Yahweh's word: ⁸"As I live," says the Lord Yahweh, "surely because my sheep became a prey, and my sheep became food to all the animals of the field, because there was no shepherd. My shepherds didn't search for my sheep, but the shepherds fed themselves, and didn't feed my sheep." ⁹Therefore, you shepherds, hear Yahweh's word: ¹⁰The Lord Yahweh says: "Behold, I am against the shepherds. I will require my sheep at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the sheep. The shepherds won't feed themselves any more. I will deliver my sheep from their mouth, that they may not be food for them."

¹¹"For the Lord Yahweh says: "Behold, I myself, even I, will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. ¹²As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered abroad, so I will seek out my sheep. I will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. ¹³I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land. I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited places of the country. ¹⁴I will feed them with good pasture; and their fold will be on the mountains of the height of Israel. There they will lie down in a good fold. They will feed on fat pasture on the mountains of Israel. ¹⁵I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down," says the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁶"I will seek that which was lost, and will bring back that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick; but I will destroy the fat and the strong. I will feed them in justice."

¹⁷"As for you, O my flock, the Lord Yahweh says: 'Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, the rams and the male goats. ¹⁸Does it seem a small thing to you to have fed on the good pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture? And to have drunk of the clear waters, but must you foul the residue with your feet? ¹⁹As for my sheep, they eat that which you have trodden with your feet, and they drink that which you have fouled with your feet.'

²⁰"Therefore the Lord Yahweh says to them: 'Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. ²¹Because you thrust with side and with shoulder, and push all the diseased with your horns, until you have scattered them abroad; ²²therefore I will save my flock, and they will no more be a prey. I will judge between sheep and sheep.

23 I will set up one shepherd over them, and he will feed them, even my servant David. He will feed them, and he will be their shepherd. 24 I, Yahweh, will be their God, and my servant David prince among them. I, Yahweh, have spoken it.

25 “I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause evil animals to cease out of the land. They will dwell securely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. 26 I will make them and the places around my hill a blessing. I will cause the shower to come down in its season. There will be showers of blessing. 27 The tree of the field will yield its fruit, and the earth will yield its increase, and they will be secure in their land. Then they will know that I am Yahweh, when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those who made slaves of them. 28 They will no more be a prey to the nations, neither will the animals of the earth devour them; but they will dwell securely, and no one will make them afraid. 29 I will raise up to them a plantation for renown, and they will no more be consumed with famine in the land, and not bear the shame of the nations any more. 30 They will know that I, Yahweh, their God am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, says the Lord Yahweh. 31 You my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, are men, and I am your God,” says the Lord Yahweh.”

35 Moreover Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, 2 “Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it, 3 and tell it, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: “Behold, I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you. I will make you a desolation and an astonishment. 4 I will lay your cities waste, and you will be desolate. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.

5 “““Because you have had a perpetual hostility, and have given over the children of Israel to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of the iniquity of the end; 6 therefore, as I live,” says the Lord

Yahweh, “I will prepare you for blood, and blood will pursue you. Since you have not hated blood, therefore blood will pursue you. 7 Thus I will make Mount Seir an astonishment and a desolation. I will cut off from it him who passes through and him who returns.

8 I will fill its mountains with its slain. The slain with the sword will fall in your hills and in your valleys and in all your watercourses. 9 I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.

10 “““Because you have said, ‘These two nations and these two countries will be mine, and we will possess it;’ whereas Yahweh was there: 11 therefore, as I live,” says the Lord Yahweh, “I will do according to your anger, and according to your envy which you have shown out of your hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them when I judge you. 12 You will know that I, Yahweh, have heard all your insults which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, ‘They have been laid desolate. They have been given us to devour.’ 13 You have magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and have multiplied your words against me. I have heard it.” 14 The Lord Yahweh says: “When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. 15 As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel because it was desolate, so I will do to you. You will be desolate, Mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.”

36 You, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, “You mountains of Israel, hear Yahweh’s word. 2 The Lord Yahweh says: ‘Because the enemy has said against you, “Aha!” and, “The ancient high places are ours in possession!”’ 3 therefore prophesy, and say, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: “Because, even because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that you might be a possession to the residue of the nations, and you are taken up in the lips of talkers, and the evil report of the people;”⁴ therefore, you mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Yahweh: The Lord Yahweh says to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which have become a prey and derision to the residue of the nations that are all around;⁵ therefore the Lord Yahweh says: “Surely in the fire of my jealousy I have spoken against the residue of the nations, and against all Edom, that have appointed my land to themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart, with despite of soul, to cast it out for a prey.”⁶ Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and tell the mountains, the hills, the watercourses and the valleys, “The Lord Yahweh says: “Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my wrath, because you have borne the shame of the nations.”⁷ Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: “I have sworn, ‘Surely the nations that are around you will bear their shame.’

⁸ ““But you, mountains of Israel, you shall shoot out your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they are at hand to come.⁹ For, behold, I am for you, and I will come to you, and you will be tilled and sown.¹⁰ I will multiply men on you, all the house of Israel, even all of it. The cities will be inhabited, and the waste places will be built.¹¹ I will multiply man and animal on you. They will increase and be fruitful. I will cause you to be inhabited as you were before, and you will do better than at your beginnings. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.¹² Yes, I will cause men to walk on you, even my people Israel. They will possess you, and you will be their inheritance, and you will never again bereave them of their children.”

¹³ ““The Lord Yahweh says: “Because they say to you, ‘You are a devourer of men, and have been a bereaver of your nation;’¹⁴ therefore you shall devour men no more, and not bereave your nation any more,” says the Lord Yahweh.¹⁵ “I won’t let you hear the shame of the nations any more. You won’t bear the reproach of the peoples any more, and you won’t cause your nation to stumble any more,” says the Lord Yahweh.”

¹⁶ Moreover Yahweh’s word came to me, saying,¹⁷ “Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their ways and by their deeds. Their way before me was as the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity.¹⁸ Therefore I poured out my wrath on them for the blood which they had poured out on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols.¹⁹ I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries. I judged them according to their way and according to their deeds.²⁰ When they came to the nations where they went, they profaned my holy name; in that men said of them, ‘These are Yahweh’s people, and have left his land.’²¹ But I had respect for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations where they went.

²⁴ ““For I will take you from among the nations and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land.²⁵ I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean. I will cleanse you from all your filthiness, and from all your idols.²⁶ I will also give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit within you. I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh.²⁷ I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes. You will keep my ordinances and do them.²⁸ You will dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers. You will be my people, and I will be your God.

²⁹ I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will call for the grain, and will multiply it, and lay no famine on you. ³⁰ I will multiply the fruit of the tree and the increase of the field, that you may receive no more the reproach of famine among the nations.

³¹ “Then you will remember your evil ways, and your deeds that were not good; and you will loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. ³² I don’t do this for your sake,” says the Lord Yahweh. “Let it be known to you: be ashamed and confounded for your ways, house of Israel.”

³³ “The Lord Yahweh says: “In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited and the waste places will be built. ³⁴ The land that was desolate will be tilled instead of being a desolation in the sight of all who passed by. ³⁵ They will say, ‘This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden. The waste, desolate, and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited.’ ³⁶ Then the nations that are left around you will know that I, Yahweh, have built the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate. I, Yahweh, have spoken it, and I will do it.”

³⁷ “The Lord Yahweh says: “For this, moreover, I will be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them: I will increase them with men like a flock. ³⁸ As the flock for sacrifice, as the flock of Jerusalem in her appointed feasts, so the waste cities will be filled with flocks of men. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.”

37 Yahweh’s hand was on me, and he brought me out in Yahweh’s Spirit, and set me down in the middle of the valley; and it was full of bones. ² He caused me to pass by them all around: and behold, there were very many in the open valley; and behold, they were very dry. ³ He said to me, “Son of man, can these bones live?”

I answered, “Lord Yahweh, you know.”

⁴ Again he said to me, “Prophesy over these bones, and tell them, ‘You dry bones, hear Yahweh’s word. ⁵ The Lord Yahweh says to these bones: “Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you will live. ⁶ I will lay sinews on you, and will bring up flesh on you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you will live. Then you will know that I am Yahweh.””

⁷ So I prophesied as I was commanded. As I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, there was an earthquake. Then the bones came together, bone to its bone. ⁸ I saw, and, behold, there were sinews on them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them.

⁹ Then he said to me, “Prophesy to the wind, prophesy, son of man, and tell the wind, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: “Come from the four winds, breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live.””

¹⁰ So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up on their feet, an exceedingly great army.

¹¹ Then he said to me, “Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Behold, they say, ‘Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost. We are completely cut off.’

¹² Therefore prophesy, and tell them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: “Behold, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, my people; and I will bring you into the land of Israel. ¹³ You will know that I am Yahweh, when I have opened your graves, and caused you to come up out of your graves, my people. ¹⁴ I will put my Spirit in you, and you will live. Then I will place you in your own land; and you will know that I, Yahweh, have spoken it and performed it,” says Yahweh.”

¹⁵ Yahweh’s word came again to me, saying, ¹⁶ “You, son of man, take one stick, and write on it, ‘For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions.’ Then take another stick, and write on it, ‘For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions.’

¹⁸ “When the children of your people speak to you, saying, ‘Won’t you show us what you mean by these?’ ¹⁹ tell them, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: “Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his companions; and I will put them with it, with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they will be one in my hand. ²⁰ The sticks on which you write will be in your hand before their eyes.”’ ²¹ Say to them, “The Lord Yahweh says: “Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the nations, where they have gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land. ²² I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel. One king will be king to them all. They will no longer be two nations. They won’t be divided into two kingdoms any more at all. ²³ They won’t defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but I will save them out of all their dwelling places, in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them. So they will be my people, and I will be their God.

²⁴ ““My servant David will be king over them. They all will have one shepherd. They will also walk in my ordinances, and observe my statutes, and do them. ²⁵ They will dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob my servant, in which your fathers lived. They will dwell therein, they, and their children, and their children’s children, forever. David my servant will be their prince forever. ²⁶ Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them. It will be an everlasting covenant with them. I will place them, multiply them, and will set my sanctuary among them forever more. ²⁷ My tent also will be with them. I will be their God, and they will be my people. ²⁸ The nations will know that I am Yahweh who sanctifies Israel, when my sanctuary is among them forever more.””

38 Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ² “Son of man, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him, ³ and say, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: “Behold, I am against you, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal. ⁴ I will turn you around, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you out, with all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company with buckler and shield, all of them handling swords; ⁵ Persia, Cush, and Put with them, all of them with shield and helmet; ⁶ Gomer, and all his hordes; the house of Togarmah in the uttermost parts of the north, and all his hordes; even many peoples with you.

¹⁰ ““The Lord Yahweh says: “It will happen in that day that things will come into your mind, and you will devise an evil plan. ¹¹ You will say, ‘I will go up to the land of unwalled villages. I will go to those who are at rest, who dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates, ¹² to take the plunder and to take prey; to turn your hand against the waste places that are inhabited, and against the people who are gathered out of the nations, who have gotten livestock and goods, who dwell in the middle of the earth.’ ¹³ Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions of it, will ask you, ‘Have you come to take the plunder? Have you assembled your company to take the prey, to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to take great plunder?"

¹⁴“Therefore, son of man, prophesy, and tell Gog, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: “In that day when my people Israel dwells securely, will you not know it? ¹⁵You will come from your place out of the uttermost parts of the north, you, and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army. ¹⁶You will come up against my people Israel, as a cloud to cover the land. It will happen in the latter days, that I will bring you against my land, that the nations may know me, when I am sanctified in you, Gog, before their eyes.”

¹⁷“The Lord Yahweh says: “Are you he of whom I spoke in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days for years that I would bring you against them? ¹⁸It will happen in that day, when Gog comes against the land of Israel,” says the Lord Yahweh, “that my wrath will come up into my nostrils. ¹⁹For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath I have spoken. Surely in that day there will be a great shaking in the land of Israel; ²⁰so that the fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, the animals of the field, all creeping things who creep on the earth, and all the men who are on the surface of the earth will shake at my presence. Then the mountains will be thrown down, the steep places will fall, and every wall will fall to the ground. ²¹I will call for a sword against him to all my mountains,” says the Lord Yahweh. “Every man’s sword will be against his brother. ²²I will enter into judgment with him with pestilence and with blood. I will rain on him, and on his hordes, and on the many peoples who are with him, an overflowing shower, with great hailstones, fire, and sulfur. ²³I will magnify myself, and sanctify myself, and I will make myself known in the eyes of many nations. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.”

39 “You, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, ‘The Lord Yahweh says:

“Behold, I am against you, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal. ²I will turn you around, and will lead you on, and will cause you to come up from the uttermost parts of the north; and I will bring you onto the mountains of Israel. ³I will strike your bow out of your left hand, and will cause your arrows to fall out of your right hand. ⁴You will fall on the mountains of Israel, you, and all your hordes, and the peoples who are with you. I will give you to the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the animals of the field to be devoured. ⁵You will fall on the open field; for I have spoken it,” says the Lord Yahweh. ⁶“I will send a fire on Magog, and on those who dwell securely in the islands. Then they will know that I am Yahweh.

⁷““I will make my holy name known among my people Israel. I won’t allow my holy name to be profaned any more. Then the nations will know that I am Yahweh, the Holy One in Israel. ⁸Behold, it comes, and it will be done,” says the Lord Yahweh. “This is the day about which I have spoken.

⁹““Those who dwell in the cities of Israel will go out, and will make fires of the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the war clubs and the spears, and they will make fires with them for seven years; ¹⁰so that they will take no wood out of the field, and not cut down any out of the forests; for they will make fires with the weapons. They will plunder those who plundered them, and rob those who robbed them,” says the Lord Yahweh.

¹¹““It will happen in that day, that I will give to Gog a place for burial in Israel, the valley of those who pass through on the east of the sea; and it will stop those who pass through. They will bury Gog and all his multitude there; and they will call it ‘The valley of Hamon Gog’.

¹²““The house of Israel will be burying them for seven months, that they may cleanse the land. ¹³Yes, all the people of the land will bury them; and they will become famous in the day that I will be glorified,” says the Lord Yahweh.

¹⁴ “They will set apart men of continual employment, who will pass through the land. Those who pass through will go with those who bury those who remain on the surface of the land, to cleanse it. After the end of seven months they will search. ¹⁵ Those who pass through the land will pass through; and when anyone sees a man’s bone, then he will set up a sign by it, until the undertakers have buried it in the valley of Hamon Gog. ¹⁶ Hamonah will also be the name of a city. Thus they will cleanse the land.”

¹⁷ “You, son of man, the Lord Yahweh says: ‘Speak to the birds of every sort, and to every animal of the field, “Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, that you may eat meat and drink blood. ¹⁸ You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan. ¹⁹ You shall eat fat until you are full, and drink blood until you are drunk, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. ²⁰ You shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war,” says the Lord Yahweh.’

²¹ “I will set my glory among the nations. Then all the nations will see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid on them. ²² So the house of Israel will know that I am Yahweh their God, from that day and forward. ²³ The nations will know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they trespassed against me, and I hid my face from them; so I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they all fell by the sword. ²⁴ I did to them according to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions. I hid my face from them.

²⁵ “Therefore the Lord Yahweh says: ‘Now I will reverse the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy on the whole house of Israel. I will be jealous for my holy name. ²⁶ They will bear their shame, and all their trespasses by which they have trespassed against me, when they dwell securely in their land, and no one will make them afraid, ²⁷ when I have brought them back from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies’ lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations. ²⁸ They will know that I am Yahweh their God, in that I caused them to go into captivity among the nations, and have gathered them to their own land. Then I will leave none of them captive any more. ²⁹ I won’t hide my face from them any more; for I have poured out my Spirit on the house of Israel,’ says the Lord Yahweh.”

40 In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was struck, in the same day, Yahweh’s hand was on me, and he brought me there. ² In the visions of God he brought me into the land of Israel, and set me down on a very high mountain, on which was something like the frame of a city to the south. ³ He brought me there; and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of bronze, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. ⁴ The man said to me, “Son of man, see with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I will show you; for you have been brought here so that I may show them to you. Declare all that you see to the house of Israel.”

⁵ Behold, there was a wall on the outside of the house all around, and in the man’s hand a measuring reed six cubits^{‡‡} long, of a cubit and a hand width each. So he measured the

⁶Then he came to the gate which looks toward the east, and went up its steps. He measured the threshold of the gate, one reed wide; and the other threshold, one reed wide. ⁷Every lodge was one reed long and one reed wide. Between the lodges was five cubits. The threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate toward the house was one reed.

⁸He measured also the porch of the gate toward the house, one reed. ⁹Then he measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its posts, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was toward the house.

¹⁰The lodges of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side. The three of them were of one measure. The posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

¹⁷Then he brought me into the outer court. Behold, there were rooms and a pavement made for the court all around. Thirty rooms were on the pavement. ¹⁸The pavement was by the side of the gates, corresponding to the length of the gates, even the lower pavement. ¹⁹Then he measured the width from the forefront of the lower gate to the forefront of the inner court outside, one hundred cubits, both on the east and on the north.

²⁰He measured the length and width of the gate of the outer court which faces toward the north. ²¹The lodges of it were three on this side and three on that side. Its posts and its arches were the same as the measure of the first gate: its length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. ²²Its windows, its arches, and its palm trees were the same as the measure of the gate which faces toward the east. They went up to it by seven steps. Its arches were before them. ²³There was a gate to the inner court facing the other gate, on the north and on the east. He measured one hundred cubits from gate to gate.

²⁴He led me toward the south; and behold, there was a gate toward the south. He measured its posts and its arches according to these measurements. ²⁵There were windows in it and in its arches all around, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. ²⁶There were seven steps to go up to it, and its arches were before them. It had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, on its posts. ²⁷There was a gate to the inner court toward the south. He measured one hundred cubits from gate to gate toward the south.

²⁸Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate. He measured the south gate according to these measurements; ²⁹with its lodges, its posts, and its arches, according to these measurements. There were windows in it and in its arches all around. It was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits wide. ³⁰There were arches all around, twenty-five cubits long, and five cubits wide. ³¹Its arches were toward the outer court. Palm trees were on its posts. The ascent to it had eight steps.

³²He brought me into the inner court toward the east. He measured the gate according to these measurements; ³³with its lodges, its posts, and its arches, according to these measurements. There were windows in it and in its arches all around. It was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits wide. ³⁴ Its arches were toward the outer court. Palm trees were on its posts on this side and on that side. The ascent to it had eight steps.

³⁵ He brought me to the north gate, and he measured it according to these measurements; ³⁶ its lodges, its posts, and its arches. There were windows in it all around. The length was fifty cubits and the width twenty-five cubits. ³⁷ Its posts were toward the outer court. Palm trees were on its posts on this side and on that side. The ascent to it had eight steps.

³⁸ A room with its door was by the posts at the gates. They washed the burnt offering there. ³⁹ In the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, on which to kill the burnt offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering. ⁴⁰ On the one side outside, as one goes up to the entry of the gate toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side, which belonged to the porch of the gate, were two tables. ⁴¹ Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate: eight tables, on which they killed the sacrifices. ⁴² There were four tables for the burnt offering, of cut stone, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half wide, and one cubit high. They laid the instruments with which they killed the burnt offering and the sacrifice on them. ⁴³ The hooks, a hand width long, were fastened within all around. The meat of the offering was on the tables.

⁴⁴ Outside of the inner gate were rooms for the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate. They faced toward the south. One at the side of the east gate faced toward the north. ⁴⁵ He said to me, "This room, which faces toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the duty of the house. ⁴⁶ The room which faces toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the duty of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, who from among the sons of Levi come near to Yahweh to minister to him." ⁴⁷ He measured the court, one hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits wide, square. The altar was before the house.

⁴⁸ Then he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side. The width of the gate was three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side. ⁴⁹ The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the width eleven cubits; even by the steps by which they went up to it. There were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

41 He brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits wide on the one side, and six cubits wide on the other side, which was the width of the tent. ² The width of the entrance was ten cubits; ^{¶¶} and the sides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side. He measured its length, forty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits.

³ Then he went inward and measured each post of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the width of the entrance, seven cubits. ⁴ He measured its length, twenty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits, before the temple. He said to me, "This is the most holy place."

⁵ Then he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the width of every side room, four cubits, all around the house on every side. ⁶ The side rooms were in three stories, one over another, and thirty in order. They entered into the wall which belonged to the house for the side rooms all around, that they might be supported, and not penetrate the wall of the house. ⁷ The side rooms were wider on the higher levels, because the walls were narrower at the higher levels. Therefore the width of the house increased upward; and so one went up from the lowest level to the highest through the middle level.

⁸ I saw also that the house had a raised base all around. The foundations of the side rooms were a full reed of six great cubits. ⁹ The thickness of the wall, which was for the side rooms, on the outside, was five cubits. That which was left was the place of the side rooms that belonged to the house. ¹⁰ Between the rooms was a width of twenty cubits around the house on every side. ¹¹ The doors of the side rooms were toward an open area that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south. The width of the open area was five cubits all around.

¹⁵ He measured the length of the building before the separate place which was at its back, and its galleries on the one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits from the inner temple, and the porches of the court ¹⁶ the thresholds, and the closed windows, and the galleries around on their three stories, opposite the threshold, with wood ceilings all around, and from the ground up to the windows, (now the windows were covered), ¹⁷ to the space above the door, even to the inner house, and outside, and by all the wall all around inside and outside, by measure. ¹⁸ It was made with cherubim and palm trees. A palm tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces; ¹⁹ so that there was the face of a man toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side.

It was made like this through all the house all around. ²⁰ Cherubim and palm trees were made from the ground to above the door. The wall of the temple was like this.

²¹ As for the temple, the door posts were squared. As for the face of the sanctuary, its appearance was as the appearance of the temple. ²² The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits. Its corners, its length, and its walls were of wood. He said to me, "This is the table that is before Yahweh." ²³ The temple and the sanctuary had two doors. ²⁴ The doors had two leaves each, two turning leaves: two for the one door, and two leaves for the other. ²⁵ There were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm trees, like those made on the walls. There was a threshold of wood on the face of the porch outside. ²⁶ There were closed windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch. This is how the side rooms of the house and the thresholds were arranged.

42 Then he brought me out into the outer court, the way toward the north. Then he brought me into the room that was opposite the separate place, and which was opposite the building toward the north. ² Before the length of one hundred cubits^{§§} was the north door, and the width was fifty cubits. ³ Opposite the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and opposite the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery in the third floor. ⁴ Before the rooms was a walk of ten cubits' width inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors were toward the north. ⁵ Now the upper rooms were shorter; for the galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middle, in the building. ⁶ For they were in three stories, and they didn't have pillars as the pillars of the courts. Therefore the uppermost was set back more than the lowest and the middle from the ground. ⁷The wall that was outside by the side of the rooms, toward the outer court before the rooms, its length was fifty cubits. ⁸For the length of the rooms that were in the outer court was fifty cubits. Behold, before the temple were one hundred cubits. ⁹From under these rooms was the entry on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court.

¹⁰In the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, before the separate place, and before the building, there were rooms. ¹¹The way before them was like the appearance of the rooms which were toward the north; according to their length so was their width; and all their exits were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors. ¹²According to the doors of the rooms that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one enters into them.

¹³Then he said to me, "The north rooms and the south rooms, which are before the separate place, are the holy rooms, where the priests who are near to Yahweh shall eat the most holy things. There they shall lay the most holy things, with the meal offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy. ¹⁴When the priests enter in, then they shall not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but they shall lay their garments in which they minister there; for they are holy. Then they shall put on other garments, and shall approach that which is for the people."

¹⁵Now when he had finished measuring the inner house, he brought me out by the way of the gate which faces toward the east, and measured it all around. ¹⁶He measured on the east side with the measuring reed five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed all around. ¹⁷He measured on the north side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed all around. ¹⁸He measured on the south side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. ¹⁹He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. ²⁰He measured it on the four sides. It had a wall around it, the length five hundred, and the width five hundred, to make a separation between that which was holy and that which was common.

43 Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looks toward the east. ²Behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east. His voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth was illuminated with his glory. ³It was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. ⁴Yahweh's glory came into the house by the way of the gate which faces toward the east. ⁵The Spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and behold, Yahweh's glory filled the house.

⁶I heard one speaking to me out of the house; and a man stood by me. ⁷He said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell among the children of Israel forever. The house of Israel will no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their prostitution, and by the dead bodies of their kings in their high places; ⁸in their setting of their threshold by my threshold, and their door post beside my door post. There was a wall between me and them; and they have defiled my holy name by their abominations which they have committed. Therefore I have consumed them in my anger. ⁹Now let them put away their prostitution, and the dead bodies of their kings, far from me. Then I will dwell among them forever.

¹⁰"You, son of man, show the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern. ¹¹If they are ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the form of the house, and its fashion, and its exits, and its entrances, and all its forms, and all its ordinances, and all its forms, and all its laws; and write it in their sight; that they may keep the whole form of it, and all its ordinances, and do them.

¹²“This is the law of the house. On the top of the mountain the whole limit around it shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

¹⁸He said to me, “Son of man, the Lord Yahweh says: ‘These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they make it, to offer burnt offerings on it, and to sprinkle blood on it. ¹⁹You shall give to the Levitical priests who are of the offspring of Zadok, who are near to me, to minister to me,’ says the Lord Yahweh, ‘a young bull for a sin offering. ²⁰You shall take of its blood, and put it on its four horns, and on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border all around. You shall cleanse it and make atonement for it that way. ²¹You shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and it shall be burned in the appointed place of the house, outside of the sanctuary.

²²“On the second day you shall offer a male goat without defect for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull. ²³When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without defect, and a ram out of the flock without defect. ²⁴You shall bring them near to Yahweh, and the priests shall cast salt on them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering to Yahweh.

²⁵“Seven days you shall prepare every day a goat for a sin offering. They shall also prepare a young bull, and a ram out of the flock, without defect. ²⁶Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and purify it. So shall they consecrate it. ²⁷When they have accomplished the days, it shall be that on the eighth day, and forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings on the altar, and your peace offerings. Then I will accept you,’ says the Lord Yahweh.”

44 Then he brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which looks toward the east; and it was shut. ²Yahweh said to me, “This gate shall be shut. It shall not be opened, no man shall enter in by it; for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has entered in by it. Therefore it shall be shut. ³As for the prince, he shall sit in it as prince to eat bread before Yahweh. He shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and shall go out the same way.”

⁴Then he brought me by the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and behold, Yahweh’s glory filled Yahweh’s house; so I fell on my face.

⁵Yahweh said to me, “Son of man, mark well, and see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I tell you concerning all the ordinances of Yahweh’s house, and all its laws; and mark well the entrance of the house, with every exit of the sanctuary. ⁶You shall tell the rebellious, even the house of Israel, ‘The Lord Yahweh says: “You house of Israel, let that be enough of all your abominations, ⁷in that you have brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to profane it, even my house, when you offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, to add to all your abominations. ⁸ You have not performed the duty of my holy things; but you have set performers of my duty in my sanctuary for yourselves.” ⁹ The Lord Yahweh says, “No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any foreigners who are among the children of Israel.

¹⁰ ““But the Levites who went far from me, when Israel went astray, who went astray from me after their idols, they will bear their iniquity. ¹¹ Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house, and ministering in the house. They shall kill the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them. ¹² Because they ministered to them before their idols, and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel. Therefore I have lifted up my hand against them,” says the Lord Yahweh, “and they will bear their iniquity. ¹³ They shall not come near to me, to execute the office of priest to me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, to the things that are most holy; but they will bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. ¹⁴ Yet I will make them performers of the duty of the house, for all its service, and for all that will be done therein.

¹⁵ ““But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok, who performed the duty of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, shall come near to me to minister to me. They shall stand before me to offer to me the fat and the blood,” says the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁶ “They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my instruction.

¹⁷ ““It will be that, when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments. No wool shall come on them while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. ¹⁸ They shall have linen turbans on their heads, and shall have linen trousers on their waists. They shall not clothe themselves with anything that makes them sweat. ¹⁹ When they go out into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments in which they minister, and lay them in the holy rooms. They shall put on other garments, that they not sanctify the people with their garments.

²⁴ ““In a controversy they shall stand to judge. They shall judge it according to my ordinances. They shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my appointed feasts. They shall make my Sabbaths holy.

²⁵ ““They shall go in to no dead person to defile themselves; but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister who has had no husband, they may defile themselves. ²⁶ After he is cleansed, they shall reckon to him seven days. ²⁷ In the day that he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering,” says the Lord Yahweh.

²⁸ ““They shall have an inheritance. I am their inheritance; and you shall give them no possession in Israel. I am their possession. ²⁹ They shall eat the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs. ³⁰ The first of all the first fruits of every thing, and every offering of everything, of all your offerings, shall be for the priest. You shall also give to the priests the first of your dough, to cause a blessing to rest on your house. ³¹ The priests shall not eat of anything that dies of itself, or is torn, whether it is bird or animal.

45 ¹“Moreover, when you divide by lot the land for inheritance, you shall offer an offering to Yahweh, a holy portion of the land. The length shall be the length of twenty-five thousand reeds, and the width shall be ten thousand. It shall be holy in all its border all around. ² Of this there shall be a five hundred by five hundred square for the holy place; and fifty cubits[‡] for its pasture lands all around. ³ Of this measure you shall measure a length of twenty-five thousand, and a width of ten thousand. In it shall be the sanctuary, which is most holy. ⁴ It is a holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to Yahweh. It shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary. ⁵ Twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in width, shall be for the Levites, the ministers of the house, as a possession for themselves, for twenty rooms.

⁶ ¹“You shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand wide, and twenty-five thousand long, side by side with the offering of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

ward, and on the east side eastward; and in length answerable to one of the portions, from the west border to the east border. ⁸ In the land it shall be to him for a possession in Israel. My princes shall no more oppress my people; but they shall give the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes.”

⁹ ¹“The Lord Yahweh says: “Let it suffice you, princes of Israel: remove violence and plunder, and execute justice and righteousness; dispossessing my people,” says the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁰ “You shall have just balances, a just ephah,[¶] and a just bath. ¹¹ The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain one tenth of a homer,[§] and the ephah one tenth of a homer. Its measure shall be the same as the homer. ¹² The shekel^{} shall be twenty gerahs.^{††} Twenty shekels plus twenty-five shekels plus fifteen shekels shall be your mina.^{‡‡}

18 “The Lord Yahweh says: “In the first month, in the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without defect; and you shall cleanse the sanctuary. 19 The priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it on the door posts of the house, and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the posts of the gate of the inner court. 20 So you shall do on the seventh day of the month for everyone who errs, and for him who is simple. So you shall make atonement for the house.

21 ““In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. 22 On that day the prince shall prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering. 23 The seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to Yahweh, seven bulls and seven rams without defect daily the seven days; and a male goat daily for a sin offering. 24 He shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah^{§§} for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin* of oil to an ephah.

25 ““In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, in the feast, he shall do like that for seven days; according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meal offering, and according to the oil.”

46 “The Lord Yahweh says: “The gate of the inner court that looks toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the Sabbath day it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened. 2 The prince shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate outside, and shall stand by the post of the gate; and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate. Then he shall go out; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. 3 The people of the land shall worship at the door of that gate before Yahweh on the Sabbaths and on the new moons. 4 The burnt offering that the prince shall offer to Yahweh shall be on the Sabbath day six lambs without defect and a ram without defect; 5 and the meal offering shall be an ephah for the ram, and the meal offering for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin[†] of oil to an ephah.[‡] 6 On the day of the new moon it shall be a young bull without defect, and six lambs, and a ram. They shall be without defect. 7 He shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for the bull, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs according as he is able, and a hin of oil to an ephah. 8 When the prince enters, he shall go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go out by its way.

9 ““But when the people of the land come before Yahweh in the appointed feasts, he who enters by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he who enters by the way of the south gate shall go out by the way of the north gate. He shall not return by the way of the gate by which he came in, but shall go out straight before him. 10 The prince shall go in with them when they go in. When they go out, he shall go out.

11 ““In the feasts and in the solemnities the meal offering shall be an ephah ¶for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. 12 When the prince prepares a free will offering, a burnt offering or peace offerings as a free will offering to Yahweh, one shall open for him the gate that looks toward the east; and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he does on the Sabbath day. Then he shall go out; and after his going out one shall shut the gate.

¹⁹ Then he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy rooms for the priests, which looked toward the north. Behold, there was a place on the back part westward. ²⁰ He said to me, “This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the meal offering; that they not bring them out into the outer court, to sanctify the people.”

²¹ Then he brought me out into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. ²² In the four corners of the court there were courts enclosed, forty cubits long and thirty wide. These four in the corners were the same size. ²³ There was a wall around in them, around the four, and boiling places were made under the walls all around. ²⁴ Then he said to me, “These are the boiling houses, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.”

47 He brought me back to the door of the house; and behold, waters flowed out from under the threshold of the house eastward, for the front of the house faced toward the east. The waters came down from underneath, from the right side of the house, on the south of the altar. ² Then he brought me out by the way of the gate northward, and led me around by the way outside to the outer gate, by the way of the gate that looks toward the east. Behold, waters ran out on the right side.

³ When the man went out eastward with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand cubits,^{††} and he caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles. ⁴ Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through waters that were to the waist. ⁵ Afterward he measured one thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass through; for the waters had risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be walked through.

Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the bank of the river. ⁷ Now when I had returned, behold, on the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other. ⁸Then he said to me, "These waters flow out toward the eastern region, and will go down into the Arabah. Then they will go toward the sea; and flow into the sea which will be made to flow out; and the waters will be healed. ⁹It will happen, that every living creature which swarms, in every place where the rivers come, will live. Then there will be a very great multitude of fish; for these waters have come there, and the waters of the sea will be healed, and everything will live wherever the river comes. ¹⁰It will happen, that fishermen will stand by it. From En Gedi even to En Eglaim will be a place for the spreading of nets. Their fish will be after their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceedingly many. ¹¹But the miry places of it, and its marshes, will not be healed. They will be given up to salt. ¹²By the river on its bank, on this side and on that side, will grow every tree for food, whose leaf won't wither, neither will its fruit fail. It will produce new fruit every month, because its waters issue out of the sanctuary. Its fruit will be for food, and its leaf for healing."

¹³The Lord Yahweh says: "This shall be the border, by which you shall divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel. Joseph shall have two portions. ¹⁴You shall inherit it, one as well as another; for I swore to give it to your fathers. This land will fall to you for inheritance.

¹⁵"This shall be the border of the land:

"On the north side, from the great sea, by the way of Hethlon, to the entrance of Zedad; ¹⁶Hamath, Berothah, Sibram, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazer Hatticon, which is by the border of Hauran. ¹⁷The border from the sea, shall be Hazar Enon at the border of Damascus; and on the north northward is the border of Hamath. This is the north side.

¹⁸"The east side, between Hauran and Damascus and Gilead, and the land of Israel, shall be the Jordan; from the north border to the east sea you shall measure. This is the east side.

²⁰"The west side shall be the great sea, from the south border as far as opposite the entrance of Hamath. This is the west side.

²¹"So you shall divide this land to yourselves according to the tribes of Israel. ²²It will happen, that you shall divide it by lot for an inheritance to you and to the aliens who live among you, who will father children among you. Then they shall be to you as the native-born among the children of Israel. They shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. ²³It shall happen, that in whatever tribe the stranger lives, there you shall give him his inheritance," says the Lord Yahweh.

48 "Now these are the names of the tribes: From the north end, beside the way of Hethlon to the entrance of Hamath, Hazar Enan at the border of Damascus, northward beside Hamath (and they shall have their sides east and west), Dan, one portion.

²"By the border of Dan, from the east side to the west side, Asher, one portion.

³"By the border of Asher, from the east side even to the west side, Naphtali, one portion.

⁴"By the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west side, Manasseh, one portion.

⁵"By the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west side, Ephraim, one portion.

⁶"By the border of Ephraim, from the east side even to the west side, Reuben, one portion.

⁷"By the border of Reuben, from the east side to the west side, Judah, one portion.

⁹“The offering that you shall offer to Yahweh shall be twenty-five thousand reeds in length, and ten thousand in width. ¹⁰For these, even for the priests, shall be the holy offering: toward the north twenty-five thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in width, and toward the east ten thousand in width, and toward the south twenty-five thousand in length; and the sanctuary of Yahweh shall be in the middle of it. ¹¹It shall be for the priests who are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, who have kept my instruction, who didn’t go astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray. ¹²It shall be to them an offering from the offering of the land, a most holy thing, by the border of the Levites.

¹⁵“The five thousand that are left in the width, in front of the twenty-five thousand, shall be for common use, for the city, for dwelling and for pasture lands; and the city shall be in the middle of it. ¹⁶These shall be its measurements: the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. ¹⁷The city shall have pasture lands: toward the north two hundred fifty, and toward the south two hundred fifty, and toward the east two hundred fifty, and toward the west two hundred fifty. ¹⁸The remainder in the length, alongside the holy offering, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward; and it shall be alongside the holy offering. Its increase shall be for food to those who labor in the city. ¹⁹Those who labor in the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, shall cultivate it. ²⁰All the offering shall be a square of twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand. You shall offer it as a holy offering, with the possession of the city.

²¹“The remainder shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy offering and of the possession of the city; in front of the twenty-five thousand of the offering toward the east border, and westward in front of the twenty-five thousand toward the west border, alongside the portions, it shall be for the prince. The holy offering and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the middle of it. ²²Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the middle of that which is the prince’s, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince.

²³“As for the rest of the tribes: from the east side to the west side, Benjamin, one portion.

²⁴“By the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon, one portion.

²⁵“By the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west side, Issachar, one portion.

²⁶“By the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side, Zebulun, one portion.

²⁷“By the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west side, Gad, one portion.

²⁸“By the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar to the waters of Meribath Kadesh, to the brook, to the great sea.

²⁹“This is the land which you shall divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their several portions, says the Lord Yahweh.

³²“At the east side four thousand and five hundred reeds, and three gates: even the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one.

³³ “At the south side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure, and three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, one; the gate of Zebulun, one.

³⁴ “At the west side four thousand and five hundred reeds, with their three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one.

³⁵ “It shall be eighteen thousand reeds around: and the name of the city from that day shall be, ‘Yahweh is there.’

The Book of Daniel

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. ²The Lord^{‡‡} gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God; ^{¶¶}and he carried them into the land of Shinar to the house of his god. He brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

³The king spoke to Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring in some of the children of Israel, even of the royal offspring^{§§} and of the nobles; ⁴youths in whom was no defect, but well-favored, and skillful in all wisdom, and endowed with knowledge, and understanding science, and who had the ability to stand in the king's palace; and that he should teach them the learning and the language of the Chaldeans. ⁵The king appointed for them a daily portion of the king's dainties, and of the wine which he drank, and that they should be nourished three years; that at its end they should stand before the king.

⁶Now among these were of the children of Judah: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. ⁷The prince of the eunuchs gave names to them: to Daniel he gave the name Belteshazzar; to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego.

⁸But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's dainties, nor with the wine which he drank. Therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. ⁹Now God made Daniel find kindness and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs. ¹⁰The prince of the eunuchs said to Daniel, "I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your food and your drink. For why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths who are of your own age? Then you would endanger my head with the king."

¹¹Then Daniel said to the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: ¹²"Test your servants, I beg you, ten days; and let them give us vegetables to eat, and water to drink. ¹³Then let our faces be examined before you, and the face of the youths who eat of the king's dainties; and as you see, deal with your servants." ¹⁴So he listened to them in this matter, and tested them for ten days.

¹⁵At the end of ten days, their faces appeared fairer, and they were fatter in flesh, than all the youths who ate of the king's dainties. ¹⁶So the steward took away their dainties, and the wine that they would drink, and gave them vegetables.

¹⁷Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom; and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

¹⁸At the end of the days which the king had appointed for bringing them in, the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁹The king talked with them; and among them all was found no one like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. Therefore stood they before the king. ²⁰In every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters who were in all his realm.

²¹Daniel continued even to the first year of king Cyrus.

2 In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep went from him. ² Then the king commanded that the magicians, the enchanters, the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans be called to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king. ³ The king said to them, "I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream."

⁴ Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in the Syrian language, "O king, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation."

⁵ The king answered the Chaldeans, "The thing has gone from me. If you don't make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you will be cut in pieces, and your houses will be made a dunghill. ⁶ But if you show the dream and its interpretation, you will receive of me gifts and rewards and great honor. Therefore show me the dream and its interpretation."

⁸ The king answered, "I know of a certainty that you are trying to gain time, because you see the thing has gone from me. ⁹ But if you don't make known to me the dream, there is but one law for you; for you have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, until the situation changes. Therefore tell me the dream, and I will know that you can show me its interpretation."

¹⁰ The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, "There is not a man on the earth who can show the king's matter, because no king, lord, or ruler, has asked such a thing of any magician, or enchanter, or Chaldean. ¹¹ It is a rare thing that the king requires, and there is no other who can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh."

¹² Because of this, the king was angry and very furious, and commanded that all the wise men of Babylon be destroyed. ¹³ So the decree went out, and the wise men were to be slain.

They sought Daniel and his companions to be slain.

¹⁴ Then Daniel returned answer with counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon. ¹⁵ He answered Arioch the king's captain, "Why is the decree so urgent from the king?" Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. ¹⁶ Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would appoint him a time, and he would show the king the interpretation.

¹⁷ Then Daniel went to his house and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions: ¹⁸ that they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his companions would not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. ¹⁹ Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. ²⁰ Daniel answered,

"Blessed be the name of God forever and ever; for wisdom and might are his.

²¹ He changes the times and the seasons.

He removes kings, and sets up kings.

He gives wisdom to the wise,

and knowledge to those who have understanding.

²² He reveals the deep and secret things.

He knows what is in the darkness,

and the light dwells with him.

²³ I thank you, and praise you,

you God of my fathers,

who have given me wisdom and might,

and have now made known to me what we desired of you;

for you have made known to us the king's matter."

²⁴ Therefore Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon. He went and said this to him: "Don't destroy the wise men of Babylon. Bring me in before the king, and I will show to the king the interpretation."

²⁶ The king answered Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, “Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation?”

²⁷ Daniel answered before the king, and said, “The secret which the king has demanded can’t be shown to the king by wise men, enchanters, magicians, or soothsayers; ²⁸ but there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and he has made known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what will be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head on your bed, are these:

²⁹ “As for you, O king, your thoughts came on your bed, what should happen hereafter; and he who reveals secrets has made known to you what will happen. ³⁰ But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but to the intent that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your heart.

³¹ “You, O king, saw, and behold,* a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was excellent, stood before you; and its appearance was terrifying. ³² As for this image, its head was of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of bronze, ³³ its legs of iron, its feet part of iron, and part of clay. ³⁴ You saw until a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image on its feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces. ³⁵ Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors. The wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them. The stone that struck the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

³⁶ “This is the dream; and we will tell its interpretation before the king. ³⁷ You, O king, are king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, the strength, and the glory. ³⁸ Wherever the children of men dwell, he has given the animals of the field and the birds of the sky into your hand, and has made you rule over them all. You are the head of gold.

³⁹ “After you, another kingdom will arise that is inferior to you; and another third kingdom of bronze, which will rule over all the earth. ⁴⁰ The fourth kingdom will be strong as iron, because iron breaks in pieces and subdues all things; and as iron that crushes all these, it will break in pieces and crush. ⁴¹ Whereas you saw the feet and toes, part of potters’ clay, and part of iron, it will be a divided kingdom; but there will be in it of the strength of the iron, because you saw the iron mixed with miry clay. ⁴² As the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom will be partly strong, and partly broken. ⁴³ Whereas you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, they will mingle themselves with the seed of men; but they won’t cling to one another, even as iron does not mix with clay.

⁴⁴ “In the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which will never be destroyed, nor will its sovereignty be left to another people; but it will break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it will stand forever. ⁴⁵ Because you saw that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God has made known to the king what will happen hereafter. The dream is certain, and its interpretation sure.”

⁴⁶ Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, worshiped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an offering and sweet odors to him. ⁴⁷The king answered to Daniel, and said, “Of a truth your God is the God of gods, and the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, since you have been able to reveal this secret.”

⁴⁸Then the king made Daniel great, and gave him many great gifts, and made him rule over the whole province of Babylon, and to be chief governor over all the wise men of Babylon. ⁴⁹Daniel requested of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over the affairs of the province of Babylon; but Daniel was in the king’s gate.

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits,[†] and its width six cubits. He set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. ²Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the local governors, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. ³Then the local governors, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

⁴Then the herald cried aloud, “To you it is commanded, peoples, nations, and languages, ⁵that whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, you fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has set up. ⁶Whoever doesn’t fall down and worship shall be cast into the middle of a burning fiery furnace the same hour.”

⁷Therefore at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

⁸Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and brought accusation against the Jews. ⁹They answered Nebuchadnezzar the king, “O king, live for ever! ¹⁰You, O king, have made a decree, that every man that hears the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image; ¹¹and whoever doesn’t fall down and worship shall be cast into the middle of a burning fiery furnace. ¹²There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, O king, have not respected you. They don’t serve your gods, and don’t worship the golden image which you have set up.”

¹³Then Nebuchadnezzar in rage and fury commanded that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought. Then these men were brought before the king. ¹⁴Nebuchadnezzar answered them, “Is it on purpose, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you don’t serve my god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? ¹⁵Now if you are ready whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music to fall down and worship the image which I have made, good; but if you don’t worship, you shall be cast the same hour into the middle of a burning fiery furnace. Who is that god that will deliver you out of my hands?”

¹⁶Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, “Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. ¹⁷If it happens, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. ¹⁸But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden image which you have set up.”

¹⁹ Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and the form of his appearance was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated. ²⁰ He commanded certain mighty men who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. ²¹ Then these men were bound in their pants, their tunics, and their mantles, and their other clothes, and were cast into the middle of the burning fiery furnace. ²² Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. ²³ These three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the middle of the burning fiery furnace.

²⁴ Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste. He spoke and said to his counselors, "Didn't we cast three men bound into the middle of the fire?"

They answered the king, "True, O king."

²⁵ He answered, "Look, I see four men loose, walking in the middle of the fire, and they are unharmed. The appearance of the fourth is like a son of the gods."

²⁶ Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace. He spoke and said, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, you servants of the Most High God, come out, and come here!"

Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the middle of the fire. ²⁷ The local governors, the deputies, and the governors, and the king's counselors, being gathered together, saw these men, that the fire had no power on their bodies. The hair of their head wasn't singed. Their pants weren't changed, the smell of fire wasn't even on them.

²⁸ Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel, and delivered his servants who trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. ²⁹ Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak anything evil against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other god who is able to deliver like this."

³⁰ Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

4 Nebuchadnezzar the king, to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth:

Peace be multiplied to you.

² It has seemed good to me to show the signs and wonders that the Most High God has worked toward me.

³ How great are his signs!

How mighty are his wonders!

His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom.

His dominion is from generation to generation.

⁴ I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace. ⁵ I saw a dream which made me afraid; and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. ⁶ Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. ⁷ Then the magicians, the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers came in; and I told the dream before them; but they didn't make known to me its interpretation. ⁸ But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods. I told the dream before him, saying, troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation. ¹⁰ Thus were the visions of my head on my bed: I saw, and behold, a tree in the middle of the earth; and its height was great. ¹¹ The tree grew, and was strong, and its height reached to the sky, and its sight to the end of all the earth. ¹² The leaves of it were beautiful, and it had much fruit, and in it was food for all. The animals of the field had shade under it, and the birds of the sky lived in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it.

⁹ "Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret

¹³ "I saw in the visions of my head on my bed, and behold, a watcher and a holy one came down from the sky. ¹⁴ He cried aloud, and said this, 'Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches! Shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit! Let the animals get away from under it, and the fowls from its branches. ¹⁵ Nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of the sky. Let his portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth. ¹⁶ Let his heart be changed from man's, and let an animal's heart be given to him. Then let seven times pass over him.

¹⁷ "The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will, and sets up over it the lowest of men.'

¹⁸ "This dream I, king Nebuchadnezzar, have seen; and you, Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation; but you are able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in you."

¹⁹ Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was stricken mute for a while, and his thoughts troubled him. The king answered, "Belteshazzar, don't let the dream, or the interpretation, trouble you."

Belteshazzar answered, "My lord, may the dream be for those who hate you, and its interpretation to your adversaries. ²⁰ The tree that you saw, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached to the sky, and its sight to all the earth; ²¹ whose leaves were beautiful, and its fruit plentiful, and in it was food for all; under which the animals of the field lived, and on whose branches the birds of the sky had their habitation: ²² it is you, O king, that have grown and become strong; for your greatness has grown, and reaches to the sky, and your dominion to the end of the earth.

²⁴ "This is the interpretation, O king, and it is the decree of the Most High, which has come on my lord the king: ²⁵ that you shall be driven from men, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field. You shall be made to eat grass as oxen, and shall be wet with the dew of the sky, and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will. ²⁶ Whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree; your kingdom shall be sure to you, after that you will have known that the heavens do rule. ²⁷ Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and break off your sins by righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor. Perhaps there may be a lengthening of your tranquility.”

²⁸ All this came on the king Nebuchadnezzar. ²⁹ At the end of twelve months he was walking in the royal palace of Babylon. ³⁰ The king spoke and said, “Is not this great Babylon, which I have built for the royal dwelling place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty?”

³¹ While the word was in the king’s mouth, a voice came from the sky, saying, “O king Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: “The kingdom has departed from you. ³² You shall be driven from men; and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field. You shall be made to eat grass as oxen. Seven times shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will.”

³³ This was fulfilled the same hour on Nebuchadnezzar. He was driven from men, and ate grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky, until his hair had grown like eagles’ feathers, and his nails like birds’ claws.

³⁴ At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored him who lives forever;

for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation.

³⁵ All the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and he does according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and no one can stop his hand, or ask him, “What are you doing?”

³⁶ At the same time my understanding returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and brightness returned to me. My counselors and my lords sought me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent greatness was added to me. ³⁷ Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven; for all his works are truth, and his ways justice; and those who walk in pride he is able to abase.

5 Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand. ² Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded that the golden and silver vessels which Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem be brought to him; that the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, might drink from them. ³ Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of God’s house which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank from them. ⁴ They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of bronze, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

⁷ The king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. The king spoke and said to the wise men of Babylon, “Whoever reads this writing, and shows me its interpretation, shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.”

⁸ Then all the king’s wise men came in; but they could not read the writing, and couldn’t make known to the king the interpretation. ⁹ Then king Belshazzar was greatly troubled, and his face was changed in him, and his lords were perplexed.

¹⁰The queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house. The queen spoke and said, "O king, live forever; don't let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your face be changed. ¹¹There is a man in your kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of your father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him. The king Nebuchadnezzar your father, yes, the king, your father, made him master of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and soothsayers; ¹²because an excellent spirit, knowledge, understanding, interpreting of dreams, showing of dark sentences, and dissolving of doubts were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation."

¹³Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king spoke and said to Daniel, "Are you that Daniel of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judah? ¹⁴I have heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light, understanding, and excellent wisdom are found in you. ¹⁵Now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known to me its interpretation; but they could not show the interpretation of the thing. ¹⁶But I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations, and dissolve doubts. Now if you can read the writing, and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold around your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."

¹⁷Then Daniel answered before the king, "Let your gifts be to yourself, and give your rewards to another. Nevertheless, I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

and feared before him. He killed whom he wanted to, and he kept alive whom he wanted to. He raised up whom he wanted to, and he put down whom he wanted to. ²⁰But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him. ²¹He was driven from the sons of men, and his heart was made like the animals', and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. He was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky; until he knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and that he sets up over it whomever he will.

²²"You, his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this, ²³but have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before you, and you and your lords, your wives, and your concubines, have drunk wine from them. You have praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which don't see, or hear, or know; and you have not glorified the God in whose hand your breath is, and whose are all your ways. ²⁴Then the part of the hand was sent from before him, and this writing was inscribed.

²⁵"This is the writing that was inscribed: 'MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.'

²⁶"This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE: God has counted your kingdom, and brought it to an end.

²⁷TEKEL: you are weighed in the balances, and are found wanting.

²⁸PERES: your kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians."

²⁹Then Belshazzar commanded, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

6 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom one hundred twenty local governors, who should be throughout the whole kingdom; ² and over them three presidents, of whom Daniel was one; that these local governors might give account to them, and that the king should suffer no loss. ³ Then this Daniel was distinguished above the presidents and the local governors, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

⁴ Then the presidents and the local governors sought to find occasion against Daniel as touching the kingdom; but they could find no occasion or fault, because he was faithful. There wasn't any error or fault found in him. ⁵ Then these men said, "We won't find any occasion against this Daniel, unless we find it against him concerning the law of his God."

⁶ Then these presidents and local governors assembled together to the king, and said this to him, "King Darius, live forever! ⁷ All the presidents of the kingdom, the deputies and the local governors, the counselors and the governors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a strong decree, that whoever asks a petition of any god or man for thirty days, except of you, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. ⁸ Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which doesn't alter." ⁹ Therefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree.

¹⁰ When Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his room toward Jerusalem) and he kneeled on his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did before. ¹¹ Then these men assembled together, and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God. ¹² Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning the king's decree: "Haven't you signed a decree that every man who makes a petition to any god or man within thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?"

The king answered, "This thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which doesn't alter."

¹³ Then they answered and said before the king, "That Daniel, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, doesn't respect you, O king, nor the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day." ¹⁴ Then the king, when he heard these words, was very displeased, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he labored until the going down of the sun to rescue him.

¹⁶ Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. The king spoke and said to Daniel, "Your God whom you serve continually, he will deliver you."

¹⁹ Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste to the den of lions. ²⁰ When he came near to the den to Daniel, he cried with a troubled voice. The king spoke and said to Daniel, "Daniel, servant of the living God, is your God, whom you serve continually, able to deliver you from the lions?"

²¹ Then Daniel said to the king, "O king, live forever! ²² My God has sent his angel, and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me; because as before him innocence was found in me; and also before you, O king, I have done no harm."

23 Then the king was exceedingly glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no kind of harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

24 The king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions mauled them, and broke all their bones in pieces, before they came to the bottom of the den.

25 Then king Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth:

“Peace be multiplied to you.

26 “I make a decree that in all the dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel;

“for he is the living God, and steadfast forever.

His kingdom is that which will not be destroyed.

His dominion will be even to the end.

27 He delivers and rescues.

He works signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.”

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

7 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his head on his bed. Then he wrote the dream and told the sum of the matters.

2 Daniel spoke and said, “I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the sky broke out on the great sea. 3 Four great animals came up from the sea, different from one another.

4 “The first was like a lion, and had eagle’s wings. I watched until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand on two feet as a man. A man’s heart was given to it.

5 “Behold, there was another animal, a second, like a bear. It was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth. They said this to it: ‘Arise! Devour much flesh!’

6 “After this I saw, and behold, another, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird. The animal also had four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 “After this I saw in the night visions, and, behold, there was a fourth animal, awesome and powerful, and exceedingly strong. It had great iron teeth. It devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet. It was different from all the animals that were before it. It had ten horns.

8 “I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 “I watched until thrones were placed, and one who was ancient of days sat. His clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool. His throne was fiery flames, and its wheels burning fire.

10 A fiery stream issued and came out from before him.

Thousands of thousands ministered to him. Ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him.

The judgment was set.

The books were opened.

11 “I watched at that time because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke. I watched even until the animal was slain, and its body destroyed, and it was given to be burned with fire. 12 As for the rest of the animals, their dominion was taken away; yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

13 “I saw in the night visions, and behold, there came with the clouds of the sky one like a son of man, and he came even to the ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. 14 Dominion was given him, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion, which will not pass away, and his kingdom that which will not be destroyed.

15 "As for me, Daniel, my spirit was grieved within my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. 16 I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this.

"So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. 17 "These great animals, which are four, are four kings, who will arise out of the earth. 18 But the saints of the Most High will receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever."

19 "Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth animal, which was different from all of them, exceedingly terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its nails of bronze; which devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet; 20 and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke great things, whose look was more stout than its fellows. 21 I saw, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them, 22 until the ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High, and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 "Thus he said, "The fourth animal will be a fourth kingdom on earth, which will be different from all the kingdoms, and will devour the whole earth, and will tread it down, and break it in pieces. 24 As for the ten horns, ten kings will arise out of this kingdom. Another will arise after them; and he will be different from the former, and he will put down three kings. 25 He will speak words against the Most High, and will wear out the saints of the Most High. He will plan to change the times and the law; and they will be given into his hand until a time and times and half a time.

26 "But the judgment will be set, and they will take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it to the end. 27 The kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole sky, will be given to the people of the saints of the Most High. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions will serve and obey him."

28 "Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts much troubled me, and my face was changed in me; but I kept the matter in my heart."

8 In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, even to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first. 2 I saw the vision. Now it was so, that when I saw, I was in the citadel of Susa, which is in the province of Elam. I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai. 3 Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns. The two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. 4 I saw the ram pushing westward, northward, and southward. No animals could stand before him. There wasn't any who could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and magnified himself.

5 As I was considering, behold, a male goat came from the west over the surface of the whole earth, and didn't touch the ground. The goat had a notable horn between his eyes. 6 He came to the ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and ran on him in the fury of his power. 7 I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram, and broke his two horns. There was no power in the ram to stand before him; but he cast him down to the ground, and trampled on him. There was no one who could deliver the ram out of his hand. 8 The male goat magnified himself exceedingly. When he was strong, the great horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four notable horns toward the four winds of the sky.

⁹Out of one of them came out a little horn, which grew exceedingly great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the glorious land. ¹⁰It grew great, even to the army of the sky; and it cast down some of the army and of the stars to the ground, and trampled on them. ¹¹Yes, it magnified itself, even to the prince of the army; and it took away from him the continual burnt offering, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. ¹²The army was given over to it together with the continual burnt offering through disobedience. It cast down truth to the ground, and it did its pleasure and prospered.

¹³Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who spoke, "How long will the vision about the continual burnt offering, and the disobedience that makes desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the army to be trodden under foot be?"

¹⁴He said to me, "To two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings. Then the sanctuary will be cleansed."

¹⁵When I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, I sought to understand it. Then behold, there stood before me something like the appearance of a man. ¹⁶I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, which called, and said, "Gabriel, make this man understand the vision."

¹⁷So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was frightened, and fell on my face; but he said to me, "Understand, son of man; for the vision belongs to the time of the end."

¹⁸Now as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he touched me, and set me upright.

¹⁹He said, "Behold, I will make you know what will be in the latter time of the indignation; for it belongs to the appointed time of the end. ²⁰The ram which you saw, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Persia. ²¹The rough male goat is the king of Greece. The great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. ²²As for that which was broken, in the place where four stood up, four kingdoms will stand up out of the nation, but not with his power.

²³"In the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have come to the full, a king of fierce face, and understanding dark sentences, will stand up. ²⁴His power will be mighty, but not by his own power. He will destroy awesomely, and will prosper in what he does. He will destroy the mighty ones and the holy people. ²⁵Through his policy he will cause deceit to prosper in his hand. He will magnify himself in his heart, and he will destroy many in their security. He will also stand up against the prince of princes; but he will be broken without hand.

²⁶"The vision of the evenings and mornings which has been told is true; but seal up the vision, for it belongs to many days to come."

²⁷I, Daniel, fainted, and was sick for some days. Then I rose up, and did the king's business. I wondered at the vision, but no one understood it.

9 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the offspring of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans, ²in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years about which Yahweh's word[‡] came to Jeremiah the prophet, for the accomplishing of the desolations of Jerusalem, even seventy years. ³I set my face to the Lord God, to seek by prayer and petitions, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes.

⁴I prayed to Yahweh my God, and made confession, and said,

"Oh, Lord, the great and dreadful God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness with those who love him and keep his commandments, ⁵we have sinned,

and have dealt perversely, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even turning aside from your precepts and from your ordinances. ⁶We haven't listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

⁷"Lord, righteousness belongs to you, but to us confusion of face, as it is today; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, who are near, and who are far off, through all the countries where you have driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against you. ⁸Lord, to us belongs confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against you. ⁹To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgiveness; for we have rebelled against him. ¹⁰We haven't obeyed Yahweh our God's voice, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. ¹¹Yes, all Israel have transgressed your law, turning aside, that they should not obey your voice.

"Therefore the curse and the oath written in the law of Moses the servant of God has been poured out on us; for we have sinned against him. ¹²He has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us, and against our judges who judged us, by bringing on us a great evil; for under the whole sky, such has not been done as has been done to Jerusalem. ¹³As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil has come on us. Yet we have not entreated the favor of Yahweh our God, that we should turn from our iniquities and have discernment in your truth. ¹⁴Therefore Yahweh has watched over the evil, and brought it on us; for Yahweh our God is righteous in all his works which he does, and we have not obeyed his voice.

¹⁵"Now, Lord our God, who has brought your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and have gotten yourself renown, as it is today; we have sinned. We have done wickedly.

¹⁶Lord, according to all your righteousness, let your anger and please let your wrath be turned away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people have become a reproach to all who are around us.

²⁰While I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before Yahweh my God for the holy mountain of my God; ²¹yes, while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening offering. ²²He instructed me and talked with me, and said, Daniel, "I have now come to give you wisdom and understanding. ²³At the beginning of your petitions the commandment went out, and I have come to tell you; for you are greatly beloved. Therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision.

²⁴"Seventy weeks are decreed on your people and on your holy city, to finish disobedience, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy.

²⁵ “Know therefore and discern that from the going out of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem to the Anointed One,[¶] the prince, will be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks. It will be built again, with street and moat, even in troubled times. ²⁶ After the sixty-two weeks the Anointed One[§] will be cut off, and will have nothing. The people of the prince who come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. Its end will be with a flood, and war will be even to the end. Desolations are determined. ²⁷ He will make a firm covenant with many for one week. In the middle of the week he will cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease. On the wing of abominations will come one who makes desolate; and even to the full end, and that determined, wrath will be poured out on the desolate.”

10 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, even a great warfare. He understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

² In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three whole weeks. ³ I ate no pleasant bread. No meat or wine came into my mouth. I didn’t anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were fulfilled.

⁴ In the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel, ⁵ I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and behold, there was a man clothed in linen, whose thighs were adorned with pure gold of Uphaz. ⁶ His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as flaming torches. His arms and his feet were like burnished bronze. The voice of his words was like the voice of a multitude.

¹⁰ Behold, a hand touched me, which set me on my knees and on the palms of my hands. ¹¹ He said to me, “Daniel, you greatly beloved man, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright; for I have been sent to you, now.” When he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling.

¹² Then he said to me, “Don’t be afraid, Daniel; for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard. I have come for your words’ sake. ¹³ But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; but, behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me because I remained there with the kings of Persia. ¹⁴ Now I have come to make you understand what will happen to your people in the latter days; for the vision is yet for many days.”

¹⁵ When he had spoken these words to me, I set my face toward the ground, and was mute. ¹⁶ Behold, one in the likeness of the sons of men touched my lips. Then I opened my mouth, and spoke and said to him who stood before me, “My lord, by reason of the vision my sorrows have overtaken me, and I retain no strength. ¹⁷ For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? For as for me, immediately there remained no strength in me. There was no breath left in me.”

¹⁸ Then one like the appearance of a man touched me again, and he strengthened me.

[¶]9:25 “Anointed One” can also be translated “Messiah” (same as “Christ”).

[§]9:26 “Anointed One” can also be translated “Messiah” (same as “Christ”).

¹⁹He said, “Greatly beloved man, don’t be afraid. Peace be to you. Be strong. Yes, be strong.”

When he spoke to me, I was strengthened, and said, “Let my lord speak; for you have strengthened me.”

²⁰Then he said, “Do you know why I have come to you? Now I will return to fight with the prince of Persia. When I go out, behold, the prince of Greece will come. ²¹But I will tell you that which is inscribed in the writing of truth. There is no one who holds with me against these, but Michael your prince.

11 “As for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to confirm and strengthen him.

²“Now I will show you the truth. Behold, three more kings will stand up in Persia; and the fourth will be far richer than all of them. When he has grown strong through his riches, he will stir up all against the realm of Greece.

³A mighty king will stand up, who will rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. ⁴When he stands up, his kingdom will be broken, and will be divided toward the four winds of the sky, but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom will be plucked up, even for others besides these.

⁵“The king of the south will be strong. One of his princes will become stronger than him, and have dominion. His dominion will be a great dominion. ⁶At the end of years they will join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south will come to the king of the north to make an agreement; but she will not retain the strength of her arm. He will also not stand, nor will his arm; but she will be given up, with those who brought her, and he who became the father of her, and he who strengthened her in those times.

⁷“But out of a shoot from her roots one will stand up in his place, who will come to the army, and will enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and will deal against them, and will prevail. ⁸He will also carry their gods, with their molten images, and with their goodly vessels of silver and of gold, captive into Egypt. He will refrain some years from the king of the north. ⁹He will come into the realm of the king of the south, but he will return into his own land. ¹⁰His sons will wage war, and will assemble a multitude of great forces, which will come on, and overflow, and pass through. They will return and wage war, even to his fortress.

¹¹“The king of the south will be moved with anger, and will come out and fight with him, even with the king of the north. He will send out a great multitude, and the multitude will be given into his hand. ¹²The multitude will be lifted up, and his heart will be exalted. He will cast down tens of thousands, but he won’t prevail. ¹³The king of the north will return, and will send out a multitude greater than the former. He will come on at the end of the times, even of years, with a great army and with much substance.

¹⁴“In those times many will stand up against the king of the south. Also the children of the violent among your people will lift themselves up to establish the vision; but they will fall. ¹⁵So the king of the north will come and cast up a mound, and take a well-fortified city. The forces of the south won’t stand, neither will his chosen people, neither will there be any strength to stand. ¹⁶But he who comes against him will do according to his own will, and no one will stand before him. He will stand in the glorious land, and destruction will be in his hand. ¹⁷He will set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and with him equitable conditions. He will perform them. He will give him the daughter of women, to corrupt her; but she will not stand, and won’t be for him. ¹⁸After this he will turn his face to the islands, and will take many; but a prince will cause the reproach offered by him to cease. Yes, moreover, he will cause his reproach to turn on him. ¹⁹Then he will turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land; but he will stumble and fall, and won't be found.

²⁰“Then one who will cause a tax collector to pass through the kingdom to maintain its glory will stand up in his place; but within few days he shall be destroyed, not in anger, and not in battle.

²¹“In his place a contemptible person will stand up, to whom they had not given the honor of the kingdom; but he will come in time of security, and will obtain the kingdom by flatteries. ²²The overwhelming forces will be overwhelmed from before him, and will be broken. Yes, also the prince of the covenant. ²³After the treaty made with him he will work deceitfully; for he will come up, and will become strong, with a small people. ²⁴In time of security he will come even on the fattest places of the province. He will do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers. He will scatter among them prey, plunder, and substance. Yes, he will devise his plans against the strongholds, even for a time.

²⁹“He will return at the appointed time, and come into the south; but it won't be in the latter time as it was in the former. ³⁰For ships of Kittim will come against him. Therefore he will be grieved, and will return, and have indignation against the holy covenant, and will take action. He will even return, and have regard to those who forsake the holy covenant.

³¹“Forces will stand on his part, and they will profane the sanctuary, even the fortress, and will take away the continual burnt offering. Then they will set up the abomination that makes desolate. ³²He will corrupt those who do wickedly against the covenant by flatteries; but the people who know their God will be strong, and take action.

³⁶“The king will do according to his will. He will exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and will speak marvelous things against the God of gods. He will prosper until the indignation is accomplished; for that which is determined will be done. ³⁷He won't regard the gods of his fathers, or the desire of women, or regard any god; for he will magnify himself above all. ³⁸But in his place he will honor the god of fortresses. He will honor a god whom his fathers didn't know with gold, silver, and with precious stones and pleasant things. ³⁹He will deal with the strongest fortresses by the help of a foreign god. He will increase with glory whoever acknowledges him. He will cause them to rule over many, and will divide the land for a price.

⁴⁰“At the time of the end the king of the south will contend with him; and the king of the north will come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, with horsemen, and with many ships. He will enter into the countries, and will overflow and pass through. ⁴¹He will enter also into the glorious land, and many countries will be overthrown; but these will be delivered out of his hand: Edom, Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. ⁴²He will also stretch out his hand on the countries. The land of Egypt won't escape. ⁴³ But he will have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt. The Libyans and the Ethiopians will be at his steps. ⁴⁴ But news out of the east and out of the north will trouble him; and he will go out with great fury to destroy and utterly to sweep away many. ⁴⁵ He will plant the tents of his palace between the sea and the glorious holy mountain; yet he will come to his end, and no one will help him.

12 “At that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who stands for the children of your people; and there will be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time. At that time your people will be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. ² Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. ³ Those who are wise will shine as the brightness of the expanse. Those who turn many to righteousness will shine as the stars forever and ever. ⁴ But you, Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end. Many will run back and forth, and knowledge will be increased.”

⁵ Then I, Daniel, looked, and behold, two others stood, one on the river bank on this side, and the other on the river bank on that side. ⁶ One said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, “How long will it be to the end of these wonders?”

⁸ I heard, but I didn't understand. Then I said, “My lord, what will be the outcome of these things?”

⁹ He said, “Go your way, Daniel; for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end. ¹⁰ Many will purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the wicked will do wickedly; and none of the wicked will understand; but those who are wise will understand.

¹¹ “From the time that the continual burnt offering is taken away, and the abomination that makes desolate set up, there will be one thousand two hundred ninety days. ¹² Blessed is he who waits, and comes to the one thousand three hundred thirty-five days.

¹³ “But go your way until the end; for you will rest, and will stand in your inheritance at the end of the days.”

The Book of

Hosea

1 Yahweh's word that came to Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel. 2 When Yahweh spoke at first by Hosea, Yahweh said to Hosea, "Go, take for yourself a wife of prostitution and children of unfaithfulness; for the land commits great adultery, forsaking Yahweh."

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; and she conceived, and bore him a son.

4 Yahweh said to him, "Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel on the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. 5 It will happen in that day that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel."

6 She conceived again, and bore a daughter.

Then he said to him, "Call her name Lo-Ruhamah††; for I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel, that I should in any way pardon them. 7 But I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and will save them by Yahweh their God,‡‡ and will not save them by bow, sword, battle, horses, or horsemen."

8 Now when she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived, and bore a son.

9 He said, "Call his name Lo-Ammi†††; for you are not my people, and I will not be yours.

10 Yet the number of the children of Israel will be as the sand of the sea, which can't be measured or counted; and it will come to pass that, in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' they will be called 'sons of the living God.' 11 The children of Judah and the children of Israel will be gathered together, and they will appoint themselves one head, and will go up from the land; for great will be the day of Jezreel.

2 "Say to your brothers, 'My people!'^{§§} and to your sisters, 'My loved one!'^{}

2 Contend with your mother!

Contend, for she is not my wife,
neither am I her husband;

and let her put away her prostitution from her face,

and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3 Lest I strip her naked, and make her bare as in the day that she was born,

and make her like a wilderness,

and set her like a dry land,

and kill her with thirst.

4 Indeed, on her children I will have no mercy;
for they are children of unfaithfulness;

5 For their mother has played the prostitute.

She who conceived them has done shamefully;

for she said, 'I will go after my lovers,

who give me my bread and my water,

my wool and my flax,

my oil and my drink.'

6 Therefore behold,† I will hedge up your way with thorns,

and I will build a wall against her,

that she can't find her way.

7 She will follow after her lovers,

but she won't overtake them;

1:1 "Yahweh" is God's proper Name, sometimes rendered "LORD" (all caps) in other translations.

††1:6 Lo-Ruhamah means "not loved".

‡‡1:7 The Hebrew word rendered "God" is "אלהים" (Elohim).

†††1:9 Lo-Ammi means "not my people".

§§2:1 'Ammi' in Hebrew

*2:1 'Ruhamah' in Hebrew

†2:6 "Behold", from "הִנֵּה" means look at, take notice, observe, see, or gaze at. It is often used as an interjection.

and she will seek them,
but won't find them.
Then she will say, 'I will go and return to my first husband;
for then was it better with me than now.'
8 For she didn't know that I gave her the grain,
the new wine, and the oil,
and multiplied to her silver and gold, which they used for Baal.
9 Therefore I will take back my grain in its time,
and my new wine in its season,
and will pluck away my wool and my flax which should have covered her nakedness.
10 Now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers,
and no one will deliver her out of my hand.
11 I will also cause all her celebrations to cease:
her feasts, her new moons, her Sabbaths, and all her solemn assemblies.
12 I will lay waste her vines and her fig trees, about which she has said, "These are my wages that my lovers have given me;
and I will make them a forest,'
and the animals of the field shall eat them.
13 I will visit on her the days of the Baals, to which she burned incense, when she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels,
and went after her lovers,
and forgot me," says Yahweh.
14 "Therefore behold, I will allure her,
and bring her into the wilderness,
and speak tenderly to her.
15 I will give her vineyards from there,
and the valley of Achor for a door of hope;
and she will respond there,
as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.
16 It will be in that day," says Yahweh,
"that you will call me 'my husband,'

and no longer call me 'my master.'
17 For I will take away the names of the Baals out of her mouth,
and they will no longer be mentioned by name.
18 In that day I will make a covenant for them with the animals of the field, and with the birds of the sky,
and with the creeping things of the ground.
I will break the bow, the sword, and the battle
out of the land,
and will make them lie down safely.
19 I will betroth you to me forever.
Yes, I will betroth you to me in righteousness, in justice, in loving kindness, and in compassion.
20 I will even betroth you to me in faithfulness;
and you shall know Yahweh.
21 It will happen in that day, I will respond,"
says Yahweh,
"I will respond to the heavens,
and they will respond to the earth; 22 and the earth will respond to the grain, and
the new wine, and the oil;
and they will respond to Jezreel.
23 I will sow her to me in the earth;
and I will have mercy on her who had not obtained mercy;
and I will tell those who were not my people,
'You are my people;'
and they will say, 'My God!'"

3 Yahweh said to me, "Go again, love a woman loved by another, and an adulteress, even as Yahweh loves the children of Israel, though they turn to other gods, and love cakes of raisins."

² So I bought her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and a homer [‡]and a half of barley. ³ I said to her, "You shall stay with me many days. You shall not play the prostitute, and you shall not be with any other man. I will also be so toward you."

⁴ For the children of Israel shall live many days without king, and without prince, and without sacrifice, and without sacred stone,

‡3:2 1 homer is about 220 liters or 6 bushels

and without ephod or idols. ⁵Afterward the children of Israel shall return, and seek Yahweh their God, and David their king, and shall come with trembling to Yahweh and to his blessings in the last days.

4 Hear Yahweh's word, you children of Israel;

for Yahweh has a charge against the inhabitants of the land:

"Indeed there is no truth, nor goodness, nor knowledge of God in the land.

²There is cursing, lying, murder, stealing, and committing adultery; they break boundaries, and bloodshed causes bloodshed.

³Therefore the land will mourn, and everyone who dwells in it will waste away, with all living things in her, even the animals of the field and the birds of the sky, yes, the fish of the sea also die.

⁴"Yet let no man bring a charge, neither let any man accuse; for your people are like those who bring charges against a priest.

⁵You will stumble in the day, and the prophet will also stumble with you in the night; and I will destroy your mother.

⁶My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.

Because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you, that you may be no priest to me.

Because you have forgotten your God's law, I will also forget your children.

⁷As they were multiplied, so they sinned against me.

I will change their glory into shame.

⁸They feed on the sin of my people, and set their heart on their iniquity.

⁹It will be, like people, like priest; and I will punish them for their ways, and will repay them for their deeds.

¹⁰They will eat, and not have enough.

They will play the prostitute, and will not increase;

because they have abandoned giving to Yahweh.

¹¹Prostitution, wine, and new wine take away understanding.

¹²My people consult with their wooden idol, and answer to a stick of wood.

Indeed the spirit of prostitution has led them astray, and they have been unfaithful to their God.

¹³They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains, and burn incense on the hills, under oaks and poplars and terebinths, because its shade is good.

Therefore your daughters play the prostitute, and your brides commit adultery.

¹⁴I will not punish your daughters when they play the prostitute, nor your brides when they commit adultery;

because the men consort with prostitutes,

and they sacrifice with the shrine prostitutes;

so the people without understanding will come to ruin.

¹⁵"Though you, Israel, play the prostitute, yet don't let Judah offend;

and don't come to Gilgal,

neither go up to Beth Aven,

nor swear, 'As Yahweh lives.'

¹⁶For Israel has behaved extremely stubbornly, like a stubborn heifer.

Then how will Yahweh feed them like a lamb in a meadow.

¹⁷Ephraim is joined to idols.

Leave him alone!

¹⁸Their drink has become sour.

They play the prostitute continually.

Her rulers dearly love their shameful way.

¹⁹The wind has wrapped her up in its wings; and they shall be disappointed because of their sacrifices.

5 "Listen to this, you priests!

Listen, house of Israel,

and give ear, house of the king!

For the judgment is against you;

for you have been a snare at Mizpah,

and a net spread on Tabor.
 2 The rebels are deep in slaughter;
 but I discipline all of them.
 3 I know Ephraim,
 and Israel is not hidden from me;
 for now, Ephraim, you have played the prostitute.
 Israel is defiled.
 4 Their deeds won't allow them to turn to their
 God;
 for the spirit of prostitution is within them,
 and they don't know Yahweh.
 5 The pride of Israel testifies to his face.
 Therefore Israel and Ephraim will stumble in
 their iniquity.
 Judah also will stumble with them.
 6 They will go with their flocks and with their herds to seek Yahweh;
 but they won't find him.
 He has withdrawn himself from them.
 7 They are unfaithful to Yahweh;
 for they have borne illegitimate children.
 Now the new moon will devour them with their fields.
 8 "Blow the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah!
 Sound a battle cry at Beth Aven, behind you, Benjamin!
 9 Ephraim will become a desolation in the day of rebuke.
 Among the tribes of Israel, I have made known that which will surely be.
 10 The princes of Judah are like those who remove a landmark.
 I will pour out my wrath on them like water.
 11 Ephraim is oppressed,
 he is crushed in judgment;
 Because he is intent in his pursuit of idols.
 12 Therefore I am to Ephraim like a moth,
 and to the house of Judah like rottenness.
 13 "When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah his wound,
 Then Ephraim went to Assyria,
 and sent to king Jareb;
 but he is not able to heal you,
 neither will he cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be to Ephraim like a lion, and like a young lion to the house of Judah.
 I myself will tear in pieces and go away.
 I will carry off, and there will be no one to deliver.
 15 I will go and return to my place, until they acknowledge their offense,
 and seek my face.
 In their affliction they will seek me earnestly."
 6 "Come! Let's return to Yahweh; for he has torn us to pieces,
 and he will heal us;
 he has injured us,
 and he will bind up our wounds.
 2 After two days he will revive us.
 On the third day he will raise us up,
 and we will live before him.
 3 Let's acknowledge Yahweh.
 Let's press on to know Yahweh.
 As surely as the sun rises,
 Yahweh will appear.
 He will come to us like the rain,
 like the spring rain that waters the earth."
 4 "Ephraim, what shall I do to you?
 Judah, what shall I do to you?
 For your love is like a morning cloud,
 and like the dew that disappears early.
 5 Therefore I have cut them to pieces with the prophets;
 I killed them with the words of my mouth.
 Your judgments are like a flash of lightning.
 6 For I desire mercy, and not sacrifice;
 and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.
 7 But they, like Adam, have broken the covenant.
 They were unfaithful to me, there.
 8 Gilead is a city of those who work iniquity;
 it is stained with blood.
 9 As gangs of robbers wait to ambush a man,
 so the company of priests murder on the path toward Shechem, committing shameful crimes.
 10 In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing.
 There is prostitution in Ephraim.

Israel is defiled.

¹¹ “Also, Judah, there is a harvest appointed for you,

when I restore the fortunes of my people.

⁷ When I would heal Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim is uncovered, also the wickedness of Samaria; for they commit falsehood, and the thief enters in, and the gang of robbers ravages outside.

² They don’t consider in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness.

Now their own deeds have engulfed them.

They are before my face.

³ They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.

⁴ They are all adulterers.

They are burning like an oven that the baker stops stirring, from the kneading of the dough, until it is leavened.

⁵ On the day of our king, the princes made themselves sick with the heat of wine.

He joined his hand with mockers.

⁶ For they have prepared their heart like an oven,

while they lie in wait.

Their baker sleeps all the night.

In the morning it burns as a flaming fire.

⁷ They are all hot as an oven,

and devour their judges.

All their kings have fallen.

There is no one among them who calls to me.

⁸ Ephraim, he mixes himself among the nations.

Ephraim is a pancake not turned over.

⁹ Strangers have devoured his strength, and he doesn’t realize it.

Indeed, gray hairs are here and there on him, and he doesn’t realize it.

¹⁰ The pride of Israel testifies to his face; yet they haven’t returned to Yahweh their God, nor sought him, for all this.

¹¹ “Ephraim is like an easily deceived dove, without understanding.

They call to Egypt.

They go to Assyria.

¹² When they go, I will spread my net on them. I will bring them down like the birds of the sky.

I will chastise them, as their congregation has heard.

¹³ Woe to them!

For they have wandered from me.

Destruction to them!

For they have trespassed against me.

Though I would redeem them,

yet they have spoken lies against me.

¹⁴ They haven’t cried to me with their heart, but they howl on their beds.

They assemble themselves for grain and new wine.

They turn away from me.

¹⁵ Though I have taught and strengthened their arms,

yet they plot evil against me.

¹⁶ They return, but not to the Most High.

They are like a faulty bow.

Their princes will fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue.

This will be their derision in the land of Egypt.

“Put the trumpet to your lips!

⁸ Something like an eagle is over Yahweh’s house, because they have broken my covenant, and rebelled against my law.

² They cry to me, ‘My God, we Israel acknowledge you!’

³ Israel has cast off that which is good.

The enemy will pursue him.

⁴ They have set up kings, but not by me.

They have made princes, and I didn’t approve. Of their silver and their gold they have made themselves idols, that they may be cut off.

⁵ Let Samaria throw out his calf idol!

My anger burns against them!

How long will it be until they are capable of purity?

6 For this is even from Israel!
The workman made it, and it is no God;
indeed, the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

7 For they sow the wind,
and they will reap the whirlwind.
He has no standing grain.
The stalk will yield no head.
If it does yield, strangers will swallow it up.

8 Israel is swallowed up.
Now they are among the nations like a worthless thing.

9 For they have gone up to Assyria, like a wild donkey wandering alone.
Ephraim has hired lovers for himself.

10 But although they sold themselves among
the nations,

I will now gather them;
and they begin to waste away because of the oppression of the king of mighty ones.

11 Because Ephraim has multiplied altars for sinning,
they became for him altars for sinning.

12 I wrote for him the many things of my law;
but they were regarded as a strange thing.

13 As for the sacrifices of my offerings,
they sacrifice meat and eat it;
But Yahweh doesn't accept them.
Now he will remember their iniquity,
and punish their sins.

They will return to Egypt.

14 For Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces;
and Judah has multiplied fortified cities;
but I will send a fire on his cities,
and it will devour its fortresses."

9 Don't rejoice, Israel, to jubilation like the nations;
for you were unfaithful to your God.
You love the wages of a prostitute at every grain threshing floor.

2 The threshing floor and the wine press won't feed them,
and the new wine will fail her.

3 They won't dwell in Yahweh's land;
but Ephraim will return to Egypt,

and they will eat unclean food in Assyria.

4 They won't pour out wine offerings to
Yahweh,

neither will they be pleasing to him.
Their sacrifices will be to them like the bread of mourners;

all who eat of it will be polluted;
for their bread will be for their appetite.
It will not come into Yahweh's house.

5 What will you do in the day of solemn assembly,
and in the day of the feast of Yahweh?

6 For, behold, they have gone away from destruction.

Egypt will gather them up.

Memphis will bury them.

Nettles will possess their pleasant things of silver.

Thorns will be in their tents.

7 The days of visitation have come.

The days of reckoning have come.

Israel will consider the prophet to be a fool,
and the man who is inspired to be insane,
because of the abundance of your sins,
and because your hostility is great.

8 A prophet watches over Ephraim with my
God.

A fowler's snare is on all of his paths,
and hostility in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply corrupted themselves,
as in the days of Gibeah.

He will remember their iniquity.

He will punish them for their sins.

10 I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness.
I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig tree
at its first season;

but they came to Baal Peor, and consecrated themselves to the shameful thing, and became abominable like that which they loved.

11 As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird.

There will be no birth, no one with child, and no conception.

12 Though they bring up their children,

yet I will bereave them, so that not a man shall be left.

Indeed, woe also to them when I depart from them!

¹³ I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place;

but Ephraim will bring out his children to the murderer.

¹⁴ Give them—Yahweh what will you give?

Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

¹⁵ “All their wickedness is in Gilgal; for there I hated them.

Because of the wickedness of their deeds I will drive them out of my house!

I will love them no more.

All their princes are rebels.

¹⁶ Ephraim is struck.

Their root has dried up.

They will bear no fruit.

Even though they give birth, yet I will kill the beloved ones of their womb.”

¹⁷ My God will cast them away, because they didn't listen to him;

and they will be wanderers among the nations.

10 Israel is a luxuriant vine that produces his fruit.

According to the abundance of his fruit he has multiplied his altars.

As their land has prospered, they have adorned their sacred stones.

² Their heart is divided.

Now they will be found guilty.

He will demolish their altars.

He will destroy their sacred stones.

³ Surely now they will say, “We have no king; for we don't fear Yahweh;

and the king, what can he do for us?”

⁴ They make promises, swearing falsely in making covenants.

Therefore judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.

⁵ The inhabitants of Samaria will be in terror for the calves of Beth Aven;

for its people will mourn over it,

Along with its priests who rejoiced over it,

for its glory, because it has departed from it.

⁶ It also will be carried to Assyria for a present to a great king.

Ephraim will receive shame,

and Israel will be ashamed of his own counsel.

⁷ Samaria and her king float away,

like a twig on the water.

⁸ The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, will be destroyed.

The thorn and the thistle will come up on their altars.

They will tell the mountains, “Cover us!” and the hills, “Fall on us!”

⁹ “Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gibeah.

There they remained.

The battle against the children of iniquity doesn't overtake them in Gibeah.

¹⁰ When it is my desire, I will chastise them; and the nations will be gathered against them, when they are bound to their two transgressions.

¹¹ Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh;

so I will put a yoke on her beautiful neck.

I will set a rider on Ephraim.

Judah will plow.

Jacob will break his clods.

¹² Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap according to kindness.

Break up your fallow ground;

for it is time to seek Yahweh,

until he comes and rains righteousness on you.

¹³ You have plowed wickedness.

You have reaped iniquity.

You have eaten the fruit of lies,

for you trusted in your way, in the multitude of your mighty men.

¹⁴ Therefore a battle roar will arise among your people, and all your fortresses will be destroyed,

as Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel in the day of battle.

The mother was dashed in pieces with her children.

15 So Bethel will do to you because of your great wickedness.

At daybreak the king of Israel will be destroyed.

11 “When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.

2 They called to them, so they went from them.

They sacrificed to the Baals, and burned incense to engraved images.

3 Yet I taught Ephraim to walk.

I took them by his arms; but they didn't know that I healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with ties of love;

and I was to them like those who lift up the yoke on their necks;

and I bent down to him and I fed him.

5 “They won't return into the land of Egypt; but the Assyrian will be their king, because they refused to repent.

6 The sword will fall on their cities, and will destroy the bars of their gates, and will put an end to their plans.

7 My people are determined to turn from me. Though they call to the Most High, he certainly won't exalt them.

8 “How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I hand you over, Israel? How can I make you like Admah? How can I make you like Zeboiim? My heart is turned within me, my compassion is aroused.

9 I will not execute the fierceness of my anger. I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One among you;

and I will not come in wrath.

10 They will walk after Yahweh, who will roar like a lion; for he will roar, and the children will come trembling from the west.

11 They will come trembling like a bird out of Egypt, and like a dove out of the land of Assyria;

and I will settle them in their houses,” says Yahweh.

12 Ephraim surrounds me with falsehood, and the house of Israel with deceit.

Judah still strays from God, and is unfaithful to the Holy One.

12 Ephraim feeds on wind, and chases the east wind.

He continually multiplies lies and desolation. They make a covenant with Assyria, and oil is carried into Egypt.

2 Yahweh also has a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his deeds he will repay him.

3 In the womb he took his brother by the heel; and in his manhood he contended with God.

4 Indeed, he struggled with the angel, and prevailed;

he wept, and made supplication to him. He found him at Bethel, and there he spoke with us,

5 even Yahweh, the God of Armies; Yahweh is his name of renown!

6 Therefore turn to your God. Keep kindness and justice, and wait continually for your God.

7 A merchant has dishonest scales in his hand. He loves to defraud.

8 Ephraim said, “Surely I have become rich, I have found myself wealth. In all my wealth they won't find in me any iniquity that is sin.”

9 “But I am Yahweh your God from the land of Egypt.

I will yet again make you dwell in tents, as in the days of the solemn feast.

10 I have also spoken to the prophets, and I have multiplied visions; and by the ministry of the prophets I have used parables.

11 If Gilead is wicked, surely they are worthless.

In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls. Indeed, their altars are like heaps in the furrows of the field.

12 Jacob fled into the country of Aram, and Israel served to get a wife,

and for a wife he tended flocks and herds.

¹³ By a prophet Yahweh brought Israel up out of Egypt,
and by a prophet he was preserved.

¹⁴ Ephraim has bitterly provoked anger.
Therefore his blood will be left on him,
and his Lord[¶] will repay his contempt.

13 When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling.

He exalted himself in Israel,
but when he became guilty in Baal, he died.

² Now they sin more and more,
and have made themselves molten images of their silver,
even idols according to their own
understanding,

all of them the work of the craftsmen.
They say of them, ‘They offer human sacrifice and kiss the calves.’

³ Therefore they will be like the morning mist, and like the dew that passes away early,
like the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing floor,
and like the smoke out of the chimney.

⁴ ‘Yet I am Yahweh your God from the land
of Egypt;

and you shall acknowledge no god but me,
and besides me there is no savior.

⁵ I knew you in the wilderness,
in the land of great drought.

⁶ According to their pasture, so were they filled;

they were filled, and their heart was exalted.
Therefore they have forgotten me.

⁷ Therefore I am like a lion to them.
Like a leopard, I will lurk by the path.

⁸ I will meet them like a bear that is bereaved of her cubs,

and will tear the covering of their heart.
There I will devour them like a lioness.

The wild animal will tear them.

⁹ You are destroyed, Israel, because you are against me,
against your help.

¹⁰ Where is your king now, that he may save you in all your cities?

And your judges, of whom you said, ‘Give me
a king and princes?’

¹¹ I have given you a king in my anger, and have taken him away in my wrath.

¹² The guilt of Ephraim is stored up.
His sin is stored up.

¹³ The sorrows of a travailing woman will come on him.

He is an unwise son;
for when it is time, he doesn’t come to the opening of the womb.

¹⁴ I will ransom them from the power of Sheol.[§]

I will redeem them from death!
Death, where are your plagues?

Sheol, where is your destruction?

‘Compassion will be hidden from my eyes.

¹⁵ Though he is fruitful among his brothers, an east wind will come,

the breath of Yahweh coming up from the
wilderness;

and his spring will become dry,
and his fountain will be dried up.

He will plunder the storehouse of treasure.

¹⁶ Samaria will bear her guilt;
for she has rebelled against her God.

They will fall by the sword.

Their infants will be dashed in pieces, and their pregnant women will be ripped open.”

14 Israel, return to Yahweh your God;
for you have fallen because of your sin.

² Take words with you, and return to Yahweh.
Tell him, ‘Forgive all our sins,

and accept that which is good:
so we offer our lips like bulls.

³ Assyria can’t save us.

We won’t ride on horses;

¶12:14 The word translated “Lord” is “Adonai.”

§13:14 Sheol is the place of the dead.

neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, 'Our gods!'

for in you the fatherless finds mercy."

4 "I will heal their waywardness.

I will love them freely;

for my anger is turned away from him.

5 I will be like the dew to Israel.

He will blossom like the lily,

and send down his roots like Lebanon.

6 His branches will spread,

and his beauty will be like the olive tree,

and his fragrance like Lebanon.

7 Men will dwell in his shade.

They will revive like the grain,

and blossom like the vine.

Their fragrance will be like the wine of Lebanon.

8 Ephraim, what have I to do any more with idols?

I answer, and will take care of him.

I am like a green cypress tree;

from me your fruit is found."

9 Who is wise, that he may understand these things?

Who is prudent, that he may know them?

For the ways of Yahweh are right,

and the righteous walk in them;

But the rebellious stumble in them.

The Book of Joel

1 Yahweh's word that came to Joel, the son of Pethuel.

2 Hear this, you elders,
And listen, all you inhabitants of the land.
Has this ever happened in your days,
or in the days of your fathers?

3 Tell your children about it,
and have your children tell their children,
and their children, another generation.

4 What the swarming locust has left, the great locust has eaten.

What the great locust has left, the grasshopper has eaten.

What the grasshopper has left, the caterpillar has eaten.

5 Wake up, you drunkards, and weep!

Wail, all you drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine;

for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For a nation has come up on my land, strong, and without number.

His teeth are the teeth of a lion,
and he has the fangs of a lioness.

7 He has laid my vine waste, and stripped my fig tree.

He has stripped its bark, and thrown it away.
Its branches are made white.

8 Mourn like a virgin dressed in sackcloth for the husband of her youth! 9 The meal offering and the drink offering are cut off from Yahweh's house.

The priests, Yahweh's ministers, mourn.

10 The field is laid waste.

The land mourns, for the grain is destroyed,
The new wine has dried up,
and the oil languishes.

11 Be confounded, you farmers!

Wail, you vineyard keepers;
for the wheat and for the barley;
for the harvest of the field has perished.

12 The vine has dried up, and the fig tree withered;

the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree,

even all of the trees of the field are withered;
for joy has withered away from the sons of men.

13 Put on sackcloth and mourn, you priests!

Wail, you ministers of the altar.

Come, lie all night in sackcloth, you ministers of my God,†† for the meal offering and the drink offering are withheld from your God's house.

14 Sanctify a fast.

Call a solemn assembly.

Gather the elders,

and all the inhabitants of the land, to the house of Yahweh, your God, and cry to Yahweh.

15 Alas for the day!

For the day of Yahweh is at hand,

and it will come as destruction from the Almighty.

16 Isn't the food cut off before our eyes;
joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The seeds rot under their clods.

The granaries are laid desolate.

The barns are broken down, for the grain has withered.

18 How the animals groan!

The herds of livestock are perplexed, because they have no pasture.

Yes, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 Yahweh, I cry to you,

For the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame has burned all the trees of the field.

20 Yes, the animals of the field pant to you,

1:1 "Yahweh" is God's proper Name, sometimes rendered "LORD" (all caps) in other translations.

††1:13 The Hebrew word rendered "God" is "אֱלֹהִים" (Elohim).

for the water brooks have dried up,
And the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

2 Blow the trumpet in Zion,
and sound an alarm in my holy mountain!
Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of Yahweh comes,
for it is close at hand:

2 A day of darkness and gloominess,
a day of clouds and thick darkness.
As the dawn spreading on the mountains,
a great and strong people;
there has never been the like,
neither will there be any more after them,
even to the years of many generations.

3 A fire devours before them,
and behind them, a flame burns.
The land is as the garden of Eden before them,
and behind them, a desolate wilderness.
Yes, and no one has escaped them.

4 Their appearance is as the appearance of horses,
and they run as horsemen.

5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains, they leap,
like the noise of a flame of fire that devours
the stubble,
like a strong people set in battle array.

6 At their presence the peoples are in anguish.
All faces have grown pale.

7 They run like mighty men.
They climb the wall like warriors.
They each march in his line, and they don't swerve off course.

8 Neither does one jostle another;
they march everyone in his path,
and they burst through the defenses,
and don't break ranks.

9 They rush on the city.
They run on the wall.
They climb up into the houses.
They enter in at the windows like thieves.

10 The earth quakes before them.

The heavens tremble.
The sun and the moon are darkened,
and the stars withdraw their shining.
11 Yahweh thunders his voice before his army;
for his forces are very great;
for he is strong who obeys his command;
for the day of Yahweh is great and very awesome,
and who can endure it?

12 "Yet even now," says Yahweh, "turn to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning."

13 Tear your heart, and not your garments, and turn to Yahweh, your God;
for he is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger, and abundant in loving
kindness,
and relents from sending calamity.

14 Who knows? He may turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meal offering and a drink offering to Yahweh, your God.

15 Blow the trumpet in Zion!
Sanctify a fast.

Call a solemn assembly.

16 Gather the people.
Sanctify the assembly.

Assemble the elders.
Gather the children, and those who nurse from breasts.

Let the bridegroom go out of his room,
and the bride out of her room.

17 Let the priests, the ministers of Yahweh, weep between the porch and the altar,
and let them say, "Spare your people, Yahweh,
and don't give your heritage to reproach,
that the nations should rule over them.
Why should they say among the peoples,
'Where is their God?'"

18 Then Yahweh was jealous for his land,
And had pity on his people.

19 Yahweh answered his people,

“Behold,[‡] I will send you grain, new wine,
and oil,
and you will be satisfied with them;
and I will no more make you a reproach
among the nations.

²⁰ But I will remove the northern army far away from you,
and will drive it into a barren and desolate
land,

its front into the eastern sea,
and its back into the western sea;
and its stench will come up,
and its bad smell will rise.”

Surely he has done great things.

²¹ Land, don't be afraid.

Be glad and rejoice, for Yahweh has done great things.

²² Don't be afraid, you animals of the field;
for the pastures of the wilderness spring up,
for the tree bears its fruit.

The fig tree and the vine yield their strength.

²³ “Be glad then, you children of Zion, and rejoice in Yahweh, your God;
for he gives you the early rain in just measure,
and he causes the rain to come down for you,
the early rain and the latter rain,
as before.

²⁴ The threshing floors will be full of wheat, and the vats will overflow with new wine and oil.

²⁵ I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the great locust, the grasshopper, and the caterpillar,
my great army, which I sent among you.

²⁶ You will have plenty to eat, and be satisfied, and will praise the name of Yahweh, your
God,
who has dealt wondrously with you;
and my people will never again be disappointed.

²⁷ You will know that I am among Israel, and that I am Yahweh, your God, and there is no one else;

and my people will never again be disappointed.

²⁸ “It will happen afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh;
and your sons and your daughters will prophesy.

Your old men will dream dreams.

Your young men will see visions.

²⁹ And also on the servants and on the handmaids in those days,

I will pour out my Spirit.

³⁰ I will show wonders in the heavens and in
the earth:

blood, fire, and pillars of smoke.

³¹ The sun will be turned into darkness,

and the moon into blood,

before the great and terrible day of Yahweh comes.

³² It will happen that whoever will call on Yah-weh's name shall be saved;

for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be those who escape,

as Yahweh has said,

and among the remnant, those whom Yahweh calls.

3 “For, behold, in those days,

and in that time,

when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem,

² I will gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat;

and I will execute judgment on them there for
my people,

and for my heritage, Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations.

They have divided my land,

³ and have cast lots for my people,

and have given a boy for a prostitute,

and sold a girl for wine, that they may drink.

[‡]2:19 “Behold”, from “הִנֵּה” means look at, take notice, observe, see, or gaze at. It is often used as an interjection.

4 “Yes, and what are you to me, Tyre, and Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia?

Will you repay me?

And if you repay me,

I will swiftly and speedily return your repayment on your own head.

5 Because you have taken my silver and my gold,

and have carried my finest treasures into your temples,

6 and have sold the children of Judah and the children of Jerusalem to the sons of the Greeks, that you may remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, I will stir them up out of the place where you have sold them,

and will return your repayment on your own head;

8 and I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hands of the children of Judah, and they will sell them to the men of Sheba, to a faraway nation, for Yahweh has spoken it.”

9 Proclaim this among the nations:

“Prepare for war!

Stir up the mighty men.

Let all the warriors draw near.

Let them come up. ¹⁰ Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning hooks into spears.

Let the weak say, ‘I am strong.’

¹¹ Hurry and come, all you surrounding nations, and gather yourselves together.”

Cause your mighty ones to come down there, Yahweh.

¹² “Let the nations arouse themselves, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat;

for there I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations.

¹³ Put in the sickle;

for the harvest is ripe.

Come, tread, for the wine press is full, the vats overflow, for their wickedness is great.”

¹⁴ Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision!

For the day of Yahweh is near, in the valley of decision.

¹⁵ The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.

¹⁶ Yahweh will roar from Zion, and thunder from Jerusalem;

and the heavens and the earth will shake;

but Yahweh will be a refuge to his people, and a stronghold to the children of Israel.

¹⁷ “So you will know that I am Yahweh, your God, dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain.

Then Jerusalem will be holy,

and no strangers will pass through her any more.

¹⁸ It will happen in that day,

that the mountains will drop down sweet wine,

the hills will flow with milk,

all the brooks of Judah will flow with waters,

and a fountain will flow out from Yahweh’s house,

and will water the valley of Shittim.

¹⁹ Egypt will be a desolation, and Edom will be a desolate wilderness,

for the violence done to the children of Judah,

because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

²⁰ But Judah will be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.

²¹ I will cleanse their blood,

that I have not cleansed:

for Yahweh dwells in Zion.”

The Book of Amos

1 The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. ²He said:

“Yahweh^{¶¶} will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem;
and the pastures of the shepherds will mourn,
and the top of Carmel will wither.”

³Yahweh says:

“For three transgressions of Damascus, yes,
for four,
I will not turn away its punishment;
because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron;

⁴but I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, and it will devour the palaces of Ben Hadad.

⁵I will break the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the valley of Aven,
and him who holds the scepter from the house of Eden;
and the people of Syria shall go into captivity to Kir;”

says Yahweh.

⁶Yahweh says:

“For three transgressions of Gaza, yes, for four,
I will not turn away its punishment;
because they carried away captive the whole community,
to deliver them up to Edom;

⁷but I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza,
and it will devour its palaces.

⁸I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him who holds the scepter from Ashkelon;

and I will turn my hand against Ekron;
and the remnant of the Philistines will perish,”
says the Lord^{§§} Yahweh.

⁹Yahweh says:

“For three transgressions of Tyre, yes, for
four,

I will not turn away its punishment;
because they delivered up the whole community to Edom,

and didn’t remember the brotherly covenant;
¹⁰but I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre,
and it will devour its palaces.”

¹¹Yahweh says:

“For three transgressions of Edom, yes, for
four,

I will not turn away its punishment;
because he pursued his brother with the
sword,

and cast off all pity,
and his anger raged continually,
and he kept his wrath forever;

¹²but I will send a fire on Teman, and it will devour the palaces of Bozrah.”

¹³Yahweh says:

“For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, yes, for four,

I will not turn away its punishment;
because they have ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead,

that they may enlarge their border.

¹⁴But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah,
and it will devour its palaces,

with shouting in the day of battle,
with a storm in the day of the whirlwind;

¹⁵and their king will go into captivity,
he and his princes together,”

says Yahweh.

2 Yahweh says:

“For three transgressions of Moab, yes, for
four,

I will not turn away its punishment;

^{¶¶}1:2 “Yahweh” is God’s proper Name, sometimes rendered “LORD” (all caps) in other translations.

^{§§}1:8 The word translated “Lord” is “Adonai.”

because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime;

2 but I will send a fire on Moab, and it will devour the palaces of Kerioth;
and Moab will die with tumult, with shouting,
and with the sound of the trumpet;

3 and I will cut off the judge from among
them,
and will kill all its princes with him,”
says Yahweh.

4 Yahweh says:

“For three transgressions of Judah, yes, for
four,

I will not turn away its punishment;
because they have rejected Yahweh’s law,
and have not kept his statutes,
and their lies have led them astray,
after which their fathers walked;

5 but I will send a fire on Judah, and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem.”

6 Yahweh says:

“For three transgressions of Israel, yes, for
four,

I will not turn away its punishment;
because they have sold the righteous for silver,
and the needy for a pair of sandals;

7 They trample on the dust of the earth on the head of the poor,
and deny justice to the oppressed;

and a man and his father use the same maiden,
to profane my holy name;

8 and they lay themselves down beside every altar on clothes taken in pledge;
and in the house of their God* they drink the wine of those who have been fined.

9 Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars,
and he was strong as the oaks;
yet I destroyed his fruit from above,
and his roots from beneath.

10 Also I brought you up out of the land of Egypt,

and led you forty years in the wilderness,
to possess the land of the Amorite.

11 I raised up some of your sons for prophets, and some of your young men for Nazirites.
Isn’t this true,

you children of Israel?” says Yahweh.

12 “But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying, ‘Don’t prophesy!’

13 Behold,† I will crush you in your place,
as a cart crushes that is full of grain.

14 Flight will perish from the swift;
and the strong won’t strengthen his force;
neither shall the mighty deliver himself;

15 neither shall he stand who handles the bow;
and he who is swift of foot won’t escape;
neither shall he who rides the horse deliver
himself;

16 and he who is courageous among the mighty will flee away naked on that day,”
says Yahweh.

3 Hear this word that Yahweh has spoken against you, children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up out of the land of Egypt, saying:

2 “I have only chosen you of all the families of
the earth.

Therefore I will punish you for all of your sins.”

3 Do two walk together,
unless they have agreed?

4 Will a lion roar in the thicket,
when he has no prey?

Does a young lion cry out of his den,
if he has caught nothing?

5 Can a bird fall in a trap on the earth,
where no snare is set for him?

Does a snare spring up from the ground,
when there is nothing to catch?

6 Does the trumpet alarm sound in a city, without the people being afraid?

Does evil happen to a city,

*2:8 The Hebrew word rendered “God” is אֱלֹהִים (Elohim).

†2:13 “Behold”, from הִנֵּה means look at, take notice, observe, see, or gaze at. It is often used as an interjection.

and Yahweh hasn't done it?

7 Surely the Lord Yahweh will do nothing, unless he reveals his secret to his servants the prophets.

8 The lion has roared.

Who will not fear?

The Lord Yahweh has spoken.

Who can but prophesy?

9 Proclaim in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, "Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria, and see what unrest is in her, and what oppression is among them."

10 "Indeed they don't know to do right," says Yahweh,

"Who hoard plunder and loot in their palaces."

11 Therefore the Lord Yahweh says:

"An adversary will overrun the land; and he will pull down your strongholds, and your fortresses will be plundered."

12 Yahweh says:

"As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so shall the children of Israel be rescued who sit in Samaria on the corner of a couch, and on the silken cushions of a bed."

13 "Listen, and testify against the house of Jacob," says the Lord Yahweh, the God of Armies.

14 "For in the day that I visit the transgressions of Israel on him,

I will also visit the altars of Bethel; and the horns of the altar will be cut off, and fall to the ground.

15 I will strike the winter house with the summer house;

and the houses of ivory will perish, and the great houses will have an end," says Yahweh.

4 Listen to this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who tell their husbands, "Bring us drinks!"

2 The Lord Yahweh has sworn by his holiness that behold,

"The days shall come on you that they will take you away with hooks, and the last of you with fish hooks.

3 You will go out at the breaks in the wall, everyone straight before her; and you will cast yourselves into Harmon," says Yahweh.

4 "Go to Bethel, and sin; to Gilgal, and sin more. Bring your sacrifices every morning, your tithes every three days,

5 offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened, and proclaim free will offerings and brag about them:

for this pleases you, you children of Israel," says the Lord Yahweh.

6 "I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and lack of bread in every town; yet you haven't returned to me," says Yahweh.

7 "I also have withheld the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest;

and I caused it to rain on one city, and caused it not to rain on another city.

One place was rained on, and the piece where it didn't rain withered.

8 So two or three cities staggered to one city to drink water, and were not satisfied:

yet you haven't returned to me," says Yahweh.

9 "I struck you with blight and mildew many times in your gardens and your vineyards; and the swarming locusts have devoured your fig trees and your olive trees;

yet you haven't returned to me," says Yahweh.

10 "I sent plagues among you like I did Egypt. I have slain your young men with the sword, and have carried away your horses; and I filled your nostrils with the stench of your camp,

yet you haven't returned to me," says Yahweh.

11 "I have overthrown some of you,

as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were like a burning stick plucked out of the fire;

yet you haven't returned to me," says Yahweh.

¹² "Therefore thus I will do to you, Israel;
because I will do this to you,
prepare to meet your God, Israel.

¹³ For, behold, he who forms the mountains, and creates the wind,
and declares to man what is his thought;
who makes the morning darkness,
and treads on the high places of the earth:
Yahweh, the God of Armies, is his name."

5 Listen to this word which I take up for a lamentation over you, O house of Israel.

² "The virgin of Israel has fallen;
She shall rise no more.
She is cast down on her land;
there is no one to raise her up."

³ For the Lord Yahweh says:
"The city that went out a thousand shall have a hundred left,
and that which went out one hundred shall have ten left to the house of Israel."

⁴ For Yahweh says to the house of Israel:
"Seek me, and you will live;
⁵ but don't seek Bethel,
nor enter into Gilgal,
and don't pass to Beersheba:
for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity,
and Bethel shall come to nothing.

⁶ Seek Yahweh, and you will live;
lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph,
and it devour, and there be no one to quench
it in Bethel.

⁷ You who turn justice to wormwood, and cast down righteousness to the earth:
⁸ seek him who made the Pleiades and Orion, and turns the shadow of death into the
morning,

and makes the day dark with night;
who calls for the waters of the sea,
and pours them out on the surface of the earth,
Yahweh is his name,

⁹ who brings sudden destruction on the strong,
so that destruction comes on the fortress.

¹⁰ They hate him who reproves in the gate, and they abhor him who speaks blamelessly.

¹¹ Therefore, because you trample on the poor,

and take taxes from him of wheat:
You have built houses of cut stone,
but you will not dwell in them.

You have planted pleasant vineyards,
but you shall not drink their wine.

¹² For I know how many your offenses, and how great are your sins—

you who afflict the just,
who take a bribe,
and who turn away the needy in the courts.

¹³ Therefore a prudent person keeps silent in such a time,
for it is an evil time.

¹⁴ Seek good, and not evil,
that you may live;

and so Yahweh, the God of Armies, will be with you,
as you say.

¹⁵ Hate evil, love good,
and establish justice in the courts.

It may be that Yahweh, the God of Armies, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph."

¹⁶ Therefore Yahweh, the God of Armies,
the Lord, says:

"Wailing will be in all the wide ways;
and they will say in all the streets, 'Alas! Alas!'
and they will call the farmer to mourning, and those who are skillful in lamentation to wailing.

¹⁷ In all vineyards there will be wailing;
for I will pass through the middle of you," says
Yahweh.

¹⁸ "Woe to you who desire the day of Yahweh!
Why do you long for the day of Yahweh?

It is darkness,
and not light.

¹⁹ As if a man fled from a lion,
and a bear met him;

Or he went into the house and leaned his hand
on the wall,
and a snake bit him.

²⁰ Won't the day of Yahweh be darkness, and not light?

Even very dark, and no brightness in it?

²¹ I hate, I despise your feasts, and I can't stand your solemn assemblies.

²² Yes, though you offer me your burnt offerings and meal offerings,

I will not accept them;

neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat animals.

²³ Take away from me the noise of your songs!
I will not listen to the music of your harps.

²⁴ But let justice roll on like rivers, and righteousness like a mighty stream.

²⁵ "Did you bring to me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, house of Israel? ²⁶ You also carried the tent of your king and the shrine of your images, the star of your god, which you made for yourselves. ²⁷ Therefore I will cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus," says Yahweh, whose name is the God of Armies.

6 Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who are secure on the mountain of Samaria,

the notable men of the chief of the nations,
to whom the house of Israel come!

² Go to Calneh, and see;

and from there go to Hamath the great;
then go down to Gath of the Philistines.

are they better than these kingdoms?
or is their border greater than your border?

³ Those who put far away the evil day,
and cause the seat of violence to come near;

⁴ Who lie on beds of ivory,
and stretch themselves on their couches,
and eat the lambs out of the flock,
and the calves out of the middle of the stall;

⁵ who strum on the strings of a harp;
who invent for themselves instruments of music, like David;

⁶ who drink wine in bowls,
and anoint themselves with the best oils;

but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

⁷ Therefore they will now go captive with the first who go captive;
and the feasting and lounging will end.

⁸ "The Lord Yahweh has sworn by himself,"
says Yahweh, the God of Armies:

"I abhor the pride of Jacob,
and detest his fortresses.

Therefore I will deliver up the city with all that is in it.

⁹ It will happen, if there remain ten men in one
house,

that they shall die.

¹⁰ "When a man's relative carries him, even he who burns him, to bring bodies out of the house, and asks him who is in the innermost parts of the house, 'Is there yet any with you?'
And he says, 'No;' then he will say, 'Hush! Indeed we must not mention Yahweh's name.'

¹¹ "For, behold, Yahweh commands, and the great house will be smashed to pieces, and the little house into bits.

¹² Do horses run on the rocky crags?
Does one plow there with oxen?

But you have turned justice into poison,
and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness;

¹³ you who rejoice in a thing of nothing, who
say,

'Haven't we taken for ourselves horns by our own strength?'

¹⁴ For, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, house of Israel,"

says Yahweh, the God of Armies;

"and they will afflict you from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of the Arabah."

7 Thus the Lord Yahweh showed me: and behold, he formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and behold, it was the latter growth after the king's harvest. ² When they finished eating the grass of the land, then I said, "Lord Yahweh, forgive, I beg you! How could Jacob stand? For he is small."

³ Yahweh relented concerning this. "It shall not be," says Yahweh.

4 Thus the Lord Yahweh showed me and behold, the Lord Yahweh called for judgment by fire; and it dried up the great deep, and would have devoured the land. 5 Then I said, "Lord Yahweh, stop, I beg you! How could Jacob stand? For he is small."

6 Yahweh relented concerning this. "This also shall not be," says the Lord Yahweh.

7 Thus he showed me and behold, the Lord stood beside a wall made by a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand. 8 Yahweh said to me, "Amos, what do you see?"

I said, "A plumb line."

Then the Lord said, "Behold, I will set a plumb line in the middle of my people Israel. I will not again pass by them any more. 9 The high places of Isaac will be desolate, the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."

10 Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the middle of the house of Israel. The land is not able to bear all his words. 11 For Amos says, 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.'"

12 Amaziah also said to Amos, "You seer, go, flee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there: 13 but don't prophesy again any more at Bethel; for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a royal house!"

14 Then Amos answered Amaziah, "I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was a herdsman, and a farmer of sycamore figs; 15 and Yahweh took me from following the flock, and Yahweh said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.' 16 Now therefore listen to Yahweh's word: 'You say, Don't prophesy against Israel, and don't preach against the house of Isaac.' 17 Therefore Yahweh says: 'Your wife shall be a prostitute in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be divided by line; and you yourself shall die in a land that is unclean, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.'"

8 Thus the Lord Yahweh showed me: behold, a basket of summer fruit.

2 He said, "Amos, what do you see?"

I said, "A basket of summer fruit."

Then Yahweh said to me,

"The end has come on my people Israel.

I will not again pass by them any more.

3 The songs of the temple will be wailing in that day," says the Lord Yahweh.

"The dead bodies will be many. In every place they will throw them out with silence.

4 Hear this, you who desire to swallow up the needy, and cause the poor of the land to fail,

5 Saying, 'When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell grain?

And the Sabbath, that we may market wheat, making the ephah[‡] small, and the shekel[¶] large,

and dealing falsely with balances of deceit;

6 that we may buy the poor for silver,

and the needy for a pair of sandals,

and sell the sweepings with the wheat?'"

7 Yahweh has sworn by the pride of Jacob,

"Surely I will never forget any of their works.

8 Won't the land tremble for this,

and everyone mourn who dwells in it?

Yes, it will rise up wholly like the River;

and it will be stirred up and sink again, like the River of Egypt.

9 It will happen in that day," says the Lord Yahweh,

"that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day.

10 I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation;

and I will make you wear sackcloth on all your bodies,

and baldness on every head.

[‡]8:5 1 ephah is about 22 liters or about 2/3 of a bushel

[¶]8:5 a normal shekel is about 10 grams or about 0.35 ounces.

I will make it like the mourning for an only son,
and its end like a bitter day.

¹¹ Behold, the days come," says the Lord Yahweh,

"that I will send a famine in the land,
not a famine of bread,
nor a thirst for water,
but of hearing Yahweh's words.

¹² They will wander from sea to sea,
and from the north even to the east;
they will run back and forth to seek Yahweh's
word,
and will not find it.

¹³ In that day the beautiful virgins and the young men will faint for thirst.

¹⁴ Those who swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, 'As your god, Dan, lives;'
and, 'As the way of Beersheba lives;'
they will fall, and never rise up again."

9 I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and he said, "Strike the tops of the pillars, that the thresholds may shake; and break them in pieces on the head of all of them;
and I will kill the last of them with the sword:
there shall not one of them flee away, and there shall not one of them escape. ² Though they dig into Sheol,[§] there my hand will take them; and though they climb up to heaven, there I will bring them down. ³ Though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out there; and though they be hidden from my sight in the bottom of the sea, there I will command the serpent, and it will bite them. ⁴ Though they go into captivity before their enemies, there I will command the sword, and it will kill them. I will set my eyes on them for evil, and not for good. ⁵ For the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, is he who touches the land and it melts, and all who dwell in it will mourn; and it will rise up wholly like the River, and will sink again, like the River of Egypt. ⁶ It is he who builds his rooms in the heavens, and has founded his vault on the earth; he who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the surface of the earth; Yahweh is his name. ⁷ Are you not like the children of the Ethiopians to me, children of Israel?" says Yahweh. "Haven't I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir? ⁸ Behold, the eyes of the Lord Yahweh are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the surface of the earth; except that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob," says Yahweh. ⁹ "For, behold, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all the nations, as grain is sifted in a sieve, yet not the least kernel will fall on the earth. ¹⁰ All the sinners of my people will die by the sword, who say, 'Evil won't overtake nor meet us.' ¹¹ In that day I will raise up the tent of David who is fallen, and close up its breaches, and I will raise up its ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old; ¹² that they may possess the remnant of Edom, and all the nations who are called by my name," says Yahweh who does this.

¹³ "Behold, the days come," says Yahweh,
"that the plowman shall overtake the reaper,
and the one treading grapes him who sows seed;

and sweet wine will drip from the mountains,
and flow from the hills.

¹⁴ I will bring my people Israel back from captivity,
and they will rebuild the ruined cities, and inhabit them;
and they will plant vineyards, and drink wine
from them.

They shall also make gardens,
and eat their fruit.

¹⁵ I will plant them on their land, and they will no more be plucked up out of their land which I have given them," says Yahweh your God.

§9:2 Sheol is the place of the dead.

The Book of Obadiah

1 The vision of Obadiah. This is what the Lord Yahweh†† says about Edom. We have heard news from Yahweh, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, “Arise, and let’s rise up against her in battle. ² Behold,‡‡ I have made you small among the nations. You are greatly despised. ³ The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high, who says in his heart, “Who will bring me down to the ground?” ⁴ Though you mount on high as the eagle, and though your nest is set among the stars, I will bring you down from there,” says Yahweh. ⁵ “If thieves came to you, if robbers by night—oh, what disaster awaits you—wouldn’t they only steal until they had enough? If grape pickers came to you, wouldn’t they leave some gleaning grapes? ⁶ How Esau will be ransacked! How his hidden treasures are sought out! ⁷ All the men of your alliance have brought you on your way, even to the border. The men who were at peace with you have deceived you, and prevailed against you. Friends who eat your bread lay a snare under you. There is no understanding in him.”

⁸ “Won’t I in that day”, says Yahweh, “destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mountain of Esau? ⁹ Your mighty men, Teman, will be dismayed, to the end that everyone may be cut off from the mountain of Esau by slaughter. ¹⁰ For the violence done to your brother Jacob, shame will cover you, and you will be cut off forever. ¹¹ In the day that you stood on the other side, in the day that strangers carried away his substance, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots for Jerusalem, even you were like one of them. ¹² But don’t look down on your brother in the day of his disaster, and don’t rejoice over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction. Don’t speak proudly in the day of distress. ¹³ Don’t enter into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity. Don’t look down on their affliction in the day of their calamity, neither seize their wealth on the day of their calamity. ¹⁴ Don’t stand in the crossroads to cut off those of his who escape. Don’t deliver up those of his who remain in the day of distress. ¹⁵ For the day of Yahweh is near all the nations! As you have done, it will be done to you. Your deeds will return upon your own head. ¹⁶ For as you have drunk on my holy mountain, so will all the nations drink continually. Yes, they will drink, swallow down, and will be as though they had not been. ¹⁷ But in Mount Zion, there will be those who escape, and it will be holy. The house of Jacob will possess their possessions. ¹⁸ The house of Jacob will be a fire, the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble. They will burn among them, and devour them. There will not be any remaining to the house of Esau.” Indeed, Yahweh has spoken.

¹⁹ Those of the South will possess the mountain of Esau, and those of the lowland, the Philistines. They will possess the field of Ephraim, and the field of Samaria. Benjamin will possess Gilead. ²⁰ The captives of this army of the children of Israel, who are among the Canaanites, will possess even to Zarephath; and the captives of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad, will possess the cities of the Negev. ²¹ Saviors will go up on Mount Zion to judge the mountains of Esau, and the kingdom will be Yahweh’s.

The Book of Jonah

1 Now Yahweh's^{¶¶¶} word came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, ² "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach against it, for their wickedness has come up before me."

³ But Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of Yahweh. He went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid its fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of Yahweh. ⁴ But Yahweh sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a mighty storm on the sea, so that the ship was likely to break up. ⁵ Then the mariners were afraid, and every man cried to his god. They threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea to lighten the ship. But Jonah had gone down into the innermost parts of the ship, and he was laying down, and was fast asleep. ⁶ So the ship master came to him, and said to him, "What do you mean, sleeper? Arise, call on your God!^{§§} Maybe your God* will notice us, so that we won't perish."

⁷ They all said to each other, "Come! Let's cast lots, that we may know who is responsible for this evil that is on us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. ⁸ Then they asked him, "Tell us, please, for whose cause this evil is on us. What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? Of what people are you?"

⁹ He said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear Yahweh, the God[†] of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land."

¹⁰ Then the men were exceedingly afraid, and said to him, "What have you done?" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of Yahweh, because he had told them. ¹¹ Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you, that the sea may be calm to us?" For the sea grew more and more stormy. ¹² He said to them, "Take me up, and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will be calm for you; for I know that because of me this great storm is on you."

¹³ Nevertheless the men rowed hard to get them back to the land; but they could not, for the sea grew more and more stormy against them. ¹⁴ Therefore they cried to Yahweh, and said, "We beg you, Yahweh, we beg you, don't let us die for this man's life, and don't lay on us innocent blood; for you, Yahweh, have done as it pleased you." ¹⁵ So they took up Jonah, and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased its raging. ¹⁶ Then the men feared Yahweh exceedingly; and they offered a sacrifice to Yahweh, and made vows.

¹⁷ Yahweh prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

2 Then Jonah prayed to Yahweh, his God, out of the fish's belly. ² He said, "I called because of my affliction to Yahweh. He answered me.

Out of the belly of Sheol[‡] I cried.

You heard my voice.

³ For you threw me into the depths,

in the heart of the seas.

The flood was all around me.

All your waves and your billows passed over me.

⁴ I said, 'I have been banished from your sight; yet I will look again toward your holy temple.'

¶¶¶1:1 "Yahweh" is God's proper Name, sometimes rendered "LORD" (all caps) in other translations.

§§1:6 or, gods

*1:6 or, gods

†1:9 The Hebrew word rendered "God" is "אֱלֹהִים" (Elohim).

‡2:2 Sheol is the place of the dead.

5 The waters surrounded me,
 even to the soul.
 The deep was around me.
 The weeds were wrapped around my head.
 6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains.
 The earth barred me in forever:
 yet have you brought up my life from the pit, Yahweh my God.
 7 “When my soul fainted within me, I remembered Yahweh.
 My prayer came in to you, into your holy temple.
 8 Those who regard lying vanities forsake their own mercy.
 9 But I will sacrifice to you with the voice of thanksgiving.
 I will pay that which I have vowed.
 Salvation belongs to Yahweh.”

10 Then Yahweh spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Jonah on the dry land.

3 Yahweh’s word came to Jonah the second time, saying, 2 “Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach to it the message that I give you.”

3 So Jonah arose, and went to Nineveh, according to Yahweh’s word. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, three days’ journey across. 4 Jonah began to enter into the city a day’s journey, and he cried out, and said, “In forty days, Nineveh will be overthrown!”

5 The people of Nineveh believed God; and they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from their greatest even to their least. 6 The news reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and took off his royal robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. 7 He made a proclamation and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, “Let neither man nor animal, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, nor drink water; 8 but let them be covered with sackcloth, both man and animal, and let them cry mightily to God. Yes, let them turn everyone from his evil way, and from the violence that is in his hands. 9 Who knows whether God will not turn and relent, and turn away from his fierce anger, so that we might not perish?”

10 God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way. God relented of the disaster which he said he would do to them, and he didn’t do it.

4 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry. 2 He prayed to Yahweh, and said, “Please, Yahweh, wasn’t this what I said when I was still in my own country? Therefore I hurried to flee to Tarshish, for I knew that you are a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and you relent of doing harm. 3 Therefore now, Yahweh, take, I beg you, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.”

4 Yahweh said, “Is it right for you to be angry?”

5 Then Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made himself a booth, and sat under it in the shade, until he might see what would become of the city.

6 Yahweh God prepared a vine, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his discomfort. So Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the vine. 7 But God prepared a worm at dawn the next day, and it chewed on the vine, so that it withered. 8 When the sun arose, God prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat on Jonah’s head, so that he fainted, and requested for himself that he might die, and said, “It is better for me to die than to live.”

9 God said to Jonah, “Is it right for you to be angry about the vine?”

He said, “I am right to be angry, even to death.”

10 Yahweh said, “You have been concerned for the vine, for which you have not labored, neither made it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night. 11 Shouldn’t
 I be concerned for Nineveh, that great city, in which are more than one hundred twenty thousand persons who can’t discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much livestock?”

The Book of

Micah

1 Yahweh's¹ word that came to Micah the Morashtite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

²Hear, you peoples, all of you.
Listen, O earth, and all that is therein:
and let the Lord² Yahweh be witness against you,
the Lord from his holy temple.

³For, behold,^{} Yahweh comes out of his place, and will come down and tread on the high places of the earth.

⁴The mountains melt under him,
and the valleys split apart,
like wax before the fire,
like waters that are poured down a steep place.

⁵"All this is for the disobedience of Jacob,
and for the sins of the house of Israel.
What is the disobedience of Jacob?
Isn't it Samaria?

And what are the high places of Judah?
Aren't they Jerusalem?

⁶Therefore I will make Samaria like a rubble heap of the field, like places for planting vineyards;
and I will pour down its stones into the valley,
and I will uncover its foundations.

⁷All her idols will be beaten to pieces, and all her temple gifts will be burned with fire,
and all her images I will destroy;
for of the hire of a prostitute has she gathered them,

and to the hire of a prostitute shall they return."

⁸For this I will lament and wail;
I will go stripped and naked;
I will howl like the jackals,
and moan like the daughters of owls.

⁹For her wounds are incurable;
for it has come even to Judah.
It reaches to the gate of my people,
even to Jerusalem.

¹⁰Don't tell it in Gath.

Don't weep at all.
At Beth Ophrah^{††} I have rolled myself in the dust.

¹¹Pass on, inhabitant of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame.

The inhabitant of Zaanan won't come out.
The wailing of Beth Ezel will take from you his protection.

¹²For the inhabitant of Maroth waits anxiously for good, because evil has come down from Yahweh to the gate of Jerusalem.

¹³Harness the chariot to the swift steed, inhabitant of Lachish.

She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion;

For the transgressions of Israel were found in you.

¹⁴Therefore you will give a parting gift to Moresheth Gath.

The houses of Achzib will be a deceitful thing to the kings of Israel.

¹⁵I will yet bring to you, inhabitant of Mareshah.

He who is the glory of Israel will come to Adullam.

¹⁶Shave your heads,
and cut off your hair for the children of your delight.

^{¶1:1} "Yahweh" is God's proper Name, sometimes rendered "LORD" (all caps) in other translations.

^{§1:2} The word translated "Lord" is "Adonai."

^{1:3} "Behold", from ^{ׁוּבִינְיָ} means look at, take notice, observe, see, or gaze at. It is often used as an interjection.

^{††1:10} Beth Ophrah means literally "House of Dust."

Enlarge your baldness like the vulture;
for they have gone into captivity from you!

2 Woe to those who devise iniquity and work evil on their beds!
When the morning is light, they practice it,
because it is in the power of their hand.

2 They covet fields, and seize them;
and houses, and take them away;
and they oppress a man and his house,
even a man and his heritage.

3 Therefore Yahweh says: “Behold, I am planning against these people a disaster,

from which you will not remove your necks,
neither will you walk haughtily;
for it is an evil time.

4 In that day they will take up a parable against
you,

and lament with a doleful lamentation, saying,
“We are utterly ruined!

My people’s possession is divided up.
Indeed he takes it from me and assigns our fields to traitors!”

5 Therefore you will have no one who divides
the land by lot in Yahweh’s assembly.

6 “Don’t prophesy!”

They prophesy.

“Don’t prophesy about these things.
Disgrace won’t overtake us.”

7 Shall it be said, O house of Jacob:

“Is Yahweh’s Spirit angry?

Are these his doings?

Don’t my words do good to him who walks blamelessly?”

8 But lately my people have risen up as an enemy.

You strip the robe and clothing from those who pass by without a care, returning from battle.

9 You drive the women of my people out from their pleasant houses;

from their young children you take away my blessing forever.

10 Arise, and depart!

For this is not your resting place,
because of uncleanness that destroys,

even with a grievous destruction.

11 If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood lies:
“I will prophesy to you of wine and of strong drink;”

he would be the prophet of this people.

12 I will surely assemble, Jacob, all of you;

I will surely gather the remnant of Israel;

I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah,

as a flock in the middle of their pasture;
they will swarm with people.

13 He who breaks open the way goes up before
them.

They break through the gate, and go out.

And their king passes on before them,
with Yahweh at their head.

3 I said,

“Please listen, you heads of Jacob,
and rulers of the house of Israel:
Isn’t it for you to know justice?

2 You who hate the good,

and love the evil;

who tear off their skin,

and their flesh from off their bones;

3 who also eat the flesh of my people, and peel their skin from off them,

and break their bones,

and chop them in pieces, as for the pot,

and as meat within the cauldron.

4 Then they will cry to Yahweh,

but he will not answer them.

Yes, he will hide his face from them at that
time,

because they made their deeds evil.”

5 Yahweh says concerning the prophets who lead my people astray; for those who feed their teeth, they proclaim, “Peace!” and whoever doesn’t provide for their mouths, they prepare war against him:

6 “Therefore night is over you, with no vision, and it is dark to you, that you may not divine;

and the sun will go down on the prophets,

and the day will be black over them.

7 The seers shall be disappointed,

and the diviners confounded.

Yes, they shall all cover their lips;

for there is no answer from God.”^{††}

⁸ But as for me, I am full of power by Yahweh’s Spirit, and of judgment, and of might,

to declare to Jacob his disobedience,
and to Israel his sin.

⁹ Please listen to this, you heads of the house of Jacob,

and rulers of the house of Israel,
who abhor justice,
and pervert all equity.

¹⁰ They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

¹¹ Her leaders judge for bribes, and her priests teach for a price,
and her prophets of it tell fortunes for money:
yet they lean on Yahweh, and say,

“Isn’t Yahweh among us?
No disaster will come on us.”

¹² Therefore Zion for your sake will be plowed like a field,

and Jerusalem will become heaps of rubble,
and the mountain of the temple like the high places of a forest.

But in the latter days,

4 it will happen that the mountain of Yahweh’s temple will be established on the top of the mountains, and it will be exalted above the hills;

and peoples will stream to it.

² Many nations will go and say,

“Come! Let’s go up to the mountain of
Yahweh,

and to the house of the God of Jacob;
and he will teach us of his ways,
and we will walk in his paths.”

For the law will go out of Zion,
and Yahweh’s word from Jerusalem;

³ and he will judge between many peoples, and will decide concerning strong nations afar off.

They will beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks.

Nation will not lift up sword against nation,

neither will they learn war any more.

⁴ But they will sit every man under his vine
and under his fig tree;

and no one will make them afraid:

For the mouth of Yahweh of Armies has spoken. ⁵ Indeed all the nations may walk in the name of their gods;

but we will walk in the name of Yahweh our God forever and ever.

⁶ “In that day,” says Yahweh,

“I will assemble that which is lame,
and I will gather that which is driven away,
and that which I have afflicted;

⁷ and I will make that which was lame a remnant,

and that which was cast far off a strong nation:
and Yahweh will reign over them on Mount Zion from then on, even forever.”

⁸ You, tower of the flock, the hill of the daughter of Zion,

to you it will come,

yes, the former dominion will come,
the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.

⁹ Now why do you cry out aloud?

Is there no king in you?

Has your counselor perished, that pains have taken hold of you as of a woman in travail?

¹⁰ Be in pain, and labor to give birth, daughter of Zion,

like a woman in travail;

for now you will go out of the city,

and will dwell in the field,

and will come even to Babylon.

There you will be rescued.

There Yahweh will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

¹¹ Now many nations have assembled against you, that say,

“Let her be defiled,

and let our eye gloat over Zion.”

¹² But they don’t know the thoughts of
Yahweh,

neither do they understand his counsel;

^{††}3:7 The Hebrew word rendered “God” is אֱלֹהִים (Elohim).

for he has gathered them like the sheaves to the threshing floor.

¹³ Arise and thresh, daughter of Zion;
for I will make your horn iron,
and I will make your hoofs bronze;
and you will beat in pieces many peoples:
and I will devote their gain to Yahweh, and their substance to the Lord of the whole
earth.

5 Now you shall gather yourself in troops, daughter of troops.
He has laid siege against us.
They will strike the judge of Israel with a rod on the cheek.

² But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, being small among the clans of Judah, out of you one will come out to me that is to be ruler in Israel;
whose goings out are from of old, from ancient times.

³ Therefore he will abandon them until the time that she who is in labor gives birth.
Then the rest of his brothers will return to the children of Israel.

⁴ He shall stand, and shall shepherd in the strength of Yahweh,
in the majesty of the name of Yahweh his
God:
and they will live, for then he will be great to
the ends of the earth.

⁵ He will be our peace when Assyria invades
our land,
and when he marches through our fortresses, then we will raise against him seven shepherds,
and eight leaders of men.

⁶ They will rule the land of Assyria with the sword,
and the land of Nimrod in its gates.
He will deliver us from the Assyrian,
when he invades our land,
and when he marches within our border.

⁷ The remnant of Jacob will be among many peoples,
like dew from Yahweh,
like showers on the grass,

that don't wait for man,
nor wait for the sons of men.

⁸ The remnant of Jacob will be among the
nations,
among many peoples,
like a lion among the animals of the forest,
like a young lion among the flocks of sheep;
who, if he goes through, treads down and tears
in pieces,
and there is no one to deliver.

⁹ Let your hand be lifted up above your
adversaries,
and let all of your enemies be cut off.

¹⁰ "It will happen in that day", says Yahweh,
"that I will cut off your horses out from among
you,
and will destroy your chariots.

¹¹ I will cut off the cities of your land,
and will tear down all your strongholds.

¹² I will destroy witchcraft from your hand;
and you shall have no soothsayers.

¹³ I will cut off your engraved images and your pillars out from among you;
and you shall no more worship the work of your hands.

¹⁴ I will uproot your Asherah poles out from among you;
and I will destroy your cities.

¹⁵ I will execute vengeance in anger,
and wrath on the nations that didn't listen."

6 Listen now to what Yahweh says:
"Arise, plead your case before the
mountains,
and let the hills hear what you have to say.

² Hear, you mountains, Yahweh's controversy, and you enduring foundations of the earth;
for Yahweh has a controversy with his people,
and he will contend with Israel.

³ My people, what have I done to you?
How have I burdened you?
Answer me!

⁴ For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt,
and redeemed you out of the house of bondage.

I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 My people, remember now what Balak king of Moab devised, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteous acts of Yahweh.”

6 How shall I come before Yahweh, and bow myself before the exalted God? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?

7 Will Yahweh be pleased with thousands of rams?

With tens of thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my disobedience? The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

8 He has shown you, O man, what is good. What does Yahweh require of you, but to act justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?

9 Yahweh’s voice calls to the city, and wisdom sees your name: “Listen to the rod, and he who appointed it.

10 Are there yet treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and a short ephah[¶] that is accursed?

11 Shall I be pure with dishonest scales, and with a bag of deceitful weights?

12 Her rich men are full of violence, her inhabitants speak lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their speech.

13 Therefore I also have struck you with a grievous wound.

I have made you desolate because of your sins.

14 You shall eat, but not be satisfied. Your humiliation will be within you. You will store up, but not save; and that which you save I will give up to the sword.

15 You will sow, but won’t reap. You will tread the olives, but won’t anoint yourself with oil;

and crush grapes, but won’t drink the wine.

16 For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of Ahab’s house. You walk in their counsels, that I may make you a ruin, and her inhabitants a hissing; And you will bear the reproach of my people.”

7 Misery is mine!
Indeed, I am like one who gathers the summer fruits, as gleanings of the vineyard:

There is no cluster of grapes to eat. My soul desires to eat the early fig.

2 The godly man has perished out of the earth, and there is no one upright among men. They all lie in wait for blood; every man hunts his brother with a net.

3 Their hands are on that which is evil to do it diligently. The ruler and judge ask for a bribe; and the powerful man dictates the evil desire of his soul.

Thus they conspire together.

4 The best of them is like a brier. The most upright is worse than a thorn hedge. The day of your watchmen, even your visitation, has come; now is the time of their confusion.

5 Don’t trust in a neighbor. Don’t put confidence in a friend. With the woman lying in your embrace, be careful of the words of your mouth!

6 For the son dishonors the father, the daughter rises up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;

a man’s enemies are the men of his own house.

7 But as for me, I will look to Yahweh. I will wait for the God of my salvation. My God will hear me.

8 Don’t rejoice against me, my enemy. When I fall, I will arise.

When I sit in darkness, Yahweh will be a light to me.

[¶]6:10 An ephah is a measure of volume (about 22 liters or about 2/3 of a bushel), and a short ephah is made smaller than a full ephah for the purpose of cheating customers.

9 I will bear the indignation of Yahweh, because I have sinned against him,
until he pleads my case, and executes judgment for me.

He will bring me out to the light.

I will see his righteousness.

10 Then my enemy will see it,
and shame will cover her who said to me,
where is Yahweh your God?

Then my enemy will see me and will cover her shame.

Now she will be trodden down like the mire of the streets.

11 A day to build your walls—
In that day, he will extend your boundary.

12 In that day they will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, and from Egypt even to the River,
and from sea to sea,
and mountain to mountain.

13 Yet the land will be desolate because of those who dwell therein,
for the fruit of their doings.

14 Shepherd your people with your staff,
the flock of your heritage,
who dwell by themselves in a forest,
in the middle of fertile pasture land, let them feed;

in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.

15 “As in the days of your coming out of the land of Egypt,

I will show them marvelous things.”

16 The nations will see and be ashamed of all their might.

They will lay their hand on their mouth.

Their ears will be deaf.

17 They will lick the dust like a serpent.

Like crawling things of the earth they shall come trembling out of their dens.

They will come with fear to Yahweh our God,
and will be afraid because of you.

18 Who is a God like you, who pardons
iniquity,

and passes over the disobedience of the remnant of his heritage?

He doesn't retain his anger forever,
because he delights in loving kindness.

19 He will again have compassion on us.

He will tread our iniquities under foot;
and you will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

20 You will give truth to Jacob,
and mercy to Abraham,

as you have sworn to our fathers from the days
of old.

The Book of Nahum

1 A revelation about Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite. ²Yahweh^{§§} is a jealous God* and avenges. Yahweh avenges and is full of wrath. Yahweh takes vengeance on his adversaries, and he maintains wrath against his enemies. ³Yahweh is slow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means leave the guilty unpunished. Yahweh has his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet. ⁴He rebukes the sea, and makes it dry, and dries up all the rivers. Bashan languishes, and Carmel; and the flower of Lebanon languishes. ⁵The mountains quake before him, and the hills melt away. The earth trembles at his presence, yes, the world, and all who dwell in it. ⁶Who can stand before his indignation? Who can endure the fierceness of his anger? His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken apart by him. ⁷Yahweh is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knows those who take refuge in him. ⁸But with an overflowing flood, he will make a full end of her place, and will pursue his enemies into darkness. ⁹What do you plot against Yahweh? He will make a full end. Affliction won't rise up the second time. ¹⁰For entangled like thorns, and drunken as with their drink, they are consumed utterly like dry stubble. ¹¹There is one gone out of you, who devises evil against Yahweh, who counsels wickedness. ¹²Yahweh says: "Though they be in full strength, and likewise many, even so they will be cut down, and he shall pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more. ¹³Now I will break his yoke from off you, and will burst your bonds apart." ¹⁴Yahweh has commanded concerning you: "No more descendants will bear your name. Out of the house of your gods, I will cut off the engraved image and the molten image. I will make your grave, for you are vile."

¹⁵Behold,[†] on the mountains the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace! Keep your feasts, Judah! Perform your vows, for the wicked one will no more pass through you. He is utterly cut off.

2 He who dashes in pieces has come up against you. Keep the fortress! Watch the way! Strengthen your waist! Fortify your power mightily! ²For Yahweh restores the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel; for the destroyers have destroyed them, and ruined their vine branches. ³The shield of his mighty men is made red. The valiant men are in scarlet. The chariots flash with steel in the day of his preparation, and the pine spears are brandished. ⁴The chariots rage in the streets. They rush back and forth in the wide ways. Their appearance is like torches. They run like the lightnings. ⁵He summons his picked troops. They stumble on their way. They dash to its wall, and the protective shield is put in place. ⁶The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace is dissolved. ⁷It is decreed: she is uncovered, she is carried away; and her servants moan as with the voice of doves, beating on their breasts. ⁸But Nineveh has been from of old like a pool of water, yet they flee away. "Stop! Stop!" they cry, but no one looks back. ⁹Take the plunder of silver. Take the plunder of gold, for there is no end of the store, the glory of all goodly furniture. ¹⁰She is empty, void, and waste. The heart melts, the knees knock together, their bodies and faces have grown pale. ¹¹Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion and the lioness walked, the lion's cubs, and no one made them afraid?¹² The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his caves with the kill, and his dens with prey.¹³ "Behold, I am against you," says Yahweh of Armies, "and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions; and I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers will no longer be heard."

3 Woe to the bloody city! It is all full of lies and robbery. The prey doesn't depart.² The noise of the whip, the noise of the rattling of wheels, prancing horses, and bounding chariots, ³ the horseman mounting, and the flashing sword, the glittering spear, and a multitude of slain, and a great heap of corpses, and there is no end of the bodies. They stumble on their bodies, ⁴ because of the multitude of the prostitution of the alluring prostitute, the mistress of witchcraft, who sells nations through her prostitution, and families through her witchcraft.⁵ "Behold, I am against you," says Yahweh of Armies, "and I will lift your skirts over your face. I will show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame.⁶ I will throw abominable filth on you, and make you vile, and will set you a spectacle.⁷ It will happen that all those who look at you will flee from you, and say, 'Nineveh is laid waste! Who will mourn for her?' Where will I seek comforters for you?"

⁸ Are you better than No-Amon,[‡] who was situated among the rivers, who had the waters around her; whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was of the sea?⁹ Cush and Egypt were her boundless strength. Put and Libya were her helpers.¹⁰ Yet was she carried away. She went into captivity. Her young children also were dashed in pieces at the head of all the streets, and they cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.¹¹ You also will be drunken. You will be hidden. You also will seek a stronghold because of the enemy.¹² All your fortresses will be like fig trees with the first-ripe figs: if they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater.¹³ Behold, your troops among you are women. The gates of your land are set wide open to your enemies. The fire has devoured your bars.¹⁴ Draw water for the siege. Strengthen your fortresses. Go into the clay, and tread the mortar. Make the brick kiln strong.¹⁵ There the fire will devour you. The sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the grasshopper. Multiply like grasshoppers. Multiply like the locust.¹⁶ You have increased your merchants more than the stars of the skies. The grasshopper strips, and flees away.¹⁷ Your guards are like the locusts, and your officials like the swarms of locusts, which settle on the walls on a cold day, but when the sun appears, they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.¹⁸ Your shepherds slumber, king of Assyria. Your nobles lie down. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to gather them.¹⁹ There is no healing your wound, for your injury is fatal. All who hear the report of you clap their hands over you; for who hasn't felt your endless cruelty?

The Book of Habakkuk

1 The revelation which Habakkuk the prophet saw. ²Yahweh,[¶] how long will I cry, and you will not hear? I cry out to you “Violence!” and will you not save? ³Why do you show me iniquity, and look at perversity? For destruction and violence are before me. There is strife, and contention rises up. ⁴Therefore the law is paralyzed, and justice never prevails; for the wicked surround the righteous; therefore justice comes out perverted.

⁵“Look among the nations, watch, and wonder marvelously; for I am working a work in your days, which you will not believe though it is told you. ⁶For, behold,[§] I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, that march through the width of the earth, to possess dwelling places that are not theirs. ⁷They are feared and dreaded. Their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves. ⁸Their horses also are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves. Their horsemen press proudly on. Yes, their horsemen come from afar. They fly as an eagle that hurries to devour. ⁹All of them come for violence. Their hordes face the desert. He gathers prisoners like sand. ¹⁰Yes, he scoffs at kings, and princes are a derision to him. He laughs at every stronghold, for he builds up an earthen ramp, and takes it. ¹¹Then he sweeps by like the wind, and goes on. He is indeed guilty, whose strength is his god.”

weh, you have appointed him for judgment. You, Rock, have established him to punish. ¹³You who have purer eyes than to see evil, and who cannot look on perversity, why do you tolerate those who deal treacherously, and keep silent when the wicked swallows up the man who is more righteous than he, ¹⁴and make men like the fish of the sea, like the creeping things, that have no ruler over them? ¹⁵He takes up all of them with the hook. He catches them in his net, and gathers them in his dragnet. Therefore he rejoices and is glad. ¹⁶Therefore he sacrifices to his net, and burns incense to his dragnet, because by them his life is luxurious, and his food is good. ¹⁷Will he therefore continually empty his net, and kill the nations without mercy?

2 I will stand at my watch, and set myself on the ramparts, and will look out to see what he will say to me, and what I will answer concerning my complaint.

²Yahweh answered me, “Write the vision, and make it plain on tablets, that he who runs may read it. ³For the vision is yet for the appointed time, and it hurries toward the end, and won't prove false. Though it takes time, wait for it; because it will surely come. It won't delay. ⁴Behold, his soul is puffed up. It is not upright in him, but the righteous will live by his faith. ⁵Yes, moreover, wine is treacherous. An arrogant man who doesn't stay at home, who enlarges his desire as Sheol,^{††} and he is like death, and can't be satisfied, but gathers to himself all nations, and heaps to himself all peoples. ⁶Won't all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, ‘Woe to him who increases that which is not his, and who enriches himself by extortion! How long?’ ⁷Won't your debtors rise up suddenly, and wake up those who make you tremble, and you will be their victim? ⁸ Because you have plundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples will plunder you, because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all who dwell in it. ⁹ Woe to him who gets an evil gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil! ¹⁰ You have devised shame to your house, by cutting off many peoples, and have sinned against your soul. ¹¹ For the stone will cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the woodwork will answer it. ¹² Woe to him who builds a town with blood, and establishes a city by iniquity! ¹³ Behold, isn't it of Yahweh of Armies that the peoples labor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for vanity? ¹⁴ For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of Yahweh's glory, as the waters cover the sea.

¹⁵ "Woe to him who gives his neighbor drink, pouring your inflaming wine until they are drunk, so that you may gaze at their naked bodies! ¹⁶ You are filled with shame, and not glory. You will also drink, and be exposed! The cup of Yahweh's right hand will come around to you, and disgrace will cover your glory. ¹⁷ For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, and the destruction of the animals, which made them afraid; because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to every city and to those who dwell in them.

¹⁸ "What value does the engraved image have, that its maker has engraved it; the molten image, even the teacher of lies, that he who fashions its form trusts in it, to make mute idols? ¹⁹ Woe to him who says to the wood, 'Awake!' or to the mute stone, 'Arise!' Shall this teach? Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all within it. ²⁰ But Yahweh is in his holy temple. Let all the earth be silent before him!"

3 A prayer of Habakkuk, the prophet, set to victorious music.

² Yahweh, I have heard of your fame.

I stand in awe of your deeds, Yahweh.
Renew your work in the middle of the years.
In the middle of the years make it known.
In wrath, you remember mercy.

³ God came from Teman,
the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah.
His glory covered the heavens,
and his praise filled the earth.
⁴ His splendor is like the sunrise.
Rays shine from his hand, where his power is hidden.

⁵ Plague went before him,
and pestilence followed his feet.
⁶ He stood, and shook the earth.
He looked, and made the nations tremble.
The ancient mountains were crumbled.
The age-old hills collapsed.
His ways are eternal.

⁷ I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction.
The dwellings of the land of Midian trembled.

⁸ Was Yahweh displeased with the rivers?
Was your anger against the rivers,
or your wrath against the sea,
that you rode on your horses,
on your chariots of salvation?

⁹ You uncovered your bow.
You called for your sworn arrows. Selah.
You split the earth with rivers.

¹⁰ The mountains saw you, and were afraid.
The storm of waters passed by.
The deep roared and lifted up its hands on high.

¹¹ The sun and moon stood still in the sky,
at the light of your arrows as they went,
at the shining of your glittering spear.

¹² You marched through the land in wrath.
You threshed the nations in anger.

¹³ You went out for the salvation of your people, for the salvation of your anointed.
You crushed the head of the land of wickedness.

You stripped them head to foot. Selah.

¹⁴ You pierced the heads of his warriors with their own spears.

They came as a whirlwind to scatter me,

gloating as if to devour the wretched in secret.

¹⁵ You trampled the sea with your horses,
churning mighty waters.

¹⁶ I heard, and my body trembled.

My lips quivered at the voice.

Rottenness enters into my bones, and I tremble in my place,

because I must wait quietly for the day of
trouble,

for the coming up of the people who invade
us.

¹⁷ For though the fig tree doesn't flourish,

nor fruit be in the vines;

the labor of the olive fails,

the fields yield no food;

the flocks are cut off from the fold,

and there is no herd in the stalls:

¹⁸ yet I will rejoice in Yahweh.

I will be joyful in the God of my salvation!

¹⁹ Yahweh, the Lord,## is my strength.

He makes my feet like deer's feet,

and enables me to go in high places.

The Book of Zephaniah

1 Yahweh's^{¶¶} word which came to Zephaniah, the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah, the son of Amon, king of Judah. ²I will utterly sweep away everything from the surface of the earth, says Yahweh. ³I will sweep away man and animal. I will sweep away the birds of the sky, the fish of the sea, and the heaps of rubble with the wicked. I will cut off man from the surface of the earth, says Yahweh. ⁴I will stretch out my hand against Judah, and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place: the name of the idolatrous and pagan priests, ⁵those who worship the army of the sky on the housetops, those who worship and swear by Yahweh and also swear by Malmam, ⁶those who have turned back from following Yahweh, and those who haven't sought Yahweh nor inquired after him. ⁷Be silent at the presence of the Lord^{§§} Yahweh, for the day of Yahweh is at hand. For Yahweh has prepared a sacrifice. He has consecrated his guests. ⁸It will happen in the day of Yahweh's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, the king's sons, and all those who are clothed with foreign clothing. ⁹In that day, I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, who fill their master's house with violence and deceit. ¹⁰In that day, says Yahweh, there will be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, a wailing from the second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills. ¹¹Wail, you inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the people of Canaan are undone! All those who were loaded with silver are cut off. ¹²It will happen at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the men who are settled on their dregs, who say in their heart, "Yahweh will not do good, neither will he do evil." ¹³Their wealth will become a plunder, and their houses a desolation. Yes, they will build houses, but won't inhabit them. They will plant vineyards, but won't drink their wine. ¹⁴The great day of Yahweh is near. It is near, and hurries greatly, the voice of the day of Yahweh. The mighty man cries there bitterly. ¹⁵That day is a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of trouble and ruin, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness, ¹⁶a day of the trumpet and alarm, against the fortified cities, and against the high battlements. ¹⁷I will bring distress on men, that they will walk like blind men, because they have sinned against Yahweh, and their blood will be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung. ¹⁸Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of Yahweh's wrath, but the whole land will be devoured by the fire of his jealousy; for he will make an end, yes, a terrible end, of all those who dwell in the land.

2 Gather yourselves together, yes, gather together, you nation that has no shame, ²before the appointed time when the day passes as the chaff, before the fierce anger of Yahweh comes on you, before the day of Yahweh's anger comes on you. ³Seek Yahweh, all you humble of the land, who have kept his ordinances. Seek righteousness. Seek humility. It may be that you will be hidden in the day of Yahweh's anger. ⁴For Gaza will be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation. They will drive out Ashdod at noonday, and Ekron will be rooted up. ⁵Woe to the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! Yahweh's word is against you, Canaan, the land of the Philistines. I will destroy you, that there will be no inhabitant. ⁶The sea coast will be pastures, with cottages for shepherds and folds for flocks. ⁷The coast will be for the remnant of the house of Judah. They will find pasture. In the houses of Ashkelon, they will lie down in the evening, for Yahweh, their God,* will visit them, and restore them. ⁸I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the insults of the children of Ammon, with which they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border. ⁹Therefore as I live, says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, surely Moab will be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, a possession of nettles, and salt pits, and a perpetual desolation. The remnant of my people will plunder them, and the survivors of my nation will inherit them. ¹⁰This they will have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of Yahweh of Armies. ¹¹Yahweh will be awesome to them, for he will famish all the gods of the land. Men will worship him, everyone from his place, even all the shores of the nations. ¹²You Cushites also, you will be killed by my sword. ¹³He will stretch out his hand against the north, destroy Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, as dry as the wilderness. ¹⁴Herds will lie down in the middle of her, all the animals of the nations. Both the pelican and the porcupine will lodge in its capitals. Their calls will echo through the windows. Desolation will be in the thresholds, for he has laid bare the cedar beams. ¹⁵This is the joyous city that lived carelessly, that said in her heart, "I am, and there is no one besides me." How she has become a desolation, a place for animals to lie down in! Everyone who passes by her will hiss, and shake their fists.

3 Woe to her who is rebellious and polluted, the oppressing city! ²She didn't obey the voice. She didn't receive correction. She didn't trust in Yahweh. She didn't draw near to her God. ³Her princes within her are roaring lions. Her judges are evening wolves. They leave nothing until the next day. ⁴Her prophets are arrogant and treacherous people. Her priests have profaned the sanctuary. They have done violence to the law. ⁵Yahweh, within her, is righteous. He will do no wrong. Every morning he brings his justice to light. He doesn't fail, but the unjust know no shame. ⁶I have cut off nations. Their battlements are desolate. I have made their streets waste, so that no one passes by. Their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, so that there is no inhabitant. ⁷I said, "Just fear me. Receive correction, so that her dwelling won't be cut off, according to all that I have appointed concerning her." But they rose early and corrupted all their doings. ⁸"Therefore wait for me", says Yahweh, "until the day that I rise up to the prey, for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour on them my indignation, even all my fierce anger, for all the earth will be devoured with the fire of my jealousy. ⁹For then I will purify the lips of the peoples, that they may all call on Yahweh's name, to serve him shoulder to shoulder. ¹⁰From beyond the rivers of Cush, my worshipers, even the daughter of my dispersed people, will bring my offering. ¹¹In that day you will not be disappointed for all your doings, in which you have transgressed against me; for then I will take away out from among you your proudly exulting ones, and you will no more be arrogant in my holy mountain. ¹²But I will leave among you an afflicted and poor people, and they will take refuge in Yahweh's name. ¹³The remnant of Israel will not do iniquity, nor speak lies, neither will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth, for they will feed and lie down, and no one will make them afraid."

¹⁴Sing, daughter of Zion! Shout, Israel! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, daughter of Jerusalem. ¹⁵Yahweh has taken away your judgments. He has thrown out your enemy. The King of Israel, Yahweh, is among you. You will not be afraid of evil any more. ¹⁶ In that day, it will be said to Jerusalem, “Don’t be afraid, Zion. Don’t let your hands be weak.” ¹⁷ Yahweh, your God, is among you, a mighty one who will save. He will rejoice over you with joy. He will calm you in his love. He will rejoice over you with singing. ¹⁸ I will remove those who grieve about the appointed feasts from you. They are a burden and a reproach to you. ¹⁹ Behold,[†] at that time I will deal with all those who afflict you, and I will save those who are lame, and gather those who were driven away. I will give them praise and honor, whose shame has been in all the earth. ²⁰ At that time I will bring you in, and at that time I will gather you; for I will give you honor and praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes, says Yahweh.

The Book of Haggai

1 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, Yahweh's[‡] word came by Haggai, the prophet, to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, ²“This is what Yahweh of Armies says: These people say, ‘The time hasn't yet come, the time for Yahweh's house to be built.’”

⁷This is what Yahweh of Armies says: “Consider your ways. ⁸Go up to the mountain, bring wood, and build the house. I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified,” says Yahweh. ⁹“You looked for much, and, behold,[¶] it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why?” says Yahweh of Armies, “Because of my house that lies waste, while each of you is busy with his own house. ¹⁰Therefore for your sake the heavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its fruit. ¹¹I called for a drought on the land, on the mountains, on the grain, on the new wine, on the oil, on that which the ground produces, on men, on livestock, and on all the labor of the hands.”

¹²Then Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed Yahweh, their God's[§] voice, and the words of Haggai, the prophet, as Yahweh, their God, had sent him; and the people feared Yahweh.

¹³Then Haggai, Yahweh's messenger, spoke Yahweh's message to the people, saying, “I am with you,” says Yahweh.

¹⁴Yahweh stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of Yahweh of Armies, their God, ¹⁵in the twenty-fourth day of the month, in the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

2 In the seventh month, in the twenty-first day of the month, Yahweh's word came by Haggai the prophet, saying, ²“Speak now to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying, ³‘Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Isn't it in your eyes as nothing? ⁴Yet now be strong, Zerubbabel,’ says Yahweh. ‘Be strong, Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land,’ says Yahweh, ‘and work, for I am with you,’ says Yahweh of Armies. ⁵This is the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, and my Spirit lived among you. ‘Don't be afraid.’ ⁶For this is what Yahweh of Armies says: ‘Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, the earth, the sea, and the dry land; ⁷and I will shake all nations. The precious things of all nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory, says Yahweh of Armies. ⁸The silver is mine, and the gold is mine,' says Yahweh of Armies. ⁹'The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,' says Yahweh of Armies; 'and in this place I will give peace,' says Yahweh of Armies."

¹⁰In the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, Yahweh's word came by Haggai the prophet, saying, ¹¹"Yahweh of Armies says: Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, ¹²'If someone carries holy meat in the fold of his garment, and with his fold touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any food, will it become holy?'"

The priests answered, "No."

¹³Then Haggai said, "If one who is unclean by reason of a dead body touch any of these, will it be unclean?"

The priests answered, "It will be unclean."

¹⁴Then Haggai answered, "'So is this people, and so is this nation before me,' says Yahweh; 'and so is every work of their hands. That which they offer there is unclean. ¹⁵Now, please consider from this day and backward, before a stone was laid on a stone in Yahweh's temple. ¹⁶Through all that time, when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were only ten. When one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty, there were only twenty. ¹⁷I struck you with blight, mildew, and hail in all the work of your hands; yet you didn't turn to me,' says Yahweh. ¹⁸'Consider, please, from this day and backward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, since the day that the foundation of Yahweh's temple was laid, consider it. ¹⁹Is the seed yet in the barn? Yes, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree haven't produced. From today I will bless you.'"

²⁰Yahweh's word came the second time to Haggai in the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying, ²¹"Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, 'I will shake the heavens and the earth. ²²I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms. I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. I will overthrow the chariots, and those who ride in them. The horses and their riders will come down, everyone by the sword of his brother. ²³In that day, says Yahweh of Armies, I will take you, Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel,' says Yahweh, 'and will make you as a signet, for I have chosen you,' says Yahweh of Armies."

The Book of Zechariah

1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, Yahweh's word came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, ²“Yahweh was very displeased with your fathers. ³Therefore tell them: Yahweh of Armies says: ‘Return to me,’ says Yahweh of Armies, ‘and I will return to you,’ says Yahweh of Armies. ⁴Don’t you be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed, saying: Yahweh of Armies says, ‘Return now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings;’ but they didn’t hear, nor listen to me, says Yahweh. ⁵Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? ⁶But my words and my decrees, which I commanded my servants the prophets, didn’t they overtake your fathers?”

“Then they repented and said, ‘Just as Yahweh of Armies determined to do to us, according to our ways, and according to our practices, so he has dealt with us.’” ⁷On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, Yahweh’s word came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, ⁸“I had a vision in the night, and behold,†† a man riding on a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in a ravine; and behind him there were red, brown, and white horses. ⁹Then I asked, ‘My lord, what are these?’”

The angel who talked with me said to me, “I will show you what these are.”

¹⁰The man who stood among the myrtle trees answered, “They are the ones Yahweh has sent to go back and forth through the earth.”

¹¹They reported to Yahweh’s angel who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, “We have walked back and forth through the earth, and behold, all the earth is at rest and in peace.”

¹²Then Yahweh’s angel replied, “O Yahweh of Armies, how long will you not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which you have had indignation these seventy years?”

¹³Yahweh answered the angel who talked with me with kind and comforting words. ¹⁴So the angel who talked with me said to me, “Proclaim, saying, ‘Yahweh of Armies says: “I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. ¹⁵I am very angry with the nations that are at ease; for I was but a little displeased, but they added to the calamity.” ¹⁶Therefore Yahweh says: “I have returned to Jerusalem with mercy. My house shall be built in it,” says Yahweh of Armies, “and a line shall be stretched out over Jerusalem.””

¹⁸I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, four horns. ¹⁹I asked the angel who talked with me, “What are these?”

He answered me, “These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.”

²⁰Yahweh showed me four craftsmen. ²¹Then I asked, “What are these coming to do?”

He said, “These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man lifted up his head; but these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations, which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it.”

1:1 “Yahweh” is God’s proper Name, sometimes rendered “LORD” (all caps) in other translations.

††1:8 “Behold”, from ,ׁוּבִּינְיָׁו means look at, take notice, observe, see, or gaze at. It is often used as an interjection.

2 I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand. ² Then I asked, "Where are you going?"

He said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its width and what is its length."

³ Behold, the angel who talked with me went out, and another angel went out to meet him, ⁴ and said to him, "Run, speak to this young man, saying, 'Jerusalem will be inhabited as villages without walls, because of the multitude of men and livestock in it. ⁵ For I,' says Yahweh, 'will be to her a wall of fire around it, and I will be the glory in the middle of her. ⁶ Come! Come! Flee from the land of the north,' says Yahweh; 'for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the sky,' says Yahweh. ⁷ 'Come, Zion! Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon.' ⁸ For Yahweh of Armies says: 'For honor he has sent me to the nations which plundered you; for he who touches you touches the apple of his eye. ⁹ For, behold, I will shake my hand over them, and they will be a plunder to those who served them; and you will know that Yahweh of Armies has sent me. ¹⁰ Sing and rejoice, daughter of Zion; for, behold, I come, and I will dwell within you,' says Yahweh. ¹¹ Many nations shall join themselves to Yahweh in that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell among you, and you shall know that Yahweh of Armies has sent me to you. ¹² Yahweh will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem. ¹³ Be silent, all flesh, before Yahweh; for he has roused himself from his holy habitation!"

3 He showed me Joshua the high priest standing before Yahweh's angel, and Satan standing at his right hand to be his adversary. ² Yahweh said to Satan, "Yahweh rebuke you, Satan! Yes, Yahweh who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Isn't this a burning stick plucked out of the fire?"

³ Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the angel. ⁴ He answered and spoke to those who stood before him, saying, "Take the filthy garments off him." To him he said, "Behold, I have caused your iniquity to pass from you, and I will clothe you with rich clothing."

⁵ I said, "Let them set a clean turban on his head."

So they set a clean turban on his head, and clothed him; and Yahweh's angel was standing by. ⁶ Yahweh's angel protested to Joshua, saying, ⁷ "Yahweh of Armies says: 'If you will walk in my ways, and if you will follow my instructions, then you also shall judge my house, and shall also keep my courts, and I will give you a place of access among these who stand by. ⁸ Hear now, Joshua the high priest, you and your fellows who sit before you; for they are men who are a sign: for, behold, I will bring out my servant, the Branch. ⁹ For, behold, the stone that I have set before Joshua; on one stone are seven eyes: behold, I will engrave its engraving,' says Yahweh of Armies, 'and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. ¹⁰ In that day,' says Yahweh of Armies, 'you will invite every man his neighbor under the vine and under the fig tree.'"

4 The angel who talked with me came again, and wakened me, as a man who is wakened out of his sleep. ² He said to me, "What do you see?"

I said, "I have seen, and behold, a lamp stand all of gold, with its bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps on it; there are seven pipes to each of the lamps, which are on the top of it; ³ and two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl, and the other on the left side of it."

⁴ I answered and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, "What are these, my lord?"

⁵ Then the angel who talked with me answered me, "Don't you know what these are?"

I said, "No, my lord."

⁶ Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, "This is Yahweh's word to Zerubbabel, saying, 'Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit,' says Yahweh of Armies. ⁷ Who are you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you are a plain; and he will bring out the capstone with shouts of ‘Grace, grace, to it!’”

⁸Moreover Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ⁹“The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house. His hands shall also finish it; and you will know that Yahweh of Armies has sent me to you. ¹⁰Indeed, who despises the day of small things? For these seven shall rejoice, and shall see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel. These are Yahweh’s eyes, which run back and forth through the whole earth.”

¹¹Then I asked him, “What are these two olive trees on the right side of the lamp stand and on the left side of it?”

¹²I asked him the second time, “What are these two olive branches, which are beside the two golden spouts, that pour the golden oil out of themselves?”

¹³He answered me, “Don’t you know what these are?”

I said, “No, my lord.”

¹⁴Then he said, “These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Lord [‡]of the whole earth.”

5 Then again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, a flying scroll. ²He said to me, “What do you see?”

I answered, “I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits, ^{¶¶} and its width ten cubits.”

³Then he said to me, “This is the curse that goes out over the surface of the whole land; for everyone who steals shall be cut off according to it on the one side; and everyone who swears falsely shall be cut off according to it on the other side. ⁴I will cause it to go out,” says Yahweh of Armies, “and it will enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him who swears falsely by my name; and it will remain in the middle of his house, and will destroy it with its timber and its stones.”

⁵Then the angel who talked with me came forward, and said to me, “Lift up now your eyes, and see what this is that is appearing.”

⁶I said, “What is it?”

He said, “This is the ephah ^{§§} basket that is appearing.” He said moreover, “This is their appearance in all the land ⁷ (and behold, a talent ^{*} of lead was lifted up); and this is a woman sitting in the middle of the ephah [†] basket.”

⁸He said, “This is Wickedness;” and he threw her down into the middle of the ephah basket; and he threw the weight of lead on its mouth.

⁹Then I lifted up my eyes and saw, and behold, there were two women, and the wind was in their wings. Now they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the ephah basket between earth and the sky. ¹⁰Then I said to the angel who talked with me, “Where are these carrying the ephah basket?”

¹¹He said to me, “To build her a house in the land of Shinar. When it is prepared, she will be set there in her own place.”

6 Again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, four chariots came out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of bronze. ²In the first chariot were red horses; in the second chariot black horses; ³in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot dappled horses, all of them powerful. ⁴Then I asked the angel who talked with me, “What are these, my lord?”

⁵The angel answered me, “These are the four winds of the sky, which go out from standing before the Lord of all the earth. ⁶The one with the black horses goes out toward the north country; and the white went out after them; and the dappled went out toward the south country.” ⁷The strong went out, and sought to go that they might walk back and forth through the earth; and he said, “Go around and through the earth!” So they walked back and forth through the earth.

⁸Then he called to me, and spoke to me, saying, “Behold, those who go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country.”

⁹Yahweh’s word came to me, saying, ¹⁰“Take of them of the captivity, even of Huldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah; and come the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah, where they have come from Babylon. ¹¹Yes, take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them on the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest; ¹²and speak to him, saying, ‘Yahweh of Armies says, “Behold, the man whose name is the Branch: and he shall grow up out of his place; and he shall build Yahweh’s temple; ¹³even he shall build Yahweh’s temple; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule on his throne; and he shall be a priest on his throne; and the counsel of peace shall be between them both. ¹⁴The crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in Yahweh’s temple. ¹⁵Those who are far off shall come and build in Yahweh’s temple; and you shall know that Yahweh of Armies has sent me to you. This will happen, if you will diligently obey Yahweh your God’s voice.’””[‡]

7 In the fourth year of king Darius, Yahweh’s word came to Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, the month of Chislev. ²The people of Bethel sent Sharezer and Regem Melech, and their men, to entreat Yahweh’s favor, ³and to speak to the priests of the house of Yahweh of Armies, and to the prophets, saying, “Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?”

⁴Then the word of Yahweh of Armies came to me, saying, ⁵“Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, ‘When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh month for these seventy years, did you at all fast to me, really to me? ⁶When you eat, and when you drink, don’t you eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? ⁷Aren’t these the words which Yahweh proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and its cities around her, and the South and the lowland were inhabited?’”

⁸Yahweh’s word came to Zechariah, saying, ⁹“Thus has Yahweh of Armies spoken, saying, ‘Execute true judgment, and show kindness and compassion every man to his brother. ¹⁰Don’t oppress the widow, nor the fatherless, the foreigner, nor the poor; and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart.’ ¹¹But they refused to listen, and turned their backs, and stopped their ears, that they might not hear. ¹²Yes, they made their hearts as hard as flint, lest they might hear the law, and the words which Yahweh of Armies had sent by his Spirit by the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from Yahweh of Armies. ¹³It has come to pass that, as he called, and they refused to listen, so they will call, and I will not listen,” said Yahweh of Armies; ¹⁴“but I will scatter them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after them, so that no man passed through nor returned: for they made the pleasant land desolate.”

8 The word of Yahweh of Armies came to me. ²Yahweh of Armies says: “I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath.”

³Yahweh says: “I have returned to Zion, and will dwell in the middle of Jerusalem. Jerusalem shall be called ‘The City of Truth;’

[‡]6:15 The Hebrew word rendered “God” is “ֵלֹהִים” (Elohim).

and the mountain of Yahweh of Armies, "The Holy Mountain."

⁴Yahweh of Armies says: "Old men and old women will again dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, every man with his staff in his hand for very age. ⁵The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in its streets."

⁶Yahweh of Armies says: "If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvelous in my eyes?" says Yahweh of Armies.

⁷Yahweh of Armies says: "Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country; ⁸and I will bring them, and they will dwell within Jerusalem; and they will be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness."

⁹Yahweh of Armies says: "Let your hands be strong, you who hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets who were in the day that the foundation of the house of Yahweh of Armies was laid, even the temple, that it might be built. ¹⁰For before those days there was no wages for man, nor any wages for an animal; neither was there any peace to him who went out or came in, because of the adversary. For I set all men everyone against his neighbor. ¹¹But now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in the former days," says Yahweh of Armies. ¹²"For the seed of peace and the vine will yield its fruit, and the ground will give its increase, and the heavens will give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things. ¹³It shall come to pass that, as you were a curse among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you, and you shall be a blessing. Don't be afraid. Let your hands be strong."

¹⁴For Yahweh of Armies says: "As I thought to do evil to you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath," says Yahweh of Armies, "and I didn't repent; ¹⁵so again I have thought in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Don't be afraid. ¹⁶These are the things that you shall do: speak every man the truth with his neighbor. Execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates, ¹⁷and let none of you devise evil in your hearts against his neighbor, and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate," says Yahweh.

¹⁸The word of Yahweh of Armies came to me. ¹⁹Yahweh of Armies says: "The fasts of the fourth, fifth, seventh, and tenth months shall be for the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts. Therefore love truth and peace."

²⁰Yahweh of Armies says: "Many peoples, and the inhabitants of many cities will yet come; ²¹and the inhabitants of one shall go to another, saying, 'Let's go speedily to entreat the favor of Yahweh, and to seek Yahweh of Armies. I will go also.' ²²Yes, many peoples and strong nations will come to seek Yahweh of Armies in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of Yahweh." ²³Yahweh of Armies says: "In those days, ten men will take hold, out of all the languages of the nations, they will take hold of the skirt of him who is a Jew, saying, 'We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.'"

9 A revelation.
Yahweh's word is against the land of Hadrach,
and will rest upon Damascus;
for the eye of man and of all the tribes of Israel is toward
Yahweh;
²and Hamath, also, which borders on it;
Tyre and Sidon, because they are very wise.
³Tyre built herself a stronghold, and heaped up silver like the dust,
and fine gold like the mire of the streets.
⁴Behold, the Lord will dispossess her,
and he will strike her power in the sea;
and she will be devoured with fire.
⁵Ashkelon will see it, and fear;
Gaza also, and will writhe in agony;
as will Ekron, for her expectation will be disappointed;
and the king will perish from Gaza,

and Ashkelon will not be inhabited.

⁶ Foreigners will dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

⁷ I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth;
and he also will be a remnant for our God;
and he will be as a chieftain in Judah,
and Ekron as a Jebusite.

⁸ I will encamp around my house against the army,
that no one pass through or return;
and no oppressor will pass through them any more:

for now I have seen with my eyes.

⁹ Rejoice greatly, daughter of Zion!

Shout, daughter of Jerusalem!

Behold, your King comes to you!

He is righteous, and having salvation;
lowly, and riding on a donkey,
even on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

¹⁰ I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim,
and the horse from Jerusalem;
and the battle bow will be cut off;
and he will speak peace to the nations:
and his dominion will be from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.

¹¹ As for you also,
because of the blood of your covenant,
I have set free your prisoners from the pit in which is no water.

¹² Turn to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope!
Even today I declare that I will restore double
to you.

¹³ For indeed I bend Judah as a bow for me.
I have filled the bow with Ephraim;
and I will stir up your sons, Zion, against your sons, Greece,
and will make you like the sword of a mighty
man.

¹⁴ Yahweh will be seen over them;
and his arrow will go flash like lightning;
and the Lord Yahweh will blow the trumpet,

and will go with whirlwinds of the south.

¹⁵ Yahweh of Armies will defend them;
and they will destroy and overcome with sling stones;

and they will drink, and roar as through wine;
and they will be filled like bowls,
like the corners of the altar.

¹⁶ Yahweh their God will save them in that day
as the flock of his people;
for they are like the jewels of a crown, lifted on high over his land.

¹⁷ For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty!

Grain will make the young men flourish,
and new wine the virgins.

10 Ask of Yahweh rain in the spring time, Yahweh who makes storm clouds, and he gives rain showers to everyone for the plants in the field.

² For the teraphim[¶] I have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie;
and they have told false dreams.
They comfort in vain.

Therefore they go their way like sheep.
They are oppressed, because there is no shepherd.

³ My anger is kindled against the shepherds,
and I will punish the male goats;
For Yahweh of Armies has visited his flock,
the house of Judah,
and will make them as his majestic horse in the battle.

⁴ From him will come the cornerstone,
from him the nail,
from him the battle bow,
from him every ruler together.

⁵ They shall be as mighty men, treading down muddy streets in the battle;
and they shall fight, because Yahweh is with
them;

and the riders on horses will be confounded.

⁶ "I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph,

[¶]10:2 teraphim were household idols that may have been associated with inheritance rights to the household property.

and I will bring them back;
for I have mercy on them;
and they will be as though I had not cast them
off:

for I am Yahweh their God, and I will hear
them.

⁷ Ephraim will be like a mighty man,
and their heart will rejoice as through wine;
yes, their children will see it, and rejoice.
Their heart will be glad in Yahweh.

⁸ I will signal for them, and gather them;
for I have redeemed them;
and they will increase as they have increased.

⁹ I will sow them among the peoples;
and they will remember me in far countries;
and they will live with their children, and will return.

¹⁰ I will bring them again also out of the land
of Egypt,
and gather them out of Assyria;
and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon;

and there won't be room enough for them.

¹¹ He will pass through the sea of affliction, and will strike the waves in the sea,
and all the depths of the Nile will dry up;
and the pride of Assyria will be brought down,
and the scepter of Egypt will depart.

¹² I will strengthen them in Yahweh;
and they will walk up and down in his name,"
says Yahweh.

11 Open your doors, Lebanon, that the fire may devour your cedars.

² Wail, cypress tree, for the cedar has fallen,
because the stately ones are destroyed.

Wail, you oaks of Bashan,
for the strong forest has come down.

³ A voice of the wailing of the shepherds!
For their glory is destroyed: a voice of the roaring of young lions!

For the pride of the Jordan is ruined.

⁴ Yahweh my God says: "Feed the flock of slaughter. ⁵ Their buyers slaughter them, and go unpunished. Those who sell them say,
'Blessed be Yahweh, for I am rich;' and their own shepherds don't pity them. ⁶ For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land," says Yahweh; "but, behold, I will deliver the men everyone into his neighbor's hand, and into the hand of his king. They will strike the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them."

⁷ So I fed the flock of slaughter, especially the oppressed of the flock. I took for myself two staffs. The one I called "Favor", and the other I called "Union", and I fed the flock. ⁸ I cut off the three shepherds in one month; for my soul was weary of them, and their soul also loathed me. ⁹ Then I said, "I will not feed you.
That which dies, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let those who are left eat each other's flesh." ¹⁰ I took my staff Favor, and cut it apart, that I might break my covenant that I had made with all the peoples. ¹¹ It was broken in that day; and thus the poor of the flock that listened to me knew that it was Yahweh's word. ¹² I said to them,
"If you think it best, give me my wages; and if not, keep them." So they weighed for my wages thirty pieces of silver. ¹³ Yahweh said to me, "Throw it to the potter, the handsome price that I was valued at by them!" I took the thirty pieces of silver, and threw them to the potter, in Yahweh's house. ¹⁴ Then I cut apart my other staff, even Union, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

¹⁵ Yahweh said to me, "Take for yourself
yet again the equipment of a foolish shepherd.
¹⁶ For, behold, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will not visit those who are cut off, neither will seek those who are scattered, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which is sound; but he will eat the meat of the fat sheep, and will tear their hoofs in pieces.
¹⁷ Woe to the worthless shepherd who leaves the flock! The sword will be on his arm, and on his right eye. His arm will be completely withered, and his right eye will be totally blinded!"

12 A revelation, Yahweh's word concerning Israel. Yahweh, who stretches out the heavens, and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him says: ² "Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of reeling to all the surrounding peoples, and it will also be on Judah in the siege against Jerusalem. ³ It will happen in that day, that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all the peoples. All who burden themselves with it will be severely wounded, and all the nations of the earth will be gathered together against it. ⁴ In that day," says Yahweh, "I will strike every horse with terror, and his rider with madness; and I will open my eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness. ⁵ The chieftains of Judah will say in their heart, "The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in Yahweh of Armies their God." ⁶ In that day I will make the chieftains of Judah like a pan of fire among wood, and like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they will devour all the surrounding peoples, on the right hand and on the left; and Jerusalem will yet again dwell in their own place, even in Jerusalem. ⁷ Yahweh also will save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of David's house and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem not be magnified above Judah. ⁸ In that day Yahweh will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem. He who is feeble among them at that day will be like David, and David's house will be like God, like Yahweh's angel before them. ⁹ It will happen in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. ¹⁰ I will pour on David's house, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplication; and they will look to me^s whom they have pierced; and they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for his only son, and will grieve bitterly for him, as one grieves for his firstborn. ¹¹ In that day there will be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. ¹² The land will mourn, every family apart; the family of David's house apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart; ¹³ the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of the Shimeites apart, and their wives apart; ¹⁴ all the families who remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

13 "In that day there will be a spring opened to David's house and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness. ² It will come to pass in that day, says Yahweh of Armies, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they will be remembered no more. I will also cause the prophets and the spirit of impurity to pass out of the land. ³ It will happen that, when anyone still prophesies, then his father and his mother who bore him will tell him, 'You must die, because you speak lies in Yahweh's name;' and his father and his mother who bore him will stab him when he prophesies. ⁴ It will happen in that day, that the prophets will each be ashamed of his vision, when he prophesies; neither will they wear a hairy mantle to deceive: ⁵ but he will say, 'I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the ground; for I have been made a bondservant from my youth.' ⁶ One will say to him, 'What are these wounds between your arms?' Then he will answer, 'Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.'

⁷ "Awake, sword, against my shepherd, and against the man who is close to me," says Yahweh of Armies.

"Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered;

and I will turn my hand against the little ones.

⁸ It shall happen that in all the land," says Yahweh,

"two parts in it will be cut off and die; but the third will be left in it.

⁹ I will bring the third part into the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will test them like gold is tested.

§12:10 After "me", the Hebrew has the two letters "Aleph Tav" (the first and last letters of the Hebrew alphabet), not as a word, but as a grammatical marker.

They will call on my name, and I will hear them.

I will say, 'It is my people;' and they will say, 'Yahweh is my God.'"

14 Behold, a day of Yahweh comes, when your plunder will be divided within you.

² For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city will be taken, the houses rifled, and the women ravished. Half of the city will go out into captivity, and the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city.

³ Then Yahweh will go out and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. ⁴ His feet will stand in that day on the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be split in two, from east to west, making a very great valley. Half of the mountain will move toward the north, and half of it toward the south. ⁵ You shall flee by the valley of my mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azel; yes, you shall flee, just like you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Yahweh my God will come, and all the holy ones with you. ⁶ It will happen in that day, that there will not be light, cold, or frost. ⁷ It will be a unique day which is known to Yahweh; not day, and not night; but it will come to pass, that at evening time there will be light.

⁸ It will happen in that day, that living waters will go out from Jerusalem: half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea. It will be so in summer and in winter.

⁹ Yahweh will be King over all the earth. In that day Yahweh will be one, and his name one. ¹⁰ All the land will be made like the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem; and she will be lifted up, and will dwell in her place, from Benjamin's gate to the place of the first gate, to the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananel to the king's wine presses. ¹¹ Men will dwell therein, and there will be no more curse; but Jerusalem will dwell safely. ¹² This will be the plague with which Yahweh will strike all the peoples who have fought against Jerusalem: their flesh will consume away while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will consume away in their sockets, and their tongue will consume away in their mouth. ¹³ It will happen in that day, that a great panic from Yahweh will be among them; and they will each hold onto the hand of his neighbor, and his hand will rise up against the hand of his neighbor. ¹⁴ Judah also will fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered together: gold, and silver, and clothing, in great abundance.

¹⁵ A plague like this will fall on the horse, on the mule, on the camel, on the donkey, and on all the animals that will be in those camps. ¹⁶ It will happen that everyone who is left of all the nations that came against Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, Yahweh of Armies, and to keep the feast of booths. ¹⁷ It will be, that whoever of all the families of the earth doesn't go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, Yahweh of Armies, on them there will be no rain. ¹⁸ If the family of Egypt doesn't go up, and doesn't come, neither will it rain on them. This will be the plague with which Yahweh will strike the nations that don't go up to keep the feast of booths. ¹⁹ This will be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all the nations that don't go up to keep the feast of booths. ²⁰ In that day there will be on the bells of the horses, "HOLY TO YAHWEH"; and the pots in Yahweh's house will be like the bowls before the altar. ²¹ Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to Yahweh of Armies; and all those who sacrifice will come and take of them, and cook in them. In that day there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of Yahweh of Armies.

14:5 Septuagint reads "him" instead of "you".

The Book of Malachi

1 A revelation, Yahweh's†† word to Israel by Malachi.

² "I have loved you," says Yahweh.

Yet you say, "How have you loved us?"

"Wasn't Esau Jacob's brother?" says Yahweh, "Yet I loved Jacob; ³ but Esau I hated, and made his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to the jackals of the wilderness." ⁴ Whereas Edom says, "We are beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places;" Yahweh of Armies says, "They shall build, but I will throw down; and men will call them 'The Wicked Land,' even the people against whom Yahweh shows wrath forever."

⁵ Your eyes will see, and you will say, "Yahweh is great—even beyond the border of Israel!"

⁶ "A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If I am a father, then where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is the respect due me? Says Yahweh of Armies to you, priests, who despise my name. You say, 'How have we despised your name?' ⁷ You offer polluted bread on my altar. You say, 'How have we polluted you?' In that you say, 'Yahweh's table is contemptible.' ⁸ When you offer the blind for sacrifice, isn't that evil? And when you offer the lame and sick, isn't that evil? Present it now to your governor! Will he be pleased with you? Or will he accept your person?" says Yahweh of Armies.

⁹ "Now, please entreat the favor of God,‡‡ that he may be gracious to us. With this, will he accept any of you?" says Yahweh of Armies.

¹⁰ "Oh that there were one among you who would shut the doors, that you might not kindle fire on my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you," says Yahweh of Armies, "neither will I accept an offering at your hand. ¹¹ For from the rising of the sun even to its going down, my name is great among the nations, and in every place incense will be offered to my name, and a pure offering: for my name is great among the nations," says Yahweh of Armies. ¹² "But you profane it, in that you say, 'Yahweh's table is polluted, and its fruit, even its food, is contemptible.' ¹³ You say also, 'Behold,‡‡ what a weariness it is!' and you have sniffed at it", says Yahweh of Armies; "and you have brought that which was taken by violence, the lame, and the sick; thus you bring the offering. Should I accept this at your hand?" says Yahweh.

2 "Now, you priests, this commandment is for you. ² If you will not listen, and if you will not take it to heart, to give glory to my name," says Yahweh of Armies, "then I will send the curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have cursed them already, because you do not take it to heart. ³ Behold, I will rebuke your offspring,* and will spread dung on your faces, even the dung of your feasts; and you will be taken away with it. ⁴ You will know that I have sent this commandment to you, that my covenant may be with Levi," says Yahweh of Armies. ⁵ "My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him that he might be reverent toward me; and he was reverent toward me, and stood in awe of my name. ⁶The law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many away from iniquity. ⁷For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of Yahweh of Armies. ⁸But you have turned away from the path. You have caused many to stumble in the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," says Yahweh of Armies. ⁹"Therefore I have also made you contemptible and wicked before all the people, according to the way you have not kept my ways, but have had respect for persons in the law. ¹⁰Don't we all have one father? Hasn't one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers? ¹¹Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the holiness of Yahweh which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. ¹²Yahweh will cut off, to the man who does this, him who wakes and him who answers, out of the tents of Jacob, and him who offers an offering to Yahweh of Armies. ¹³This again you do: you cover Yahweh's altar with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, because he doesn't regard the offering any more, neither receives it with good will at your hand. ¹⁴Yet you say, 'Why?' Because Yahweh has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously, though she is your companion, and the wife of your covenant. ¹⁵Did he not make you one, although he had the residue of the Spirit? Why one? He sought godly offspring. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let no one deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. ¹⁶One who hates and divorces", says Yahweh, the God of Israel, "covers his garment with violence!" says Yahweh of Armies.

"Therefore pay attention to your spirit, that you don't be unfaithful. ¹⁷You have wearied Yahweh with your words. Yet you say, 'How have we wearied him?' In that you say, 'Everyone who does evil is good in Yahweh's sight, and he delights in them;' or 'Where is the God of justice?'"

3 "Behold, I send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me; and the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, behold, he comes!" says Yahweh of Armies. ²"But who can endure the day of his coming? And who will stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire, and like launderers' soap; ³and he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver; and they shall offer to Yahweh offerings in righteousness. ⁴Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasant to Yahweh, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years. ⁵I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against the perjurers, and against those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and who deprive the foreigner of justice, and don't fear me," says Yahweh of Armies. ⁶"For I, Yahweh, don't change; therefore you, sons of Jacob, are not consumed. ⁷From the days of your fathers you have turned away from my ordinances, and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you," says Yahweh of Armies. "But you say, 'How shall we return?'" ⁸Will a man rob God? Yet you rob me! But you say, 'How have we robbed you?' In tithes and offerings. ⁹You are cursed with the curse; for you rob me, even this whole nation. ¹⁰Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and test me now in this," says Yahweh of Armies, "if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there will not be room enough for. ¹¹I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast its fruit before its time in the field," says Yahweh of Armies. ¹² "All nations shall call you blessed, for you will be a delightful land," says Yahweh of Armies.

¹³ "Your words have been stout against me," says Yahweh. "Yet you say, 'What have we spoken against you?' ¹⁴ You have said, 'It is vain to serve God;' and 'What profit is it that we have followed his instructions, and that we have walked mournfully before Yahweh of Armies? ¹⁵ Now we call the proud happy; yes, those who work wickedness are built up; yes, they tempt God, and escape.' ¹⁶ Then those who feared Yahweh spoke one with another; and Yahweh listened, and heard, and a book of memory was written before him, for those who feared Yahweh, and who honored his name. ¹⁷ They shall be mine," says Yahweh of Armies, "my own possession in the day that I make, and I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him. ¹⁸ Then you shall return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who doesn't serve him.

4 "For, behold, the day comes, it burns as a furnace; and all the proud, and all who work wickedness, will be stubble; and the day that comes will burn them up," says Yahweh of Armies, "that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. ² But to you who fear my name shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in its wings. You will go out, and leap like calves of the stall. ³ You shall tread down the wicked; for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I make," says Yahweh of Armies.

⁴ "Remember the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded to him in Horeb for all Israel, even statutes and ordinances. ⁵ Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and terrible day of Yahweh comes. ⁶ He will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse."

TOBIT

Tobit is recognized as Deuterocanonical Scripture by the Roman Catholic, Greek Orthodox, and Russian Orthodox Churches.

1 The book of the words of Tobit, the son of Tobiel, the son of Ananiel, the son of Aduel, the son of Gabael, of the seed of Asiel, of the tribe of Naphtali; ² who in the days of Enemessar† king of the Assyrians was carried away captive out of Thisbe, which is on the right hand of Kedesh Naphtali in Galilee above Asher.

³ I, Tobit walked in the ways of truth and righteousness all the days of my life, and I did many alms deeds to my kindred and my nation, who went with me into the land of the Assyrians, to Nineveh. ⁴ When I was in my own country, in the land of Israel, while I was yet young, all the tribe of Naphtali my father fell away from the house of Jerusalem, which was chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, that all the tribes should sacrifice there, and the temple of the habitation of the Most High was hallowed and built therein for all ages. ⁵ All the tribes which fell away together sacrificed to the heifer Baal, and so did the house of Naphtali my father. ⁶ I alone went often to Jerusalem at the feasts, as it has been ordained to all Israel by an everlasting decree, having the first fruits and the tenths of my increase, and that which was first shorn; and I gave them at the altar to the priests the sons of Aaron. ⁷ I gave a tenth part of all my increase to the sons of Levi, who ministered at Jerusalem. A second tenth part I sold away, and went, and spent it each year at Jerusalem. ⁸ A third tenth I gave to them to whom it was appropriate, as Deborah my father's mother had commanded me, because I was left an orphan by my father. ⁹ When I became a man, I took as wife Anna of the seed of our own family. With her, I became the father of Tobias. ¹⁰ When I was carried away captive to Nineveh, all my kindred and my relatives ate of the bread of the Gentiles; ¹¹ but I kept myself from eating, ¹² because I remembered God with all my soul. ¹³ So the Most High gave me grace and favor‡ in the sight of Enemessar, and I was his purchasing agent. ¹⁴ And I went into Media, and left ten talents of silver in trust with Gabael, the brother of Gabrias, at Rages of Media.

¹⁵ And when Enemessar was dead, Sennacherib his son reigned in his place. In his time, the highways were troubled,¶ and I could no longer go into Media. ¹⁶ In the days of Enemessar, I did many alms deeds to my kindred: I gave my bread to the hungry, ¹⁷ and my garments to the naked. If I saw any of my race dead, and thrown out on§ the wall of Ninevah, I buried him. ¹⁸ If Sennacherib the king killed any, when he came fleeing from Judea, I buried them privately; for in his wrath he killed many; and the bodies were sought for by the king, and were not found. ¹⁹ But one of the Ninevites went and showed to the king concerning me, how I buried them, and hid myself; and when I knew that I was sought for to be put to death, I withdrew myself for fear. ²⁰ And all my goods were forcibly taken away, and there was nothing left to me, save my wife Anna and my son Tobias. ²¹ No more than fifty five days passed before two of his sons killed him, and they fled into the mountains of Ararat. And Sarchedonus his son reigned in his place; and he appointed Achiacharus my brother Anael's son over all the accounts of his kingdom, and over all his affairs. ²² Achiacharus requested me, and I came to Nineveh.

Now Achiacharus was cupbearer, keeper of the signet, steward, and overseer of the accounts. Sarchedonus appointed him next to himself, but he was my brother's son.

2 Now when I had come home again, and my wife Anna was restored to me, and my son Tobias, in the feast of Pentecost, which is the holy feast of the seven weeks, there was a good dinner prepared me, and I sat down to eat. 2 I saw abundance of meat, and I said to my son, "Go and bring whatever poor man you find of our kindred, who is mindful of the Lord. Behold, I wait for you."

3 Then he came, and said, "Father, one of our race is strangled, and has been cast out in the marketplace." 4 Before I had tasted anything, I sprang up, and took him up into a chamber until the sun had set. 5 Then I returned, washed myself, ate my bread in heaviness, 6 and remembered the prophecy of Amos, as he said,

^b"Your feasts will be turned into mourning, and all your mirth into lamentation.

7 So I wept: and when the sun had set, I went and dug a grave, and buried him. 8 My neighbors mocked me, and said, "He is no longer afraid to be put to death for this matter; and yet he fled away. Behold, he buries the dead again."⁹ The same night I returned from burying him, and slept by the wall of my courtyard, being polluted; and my face was uncovered. 10 I didn't know that there were sparrows in the wall. My eyes were open and the sparrows dropped warm dung into my eyes, and white films came over my eyes. I went to the physicians, and they didn't help me; but Achiacharus nourished me, until I went^{††} into Elymais.

11 My wife Anna wove cloth in the women's chambers, 12 and sent the work back to the owners. They on their part paid her wages, and also gave her a kid. 13 But when it came to my house, it began to cry, and I said to her, Where did this kid come from? Is it stolen? Give it back to the owners; for it is not lawful to eat anything that is stolen. 14 But she said, "It has been given to me for a gift more than the wages."

I didn't believe her, and I asked her to return it to the owners; and I was ashamed of her.

But she answered and said to me, "Where are your alms and your righteous deeds? Behold, you and all your works are known.^{‡‡}"

3 I was grieved and wept, and prayed in sorrow, saying,

2 "O Lord, you are righteous, and all your works and all your ways are mercy and truth, and you judge true and righteous judgement forever. 3 Remember me, and look at me. Don't take vengeance on me for my sins and my ignorances, and the sins of my fathers who sinned before you. 4 For they disobeyed your commandments. You gave us as plunder, for captivity, for death, and for a proverb of reproach to all the nations among whom we are dispersed. 5 Now your judgments are many and true; that you should deal with me according to my sins and the sins of my fathers; because we didn't keep your commandments, for we didn't walk in truth before you. 6 Now deal with me according to that which is pleasing in your sight. Command my spirit to be taken from me, that I may be released, and become earth. For it is more profitable for me to die rather than to live, because I have heard false reproaches, and there is much sorrow in me. Command that I be released from my distress, now, and go to the everlasting place. Don't turn your face away from me."

7 The same day it happened to Sarah the daughter of Raguel in Ecbatana of Media, that she also was reproached by her father's maid-servants; 8 because that she had been given to seven husbands, and Asmodaeus the evil spirit^{¶¶} killed them, before they had lain with her. And they said to her, “Do you not know that you strangle your husbands? You have had already seven husbands, and you haven’t borne the name of any one of them. ⁹Why do you scourge us? If they are dead, go your ways with them. Let us never see either son or daughter from you.” ¹⁰When she heard these things, she was grieved exceedingly, so that she thought about hanging herself. Then she said, “I am the only daughter of my father. If I do this, it will be a reproach to him, and I will bring down his old age with sorrow to the grave.^{§§}” ¹¹Then she prayed by the window, and said, “Blessed are you, O Lord my God, and blessed is your holy and honorable name forever! Let all your works praise you forever! ¹²And now, Lord, I have set my eyes and my face toward you. ¹³Command that I be released from the earth, and that I no longer hear reproach. ¹⁴You know, Lord, that I am pure from all sin with man, ¹⁵and that I never polluted my name or the name of my father, in the land of my captivity. I am the only daughter of my father, and he has no child that will be his heir, nor brother near him, nor son belonging to him, that I should keep myself for a wife to him. Seven husbands of mine are dead already. Why should I live? If it doesn’t please you to kill me, command some regard to be had of me, and pity taken of me, and that I hear no more reproach.”

¹⁶The prayer of both was heard before the glory of the great God. ¹⁷Raphael also was sent to heal them both, to scale away the white films from Tobit’s eyes, and to give Sarah the daughter of Raguel for a wife to Tobias the son of Tobit; and to bind Asmodaeus the evil spirit^{*}; because it belonged to Tobias that he should inherit her. At that very time, Tobit returned and entered into his house, and Sarah the daughter of Raguel came down from her upper chamber.

4 In that day Tobit remembered the money which he had left in trust with Gabael in Rages of Media, ²and he said to himself, I have asked for death; why do I not call my son Tobias, that I may explain to him about the money before I die? ³And he called him, and said,

“My child, if I die, bury me. Don’t despise your mother. Honor her all the days of your life, and do that which is pleasing to her, and don’t grieve her. ⁴Remember, my child, that she has seen many dangers for you, when you were in her womb. When she is dead, bury her by me in one grave. ⁵My child, be mindful of the Lord our God all your days, and don’t let your will be set to sin and to transgress his commandments: do righteousness all the days of your life, and don’t follow the ways of unrighteousness. ⁶For if you do what is true, your deeds will prosperously succeed for you, and for all those who do righteousness. ⁷Give alms from your possessions. When you give alms, don’t let your eye be envious. Don’t turn away your face from any poor man, and the face of God won’t be turned away from you. ⁸As your possessions are, give alms of it according to your abundance. If you have little, don’t be afraid to give alms according to that little; ⁹for you lay up a good treasure for yourself against the day of necessity; ¹⁰because alms-giving delivers from death, and doesn’t allow you to come into darkness. ¹¹Alms is a good gift in the sight of the Most High for all that give it. ¹²Beware, my child, of all whoredom, and take first a wife of the seed of your fathers. Don’t take a strange wife, who is not of your father’s tribe; for we are the descendants of the prophets. Remember, my child, that Noah, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, our fathers of old time, all took wives of their kindred, and were blessed in their children, and their seed will inherit the land. ¹³ And now, my child, love your kindred, and don't scorn your kindred and the sons and the daughters of your people in your heart, to take a wife of them; for in scornfulness is destruction and much trouble, and in naughtiness is decay and great lack; for naughtiness is the mother of famine. ¹⁴ Don't let the wages of any man who works for you wait with you, but give it to him out of hand. If you serve God, you will be rewarded. Take heed to yourself, my child, in all your works, and be discreet in all your behavior. ¹⁵ And what you yourself hate, do to no man. Don't drink wine to drunkenness, and don't let drunkenness go with you on your way. ¹⁶ Give of your bread to the hungry, and of your garments to those who are naked. Give alms from all your abundance. Don't let your eye be envious when you give alms. ¹⁷ Pour out your bread on the burial[†] of the just, and give nothing to sinners. ¹⁸ Ask counsel of every man who is wise, and don't despise any counsel that is profitable. ¹⁹ Bless the Lord your God at all times, and ask of him that your ways may be made straight, and that all your paths and counsels may prosper; for every nation has no counsel; but the Lord himself gives all good things, and he humbles whom he will, as he will. And now, my child, remember my commandments, and let them not be blotted out of your mind. ²⁰ And now I explain to you about the ten talents of silver, which I left in trust with Gabael the son of Gabrias at Rages of Media. ²¹ And fear not, my child, because we are made poor. You have much wealth, if you fear God, and depart from all sin, and do that which is pleasing in his sight."

5 Then Tobias answered and said to him, "Father, I will do all things, whatever you have commanded me. ² But how could I receive the money, since I don't know him?"

³ He gave him the handwriting, and said to him, "Seek a man who will go with you, and I will give him wages, while I yet live; and go and receive the money."

⁴ He went to seek a man, and found Raphael who was an angel; ⁵ and he didn't know it. He said to him, "Can I go with you to Rages of Media? Do you know those places well?"

⁶ The angel said to him, "I will go with you. I know the way well. I have lodged with our brother Gabael."

⁷ Tobias said to him, "Wait for me, and I will tell my father."

⁸ He said to him, "Go, and don't wait. And he went in and said to his father, "Behold, I have found someone who will go with me."

But he said, "Call him to me, that I may know of what tribe he is, and whether he be a trustworthy man to go with you."

⁹ So he called him, and he came in, and they saluted one another. ¹⁰ And Tobit said to him, "Brother, of what tribe and of what family are you? Tell me."

¹¹ He said to him, "Do you seek a tribe and a family, or a hired man which will go with your son?"

And Tobit said to him, "I want to know, brother, your kindred and your name."

¹² And he said, "I am Azarias, the son of Ananias the great, of your kindred."

¹³ And he said to him, "Welcome, brother. Don't be angry with me, because I sought to know your tribe and family. You are my brother, of an honest and good lineage; for I knew Ananias and Jathan, the sons of She-maiah the great, when we went together to Jerusalem to worship, and offered the first-born, and the tenths of our increase; and they didn't go astray in the error of our kindred. My brother, you are of a great stock. ¹⁴ But tell me, what wages shall I give you? A drachma a day, and those things that be necessary for you, as to my son? ¹⁵ And moreover, if you both return safe and sound, I will add something to your wages."

[†]4:17 Or, tomb

16 And so they agreed. And he said to Tobias, "Prepare yourself for the journey. May God prosper you." So his son prepared what was needful for the journey, and his father said to him, "Go with this man; but God, who dwells in heaven, will prosper your journey. May his angel go with you."

Then they both departed, and the young man's dog went with them. 17 But Anna his mother wept, and said to Tobit, "Why have you sent away our child? Isn't he the staff of our hand, in going in and out before us? 18 Don't be greedy to add money to money; but let it be as refuse compared to our child. 19 For what the Lord has given us to live is enough for us."

20 Tobit said to her, "Don't worry, my sister. He will return safe and sound, and your eyes will see him. 21 For a good angel will go with him. His journey will be prospered, and he will return safe and sound."

22 So she stopped weeping.

6 Now as they went on their journey, they came at evening to the river Tigris, and they lodged there. 2 But the young man went down to wash himself, and a fish leaped out of the river, and would have swallowed up the young man. 3 But the angel said to him, "Grab the fish!"

So the young man grabbed the fish, and hauled it up onto the land.

4 And the angel said to him, "Cut the fish open, and take the heart, the liver, and the bile, and keep them with you." 5 And the young man did as the angel commanded him; but they roasted the fish, and ate it. And they both went on their way, till they drew near to Ecbatana.

6 The young man said to the angel, "Brother Azarias, of what use is the heart, the liver, and the bile of the fish?"

7 He said to him, "About the heart and the liver: If a demon or an evil spirit troubles anyone, we must burn those and make smoke of them before the man or the woman, and the affliction will flee. 8 But as for the bile, it is good to anoint a man that has white films in his eyes, and he will be healed."

9 But when they drew near to Rages, 10 the angel said to the young man, "Brother, today we will lodge with Raguel. He is your kinsman. He has an only daughter named Sarah. I will speak about her, that she should be given to you for a wife. 11 For her inheritance belongs to you, and you only are of her kindred. 12 The maid is fair and wise. And now hear me, and I will speak to her father. When we return from Rages we will celebrate the marriage; for I know that Raguel may in no way marry her to another according to the law of Moses, or else he would be liable to death, because it belongs to you to take the inheritance, rather than any other."

13 Then the young man said to the angel, "Brother Azarias, I have heard that this maid has been given to seven men, and that they all perished in the bride-chamber. 14 Now I am the only son of my father, and I am afraid, lest I go in and die, even as those before me. For a demon loves her, which harms no man, but those which come to her. Now I fear lest I die, and bring my father's and my mother's life to the grave with sorrow because of me. They have no other son to bury them."

15 But the angel said to him, "Don't you remember the words which your father commanded you, that you should take a wife of your own kindred? Now hear me, brother; for she will be your wife. Don't worry about the demon; for this night she will be given you as wife. 16 And when you come into the bride-chamber, you shall take the ashes of incense, and shall lay upon them some of the heart and liver of the fish, and shall make smoke with them. 17 The demon will smell it, and flee away, and never come again any more. But when you go near to her, both of you rise up, and cry to God who is merciful. He will save you, and have mercy on you. Don't be afraid, for she was prepared for you from the beginning; and you will save her, and she will go with you. And I suppose that you will have children with her."

When Tobias heard these things, he loved her, and his soul was strongly joined to her.

7 They came to Ecbatana, and arrived at the house of Raguel. But Sarah met them; and she greeted them, and they her. Then she brought them into the house. ² Raguel said to Edna his wife, "This young man really resembles Tobit my cousin!" ³ And Raguel asked them, "Where are you two from, kindred?"

They said to him, "We are of the sons of Naphtali, who are captives in Nineveh."

⁴ He said to them, "Do you know Tobit our brother?"

They said, "We know him."

Then he said to them, "Is he in good health?"

⁵ They said, "He is both alive, and in good health." Tobias said, "He is my father."

⁶ And Raguel sprang up, and kissed him, wept, ⁷ blessed him, and said to him, "You are the son of an honest and good man." When he had heard that Tobit had lost his sight, he was grieved, and wept; ⁸ and Edna his wife and Sarah his daughter wept. They received them gladly; and they killed a ram of the flock, and served them meat.

But Tobias said to Raphael, "Brother Azarias, speak of those things of which you talked about in the way, and let the matter be finished."

⁹ So he communicated the thing to Raguel. Raguel said to Tobias, "Eat, drink, and make merry: ¹⁰ for it belongs to you to take my child. However I will tell you the truth. ¹¹ I have given my child to seven men, and whenever they came in to her, they died in the night. But for the present be merry."

And Tobias said, "I will taste nothing here, until you all make a covenant and enter into that covenant with me."

¹² Raguel said, "Take her to yourself from now on according to custom. You are her relative, and she is yours. The merciful God will give all good success to you." ¹³ And he called his daughter Sarah, and took her by the hand, and gave her to be wife of Tobias, and said, "Behold, take her to yourself after the law of Moses, and lead her away to your father." And he blessed them. ¹⁴ He called Edna his wife, then took a book, wrote a contract, and sealed it. ¹⁵ Then they began to eat.

¹⁶ And Raguel called his wife Edna, and said to her, "Sister, prepare the other chamber, and bring her in there." ¹⁷ She did as he asked her, and brought her in there. She wept, and she received the tears of her daughter, and said to her, ¹⁸ "Be comforted, my child. May the Lord of heaven and earth give you favor^{fl} for this your sorrow. Be comforted, my daughter."

8 When they had finished their supper, they brought Tobias in to her. ² But as he went, he remembered the words of Raphael, and took the ashes of the incense, and put the heart and the liver of the fish on them, and made smoke with them. ³ When the demon smelled that smell, it fled into the uppermost parts of Egypt, and the angel bound him. ⁴ But after they were both shut in together, Tobias rose up from the bed, and said, "Sister, arise, and let's pray that the Lord may have mercy on us." ⁵ And Tobias began to say, "Blessed are you, O God of our fathers, and blessed is your holy and glorious name forever. Let the heavens bless you, and all your creatures. ⁶ You made Adam, and gave him Eve his wife for a helper and support. From them came the seed of men. You said, it is not good that the man should be alone. Let's make him a helper like him. ⁷ And now, O Lord, I take not this my sister for lust, but in truth. Command that I may find mercy and grow old with her.”

⁸ She said with him, “Amen.” And they both slept that night.

⁹ Raguel arose, and went and dug a grave, ¹⁰ saying, “Lest he also should die.” ¹¹ And Raguel came into his house, ¹² and said to Edna his wife, “Send one of the maidservants, and let them see if he is alive. If not, we will bury him, and no man will know it.”

¹³ So the maidservant opened the door, and went in, and found them both sleeping, ¹⁴ and came out, and told them that he was alive.

¹⁵ Then Raguel blessed God, saying, “Blessed are you, O God, with all pure and holy blessing! Let your saints bless you, and all your creatures! Let all your angels and your elect bless you forever! ¹⁶ Blessed are you, because you have made me glad; and it has not happened to me as I suspected; but you have dealt with us according to your great mercy. ¹⁷ Blessed are you, because you have had mercy on two that were the only begotten children of their parents. Show them mercy, O Lord. Fulfill their life in health with gladness and mercy.

¹⁸ He commanded his servants to fill the grave. ¹⁹ He kept the wedding feast for them fourteen days. ²⁰ Before the days of the wedding feast were finished, Raguel swore to him, that he should not depart till the fourteen days of the wedding feast were fulfilled; ²¹ and that then he should take half of his goods, and go in safety to his father; and the rest, said he, when my wife and I die.

9 And Tobias called Raphael, and said to him, ² “Brother Azarias, take with you a servant and two camels, and go to Rages of Media to Gabael, and receive the money for me, and bring him to the wedding feast, ³ because Raguel has sworn that I must not depart. ⁴ My father counts the days; and if I wait long, he will be very grieved. ⁵ So Raphael went on his way, and lodged with Gabael, and gave him the handwriting; so he brought forth the bags with their seals, and gave them to him. ⁶ Then they rose up early in the morning together, and came to the wedding feast. Tobias blessed his wife.

10 Tobias his father counted every day. When the days of the journey were expired, and they didn’t come, ² he said, “Is he perchance detained? ⁸ Or is Gabael perchance dead, and there is no one to give him the money?” ³ He was very grieved.

⁴ But his wife said to him, “The child has perished, seeing he waits long.” She began to bewail him, and said, ⁵ “I care about nothing, my child, since I have let you go, the light of my eyes.” ⁶ Tobias said to her, “Hold your peace. Don’t worry. He is in good health.”

⁷ And she said to him, “Hold your peace. Don’t deceive me. My child has perished.” And she went out every day into the way by which they went, and ate no bread in the daytime, and didn’t stop bewailing her son Tobias for whole nights, until the fourteen days of the wedding feast were expired, which Raguel had sworn that he should spend there.

Then Tobias said to Raguel, “Send me away, for my father and my mother look no more to see me.” ⁸ But his father-in-law said to him, “Stay with me, and I will send to your father, and they will declare to him how things go with you.” ⁹ Tobias said, “No. Send me away to my father.”

¹⁰ Raguel arose, and gave him Sarah his wife, and half his goods, servants and cattle and money; ¹¹ and he blessed them, and sent them away, saying, “The God of heaven will prosper you, my children, before I die.” ¹² And he said to his daughter, “Honor your father-in-law and your mother-in-law. They are now your parents. Let me hear a good report of you. Then he kissed her.

§10:2 Many ancient authorities read “Are they perchance put to shame?”

10:5 Some authorities read “Woe is me.”

Edna said to Tobias, “May the Lord of heaven restore you, dear brother, and grant to me that I may see your children of my daughter Sarah, that I may rejoice before the Lord. Behold, I commit my daughter to you in special trust. Don’t cause her grief.

11 After these things Tobias also went his way, blessing God because he had prospered his journey; and he blessed Raguel and Edna his wife. Then he went on his way until they drew near to Nineveh. ² Raphael said to Tobias, “Don’t you know, brother, how you left your father? ³ Let’s run forward before your wife, and prepare the house. ⁴ But take in your hand the bile of the fish.” So they went their way, and the dog went after them.

⁵ Anna sat looking around toward the path for her son. ⁶ She saw him coming, and said to his father, “Behold, your son is coming with the man that went with him!”

⁷ Raphael said, “I know, Tobias, that your father will open his eyes. ⁸ Therefore anoint his eyes with the bile, and being pricked with it, he will rub, and will make the white films fall away. Then he will see you.”

⁹ Anna ran to him, and fell upon the neck of her son, and said to him, “I have seen you, my child! I am ready to die.” They wept both.

¹⁰ Tobit went toward the door and stumbled; but his son ran to him, ¹¹ and took hold of his father. He rubbed the bile on his father’s eyes, saying, “Cheer up, my father.” ¹² When his eyes began to hurt, he rubbed them. ¹³ Then the white films peeled away from the corners of his eyes; and he saw his son, and fell upon his neck.

¹⁴ He wept, and said, “Blessed are you, O God, and blessed is your name forever! Blessed are all your holy angels! ¹⁵ For you scourged, and had mercy on me. Behold, I see my son Tobias.” And his son went in rejoicing, and told his father the great things that had happened to him in Media.

¹⁶ Tobit went out to meet his daughter-in-law at the gate of Nineveh, rejoicing, and blessing God. Those who saw him go marveled, because he had received his sight. ¹⁷ Tobit gave thanks before them, because God had shown mercy on him. When Tobit came near to Sarah his daughter-in-law, he blessed her, saying, “Welcome, daughter! Blessed is God who has brought you to us, and blessed are your father and your mother.” And there was joy among all his kindred who were at Nineveh. ¹⁸ Achiacharus and Nasbas his brother’s son came. ¹⁹ Tobias’ wedding feast was kept seven days with great gladness.

12 And Tobit called his son Tobias, and said to him, “See, my child, that the man which went with you have his wages, and you must give him more.”

² And he said to him, “Father, it is no harm to me to give him the half of those things which I have brought; ³ for he has led me for you in safety, and he cured my wife, and brought my money, and likewise cured you.”

⁴ The old man said, “It is due to him.”

⁵ And he called the angel, and said to him, “Take half of all that you all have brought.”

⁶ Then he called them both privately, and said to them, “Bless God, and give him thanks, and magnify him, and give him thanks in the sight of all that live, for the things which he has done with you. It is good to bless God and exalt his name, showing forth with honor the works of God. Don’t be slack to give him thanks. ⁷ It is good to keep close the secret of a king, but to reveal gloriously the works of God. Do good, and evil won’t find you. ⁸ Good is prayer with fasting, alms, and righteousness. A little with righteousness is better than much with unrighteousness. It is better to give alms than to lay up gold. ⁹ Alms delivers from death, and it purges away all sin. Those who give alms and do righteousness will be filled with life; ¹⁰ but those who sin are enemies to their own life. ¹¹ Surely I will keep nothing closed from you. I have said, ‘It is good to keep close the secret of a king, but to reveal gloriously the works of God.’ ¹² And now, when you prayed, and Sarah your daughter-in-law, I brought the memorial of your prayer before the Holy One. When you buried the dead, I was with you likewise. ¹³ And when you didn't delay to rise up, and leave your dinner, that you might go and cover the dead, your good deed was not hidden from me. I was with you. ¹⁴ And now God sent me to heal you and Sarah your daughter-in-law. ¹⁵ I am Raphael, one of the seven holy angels, which present the prayers of the saints, and go in before the glory of the Holy One."

¹⁶ And they were both troubled, and fell upon their faces; for they were afraid. ¹⁷ And he said to them, "Don't be afraid. You will all have peace; but bless God forever. ¹⁸ For I came not of any favor of my own, but by the will of your God. Therefore bless him forever. ¹⁹ All these days I appeared to you. I didn't eat or drink, but you all saw a vision. ²⁰ Now give God thanks, because I ascend to him that sent me. Write in a book all the things which have been done." ²¹ Then they rose up, and saw him no more. ²² They confessed the great and wonderful works of God, and how the angel of the Lord had appeared to them.

13 And Tobit wrote a prayer for rejoicing, and said,

"Blessed is God who lives forever!

Blessed is his kingdom!

² For he scourges, and shows mercy.

He leads down to the grave,^{††} and brings up again.

There is no one that will escape his hand.

³ Give thanks to him before the Gentiles, all you children of Israel!

For he has scattered us among them.

⁴ Declare his greatness, there.

Extol him before all the living;

because he is our Lord,

and God is our Father forever.

⁵ He will scourge us for our iniquities, and will again show mercy, and will gather us out of all the nations among whom you are all scattered.

⁶ If you turn to him with your whole heart and with your whole soul,

to do truth before him,

then he will turn to you,

and won't hide his face from you.

See what he will do with you.

Give him thanks with your whole mouth.

Bless the Lord of righteousness.

Exalt the everlasting King.

I give him thanks in the land of my captivity, and show his strength and majesty to a nation of sinners.

Turn, you sinners, and do righteousness before him.

Who can tell if he will accept you and have mercy on you?

⁷ I exalt my God.

My soul exalts the King of heaven, and rejoices in his greatness.

⁸ Let all men speak,

and let them give him thanks in Jerusalem.

⁹ O Jerusalem, the holy city,

he will scourge you for the works of your sons, and will again have mercy on the sons of the righteous.

¹⁰ Give thanks to the Lord with goodness, and bless the everlasting King, that his tabernacle may be built in you again with joy,

and that he may make glad in you those who are captives,

and love in you forever those who are miserable.

¹¹ Many nations will come from afar to the name of the Lord God with gifts in their hands, even gifts to the King of heaven.

Generations of generations will praise you, and sing songs of rejoicing.

¹² All those who hate you are cursed.

All those who love you forever will be blessed.

¹³ Rejoice and be exceedingly glad for the sons of the righteous;

^{††}13:2 Gr. Hades.

for they will be gathered together and will bless the Lord of the righteous.

¹⁴ Oh blessed are those who love you.

They will rejoice for your peace.

Blessed are all those who sorrowed for all your scourges;

because they will rejoice for you when they have seen all your glory.

They will be made glad forever.

¹⁵ Let my soul bless God the great King.

¹⁶ For Jerusalem will be built with sapphires, emeralds, and precious stones;

your walls and towers and battlements with pure gold.

¹⁷ The streets of Jerusalem will be paved with beryl, carbuncle, and stones of Ophir.

¹⁸ All her streets will say, "Hallelujah!"

and give praise, saying, "Blessed be God, who has exalted you forever!"

14 Then Tobit finished giving thanks. ² He was fifty-eight years old when he lost his sight. After eight years, he received it again. He gave alms and he feared the Lord God more and more, and gave thanks to him.

³ Now he grew very old; and he called his son with the six sons of his son, and said to him, "My child, take your sons. Behold, I have grown old, and am ready to depart out of this life. ⁴ Go into Media, my child, for I surely believe all the things which Jonah the prophet spoke of Nineveh, that it will be overthrown, but in Media there will rather be peace for a season. Our kindred will be scattered in the earth from the good land. Jerusalem will be desolate, and the house of God in it will be burned up, and will be desolate for a time.

⁵ God will again have mercy on them, and bring them back into the land, and they will build the house, but not like to the former house, until the times of that age are fulfilled. Afterward they will return from the places of their captivity, and build up Jerusalem with honor. The house of God will be built in it forever with a glorious building, even as the prophets spoke concerning it. ⁶ And all the nations will turn to fear the Lord God truly, and will bury their idols. ⁷ All the nations will bless the Lord, and his people will give thanks to God, and the Lord will exalt his people; and all those who love the Lord God in truth and righteousness will rejoice, showing mercy to our kindred. ⁸ And now, my child, depart from Nineveh, because those things which the prophet Jonah spoke will surely come to pass. ⁹ But you must keep the law and the ordinances, and show yourself merciful and righteous, that it may be well with you. ¹⁰ Bury me decently, and your mother with me. Don't stay at Nineveh. See, my child, what Aman did to Achiacharus that nourished him, how out of light he brought him into darkness, and all the recompense that he made him. Achiacharus was saved, but the other had his recompense, and he went down into darkness. Manasses gave alms, and escaped the snare of death which he set for him; but Aman fell into the snare, and perished. ¹¹ And now, my children, consider what alms does, and how righteousness delivers."

While he was saying these things, he gave up the ghost in the bed; but he was one hundred fifty eight years old. Tobias buried him magnificently. ¹² When Anna died, he buried her with his father. But Tobias departed with his wife and his sons to Ecbatana to Raguel his father-in-law, ¹³ and he grew old in honor, and he buried his father-in-law and mother-in-law magnificently, and he inherited their possessions, and his father Tobit's. ¹⁴ He died at Ecbatana of Media, being one hundred twenty seven years old. ¹⁵ Before he died, he heard of the destruction of Nineveh, which Nebuchadnezzar and Ahasuerus took captive. Before his death, he rejoiced over Nineveh.

JUDITH

Judith is recognized as Deuterocanonical Scripture by the Roman Catholic, Greek Orthodox, and Russian Orthodox Churches.

1 In the twelfth year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, who reigned over the Assyrians in Nineveh, the great city, in the days of Arphaxad, who reigned over the Medes in Ecbatana, ²and built around Ecbatana walls of hewn stones three cubits broad and six cubits long, and made the height of the wall seventy cubits, and its breadth fifty cubits; ³and set its towers at its gates, one hundred cubits high, and its breadth in the foundation was sixty cubits; ⁴and made its gates, even gates that were raised to the height of seventy cubits, and their breadth forty cubits, for his mighty army to go out of, and the setting in array of his footmen— ⁵even in those days king Nebuchadnezzar made war with king Arphaxad in the great plain. This plain is on the borders of Ragau. ⁶There came to meet him all that lived in the hill country, and all that lived by Euphrates, Tigris, and Hydaspes, and in the plain of Arioch the king of the Elymaeans. Many nations of the sons of Chelod assembled themselves to the battle.

⁷And Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians sent to all who lived in Persia, and to all who lived westward, to those who lived in Cilicia, Damascus, Libanus, and Antilibanus, and to all who lived along the sea coast, ⁸and to those among the nations that were of Carmel and Gilead, and to the higher Galilee and the great plain of Esdraelon, ⁹and to all who were in Samaria and its cities, and beyond Jordan to Jerusalem, Betane, Chelul, Kadesh, the river of Egypt, Tahpanhes, Rameses, and all the land of Goshen, ¹⁰until you come above Tanis and Memphis, and to all that lived in Egypt, until you come to the borders of Ethiopia. ¹¹All those who lived in all the land made light of the commandment of Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians, and didn't go with him to the war; for they were not afraid of him, but he was before them as one man. They turned away his messengers from their presence without effect, and with disgrace. ¹²And Nebuchadnezzar was exceedingly angry with all this land, and he swore by his throne and kingdom, that he would surely be avenged upon all the coasts of Cilicia, Damascus, and Syria, that he would kill with his sword all the inhabitants of the land of Moab, and the children of Ammon, all Judea, and all that were in Egypt, until you come to the borders of the two seas. ¹³And he set the battle in array with his army against king Arphaxad in the seventeenth year; and he prevailed in his battle, and turned to flight all the army of Arphaxad, with all his horses and all his chariots. ¹⁴He became master of his cities, and he came even to Ecbatana, and took the towers, plundered its streets, and turned its beauty into shame. ¹⁵He took Arphaxad in the mountains of Ragau, struck him through with his darts, and utterly destroyed him, to this day. ¹⁶He returned with them to Nineveh, he and all his company of sundry nations, an exceedingly great multitude of men of war, and there he took his ease and banqueted, he and his army, for one hundred twenty days.

2 In the eighteenth year, the twenty-second day of the first month, there was talk in the house of Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians, that he should be avenged on all the land, even as he spoke. ²He called together all his servants and all his great men, and communicated with them his secret counsel, and concluded the afflicting of all the land out of his own mouth. ³They decreed to destroy all flesh which didn't follow the word of his mouth. ⁴It came to pass, when he had ended his counsel, Nebuchadnezzar king of the Assyrians called Holofernes the chief captain of his army, which was next after himself, and said to him, ⁵"The great king, the lord of all the earth, says: Behold, you shall go out from my presence, and take with you men who trust in their strength, to one hundred twenty thousand footmen and twelve thousand horses with their riders. ⁶ And you shall go out against all the west country, because they disobeyed the commandment of my mouth. ⁷ You shall declare to them that they should prepare earth and water, because I will go out in my wrath against them, and will cover the whole face of the earth with the feet of my army, and I will give them as plunder to them. ⁸ Their slain will fill their valleys and brooks, and the river will be filled with their dead until it overflows. ⁹ I will lead them captives to the utmost parts of all the earth. ¹⁰ But you shall go forth, and take all their coasts for me first. If they will yield themselves to you,‡‡ then you must reserve them for me until the day of their reproof. ¹¹ As for those who are disobedient, your eye shall not spare; but you shall give them up to be slain and to be plundered in all your land. ¹² For as I live, and by the power of my kingdom, I have spoken, and I will do this with my hand. ¹³ Moreover, you shall not transgress anything of the commandments of your lord, but you shall surely accomplish them, as I have commanded you. You shall not defer to do them.”

chosen footmen. ²⁰ A great company of various nations went out with them like locusts, and like the sand of the earth. For they could not be counted by reason of their multitude.

²¹ And they departed out of Nineveh three days' journey toward the plain of Bectileth, and encamped from Bectileth near the mountain which is at the left hand of the upper Cilicia. ²² And he took all his army, his footmen, horsemen, and chariots, and went away from there into the hill country, ²³ and destroyed Put and Lud, and plundered all the children of Rassus and the children of Ishmael, which were along the wilderness to the south of the land of the Chellians. ²⁴ And he went over Euphrates, and went through Mesopotamia, and broke down all the high cities that were upon the river Arbonai, until you come to the sea. ²⁵ And he took possession of the borders of Cilicia, and killed all that resisted him, and came to the borders of Japheth, which were toward the south, opposite Arabia. ²⁶ He surrounded all the children of Midian, and set their tents on fire, and plundered their sheepfolds. ²⁷ He went down into the plain of Damascus in the days of wheat harvest, and set all their fields on fire, and utterly destroyed their flocks and herds, and plundered their cities, laid their plains waste, and struck all their young men with the edge of the sword.

²⁸ And the fear and the dread of him fell upon those who lived on the sea coast, upon those who were in Sidon and Tyre, those who lived in Sur and Ocina, and all who lived in Jemnaan. Those who lived in Azotus and Ascalon feared him exceedingly.

3 And they sent to him messengers with words of peace, saying, ² “Behold, we the servants of Nebuchadnezzar the great king lie before you. Use us as it is pleasing in your sight. ³ Behold, our dwellings, and all our country, and all our fields of wheat, and our flocks and herds, and all the sheepfolds of our tents, lie before your face. Use them as it may please you. ⁴ Behold, even our cities and those who dwell in them are your servants. Come and deal with them as it is good in your eyes.”

⁶ He came down toward the sea coast, he and his army, and set garrisons in the high cities, and took out of them chosen men for allies. ⁷ They received him, they and all the country round about them, with garlands and dances and timbrels. ⁸ He cast down all their borders, and cut down their sacred groves. It had been given to him to destroy all the gods of the land, that all the nations would worship Nebuchadnezzar only, and that all their tongues and their tribes would call upon him as god. ⁹ Then he came toward Esdraelon near to Dotaea, which is opposite the great ridge of Judea. ¹⁰ He encamped between Geba and Scythopolis. He was there a whole month, that he might gather together all the baggage of his army.

ascents of the hill country; because by them was the entrance into Judea, and it was easy to stop them from approaching, inasmuch as the approach was narrow, with space for two men at the most. ⁸ And the children of Israel did as Joakim the high priest had commanded them, as did the senate of all the people of Israel, which lived at Jerusalem.

them, “Tell me now, you sons of Canaan, who are these people who dwell in the hill country? What are the cities that they inhabit? How large is their army? Where is their power and their strength? What king is set over them, to be the leader of their army? ⁴ Why have they turned their backs, that they should not come and meet me, more than all that dwell in the west?”

⁵ Then Achior, the leader of all the children of Ammon, said to him, “Let my lord now hear a word from the mouth of your servant, and I will tell you the truth concerning these people who dwell in this hill country, near to the place where you dwell. No lie will come out of the mouth of your servant. ⁶ These people are descended from the Chaldeans. ⁷ They sojourned before this in Mesopotamia, because they didn’t want to follow the gods of their fathers, which were in the land of the Chaldeans. ⁸ They departed from the way of their parents, and worshiped the God of heaven, the God whom they knew. Their parents cast them out from the face of their gods, and they fled into Mesopotamia, and sojourned there many days. ⁹ Then their God commanded them to depart from the place where they sojourned, and to go into the land of Canaan. They lived there, and prospered with gold and silver, and with exceedingly much cattle. ¹⁰ Then they went down into Egypt, for a famine covered all the land of Canaan. They sojourned there until they had grown up. They became a great multitude there, so that one could not count the population of their nation. ¹¹ Then the king of Egypt rose up against them, and dealt subtly with them, and brought them low, making them labor in brick,[¶] and made them slaves. ¹² They cried to their God, and he struck all the land of Egypt with incurable plagues; so the Egyptians cast them out of their sight. ¹³ God dried up the Red sea before them, ¹⁴ and brought them into the way of Sinai

Kadesh-Barnea, and they cast out all that lived in the wilderness. ¹⁵ They lived in the land of the Amorites, and they destroyed by their strength everyone in Heshbon. Passing over Jordan, they possessed all the hill country. ¹⁶ They cast out before them the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Jebusite, the Shechemite, and all the Girgashites, and they lived in that country many days. ¹⁷ And while they didn’t sin before their God, they prospered, because God who hates iniquity was with them. ¹⁸ But when they departed from the way which he appointed them, they were destroyed in many severe battles, and were led captives into a land that was not theirs. The temple of their God was cast to the ground, and their cities were taken by their adversaries. ¹⁹ And now they have returned to their God, and have come up from the dispersion where they were dispersed, and have possessed Jerusalem, where their sanctuary is, and are seated in the hill country; for it was desolate. ²⁰ And now, my lord and master, if there is any error in this people, and they sin against their God, we will consider what this thing is in which they stumble, and we will go up and overcome them. ²¹ But if there is no lawlessness in their nation, let my lord now pass by, lest their Lord defend them, and their God be for them, and we will be a reproach before all the earth.”

²² It came to pass, when Achior had finished speaking these words, all the people standing around the tent murmured. The great men of Holofernes, and all that lived by the sea side and in Moab, said that he should kill him. ²³ For, they said, “We will not be afraid of the children of Israel, because, behold, they are a people that has no power nor might to make the battle strong. ²⁴ Therefore now we will go up, and they will be a prey to be devoured by all your army, Lord Holofernes.”

6 And when the disturbance of the men that were around the council had ceased, Holofernes the chief captain of the army of [¶]5:11 Some authorities read and he brought them low with clay and brick, etc.

Asshur said to Achior and to all the children of Moab^{§§} before all the people of the foreigners,

²“And who are you, Achior, and the hirelings of Ephraim,* that you have prophesied among us as today, and have said that we should not make war with the race of Israel, because their God will defend them? And who is God but Nebuchadnezzar? ³He will send forth his might, and will destroy them from the face of the earth, and their God will not deliver them; but we his servants will strike them as one man. They will not sustain the might of our horses. ⁴For with them we will burn them up. Their mountains will be drunken with their blood. Their plains will be filled with their dead bodies. Their footsteps will not stand before us, but they will surely perish, says king Nebuchadnezzar, lord of all the earth; for he said, ‘The words that I have spoken† will not be in vain.’ ⁵But you, Achior, hireling of Ammon, who have spoken these words in the day of your iniquity, will see my face no more from this day, until I am avenged of the race of those that came out of Egypt. ⁶And then the sword of my army, and the multitude of those who serve me, will pass through your sides, and you will fall among their slain when I return. ⁷Then my servants will bring you back into the hill country, and will set you in one of the cities of the ascents. ⁸You will not perish until you are destroyed with them. ⁹And if you hope in your heart that they will not be taken, don’t let your countenance fall. I have spoken it, and none of my words will fall to the ground.”

¹⁰Then Holofernes commanded his servants who waited in his tent to take Achior, and bring him back to Bethulia, and deliver him into the hands of the children of Israel. ¹¹So his servants took him, and brought him out of the camp into the plain, and they moved from the midst of the plains into the hill country, and came to the springs that were under Bethulia. ¹²When the men of the city saw them on the top of the hill, they took up their weapons, and went out of the city against them to the top of the hill. Every man that used a sling kept them from coming up, and cast stones against them. ¹³They took cover under the hill, bound Achior, cast him down, left him at the foot of the hill, and went away to their lord. ¹⁴But the children of Israel descended from their city, and came to him, untied him, led him away into Bethulia, and presented him to the rulers of their city; ¹⁵which were in those days Ozias the son of Micah, of the tribe of Simeon, and Chabris the son of Gothoniel, and Charmis the son of Melchiel. ¹⁶Then they called together all the elders of the city; and all their young men ran together, with their women, to the assembly. They set Achior in the midst of all their people. Then Ozias asked him what had happened. ¹⁷He answered and declared to them the words of the council of Holofernes, and all the words that he had spoken in the midst of the princes of the children of Asshur, and all the great words that Holofernes had spoken against the house of Israel. ¹⁸Then the people fell down and worshiped God, and cried, saying, ¹⁹“O Lord God of heaven, behold their arrogance, and pity the low estate of our race. Look upon the face of those who are sanctified to you this day.” ²⁰They comforted Achior, and praised him exceedingly. ²¹Then Ozias took him out of the assembly into his house, and made a feast for the elders. They called on the God of Israel for help all that night.

7 The next day Holofernes commanded all his army and all the people who had come to be his allies, that they should move their camp toward Bethulia, take beforehand the ascents of the hill country, and make war against the children of Israel. ²Every mighty man of them moved that day. The army of their men of war was one hundred seventy thousand footmen, plus twelve thousand horsemen, besides the baggage, and the men that were on foot among them: an exceedingly great multitude. ³ They encamped in the valley near Bethulia, by the fountain. They spread themselves in breadth over Dothaim even to Belmaim, and in length from Bethulia to Cya-mon, which is near Esdraelon.

⁴ But the children of Israel, when they saw the multitude of them, were troubled exceedingly, and everyone said to his neighbor, "Now these men will lick up the face of all the earth. Neither the high mountains, nor the valleys, nor the hills will be able to bear their weight. ⁵ Every man took up his weapons of war, and when they had kindled fires upon their towers, they remained and watched all that night.

⁸ All the rulers of the children of Esau, all the leaders of the people of Moab, and the captains of the sea coast came to him and said, ⁹ "Let our lord now hear a word, that there be not losses in your army. ¹⁰ For this people of the children of Israel do not trust in their spears, but in the height of the mountains wherein they dwell, for it is not easy to come up to the tops of their mountains. ¹¹ And now, my lord, don't fight against them as men fight who join battle, and there will not so much as one man of your people perish. ¹² Remain in your camp, and keep every man of your army safe. Let your servants get possession of the water spring, which flows from the foot of the mountain, ¹³ because all the inhabitants of Bethulia get their water from there. Then thirst will kill them, and they will give up their city. Then we and our people will go up to the tops of the mountains that are near, and will encamp upon them, to watch that not one man gets out of the city. ¹⁴ They will be consumed with famine, they and their wives and their children. Before the sword comes against them they will be laid low in the streets where they dwell. ¹⁵ And you will pay them back with evil, because they rebelled, and didn't meet your face in peace."

between all of you and us, because you have done us great wrong, in that you have not spoken words of peace with the children of Asshur. ²⁵ Now we have no helper; but God has sold us into their hands, that we should be laid low before them with thirst and great destruction. ²⁶ And now summon them, and deliver up the whole city as prey to the people of Holofernes, and to all his army. ²⁷ For it is better for us to be made a plunder to them. For we will be servants, and our souls will live, and we will not see the death of our babies before our eyes, and our wives and our children fainting in death. ²⁸ We take to witness against you the heaven and the earth, and our God and the Lord of our fathers, who punishes us according to our sins and the sins of our fathers. Do what we have said today!”

²⁹ And there was great weeping of all with one consent in the midst of the assembly; and they cried to the Lord God with a loud voice. ³⁰ And Ozias said to them, “Brethren, be of good courage! Let us endure five more days, during which the Lord our God will turn his mercy toward us; for he will not forsake us utterly. ³¹ But if these days pass, and no help comes to us, I will do what you say.” ³² Then he dispersed the people, every man to his own camp; and they went away to the walls and towers of their city. He sent the women and children into their houses. They were brought very low in the city.

8 In those days Judith heard about this. She was the daughter of Merari, the son of Ox, the son of Joseph, the son of Oziel, the son of Elkiah, the son of Ananias, the son of Gideon, the son of Raphaim, the son of Ahi-tub, the son of Elihu, the son of Eliab, the son of Nathanael, the son of Salamiel, the son of Salasadai, the son of Israel. ² Her husband was Manasses, of her tribe and of her family. He died in the days of barley harvest. ³ For he stood over those who bound sheaves in the field, and the heat came upon his head, and he fell on his bed, and died in his city Bethulia. So they buried him with his fathers in the field which is between Dothaim and Balamon. ⁴ Judith was a widow in her house three years and four months. ⁵ She made herself a tent upon the roof of her house, and put on sackcloth upon her loins. The garments of her widowhood were upon her. ⁶ And she fasted all the days of her widowhood, except the eves of the Sabbaths, the Sabbaths, the eves of the new moons, the new moons, and the feasts and joyful days of the house of Israel. ⁷ She was of a goodly countenance, and exceedingly beautiful to behold. Her husband Manasses had left her gold, silver, menservants, maidservants, cattle, and lands. She remained on those lands. ⁸ No one said anything evil about her; for she feared God exceedingly.

⁹ She heard the evil words of the people against the governor, because they fainted for lack of water; and Judith heard all the words that Ozias spoke to them, how he swore to them that he would deliver the city to the Assyrians after five days. ¹⁰ So she sent her maid, who was over all things that she had, to summon Ozias, Chabris, and Charmis, the elders of her city. ¹¹ They came to her, and she said to them, “Hear me now, O you rulers of the inhabitants of Bethulia: for your word that you have spoken before the people this day is not right. You have set the oath which you have pronounced between God and you, and have promised to deliver the city to our enemies, unless within these days the Lord turns to help you. ¹² Now who are you that you have tempted God this day, and stand in the place of God among the children of men? ¹³ Now try the Lord Almighty, and you will never know anything. ¹⁴ For you will not find the depth of the heart of man, and you will not perceive the things that he thinks. How will you search out God, who has made all these things, and know his mind, and comprehend his purpose? No, my kindred, don’t provoke the Lord our God to anger! ¹⁵ For if he has not decided to help us within these five days, he has power to defend us in such time as he will, or to destroy us before the face of our enemies. ¹⁶ But don't you pledge the counsels of the Lord our God! For God is not as man, that he should be threatened; neither as the son of man, that he should be turned by entreaty. ¹⁷ Therefore let's wait for the salvation that comes from him, and call upon him to help us. He will hear our voice, if it pleases him. ¹⁸ For there arose none in our age, neither is there any of us today, tribe, or kindred, or family, or city, which worship gods made with hands, as it was in the former days; ¹⁹ for which cause our fathers were given to the sword, and for plunder, and fell with a great fall before our enemies. ²⁰ But we know no other god beside him. Therefore we hope that he will not despise us, nor any of our race. ²¹ For if we are taken so, all Judea will sit upon the ground, and our sanctuary will be plundered; and he will require our blood for profaning it. ²² And the slaughter of our kindred, and the captivity of the land, and the desolation of our inheritance, he will turn upon our heads among the Gentiles, wherever we will be in bondage. We will be an offense and a reproach before those who take us for a possession. ²³ For our bondage will not be ordered to favor; but the Lord our God will turn it to dishonor. ²⁴ And now, kindred, let's show an example to our kindred, because their soul hangs upon us, and the sanctuary, the house, and the altar rest upon us. ²⁵ Besides all this let's give thanks to the Lord our God, who tries us, even as he did our fathers also. ²⁶ Remember all the things which he did to Abraham, and all the things in which he tried Isaac, and all the things which happened to Jacob in Mesopotamia of Syria, when he kept the sheep of Laban his mother's brother. ²⁷ For he has not tried us in the fire, as he did them, to search out their hearts, neither has he taken vengeance on us; but the Lord does scourge them that come near to him, to admonish them."

²⁸ And Ozias said to her, "All that you have spoken, you have spoken with a good heart.

There is no one who will deny your words. ²⁹ For this is not the first day wherein your wisdom is manifested; but from the beginning of your days all the people have known your understanding, because the disposition of your heart is good. ³⁰ But the people were exceedingly thirsty, and compelled us to do as we spoke to them, and to bring an oath upon ourselves, which we will not break. ³¹ And now pray you for us, because you are a godly woman, and the Lord will send us rain to fill our cisterns, and we will faint no more."

³² Then Judith said to them, "Hear me, and I will do a thing, which will go down to all generations among the children of our race. ³³ You shall all stand at the gate tonight. I will go out with my maid. Within the days after which you said that you would deliver the city to our enemies, the Lord will visit Israel by my hand. ³⁴ But you shall not inquire of my act; for I will not declare it to you, until the things are finished that I will do."

³⁵ Then Ozias and the rulers said to her, "Go in peace. May the Lord God be before you, to take vengeance on our enemies." ³⁶ So they returned from the tent, and went to their stations.

9 But Judith fell upon her face, and put ashes upon her head, and uncovered the sackcloth with which she was clothed. The incense of that evening was now being offered at Jerusalem in the house of God, and Judith cried to the Lord with a loud voice, and said, ² "O Lord God of my father Simeon, into whose hand you gave a sword to take vengeance on the strangers who loosened the belt of a virgin to defile her, uncovered the thigh to her shame, and profaned the womb to her reproach; for you said, 'It shall not be so;' and they did so. ³ Therefore you gave their rulers to be slain, and their bed, which was ashamed for her who was deceived,[‡] to be dyed in blood, and struck the servants with their masters, and the masters upon their thrones; ⁴ and gave their wives for a prey, and their daughters to be captives, and all their spoils to be divided among your dear children; which were moved with zeal for you, and abhorred the pollution of their blood, and called upon you for aid. O God, O my God, hear me also who am a widow. ⁵ For you did the things that were before those things, and those things, and such as come after; and you planned the things which are now, and the things which are to come. The things which you planned came to pass. ⁶ Yes, the things which you determined stood before you, and said, 'Behold, we are here; for all your ways are prepared, and your judgement is with foreknowledge.' ⁷ For, behold, the Assyrians are multiplied in their power. They are exalted with horse and rider. They were proud of the strength of their footmen. They have trusted in shield, spear, bow, and sling. They don't know that you are the Lord who breaks the battles. 'The Lord' is your name. ⁸ Break their strength in your power, and bring down their force in your wrath; for they intend to profane your sanctuary, and to defile the tabernacle where your glorious name rests, and to destroy the horn of your altar with the sword. ⁹ Look at their pride, and send your wrath upon their heads. Give into my hand, which am a widow, the might that I have conceived. ¹⁰ Strike by the deceit of my lips the servant with the prince, and the prince with his servant. Break down their arrogance by the hand of a woman. ¹¹ For your power stands not in multitude, nor your might in strong men: but you are a God of the afflicted. You are a helper of the minorities, a helper of the weak, a protector of the forsaken, a savior of those who are without hope. ¹² Yes, yes, God of my father, and God of the inheritance of Israel, Lord of the heavens and of the earth. Creator of the waters, King of every creature, ¹³ hear my prayer. ¹³ Make my speech and deceit to be their wound and stripe, who intend hard things against your covenant, your holy house, the top of Sion, and the house of the possession of your children. ¹⁴ Make every nation and tribe of yours to know that you are God, the God of all power and might, and that there is none other that protects the race of Israel but you."

10 It came to pass, when she had ceased to cry to the God of Israel, and had finished saying all these words, ² that she rose up where she had fallen down, called her maid, and went down into the house that she used to live in on the Sabbath days and on her feast days. ³ She pulled off the sackcloth which she had put on, took off the garments of her widowhood, washed her body all over with water, anointed herself with rich ointment, braided the hair of her head, and put a tiara upon it. She put on her garments of gladness, which she used to wear in the days of the life of Manasses her husband. ⁴ She took sandals for her feet, and put her chains around her, and her bracelets, her rings, her earrings, and all her jewelry, and decked herself bravely, to deceive the eyes of all men who would see her. ⁵ She gave her maid a leather container of wine and a flask of oil, and filled a bag with parched corn, lumps of figs, and fine^s bread. She packed all her vessels together, and laid them upon her.

⁶ They went out to the gate of the city of Bethulia, and found Ozias and the elders of the city, Chabris and Charmis standing by it. ⁷ But when they saw her, that her countenance was altered and her apparel was changed, they wondered at her beauty very exceedingly, and said to her, ⁸ "May the God of our fathers give you favor, and accomplish your purposes to the glory of the children of Israel, and to the exaltation of Jerusalem."

Then she worshiped God, ⁹ and said to them, "Command that they open the gate of the city for me, and I will go out to accomplish the things you spoke with me about.”

And they commanded the young men to open to her, as she had spoken;¹⁰ and they did so.

Then Judith went out, she, and her handmaid with her. The men of the city watched her until she had gone down the mountain, until she had passed the valley, and they could see her no more.¹¹ They went straight onward in the valley. The watch of the Assyrians met her;¹² and they took her, and asked her, “Of what people are you? Where are you coming from? Where are you going?”

She said, “I am a daughter of the Hebrews. I am fleeing away from their presence, because they are about to be given you to be consumed.¹³ I am coming into the presence of Holofernes the chief captain of your army, to declare words of truth. I will show him a way that he can go and win all the hill country, and there will not be lacking of his men one person, nor one life.”

¹⁴ Now when the men heard her words, and considered her countenance, the beauty thereof was exceedingly marvelous in their eyes. They said to her,¹⁵ “You have saved your life, in that you have hurried to come down to the presence of our master. Now come to his tent. Some of us will guide you until they deliver you into his hands.¹⁶ But when you stand before him, don’t be afraid in your heart, but declare to him according to your words; and he will treat you well.”¹⁷ They chose out of them a hundred men, and appointed them to accompany her and her maid; and they brought them to the tent of Holofernes.

of Israel because of her. Each one said to his neighbor, “Who would despise this people, that have among them such women? For it is not good that one man of them be left, seeing that, if they are let go, they will be able to deceive the whole earth.²⁰ Those who lay near Holofernes, and all his servants, went out and brought her into the tent.²¹ And Holofernes was resting upon his bed under the canopy, which was woven with purple, gold, emeralds, and precious stones.²² And they told him about her; and he came out into the space before his tent, with silver lamps going before him.²³ But when Judith had come before him and his servants, they all marveled at the beauty of her countenance. She fell down upon her face, and bowed down to him, but his servants raised her up.

11 Holofernes said to her, “Woman, take courage. Don’t be afraid in your heart; for I never hurt anyone who has chosen to serve Nebuchadnezzar, the king of all the earth.² And now, if your people who dwell in the hill country had not slighted me, I would not have lifted up my spear against them; but they have done these things to themselves.³ And now tell me why you fled from them and came to us; for you have come to save yourself. Take courage! You will live tonight, and hereafter;⁴ for there is no one that will wrong you, but all will treat you well, as is done to the servants of king Nebuchadnezzar my lord.”

⁵ And Judith said to him, “Receive the words of your servant, and let your handmaid speak in your presence, and I will declare no lie to my lord this night.⁶ If you will follow the words of your handmaid, God will bring the thing to pass perfectly with you; and my lord will not fail to accomplish his purposes.⁷ As Nebuchadnezzar king of all the earth lives, and as his power lives, who has sent you for the preservation of every living thing, not only do men serve him by you, but also the beasts of the field, the cattle, and the birds of the sky will live through your strength, in the time of Nebuchadnezzar and of all his house. ⁸For we have heard of your wisdom and the subtle plans of your soul. It has been reported in all the earth that you only are brave in all the kingdom, mighty in knowledge, and wonderful in feats of war. ⁹And now as concerning the matter which Achior spoke in your council, we have heard his words; for the men of Bethulia saved him, and he declared to them all that he had spoken before you. ¹⁰Therefore, O lord and master, don't neglect his word; but lay it up in your heart, for it is true; for our race will not be punished, neither will the sword prevail against them, unless they sin against their God. ¹¹And now, that my lord be not defeated and frustrate of his purpose, and that death may fall upon them, their sin has overtaken them, wherewith they will provoke their God to anger, whenever they do wickedness. ¹²Since their food failed them, and all their water was scant, they took counsel to lay hands upon their cattle, and determined to consume all those things which God charged them by his laws that they should not eat. ¹³They are resolved to spend the first fruits of the corn, and the tenths of the wine and the oil, which they had sanctified and reserved for the priests who stand before the face of our God in Jerusalem; which things it is not fitting for any of the people so much as to touch with their hands. ¹⁴They have sent some to Jerusalem, because they also that dwell there have done this thing, to bring them permission from the council of elders. ¹⁵It will be, when word comes to them and they do it, they will be given to you to be destroyed the same day. ¹⁶Therefore I your servant, knowing all this, fled away from their presence. God sent me to work things with you, at which all the earth will be astonished, even as many as hear it. ¹⁷For your servant is religious, and serves the God of heaven day and night. Now, my lord, I will stay with you, and your servant will go out by night into the valley. I will pray to God, and he will tell me when they have committed their sins. ¹⁸Then I will come and show it also to you. Then you shall go out with all your army, and there will be none of them that will resist you. ¹⁹And I will lead you through the midst of Judea, until you come to Jerusalem. I will set your seat in the midst of it. You will drive them as sheep that have no shepherd, and a dog will not so much as open his mouth before you; for these things were told me according to my foreknowledge, and were declared to me, and I was sent to tell you."

²⁰Her words were pleasing in the sight of Holofernes and of all his servants. They marveled at her wisdom, and said, ²¹"There is not such a woman from one end of the earth to the other, for beauty of face and wisdom of words."

²²Holofernes said to her, "God did well to send you before the people, that might would be in our hands, and destruction among those who slighted my lord. ²³And now you are beautiful in your countenance, and wise in your words. If you will do as you have spoken, your God will be my God, and you will dwell in the house of king Nebuchadnezzar, and will be renowned through the whole earth."

12 He commanded that she should be brought in where his silver vessels were set, and asked that his servants should prepare some of his own meats for her, and that she should drink from his own wine.

²And Judith said, "I will not eat of it, lest there be an occasion of stumbling; but provision will be made for me of the things that have come with me."

³And Holofernes said to her, "But if the things that are with you should fail, from where will we be able to give you more like it? For there is none of your race with us."

⁴And Judith said to him, "As your soul lives, my lord, your servant will not spend those things that are with me, until the Lord works by my hand the things that he has determined." ⁵Then Holofernes' servants brought her into the tent, and she slept until midnight. Then she rose up toward the morning watch,

6 and sent to Holofernes, saying, "Let my lord now command that they allow your servant to go out to pray."

7 Holofernes commanded his guards that they should not stop her. She stayed in the camp three days, and went out every night into the valley of Bethulia, and washed herself at the fountain of water in the camp. 8 And when she came up, she implored the Lord God of Israel to direct her way to the raising up of the children of his people. 9 She came in clean, and remained in the tent, until she ate her food toward evening.

10 It came to pass on the fourth day, that Holofernes made a feast for his own servants only, and called none of the officers to the banquet. 11 And he said to Bagoas the eunuch, who had charge over all that he had, "Go now, and persuade this Hebrew woman who is with you that she come to us, and eat and drink with us. 12 For, behold, it is a shame for our person, if we shall let such a woman go, not having had her company; for if we don't draw her to ourselves, she will laugh us to scorn."

13 Bagoas went from the presence of Holofernes, and came in to her, and said, "Let this fair lady not fear to come to my lord, and to be honored in his presence, and to drink wine and be merry with us, and to be made this day as one of the daughters of the children of Asshur, which wait in the house of Nebuchadnezzar."

14 Judith said to him, "Who am I, that I should contradict my lord? For whatever would be pleasing in his eyes, I will do speedily, and this will be my joy to the day of my death." 15 She arose, and decked herself with her apparel and all her woman's attire; and her servant went and laid fleeces on the ground for her next to Holofernes, which she had received from Bagoas for her daily use, that she might sit and eat upon them.

16 Judith came in and sat down, and Holofernes' heart was ravished with her. His soul was moved, and he exceedingly desired her company. He was watching for a time to deceive her, from the day that he had seen her. 17 Holofernes said to her, "Drink now, and be merry with us."

18 Judith said, "I will drink now, my lord, because my life is magnified in me this day more than all the days since I was born." 19 Then she took and ate and drank before him what her servant had prepared. 20 Holofernes took great delight in her, and drank exceedingly much wine, more than he had drunk at any time in one day since he was born.

13 But when the evening had come, his servants hurried to depart. Bagoas shut the tent outside, and dismissed those who waited from the presence of his lord. They went away to their beds; for they were all weary, because the feast had been long. 2 But Judith was left alone in the tent, with Holofernes lying along upon his bed; for he was drunk with wine. 3 Judith had said to her servant that she should stand outside her bedchamber, and wait for her to come out, as she did daily; for she said she would go out to her prayer. She spoke to Bagoas according to the same words. 4 All went away from her presence, and none was left in the bedchamber, small or great. Judith, standing by his bed, said in her heart, O Lord God of all power, look in this hour upon the works of my hands for the exaltation of Jerusalem. 5 For now is the time to help your inheritance, and to do the thing that I have purposed to the destruction of the enemies which have risen up against us. 6 She came to the rail of the bed, which was at Holofernes' head, and took down his scimitar from there. 7 She drew near to the bed, took hold of the hair of his head, and said, "Strengthen me, O Lord God of Israel, this day." 8 She struck twice upon his neck with all her might, and took away his head from him, 9 tumbled his body down from the bed, and took down the canopy from the pillars. After a little while she went out, and gave Holofernes' head to her maid; 10 and she put it in her bag of food. They both went out together to prayer, according to their custom. They passed through the camp, circled around that valley, and went up to the mountain of Bethulia, and came to its gates.

¹¹ Judith said afar off to the watchmen at the gates, "Open, open the gate, now. God is with us, even our God, to show his power yet in Israel, and his might against the enemy, as he has done even this day."

¹² It came to pass, when the men of her city heard her voice, they made haste to go down to the gate of their city, and they called together the elders of the city. ¹³ They all ran together, both small and great, for it was strange to them that she had come. They opened the gate and received them, making a fire to give light, and surrounded them. ¹⁴ She said to them with a loud voice, "Praise God! Praise him! Praise God, who has not taken away his mercy from the house of Israel, but has destroyed our enemies by my hand tonight!" ¹⁵ Then she took the head out of the bag and showed it, and said to them, "Behold, the head of Holofernes, the chief captain of the army of Asshur, and behold, the canopy, in which he laid in his drunkenness. The Lord struck him by the hand of a woman. ¹⁶ And as the Lord lives, who preserved me in my way that I went, my countenance deceived him to his destruction, and he didn't commit sin with me, to defile and shame me."

¹⁷ All the people were exceedingly amazed, and bowed themselves, and worshiped God, and said with one accord, "Blessed are you, O our God, which have this day brought to nothing the enemies of your people." ¹⁸ Ozias said to her, "Blessed are you, daughter, in the sight of the Most High God, above all the women upon the earth; and blessed is the Lord God, who created the heavens and the earth, who directed you to cut off the head of the prince of our enemies. ¹⁹ For your hope will not depart from the heart of men that remember the strength of God forever. ²⁰ May God turn these things to you for a perpetual praise, to visit you with good things, because you didn't spare your life by reason of the affliction of our race, but avenged our fall, walking a straight way before our God."

And all the people said, "Amen! Amen!"

14 Judith said to them, "Hear me now, my kindred, and take this head, and hang it upon the battlement of your wall. ² It will be, so soon as the morning appears, and the sun comes up on the earth, you shall each take up his weapons of war, and every valiant man of you go out of the city. You shall set a captain over them, as though you would go down to the plain toward the watch of the children of Asshur; but you men shall not go down. ³ These shall take up their full armor, and shall go into their camp and rouse up the captains of the army of Asshur. They will run together to Holofernes' tent. They won't find him. Fear will fall upon them, and they will flee before your face. ⁴ You men, and all that inhabit every coast of Israel, shall pursue them and overthrow them as they go. ⁵ But before you do these things, summon Achior the Ammonite to me, that he may see and know him that despised the house of Israel, and that sent him to us, as it were to death.

⁶ And they called Achior out of the house of Ozias; but when he came, and saw the head of Holofernes in a man's hand in the assembly of the people, he fell upon his face, and his spirit failed. ⁷ But when they had recovered him,†† he fell at Judith's feet, and bowed down to her, and said, "Blessed are you in every tent of Judah, and in every nation, which hearing your name will be troubled. ⁸ Now tell me all the things that you have done in these days."

And Judith declared to him in the midst of the people all the things that she had done, from the day that she went out until the time that she spoke to them. ⁹ But when she finished speaking, the people shouted with a loud voice, and made a joyful noise in their city. ¹⁰ But when Achior saw all the things that the God of Israel had done, he believed in God exceedingly, and circumcised the flesh of his foreskin, and was joined to the house of Israel, to this day.

¹¹ But as soon as the morning arose, they hanged the head of Holofernes upon the wall, and every man took up his weapons, and they went forth by bands to the ascents of the mountain. ¹² But when the children of Asshur saw them, they sent word to their leaders; but they went to their captains and tribunes, and to every one of their rulers. ¹³ They came to Holofernes' tent, and said to him that was over all that he had, "Wake our lord up, now; for the slaves have been bold to come down against us to battle, that they may be utterly destroyed."

¹⁴ Bagoas went in, and knocked at the outer door of the tent; for he supposed that he was sleeping with Judith. ¹⁵ But when no one listened to him, he opened it, and went into the bedchamber, and found him cast upon the threshold dead, and his head had been taken from him. ¹⁶ He cried with a loud voice, with weeping and groaning and a mighty cry, and tore his garments. ¹⁷ He entered into the tent where Judith lodged, and he didn't find her. He leaped out to the people, and cried aloud, ¹⁸ "The slaves have dealt treacherously! One woman of the Hebrews has brought shame upon the house of king Nebuchadnezzar; for, behold, Holofernes lies upon the ground, and his head is not on him!"

¹⁹ But when the rulers of the army of Asshur heard the words, they tore their coats, and their soul was troubled exceedingly. There was a cry and an exceedingly great noise in the midst of the camp.

15 When those who were in the tents heard, they were amazed at what happened. ² Trembling and fear fell upon them, and no man dared stay any more in the sight of his neighbor, but rushing out with one accord, they fled into every way of the plain and of the hill country. ³ Those who had encamped in the hill country round about Bethulia fled away. And then the children of Israel, every one who was a warrior among them, rushed out upon them. ⁴ Ozias sent to Betomasthaim, Bebai, Chobai, and Chola, and to every coast of Israel, to tell about the things that had been accomplished, and that all should rush upon their enemies to destroy them. ⁵ But when the children of Israel heard, they all fell upon them with one accord, and struck them to Chobai. Yes, and in like manner also they of Jerusalem and of all the hill country came (for men had told them about what happened in their enemies' camp), and those who were in Gilead and in Galilee fell upon their flank with a great slaughter, until they were past Damascus and its borders. ⁶ The rest of the people who lived at Bethulia fell upon the camp of Asshur, and plundered them, and were enriched exceedingly. ⁷ The children of Israel returned from the slaughter, and got possession of that which remained. The villages and the cities that were in the hill country and in the plain country, took many spoils; for there was an exceedingly great supply.

⁸ Joakim the high priest, and the elders of the children of Israel who lived in Jerusalem, came to see the good things which the Lord had showed to Israel, and to see Judith, and to salute her. ⁹ When they came to her, they all blessed her with one accord, and said to her, "You are the exaltation of Jerusalem! You are the great glory of Israel! You are the great rejoicing of our race!" ¹⁰ You have done all these things by your hand. You have done with Israel the things that are good, and God is pleased with it. Blessed be you with the Almighty Lord forever."

And all the people said, "Amen!"

¹¹ And the people plundered the camp for the space of thirty days: and they gave Holofernes' tent to Judith, along with all his silver cups, his beds, his bowls, and all his furniture. She took them, and placed them on her mule, and prepared her wagons, and heaped them on it.

¹² And all the women of Israel ran together to see her; and they blessed her, and made a dance among them for her. She took branches in her hand, and distributed them to the women who were with her.†† 13 Then they made themselves garlands of olive, she and those who were with her, and she went before all the people in the dance, leading all the women. All the men of Israel followed in their armor with garlands, and with songs in their mouths.

16 And Judith began to sing this song of thanksgiving in all Israel, and all the people sang with loud voices this song of praise. 2 Judith said, “Begin a song to my God with timbrels.

Sing to my Lord with cymbals.
Make melody to him psalm and praise.
Exalt him, and call upon his name.

3 For the Lord is the God that crushes battles.
For in his armies in the midst of the people, he delivered me out of the hand of those who persecuted me.

4 Asshur came out of the mountains from the north.

He came with ten thousands of his army.
Its multitude stopped the torrents.
Their horsemen covered the hills.

5 He said that he would burn up my borders, kill my young men with the sword, throw my nursing children to the ground,
give my infants up as prey,
and make my virgins a plunder.

6 “The Almighty Lord brought them to nothing
by the hand of a woman.

7 For their mighty one didn’t fall by young
men,

neither did sons of the Titans strike him.

Tall giants didn’t attack him,
but Judith the daughter of Merari made him weak with the beauty of her countenance.

8 “For she put off the apparel of her widowhood

for the exaltation of those who were distressed in Israel.

She anointed her face with ointment,
bound her hair in a tiara,

and took a linen garment to deceive him.

9 Her sandal ravished his eye.

Her beauty took his soul prisoner.

The scimitar passed through his neck.

10 “The Persians quaked at her daring.

The Medes were daunted at her boldness.

11 “Then my lowly ones shouted aloud.

My weak ones were terrified and trembled for fear.

They lifted up their voice, and they fled.

12 The sons of ladies pierced them through,
and wounded them as fugitives’ children.

They perished by the battle of my Lord.

13 “I will sing to my God a new song:

O Lord, you are great and glorious,
marvelous in strength, invincible.

14 Let all your creation serve you;
for you spoke, and they were made.

You sent out your spirit, and it built them.

There is no one who can resist your voice.

15 For the mountains will be moved from their foundations with the waters, and the rocks will melt as wax at your
presence:

But you are yet merciful to those who fear you.

16 For all sacrifice is little for a sweet savor,
And all the fat is very little for a whole burnt offering to you;

But he who fears the Lord is great continually.

17 “Woe to the nations who rise up against my race!

The Lord Almighty will take vengeance on them in the day of judgement, to put fire and worms in their flesh;

and they will weep and feel their pain forever.”

18 Now when they came to Jerusalem, they worshiped God. When the people were purified, they offered their whole burnt offerings, their free will offerings, and their gifts. 19 Judith dedicated all Holofernes’ stuff, which the people had given her, and gave the canopy, which she had taken for herself out of his bedchamber, for a gift to the Lord.

††15:12 Compare 2 Maccabees 10:7.

²⁰ And the people continued feasting in Jerusalem before the sanctuary for three months, and Judith remained with them.

²¹ But after these days, everyone departed to his own inheritance. Judith went away to Bethulia, and remained in her own possession, and was honorable in her time in all the land.

house, to one hundred five years, and let her maid go free. Then she died in Bethulia. They buried her in the cave of her husband Manasses. ²⁴ The house of Israel mourned for her seven days. She distributed her goods before she died to all those who were nearest of kin to Manasses her husband, and to those who were nearest of her own kindred. ²⁵ There was no one that made the children of Israel afraid any more in the days of Judith, nor a long time after her death.

ESTHER

translated from the Greek Septuagint

Introduction

The book of Esther in the Greek Septuagint contains 5 additions that the traditional Hebrew text doesn't have. These additions are recognized as Deuterocanonical Scripture by the Roman Catholic, Greek Orthodox, and Russian Orthodox Churches. Those additions are enclosed in [square brackets]. Because the additions by themselves make little sense without the broader context of the book, we present here a translation of the whole book of Esther from the Greek.

We have chosen not to distract the reader with confusing out-of-order chapter numbers that would result from using the KJV versification, but rather merge these 5 additions as extensions at the beginning of 1:1 and after 3:13, 4:17, 8:12, and 10:3. This makes some verses (1:1, 5:1, and 8:12) really long, but it also makes the verses line up with the same verse numbers in Esther as translated from the traditional Hebrew text. Some of the proper names in this book have been changed to the more familiar Hebrew form instead of the direct transliteration from the Greek.

1 [In the second year of the reign of Ahasuerus the great king, on the first day of Nisan, Mordecai the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Jew dwelling in the city Susa, a great man, serving in the king's palace, saw a vision. Now he was of the captivity which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried captive from Jerusalem, with Jeconiah the king of Judea. This was his dream: Behold, voices and a noise, thunders and earthquake, tumult upon the earth. And, behold, two great serpents came out, both ready for conflict. A great voice came from them. Every nation was prepared for battle by their voice, even to fight against the nation of the just. Behold, a day of darkness and blackness, suffering and anguish, affection and tumult upon the earth. And all the righteous nation was troubled, fearing their own afflictions. They prepared to die, and cried to God. Something like a great river from a little spring with much water, came from their cry. Light and the sun arose, and the lowly were exalted, and devoured the honorable.

Mordecai, who had seen this vision and what God desired to do, having arisen, kept it in his heart, and desired by all means to interpret it, even until night.

Mordecai rested quietly in the palace with Gabatha and Tharrha the king's two chamberlains, eunuchs who guarded the palace. He heard their conversation and searched out their plans. He learned that they were preparing to lay hands on king Ahasuerus; and he informed the king concerning them. The king examined the two chamberlains. They confessed, and were led away and executed. The king wrote these things for a record. Mordecai also wrote concerning these matters. The king commanded Mordecai to serve in the palace, and gave gifts for this service. But Haman the son of Hammedatha the Bougean was honored in the sight of the king, and he endeavored to harm Mordecai and his people, because of the king's two chamberlains.]¶¶ And it came to pass after these things§§ in the days of Ahasuerus, —(this Ahasuerus ruled over one hundred twenty-seven provinces from India)—² in those days, when king Ahasuerus was on the throne in the city of Susa. ³ In the third year of his reign, he made a feast for his friends, and the other nations, and for the nobles of the Persians and Medes, and the chief of the local governors. ⁴ After this, after he had shown them the wealth of his kingdom and the abundant glory of his wealth during one hundred eighty days, ⁵when the days of the wedding feast were completed, the king made a banquet for the people of the nations who were present in the city for six days, in the court of the king's house, ⁶which was adorned with fine linen and flax on cords of fine linen and purple, fastened to golden and silver studs, on pillars of white marble and stone. There were golden and silver couches on a pavement of emerald stone, and of pearl, and of white marble, with transparent coverings variously flowered, having roses worked around it. ⁷There were gold and silver cups, and a small cup of carbuncle set out of the value of thirty thousand talents, with abundant and sweet wine, which the king himself drank. ⁸This banquet was not according to the appointed law; but as the king desired to have it. He charged the stewards to perform his will and that of the company.

¹⁴So Arkesaeus, Sarsathaeus, and Malisear, the princes of the Persians and Medes, who were near the king, who sat chief in rank by the king, drew near to him, ¹⁵and reported to him according to the laws what it was proper to do to queen Vashti, because she had not done the things commanded by the king through the chamberlains. ¹⁶And Memucan said to the king and to the princes, "Queen Vashti has not wronged the king only, but also all the king's rulers and princes: ¹⁷for he has told them the words of the queen, and how she †disobeyed the king. As she then refused to obey king Ahasuerus, ¹⁸so this day the other wives of the chiefs of the Persians and Medes, having heard what she said to the king, will dare in the same way to dishonor their husbands. ¹⁹If then it seems good to the king, let him make a royal decree, and let it be written according to the laws of the Medes and Persians, and let him not alter it: 'Don't allow the queen to come in to him any more. Let the king give her royalty to a woman better than she.' ²⁰Let the law of the king which he will have made be widely proclaimed in his kingdom. Then all the women will give honor to their husbands, from the poor even to the rich." ²¹This advice pleased the king and the princes; and the king did as Memucan had said, ²²and sent into all his kingdom through the several provinces, according to their language, so that men might be feared in their own houses.

2 After this, the king's anger was pacified, and he no more mentioned Vashti, bearing in mind what she had said, and how he had condemned her. ²Then the servants of the king said, "Let chaste, beautiful young virgins be sought for the king. ³Let the king appoint local governors in all the provinces of his kingdom, and let them select fair, chaste young ladies and bring them to the city Susa, into the women's apartment. Let them be consigned to the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women. Then let things for purification and other needs be given to them. ⁴Let the woman who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti."

This thing pleased the king; and he did so.

5 Now there was a Jew in the city Susa, and his name was Mordecai, the son of Jairus, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, of the tribe of Benjamin. 6 He had been brought as a prisoner from Jerusalem, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried into captivity. 7 He had a foster child, daughter of Aminadab his father's brother. Her name was Esther. When her parents died, he brought her up to womanhood as his own. This lady was beautiful. 8 And because the king's ordinance was published, many ladies were gathered to the city of Susa under the hand of Hegai; and Esther was brought to Hegai, the keeper of the women. 9 The lady pleased him, and she found favor in his sight. He hurried to give her the things for purification, her portion, and the seven maidens appointed her out of the palace. He treated her and her maidens well in the women's apartment. 10 But Esther didn't reveal her family or her kindred; for Mordecai had charged her not to tell. 11 But Mordecai used to walk every day by the women's court, to see what would become of Esther. 12 Now this was the time for a virgin to go into the king, when she should have fulfilled twelve months; for so are the days of purification fulfilled, six months while they are anointing themselves with oil of myrrh, and six months with spices and women's purifications. 13 And then the lady goes in to the king. The officer that he commands to do so will bring her to come in with him from the women's apartment to the king's chamber. 14 She enters in the evening, and in the morning she departs to the second women's apartment, where Hegai the king's chamberlain is keeper of the women. She doesn't go in to the king again, unless she is called by name. 15 And when the time was fulfilled for Esther the daughter of Aminadab the brother of Mordecai's father to go in to the king, she neglected nothing which the chamberlain, the women's keeper, commanded; for Esther found grace in the sight of all who looked at her. 16 So Esther went in to king Ahasuerus in the twelfth month, which is Adar, in the seventh year of his reign. 17 The king loved Esther, and she found favor beyond all the other virgins. He put the queen's crown on her. 18 The king made a banquet for all his friends and great men for seven days, and he highly celebrated the marriage of Esther; and he granted a remission of taxes to those who were under his dominion.

19 Meanwhile, Mordecai served in the palace. 20 Now Esther had not revealed her kindred; for so Mordecai commanded her, to fear God, and perform his commandments, as when she was with him. Esther didn't change her manner of life.

21 Two chamberlains of the king, the chiefs of the body-guard, were grieved, because Mordecai was promoted; and they sought to kill king Ahasuerus. 22 And the matter was discovered by Mordecai, and he made it known to Esther, and she declared to the king the matter of the conspiracy. 23 And the king examined the two chamberlains, and hanged them. Then the king gave orders to make a note for a memorial in the royal records of the good offices of Mordecai, as a commendation.

3 After this, king Ahasuerus highly honored Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Bugean. He exalted him and set his seat above all his friends. 2 All in the palace bowed down to him, for so the king had given orders to do; but Mordecai didn't bow down to him. 3 And they in the king's palace said to Mordecai, "Mordecai, why do you transgress the commands of the king?" 4 They questioned him daily, but he didn't listen to them; so they reported to Haman that Mordecai resisted the commands of the king; and Mordecai had shown to them that he was a Jew. 5 When Haman understood that Mordecai didn't bow down to him, he was greatly enraged, ⁶ and took counsel to utterly destroy all the Jews who were under the rule of Ahasuerus.

⁷In the twelfth year of the reign of Ahasuerus in the twelfth year of the reign of Ahasuerus, he made a decision by casting lots by day and month, to kill the race of Mordecai in one day. The lot fell on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar. ⁸So he spoke to king Ahasuerus, saying, "There is a nation scattered among the nations in all your kingdom, and their laws differ from all the other nations. They disobey the king's laws. It is not expedient for the king to tolerate them. ⁹If it seem good to the king, let him make a decree to destroy them, and I will remit into the king's treasury ten thousand talents of silver."

¹⁰So the king took off his ring, and gave it into the hands of Haman, to seal the decrees against the Jews. ¹¹The king said to Haman, "Keep the silver, and treat the nation as you will." ¹²So the king's recorders were called in the first month, on the thirteenth day, and they wrote as Haman commanded to the captains and governors in every province, from India even to Ethiopia, to one hundred twenty-seven provinces; and to the rulers of the nations according to their languages, in the name of king Ahasuerus. ¹³The message was sent by couriers throughout the kingdom of Ahasuerus, to utterly destroy the race of the Jews on the first day of the twelfth month, which is Adar, and to plunder their goods. §[The following is the copy of the letter. "From the great king Ahasuerus to the rulers and the governors under them of one hundred twenty-seven provinces, from India even to Ethiopia, who hold authority under him:

"Ruling over many nations and having obtained dominion over the whole world, I was determined (not elated by the confidence of power, but ever conducting myself with great moderation and gentleness) to make the lives of my subjects continually tranquil, desiring both to maintain the kingdom quiet and orderly to its utmost limits, and to restore the peace desired by all men. When I had asked my counselors how this should be brought to pass, Haman, who excels in soundness of judgment among us, and has been manifestly well inclined without wavering and with unshaken fidelity, and had obtained the second post in the kingdom, informed us that a certain ill-disposed people is mixed up with all the tribes throughout the world, opposed in their law to every other nation, and continually neglecting the commands of the king, so that the united government blamelessly administered by us is not quietly established. Having then conceived that this nation is continually set in opposition to every man, introducing as a change a foreign code of laws, and injuriously plotting to accomplish the worst of evils against our interests, and against the happy establishment of the monarchy; we instruct you in the letter written by Haman, who is set over the public affairs and is our second governor, to destroy them all utterly with their wives and children by the swords of the enemies, without pitying or sparing any, on the fourteenth day of the twelfth month Adar, of the present year; that the people aforesaid and now ill-disposed to us having been violently consigned to death in one day, may hereafter secure to us continually a well constituted and quiet state of affairs."] ¹⁴Copies of the letters were published in every province; and an order was given to all the nations to be ready for that day. ¹⁵This business was hastened also in Susa. The king and Haman began to drink, but the city was troubled.

4 But Mordecai, having perceived what was done, tore his garments, put on sackcloth, and sprinkled dust upon himself. Having rushed forth through the open street of the city, he cried with a loud voice, "A nation that has done no wrong is going to be destroyed!" ² He came to the king's gate, and stood; for it was not lawful for him to enter into the palace wearing sackcloth and ashes. ³ And in every province where the letters were published, there was crying, lamentation, and great mourning on the part of the Jews. They wore sackcloth and ashes. ⁴ The queen's maids and chamberlains went in and told her; and when she had heard what was done, she was disturbed. She sent to clothe Mordecai, and take away his sackcloth; but he refused. ⁵ So Esther called for her chamberlain Hathach, who waited upon her; and she sent to learn the truth from Mordecai. ⁷ Mordecai showed him what was done, and the promise which Haman had made the king of ten thousand talents to be paid into the treasury, that he might destroy the Jews. ⁸ And he gave him the copy of what was published in Susa concerning their destruction to show to Esther; and told him to charge her to go in and entreat the king, and to beg him for the people. "Remember, he said, the days of your humble condition, how you were nursed by my hand; because Haman who holds the next place to the king has spoken against us for death. Call upon the Lord, and speak to the king concerning us, to deliver us from death."

⁹ So Hathach went in and told her all these words. ¹⁰ Esther said to Hathach, "Go to Mordecai, and say, ¹¹ 'All the nations of the empire know that any man or woman who goes in to the king into the inner court without being called, that person can't live; except to whomever the king stretches out his golden sceptre, he shall live. I haven't been called to go into the king for thirty days.'"

¹² So Hathach reported to Mordecai all the words of Esther. ¹³ Then Mordecai said to Hathach, "Go, and say to her, 'Esther, don't say to yourself that you alone will escape in the kingdom, more than all the other Jews. ¹⁴ For if you refuse to listen on this occasion, help and protection will come to the Jews from another place; but you and your father's house will perish. Who knows if you have been made queen for this occasion?'"

¹⁵ And Esther sent the man that came to her to Mordecai, saying, ¹⁶ "Go and assemble the Jews that are in Susa, and all of you fast for me, and don't eat or drink for three days, night and day. My maidens and I will also fast. Then I will go in to the king contrary to the law, even if I must die."

¹⁷ So Mordecai went and did all that Esther commanded him. ^{18} [He prayed to the Lord, making mention of all the works of the Lord. ¹⁹ He said, "Lord ††God, you are king ruling over all, for all things are in your power, and there is no one who can oppose you in your purpose to save Israel; ²⁰ for you have made the heaven and the earth and every wonderful thing under heaven. ²¹ You are Lord of all, and there is no one who can resist you, Lord. ²² You know all things. You know, Lord, that it is not in insolence, nor arrogance, nor love of glory, that I have done this, to refuse to bow down to the arrogant Haman. ²³ For I would gladly have kissed the soles of his feet for the safety of Israel. ²⁴ But I have done this that I might not set the glory of man above the glory of God. I will not worship anyone except you, my Lord, and I will not do these things in arrogance. ²⁵ And now, O Lord God, the King, the God of Abraham, spare your people, for our enemies are planning our destruction, and they have desired to destroy your ancient inheritance. ²⁶ Do not overlook your people, whom you have redeemed for yourself out of the land of Egypt. ²⁷ Listen to my prayer. Have mercy on your inheritance and turn our mourning into gladness, that we may live and sing praise to your name, O Lord. Don't utterly destroy the mouth of those who praise you, O Lord."

²⁸ All Israel cried with all their might, for death was before their eyes. ²⁹ And queen Esther took refuge in the Lord, being taken as it were in the agony of death. ³⁰ Having taken off her glorious apparel, she put on garments of distress and mourning. Instead of grand perfumes she filled her head with ashes and dung. She greatly brought down her body, and she filled every place of her glad adorning with the her tangled hair. ³¹ She implored the Lord God of Israel, and said, "O my Lord, you alone are our king. I am destitute, and have no helper but you, ³² for my danger is $\text{\textcircled{H}}$ near at hand. ³³ I have heard from my birth, in the tribe of my kindred that you, Lord, took Israel out of all the nations, and our fathers out of all their kindred for a perpetual inheritance, and have done for them all that you have said. ³⁴ And now we have sinned before you, and you have delivered us into the hands of our enemies, ³⁵ because we honored their gods. You are righteous, O Lord. ³⁶ But now they have not been content with the bitterness of our slavery, but have laid their hands on the hands of their idols ³⁷ to abolish the decree of your mouth, and utterly to destroy your inheritance, and to stop the mouth of those who praise you, and to extinguish the glory of your house and your alter, ³⁸ and to open the mouth of the Gentiles to speak the $\text{\textcircled{H}}$ praises of vanities, and that a mortal king should be admired forever. ³⁹ O Lord, don't resign your sceptre to them that are not, and don't let them laugh at our fall, but turn their counsel against themselves, and make an example of him who has $\text{\textcircled{H}}$ begun to injure us. ⁴⁰ Remember us, O Lord, manifest yourself in the time of our affliction. 5 $\text{\textcircled{H}}$ It came to pass on the third day, when she had ceased praying, that she took off her servant's dress, and put on her glorious apparel. Being splendidly dressed and having called upon God the Overseer and Preserver of all things, she took her two maids, and she leaned upon one, as a delicate female, and the other followed bearing her train. She was blooming in the perfection of her beauty. Her face was cheerful and looked lovely, but her heart was filled with fear. Having passed through all the doors, she stood before the king. He was sitting on his royal throne. He had put on all his glorious apparel, covered all over with gold and precious stones, and was very terrifying. And having raised his face resplendent with glory, he looked with intense anger. The queen fell, and changed her color as she fainted. She bowed herself upon the head of the maid who went before her. But God changed the spirit of the king to gentleness, and in intense feeling, he sprang from off his throne, and took her into his arms, until she recovered. He comforted her with peaceful words, and said to her, "What is the matter, Esther? I am your relative. Cheer up! You shall not die, for our command is openly declared to you: 'Draw near.'"

² And having raised the golden sceptre, he laid it upon her neck, and embraced her. He said, "Speak to me."

So she said to him, "I saw you, my lord, as an angel of God, and my heart was troubled for fear of your glory; for you, my lord, are to be wondered at, and your face is full of grace." While she was speaking, she fainted and fell.

Then the king was troubled, and all his servants comforted her. ³ The king said, "What do you desire, Esther? What is your request? Ask even to the half of my kingdom, and it shall be yours."

⁴ Esther said, "Today is a special day. So if it seems good to the king, let both him and Haman come to the feast which I will prepare this day."

⁵ The king said, "Hurry and bring Haman here, that we may do as Esther said." So they both come to the feast about which Esther had spoken. ⁶ At the banquet, the king said to Esther, "What is your request, queen Esther? You shall have all that you require."

⁷ She said, "My request and my petition are: ⁸ if I have found favor in the king's sight, let the king and Haman come again tomorrow to the feast which I shall prepare for them, and tomorrow I will do the same."

⁹ So Haman went out from the king very glad and merry; but when Haman saw Mordecai the Jew in the court, he was greatly enraged. ¹⁰ Having gone into his own house, he called his friends, and his wife Zeresh. ¹¹ He showed them his wealth and the glory with which the king had invested him, and how he had promoted him to be chief ruler in the kingdom. ¹² Haman said, "The queen has called no one to the feast with the king but me, and I am invited tomorrow. ¹³ But these things don't please me while I see Mordecai the Jew in the court.

¹⁴ Then Zeresh his wife and his friends said to him, "Let a fifty cubit tall gallows be made for you. In the morning you speak to the king, and let Mordecai be hanged on the gallows; but you go in to the feast with the king, and be merry."

The saying pleased Haman, and the gallows was prepared.

6 The Lord removed sleep from the king that night; so he told his servant to bring in the books, the registers of daily events, to read to him. ² And he found the records written concerning Mordecai, how he had told the king about the king's two chamberlains, when they were keeping guard, and sought to lay hands on Ahasuerus. ³ The king said, "What honor or favor have we done for Mordecai?"

The king's servants said, "You haven't done anything for him."

⁴ And while the king was enquiring about the kindness of Mordecai, behold, Haman was in the court. The king said, "Who is in the court? Now Haman had come in to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows which he had prepared. ⁵ The king's servants said, "Behold, Haman stands in the court."

And the king said, "Call him!"

⁶ The king said to Haman, "What should I do for the man whom I wish to honor?"

Haman said within himself, "Whom would the king honor but myself?" ⁷ He said to the king, "As for the man whom the king wishes to honor, ⁸ let the king's servants bring the robe of fine linen which the king puts on, and the horse on which the king rides, ⁹ and let him give it to one of the king's noble friends, and let him dress the man whom the king loves. Let him mount him on the horse, and proclaim through the ††streets of the city, saying, "This is what will be done for every man whom the king honors!"

¹⁰ Then the king said to Haman, "You have spoken well. Do so for Mordecai the Jew, who waits in the palace, and let not a word of what you have spoken be neglected!"

¹¹ So Haman took the robe and the horse, dressed Mordecai, mounted him on the horse, and went through the streets of the city, and proclaimed, saying, "This is what will be done for every man whom the king wishes to honor." ¹² Then Mordecai returned to the palace; but Haman went home mourning, and having his head covered.

¹³ Haman related the events that had happened him to Zeresh his wife, and to his friends. His friends and his wife said to him, ††"If Mordecai is of the race of the Jews, and you have begun to be humbled before him, you will assuredly fall, and you will not be able to withstand him, for the living God is with him." ¹⁴ While they were still speaking, the chamberlains arrived, to rush Haman to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

7 So the king and Haman went in to drink with the queen. ² The king said to Esther at the banquet on the second day, "What is it, queen Esther? What is your request? What is your petition? It shall be done for you, up to half of my kingdom."

³ She answered and said, "If I have found favor in the sight of the king, let my life be granted as my petition, and my people as my request. ⁴ For both I and my people are sold for destruction, pillage, and genocide. If both we and our children were sold for male and female slaves, I would not have bothered you, for this ††isn't worthy of the king's palace."

⁵ The king said, "Who has dared to do this thing?"

⁶ Esther said, "The enemy is Haman, this wicked man!"

Then Haman was troubled before the king and the queen. ⁷ The king rose up from the banquet to go into the garden. Haman began to beg the queen for mercy; for he saw that he was in trouble. ⁸ The king returned from the garden; and Haman had fallen upon the bed, begging the queen for mercy. The king said, "Will you even assault my wife in my house?"

And when Haman heard it, he changed countenance. ⁹ And Bugathan, one of the chamberlains, said to the king, "Behold, Haman has also prepared a gallows for Mordecai, who spoke concerning the king, and a fifty cubit high gallows has been set up on Haman's property."

The king said, "Let him be ††hanged on it!" ¹⁰ So Haman was hanged on the gallows that had been prepared for Mordecai. Then the king's wrath was appeased.

8 On that day, king Ahasuerus gave to Esther all that belonged to Haman the slanderer. The king called Mordecai; for Esther had shown that he was related to her. ² The king took the ring which he had taken away from Haman and gave it to Mordecai. Esther appointed Mordecai over all that had been Haman's. ³ She spoke yet again to the king, and fell at his feet, and implored him to undo Haman's mischief and all that he had done against the Jews. ⁴ Then the king extended the golden sceptre to Esther; and Esther arose to stand near the king. ⁵ Esther said, "If it seems good to you, and I have found favor in your sight, let an order be sent that the letters sent by Haman may be reversed, that were written for the destruction of the Jews who are in your kingdom. ⁶For how could I see the affliction of my people, and how could I survive the destruction of my *kindred?"

⁷Then the king said to Esther, "If I have given and freely granted you all that was Haman's, and hanged him on a gallows, because he laid his hands upon the Jews, what more do you seek? ⁸Write in my name whatever seems good to you, and seal it with my ring; for whatever is written at the command of the king, and sealed with my ring, cannot be countermanded. ⁹So the scribes were called in the first month, which is Nisan, on the twenty-third day of the same year; and orders were written to the Jews, whatever the king had commanded to the †local governors and chiefs of the local governors, from India even to Ethiopia, one hundred twenty-seven local governors, according to the several provinces, in their own languages. ¹⁰They were written by order of the king, sealed with his ring, and the letters were sent by the couriers. ¹¹In them, he charged them to use their own laws in every city, to help each other, and to treat their adversaries and those who attacked them as they pleased, ¹²on one day in all the kingdom of Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is Adar. ¹³Let the copies be posted in conspicuous places throughout the kingdom. Let all the Jews be ready against this day, to fight against their enemies. The following is a copy of the letter containing orders.

ful to our interests. Many who have been frequently honored by the most abundant kindness of their †benefactors have conceived ambitious designs, and not only endeavor to hurt our subjects, but moreover, not being able to bear prosperity, they also endeavor to plot against their own benefactors. They not only would utterly abolish gratitude from among men, but also, elated by the boastings of men who are strangers to all that is good, they supposed that they would escape the sin-hating vengeance of the ever-seeing God. And oftentimes evil exhortation has made partakers of the guilt of shedding innocent blood, and has involved in irremediable calamities, many of those who had been appointed to offices of authority, who had been entrusted with the management of their friends' affairs; while men, by the false sophistry of an evil disposition, have deceived the simple candour of the ruling powers. And it is possible to see this, not so much from more ancient traditional accounts, as it is immediately in your power to see it by examining what things have been wickedly §perpetrated by the baseness of men unworthily holding power. It is right to take heed with regard to the future, that we may maintain the government in undisturbed peace for all men, adopting needful changes, and ever judging those cases which come under our notice with truly equitable decisions. For whereas Haman, a Macedonian, the son of Hammedatha, in reality an alien from the blood of the Persians, and differing widely from our mild course of government, having been hospitable entertained by us, obtained so large a share of our universal kindness as to be called our father, and to continue the person next to the royal throne, revered of all; he however, overcome by pride, endeavored to deprive us of our dominion, and our ††life; having by various and subtle artifices demanded for destruction both Mordecai our deliverer and perpetual benefactor, and Esther the blameless consort of our kingdom, along with their whole nation. For by these methods he thought, having surprised us in a defenseless state, to transfer the dominion of the Persians to the Macedonians. But we find that the Jews, who have been consigned to destruction by the ‡‡most abominable of men, are not malefactors, but living according to the justest laws, and being the sons of the living God, the most high and ¶¶mighty, who maintains the kingdom, to us as well as to our forefathers, in the most excellent order. You will therefore do well in refusing to obey the letter sent by Haman the son of Hammethatha, because he who has done these things has been hanged with his whole family at the gates of Susa, Almighty God having swiftly returned to him a worthy punishment. We enjoin you then, having openly published a copy of this letter in every place, to give the Jews permission to use their own lawful customs, and to strengthen them, that on the thirteenth of the twelfth month Adar, on the self-same day, they may defend themselves against those who attack them in a time of affliction. For in the place of the destruction of the chosen race, Almighty God has granted them this time of gladness. Therefore you also, among your notable feasts, must keep a distinct day with all festivity, that both now and hereafter it may be a day of deliverance to us and who are well disposed toward the Persians, but to those that plotted against us a memorial of destruction. And every city and province collectively, which shall not do accordingly, shall be consumed with vengeance by spear and fire.

It shall be made not only inaccessible to men, but most hateful to wild beasts and birds forever.] Let the copies be posted in conspicuous places throughout the kingdom and let all the Jews be ready against this day, to fight against their enemies. ¹⁴So the horsemen went forth with haste to perform the king's commands. The ordinance was also published in Susa.

¹⁵Mordecai went out robed in royal apparel, wearing a golden crown and a diadem of fine purple linen. The people in Susa saw it and rejoiced. ¹⁶The Jews had light and gladness ¹⁷in every city and province where the ordinance was published. Wherever the proclamation took place, the Jews had joy and gladness, feasting and mirth. Many of the Gentiles were circumcised and became Jews, for fear of the Jews.

9 Now in the twelfth month, on the thirteenth day of the month which is Adar, the letters written by the king arrived. ²In that day, the adversaries of the Jews perished; for no one resisted, through fear of them. ³For the chiefs of the local governors, and the princes and the royal scribes, honored the Jews; for the fear of Mordecai was upon them. ⁴For the order of the king was in force, that he should be celebrated in all the kingdom. ⁶In the city Susa the Jews killed five hundred men, ⁷including Pharsannes, Delphon, Phasga, ⁸Pharadatha, Barea, Sarbaca, ⁹Marmasima, Ruphaeus, Arsaeus, and Zabuthaeus, ¹⁰the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammethatha the Bugaeon, the enemy of the Jews, and they plundered their property on the same day. ¹¹The number of those who perished in Susa was reported to the king.

¹²Then the king said to Esther, "The Jews have slain five hundred men in the city Susa. What do you think they have done in the rest of the country? What more do you ask, that it may be done for you?"

¹³ Esther said to the king, "Let it be granted to the Jews to do the same to them tomorrow. Also hang the bodies of the ten sons of Haman."

¹⁴ He permitted it to be done; and he gave up to the Jews of the city the bodies of the sons of Haman to hang. ¹⁵ The Jews assembled in Susa on the fourteenth day of Adar and killed three hundred men, but plundered no property. ¹⁶ The rest of the Jews who were in the kingdom assembled, and helped one another, and obtained rest from their enemies; for they destroyed fifteen thousand of them on the thirteenth day of Adar, but took no spoil. ¹⁷ They rested on the fourteenth of the same month, and kept it as a day of rest with joy and gladness. ¹⁸ The Jews in the city Susa assembled also on the fourteenth day and rested; and they also observed the fifteenth with joy and gladness. ¹⁹ On this account then it is that the Jews dispersed in every foreign land keep the fourteenth of Adar as a holy day with joy, each sending gifts of food to his neighbor. ²⁰ Mordecai wrote these things in a book, and sent them to the Jews, as many as were in the kingdom of Ahasuerus, both those who were near and those who were far away, ²¹ to establish these as joyful days, and to keep the fourteenth and fifteenth of Adar; ²² for on these days the Jews obtained rest from their enemies; and in that month, which was Adar, in which a change was made for them, from mourning to joy, and from sorrow to a good day, to spend the whole of it in good days of feasting and gladness, sending portions to their friends and to the poor. ²³ And the Jews consented to this as Mordecai wrote to them, ²⁴ showing how Haman the son of Hammedatha the Macedonian fought against them, how he made a decree and cast lots to destroy them utterly; ²⁵ also how he went in to the king, telling him to hang Mordecai; but all the calamities he tried to bring upon the Jews came upon himself, and he was hanged, along with his children. ²⁶ Therefore these days were called Purim, because of the lots (for in their language they are called Purim) because of the words of this letter, and because of all they suffered on this account, and all that happened to them. ²⁷ Mordecai established it, and the Jews took upon themselves, and upon their seed, and upon those that were joined to them to observe it, neither would they on any account behave differently; but these days were to be a memorial kept in every generation, city, family, and province. ²⁸ These days of the Purim shall be kept forever, and their memorial shall not fail in any generation.

²⁹ Queen Esther the daughter of Aminadab, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote all that they had done, and the confirmation of the letter of Purim. ³¹ Mordecai and Esther the queen established this decision on their own, pledging their own health to their plan. ³² And Esther established it by a command forever, and it was written for a memorial.

10 The king levied a tax upon his kingdom both by land and sea. ² As for his strength and valour, and the wealth and glory of his kingdom, behold, they are written in the book of the Persians and Medes for a memorial.

dream which I had concerning these matters; for not one detail of them has failed. ⁶There was the little spring which became a river, and there was light, and the sun and much water. The river is Esther, whom the king married, and made queen. ⁷The two serpents are Haman and me. ⁸The nations are those nations who combined to destroy the name of the Jews. ⁹But as for my nation, this is Israel, even those who cried to God and were delivered; for the Lord delivered his people. The Lord rescued us out of all these calamities; and God worked such signs and great wonders as have not been done among the nations. ¹⁰Therefore he ordained two lots. One for the people of God, and one for all the other nations. ¹¹And these two lots came for an appointed season, and for a day of judgment, before God, and for all the nations. ¹²God remembered his people and vindicated his inheritance. ¹³They shall observe these days in the month Adar, on the fourteenth and on the fifteenth day of the month, with an assembly, joy, and gladness before God, throughout the generations forever among his people Israel. ¹⁴In the fourth year of the reign of Ptolemy and Cleopatra, Dositheus, who said he was a priest and Levite, and Ptolemy his son, brought this letter of Purim, which they said was the same, and that Lysimachus the son of Ptolemy, who was in Jerusalem, had interpreted.]

THE WISDOM OF SOLOMON

The Wisdom of Solomon is recognized as Deuterocanonical Scripture by the Roman Catholic, Greek Orthodox, and Russian Orthodox Churches.

1 Love righteousness, all you who are judges
of the earth.

Think of the Lord §with a good mind.

Seek him in singleness of heart,

2 because he is found by those who don't tempt
him,

and is manifested to those who trust him.

3 For crooked thoughts separate from God.

His Power convicts when it is tested,
and exposes the foolish.

4 Because wisdom will not enter into a soul that devises evil,

nor dwell in a body that is enslaved by sin.

5 For a holy spirit of discipline will flee deceit, and will depart from thoughts that are without
understanding,

and will be ashamed when unrighteousness has come in.

6 For wisdom is a spirit who loves man,
and she will not hold a ††blasphemer guiltless
for his lips;

because God is witness of his inmost self,
and is a true overseer of his heart,
and a hearer of his tongue:

7 Because the spirit of the Lord has filled ††the
world,

and that which holds all things together knows what is said.

8 Therefore no one who utters unrighteous things will be unseen;

¶¶ neither will Justice, when it convicts, pass him by.

9 For in his counsels the ungodly will be searched out,

and the sound of his words will come to the Lord to bring his lawless deeds to conviction;

10 because a jealous ear listens to all things,
and the noise of murmurings is not hidden.

11 Beware then of unprofitable murmuring, and keep your tongue from slander;

because no secret utterance will go on its way void,

and a lying mouth destroys a soul.

12 Don't court death in the error of your life;
and don't draw destruction upon yourselves by
the works of your hands,

13 because God didn't make death;
neither does he delight when the living perish.

14 For he created all things that they might have being.

§§ The generative powers of the world are wholesome,

and there is no poison of destruction in them,
nor has Hades *royal dominion upon earth;

15 For righteousness is immortal,

16 but ungodly men by their hands and their words summon †death;

deeming him a friend they †pined away.

They made a covenant with him,

because they are worthy to belong with him.

“Our life is short and sorrowful.
 There is no healing when a man comes to his
 end,
 and no one was ever known that [§]was released from Hades.
 2 Because we were born by mere chance, and hereafter we will be as though we had never been;
 because the breath in our nostrils is smoke,
 and reason is a spark kindled by the beating of our heart;
 3 which being extinguished, the body will be turned into ashes,
 and the spirit will be dispersed as thin air.
 4 Our name will be forgotten in time.
 No one will remember our works.
 Our life will pass away as the traces of a cloud,
 and will be scattered as is a mist,
 when it is chased by the rays of the sun,
 and ^{}overcome by its heat.
 5 For our allotted time is the passing of a shadow,
 and ^{††}our end doesn’t retreat;
 because it is securely sealed, and no one ^{‡‡}turns it back.
 6 “Come therefore and let’s enjoy the good things ^{¶¶}that now exist.
 Let’s use the creation earnestly as in our youth.
 7 Let’s fill ourselves with costly wine and perfumes,
 and let no Spring flower pass us by.
 8 Let’s crown ourselves with rosebuds before they wither.
 9 Let none of us go without his share in our proud revelry.
 Let’s leave tokens of mirth everywhere,
 because this is our portion, and this is our lot.
 10 Let’s oppress the righteous poor.
 Let’s not spare the widow,
 nor reverence the gray hair of the old man.

11 But let our strength be a law of
 righteousness;
 for that which is weak is proven useless.
 12 But let’s lie in wait for the righteous man, because he annoys us,
 is contrary to our works,
 reproaches us with sins against the law,
 and charges us with sins against our training.
 13 He professes to have knowledge of God,
 and calls himself a child of the Lord.
 14 He became to us a reproof of our thoughts.
 15 He is grievous to us even to look at,
 because his life is unlike other men’s,
 and his paths are strange.
 16 We were regarded by him as worthless metal,
 and he abstains from our ways as from uncleanness.
 He calls the latter end of the righteous happy.
 He boasts that God is his father.
 17 Let’s see if his words are true.
 Let’s test what will happen at the end of his life.
 18 For if the righteous man is God’s son, he will uphold him,
 and he will deliver him out of the hand of his
 adversaries.
 19 Let’s test him with outrage and torture, that we may find out how gentle he is,
 and test his patience.
 20 Let’s condemn him to a shameful death, for he will be overseen according to his words.”
 21 Thus they reasoned, and they were led astray;
 for their wickedness blinded them, 22 and they didn’t know the mysteries of God,
 neither did they hope for wages of holiness, nor did they discern that there is a prize for blameless souls.

23 Because God created man for incorruption, everlastingness;

of the devil,
and those who belong to him experience it.

3 But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God,
and no torment will touch them.

2 In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died.

Their departure was considered affliction,

3 and their travel away from us ruin;

But they are in peace.

4 For even if in the sight of men they are punished,

their hope is full of immortality.

5 Having borne a little chastening, they will receive great good;

because God tested them, and found them worthy of himself.

6 He tested them like gold in the furnace, and he accepted them as a whole burnt
offering.

7 In the time of their visitation they will shine.
They will run back and forth like sparks
among stubble.

8 They will judge nations and have dominion over peoples.

The Lord will reign over them forever.

9 Those who trust him will understand truth.

§§ The faithful will live with him in love, because grace and mercy are with his chosen ones.

10 But the ungodly will be punished even as they reasoned,

those who neglected righteousness and revolted from the Lord;

11 for he who despises wisdom and discipline is miserable.

Their hope is void and their toils unprofitable.
Their works are useless.

12 Their wives are foolish and their children are wicked.

13 Their descendants are cursed, because the barren woman who is undefiled is happy,

she who has not conceived in transgression.

She will have fruit in the visitation of souls.

14 So is the eunuch which has done no lawless deed with his hands,

nor imagined wicked things against the Lord;
for a precious gift will be given to him for his faithfulness, a special favor, and a delightful inheritance in the Lord's

sanctuary.

15 For good labors have fruit of great renown.
The root of understanding can't fail.

16 But children of adulterers will not come to maturity.

The seed of an unlawful bed will vanish away.

17 For if they live long, they will not be esteemed,

and in the end, their old age will be without honor.

18 If they die quickly, they will have no hope,
nor consolation in the day of decision.

19 For the end of an unrighteous generation is always grievous.

4 It is better to be childless with virtue,
for immortality is in the memory of virtue, because it is recognized both before God and before men.

2 When it is present, people imitate it.

They long after it when it has departed.

*Throughout all time it marches crowned in triumph,

victorious in the competition for the prizes
that are undefiled.

3 But the multiplying brood of the ungodly will be of no profit,

and their illegitimate offshoots won't take deep root,

nor will they establish a sure hold.

*4:2 Gr. in the age.

4 For even if they grow branches and flourish
for a season,
standing unsure, they will be shaken by the wind.
They will be uprooted by the violence of winds.
5 Their branches will be broken off before they come to maturity.
Their fruit will be useless,
never ripe to eat, and fit for nothing.
6 For unlawfully conceived children are witnesses of wickedness against parents when they are investigated.
7 But a righteous man, even if he dies before his time, will be at rest.
8 For honorable old age is not that which stands in length of time,
nor is its measure given by number of years:
9 But understanding is gray hair to men,
and an unspotted life is ripe old age.
10 Being found well-pleasing to God, he was loved.
While living among sinners he was transported.
11 He was caught away, lest evil should change his understanding,
or guile deceive his soul.
12 For the witchcraft of worthlessness obscures the things which are good,
and the whirl of desire perverts an innocent
mind.
13 Being made perfect quickly,
he filled a long time;
14 for his soul was pleasing to the Lord.
Therefore he hurried out of the midst of wickedness.
15 But as for the peoples seeing and not understanding,
not considering this, that grace and mercy are
with his chosen,
and that he visits his holy ones—16 but a righteous man who is dead will condemn the ungodly who are living, and youth that is quickly perfected will condemn the many years of an unrighteous man's old age.

17 For the ungodly will see a wise man's end, and won't understand what the Lord planned for him,

and why he safely kept him.

18 They will see, and they will despise;
but the Lord will laugh them to scorn.

After this, they will become a dishonored carcass

and a reproach among the dead forever;

19 because he will dash them speechless to the ground,

and will shake them from the foundations.

They will lie utterly waste.

They will be in anguish and their memory will perish.

20 They will come with coward fear when their sins are counted.

Their lawless deeds will convict them to their face.

5 Then the righteous man will stand in great boldness

before the face of those who afflicted him,
and those who make his labors of no account.

2 When they see him, they will be troubled with terrible fear,

and will be amazed at the marvel of salvation.

3 They will speak among themselves
repenting,

and for distress of spirit they will groan,

"This was he whom we used to hold in 4 We fools considered his life madness,

 us?
 9 Those things all passed away as a shadow, like a message that runs by,
 10 like a ship passing through the billowy
 water,
 which, when it has gone by, there is no trace to be found,
 no pathway of its keel in the billows.
 11 Or it is like when a bird flies through the air,
 no evidence of its passage is found,
 but the light wind, lashed with the stroke of its pinions,
 and torn apart with the violent rush of the moving wings, is passed through.
 Afterwards no sign of its coming remains.
 12 Or it is like when an arrow is shot at a mark,
 the air parted closes up again immediately, so that men don't know where it passed through.
 13 So we also, as soon as we were born, ceased to be;
 and we had no sign of virtue to show,
 but we were utterly consumed in our
 wickedness."
 14 Because the hope of the ungodly man is like chaff carried by the wind, and [‡]as foam vanishing before a tempest;
 and is scattered like smoke by the wind,
 and passes by as the remembrance of a guest that waits but a day.
 15 But the righteous live forever.
 Their reward is in the Lord,
 and the care for them with the Most High.
 16 Therefore they will receive the crown of royal dignity and the diadem of beauty from the Lord's
 hand;

because he will cover them with his right
 hand,
 and he will shield them with his arm.
 17 He will take his jealousy as complete armor,
 and will make the whole creation his weapons
 to punish his enemies:
 18 He will put on righteousness as a breastplate,
 and will wear impartial judgement as a helmet.
 19 He will take holiness as an invincible shield.
 20 He will sharpen stern wrath for a sword.
 The world will go with him to fight against his frenzied foes.
 21 Shafts of lightning will fly with true aim.
 They will leap to the mark from the clouds, as from a well-drawn bow.
 22 Hailstones full of wrath will be hurled from an engine of war.
 The water of the sea will be angered against
 them.
 Rivers will sternly overwhelm them.
 23 A mighty blast will encounter them.
 It will winnow them away like a tempest.
 So lawlessness will make all the land desolate.
 Their evil-doing will overturn the thrones of princes.
 6 Hear therefore, you kings, and understand.
 Learn, you judges of the ends of the earth.
 2 Give ear, you rulers who have dominion over many people,
 and make your boast [§]in multitudes of nations, 3 because your dominion was given to you from the Lord,
 and your sovereignty from the Most High.
 He will search out your works,
 and will inquire about your plans;
 4 because being officers of his kingdom, you didn't judge rightly,
 nor did you keep law,

‡5:14 Gr. like foam chased to thinness: or, as thin foam chased.

¶5:14 Most Greek authorities read hoar frost: some authorities, perhaps rightly, a spider's web.

§6:2 Or, in the multitudes of your nations

6:4 Or, the law

nor did you walk according to God's counsel.

5 He will come upon you awfully and swiftly, because a stern judgement comes on those who are in high place.

6 For the man of low estate may be pardoned in mercy, but mighty men will be mightily tested.

7 For the Sovereign Lord of all will not be impressed with anyone, neither will he show deference to greatness; because it is he who made both small and great,

and cares about them all;

8 but the scrutiny that comes upon the powerful is strict.

9 Therefore, my words are to you, O princes, that you may learn wisdom and not fall away.

10 For those who have kept the things that are holy in holiness will be made holy.

Those who have been taught them will find what to say in defense.

11 Therefore set your desire on my words.

Long for them, and you princes will be instructed.

12 Wisdom is radiant and doesn't fade away; and is easily seen by those who love her, and found by those who seek her.

13 She anticipates those who desire her, making herself known.

14 He who rises up early to seek her won't have difficulty, for he will find her sitting at his gates.

15 For to think upon her is perfection of understanding, and he who watches for her will quickly be free from care;

16 because she herself goes around, seeking those who are worthy of her,

and in their paths she appears to them graciously,

and in every purpose she meets them.

17 For her true beginning is desire for instruction;

and desire for instruction is love.

18 And love is observance of her laws.

To give heed to her laws confirms immortality.

19 Immortality brings closeness to God.

20 So then desire for wisdom promotes to a kingdom.

21 If therefore you delight in thrones and sceptres, you princes of peoples, honor wisdom, that you may reign forever.

22 But what wisdom is, and how she came into being, I will declare.

I won't hide mysteries from you;

but I will explore from her first beginning,

bring the knowledge of her into clear light,

and I will not pass by the truth.

23 Indeed, I won't go with consuming envy, because envy will have no fellowship with wisdom.

24 But a multitude of wise men is salvation to the world, and an understanding king is stability for his people.

25 Therefore be instructed by my words, and you will profit.

7 I myself am also ††mortal, like everyone else, and am a descendant of one formed first and born of the earth.

2 I molded into flesh in the time of ten months in my mother's womb, being compacted in blood from the seed of man and pleasure that came with sleep.

3 I also, when I was born, drew in the common air, and fell upon the kindred earth,

uttering, like all, for my first voice, the same cry.

4 I was nursed with care in swaddling clothes.

5 For no king had any other first beginning;

6 but all men have one entrance into life, and a common departure.

7 For this cause I prayed, and understanding was given to me.

I asked a spirit of wisdom came to me.

††7:1 Many authorities read a mortal man.

8 I preferred her before sceptres and thrones.
I considered riches nothing in comparison to her.

9 Neither did I liken to her any priceless gem, because all gold in her presence is a little sand,
and silver will be considered as clay before her.

10 I loved her more than health and beauty,
and I chose to have her rather than light,
because her bright shining is never laid to sleep.

11 All good things came to me with her,
and innumerable riches are in her hands.

12 And I rejoiced over them all because wisdom leads them;
although I didn't know that she was their mother.

13 As I learned without guile, I impart without grudging.

I don't hide her riches.

14 For she is a treasure for men that doesn't fail, and those who use it obtain friendship with God,
commended by the gifts which they present through discipline.

15 But may God grant that I may speak his judgement, and to conceive thoughts worthy of what has been given me;
because he is one who guides even wisdom and who corrects the wise.

16 For both we and our words are in his hand,
with all understanding and skill in various crafts.

17 For he himself gave me an unerring knowledge of the things that are,
to know the structure of the universe and the operation of the elements;

18 the beginning, end, and middle of times;
the alternations of the solstices and the changes of seasons;

19 the circuits of years and the positions of stars;

20 the natures of living creatures and the raging of wild beasts;

The violence of ~~the~~ winds and the thoughts of men;

the diversities of plants and the virtues of roots.

21 All things that are either secret or manifest I learned,

22 for wisdom, that is the architect of all things, taught me.

For there is in her a spirit that is quick to understand, holy, unique, manifold, subtle, freely moving, clear in utterance, unpolluted, distinct, unharmed, loving what is good, keen, unhindered,

23 beneficent, loving toward man, steadfast, sure, free from care, all-powerful, all-surveying, and penetrating through all spirits that are quick to understand, pure, most subtle:

24 For wisdom is more mobile than any motion.

Yes, she pervades and penetrates all things by reason of her purity.

25 For she is a breath of the power of God,
and a clear effluence of the glory of the Almighty.

Therefore nothing defiled can find entrance into her.

26 For she is a reflection of everlasting light, an unspotted mirror of the working of God,
and an image of his goodness.

27 She, being one, has power to do all things.
Remaining in herself, she renews all things.

From generation to generation passing into holy souls,

she makes friends of God and prophets.

28 For God loves nothing as much as one who dwells with wisdom.

29 For she is fairer than the sun,
and above all the constellations of the stars.
She is better than light.

30 For daylight succeeds night,

but evil does not prevail against wisdom.

8 But she reaches from one end to the other with full strength, and orders all things well.

² I loved her and sought her from my youth.

I sought to take her for my bride.

I became enamoured by her beauty.

³ She glorifies her noble birth by living with God.

The Sovereign Lord of all loves her.

⁴ For she is initiated into the knowledge of God,

and she chooses his works.

⁵ But if riches are a desired possession in life, what is richer than wisdom, which makes all
things?

⁶ And if understanding works, who more than ¶wisdom is an architect of the things that exist?

⁷ If a man loves righteousness,
§§the fruits of wisdom's labor are virtues,
for she teaches soberness, understanding, righteousness, and courage.

There is nothing in life more profitable for people than these.

⁸ And if anyone longs for wide experience, she knows the things of old, and infers the things to come.

She understands subtleties of speeches and interpretations of dark sayings.

She foresees signs and wonders, and the issues of seasons and times.

⁹ Therefore I determined to take her to live with me,

knowing that she is one who would give me
good counsel,

and encourage me in cares and grief.

¹⁰ Because of her, I will have glory among multitudes,

and honor in the sight of elders, though I am
young.

¹¹ I will be found keen when I give judgement.
I will be admired in the presence of rulers.

¹² When I am silent, they will wait for me.

When I open my lips, they will heed what I say.

If I continue speaking, they will put their hands on their mouths.

¹³ Because of her, I will have immortality, and leave behind an eternal memory to those who come after me.

¹⁴ I will govern peoples.

Nations will be subjected to me.

¹⁵ Dreaded monarchs will fear me when they hear of me.

Among the people, I will show myself to be good, and courageous in war.

¹⁶ When I come into my house, I will find rest with her.

For conversation with her has no bitterness, and living with her has no pain, but gladness and joy.

¹⁷ When I considered these things in myself, and thought in my heart how immortality is in kinship to wisdom,

¹⁸ and in her friendship is good delight, and in the labors of her hands is wealth that doesn't fail,

and understanding is in her companionship, and great renown in having fellowship with her words,

I went about seeking how to take her to myself.

¹⁹ Now I was a clever child, and received a good soul fell.

²⁰ Or rather, being good, I came into an unde-filed body.

²¹ But perceiving that I could not otherwise possess wisdom unless God gave her to
me—

yes, and to know and understand by whom the grace is given—

I pleaded with the Lord and implored him, and with my whole heart I said,

9 "O God of the fathers, and Lord of mercy, who made all things by your word;

¶18:6 Gr. she.

§§8:7 Gr. Her labors are.

2 and by your wisdom you formed man, that he should have dominion over the creatures that were made by you, 3 and rule the world in holiness and
 righteousness,
 and execute judgement in uprightness of soul; 4 give me wisdom, her who sits by you on your thrones.
 Don't reject me from among your *servants,
 5 because I am your servant and the son of your handmaid,
 a weak and short-lived man,
 with little power to understand judgement and laws.
 6 For even if a man is perfect among the sons of men,
 if the wisdom that comes from you is not with him, he will count for nothing.
 7 You chose me to be king of your people,
 and a judge for your sons and daughters.
 8 You gave a command to build a sanctuary on your holy mountain, and †an altar in the city where you pitch your tent,
 a copy of the holy tent which you prepared from the beginning.
 9 Wisdom is with you and knows your works, and was present when you were making the
 world,
 and understands what is pleasing in your eyes, and what is right according to your
 commandments.
 10 Send her from the holy heavens, and ask her to come from the throne of your glory,
 that being present with me she may work,
 and I may learn what is pleases you well.
 11 For she knows all things and understands,
 and she will guide me soberly in my actions.
 She will guard me in her glory.
 12 So my works will be acceptable.

I will judge your people righteously,
 and I will be worthy of my father's ‡throne.
 13 For what man will know the counsel of
 God?
 Or who will conceive what the Lord wills?
 14 For the thoughts of mortals are unstable,
 and our plans are prone to fail.
 15 For a corruptible body weighs down the
 soul.
 The earthy frame lies heavy on a mind that is full of cares.
 16 We can hardly guess the things that are on
 earth,
 and we find the things that are close at hand
 with labor;
 but who has traced out the things that are in
 the heavens?
 17 Who gained knowledge of your counsel,
 unless you gave wisdom,
 and sent your holy spirit from the highest?
 18 It was thus that the ways of those who are on earth were corrected, and men were taught the things that are pleasing to you.
 They were saved through wisdom.”
 ¶10 Wisdom guarded to the end the first formed father of the world, that was created alone,
 And delivered him out of his own transgression,
 2 And gave him strength to get dominion over all things.
 3 But when an unrighteous man fell away from her in his anger,
 He perished himself in the rage wherewith he killed his brother.
 4 And when for his cause the earth was drowning with a flood,
 Wisdom again saved it,
 Guiding the righteous man's course by a poor piece of wood.

in wickedness had been confounded,

served him blameless to God,

- 6 While the ungodly were perishing, wisdom
delivered a righteous man,
When he fled from the fire that descended out of heaven on ††Pentapolis.
- 7 To whose wickedness a smoking waste still witnesses,
And plants bearing fair fruit that comes not to ripeness;

there, a pillar of salt still standing.
- 8 For having passed wisdom by,
Not only were they disabled from recognising
the things which are good,
But they also left behind them ¶¶for human

To the end that §§where they *went astray they might fail even to be unseen:
- 9 But wisdom delivered out of troubles those that waited on her.
- 10 When a righteous man was a fugitive from a brother's wrath, †wisdom guided him in straight paths;
She showed him God's kingdom, and gave him knowledge of holy things;
She prospered him in his toils, and multiplied
the fruits of his labor;
- 11 When in their covetousness men dealt hardly with him,
She stood by him and made him rich;
12 She guarded him from enemies,
And from those that lay in wait she kept him
safe,
And over his sore conflict she watched as judge,
That he might know that godliness is more powerful than ‡all.
- 13 When a righteous man was sold, ¶wisdom
forsook him not,
But §from sin she delivered him;
She went down with him into a dungeon,
14 And in bonds she left him not,
Till she brought him the sceptre of a kingdom,
And authority over those that dealt tyrannously with him;
She showed them also to be false that had mockingly accused him,
And gave him eternal glory.
- 15 Wisdom delivered a holy people and a blameless seed from a nation of oppressors.
- 16 She entered into the soul of a servant of the Lord,
And withstood terrible kings in wonders and signs.
- 17 She rendered to holy men a reward of their toils;
She guided them along a marvelous way,
And became to them a covering in the day-
time,

 18 She brought them over the Red sea,
 And led them through much water;
 19 But their enemies she drowned,
 And out of the bottom of the deep she cast them up.
 20 Therefore the righteous plundered the ungodly;
 And they sang praise to your holy name, O
 Lord,
 And extolled with one accord your hand that fought for them:
 21 Because wisdom opened the mouth of the mute,
 And made the tongues of babes to speak
 clearly.
11 She prospered their works in the hand of a holy prophet.
 2 They traveled through a desert without inhabitant,
 And in trackless regions they pitched their tents.
 3 They withstood enemies, and ††repelled foes.
 4 They thirsted, and they called upon you,
 And there was given them water out of ‡‡the ¶¶flinty rock,
 And healing of their thirst out of the hard stone.
 5 For by what things their foes were punished,
 By these they in their need were benefited.
 6 When enemies were troubled with clotted blood
 instead of a river's ever-flowing fountain, 7 to rebuke the decree for the slaying of babies,
 you gave them abundant water beyond all
 hope,
 8 having shown by the thirst which they had suffered
 how you punished the adversaries.

9 For when they were tried, although chastened in mercy,
 they learned how the ungodly were tormented,
 being judged with wrath.
 10 For you tested these as a father admonishing
 them;
 but you searched out those as a stern king condemning them.
 11 Yes and whether they were far off or near,
 they were equally distressed;
 12 for a double grief seized them,
 and a groaning at the memory of things past.
 13 For when they heard that through their own punishments the others benefited, they recognized the Lord.
 14 For him who long before was thrown out and exposed they stopped mocking.
 In the end of what happened, they marveled, having thirsted in another manner than the righteous.
 15 But in return for the senseless imaginings of their unrighteousness, wherein they were led astray to worship irrational reptiles and wretched vermin, you sent upon them a multitude of irrational creatures for vengeance;
 16 that they might learn that by what things a man sins, by these he is punished.
 17 For your all-powerful hand that created the world out of formless matter didn't lack means to send upon them a multitude of bears, fierce lions, 18 or newly-created and unknown wild beasts,
 full of rage,
 either breathing out a blast of fiery breath,
 or belching out smoke,
 or flashing dreadful sparks from their eyes; 19 which had power not only to consume them
 by their violence, but to destroy them even by the terror of their sight.

††11:3 Or, took vengeance on foes

‡‡11:4 Or, the steep rock

¶¶11:4 See Deuteronomy 8:15; Psalm 114:8.

20 Yes and without these they might have fallen by a single breath, being pursued by Justice, and scattered abroad by the breath of your power; but you arranged all things by measure, number, and weight.

21 For to be greatly strong is yours at all times. Who could withstand the might of your arm?

22 Because the whole world before you is as a grain in a balance, and as a drop of dew that comes down upon the earth in the morning.

23 But you have mercy on all men, because you have power to do all things, and you overlook the sins of men to the end that they may repent.

24 For you love all things that are, and abhor none of the things which you made; For you never would have formed anything if you hated it.

25 How would anything have endured unless you had willed it?

Or that which was not called by you, how would it have been preserved?

26 But you spare all things, because they are yours,

O Sovereign Lord, you lover of lives.

12 For your incorruptible spirit is in all things.

2 Wherefore you convict little by little those who fall from the right way, and, putting them in remembrance by the things wherein they sin, you admonish them, that escaping from their wickedness they may believe in you, O Lord.

3 For truly the old inhabitants of your holy land,

4 hating them because they practiced detestable works of enchantments and unholy rites—

5 §§merciless slaughters of children and sacrificial banquets of men's flesh and of blood—

6 allies in an impious fellowship, and murderers of their own helpless babes, it was your counsel to destroy by the hands of our fathers;

7 that the land which in your sight is most precious of all might receive a worthy colony of God's servants.*

8 Nevertheless you even spared these as men, and you sent hornets† as forerunners of your army, to cause them to perish little by little;

9 Not that you were unable to subdue the ungodly under the hand of the righteous in battle, or by terrible beasts or by a stern word to make away with them at once;

10 but judging them little by little you gave them a chance to repent, not being ignorant that their nature by birth was evil, their wickedness inborn, and that their manner of thought would never be changed.

11 For they were a cursed seed from the beginning.

It wasn't through fear of any that you left them unpunished for their sins.

12 For who will say, "What have you done?" Or "Who will withstand your judgement?"

Who will accuse you for the perishing of nations which you caused?

Or who will come and stand before you as an avenger for unrighteous men?

13 For there isn't any God beside you that cares for all, that you might show that you didn't judge unrighteously.

§§12:5 The words rendered slaughters and impious in verses 5 and 6 differ but slightly from the readings of the Greek text, which here yield no sense.

*12:7 Or, children

†12:8 Or, wasps

14 No king or prince will be able to look you in the face
for those whom you have punished.
15 But being righteous, you rule all things righteously,
deeming it a thing alien from your power to condemn one that does not deserve to be punished.
16 For your strength is the beginning of
righteousness,
and your sovereignty over all makes you to forbear all.
17 For when men don't believe that you are perfect in power, you show your strength, ‡and in dealing with those who think this, you confuse their boldness.
18 But you, being sovereign over strength,
judge in gentleness,
and with great forbearance do you govern us;
for the power is yours whenever you desire it.
19 But you taught your people by such works as these,
how the righteous must be a lover of men.
You made your sons to have good hope, because you give repentance when men have sinned.
20 For if on those who were enemies of your servants¶ and due to death you took vengeance with so great deliberation and indulgence, giving them times and opportunities when they might escape from their wickedness; 21 with how great carefulness you judged your sons,
to whose fathers you gave oaths and covenants
of good promises!
22 Therefore while you chasten us, you scourge our enemies ten thousand times
more,
to the intent that we may ponder your goodness when we judge,
and when we are judged may look for mercy.

23 Wherefore also the unrighteous that lived in folly of life,
you tormented through their own abominations.
24 For truly they went astray very far in the ways of error,
Taking as gods those animals§ which even among their enemies were held in dishonor,
deceived like foolish babes.
25 Therefore, as to unreasoning children, you sent your judgement to mock them.
26 But those who would not be admonished by a mocking correction as of children will experience a judgement worthy of God.
27 For through the sufferings they were indignant of,
being punished in these creatures which they supposed to be gods, they saw and recognized as the true God him whom they refused to know.
Therefore also the result of condemnation came upon them.

13 For truly all men who had no perception of God were vain by nature, and didn't gain power to know him who exists
from the good things that are seen.
They didn't recognize the architect from his works.
2 But they thought that either fire, or wind, or swift air,
or circling stars, or raging water, or luminaries of heaven
were gods that rule the world.
3 If it was through delight in their beauty that they took them to be gods, let them know how much better their Sovereign Lord is than these,
for the first author of beauty created them.
4 But if it was through astonishment at their power and influence,

‡12:17 The Greek text here is perhaps corrupt.

¶12:20 Or, children

§12:24 Gr. living creatures: and so elsewhere in this book.

then let them understand from them how much more powerful he who formed them is.

5 For from the greatness of the beauty of created things, mankind forms the corresponding image of their Maker.

6 But yet for these men there is but small blame, for they too perhaps go astray while they are seeking God and desiring to find him.

7 For they diligently search while living among his works, and they trust their sight that the things that they look at are beautiful.

8 But again even they are not to be excused.

9 For if they had power to know so much, that they should be able to explore the world, how is it that they didn't find the Sovereign Lord sooner?

10 But miserable ††were they, and ‡‡in dead things ¶¶were their hopes, Who called them gods which are works of men's hands, gold and silver, skillfully made, and likenesses of animals, or a useless stone, the work of an ancient hand.

11 Yes and if some §§woodcutter, having sawn down a *tree that is easily moved, skillfully strips away all its bark, and fashioning it in attractive form, makes a useful vessel to serve his life's needs.

12 Burning the scraps from his handiwork to cook his food, he eats his fill.

13 Taking a discarded scrap which served no purpose, a crooked piece of wood and full of knots, carves it with the diligence of his idleness, and shapes it by the skill of his †idleness. He shapes it in the image of a man, 14 or makes it like some paltry animal, smearing it with something red, painting it red, and smearing over every stain in it.

15 Having made a worthy chamber for it, he sets it in a wall, securing it with iron.

16 He plans for it that it may not fall down, knowing that it is unable to help itself (for truly it is an image, and needs help).

17 When he makes his prayer concerning goods and his marriage and children, he is not ashamed to speak to that which has no life.

18 Yes, for health, he calls upon that which is weak.

For life, he implores that which is dead.

For aid, he supplicates that which has no experience.

For a good journey, he asks that which can't so much as move a step.

19 And for profit in business and good success of his hands,

he asks ability from that which has hands with no ability.

14 Again, one preparing to sail, and about to journey over raging waves, calls upon a piece of wood more rotten than the vessel that carries him.

2 For the hunger for profit planned it, and wisdom was the craftsman who built it.

 that even a man without skill may put to sea.
 5 It is your will that the works of your wisdom should be not idle.
 Therefore men also entrust their lives to a little piece of wood, and passing through the surge on a raft come safely to land.
 6 For [‡]in the old time also, when proud giants were perishing,
 the hope of the world, taking refuge on a raft,
 your hand guided the seed of generations of the race of men.
 7 For blessed is wood through which comes righteousness;
 8 but the idol made with hands is accursed, itself and he that made it;
 because his was the working, and the corruptible thing was called a god:
 9 For both the ungodly and his ungodliness are alike hateful to God;
 10 for truly the deed will be punished together with him who committed it.
 11 Therefore also there will be a visitation among the idols of the nation, because, though formed of things which God created, they were made an abomination, stumbling blocks to the souls of men,
 and a snare to the feet of the foolish.
 12 For the devising of idols was the beginning of fornication, and the invention of them the corruption of life.
 13 For they didn't exist from the beginning,
 and they won't exist forever.
 14 For by the vaingloriousness of men they entered into the world,
 and therefore was a speedy end is planned for them.
 15 For a father worn with untimely grief, making an image of the child quickly taken away,

now honored him as a god which was then a dead man,
 and delivered to those that were under him mysteries and solemn rites.
 16 Afterward the ungodly custom, in process of time grown strong, was kept as a law, and the engraved images received worship by the commandments of princes.
 17 And when men could not honor them in presence because they lived far off, imagining the likeness from afar,
 they made a visible image of the king whom they honored, that by their zeal they might flatter the absent as if present.
 18 But worship was raised to a yet higher pitch,
 even by those who didn't know him,
 urged forward by the ambition of the architect; 19 for he, wishing perhaps to please one in authority, used his art to force the likeness toward a greater beauty.
 20 So the multitude, allured by reason of the grace of his handiwork, now consider an object of devotion him that a little before was honored as a man.
 21 And this became an ambush, because men, in bondage either to calamity or to tyranny, invested stones and stocks with the incommunicable Name.
 22 Afterward it was not enough for them to go astray concerning the knowledge of God;
 but also, while they live in a great war of ignorance that they call a multitude of evils peace.
 23 For either slaughtering children in solemn rites, or celebrating secret mysteries, or holding frantic revels of strange ordinances, 24 no longer do they guard either life or purity of marriage, but one brings upon another either death by treachery, or anguish by adultery.

[‡]14:6 The Greek text here may be corrupt.

25 And all things confusedly are filled with blood and murder, theft and deceit, corruption, faithlessness, tumult, perjury, 26 confusion about what is good, forgetfulness of favors,
 ingratitude for benefits,
 defiling of souls, confusion of sex, disorder in marriage, adultery and wantonness.
 27 For the worship of idols that may not be named ^c
 is a beginning and cause and end of every evil.
 28 For their worshipers either make merry to madness, or prophesy lies,
 or live unrighteously, or lightly commit perjury.
 29 For putting their trust in lifeless idols, when they have sworn a wicked oath, they expect not to suffer harm.
 30 But for both, the just doom will pursue
 them,
 because they had evil thoughts of God by giving heed to idols,
 and swore unrighteously in deceit through contempt for holiness.
 31 For it is not the power of them by whom men swear,
 but it is the just penalty for those who sin that always visits the transgression of the unrighteous.
15 But you, our God, are gracious and true, patient, and in mercy ordering all things.
 2 For even if we sin, we are yours, knowing your dominion;
 but we will not sin, knowing that we have been accounted yours.
 3 For to be acquainted with you is ¶perfect
 righteousness,
 and to know your dominion is the root of immortality.

4 For we weren't led astray by any evil plan of men's,
 nor yet by painters' fruitless labor,
 a form stained with varied colors,
 5 the sight of which leads fools into §lust.
 Their desire is for the breathless form of a dead image.
 6 Lovers of evil things, and worthy of such hopes,
 are those who make, desire, and worship
 them.
 7 For a potter, kneading soft earth,
 laboriously molds each article for our service.
 He fashions out of the same clay
 both the vessels that minister to clean uses, and those of a contrary sort,
 all in like manner.
 What shall be the use of each article of either sort,
 the potter is the judge.
 8 Also, laboring to an evil end, he molds a vain
 god out of the same clay, he who, having but a little before been made of earth,
 after a short space goes his way to the earth
 out of which he was taken, when he is required to render back the soul
 which was lent him.
 9 However he has anxious care,
 not because his powers must fail,
 nor because his span of life is short;
 But he compares himself with goldsmiths and silversmiths,
 and he imitates molders in ††brass,
 and esteems it glory that he molds counterfeits.
 10 His heart is ashes.
 His hope is of less value than earth.
 His life is of less honor than clay;

¶15:3 Gr. entire.

§15:5 Some authorities read reproach.

15:8 Or, life

††15:9 Or, copper

11 because he was ignorant of him who molded him,
and of him that inspired into him [‡]an active [¶]soul,
and breathed into him a vital spirit.

12 But [§]she accounted our life to be a game,
and our ^{*}lifetime a festival for profit;
for, he says, one must get gain however one can, even if it is by evil.

13 For this man beyond all others knows that he sins,
out of earthy matter making brittle vessels and graven images.

14 But most foolish and more miserable than a baby,
are the enemies of your people, who oppressed them;

15 because they even considered all the idols
of the nations to be gods, which have neither the use of eyes for seeing,
nor nostrils for drawing breath,
nor ears to hear,
nor fingers for handling,
and their feet are helpless for walking.

16 For a man made them,
and one whose own spirit is borrowed molded
them;
for no one has power as a man to mold a god
like to himself.

17 But, being mortal, he makes a dead thing by the work of lawless hands;
for he is better than the objects of his worship,
since he indeed had life, but they never did.

18 Yes, and they worship the creatures that are most hateful,
for, being compared as to lack of sense, these are worse than all others;

19 Neither, as seen beside other creatures, are they beautiful, so that one should desire
them,

but they have escaped both the praise of God and his blessing.

16 For this cause, they were deservedly punished through creatures like those which they worship,

and tormented through a multitude of vermin.
2 Instead of this punishment, you, giving benefits to your people,
prepared quails for food,
a delicacy to satisfy the desire of their appetite,

3 to the end that your enemies, desiring food, might for the hideousness of the creatures sent among them,

loathe even the necessary appetite;
but these, your people, having for a short time suffered lack,

might even partake of delicacies.

4 For it was necessary that inescapable lack should come upon those oppressors, but that to these it should only be showed how their enemies were tormented.

5 For even when terrible raging of wild beasts came upon your people, and they were perishing by the bites of crooked serpents,

your wrath didn't continue to the uttermost;
6 but for admonition were they troubled for a short time,

having a token of salvation to put them in remembrance of the commandment of your law;

7 for he who turned toward it was not saved
because of that which was seen, but because of you, the Savior of all.

8 Yes, and in this you persuaded our enemies that you are he who delivers out of every evil.

9 For the bites of locusts and flies truly killed
them.

No healing for their life was found,

‡15:11 Gr. a soul that moves to activity.

¶15:11 Or, life

§15:12 Some authorities read they accounted.

*15:12 Or, way of life

because they were worthy to be punished by such things.

10 But your children weren't overcome by the very teeth of venomous dragons, for your mercy passed by where they were and healed them.

11 For they were bitten to put them in remembrance of your oracles, and were quickly saved, lest, falling into deep forgetfulness, they should become unable to respond to your kindness.

12 For truly it was neither herb nor mollifying plaster that cured them, but your word, O Lord, which heals all things.

13 For you have authority over life and death, and you lead down to the gates of Hades, and lead up again.

14 But though a man kills by his wickedness, he can't retrieve the spirit that has departed or release the soul the imprisoned soul.

15 But it is not possible to escape your hand;

16 for ungodly men, refusing to know you, were scourged in the strength of your arm, pursued with strange rains and hails and relentless storms, and utterly consumed with fire.

17 For, what was most marvelous, in the water which quenches all things, the fire burned hotter;

for the world fights for the righteous.

18 For at one time the flame lost its fierceness, that it might not burn up the creatures sent against the ungodly, but that these themselves as they looked might see that they were chased through the judgement of God.

19 At another time even in the midst of water it burns above the power of fire, that it may destroy the products fruits of an unrighteous land.

20 Instead of these things, you gave your people angels' food to eat, and you provided ready-to-eat bread for them from heaven without toil, having the virtue of every pleasant flavor, and agreeable to every taste.

21 For your nature showed your sweetness toward your children, while that bread, serving the desire of the eater,

changed itself according to every man's choice.

22 But snow and ice endured fire, and didn't melt, that people might know that fire was destroying the fruits of the enemies, burning in the hail and flashing in the rains;

23 and that this fire again, in order that righteous people may be nourished, has even forgotten its own power.

24 For the creation, ministering to you its maker, strains its force against the unrighteous for punishment and slackens it on behalf of those who trust in you, for kindness.

25 Therefore at that time also, converting itself into all forms,

it ministered to your all-nourishing bounty, according to the desire of those who had need,

26 that your sons, whom you loved, O Lord, might learn that it is not the growth of crops that nourishes a man,

but that your word preserves those who trust in you.

27 For that which was not marred by fire, when it was simply warmed by a faint sunbeam melted away,

28 that it might be known that we must rise before the sun to give you thanks, and must plead with you at the dawning of the light;

29 for the hope of the unthankful will melt as the winter's hoar frost, and will flow away as water that has no use.

17 For your judgments are great, and hard to interpret;

therefore undisciplined souls went astray.

2 For when lawless men had supposed that they held a holy nation in their power, they, prisoners of darkness, and bound in the fetters of a long night, kept close beneath their roofs, lay exiled from the eternal providence.

3 For while they thought that they were unseen in their secret sins, they were divided from one another by a dark curtain of forgetfulness, stricken with terrible awe, and very troubled by apparitions.

4 For neither did the dark recesses that held them guard them from fears, But terrifying sounds rang around them, and dismal phantoms appeared with unsmiling faces.

5 And no force of fire prevailed to give light, neither were the brightest flames of the stars strong enough to illuminate that gloomy night;

6 but only the glimmering of a self-kindled fire appeared to them, full of fear.

In terror, they considered the things which they saw to be worse than that sight, on which they could not gaze.

7 The mockeries of their magic arts were powerless, now, and a shameful rebuke of their boasted understanding:

8 For those who promised to drive away terrors and disorders from a sick soul, these were sick with a ludicrous fearfulness.

9 For even if no troubling thing frightened them, yet, scared with the creeping of vermin and hissing of serpents,

10 they perished trembling in fear, refusing even to look at the air, which could not be escaped on any side.

11 For wickedness, condemned by a witness within, is a coward thing, and, being pressed hard by conscience, always has added forecasts of the worst.

12 For fear is nothing else but a surrender of the help which reason offers;

13 and from within, the expectation of being less makes of greater account the ignorance of the cause that brings the torment.

14 But they, all through the night which was powerless indeed, and which came upon them out of the recesses of powerless Hades, sleeping the same sleep,

15 now were haunted by monstrous apparitions, and now were paralyzed by their soul's surrendering;

for sudden and unexpected fear came upon them.

16 So then whoever it might be, sinking down in his place, was kept captive, shut up in that prison which was not barred with iron;

17 for whether he was a farmer, or a shepherd, or a laborer whose toils were in the wilderness, he was overtaken, and endured that inevitable necessity;

for they were all bound with one chain of darkness.

18 Whether there was a whistling wind, or a melodious sound of birds among the spreading branches, or a measured fall of water running violently,

19 or a harsh crashing of rocks hurled down, or the swift course of animals bounding along unseen, or the voice of wild beasts harshly roaring, or an echo rebounding from the hollows of the mountains,

all these things paralyzed them with terror.

20 For the whole world was illuminated with clear light,

and was occupied with unhindered works,

21 while over them alone was spread a heavy night,

an image of the darkness that should afterward receive them;

but to themselves, they were heavier than darkness.

18 But for your holy ones there was great light.

Their enemies, hearing their voice but seeing not their form, counted it a happy thing that they too had suffered,

2 fet for that they do not hurt them, though wronged by them before, they are thankful;

and because they had been at variance with them, they begged for pardon.

3 Whereas you provided a burning pillar of fire,

to be a guide for your people's unknown journey,

and a harmless sun for their glorious exile.

4 For the Egyptians well deserved to be deprived of light and imprisoned by darkness, they who had imprisoned your children, through whom the incorruptible light of the law was to be given to the race of men.

5 After they had taken counsel to kill the babes of the holy ones, and when a single child had been abandoned and saved to convict them of their sin,

you took away from them their multitude of children, and destroyed all their army together in a mighty flood.

6 Our fathers were made aware of that night beforehand, that, having sure knowledge, they might be cheered by the oaths which they had trusted.

7 Salvation of the righteous and destruction of the enemies was expected by your people.

8 For as you took vengeance on the adversaries, by the same means, calling us to yourself, you glorified us.

9 For holy children of good men offered sacrifice in secret, and with one consent they took upon themselves the covenant of the divine law, that they would partake alike in the same good things and the same perils,

the fathers already leading the sacred songs of praise.

10 But the discordant cry of the enemies echoed back, and a pitiful voice of lamentation for children was spread abroad.

11 Both servant and master were punished with the same just doom,

and the commoner suffering the same as king;

12 Yes, they all together, under one form of death,

had corpses without number.

For the living were not sufficient even to bury them,

Since at a single stroke, their most cherished offspring was consumed.

13 For while they were disbelieving all things by reason of the enchantments, upon the destruction of the firstborn they confessed the people to be God's son.

14 For while peaceful silence wrapped all things, and night in her own swiftness was in mid course,

15 your all-powerful word leaped from heaven out of the royal thrones,

a stern warrior, into the midst of the doomed land,

16 bearing as a sharp sword your authentic commandment, and standing, it filled all things with death,

and while it touched the heaven it stood upon the earth.

17 Then immediately apparitions in dreams terribly troubled them, and unexpected fears came upon them.

18 And each, one thrown here half dead, another there,

made known why he was dying;

19 for the dreams, disturbing them, did forewarned them of this,

that they might not perish without knowing why they were afflicted.

20 But experience of death also touched the righteous, and a multitude were destroyed in the wilderness,
however the wrath didn't last long.

21 For a blameless man hurried to be their champion, bringing the weapon of his own ministry,
prayer and the atoning sacrifice of incense,
he withstood the indignation, and set an end to the calamity, showing that he was your servant.

22 And he overcame the anger, not by strength of body, not by force of weapons,
but he subdued him who was punishing by word,
by bringing to remembrance oaths and covenants made with the fathers.

23 For when the dead had already fallen in heaps one upon another, standing between he stopped the wrath,
and cut off the way to the living.

24 For the whole world was upon his long robe, and the glories of the fathers were upon the engraving of the four rows of precious stones,
and your majesty was upon the diadem of his head.

25 The destroyer yielded to these, and they feared;
for it was enough only to test the wrath.

19 But indignation without mercy came upon the ungodly to the end;
For God also foreknew their future,
2 how, having changed their minds to let your people go,
and having sped them eagerly on their way,
they would change their minds and pursue them.
3 For while they were yet in the midst of their mourning,
and lamenting at the graves of the dead,
they drew upon themselves another counsel of folly, and pursued as fugitives those whom they had begged to leave and driven out.

4 For the doom which they deserved was drawing them to this end, and it made them forget the things that had happened to them, that they might fill up the punishment which was yet lacking to their torments,

5 and that your people might journey on by a marvelous road, but they themselves might find a strange death.

6 For the whole creation, each part in its diverse kind, was made new again, complying with your commandments,
that your servants might be kept unharmed.

7 Then the cloud that overshadowed the camp was seen,
and dry land rising up out of what had been water,

out of the Red sea an unhindered highway,
and a grassy plain out of the violent surge, 8 by which they passed over with all their army,

these who were covered with your hand,
having seen strange marvels.

9 For like horses they roamed at large,
and they skipped about like lambs, praising you, O Lord, who was their deliverer.

10 For they still remembered the things that happened in the time of their sojourning, how instead of bearing cattle, the land brought forth lice, and instead of fish, the river spewed out a multitude of frogs.

11 But afterwards, they also saw a new generation race of birds, when, led on by desire, they asked for luxurious dainties;

12 For, to comfort them, quails came up for them from the sea.

13 Punishments came upon the sinners, not without the signs that were given beforehand by the force of the thunders;
for they justly suffered through their own wickednesses, for the hatred which they practiced toward guests was grievous indeed.

14 For whereas the others didn't receive the strangers when they came to them, the Egyptians made slaves of guests who were their benefactors.

15 And not only so, but God will visit the men of Sodom another way, since they received as enemies those who were aliens;

16 whereas these first welcomed with feastings, and then afflicted with dreadful toils, those who had already shared with them in the same rights.

17 And moreover they were stricken with loss of sight (even as were those others at the righteous man's doors), when, being surrounded with yawning darkness, they each looked for the passage through his own door.

18 For as the notes of a lute vary the character of the rhythm, even so the elements, changing their order one with another, continuing always in its sound, as may clearly be conjectured from the sight of the things that have happened.

19 For creatures of the dry land were turned into creatures of the waters, and creatures that swim moved upon the land.

20 Fire kept the mastery of its own power in water, and water forgot its quenching nature.

21 On the contrary, flames didn't consume flesh of perishable creatures that walked among them, neither did they melt the ice-like grains of ambrosial food that were apt to melt.

22 For in all things, O Lord, you magnified your people, and you glorified them and didn't lightly regard them, standing by their side in every time and place.

THE WISDOM OF JESUS THE SON OF SIRACH, OR ECCLESIASTICUS

The Wisdom of Jesus the Son of Sirach, also called Ecclesiasticus, is recognized as Deuterocanonical Scripture by the Roman Catholic, Greek Orthodox, and Russian Orthodox Churches.

The Prologue of the Wisdom of Jesus the Son of Sirach.

WHEREAS many and great things have been delivered to us by the law and the prophets, and by the others that have followed in their steps, for which we must give Israel the praise for instruction and wisdom; and since not only the readers need to become skillful themselves, but also those who love learning must be able to profit those who are outside, both by speaking and writing; my grandfather Jesus, having much given himself to the reading of the law, and the prophets, and the other books of our fathers, and having gained great familiarity with them, was also drawn on himself to write somewhat pertaining to instruction and wisdom, in order that those who love learning, and are devoted to these things, might make progress much more by living according to the law. You are entreated therefore to read with favor and attention, and to pardon us, if in any parts of what we have labored to interpret, we may seem to fail in some of the phrases. For things originally spoken in Hebrew don't have the same force in them when they are translated into another language. Not only these, but the law itself, and the prophecies, and the rest of the books, have no small difference, when they are spoken in their original language. For having come into Egypt in the thirty-eighth year of Energetes the king, and having continued there some time, I found a copy giving no small instruction. I thought it therefore most necessary for me to apply some diligence and travail to translate this book, applying indeed much watchfulness and skill in that space of time to bring the book to an end and publish for them also, who in the land of their travels are desiring to learn, preparing their character in advance, so as to live according to the law.

1 All wisdom comes from the Lord,
and is with him forever.

2 Who can count the sand of the seas,
the drops of rain,
and the days of eternity?

3 Who will search out the height of the sky,
the breadth of the earth, the deep,
and wisdom?

4 Wisdom has been created before all things, and the understanding of prudence from everlasting. ^{5 †}

6 To whom has the root of wisdom been revealed?

Who has known her shrewd counsels? ^{7 ‡}

8 There is one wise, greatly to be feared, sitting upon his throne: the Lord.

9 He created her.

He saw and measured her.

He poured her out upon all his works.

10 She is with all flesh according to his gift.

He gave her freely to those who love him.

11 The fear of the Lord is glory, exultation, and gladness, and a crown of rejoicing.

12 The fear of the Lord will delight the heart, and will give gladness, joy, and length of days.

13 Whoever fears the Lord, it will go well with him at the last.

He will be blessed in the day of his death .

[†]1:5 Verse 5 is omitted by the best authorities: The source of wisdom is God's word in the highest heaven, and her ways are the eternal commandments.

[‡]1:7 Verse 7 is omitted by the best authorities: To whom was the knowledge of wisdom manifested? Who has understood her abundant experience?

14 To fear the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.

It was created together with the faithful in the womb.

15 She ¶laid an eternal foundation with men. She will be trusted among their offspring.

16 To fear the Lord is the fullness of wisdom. She inebriates men with her fruits.

17 She will fill all her house with desirable things, and her storehouses with her produce.

18 The fear of the Lord is the crown of wisdom, making peace and §perfect health to flourish.

19 He both saw and measured her. He rained down skill and knowledge of understanding, and exalted the honor of those who hold her fast.

20 To fear the Lord is the root of wisdom. Her branches are length of days. 21 ††

22 Unjust wrath can never be justified, for the sway of his wrath is his downfall.

23 A man that is patient will resist for a season, and afterward gladness will spring up to him.

24 He will hide his words for a season, and the lips of many will tell of his understanding.

25 A parable of knowledge is in the treasures of wisdom;

but godliness is an abomination to a sinner.

26 If you desire wisdom, keep the commandments and the Lord will give her to you freely;

27 for the fear of the Lord is wisdom and instruction.

Faith and humility are his good pleasure.

28 Don't disobey the fear of the Lord.

Don't come to him with a double heart.

29 Don't be a hypocrite in the mouths of men. Keep watch over your lips.

30 Don't exalt yourself, lest you fall and bring dishonor upon your soul.

The Lord will reveal your secrets and will cast you down in the midst of the congregation, because you didn't come to the fear of the Lord and your heart was full of deceit.

2 My son, if you come to serve the Lord, prepare your soul for temptation.

2 Set your heart aright, constantly endure, and don't make haste in time of calamity.

3 Cling to him, and don't depart, that you may be increased at your latter end.

4 Accept whatever is brought upon you, and be patient when you suffer humiliation.

5 For gold is tried in the fire, and acceptable men in the furnace of humiliation.

6 Put your trust in him, and he will help you. Make your ways straight, and set your hope on him.

7 All you who fear the Lord, wait for his mercy. Don't turn aside, lest you fall.

8 All you who fear the Lord, put your trust in him, and your reward will not fail.

9 All you who fear the Lord, hope for good things,

and for eternal gladness and mercy.

10 Look at the generations of old, and see:

Who ever put his trust in the Lord, and was ashamed?

Or who remained in his fear, and was forsaken?

¶1:15 Gr. nested.

§1:18 Gr. health of cure.

1:18 The remainder of this verse is omitted by the best authorities: Both are gifts of God for peace; glory opens out for those who love him. He saw her and took her measure.

††1:21 Verse 21 is omitted by the best authorities: The fear of the Lord drives away sins. Where it resides, it will turn away all anger.

Or who called upon him, and he despised him?

¹¹ For the Lord is full of compassion and mercy.

He forgives sins and saves in time of affliction.

¹² Woe to fearful hearts, to faint hands, and to the sinner that goes two ways!

¹³ Woe to the faint heart! For it doesn't believe.

Therefore it won't be defended.

¹⁴ Woe to you who have lost your patience! And what will you all do when the Lord visits you?

¹⁵ Those who fear the Lord will not disobey his words.

Those who love him will keep his ways.

¹⁶ Those who fear the Lord will seek his good pleasure.

Those who love him will be filled with the law.

¹⁷ Those who fear the Lord will prepare their hearts, and will humble their souls in his sight.

¹⁸ We will fall into the hands of the Lord, and not into the hands of men; for as his majesty is, so also is his mercy.

3 Hear me, your father, O my children, and do what you hear, that you all may be saved.

² For the Lord has given the father glory concerning the children, and has confirmed the judgement of the mother concerning the sons.

³ He who honors his father will make atonement for sins.

⁴ He that gives glory to his mother is as one who lays up treasure.

⁵ Whoever honors his father will have joy in his own children.

He will be heard in the day of his prayer.

⁶ He who gives glory to his father will have length of days.

He who listens to the Lord will bring rest to his mother,

⁷ and will serve under his parents, as to masters.

⁸ Honor your father in deed and word, that a blessing may come upon you from him.

⁹ For the blessing of the father establishes the houses of children, but the curse of the mother roots out the foundations.

¹⁰ Don't glorify yourself in the dishonor of your father, for your father's dishonor is no glory to you.

¹¹ For the glory of a man is from the honor of his father, and a mother in dishonor is a reproach to her children.

¹² My son, help your father in his old age, and don't grieve him as long as he lives.

¹³ If he fails in understanding, have patience with him.

Don't dishonor him in your full strength.

¹⁴ For the relieving of your father will not be forgotten.

Instead of sins it will be added to build you up.

¹⁵ In the day of your affliction it will remember you,

as fair weather upon ice,

so will your sins also melt away.

¹⁶ He who forsakes his father is as a blasphemer.

He who provokes his mother is cursed by the Lord.

¹⁷ My son, go on with your business in humility;

so will you be loved by an acceptable man.

¹⁸ The greater you are, humble yourself the more,

and you will find favor before the Lord. ¹⁹ For the power of the Lord is great, and he is glorified by those who are lowly.

²¹ Don't seek things that are too hard for you,

‡‡3:7 Some manuscripts add those who fear the Lord honor their father,

¶¶3:19 Some manuscripts add Many are lofty and renowned, but he reveals his secrets to the humble.

and don't search out things that are above your strength.

²² Think about the things that have been commanded you, for you have no need of the things that are secret.

²³ Don't be overly busy in your superfluous works, for more things are showed to you than men can understand.

²⁴ For the conceit of many has led them astray. Evil opinion has caused their judgement to slip.

²⁵ §§ There is no light without eyes. There is no wisdom without knowledge.

²⁶ A stubborn heart will do badly at the end. He who loves danger will perish in it.

²⁷ A stubborn heart will be burdened with troubles.

The sinner will heap sin upon sins.

²⁸ The calamity of the proud is no healing, for a weed of wickedness has taken root in him.

²⁹ The heart of the prudent will understand a parable.

A wise man desires the ear of a listener.

³⁰ Water will quench a flaming fire; almsgiving will make atonement for sins.

³¹ He repays good turns is mindful of that which comes afterward.

In the time of his falling he will find a support.

4 My son, don't deprive the poor of his living.

Don't make the needy eyes wait long.

² Don't make a hungry soul sorrowful, or provoke a man in his distress.

³ Don't add more trouble to a heart that is provoked.

Don't put off giving to him who is in need.

⁴ Don't reject a suppliant in his affliction.

Don't turn your face away from a poor man.

⁵ Don't turn your eye away from one who asks. Give no occasion to a man to curse you.

⁶ For if he curses you in the bitterness of his soul,

he who made him will hear his supplication.

⁷ Endear yourself to the assembly.

Bow your head to a great man.

⁸ Incline your ear to a poor man.

Answer him with peaceful words in humility.

⁹ Deliver him who is wronged from the hand of him that wrongs him;

Don't be faint-hearted in giving judgement.

¹⁰ Be as a father to the fatherless, and like a husband to their mother.

So you will be as a son of the Most High, and he will love you more than your mother does.

¹¹ Wisdom exalts her sons, and takes hold of those who seek her.

¹² He who loves her loves life.

Those who seek to her early will be filled with gladness.

¹³ He who holds her fast will inherit glory.

Where *he enters, the Lord will bless.

¹⁴ Those who serve her minister to the Holy One.

The Lord loves those who love her.

¹⁵ He who gives ear to her will judge the nations.

He who heeds her will dwell securely.

¹⁶ If he trusts her, he will inherit her, and his generations will possess her.

¹⁷ For at the first she will walk with him in crooked ways,

and will bring fear and dread upon him,

and torment him with her discipline,

until she may trust his soul, and try him by her judgements.

¹⁸ Then she will return him again to the straight way,

and will gladden him, and reveal to him her secrets.

¹⁹ If he goes astray, she will forsake him, and hand him over to his fall.

*4:13 Or, she

20 Observe the opportunity, and beware of evil.

Don't be ashamed of your soul.

21 For there is a shame that brings sin, and there is a shame that is glory and grace.

22 Don't show partiality against your soul.

Don't revere any man to your falling.

23 Don't refrain from speaking when it is for safety.

†4 Don't hide your wisdom for the sake of seeming fair.

24 For wisdom will be known by speech, and instruction by the word of the tongue.

25 Don't speak against the truth and be shamed for your ignorance.

26 Don't be ashamed to confess your sins.

Don't fight the river's current.

27 Don't lay yourself down for a fool to tread upon.

Don't be partial to one that is mighty.

28 Strive for the truth to death, and the Lord God will fight for you.

29 Don't be rough hasty with your tongue, or slack and negligent in your deeds.

30 Don't be like a lion in your house, or suspicious of your servants.

31 Don't let your hand be stretched out to receive,

and closed when you should repay.

5 Don't set your heart upon your goods.

5 Don't say, "They are sufficient for me."

2 Don't follow your own mind and your strength to walk in the desires of your heart.

3 Don't say, "Who will have dominion over me?"

for the Lord will surely take vengeance on you.

4 Don't say, "I sinned, and what happened to me?"

for the Lord is patient.

5 Don't be so confident of atonement that you add sin upon sins.

6 Don't say, "His compassion is great.

He will be pacified for the multitude of my sins,"

for mercy and wrath are with him, and his indignation will rest on sinners.

7 Don't wait to turn to the Lord.

Don't put off from day to day;

for suddenly the wrath of the Lord will come on you, and you will perish in the time of vengeance.

8 Don't set your heart upon unrighteous gains, for you will profit nothing in the day of calamity.

9 Don't winnow with every wind.

Don't walk in every path.

This is what the sinner who has a double tongue does.

10 Be steadfast in your understanding.

Let your speech be consistent.

11 Be swift to hear and answer with patience.

12 If you have understanding, answer your neighbor;

but if not, put your hand over your mouth.

13 Glory and dishonor is in talk.

A man's tongue may be his downfall.

14 Don't be called a whisperer.

Don't lie in wait with your tongue;

for shame is on the thief,

and an evil condemnation is on him who has a double tongue.

15 Don't be ignorant in a great and small matters.

6 Don't become an enemy instead of a friend;

for an evil name will inherit shame and reproach.

So it is with the sinner who has a double tongue.

2 Don't exalt yourself in the counsel of your soul,

that your soul be not torn in pieces as a bull.

3 You will eat up your leaves, destroy your fruit,

and leave yourself as a dry tree.

†4:23 Some manuscripts omit this line.

4 A wicked soul will destroy him who has it, and will make him a laughing stock to his
enemies.

5 Sweet words will multiply a man's friends.
A gracious tongue will multiply courtesies.

6 Let those that are at peace with you be many,
but your advisers one of a thousand.

7 If you want to gain a friend, get him in a time of testing,

and don't be in a hurry to trust him.

8 For there is a friend just for an occasion.

He won't continue in the day of your affliction.

9 And there is a friend who turns into an enemy.

He will discover strife to your reproach.

10 And there is a friend who is a companion at the table,

but he won't continue in the day of your affliction.

11 In your prosperity he will be as yourself,
and will be bold over your servants.

12 If you are brought low, he will be against
you,

and will hide himself from your face.

13 Separate yourself from your enemies, and beware of your friends.

14 A faithful friend is a strong defense.

He who has found him has found a treasure.

15 There is nothing that can be taken in exchange for a faithful friend.

His excellency is beyond price.

16 A faithful friend is a life-saving medicine.

Those who fear the Lord will find him.

17 He who fears the Lord directs his friendship properly;

for as he is, so is his neighbor also.

18 My son, gather instruction from your youth
up.

Even when you have gray hair you will find
wisdom.

19 Come to her as one who plows and sows and wait for her good fruit;

for your toil will be little in her tillage,
and you will soon eat of her fruit.

20 How exceedingly harsh she is to the unlearned!

He who is without understanding will not remain in her.

21 She will rest upon him as a mighty stone of trial.

He won't hesitate to cast her from him.

22 For wisdom is according to her name.

She isn't manifest to many.

23 Give ear, my son, and accept my judgement.

Don't refuse my counsel.

24 Bring your feet into her fetters, and your neck into her chain.

25 Put your shoulder under her and bear her.

Don't be grieved with her bonds.

26 Come to her with all your soul.

Keep her ways with your whole power.

27 Search and seek, and she will be made known to you.

When you get hold of her, don't let her go.

28 For at the last you will find her rest;
and she will be turned for you into gladness.

29 Her fetters will be to you for a covering of strength,

and her chains for a robe of glory.

30 For there is a golden ornament upon her,
and her bands are ^{da} blue ribbon.

31 You shall put her on as a robe of glory,
and shall put her on as a crown of rejoicing.

32 My son, if you are willing, you will be instructed.

If you will yield your soul, you will be prudent.

33 If you love to hear, you will receive.

If you incline your ear, you will be wise.

34 Stand in the multitude of the elders.

Attach yourself to whoever is wise.

35 Be willing to listen to every godly discourse.
Don't let the proverbs of understanding escape
you.

36 If you see a man of understanding, get to him early.

Let your foot wear out the steps of his doors.

37 Let your mind dwell on the ordinances of the Lord and meditate continually on his commandments.

He will establish your heart and your desire for wisdom will be given to you.

7 Do no evil, so will no evil overtake you.

2 Depart from wrong, and it will turn away from you.

3 My son, don't sow upon the furrows of unrighteousness, and you won't reap them sevenfold.

4 Don't seek preeminence from the Lord, nor the seat of honor from the king.

5 Don't justify yourself in the presence of the Lord, and don't display your wisdom before the king.

6 Don't seek to be a judge, lest you not be able to take away iniquities, lest perhaps you fear the person of a mighty man, and lay a stumbling block in the way of your uprightness.

7 Don't sin against the multitude of the city. Don't cast yourself down in the crowd.

8 Don't commit a sin twice, for even in one you will not be unpunished.

9 Don't say, "He will look upon the multitude of my gifts.

When I make an offering to the Most High God, he will accept it."

10 Don't be faint-hearted in your prayer. Don't neglect to give alms.

11 Don't laugh a man to scorn when he is in the bitterness of his soul, for there is one who humbles and exalts.

12 †Don't devise a lie against your brother, or do the same to a friend.

13 Don't love to make any manner of lie, for that is not a good habit.

14 Don't babble in the multitude of elders. Don't repeat your words in your prayer.

15 Don't hate hard labor or farm work, which the Most High has created.

16 Don't number yourself among the multitude of sinners.

Remember that wrath will not wait.

17 Humble your soul greatly, for the punishment of the ungodly man is fire and the worm.

18 Don't exchange a friend for something, neither a true brother for the gold of Ophir.

19 Don't deprive yourself of a wise and good wife, for her grace is worth more than gold.

20 Don't abuse a servant that works faithfully, or a hireling who gives you his life.

21 Let your soul love a wise servant. Don't defraud him of liberty.

22 Do you have cattle? Look after them; if they are profitable to you, let them stay by you.

23 Do you have children? Correct them, and bow down their necks from their youth.

24 Do you have daughters? Take care of their bodies, and don't be overly indulgent toward them.

25 Give your daughter in marriage, and you will have accomplished a great matter.

Give her to a man of understanding.

26 Do you have a wife after your mind? Don't cast her out.

‡ But don't trust yourself to one who is hateful.

27 Give glory to your father with your whole heart, and don't forget the birth pangs of your mother.

28 Remember that you were born of them.

What will you repay them for the things that they have done for you?

the sacrifice of sanctification, and the first fruits of holy things.

32 Also stretch out your hand to the poor man, that your blessing may be perfected.

33 A gift has grace in the sight of every living man.

Don't withhold grace for a dead man.

34 Don't be lacking to those who weep, and mourn with those who mourn.

35 Don't be slow to visit a sick man, for by such things you will gain love.

36 In all your words, remember eternity, and you will never sin.

8 Don't contend with a mighty man, lest perhaps you fall into his hands.

2 Don't strive with a rich man, lest perhaps he overpower you;

for gold has destroyed many, and turned away the hearts of kings.

3 Don't contend with a talkative man.

Don't heap wood upon his fire.

4 Don't jest with a rude man,

5 Don't reproach a man when he turns from sin.

6 Don't dishonor a man in his old age; for some of us are also growing old.

7 Don't rejoice over one who is dead.

Remember that we all die.

8 Don't neglect the discourse of the wise.

Be conversant with their proverbs; for from them you will learn instruction and how to minister to great men.

9 Don't miss the discourse of the aged, for they also learned from their fathers, because from them you will learn understanding,

and to give an answer in time of need.

10 Don't kindle the coals of a sinner, lest you be burned with the flame of his fire.

11 Don't rise up from the presence of an insolent man, lest he lie in wait as an ambush for your mouth.

12 Don't lend to a man who is mightier than yourself;

and if you lend, be as one who has lost.

13 Don't be surety above your power.

14 Don't go to law with a judge;

for according to his honor they will give judgement for him.

15 Don't go in the way with a rash man,

lest he be burdensome to you;

for he will do according to his own will, and you will perish with his folly.

16 Don't fight with a wrathful man.

Don't travel with him through the desert,

for blood is as nothing in his sight.

Where there is no help, he will overthrow you.

17 Don't take counsel with a fool,

for he will not be able to conceal the matter.

18 Do no secret thing before a stranger,

that she should set her foot upon your strength.

3 Don't go to meet a woman who plays the prostitute, lest perhaps you fall into her snares.

4 Don't use the company of a woman who is a singer, lest perhaps you be caught by her attempts.

5 Don't gaze at a maid,

lest perhaps you be trapped in her penalties.

6 Don't give your soul to prostitutes, that you not lose your inheritance.

7 Don't look around you in the streets of the city,

neither wander in its solitary places.

8 Turn your eye away from a beautiful woman, and don't gaze at another's beauty.

Many have been led astray by the beauty of a woman;

and with this, affection is kindled as a fire.

9 Don't sit at all with a woman who has a husband, or revel with her at the wine,^s lest perhaps your soul turn away to her,

and with your spirit you slide into destruction.

10 Don't forsake an old friend;

for the new is not comparable to him.

A new friend is like new wine:

if it becomes old, you will drink it with gladness.

11 Don't envy the glory of a sinner;

for you don't know what his overthrow will be.

12 Don't delight in the delights of the ungodly.

Let all your discourse be in the law of the Most High.

16 Let just men be companions at your table.

Let your glorying be in the fear of the Lord.

17 A work is commended because of the hand of the artisan;

18 A talkative man is dangerous in his city.

He who is headlong in his speech will be hated.

His heart has departed from him who made him.

¹³ For the beginning of pride is sin.

He who keeps it will pour out abomination.

For this cause the Lord brought upon them strange calamities and utterly overthrew them.

¹⁴ The Lord cast down the thrones of rulers and set the meek in their place.

¹⁵ The Lord plucked up the roots of nations and planted the lowly in their place.

¹⁶ The Lord overthrew the lands of nations and destroyed them to the foundations of the earth.

²³ It is not right to dishonor a poor man who has understanding.

It is not fitting to glorify a man who is a sinner.

Than he who glorifies himself and lacks bread.

Who will glorify him who dishonors his own life?

³⁰ A poor man is glorified for his knowledge.

A rich man is glorified for his riches.

³¹ But he who is glorified in poverty, how much more in riches?

And he who is dishonored in riches, how much more in poverty?

and is even more behind.

18 There is that waxes rich by his wariness and pinching,

And this is the portion of his reward:

And now I will eat of my goods;

Yet he knows not what time will pass,

And he will leave them to others, and die.

20 Be steadfast in your covenant, and be conversant therein,

And wax old in your work.

21 Marvel not at the works of a sinner;

But trust the Lord, and stay in your labor:

For it is an easy thing in the sight of the Lord swiftly on the sudden to make a poor man rich.

22 The blessing of the Lord is in the reward of the godly;

And in an hour that comes swiftly he makes his blessing to flourish.

23 Don't say, What use is there of me?

And what from henceforth will my good things be?

24 Don't say, I have sufficient,

And from henceforth what harm will happen to me?

25 In the day of good things there is a forgetfulness of evil things;

And in the day of evil things a man will not remember things that are good.

26 For it is an easy thing in the sight of the Lord To reward a man in the day of death according to his ways.

27 The affliction of an hour causes forgetfulness of delight;

And in the last end of a man is the revelation of his deeds.

28 Call no man blessed before his death;

A poor man speaks, and they say, Who is this?
And if he stumble, they will help to overthrow

And what should an envious man do with money?

4 He that gathers by taking from his own soul gathers for others;

And others will revel in his goods.

5 He that is evil to himself, to whom will he be good?

And he will not rejoice in his possessions.

6 There is none more evil than he that envies himself;

And this is a recompense of his wickedness.

7 Even if he does good, he does it in forgetfulness;

And at the last he shows forth his wickedness.

8 Evil is he that envies with his eye,

Turning away the face, and despising the souls of men.

9 A covetous man's eye is not satisfied with his portion;

And wicked injustice dries up his soul.

10 An evil eye is grudging of bread,

And he is miserly at his table.

11 My son, according as you have, do well to yourself,

And bring offerings to the Lord worthily.

12 Remember that death will not wait,

And that the covenant of §§the grave is not showed to you.

13 Do well to your friend before you die;

And according to your ability stretch out your hand and give to him.

14 Defraud not yourself of a good day;

And don't let the portion of a good desire pass you by.

15 Shall you not leave your labors to another? And your toils to be divided by lot?

16 Give, and take, and deceive your soul;

For there is no seeking of luxury in *the grave.

17 All flesh waxes old as a garment;

For the covenant from the beginning is, You shall die the death.

18 As of the leaves flourishing on a thick tree,

Some it sheds, and some it makes to grow;

So also of the generations of flesh and blood,

One comes to an end, and another is born.

19 Every work rots and falls away,

And the worker thereof shall depart with it.

20 Blessed is the man that shall †meditate in wisdom,

And lie in wait in her ways.

23 He that pries in at her windows

Shall also listen at her doors.

24 He that lodges close to her house

Shall also fasten a nail in her walls.

25 He shall pitch his tent near at hand to her,

And will lodge in a lodging where good things are.

26 He will set his children under her shelter,

And will rest under her branches.

27 By her he will be covered from heat,

And will lodge in her glory.

15 He that fears the Lord will do this;

And he that has possession of the law will obtain her.

And receive him as a wife married in her virginity.

¹² Don't say you, It is he that caused me to err;

¹⁶ He has set fire and water before you:

He judges a man according to his works.

Every one that hears it will beware of him.

27 Who shall set a watch over my mouth,
And a seal of shrewdness upon my lips,
That I fall not from it, and that my tongue destroy me not?

23 O Lord, Father and Master of my life,
Abandon me not to their counsel:
Suffer me not to fall by them.

2 Who will set scourges over my thought,
And a discipline of wisdom over my heart?
That they spare me not for my ignorances,
And my heart pass not by their sins:

3 That my ignorances be not multiplied,
And my sins abound not;

And I will fall before my adversaries,
And my enemy rejoice over me. ¶

And the reviler and the proud man will stumble therein.

9 Accustom not your mouth to an oath;
And be not accustomed to the naming of the Holy One.

10 For as a servant that is continually scourged will not lack a bruise,

So he also that swears and names God continually will not be cleansed from sin.

11 A man of many oaths will be filled with iniquity;

And the scourge will not depart from his house:

If he shall offend, his sin will be upon him;
And if he disregard it, he has sinned doubly;
And if he has sworn in vain, he will not be justified;

For his house will be filled with calamities.

12 There is a manner of speech that is clothed about with death:

Let it not be found in the heritage of Jacob;
For all these things will be far from the godly,
And they will not wallow in sins.

13 Accustom not your mouth to gross rudeness,

For therein is the word of sin.

14 Remember your father and your mother,

For you sit in the midst of great men;
That you be not forgetful before them,

And become a fool by your custom;
So will you wish that you had not been born,

And curse the day of your nativity.

 A fornicator in the body of his flesh will never cease till he has ^{§§}burned out the fire.

¹⁷ All bread is sweet to a fornicator:
 He will not leave off till he die.

¹⁸ A man that goes astray from his own bed,
 Saying in his heart, Who sees me?
 Darkness is round about me, and the walls

And no man sees me; of whom am I afraid?
 The Most High will not remember my sins;
¹⁹ —And the eyes of men are his terror,
 And he knows not that the eyes of the Lord

 sun,

Beholding all the ways of men,
 And looking into secret places.
²⁰ All things were known to him or ever they were created;

And in like manner also after they were perfected.
²¹ This man will be punished in the streets of the city;

And where he suspected not he will be taken.
²² So also a wife that leaves her husband,
 And brings in an heir by a stranger.

²³ For first, she was disobedient in the law of the Most High;
 And secondly, she trespassed against her own
 husband;
 And thirdly, she played the adulteress in whoredom,

And brought in children by a stranger.
²⁴ She shall be brought out into the congregation;

And upon her children will there be visitation.
²⁵ Her children will not spread into roots,
 And her branches will bear no fruit.

²⁶ She will leave her memory for a curse;
 And her reproach will not be blotted out.

³ I came forth from the mouth of the Most High,
 And covered the earth as a mist.

⁴ I lived in high places,
 And my throne is in the pillar of the cloud.

⁵ Alone I compassed the circuit of heaven,
 And walked in the depth of the abyss.

⁶ In the waves of the sea, and in all the earth,
 And in every people and nation, I got a possession.

⁷ With all these I sought rest;
 And in whose inheritance shall I lodge?

⁸ Then the Creator of all things gave me a commandment;
 And he that created me made my tabernacle
 to rest,

And said, Let your tabernacle be in Jacob,
 And your inheritance in Israel.

⁹ He created me from the beginning before the world;
 And to the end I will not fail.

¹⁰ In the holy tabernacle I ministered before
 him;
 And so was I established in Sion.

¹¹ In the beloved city likewise he gave me rest;

The concord of kindred, and friendship of neighbors,

And a woman and her husband that walk together in agreement.

2 But three sorts of men my soul hates,

And I am greatly offended at their life:

A poor man that is arrogant, and a rich man that is a liar,

And an old man that is an adulterer lacking understanding.

And how should you find in your old age?

 6 Much experience is the crown of old men;
 And their glorying is the fear of the Lord.
 7 There be nine things that I have thought of,
 and in my heart counted happy;
 And the tenth I will utter with my tongue:
 A man that has joy of his children;
 A man that lives and looks upon the fall of his
 enemies:
 8 Happy is he that dwells with a wife of
 understanding;
 And he that has not slipped with his tongue;
 And he that has not served a man that is unworthy of him:
 9 Happy is he that has found prudence;
 And he that speaks in the ears of those who

 13 Give me any plague but the plague of the heart;
 And any wickedness but the wickedness of a
 woman;

 And any vengeance, but the vengeance of
 enemies.
 15 There is no head above the head of a serpent;
 And there is no wrath above the wrath of an
 enemy.
 16 I will rather dwell with a lion and a dragon,
 Than keep house with a wicked woman.
 17 The wickedness of a woman changes her look,

And darkens her countenance as a bear does.
 18 Her husband will sit at meat among his neighbors,
 And when he hears it he sighs bitterly.
 19 All malice is but little to the malice of a
 woman:
 Let the portion of a sinner fall on her.
 20 As the going up a sandy way is to the feet of the aged,
 So is a wife full of words to a quiet man.
 21 Throw not yourself upon the beauty of a
 woman;
 And desire not a woman for her beauty.
 22 There is anger, and impudence, and great
 reproach,
 If a woman maintain her husband.
 23 A wicked woman is abasement of heart,
 And sadness of countenance, and a wounded
 heart:
 A woman that will not make her husband
 happy
 Is as hands that hang down, and palsied knees.
 24 From a woman was the beginning of sin;
 And because of her we all die.
 25 Give not water an outlet; Neither to a wicked woman freedom of speech.

26 Happy is the husband of a good wife;

 2 A brave woman rejoices her husband;
 And he will fulfill his years in peace.
 3 A good wife is a good portion:
 She will be given in the portion of such as fear

And the scourge of a tongue communicating to all.

7 A wicked woman is as a yoke of oxen shaken to and fro:

He that takes hold of her is as one that grasps a scorpion.

8 A drunken woman causes great wrath; And she will not cover her own shame.

9 The whoredom of a woman is in the lifting up of her eyes;

And it will be known by her eyelids.

10 Keep strict watch on a headstrong daughter, Lest she find liberty for herself, and use it.

11 Look well after an impudent eye;

And marvel not if it trespass against you.

13 The grace of a wife will delight her husband;

28 For two things my heart is grieved;

And for the third anger comes upon me:

A man of war that suffers for poverty;

And men of understanding that are counted as refuse:

One that turns back from righteousness to sin;

The Lord will prepare him for the sword.

29 A merchant shall hardly keep himself from wrong doing;

And a huckster will not be acquitted of sin.

27 Many have sinned for a thing indifferent;

And he that seeks to multiply gain will turn his eye away.

2 A nail will stick fast between the joinings of stones;

And sin will thrust itself in between buying and selling.

His house will soon be overthrown.

 So does sin for those who work iniquity.
 11 The discourse of a godly man is always
 wisdom:
 But the foolish man changes as the moon.
 12 Among men void of understanding observe the opportunity;
 But stay continually among the thoughtful.
 13 The discourse of fools is an offence;
 And their laughter is in the wantonness of sin.
 14 The talk of a man of many oaths will make the hair stand upright;
 And their strife makes one stop his ears.
 15 The strife of the proud is a shedding of
 blood;
 And their reviling of each other is a grievous thing to hear.
 16 He that reveals secrets destroys credit,
 And will not find a friend to his mind.
 17 Love a friend, and keep faith with him:
 But if you reveal his secrets,
 You shall not pursue after him;
 18 For as a man has destroyed his enemy,
 So have you destroyed the friendship of your
 neighbor.
 19 And as a bird which you have released out

 So have you let your neighbor go, and you will not catch him again:
 20 Pursue him not, for he is gone far away,

 reviling there may be a reconciliation;
 But he that reveals secrets has lost hope.
 22 One that winks with the eye contrives evil
 things;

 But afterward he will writhe his mouth,
 And set a trap for you in your words.

24 I have hated many things, but nothing like

 25 One that casts a stone on high casts it on his own head;

 26 He that digs a pit will fall into it;
 And he that sets a snare will be taken therein.
 27 He that does evil things, they will roll upon
 him,
 And he will not know whence they have come
 to him.
 28 Mockery and reproach are from the arrogant;
 And vengeance, as a lion, will lie in wait for
 him.
 29 They that rejoice at the fall of the godly will be taken in a snare;
 And anguish will consume them before they die.
 30 Wrath and anger, these also are
 abominations;
 And a sinful man will possess them.
28 He that takes vengeance will find vengeance from the Lord;
 And he will surely make firm his sins.
 2 Forgive your neighbor the hurt that he has done you;
 And then your sins will be pardoned when you pray.
 3 Man cherishes anger against man;
 And does he seek healing from the Lord?
 4 Upon a man like himself he has no mercy;
 And does he make supplication for his own
 sins?
 5 He being himself flesh nourishes wrath:
 Who will make atonement for his sins?
 6 Remember your last end, and cease from enmity:
 Remember corruption and death, and remain in the commandments.
 7 Remember the commandments, and be not angry with your neighbor;
 And remember the covenant of the Highest,
 and wink at ignorance.

8 Abstain from strife, and you will diminish your sins:

For a passionate man will kindle strife;

9 And a man that is a sinner will trouble
friends,

And will make debate among those who are at peace.

10 As is the fuel of the fire, so will it burn;
And as the stoutness of the strife is, so will it burn:

As is the strength of the man, so will be his wrath;

And as is his wealth, so he will exalt his anger.

11 A contention begun in haste kindles a fire;
And a hasty fighting sheds blood.

12 If you blow a spark, it will burn;
And if you spit upon it, it will be quenched:
And both these shall come out of your mouth.

13 Curse the whisperer and double-tongued:
For he has destroyed many that were at peace.

14 A third person's tongue has shaken many,
And dispersed them from nation to nation;
And it has pulled down strong cities,
And overthrown the houses of great men.

15 A third person's tongue has cast out brave
women,

And deprived them of their labors.

16 He that listens to it will not find rest,
Nor shall he dwell quietly.

flesh;

But the stroke of a tongue will break bones.

Yet not so many as those who have fallen because of the tongue.

19 Happy is he that is sheltered from it,
That has not passed through the wrath thereof;
That has not drawn its yoke,
And has not been bound with its bands.

And the bands thereof are bands of brass.

21 The death thereof is an evil death;
And Hades were better than it.

22 It shall not have rule over godly men;
And they shall not be burned in its flame.

It shall be sent forth upon them as a lion;
And as a leopard it shall destroy them.

24 Look that you hedge your possession about

Bind up your silver and your gold;

25 And make a balance and a weight for your
words;

And make a door and a bar for your mouth.

26 Take heed lest you slip therein;
Lest you fall before one that lies in wait.

29 He that shows mercy will lend to his
neighbor;

And he that strengthens him with his hand keeps the commandments.

2 Lend to your neighbor in time of his need;
And pay you your neighbor again in due season.

3 Confirm your word, and keep faith with him;
And at all seasons you shall find what you need.

4 Many have reckoned a loan as a windfall,
And have given trouble to those that helped
them.

5 Till he has received, he will kiss a man's hands;

And for his neighbor's money he will speak
submissly:

And when payment is due, he will prolong the
time,

And return words of heaviness, and complain of ††the times.

6 If he prevail, he shall hardly receive the half;
And he will count it as a windfall:

If not, he has deprived him of his money,
And he has gotten him for an enemy without
cause:

And for honor he will pay him disgrace.

17 Be first to leave off for manners' sake; And be not insatiable, lest you offend.

18 And if you sit among many, Reach not out your hand before them.

19 How sufficient to a well-mannered man is a very little,

And he does not breathe hard upon his bed.

20 Healthy sleep comes of moderate eating; He rises early, and his wits are with him:

The pain of wakefulness, and colic, And griping, are with an insatiable man.

21 And if you have been forced to eat, Rise up in the midst thereof, and you shall have rest.

22 Hear me, my son, and despise me not,

And at the last you shall find my words true: In all your works be quick,

And no disease shall come to you.

23 Him that is liberal of his meat the lips shall bless;

And the testimony of his excellence shall be believed.

24 The city will murmur at he who is a stingy with his meat;

And the testimony of his stinginess will be sure.

25 Show not yourself valiant in wine;

For wine has destroyed many.

26 The furnace proves the temper of steel by dipping;

So does wine prove hearts in the quarreling of the proud.

27 Wine is as good as life to men,

If you drink it in its measure:

What life is there to a man that is without wine?

And it has been created to make men glad.

28 Wine drunk in season and to satisfy

Is joy of heart, and gladness of soul:

29 Wine drunk largely is bitterness of soul, With provocation and conflict.

30 Drunkenness increases the rage of a fool to his hurt;

It diminishes strength, and adds wounds.

31 Rebuke not your neighbor at a banquet of wine,

Neither set him at nothing in his mirth:

Speak not to him a word of reproach,

And press not upon him by asking back a debt.

32 Have they made you ruler of a feast? Be not lifted up,

Be you among them as one of them;

Take thought for them, and so sit down.

2 And when you have done all your office, take your place,

That you may be gladdened on their account,

And receive a crown for your well ordering.

††31:12 Gr. open not your throat upon it.

3 Speak, you that are the elder, for it becomes you, but with sound knowledge;
 And hinder not music.
 4 Pour not out talk where there is a performance of music,
 And display not your wisdom out of season.
 5 As a signet of carbuncle in a setting of gold,
 So is a concert of music in a banquet of wine.
 6 As a signet of emerald in a work of gold,
 So is a strain of music with pleasant wine.
 7 Speak, young man, if there be need of you;
 Yet scarcely if you be twice asked.
 8 Sum up your speech, many things in few
 words;
 Be as one that knows and yet holds his tongue.
 9 If you be among great men, behave not as their equal;
 And when another is speaking, make not much babbling.
 10 Lightning speeds before thunder;
 And before a shamefast man favor shall go forth.
 11 Rise up betimes, and be not the last;
 Get you home quickly and loiter not:
 12 There take your pastime, and do what is in your heart;
 And sin not by proud speech:
 13 And for these things bless him that made
 you,
 And gives you to drink freely of his good
 things.
 14 He that fears the Lord will receive his discipline;
 And those who seek him early shall find favor.
 15 He that seeks the law shall be filled therewith:
 But the hypocrite shall stumble thereat.
 16 They that fear the Lord shall find
 judgement,
 And shall kindle righteous acts as a light.
 17 A sinful man shuns reproof,
 And will find a judgement according to his will.
 18 A man of counsel will not neglect a thought;

A strange and proud man will not crouch in
 fear,
 Even after he has done a thing by himself without counsel.
 19 Do nothing without counsel;
 And when you have once done, repent not.
 20 Go not in a way of conflict;
 And stumble not in stony places.
 21 Be not confident in a smooth way.
 22 And beware of your own children.
 23 In every work trust your own soul;
 For this is the keeping of the commandments.
 24 He that believes the law gives heed to the commandment;
 And he that trusts in the Lord shall suffer no loss.
33 There shall no evil happen to him that fears the Lord;
 But in temptation once and again he will deliver him.
 2 A wise man will not hate the law;
 But he that is a hypocrite therein is as a ship
 in a storm.
 3 A man of understanding will put his trust in the law;
 And the law is faithful to him, as when one asks at the oracle.
 4 Prepare your speech, and so shall you be heard;
 Bind up instruction, and make your answer.
 5 The heart of a fool is as a cartwheel;
 And his thoughts like a rolling axle tree.
 6 A stallion horse is as a mocking friend;
 He neighs under every one that sits upon him.
 7 Why does one day excel another,
 When all the light of every day in the year is of the sun?
 8 By the knowledge of the Lord they were distinguished;
 And he varied seasons and feasts:
 9 Some of them he exalted and hallowed,
 And some of them has he made ordinary days.
 10 And all men are from the ground,
 And Adam was created of earth.

##32:21 Gr. without stumbling blocks.

11 In the abundance of his knowledge the Lord distinguished them,
 And made their ways various:
 12 Some of them he blessed and exalted,
 And some of them he hallowed and brought near to himself:
 Some of them he cursed and brought low,
 And overthrew them from their place.
 13 As the clay of the potter in his hand,
 All his ways are according to his good pleasure;
 So men are in the hand of him that made them,
 To render to them according to his judgement.
 14 Good is the opposite of evil,
 And life is the opposite of death:
 So is ¶the sinner is the opposite of the godly.
 15 And thus look upon all the works of the Most High;
 Two and two, one against another.
 16 And I waked up last,
 As one that gleans after the grape gatherers:
 By the blessing of the Lord I got before them,
 And filled my winepress as one that gathers grapes.
 17 Consider that I labored not for myself alone,
 But for all those who seek instruction.
 18 Hear me, you^o great men of the people,
 And listen with your ears, you^o rulers of the congregation.
 19 To son and wife, to brother and friend,
 Give not power over you while you live;
 And give not your goods to another,
 Lest you repent and make supplication for them again.
 20 Whilst you yet live, and breath is in you,
 Give not yourself over to anybody.
 21 For better it is that your children should supplicate you,
 Than that you should look to the hand of your sons.
 22 In all your works keep the upper hand;
 Bring not a stain on your honor.

23 In the day that you endest the days of your life,
 And in the time of death, distribute your inheritance.
 24 Fodder, a stick, and burdens, for an ass;
 Bread, and discipline, and work, for a servant.
 25 Set your servant to work, and you shall find rest:
 Leave his hands idle, and he will seek liberty.
 26 Yoke and thong will bow the neck:
 And for an evil servant there are racks and tortures.
 27 Send him to labor, that he be not idle;
 For idleness teaches much mischief.
 28 Set him to work, as is fit for him;
 And if he obey not, make his fetters heavy.
 29 And be not excessive toward any;
 And without judgement do nothing.
 30 If you have a servant, let him be as yourself,
 Because you have bought him with blood.
 31 If you have a servant, treat him as yourself;
 §§ For as your own soul will you have need of him:
 If you treat him ill, and he depart and run away,
 Which way will you go to seek him?
 34 Vain and false hopes are for a man void of understanding;
 And dreams give wings to fools.
 2 As one that catches at a shadow, and follows after the wind,
 So is he that sets his mind on dreams.
 3 The vision of dreams is as this thing against that,
 The likeness of a face near a face.
 4 Of an unclean thing what shall be cleansed?
 And of that which is false what shall be true?
 5 Divinations, and soothsayings, and dreams, are vain:
 And the heart fancies, as a woman's in travail.
 6 If they be not sent from the Most High in your visitation,

§§33:31 The Greek text of this line is probably corrupt.

Give not your heart to them. ⁷For dreams have led many astray;

And they have failed by putting their hope in
them.

⁸Without lying shall the law be accomplished;
And wisdom is perfection to a faithful mouth.

⁹A well-instructed man knows many things;
And he that has much experience will declare
understanding.

¹⁰He that has no experience knows few
things:

But he that has wandered shall increase his skill.

¹¹In my wandering I have seen many things;
And more than my words is my understanding.

¹²Ofttimes was I in danger even to death;
And I was preserved because of these things.

¹³The spirit of those that fear the Lord shall live;

For their hope is upon him that saves them.

¹⁴Whoso fears the Lord shall not be afraid,
and shall not play the coward;

For he is his hope.

¹⁵Blessed is the soul of him that fears the Lord:

To whom does he give heed? and who is his stay?

¹⁶The eyes of the Lord are upon those who love him,

A mighty protection and strong stay,

A cover from the hot blast, and a cover from the noonday,

A guard from stumbling, and a help from falling.

¹⁷He raises up the soul, and enlightens the
eyes:

He gives healing, life, and blessing.

¹⁸He that sacrifices of a thing wrongfully gotten, his offering is made in mockery;

And the mockeries of wicked men are not well-pleasing.

¹⁹The Most High has no pleasure in the offerings of the ungodly;

Neither is he pacified for sins by the multitude of sacrifices.

²⁰As one that kills the son before his father's eyes

Is he that brings a sacrifice from the goods of the poor.

²¹The bread of the needy is the life of the poor:

He that deprives him thereof is a man of blood.

²²As one that slays his neighbor is he that takes away his living;

And as a shedder of blood is he that deprives a hireling of his hire.

²³One building, and another pulling down,
What profit have they had but toil?

²⁴One praying, and another cursing, Whose voice will the Lord listen to?

²⁵He that washes himself after touching a dead body, and touches it again,
What profit has he in his washing?

²⁶Even so a man fasting for his sins,
And going again, and doing the same;

Who will listen to his prayer?

And what profit has he in his humiliation?

35 He that keeps the law multiplies
offerings;

He that takes heed to the commandments sacrifices a peace offering.

²He that requites a good turn offers fine flour;
And he that gives alms sacrifices a thank offering.

³To depart from wickedness is a thing pleasing to the Lord;

And to depart from unrighteousness is an atoning sacrifice.

⁴See that you appear not in the presence of the Lord empty.

⁵For all these things are to be done because of the commandment.

⁶The offering of the righteous makes the altar fat;

And the sweet savor thereof is before the Most High.

⁷The sacrifice of a righteous man is acceptable;

And the memorial thereof shall not be forgotten.

8 Glorify the Lord with a good eye,
 And stint not the first fruits of your hands.
 9 In every gift show a cheerful countenance,
 And dedicate your tithe with gladness.
 10 Give to the Most High according as he has given;
 And as your hand has found, give with a good eye.
 11 For the Lord recompenses,
 And he will recompense you sevenfold.
 12 Think not to corrupt with gifts; for he will not receive them:
 And set not your mind on an unrighteous
 sacrifice;
 For the Lord is judge,
 And with him is no respect of persons.
 13 He will not accept any person against a poor
 man;
 And he will listen to the prayer of him that is wronged.
 14 He will in no wise despise the supplication of the fatherless;
 Nor the widow, *when she pours out her tale.
 15 Do not the tears of the widow run down her cheek?
 And is not her cry against him that has caused them to fall?
 16 He that serves God according to his good pleasure shall be accepted,
 And his supplication shall reach to the clouds.
 17 The prayer of the humble pierces the clouds;
 And till it come near, he will not be comforted;
 And he will not depart, till the Most High shall visit;
 And he shall judge †righteously, and execute
 judgement.
 18 And the Lord will not be slack, neither will
 he be patient toward them,

Till he have crushed the loins of the unmerciful;
 And he shall repay vengeance to the heathen;
 Till he have taken away the multitude of the
 arrogant,
 And broken in pieces the sceptres of the
 unrighteous;
 19 Till he have rendered to every man according to his doings,
 And to the works of men according to their plans;
 Till he have judged the cause of his people;
 And he shall make them to rejoice in his mercy.
 20 Mercy is seasonable in the time of his afflicting them,
 As clouds of rain in the time of drought.
 36 Have mercy upon us, O Lord the God of all, and behold;
 2 And send your fear upon all the nations: ‡
 3 Lift up your hand against the strange nations;
 And let them see your mighty power.
 4 As you were sanctified in us before them,
 So be you magnified in them before us.
 5 And let them know you, as we also have known you,
 That there is no God but only you, O God.
 6 Show new signs, and work various wonders;
 Glorify your hand and your right arm. ¶
 7 Raise up indignation, and pour out wrath; Take away the adversary, and destroy the
 enemy.
 8 Hasten the time, and remember the oath;
 And let them declare your mighty works.
 9 Let him that escapes be devoured by the rage of fire;
 And may those who harm your people find
 destruction.
 10 Crush the heads of the rulers of the
 enemies,
 That say, There is none but we.

11 Gather all the tribes of Jacob together,
And stake them for your inheritance, as from the beginning.

12 O Lord, have mercy upon the people that is called by your name,
And upon Israel, whom you did liken to a
firstborn.

13 Have compassion upon the city of your
sanctuary,
Jerusalem, the place of your rest.

14 Fill Zion; exalt your oracles,
And fill your people with your glory.

15 Give testimony to those that were your creatures in the beginning,
And raise up the prophecies that have been in your name.

16 Give reward to those who wait for you:
And men shall put their trust in your prophets.

17 Listen, O Lord, to the prayer of your suppliants,
According to the blessing of Aaron concerning your people;

And all those who are on the earth shall know
That you are the Lord, the eternal God.

18 The belly will eat any meat;
Yet is one meat better than another.

19 The ††mouth tastes meats taken in hunting;
So does an understanding heart false speeches.

20 A contrary heart will cause heaviness:
And a man of experience will recompense
him.

21 A woman will receive any man;
But one daughter is better than another.

22 The beauty of a woman cheers the countenance;
And a man desires nothing so much.

23 If there is on her tongue mercy and meekness,
Her husband is not like the sons of men.

24 He that gets a wife enters upon a possession:
A help meet for him, and a pillar of rest.

25 Where no hedge is, the possession will be laid waste:

And he that has no wife will mourn as he wanders up and down.

26 For who will trust a nimble robber, that skips from city to city?

Even so who shall trust a man that has no nest, and lodges wherever he finds himself at nightfall?

37 Every friend will say, I also am his friend:

But there is a friend, which is only a friend in
name.

2 Is there not a grief in it even to death,
When a companion and friend is turned to enmity?

3 O wicked imagination, whence came you rolling in

To cover the dry land with deceitfulness?

4 There is a companion, which rejoices in the gladness of a friend,

But in time of affliction will be against him.

5 There is a companion, which for the belly's sake labors with his friend,

In the face of battle will take up the buckler.

6 Forget not a friend in your soul;
And be not unmindful of him in your riches.

7 Every counselor extols counsel;
But there is that counsels for himself.

8 Let your soul beware of a counselor,
And know you before what is his interest

(For he will take counsel for himself);

Lest he cast the lot upon you,

And he will stand near you, to see what will happen to you.

10 Take not counsel with one that looks askance at you;

And hide your counsel from such as are jealous of you.

11 Take not counsel with a woman about her rival;

Neither with a coward about war;

Nor with a merchant about exchange;

Nor with a buyer about selling;

Nor with an envious man about thankfulness;

Nor with an unmerciful man about kindness;

Nor with a sluggard about any kind of work;

Nor with a hireling in your house about finishing his work;

Nor with an idle servant about much business:

Give not heed to these in any matter of counsel.

12 But rather be continually with a godly man, Whom you shall have known to be a keeper
of the commandments,

Who in his soul is as your own soul,

And who will grieve with you, if you shall miscarry.

13 And make the counsel of your heart to stand;

For there is none more faithful to you than it.

14 For a man's soul is sometimes wont to bring him tidings,

More than seven watchmen that sit on high on a watch-tower.

15 And above all this entreat the Most High,
That he may direct your way in truth.

16 Let reason be the beginning of every work,
And let counsel go before every action.

17 As a token of the changing of the heart,

18 four manner of things do rise up,

Good and evil, life and death;

And that which rules over them continually is the tongue.

19 There is one that is shrewd and the instructor of many,

And yet is unprofitable to his own soul.

20 There is one that is subtle in words, and is hated;

He shall be destitute of all food:

21 For grace was not given him from the Lord;
Because he is deprived of all wisdom.

22 There is one that is wise to his own soul;

And the fruits of his understanding are trustworthy in the mouth.

23 A wise man will instruct his own people;
And the fruits of his understanding are trustworthy.

24 A wise man shall be filled with blessing;
And all those who see him shall call him happy.

25 The life of man is counted by days;
And the days of Israel are innumerable.

26 The wise man shall inherit confidence among his people,
And his name shall live forever.

27 My son, prove your soul in your life,
And see what is evil for it, and give not that to it.

28 For all things are not profitable for all men,
Neither has every soul pleasure in every thing.

29 Be not insatiable in any luxury,
And be not greedy on the things that you eatest.

30 For in multitude of meats there shall be disease,
And surfeiting shall come near to colic.

31 Because of surfeiting have many perished;
But he that takes heed shall prolong his life.

38 Honor a physician according to your need of him with the honors due to him:
For truly the Lord has created him.

2 For from the Most High comes healing;
And from the king he shall receive a gift.

3 The skill of the physician shall lift up his head;

And in the sight of great men he shall be admired.

4 The Lord created medicines out of the earth;
And a prudent man will have no disgust at them.

5 Was not water made sweet with wood,
That the virtue thereof might be known?

6 And he gave men skill,
That they might be glorified in his marvelous works.

7 With them does he heal a man,

And takes away his pain.

8 With these will the apothecary make a confection;

And his works shall not be brought to an end;
And from him is peace upon the face of the earth.

9 My son, in your sickness be not negligent;
But pray to the Lord, and he shall heal you.

10 Put away wrong doing, and order your hands aright,

And cleanse your heart from all manner of sin.

11 Give a sweet savor, and a memorial of fine flour;

And make fat your offering, as one that is not.

12 Then give place to the physician, for truly the Lord has created him;

And let him not go from you, for you have need of him.

13 There is a time when in their very hands is the issue for good.

14 For they also shall beseech the Lord,
That he may prosper them in giving relief and in healing for the maintenance of life.

15 He that sins before his Maker,
Let him fall into the hands of the physician.

16 My son, let your tears fall over the dead,
And as one that suffers grievously begin lamentation;

And wind up his body according to his due,
And neglect not his burial.

17 Make bitter weeping, and make passionate wailing,

And let your mourning be according to his desert,

For one day or two, lest you be evil spoken of:
And so be comforted for your sorrow.

18 For of sorrow comes death,
And sorrow of heart will bow down the strength.

19 In calamity sorrow also remains:
And the poor man's life is ¶grievous to the heart.

20 Don't give your heart to sorrow.

Put it away, remembering the last end.

21 Don't forget it, for there is no returning again:

Him you shall not profit, and you will hurt yourself.

22 Remember the sentence upon him; for so also shall your be;

Yesterday for me, and today for you.

23 When the dead is at rest, let his remembrance rest;

And be comforted for him, when his spirit departs from him.

24 The wisdom of the scribe comes by opportunity of leisure;

And she that has little business shall become wise.

25 How shall he become wise that holds the plow,

That glories in the shaft of the goad,
That drives oxen, and is occupied in their labors,

And whose discourse is of the stock of bulls?

26 He will set his heart upon turning his furrows;

And his wakefulness is to give his heifers their fodder.

27 So is every craftsman and workmaster,

That passes his time by night as by day;

They that cut gravings of signets,

And his diligence is to make great variety;

He will set his heart to preserve likeness in his portraiture,

And will be wakeful to finish his work.

28 So is the smith sitting by the anvil,

And considering the unwrought iron:

The vapor of the fire will waste his flesh;

And in the heat of the furnace he will wrestle with his work:

¹³ Listen to me, you^o holy children,

And bud forth as a rose growing by a brook of water:

¹⁴ And give you^o a sweet savor as frankincense,

And put forth flowers as a lily,

Spread abroad a sweet smell, and sing a song of praise;

Bless you^o the Lord for all his works.

¹⁵ Magnify his name,

And give utterance to his praise

With the songs of your lips, and with harps;

And thus shall you^o say when you^o utter his praise:

¹⁶ All the works of the Lord are exceedingly good,

And every command shall be accomplished in his season.

¹⁷ None can say, What is this? wherefore is that?

For in his season they shall all be sought out.

At his word the waters stood as a heap,

And the receptacles of waters at the word of his mouth.

¹⁸ At his command is all his good pleasure done;

And there is none that shall hinder his salvation.

¹⁹ The works of all flesh are before him;

And it is not possible to be hid from his eyes.

And there is nothing wonderful before him.

²¹ None can say, What is this? wherefore is that?

For all things are created for their uses.

²² His blessing covered the dry land as a river, And saturated it as a flood.

²³ As he has made the waters salty;

So shall the heathen inherit his wrath.

²⁴ His ways are plain to the holy;

So are they stumbling blocks to the wicked.

²⁵ Good things are created from the beginning for the good;

So are evil things for sinners.

²⁶ The chief of all things necessary for the life of man

Are water, and fire, and iron, and salt,

And flour of wheat, and honey, and milk,

The blood of the grape, and oil, and clothing.

²⁷ All these things are for good to the godly;

So to the sinners they shall be turned into evil.

²⁸ There be winds that are created for vengeance,

And in their fury lay on their scourges heavily;

In the time of consummation they pour out their strength,

And shall appease the wrath of him that made them.

²⁹ Fire, and hail, and famine, and death,

All these are created for vengeance;

And a sword punishing the ungodly to destruction.

And shall be made ready upon earth, when need is;

And in their seasons they shall not transgress his word.

³² Therefore from the beginning I was resolved,

And I thought this, and left it in writing;

And he will supply every need in its season.

³⁴ And none can say, This is worse than that:

For they shall all be well approved in their season.

³⁵ And now with all your heart and mouth sing you^o praises,

And bless the name of the Lord.

40 Great travail is created for every man, And a heavy yoke is upon the sons of Adam,

From the day of their coming forth from their mother's womb,
Until the day for their burial in the mother of
all things.

2 The expectation of things to come, and the day of death,

 Trouble their thoughts, and cause fear of
heart;

3 From him that sits on a throne of glory,
Even to him that is humbled in earth and ashes;

4 From him that wears purple and a crown,
Even to him that is clothed with a hempen frock.

5 There is wrath, and jealousy, and trouble,
and disquiet,

And fear of death, and anger, and strife;

And in the time of rest upon his bed

His night sleep does change his knowledge.

6 A little or nothing is his resting,

And afterward in his sleep, as in a day of keeping watch,

He is troubled in the vision of his heart,

As one that has escaped from the front of battle.

7 In the very time of his deliverance he awakens,

And marvels that the fear is nothing.

8 It is thus with all flesh, from man to beast,

And upon sinners sevenfold more.

9 Death, and bloodshed, and strife, and sword, Calamities, famine, suffering, and the scourge;

10 All these things were created for the
wicked,

And because of them came the flood.

11 All things that are of the earth turn to the earth again:

And all things that are of the waters return
into the sea.

12 All bribery and injustice shall be blotted
out;

And good faith shall stand forever.

13 The goods of the unjust shall be dried up like a river,

And like a great thunder in rain shall go off in noise.

14 In opening his hands a man shall be made glad:

So shall transgressors utterly fail.

15 The children of the ungodly shall not put forth many branches;

And are as unclean roots upon a sheer rock.

16 The sedge that grows upon every water and bank of a river

Shall be plucked up before all grass.

17 Bounty is as a garden †† of blessings,

And almsgiving endures forever.

18 The life of one that labors, and is content, shall be made sweet;

And he that finds a treasure is above both.

19 Children and the building of a city establish a man's name;

And a blameless wife is counted above both.

20 Wine and music rejoice the heart;

And the love of wisdom is above both.

21 The pipe and the lute make pleasant melody;

And a pleasant tongue is above both.

22 Your eye shall desire grace and beauty;

And above both the green blade of corn.

23 A friend and a companion never meet amiss;

And a wife with her husband is above both.

24 Brethren and help are for a time of affliction;

And almsgiving is a deliverer above both.

25 Gold and silver will make the foot stand sure;

And counsel is esteemed above them both.

26 Riches and strength will lift up the heart;

And the fear of the Lord is above both:

There is nothing lacking in the fear of the Lord,

And there is no need to seek help therein.

40:2 The Greek text of this line is probably corrupt.

††40:17 Gr. in.

27 The fear of the Lord is as a garden of blessing,

And covers ^{##}a man above all glory.

28 My son, lead not a beggar's life;

Better it is to die than to beg.

29 A man that looks to the table of another,

His life is not to be counted for a life;

He will pollute his soul with another man's meats:

But a man wise and well-instructed will beware thereof.

30 In the mouth of the shameless begging will be sweet;

And in his belly a fire shall be kindled.

41 O death, how bitter is the remembrance of you to a man that is at peace in his possessions,

To the man that has nothing to distract him, and has prosperity in all things,

And that still has strength to receive meat!

²O death, acceptable is your sentence to a man that is needy, and that fails in strength,

That is in extreme old age, and is distracted about all things,

And is perverse, and has lost patience!

³Don't be afraid of the sentence of death;

Remember those who have been before you, and that come after:

This is the sentence from the Lord over all flesh.

⁴And why do you refuse, when it is the good pleasure of the Most High?

Whether it be ten, or a hundred, or a thousand years,

There is no inquisition of life in ^{¶¶}the grave.

⁵The children of sinners are abominable children,

And they frequent the dwellings of the ungodly.

⁶The inheritance of sinners' children shall perish,

And with their posterity shall be a perpetual reproach.

⁷Children will complain of an ungodly father, Because they shall be reproached for his sake.

⁸Woe to you, ungodly men,

Which have forsaken the law of the Most High God! ^{§§}

⁹If you^o be born, you^o shall be born to a curse; If you^o die, a curse shall be your portion.

¹⁰All things that are of the earth shall go back to the earth:

So the ungodly shall go from a curse to perdition.

¹¹The mourning of men is about their bodies: But the name of sinners being evil shall be blotted out.

¹²Have regard to your name;

For it continues with you longer than a thousand great treasures of gold.

¹³A good life has its number of days;

And a good name continues forever.

¹⁴My children, keep instruction in peace:

But wisdom that is hid, and a treasure that is not seen,

What profit is in them both?

¹⁵Better is a man that hides his foolishness

Than a man that hides his wisdom.

¹⁶Wherefore show reverence to my word:

For it is not good to retain every kind of shame;

And not all things are approved by all in good faith.

¹⁷Be ashamed of whoredom before father and mother:

And of a lie before a prince and a mighty man;

¹⁸Of an offence before a judge and ruler;

Of iniquity before the congregation and the people;

Of unjust dealing before a partner and friend;

¹⁹And of theft in regard of the place where you sojourn,

^{§§}41:8 The remainder of this verse is omitted by the best authorities.

And in regard of the truth of God and his covenant;

And of leaning with your elbow at meat;

And of scurrility in the matter of giving and taking;

²⁰ And of silence before those who salute you;

And of looking upon a woman that is a prostitute;

²¹ And of turning away *your face from a kinsman;

Of taking away a portion or a gift;

And of gazing upon a woman that has a husband;

²² Of being over busy with his maid; and come not near her bed;

Of upbraiding speeches before friends;

And after you have given, upbraid not;

²³ Of repeating and speaking what you have heard;

And of revealing of secrets.

²⁴ So shall you be truly shamefast,

And find favor in the sight of every man.

42 Of these things be not ashamed,
And accept no man's person to sin by it:

² Of the law of the Most High, and his covenant;

And of judgement to do justice to the ungodly;

³ Of reckoning with a partner and with travellers;

And of a gift from the heritage of friends;

⁴ Of exactness of balance and weights;

And of getting much or little;

⁵ Of indifferent selling of merchants;

And of much correction of children;

And of making the side of an evil servant to bleed.

⁶ †Sure keeping is good, where an evil wife is;

And where many hands are, shut you close.

⁷ Whatsoever you handest over, let it be by number and weight;

And in giving and receiving let all be in writing.

⁸ Be not ashamed to instruct the unwise and foolish,

And one of extreme old age that contends with those that are young;

And so shall you be well instructed indeed,

And approved in the sight of every man living.

⁹ A daughter is a secret cause of wakefulness to a father;

And the care for her puts away sleep;

In her youth, lest she pass the flower of her age;

And when she is married, lest she should be hated:

¹⁰ In her virginity, lest she should be defiled

And be with child in her father's house;

And when she has a husband, lest she should transgress;

And when she is married, lest she should be barren.

¹¹ Keep a strict watch over a headstrong daughter,

Lest she make you ‡a laughing stock to your enemies,

A byword in the city and ¶notorious among the people,

And shame you before the multitude.

¹² Look not upon every body in regard of beauty,

And sit not in the midst of women;

¹³ For from garments comes a moth,

And from a woman a woman's wickedness.

¹⁴ Better is the wickedness of a man than a pleasant-dealing woman,

And a woman which puts you to shameful reproach.

¹⁵ I will make mention now of the works of the Lord,

*41:21 Or, the face of a kinsman

†42:6 Or, A seal

‡42:11 Or, a rejoicing

¶42:11 Gr. called forth.

And will declare the things that I have seen:
In the words of the Lord are his works.

¹⁶The sun that gives light looks upon all things;

And the work of the Lord is full of his glory.

¹⁷The Lord has not given power to the saints to declare all his marvelous works;

Which the Almighty Lord firmly settled,
That whatever is might be established in his glory.

¹⁸He searches out the deep, and the heart,
And he has understanding of their cunning plans:

For the Most High knows all knowledge,
And he looks into the signs of the world,

¹⁹Declaring the things that are past, and the things that shall be,

And revealing the traces of hidden things.

²⁰No thought escapes him;

There is not a word hid from him.

²¹The mighty works of his wisdom he has ordered,

Who is from everlasting to everlasting:

Nothing has been added to them, nor diminished from them;

And he had no need of any counselor.

²²How desirable are all his works!

One may behold this even to a spark.

²³All these things live and remain forever in all manner of uses,

And they are all obedient.

²⁴All things are double one against another:

And he has made nothing imperfect.

²⁵One thing establishes the good things of another:

And who shall be filled with beholding his glory?

43 The pride of the height is the firmament
in its clearness,

The appearance of heaven, in the spectacle of its glory.

²The sun when he appears, bringing tidings as he goes forth,

Is a marvelous instrument, the work of the Most High:

³At his noon he dries up the country,

And who shall stand against his burning heat?

⁴A man blowing a furnace is in works of heat,
But the sun three times more, burning up the mountains:

Breathing out fiery vapours,

And sending forth bright beams, he dims the eyes.

⁵Great is the Lord that made him;

And at his word he hastens his course.

⁶The moon also is in all things for her season,
For a declaration of times, and a sign of the world.

⁷From the moon is the sign of the feast day;
A light that wanes when she is come to the full.

⁸The month is called after her name,
Increasing wonderfully in her changing;

An instrument of the army on high,
Shining forth in the firmament of heaven;

⁹The beauty of heaven, the glory of the stars,
An ornament giving light in the highest places of the Lord.

¹⁰At the word of the Holy One they will stand in ††due order,

¹¹Look upon the rainbow, and praise him that made it;

Exceeding beautiful in the brightness thereof.

¹²It encircles the heaven round about with a circle of glory;

The hands of the Most High have stretched it.

¹³By his commandment he makes the snow to fall apace,

And sends swiftly the lightnings of his judgement.

¹⁴By reason thereof the treasure-houses are opened;

And clouds fly forth as fowls.

15 By his mighty power he makes strong the clouds,

And the hailstones are broken small:

16 And at his appearing the mountains will be shaken,

And at his will the south wind will blow.

17 The voice of his thunder makes the earth to travail;

So does the northern storm and the whirlwind:
As birds flying down he sprinkles the snow;
And as the lighting of the locust is the falling down thereof:

18 The eye will marvel at the beauty of its whiteness,

And the heart will be astonished at the raining of it.

19 The hoar frost also he pours on the earth as salt;

And when it is congealed, it is as points of thorns.

20 The cold north wind shall blow,

And the ice shall be congealed on the water:
It shall lodge upon every gathering together of water,

And the water shall put on as it were a breastplate.

21 It shall devour the mountains, and burn up the wilderness,

And consume the green herb as fire.

22 A mist coming speedily is the healing of all things;

A dew coming after heat shall bring cheerfulness.

23 By his counsel he has stilled the deep,

And \ddagger planted islands therein.

24 They that sail on the sea tell of the danger thereof;

And when we hear it with our ears, we marvel.

25 Therein be also those strange and wondrous works,

Variety of all that has life, the ¶trace of sea-monsters.

26 By reason of him his end has success,
And by his word all things consist.

27 We may say many things, yet shall we not attain;

And the sum of our words is, He is all.

28 How shall we have strength to glorify him?
For he is himself the great one above all his works.

29 The Lord is terrible and exceedingly great;
And marvelous is his power.

30 When you^o glorify the Lord, exalt him as much as you^o can;

For even yet he will exceed:

And when you^o exalt him, put forth your full strength:

Be not weary; for you^o will never attain.

31 Who has seen him, that he may declare him?

And who shall magnify him as he is?

32 Many things are hidden greater than these;
For we have seen but a few of his works.

33 For the Lord made all things;
And to the godly gave he wisdom.

44 Let us now praise famous men,
And our fathers that became the father of us.

²The Lord §§manifested in them great glory,
Even his mighty power from the beginning.

³Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms,
And were men renowned for their power,

5 Such as sought out musical tunes,
 And set forth verses in writing:
 6 Rich men furnished with ability,
 Living peaceably in their habitations:
 7 All these were honored in their generations,
 And were a glory in their days.
 8 There be of them, that have left a name behind them,
 To declare their praises.
 9 And some there be, which have no memorial;
 Who are perished as though they had not been,
 And are become as though they had not been
 born;
 And their children after them.
 10 But these were men of mercy, Whose righteous deeds have not been forgotten.
 11 With their seed shall remain continually a good inheritance;
 Their children are [‡]within the covenants.
 12 Their seed stands fast,
 And their children for their sakes.
 13 Their seed shall remain forever,
 And their glory shall not be blotted out.
 14 Their bodies were buried in peace,
 And their name lives to all generations.
 15 Peoples will declare their wisdom,
 And the congregation tells out their praise.
 16 Enoch pleased the Lord, and was translated,
 Being an example of repentance to all
 generations.
 17 Noah was found perfect and righteous;
 In the season of wrath he was taken in exchange for the world;
 Therefore was there left a remnant to the
 earth,
 When the flood came.
 18 Everlasting covenants were made with him,
 That all flesh should no more be blotted out by a flood.
 19 Abraham was a great father of a multitude of nations;
 And there was none found like him in glory;

20 Who kept the law of the Most High,
 And was taken into covenant with him:
 In his flesh he established the covenant;
 And when he was proved, he was found faithful.
 21 Therefore he assured him by an oath,
 That the nations should be blessed in his seed;
 That he would multiply him as the dust of the
 earth,
 And exalt his seed as the stars,
 And cause them to inherit from sea to sea,
 And from the River to the utmost part of the
 earth.
 22 In Isaac also did he establish likewise, for Abraham his father's sake,
 The blessing of all men, and the covenant:
 23 And he made it rest upon the head of Jacob;
 He acknowledged him in his blessings,
 And gave to him by inheritance,
 And divided his portions;
 Among twelve tribes did he part them.
45 And he brought out of him a man of
 mercy,
 Which found favor in the sight of all flesh;
 A man beloved of God and men, even Moses,
 Whose memorial is blessed.
 2 He made him like to the glory of the saints,
 And magnified him in the fears of his
 enemies.
 3 By his words he caused the wonders to cease;
 He glorified him in the sight of kings;
 He gave him commandment for his people,
 And showed him part of his glory.
 4 He sanctified him in his faithfulness and
 meekness;
 He chose him out of all flesh.
 5 He made him to hear his voice,
 And led him into the thick darkness,
 And gave him commandments face to face,
 Even the law of life and knowledge,
 That he might teach Jacob the covenant,
 And Israel his judgments.
 6 He exalted Aaron, a holy man like to him,
 Even his brother, of the tribe of Levi.

‡44:11 Or, In their testaments

7 He established for him an everlasting covenant,

And gave him the priesthood of the people;
He ¶ beautified him with comely ornaments,
And girded him about with a robe of glory.

8 He clothed him with the perfection of exultation;

And strengthened him with apparel of § honor,
The linen trousers, the long robe, and the ephod.

9 And he compassed him with pomegranates of gold,

And with many bells round about,
To send forth a sound as he went,
To make a sound that might be heard in the temple,

For a memorial to the children of his people;
10 With a holy garment, with gold and blue and purple, the work of the embroiderer,

With an oracle of judgement, even with the Urim and Thummim;

11 With twisted scarlet, the work of the craftsman;

With precious stones graven like a signet, in a setting of gold, the work of the jeweller,
For a memorial engraved in writing, after the number of the tribes of Israel;

12 With a crown of gold upon the mitre,
having graven on it, as on a signet,
HOLINESS,

An ornament of honor, a work of might,
The desires of the eyes, goodly and beautiful.

13 Before him there never have been any such;
No stranger put them on, but his sons only,
and his offspring perpetually.

14 His sacrifices shall be wholly consumed
Every day twice continually.

15 Moses †† consecrated him,
And anointed him with holy oil:
It was to him for an everlasting covenant,
And to his seed, all the days of heaven,

To minister to him, and to execute also the priest's office,

And bless his people in his name.
16 He chose him out of all living
To offer sacrifice to the Lord,

Incense, and a sweet savor, for a memorial,
To make reconciliation for your people.

17 He gave to him in his commandments,
Yes, authority in the covenants of judgements,
To teach Jacob the testimonies,
And to enlighten Israel in his law.

18 Strangers gathered themselves together against him,
And envied him in the wilderness,
Even Dathan and Abiram with their company,

And the congregation of Korah, with wrath and anger.

19 The Lord saw it, and it displeased him;
And in the wrath of his anger they were destroyed:

He did wonders upon them,
To consume them with flaming fire.

20 And he added glory to Aaron,
And gave him a heritage:
He divided to him the first fruits of the increase;

And first did he prepare bread in abundance:
21 For they shall eat the sacrifices of the Lord,
Which he gave to him and to his seed.

22 However in the land of the people he shall have no inheritance,
And he has no portion among the people:
For he himself is your portion and inheritance.

23 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar is the third in glory,
In that he was zealous in the fear of the Lord,
And stood fast in the good forwardness of his soul when the people turned away,
And he made reconciliation for Israel.

25 Also he made a covenant with David the son of Jesse, of the tribe of Judah;

So the inheritance of Aaron is also to his seed.

26 God give you wisdom in your heart

46 Joshua the son of ^{¶¶}Nun was valiant in war,
And was the successor of Moses in prophecies:

Who according to his name was made great
For the saving of ^{§§}God's elect,
To take vengeance of the enemies that rose up against them,
That he might give Israel their inheritance.

2 How was he glorified in the lifting up his hands,
And in stretching out his sword against the cities!

3 Who before him so stood fast?
For the Lord himself brought his enemies to him.

4 Did not the sun go back by his hand?
And didn't one day become as two?

5 He called upon the Most High and Mighty One,

And the great Lord heard him.

He caused war to break violently upon the nation,

And ^{*}in the going down he destroyed those who resisted;

That the nations might know his [†]armor,

For he followed after the Mighty One.

7 Also in the time of Moses he did a work of mercy,

He and Caleb the son of Jephunneh,
In that they withstood the adversary,
Hindered the people from sin,
And stilled the murmuring of wickedness.

8 And of six hundred thousand people on foot,
they two alone were preserved

To bring them into the heritage,
Even into a land flowing with milk and honey.

9 Also the Lord gave strength to Caleb,
And it remained with him to his old age;
So that he entered upon the height of the land,
And his seed obtained it for a heritage:

10 That all the children of Israel might see
That it is good to walk after the Lord.

11 Also the judges, every one by his name,
All whose hearts went not a whoring,
And who turned not away from the Lord,

And may the name of those who have been honored be renewed upon their children.

17 And the Lord thundered from heaven,
And with a mighty sound made his voice to be 18 And he utterly destroyed the rulers of the

And all the princes of the Philistines.

19 Also before the time of his [‡]long sleep
He made protestations in the sight of the lord and his anointed,

I have not taken any man's goods, so much as

And no man did accuse him.

20 And after he fell asleep he prophesied,
And showed the king his end,
And lifted up his voice from the earth in

To blot out the wickedness of the people.

47 And after him rose up Nathan
To prophesy in the days of David.

2 As is the fat when it is separated from the Israel.

3 He played with lions as with kids,
And with bears as with lambs of the flock.

4 In his youth did he not kill a giant,
And take away reproach from the people,
When he lifted up his hand with a sling stone,
And beat down the boasting of Goliath?

5 For he called upon the Most High Lord;
And he gave him strength in his right hand,
To kill a man mighty in war,
To exalt the horn of his people.

6 So they glorified him for his ten thousands,
And praised him for the blessings of the Lord,
In that there was given him a diadem of glory.

7 For he destroyed the enemies on every side,
And brought to nothing the Philistines his
adversaries,

With his whole heart he sang praise,
And loved him that made him.

9 Also he set singers before the altar,

And gave him a covenant of kings,
And a throne of glory in Israel.

12 After him rose up a son, a man of

And for his sake he lived at large.
13 Solomon reigned in days of peace;
And to him God gave rest round about,
That he might set up a house for his name,

16 Your name reached to the aisles afar off;
And for your peace you were beloved.

And for your interpretations, the countries

 22 But the Lord will never forsake his mercy;
 And he will not destroy any of his works,
 Nor blot out the posterity of his elect;
 And the seed of him that loved him he will not

 And he gave a remnant to Jacob,
 And to David a root out of him.
 23 And so rested Solomon with his fathers;
 And of his seed he left behind him Rehoboam,

 So in death were his works marvelous.
 15 For all this the people repented not,
 And they departed not from their sins, Till they were carried away as a plunder from their land,
 And were scattered through all the earth;
 And the people was left very few in number,
 And a ruler was left in the house of David.

And sent Rabshakeh, and departed;
 And he lifted up his hand against Sion,
 And boasted great things in his arrogance.
 19 Then were their hearts and their hands shaken,
 And they were in pain, as women in travail; 20 And they called upon the Lord which is merciful,
 Spreading forth their hands to him:
 And the Holy One heard them speedily out of Heaven,
 And delivered them by the hand of Isaiah.
 21 He struck the camp of the Assyrians,
 And his angel utterly destroyed them.
 22 For Hezekiah did that which was pleasing to the Lord,
 And was strong in the ways of David his
 father,
 Which Isaiah the prophet commanded,
 Who was great and faithful in his vision.
 23 In his days the sun went backward;
 And he added life to the king.
 24 He saw by an excellent spirit what should come to pass at the last;
 And he comforted those who mourned in Sion.
 25 He showed the things that should be to the end of time,
 And the hidden things or ever they came.

 position of incense
 Prepared by the work of the apothecary:
 It shall be sweet as honey in every mouth,
 And as music at a banquet of wine.
 2 He behaved himself uprightly in the conversion of the people,
 And took away the abominations of iniquity.
 3 He set his heart right toward the Lord;
 In the days of wicked men he made godliness to prevail.
 4 Except David and Hezekiah and Josiah,

All committed trespass:
 For they forsook the law of the Most High;
 The kings of Judah failed.
 5 For they gave their ¶power to others,
 And their glory to a strange nation.
 6 They set on fire the chosen city of the
 sanctuary,
 And made her streets desolate, as it was written by the hand of Jeremiah.
 7 For they entreated him evil;
 And yet he was sanctified in the womb to be a prophet,
 To root out, and to afflict, and to destroy;
 And in like manner to build and to plant.

 Which God showed him upon the chariot of the cherubim.

 Who raised up for us the walls that were fallen,

A governor of his kindred, a stay of the people:

Yes, his bones were visited.

16 Shem and Seth were glorified among men; And above every living thing in the creation is Adam.

50 It was Simon, the son of Onias, the great priest, Who in his life repaired the house, And in his days strengthened the temple:

2 And by him was built from the foundation the height of the double wall, The lofty underworks of the inclosure of the temple:

3 In his days the cistern of waters was diminished, The brazen vessel in compass as the sea.

4 It was he that took thought for his people that they should not fall, And fortified the city against besieging:

5 How glorious was he when the people gathered round him At his coming forth out of the sanctuary!

6 As the morning star in the midst of a cloud, As the moon at the full:

7 As the sun shining forth upon the temple of the Most High, And as the rainbow giving light in clouds of glory:

8 As the flower of roses in the days of new fruits,

As lilies at the water spring, As the shoot of the frankincense tree in the time of summer:

9 As fire and incense in the censer, As a vessel all of beaten gold Adorned with all manner of precious stones:

10 As an olive tree budding forth fruits, And as a cypress growing high among the clouds.

11 When he took up the robe of glory, And put on the perfection of exultation, In the ascent of the holy altar, He made glorious the precinct of the sanctuary.

12 And when he received the portions out of the priests' hands, Himself also standing by the hearth of the altar,

His kindred as a garland round about him, He was as a young cedar in Libanus; And as stems of palm trees compassed they him round about,

13 And all the sons of Aaron in their glory, And the Lord's offering in their hands, before all the congregation of Israel.

14 And finishing the service at the altars, That he might adorn the offering of the Most High, the Almighty,

15 He stretched out his hand to the cup, And poured out the cup of the grape; He poured out at the foot of the altar A sweet smelling savor to the Most High, the King of all.

16 Then shouted the sons of Aaron, They sounded the trumpets of beaten work, They made a great noise to be heard, For a remembrance before the Most High.

17 Then all the people together hurried, And fell down upon the earth on their faces To worship their Lord, the Almighty, God Most High.

18 The singers also praised him with their voices; In the whole house was there made sweet melody.

19 And the people implored the Lord Most High, In prayer before him that is merciful.

51 A Prayer of Jesus the son of Sirach.
¹ I will give thanks to you, O Lord, O
King,

And will praise you, O God my Savior:
I do give thanks to your name:

² For you were my protector and helper,
And did deliver my body out of destruction,
And out of the snare of the slanderous tongue,
From lips that forge lies,
And was my helper before those who stood by;

³ And did deliver me, according to the abundance of your mercy, and greatness of
your name,

From the gnashings of teeth ready to devour,
Out of the hand of such as sought my life,
Out of the manifold afflictions which I had;

⁴ From the choking of a fire on every side,
And out of the midst of fire which I kindled not;

⁵ Out of the depth of the belly of †the grave,
And from an unclean tongue,

And from lying words,

⁶ The slander of an unrighteous tongue to the king.

My soul drew near even to death,
And my life was near to ¶the grave beneath.

⁷ They compassed me on every side,
And there was none to help me.

I was looking for the help of men,
And it was not.

⁸ And I remembered your mercy, O Lord,
And your working which has been from everlasting,

How you deliver those who wait for you,
And save them out of the hand of the enemies.

And prayed for deliverance from death.

¹⁰ I called upon the Lord, the Father of my Lord,

That he would not forsake me in the days of affliction,

In the time when there was no help against the proud.

¹¹ I will praise your name continually,
And will sing praise with thanksgiving;
And my supplication was heard:

¹² For you saved me from destruction,
And delivered me from the evil time:
Therefore I will give thanks and praise to you,
And bless the name of the Lord.

¹³ When I was yet young,
Or ever I went abroad,
I sought wisdom openly in my prayer.

¹⁴ Before the temple I asked for her,
And I will seek her out even to the end.

¹⁵ From her flower as from the ripening grape my heart delighted in her:

My foot trod in uprightness,
From my youth I tracked her out.

¹⁶ I bowed down my ear a little, and received her,

And found for myself much instruction.

¹⁷ I profited in her:
To him that gives me wisdom I will give glory.

¹⁸ For I purposed to practice her,
And I was zealous for that which is good;
And I shall never be put to shame.

¹⁹ My soul has wrestled in her,
And in my doing I was exact:

I spread forth my hands to the heaven above,
And bewailed my ignorances of her.

²⁰ I set my soul aright to her,
And in pureness I found her.

I got me a heart joined with her from the beginning:

Therefore shall I not be forsaken.

²¹ My inward part also was troubled to seek her:

Therefore I have gotten a good possession.

²² The Lord gave me a tongue for my reward;
And I will praise him therewith.

²³ Draw near to me, you^o unlearned,
And lodge in the house of instruction.

²⁴ Say, wherefore are you^o lacking in these things,

And your souls are very thirsty?

²⁵ I opened my mouth, and spoke,
Get her for yourselves without money.

²⁶ Put your neck under the yoke,
And let your soul receive instruction:
She is hard at hand to find.

²⁷ Behold with your eyes,
How that I labored but a little,
And found for myself much rest.

²⁸ Get you instruction with a great sum of silver,
And gain much gold by her.

²⁹ May your soul rejoice in his mercy,
And may you^o not be put to shame in praising him.

³⁰ Work your work before the time comes,
And in his time he will give you your reward.

BARUCH

The book of Baruch is recognized as Deuterocanonical Scripture by the Roman Catholic, Greek Orthodox, and Russian Orthodox Churches. In some Bibles, Baruch chapter 6 is listed as a separate book called The Letter of Jeremiah, reflecting its separation from Baruch in some copies of the Greek Septuagint.

1 These are the words of the book, which Baruch the son of Nerias, the son of Maaseas, the son of Sedekias, the son of Asadiah, the son of Helkias, wrote in Babylon, 2 in the fifth year, and in the seventh day of the month, what time as the Chaldeans took Jerusalem, and burned it with fire. 3 And Baruch did read the words of this book in the hearing of Jechonias the son of Joakim king of Judah, and in the hearing of all the people that came to hear the book, 4 and in the hearing of the mighty men, and of the kings' sons, and in the hearing of the elders, and in the hearing of all the people, from the least to the greatest, even of all those who lived at Babylon by the river Sud. 5 And they wept, and fasted, and prayed before the Lord; 6 they made also a collection of money according to every man's power: 7 and they sent it to Jerusalem to Joakim the high priest, the son of Helkias, the son of Salom, and to the priests, and to all the people which were found with him at Jerusalem, 8 at the same time when he took the vessels of the house of the Lord, that had been carried out of the temple, to return them into the land of Judah, the tenth day of the month Sivan, namely, silver vessels, which Sedekias the son of Josias king of Judah had made, 9 after Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon had carried away Jechonias, and the princes, and the captives, and the mighty men, and the people of the land, from Jerusalem, and brought them to Babylon. 10 And they said, Behold, we have sent you money; buy you therefore with the money burnt offerings, and sin offerings, and incense, and prepare an oblation, and offer upon the altar of the Lord our God; 11 and pray for the life of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and for the life of Baltasar his son, that their days may be as the days of heaven above the earth: 12 and the Lord will give us strength, and lighten our eyes, and we shall live under the shadow of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and under the shadow of Baltasar his son, and we shall serve them many days, and find favor in their sight. 13 Pray for us also to the Lord our God, for we have sinned against the Lord our God; and to this day the wrath of the Lord and his indignation is not turned from us. 14 And you° shall read this book which we have sent to you, to make confession in the house of the Lord, upon the day of the feast and on the days of the solemn assembly.

15 And you° shall say, To the Lord our God belongs righteousness, but to us confusion of face, as at this day, to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, 16 and to our kings, and to our princes, and to our priests, and to our prophets, and to our fathers: 17 for that we have sinned before the Lord, 18 and disobeyed him, and have not listened to the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in the commandments of the Lord that he has set before us: 19 since the day that the Lord brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt, to this present day, we have been disobedient to the Lord our God, and we have dealt unadvisedly in not listening to his voice. 20 Wherefore the plagues clave to us, and the curse, which the Lord commanded Moses his servant to pronounce in the day that he brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt, to give us a land that flows with milk and honey, as at this day.

§1:5 Another reading is, and vowed vows.

1:11 See Deuteronomy 11:21.

21 Nevertheless we didn't listen to the voice of the Lord our God, according to all the words of the prophets, whom he sent to us: 22 but we walked every man in the imagination of his own wicked heart, to serve strange gods, and to do that which is evil in the sight of the Lord our God.

2 Therefore the Lord has made good his word, which he pronounced against us, and against our judges that judged Israel, and against our kings, and against our princes, and against the men of Israel and Judah, 2 to bring upon us great plagues, such as never happened under the whole heaven, ††as it came to pass in Jerusalem, according to the things that are written in the law of Moses; 3 That we should eat every man the flesh of his own son, and every man the flesh of his own daughter. 4 Moreover he has given them to be in subjection to all the kingdoms that are round about us, to be a reproach and a desolation among all the people round about, where the Lord has scattered them. 5 Thus were they cast down, and not exalted, because we sinned against the Lord our God, in not listening to his voice. 6 To the Lord our God belongs righteousness: but to us and to our fathers confusion of face, as at this day. 7 For all these plagues are come upon us, which the Lord has pronounced against us. 8 Yet have we not entreated the favor of the Lord, in turning every one from the thoughts of his wicked heart. 9 Therefore has the Lord kept watch over the plagues, and the Lord has brought them upon us; for the Lord is righteous in all his works which he has commanded us. 10 Yet we have not listened to his voice, to walk in the commandments of the Lord that he has set before us.

11 And now, O Lord, you God of Israel, that have brought your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with signs, and with wonders, and with great power, and with a high arm, and have gotten yourself a name, as at this day: 12 O Lord our God, we have sinned, we have done ungodly, we have dealt unrighteously in all your ordinances. 13 Let your wrath turn from us: for we are but a few left among the heathen, where you have scattered us. 14 Hear our prayer, O Lord, and our petition, and deliver us for your own sake, and give us favor in the sight of them which have led us away captive: 15 that all the earth may know that you are the Lord our God, because Israel and his posterity is called by your name. 16 O Lord, look down from your holy house, and consider us: incline your ear, O Lord, and hear: 17 open your eyes, and behold: for the dead that are in ‡‡the grave, whose breath is taken from their bodies, will give to the Lord neither glory nor righteousness: 18 but the soul that is greatly vexed, which goes stooping and feeble, and the eyes that fail, and the hungry soul, will give you glory and righteousness, O Lord. 19 For we do not present our supplication before you, O Lord our God, for the righteousness of our fathers, and of our kings. 20 For you have sent your wrath and your indignation upon us, as you have spoken by your servants the prophets, saying, 21 The Lord says, Bow your shoulders to serve the king of Babylon, and remain in the land that I gave to your fathers. 22 But if you^o will not hear the voice of the Lord, to serve the king of Babylon, 23 I will cause to cease out of the cities of Judah, and from without Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: and the whole land shall be desolate without inhabitant. 24 But we would not listen to your voice, to serve the king of Babylon: therefore have you made good your words that you spoke by your servants the prophets, namely, that the bones of our kings, and the bones of our fathers, should be taken out of their places. 25 And, behold, they are cast out to the heat by day, and to the frost by night, and they died in great miseries by famine, by sword, and by ¶pestilence. ²⁶ And the house which is called by your name have you laid waste, as at this day, for the wickedness of the house of Israel and the house of Judah. ²⁷ Yet, O Lord our God, you have dealt with us after all your kindness, and according to all that great mercy of your, ²⁸ as you spoke by your servant Moses in the day when you did command him to write your law before the children of Israel, saying, ²⁹ If you^o will not hear my voice, surely this very great multitude shall be turned into a small number among the nations, where I will scatter them. ³⁰ For I know that they will not hear me, because it is a stiff-necked people: but in the land of their captivity they shall take it to heart, ³¹ and shall know that I am the Lord their God: and I will give them a heart, and ears to hear: ³² and they shall praise me in the land of their captivity, and think upon my name, ³³ and shall return from their stiff neck, and from their wicked deeds: for they shall remember the way of their fathers, which sinned before the Lord. ³⁴ And I will bring them again into the land which I sware to their fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, and they shall be lords of it: and I will increase them, and they shall not be diminished. ³⁵ And I will make an everlasting covenant with them to be their God, and they shall be my people: and I will no more remove my people of Israel out of the land that I have given them.

3 O Lord Almighty, you God of Israel, the soul in anguish, the troubled spirit, cries to you. ² Hear, O Lord, and have mercy; for you are a merciful God: yes, have mercy upon us, because we have sinned before you. ³ For you sit as king forever, and we perish evermore. ⁴ O Lord Almighty, you God of Israel, hear now the prayer of §§the dead Israelites, and of the children of them which were sinners before you, that didn't listen to the voice of you their God: for the which cause these plagues clave to us. ⁵ Remember not the iniquities of our fathers: but remember your power and your name now at this time. ⁶ For you are the Lord our God, and you, O Lord, will we praise. ⁷ For for this cause you have put your fear in our hearts, *to the intent that we should call upon your name: and we will praise you in our captivity, for we have †called to mind all the iniquity of our fathers, that sinned before you. ⁸ Behold, we are yet this day in our captivity, where you have scattered us, for a reproach and a curse, and to be subject to penalty, according to all the iniquities of our fathers, which departed from the Lord our God.

⁹ Hear, O Israel, the commandments of life: give ear to understand wisdom. ¹⁰ How is it, O Israel, that you are in your enemies' land, that you have become old in a strange country, that you are defiled with the dead, ¹¹ that you are counted with those who go down into ‡the grave? ¹² You have forsaken the fountain of wisdom. ¹³ For if you had walked in the way of God, you should have dwelled in peace forever. ¹⁴ Learn where is ¶wisdom, where is strength, where is understanding; that you may know also where is length of days, and life, where is the light of the eyes, and peace. ¹⁵ Who has found out her place? and who has come into her treasuries? ¹⁶ Where are the princes of the heathen, and such as ruled the beasts that are upon the earth; ¹⁷ those who had their pastime with the fowls of the air, and those who hoarded up silver and gold, wherein men trust; and of whose getting there is no end? ¹⁸For those who [§]made in silver, and were so careful, and whose works are past finding out, ¹⁹they are vanished and gone down to ^{}the grave, and others are come up in their steads. ²⁰Younger men have seen the light, and lived upon the earth: but the way of knowledge have they not known, ²¹neither understood they the paths thereof: neither have their children embraced it: they are far off from ^{††}their way. ²²It has not been heard of in Canaan, neither has it been seen in Teman. ²³The sons also of Agar that seek understanding, which are in the land, the merchants of Merran and Teman, and the authors of fables, and the searchers out of understanding; none of these have known the way of wisdom, or remembered her paths. ²⁴O Israel, how great is the house of God! and how large is the place of his possession! ²⁵great, and has none end; high, and unmeasurable. ²⁶There were the giants born that were famous of old, great of stature, and expert in war. ²⁷God didn't choose these, nor did he give the way of knowledge to them; ²⁸so they perished, because they had no ^{‡‡}wisdom, they perished through their own foolishness. ²⁹Who has gone up into heaven, and taken her, and brought her down from the clouds? ³⁰Who has gone over the sea, and found her, and will bring her for choice gold? ³¹There is none that knows her way, nor any that comprehends her path. ³²But he that knows all things knows her, he found her out with his understanding: he that prepared the earth for evermore has filled it with four-footed beasts: ³³he that sends forth the light, and it goes; he called it, and it obeyed him with fear: ³⁴and the stars shined in their watches, and were glad: when he called them, they said, Here we be; they shined with gladness to him that made them.

³⁵This is our God, and there shall none other be accounted of in comparison of him. ³⁶He has found out all the way of knowledge, and has given it to Jacob his servant, and to Israel that is beloved of him. ³⁷Afterward did she appear upon earth, and was conversant with men.

4 This is the book of the commandments of God, and the law that endures forever: all those who hold it fast are appointed to life; but such as leave it shall die. ²Turn you, O Jacob, and take hold of it: walk toward her shining in the presence of the light thereof. ³Give not your glory to another, nor the things that are profitable to you to a strange nation. ⁴O Israel, happy are we: for the things that are pleasing to God are made known to us. ⁵Be of good cheer, my people, the memorial of Israel. ⁶You^o were sold to the nations, but not for destruction: because you^o moved God to wrath, you^o were delivered to your adversaries. ⁷For you^o provoked him that made you by sacrificing to demons, and not to God. ⁸You^o forgot the everlasting God, that brought you up; you^o grieved also Jerusalem, that nursed you. ⁹For she saw the wrath that is come upon you from God, and said, Listen, you^o women that dwell about Sion: for God has brought upon me great mourning; ¹⁰for I have seen the captivity of my sons and daughters, which the Everlasting has brought upon them. ¹¹For with joy did I nourish them; but sent them away with weeping and mourning. ¹²Let no man rejoice over me, a widow, and forsaken of many: for the sins of my children am I left desolate; because they turned away from the law of God, ¹³and had no regard to his statutes, neither walked they in the ways of God's commandments, nor trod in the paths of discipline in his righteousness. ¹⁴Let those who dwell about Sion come, and remember you^o the captivity of my high with glory, †as on a royal throne. ⁷For God has appointed that every high mountain, and the everlasting hills, should be made low, and the valleys filled up, to make plain the ground, that Israel may go safely in the glory of God. ⁸Moreover the woods and every sweet smelling tree have overshadowed Israel by the commandment of God. ⁹For God shall lead Israel with joy in the light of his glory with the mercy and righteousness that comes from him.

The Letter of Jeremy (Jeremiah)

6 A copy of an letter, which Jeremy sent to them which were to be led captives into Babylon by the king of the Babylonians, to certify them, as it was commanded him of God.

²Because of the sins which you^o have committed before God, you^o shall be led away captives to Babylon by Nabuchodonosor king of the Babylonians. ³So when you^o come to Babylon, you^o shall remain there many years, and for a long season, even for seven generations: and after that I will bring you out peaceably from thence. ⁴But now shall you^o see in Babylon gods of silver, and of gold, and of wood, borne upon shoulders, which cause the nations to fear. ⁵Beware therefore that you^o in no wise become like to the strangers, neither let fear take hold upon you because of them, when you^o see the multitude before them and behind them, worshipping them. ⁶But say you^o in your hearts, O Lord, we must worship you. ⁷For my angel is with you, †and I myself do care for your §souls. ⁸For their tongue is polished by the workman, and they themselves are overlaid with gold and with silver; yet are they but false, and can't speak. ⁹And taking gold, as it were for a virgin that loves to be happy, they make crowns for the heads of their gods: ¹⁰and sometimes also the priests convey from their gods gold and silver, and bestow it upon themselves; ¹¹and will even give thereof to the common prostitutes: and they deck them as men with garments, even the gods of silver, and gods of gold, and of wood. ¹²Yet can't these gods save themselves from rust and moths, though they be covered with purple raiment. ¹³They wipe their faces because of the dust of the temple, which is thick upon them. ¹⁴And he that can't put to death one that offends against him holds a sceptre, as though he were judge of a country. ¹⁵He has also a dagger in his right hand, and an axe: but can't deliver himself from war and robbers. ¹⁶Whereby they are known not to be gods: therefore fear them not. ¹⁷For like as a vessel that a man uses is nothing worth when it is broken; even so it is with their gods: when they be set up in the temples their eyes be full of dust through the feet of those who come in. ¹⁸And as the courts are made sure on every side upon him that offends the king, as being committed to suffer death; even so the priests make fast their temples with doors, with locks, and bars, lest they be carried off by robbers. ¹⁹They light them candles, yes, more than for themselves, whereof they can't see one. ²⁰They are as one of the beams of the temple; and men say their hearts are eaten out, when things creeping out of the earth devour both them and their raiment: they feel it not ²¹when their faces are blackened through the smoke that comes out of the temple: ²²bats, swallows, and birds land on their bodies and heads; and in like manner the cats also. ²³Whereby you^o may know that they are no gods: therefore fear them not. ²⁴Notwithstanding the gold wherewith they are beset to make them beautiful, except one wipe off the rust, they will not shine: for not even when they were molten did they feel it. ²⁵Things wherein there is no breath are bought at any cost. ²⁶ Having no feet, they are borne upon shoulders, whereby they declare to men that they be nothing worth. ²⁷ They also that serve them are ashamed: for if they fall to the ground at any time, they can't rise up again of themselves: neither, if they are bowed down, can they make themselves straight: but the offerings are set before them, as if they were dead men. ²⁸ And the things that are sacrificed to them, their priests sell and spend; and in like manner their wives also lay up part thereof in salt; but to the poor and to the impotent they will give nothing thereof. ²⁹ The menstruous woman and the woman in childbed touch their sacrifices: knowing therefore by these things that they are no gods, fear them not. ³⁰ For how can they be called gods? because women set meat before the gods of silver, gold, and wood. ³¹ And in their temples the priests sit* on seats, having their clothes tore, and their heads and beards shaven, and nothing upon their heads. ³² They roar and cry before their gods, as men do at the feast when one is dead. ³³ The priests also take off garments from them, and clothe their wives and children withal. ³⁴ Whether it be evil that one does to them, or good, they are not able to recompense it: they can neither set up a king, nor put him down. ³⁵ In like manner, they can neither give riches nor money: though a man make a vow to them, and keep it not, they will never exact it. ³⁶ They can save no man from death, neither deliver the weak from the mighty. ³⁷ They can't restore a blind man to his sight, nor deliver any that is in distress. ³⁸ They can show no mercy to the widow, nor do good to the fatherless. ³⁹ They are like the stones that be hewn out of the mountain, these gods of wood, and that are overlaid with gold and with silver: those who minister to them shall be confounded. ⁴⁰ How should a man then think or say that they are gods, when even the Chaldeans themselves

dishonor them? ⁴¹ Who if they shall see one mute that can't speak, they bring him, and entreat him to call upon Bel, as though he were able to understand. ⁴² Yet they can't perceive this themselves, and forsake them: for they have no understanding. ⁴³ The women also with cords about them sit in the ways, burning bran for incense: but if any of them, drawn by some that passes by, lie with him, she reproaches her fellow, that she was not thought as worthy as herself, nor her cord broken. ⁴⁴ Whatsoever is done among them is false: how should a man then think or say that they are gods? ⁴⁵ They are fashioned by carpenters and goldsmiths: they can be nothing else than the workmen will have them to be. ⁴⁶ And they themselves that fashioned them can never continue long; how then should the things that are fashioned by them? ⁴⁷ For they have left lies and reproaches to those who come after. ⁴⁸ For when there comes any war or plague upon them, the priests consult with themselves, where they may be hidden with them. ⁴⁹ How then can't men understand that they be no gods, which can neither save themselves from war, nor from plague? ⁵⁰ For seeing they be but of wood, and overlaid with gold and with silver, it shall be known hereafter that they are false: ⁵¹ and it shall be manifest to all nations and kings that they are no gods, but the works of men's hands, and that there is no work of God in them. ⁵² Who then may not know that they are no gods? ⁵³ For neither can they set up a king in a land, nor give rain to men. ⁵⁴ Neither can they judge their own cause, nor *††*redress a wrong, being unable: for they are as crows between heaven and earth. ⁵⁵ For even when fire falls upon the house of gods of wood, or overlaid with gold or with silver, their priests will flee away, and escape, but they themselves shall be burned apart like beams. ⁵⁶ Moreover they can't withstand any king or enemies: how should a man then allow or think that they be gods? ⁵⁷Neither are those gods of wood, and overlaid with silver or with gold, able to escape either from thieves or robbers. ⁵⁸Whose gold, and silver, and garments wherewith they are clothed, they that are strong will take from them, and go away withal: neither shall they be able to help themselves. ⁵⁹Therefore it is better to be a king that shows his manhood, or else a vessel in a house profitable for that whereof the owner shall have need, than such false gods; or even a door in a house, to keep the things safe that be therein, than such false gods; or a pillar of wood in a palace, than such false gods. ⁶⁰For sun, and moon, and stars, being bright and sent to do their offices, are obedient. ⁶¹Likewise also the lightning when it glitters is fair to see; and after the same manner the wind also blows in every country. ⁶²And when God commands the clouds to go over the whole world, they do as they are told. ⁶³And the fire sent from above to consume mountains and woods does as it is commanded: but these are to be likened to them neither in show nor power. ⁶⁴Wherefore a man should neither think nor say that they are gods, seeing they are able neither to judge causes, nor to do good to men. ⁶⁵Knowing therefore that they are no gods, fear them not. ⁶⁶For they can neither curse nor bless kings: ⁶⁷neither can they show signs in the heavens among the nations, nor shine as the sun, nor give light as the moon. ⁶⁸The beasts are better than they: for they can get under a covert, and help themselves. ⁶⁹In no wise then is it manifest to us that they are gods: therefore fear them not. ⁷⁰For as a scarecrow in a garden of cucumbers that keeps nothing, so are their gods of wood, and overlaid with gold and with silver. ⁷¹Likewise also their gods of wood, and overlaid with gold and with silver, are like to a white thorn in an orchard, that every bird sits upon; as also to a dead body, that is cast forth into the dark. ⁷²And you^o shall know them to be no gods by the ~~##~~bright purple that rots upon them: And they themselves afterward shall be consumed, and shall be a reproach in the country. ⁷³Better therefore is the just man that has none idols: for he shall be far from reproach.

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE MACCABEES

The First Book of the Maccabees is recognized as Deuterocanonical Scripture by the Roman Catholic, Greek Orthodox, and Russian Orthodox Churches.

1 It came to pass, after that Alexander the Macedonian, the son of Philip, who came out of the land of Chittim, and struck Darius king of the Persians and Medes, it came to pass, after he had struck him, that he reigned in his stead, in former time, over ¶¶Greece. ² And he fought many battles, and won many strongholds, and killed the kings of the earth, ³ and went through to the ends of the earth, and took spoils of a multitude of nations. And the earth was quiet before him, and he was exalted, and his heart was lifted up, ⁴ and he gathered together an exceedingly strong army, and ruled over countries and nations and principalities, and they became tributary to him. ⁵ And after these things he fell sick, and perceived that he should die. ⁶ And he called his servants, which were honorable, which had been brought up with him from his youth, and he divided to them his kingdom, while he was yet alive. ⁷ And Alexander reigned twelve years, and he died. ⁸ And his servants bare rule, each one in his place. ⁹ And they did all put diadems upon themselves after that he was dead, and so did their sons after them many years: and they multiplied evils in the earth.

¹¹ In those days came there forth out of Israel transgressors of the law, and persuaded many, saying, let's go and make a covenant with the *Gentiles that are round about us; for since we were parted from them many evils have befallen us. ¹² And the saying was good in their eyes. ¹³ And certain of the people were forward herein and went to the king, and he gave them licence to do after the ordinances of the †Gentiles. ¹⁴ And ‡they built a place of exercise in Jerusalem according to the laws of the ¶Gentiles; ¹⁵ and they made themselves uncircumcised, and forsook the holy covenant, and joined themselves to the §Gentiles, and sold themselves to do evil.

¹⁶ And the kingdom was well ordered in the sight of Antiochus, and he thought to reign over Egypt, that he might reign over the two kingdoms. ¹⁷ And he entered into Egypt with a great multitude, with chariots, and with elephants, and with horsemen, and with a great ††navy; ¹⁸ and he made war against Ptolemy king of Egypt; and Ptolemy was put to shame before him, and fled; and many fell wounded to death. ¹⁹ And they got possession of the strong cities in the land of Egypt; and he took the spoils of Egypt.

²⁰ And Antiochus, after he had struck Egypt, returned in ‡‡the hundred and forty and third year, and went up against Israel and

Jerusalem with a ¶great multitude, ²¹ and entered presumptuously into the sanctuary, and took the golden altar, and the candlestick of the light, and all that pertained thereto, ²² and the table of the show bread, and the cups to pour withal, and the bowls, and the golden censers, and the veil, and the crowns, and the adorning of gold which was on the face of the temple, and he peeled it all off. ²³ And he took the silver and the gold and the precious vessels; and he took the hidden treasures which he found. ²⁴ And when he had taken all, he went away into his own land, and he made a great slaughter, and spoke very presumptuously. ²⁵ And there came great mourning upon Israel, in every place where they were; ²⁶ and the rulers and elders groaned, the virgins and young men were made feeble, and the beauty of the women was changed. ²⁷ Every bridegroom took up lamentation, she that sat in the marriage chamber was in heaviness. ²⁸ And the land was moved for the inhabitants thereof, and all the house of Jacob was clothed with shame.

²⁹ And §after *two full years the king sent a chief collector of tribute to the cities of Judah, and he came to Jerusalem with a †great multitude. ³⁰ And he spoke words of peace to them in subtlety, and they gave him credence: and he fell upon the city suddenly, and struck it very sore, and destroyed much people out of Israel. ³¹ And he took the spoils of the city, and set it on fire, and pulled down the houses thereof and the walls thereof on every side. ³² And they led captive the women and the children, and the cattle they took in possession. ³³ And they built the city of David with a great and strong wall, with strong towers, and it became to them a citadel. ³⁴ And they put there a sinful nation, transgressors of the law, and they strengthened themselves therein. ³⁵ And they stored up arms and food, and gathering together the spoils of Jerusalem, they laid them up there, and they became a sore snare: ³⁶ and it became a place to lie in wait in against the sanctuary, and an evil adversary to Israel continually. ³⁷ And they shed innocent blood on every side of the sanctuary, and defiled the sanctuary. ³⁸ And the inhabitants of Jerusalem fled because of them; and she became a habitation of strangers, and she became strange to those who were born in her, and her children forsook her. ³⁹ Her sanctuary was laid waste like a wilderness, ‡her feasts were turned into mourning, her Sabbaths into reproach, her honor into contempt. ⁴⁰ According to her glory, so was her dishonor multiplied, and her high estate was turned into mourning.

⁴¹ And king Antiochus wrote to his whole kingdom, that all should be one people, ⁴² and that each should forsake his own laws. And all the nations agreed according to the word of the king; ⁴³ and many of Israel consented to his worship, and sacrificed to the idols, and profaned the Sabbath. ⁴⁴ And the king sent letters by the hand of messengers to Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, that they should follow laws strange to the land, ⁴⁵ and should forbid whole burnt offerings and sacrifice and drink offerings in the sanctuary; and should profane the Sabbaths and feasts, ⁴⁶ and pollute the sanctuary and those who were holy; ⁴⁷ that they should build altars, and temples, and shrines for idols, and should sacrifice swine's flesh and unclean beasts: ⁴⁸ and that they should leave their sons uncircumcised, that they should make their souls abominable with all manner of uncleanness and profa-nation; ⁴⁹so that they might forget the law, and change all the ordinances. ⁵⁰And whoever shall not do according to the word of the king, he shall die. ⁵¹According to all these words wrote he to his whole kingdom; and he appointed overseers over all the people, and he commanded the cities of Judah to sacrifice, city by city. ⁵²And from the people were gathered together to them many, every one that had forsaken the law; and they did evil things in the land; ⁵³and they made israel to hide themselves in every place of refuge which they had.

⁵⁴And on the fifteenth day of Chislew, in ¶the hundred and forty and fifth year, they built an abomination of desolation upon the §altar, and in the cities of Judah on every side they built idol altars. ⁵⁵And at the doors of the houses and in the streets they burned incense. ⁵⁶And they tore in pieces the books of the law which they found, and set them on fire. ⁵⁷And wherever was found with any a book of the covenant, and if any consented to the law, the king's sentence delivered him to death. ⁵⁸Thus did they in their might to Israel, to those that were found month by month in the cities. ⁵⁹And on the five and twentieth day of the month they sacrificed upon the idol ††altar of God. ⁶⁰And ‡‡the women that had circumcised their children they put to death according to the commandment. ⁶¹And they hanged their babes about their necks, and destroyed their houses, and those who had circumcised them. ⁶²And many in Israel were fully resolved and confirmed in themselves not to eat unclean things. ⁶³And ¶¶they chose to die, that they might not be defiled with the meats, and that they might not profane the holy covenant: and they died. ⁶⁴And there came exceedingly great wrath upon Israel.

2 In those days rose up Mattathias the son of John, the son of Simeon, a priest of the sons of Joarib, from Jerusalem; and he lived at Modin. ²And he had five sons, §§John, who was surnamed Gaddis; ³Simon, who was called Thassi; ⁴Judas, who was called Maccabaeus; ⁵Eleazar, who was called Avaran; Jonathan, who was called Apphus.

⁶And he saw the blasphemies that were committed in Judah and in Jerusalem, ⁷and he said,

Woe is me! wherefore was I born to see the destruction of my people, and the destruction of the holy city, and to dwell there, when it was given into the hand of the enemy, the sanctuary into the hand of aliens? ⁸Her temple is become as a man *that was glorious: ⁹her vessels of glory are carried away into captivity, her infants are slain in her streets, her young men with the sword of the enemy. ¹⁰What nation has not inherited her palaces, and gotten possession of her spoils? ¹¹her adorning is all taken away; instead of a free woman she is become a bond woman: ¹²and, behold, our holy things and our beauty and our glory are laid waste, and the Gentiles have profaned them. ¹³Wherefore should we live any longer?

¹⁴And Mattathias and his sons tore their clothes, and put on sackcloth, and mourned exceedingly.

¹⁵And the king's officers, that were enforcing the apostasy, came into the city Modin to sacrifice. ¹⁶And many of Israel came to them, and Mattathias and his sons were gathered together. ¹⁷ And the king's officers answered and spoke to Mattathias, saying, You are a ruler and an honorable and great man in this city, and strengthened with sons and kindred: ¹⁸ now therefore come you first and do the commandment of the king, as all the nations have done, and the men of Judah, and those who remain in Jerusalem: and you and your house shall be in the number of the king's †Friends, and you and your sons shall be honored with silver and gold and many gifts. ¹⁹ And Mattathias answered and said with a loud voice, If all the nations that are in the house of the king's dominion listen to him, to fall away each one from the worship of his fathers, and have made choice to follow his commandments, ²⁰ yet I and my sons and my kindred will walk in the covenant of our fathers. ²¹ ‡Heaven forbid that we should forsake the law and the ordinances. ²² We will not listen to the king's words, to go aside from our worship, on the right hand, or on the left. ²³ And when he had left speaking these words, there came a Jew in the sight of all to sacrifice on the altar which was at Modin, according to the king's commandment. ²⁴ And Mattathias saw it, and his zeal was kindled, and his reins trembled, and he showed forth his wrath according to judgement, and ran, and killed him upon the altar. ²⁵ And the king's officer, who compelled men to sacrifice, he killed at that time, and pulled down the altar. ²⁶ And he was zealous for the law, even as Phinehas did to Zimri the son of Salu. ²⁷ And Mattathias cried out in the city with a loud voice, saying, Whosoever is zealous for the law, and maintains the covenant, let him come forth after me. ²⁸ And he and his sons fled into the mountains, and forsook all that they had in the city.

²⁹ Then many that sought after justice and judgement went down into the wilderness, to dwell there, ³⁰ they, and their sons, and their wives, and their cattle; because evils were multiplied upon them. ³¹ And it was told the king's officers, and the forces that were in Jerusalem, the city of David, that certain men, who had broken the king's commandment, were gone down into the secret places in the wilderness; ³² and many pursued after them, and having overtaken them, they encamped against them, and set the battle in array against them on the Sabbath day. ³³ And they said to them, Thus far. Come forth, and do according to the word of the king, and you^o shall live. ³⁴ And they said, We will not come forth, neither will we do the word of the king, to profane the Sabbath day. ³⁵ And they hurried to give them battle. ³⁶ And they answered them not, neither cast they a stone at them, nor stopped up the secret places, ³⁷ saying, Let us die all in our innocency: heaven and earth witness over us, that you^o put us to death without trial. ³⁸ And they rose up against them in battle on the Sabbath, and they died, they and their wives and their children, and their cattle, to the number of a thousand ¶souls.

³⁹ And Mattathias and his friends knew it, and they mourned over them exceedingly. ⁴⁰ And one said to another, If we all do as our kindred have done, and fight not against the Gentiles for our lives and our ordinances, they will now quickly destroy us from off the earth. ⁴¹ And they took counsel on that day, saying, whoever shall come against us to battle on the Sabbath day, let's fight against him, and we shall in no wise all die, as our kindred died in the secret places. ⁴² Then were gathered together to them a company of §Hasidaeans, mighty men of Israel, every one that offered himself willingly for the law. ⁴³ And all those who fled from the evils were added to them, and became a stay to them. ⁴⁴ And they mustered an army, and struck sinners in their anger, and lawless men in their wrath: and the rest fled to the Gentiles for safety. ⁴⁵ And Mattathias and his friends went round about, and pulled down the altars; ⁴⁶ and they circumcised by force the children that were uncircumcised, as many as they found in the coasts of Israel. ⁴⁷ And they pursued after the sons of pride, and the work prospered in their hand. ⁴⁸ And they rescued the law out of the hand of the Gentiles, and out of the hand of the kings, neither ^{}suffered they the sinner to triumph.

⁴⁹ And the days of Mattathias drew near that he should die, and he said to his sons,

Now have pride and rebuke gotten strength, and a season of overthrow, and wrath of indignation. ⁵⁰ And now, my children, be you^o zealous for the law, and give your lives for the covenant of your fathers. ⁵¹ And call to remembrance the deeds of our fathers which they did in their generations; and receive great glory and an everlasting name. ⁵² Was not Abraham found faithful in temptation, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness? ⁵³ Joseph in the time of his distress kept the commandment, and became lord of Egypt. ⁵⁴ Phinehas our father, for that he was zealous exceedingly, obtained the covenant of an everlasting priesthood. ⁵⁵ Joshua for fulfilling the word became a judge in Israel. ⁵⁶ Caleb for bearing witness in the congregation obtained a heritage in the land. ⁵⁷ David for being merciful inherited the throne of a kingdom forever and ever. ⁵⁸ Elijah, for that he was exceedingly zealous for the law, was taken up into heaven. ⁵⁹ Hananiah, Azariah, Mishael, believed, and were saved out of the flame. ⁶⁰ Daniel for his innocency was delivered from the mouth of lions. ⁶¹ And thus consider you^o from generation to generation, that none that put their trust in him shall lack for strength. ⁶² And be not afraid of the words of a sinful man; for his glory shall be dung and worms. ⁶³ To-day he shall be lifted up, and tomorrow he shall in no wise be found, because he is returned to his dust, and his thought is perished. ⁶⁴ And you^o, my children, be strong, and show yourselves men in behalf of the law; for therein shall you^o obtain glory. ⁶⁵ And, behold, Simon your brother, I know that he is a man of counsel; give ear to him always: he shall be a father to you. ⁶⁶ And Judas Maccabaeus, he has been strong and mighty from his youth: he shall be your captain, and ^{††}shall fight the battle of the people. ⁶⁷ And take you^o to you all the doers of the law, and avenge the wrong of your people. ⁶⁸ Render a recompense to the Gentiles, and take heed to the commandments of the law. ⁶⁹ And he blessed them, and was gathered to his fathers. ⁷⁰ And he died in ^{‡‡}the hundred and forty and sixth year, and his sons buried him in the sepulchres of his fathers at Modin, and all Israel made great lamentation for him.

3 And his son Judas, who was called Maccabaeus, rose up in his stead. ² And all his kindred helped him, and so did all those who clave to his father, and they fought with gladness the battle of Israel. ³ And he got his people great glory, and put on a breastplate as a giant, and girded his warlike harness about him, and set battles in array, protecting the army with his sword. ⁴ And he was like a lion in his deeds, and as a lion's whelp roaring for prey. ⁵ And he pursued the lawless, seeking them out, and he burned up those that troubled his people. ⁶ And the lawless shrunk for fear of him, and all the workers of lawlessness were sore troubled, and salvation prospered in his hand. ⁷ And he angered many kings, and made Jacob glad with his acts, and his memorial is blessed forever. ⁸ And he went about among the cities of Judah, and destroyed the ungodly ¶out of the land, and turned away wrath from Israel: ⁹and he was renowned to the utmost part of the earth, and he gathered together such as were ready to perish.

¹⁰ And Apollonius gathered the Gentiles together, and a great army from Samaria, to fight against Israel. ¹¹ And Judas perceived it, and he went forth to meet him, and struck him, and killed him: and many fell wounded to death, and the rest fled. ¹² And they took their spoils, and Judas took the sword of Apollonius, and therewith he fought all his days.

¹³ And Seron, the commander of the army of Syria, heard say that Judas had gathered a gathering and a congregation of faithful men with him, and of such as went out to war; ¹⁴ And he said, I will make myself a name and get me glory in the kingdom; and I will fight against Judas and those who are with him, that set at nothing the word of the king. ¹⁵ And there went up with him also a mighty army of the ungodly to help him, to take vengeance on the children of Israel.

¹⁶ And he came near to the going up of Bethhoron, and Judas went forth to meet him with a small company. ¹⁷ But when they saw the army coming to meet them, they said to Judas, What? shall we be able, being a small company, to fight against so great and strong a multitude? and we for our part are faint, having tasted no food this day. ¹⁸ And Judas said, It is an easy thing for many to be shut up in the hands of a few; and with §§heaven it is all one, to save by many or by few: ¹⁹ for victory in battle stands not in the multitude of an army; but strength is from heaven. ²⁰ They come to us in fullness of insolence and lawlessness, to destroy us and our wives and our children, for to plunder us: ²¹ but we fight for our lives and our laws. ²² And he himself will discomfit them before our face: but as for you, be you^o not afraid of them.

²⁷ But when king Antiochus heard these words, he was full of indignation: and he sent and gathered together all the forces of his realm, an exceedingly strong army. ²⁸ And he opened his treasury, and gave his forces pay for a year, and commanded them to be ready for every need. ²⁹ And he saw that the money failed from his treasures, and that the tributes of the country were small, because of the dissension and plague which he had brought upon the land, to the end that he might take away the laws which had been from the first days; ³⁰ and he feared that he should not have enough as at other times for the charges and the gifts which he gave aforetime with a liberal hand, and he abounded above the kings that were before him. ³¹ And he was exceedingly perplexed in his mind, and he determined to go into Persia, and to take the tributes of the countries, and to gather much money. ³² And he left Lysias, an honorable man, and one of the seed royal, to be over the affairs of the king from the river Euphrates to the borders of Egypt, ³³ and to bring up his son Antiochus, until he came again. ³⁴ And he delivered to him the half of his forces, and the elephants, and gave him charge of all the things that he would have done, and concerning those who lived in Judea and in Jerusalem, ³⁵ that he should send an army against them, to root out and destroy the strength of Israel, and the remnant of Jerusalem, and to take away their memorial from the place;³⁶ And that he should make strangers to dwell on all their coasts, and should divide their land to them by lot.³⁷ And the king took the half that remained of the forces, and removed from Antioch, from his royal city, *the hundred and forty and seventh year; and he passed over the river Euphrates, and went through the upper countries.

⁴² And Judas and his kindred saw that evils were multiplied, and that the forces were encamping in their borders; and they took knowledge of the king's words which he had commanded, to destroy the people and make an end of them;⁴³ and they said each man to his neighbor, Let's raise up the ruin of our people, and let's fight for our people and the holy place.⁴⁴ And the congregation was gathered together, that they might be ready for battle, and that they might pray, and ask for mercy and compassion.⁴⁵ And Jerusalem was without inhabitant as a wilderness, there was none of her offspring that went in or went out; and the sanctuary was trodden down, and the sons of strangers were in the citadel, the Gentiles lodged therein; and joy was taken away from Jacob, and the pipe and the harp ceased.⁴⁶ And they gathered themselves together, and came to Mizpeh, near Jerusalem; for in Mizpeh was there a place of prayer aforetime for Israel.⁴⁷ And they fasted that day, and put on sackcloth, and put ashes upon their heads, and tore their clothes,⁴⁸ and laid open the book of the law, concerning which the Gentiles were wont to inquire, seeking the likenesses of their idols.⁴⁹ And they brought the priests' garments, and the first fruits, and the tithes: and they stirred up the Nazarites, who had accomplished their days.⁵⁰ And they cried aloud toward heaven, saying, What shall we do with these men, and where shall we carry them away?⁵¹ And your holy place is trodden down and profaned, and your priests are in heaviness and brought low.⁵² And, behold, the Gentiles are assembled together against us to destroy us: you know what things they imagine against us.⁵³ How shall we be able to stand before them, except you be our help?⁵⁴ And they sounded with the trumpets, and cried with a loud voice.

⁵⁵ And after this Judas appointed leaders of the people, captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, and captains of fifties, and captains of tens.⁵⁶ And he said to those who were building houses, and were betrothing wives, and were planting vineyards, and were fearful, that they should return, each man to his own house, according to the law.⁵⁷ And the army removed, and encamped upon the south side of Emmaus.⁵⁸ And Judas said, Gird yourselves, and be valiant men, and be in readiness against the morning, that you^o may fight with these Gentiles, that are assembled together against us to destroy us, and our holy place:⁵⁹ for it is better for us to die in battle, than to look upon the evils of our nation and the holy place. ⁶⁰ Nevertheless, as may be the will in heaven, so shall he do.

4 And Gorgias took five thousand footmen, and a thousand chosen horse, and the army removed by night, ² that it might fall upon the army of the Jews and strike them suddenly; and the men of the citadel were his guides. ³ And Judas heard thereof, and removed, he and the valiant men, that he might strike the king's army which was at Emmaus, ⁴ while as yet the forces were dispersed from the camp. ⁵ And Gorgias came into the camp of Judas by night, and found no man; and he sought them in the mountains; for he said, These men flee from us. ⁶ And as soon as it was day, Judas appeared in the plain with three thousand men: however they had not armor nor swords to their minds. ⁷ And they saw the camp of the Gentiles strong and fortified, and horsemen compassing it round about; and these were expert in war. ⁸ And Judas said to the men that were with him, Fear you^o not their multitude, neither be you^o afraid of their onset. ⁹ Remember how our fathers were saved in the Red sea, when Pharaoh pursued them with an army. ¹⁰ And now let's cry to heaven, if he will have us, and will remember the covenant of our fathers, and destroy this army before our face today: ¹¹ and all the Gentiles shall know that there is one who redeems and saves Israel. ¹² And the strangers lifted up their eyes, and saw them coming near them: ¹³ and they went out of the camp to battle. And those who were with Judas sounded their trumpets, ¹⁴ and joined battle, and the Gentiles were discomfited, and fled into the plain. ¹⁵ But all the hindmost fell by the sword: and they pursued them to §Gazara, and to the plains of Idumaea and Azotus and Jamnia, and there fell of them about three thousand men. ¹⁶ And Judas and his army returned from pursuing after them,

¹⁷ and he said to the people, Be not greedy of the spoils, inasmuch as there is a battle before us; ¹⁸ and Gorgias and his army are near to us in the mountain. But stand you^o now against our enemies, and fight against them, and afterwards take the spoils with boldness. ¹⁹ While Judas was yet making an end of these words, there appeared a part of them looking out from the mountain: ²⁰ and they saw that their army had been put to flight, and that the Jews were burning the camp; for the smoke that was seen declared what was done. ²¹ But when they perceived these things, they were sore afraid; and perceiving also the army of Judas in the plain ready for battle, ²² they fled all of them into the land of the Philistines. ²³ And Judas returned to plunder the camp, and they got much gold, and silver, and blue, and sea purple, and great riches. ²⁴ And they returned home, and sang a song of thanksgiving, and gave praise ††to heaven; because his mercy is good, because his mercy endures forever. ²⁵ And Israel had a great deliverance that day.

²⁶ But the strangers, as many as had escaped, came and told Lysias all the things that had happened: ²⁷ but when he heard thereof, he was confounded and discouraged, because neither had such things as he would be done to Israel, nor had such things as the king commanded him come to pass.

²⁸ And in the next year he gathered together threescore thousand chosen footmen, and five thousand horse, that he might subdue them. ²⁹ And they came into Idumaea, and encamped at Bethsura; and Judas met them with ten thousand men. ³⁰ And he saw that the army was strong, and he prayed and said,

Blessed are you, O Savior of Israel, who did quell the onset of the mighty man by the hand of your servant David, and did deliver the army of the ††Philistines into the hands of Jonathan the son of Saul, and of his armor bearer: ³¹ shut up this army in the hand of your people Israel, and let them be ashamed for their army and their horsemen: ³² give them faintness of heart, and cause the boldness of their strength to melt away, and let them quake at their destruction: ³³ cast them down with the sword of those who love you, and let all that know your name praise you with thanksgiving.

³⁴ And they joined battle; and there fell of the army of Lysias about five thousand men, and they fell down near them. ³⁵ But when Lysias saw that his array was put to flight, and the boldness that had come upon those who were with Judas, and how they were ready either to live or to die nobly, he removed to Antioch, and gathered together hired soldiers, that he might come again into Judea with even a greater company.

³⁶ But Judas and his kindred said, Behold, our enemies are discomfited: let's go up to cleanse the holy place, and to dedicate it afresh. ³⁷ And all the army was gathered together, and they went up to mount Sion. ³⁸ And they saw the sanctuary laid desolate, and the altar profaned, and the gates burned up, and shrubs growing in the courts as in a forest or as on one of the mountains, and the priests' chambers pulled down; ³⁹ and they tore their clothes, and made great lamentation, and put ashes upon their heads, ⁴⁰ and fell on their faces to the ground, and ¶blew with the §§solemn trumpets, and cried toward heaven. ⁴¹ Then Judas appointed certain men to fight against those that were in the citadel, until he should have cleansed the holy place.

⁴² And he chose blameless priests, such as had pleasure in the law: ⁴³ and they cleansed

the holy place, and bare out the stones of defilement into an unclean place. ⁴⁴ And they took counsel concerning the altar of burnt offerings, which had been profaned, what they should do with it: ⁴⁵ and there came into their mind a good counsel, that they should pull it down, lest it should be a reproach to them, because the Gentiles had defiled it: and they pulled down the altar, ⁴⁶ and laid up the stones in the mountain of the house in a convenient place, until there should come a prophet to give an answer concerning them. ⁴⁷ And they took whole stones according to the law, and built a new altar after the fashion of the former; ⁴⁸ and they built the holy place, and the inner parts of the house; and they hallowed the courts. ⁴⁹ And they made the holy vessels new, and they brought the candlestick, and the altar of burnt offerings and of incense, and the table, into the temple. ⁵⁰ And they burned incense upon the altar, and they lighted the lamps that were upon the candlestick, and they gave light in the temple. ⁵¹ And they set loaves upon the table, and spread out the veils, and finished all the works which they made.

⁵² And they rose up early in the morning, on the five and twentieth day of the ninth month, which is the month Chislev, in *the hundred and forty and eighth year, ⁵³ and offered sacrifice according to the law upon the new altar of burned offerings which they had made. ⁵⁴ At what time and on what day the Gentiles had profaned it, even on that day was it dedicated afresh, with songs and harps and lutes, and with cymbals. ⁵⁵ And all the people fell upon their faces, and worshiped, and †gave praise to heaven, which had given them good success. ⁵⁶ And they kept the dedication of the altar eight days, and offered burned offerings with gladness, and sacrificed a sacrifice of deliverance and praise. ⁵⁷ And they decked the forefront of the temple with crowns of gold and small shields, and dedicated afresh the gates and the priests' chambers, and made doors for them. ⁵⁸ And there was exceedingly great gladness among the people, and the reproach of the Gentiles was turned away. ⁵⁹ And Judas and his kindred and the whole congregation of Israel ordained, that the days of the dedication of the altar should be kept in their seasons from year to year by the space of eight days, from the five and twentieth day of the month Chislev, with gladness and joy. ⁶⁰ And at that season they built up the mount Sion with high walls and strong towers round about, lest perhaps the Gentiles should come and tread them down, as they had done aforetime. ⁶¹ And he set there a force to keep it, and they fortified Bethsura to keep it; that the people might have a stronghold near Idumaea.

5 And it came to pass, when the Gentiles round about heard that the altar was built, and the sanctuary dedicated as aforetime, they were exceedingly angry. ² And they took counsel to destroy the race of Jacob that was in the midst of them, and they began to kill and destroy among the people. ³ And Judas fought against the children of Esau in Idumaea at Akrabattine, because they besieged Israel: and he struck them with a great slaughter, and brought down their pride, and took their spoils. ⁴ And he remembered the wickedness of the children of †Baeon, who were to the people a snare and a stumbling block, lying in wait for them in the ways. ⁵ And they were shut up by him in the towers; and he encamped against them, and destroyed them utterly, and burned with fire the towers of the place, with all that were therein. ⁶ And he passed over to the children of Ammon, and found a mighty band, and much people, with Timotheus for their leader. ⁷ And he fought many battles with them, and they were discomfited before his face; and he struck them, ⁸ and got possession of Jazer, and the ¶villages thereof, and returned again into Judea.

⁹ And the Gentiles that were in Gilead gathered themselves together against the Israelites that were on their borders, to destroy them. And they fled to the stronghold of Dathema, ¹⁰ and sent letters to Judas and his kindred, saying, The Gentiles that are round about us are gathered together against us to destroy us: ¹¹ and they are preparing to come and get possession of the stronghold whereunto we are fled for refuge, and Timotheus is the leader of their army. ¹² Now therefore come and deliver us from their hand, for many of us are fallen. ¹³ And all our kindred that were in the land of §Tubias have been put to death; and they have carried into captivity their wives and their children and their stuff; and they destroyed there about a thousand men. ¹⁴ While the letters were yet reading, behold, there came other messengers from Galilee with their clothes tore, bringing a report after this wise, ¹⁵ saying, That there were gathered together against them those of Ptolemais, and of Tyre, and of Sidon, and all Galilee of the Gentiles to consume them. ¹⁶ Now when Judas and the people heard these words, there assembled together a great congregation, to consult what they should do for their kindred, that were in suffering, and were assaulted of them. ¹⁷ And Judas said to Simon his brother, Choose you out men, and go and deliver your kindred that are in Galilee, but I and Jonathan my brother will go into the land of Gilead. ¹⁸ And he left Joseph the son of Zacharias, and Azarias, as leaders of the people, with the remnant of the army, in Judea, for to keep it.

¹⁹ And he gave commandment to them, saying, Take you^o the charge of this people, and fight no battle with the Gentiles until that we come again. ²⁰ And to Simon were divided three thousand men to go into Galilee, but to Judas eight thousand men to go into the land of Gilead.

²¹ And Simon went into Galilee, and fought many battles with the Gentiles, and the Gentiles were discomfited before him. ²² And he pursued them to the gate of Ptolemais; and there fell of the Gentiles about three thousand men, and he took their spoils. ²³ And they took to them those that were in Galilee, and in Arbatta, with their wives and their children, and all that they had, and brought them into Judea with great gladness. ²⁴ And Judas Maccabaeus and his brother Jonathan passed over Jordan, and went three days' journey in the wilderness; ²⁵ and they met with the Nabathaeans, and these met them in a peaceful manner, and told them all things that had befallen their kindred in the land of Gilead: ²⁶ and how that many of them were shut up in Bosora, and Bosor, and Alema, ††Caspbor, Maked, and ‡‡Carnaim; all these cities are strong and great: ²⁷ and how that they were shut up in the rest of the cities of the land of Gilead, and that tomorrow they have appointed to encamp against the strongholds, and to take them, and to destroy all these men in one day. ²⁸ And Judas and his army turned suddenly by the way of the wilderness to Bosora; and he took the city, and killed all the males with the edge of the sword, and took all their spoils, and burned the city with fire. ²⁹ And he removed from thence by night, and went till he came to the stronghold. ³⁰ And the morning came, and they lifted up their eyes, and, behold, much people which could not be counted, bearing ladders and engines of war, to take the stronghold; and they were fighting against them. ³¹ And Judas saw that the battle was begun, and that the cry of the city went up to heaven, with trumpets and a great sound, ³² and he said to the men of his army, Fight this day for your kindred. ³³ And he went forth behind them in three companies, and they sounded with their trumpets, and cried out in prayer. ³⁴ And the army of Timotheus perceived that it was Maccabaeus, and they fled from before him: and he struck them with a great slaughter; and there fell of them on that day about eight thousand men. ³⁵ And he turned away to Mizpeh and fought against it, and took it, and killed all the males thereof, and took the spoils thereof, and burned it with fire. ³⁶ From thence he removed, and took ¶¶Caspbor, Maked, Bosor, and the other cities of the land of Gilead.

³⁷ Now after these things Timotheus gathered another army, and encamped near Raphon beyond the brook. ³⁸ And Judas sent men to espy the army; and they brought him word, saying, All the Gentiles that be round about us are gathered together to them, an exceedingly great army. ³⁹ And they have hired Arabians to help them, and are encamping beyond the brook, ready to come against you to battle. And Judas went to meet them. ⁴⁰ And Timotheus said to the captains of his army, when Judas and his army drew near to the brook of water, If he pass over first to us, we shall not be able to withstand him; for he will mightily prevail against us: ⁴¹ but if he be afraid, and encamp beyond the river, we will cross over to him, and prevail against him. ⁴² Now when Judas came near to the brook of water, he caused the scribes of the people to remain by the brook, and gave commandment to them, saying, Suffer no man to encamp, but let all come to the battle. ⁴³ And he crossed over the first against them, and all the people after him: and all the Gentiles were discomfited before his face, and cast away their arms, and fled to the temple at §Carnaim. 44 And they took the city, and burned the temple with fire, together with all that were therein. And Carnaim was subdued, neither could they stand any longer before the face of Judas.

45 And Judas gathered together all Israel, those who were in the land of Gilead, from the least to the greatest, and their wives, and their children, and their stuff, an exceedingly great army, that they might come into the land of Judah. 46 And they came as far as Ephron, and this same city was great, and it was in the way as they should go, exceedingly strong: they could not turn away from it on the right hand or on the left, but must needs pass through the midst of it. 47 And they of the city shut them out, and stopped up the gates with stones. 48 And Judas sent to them with words of peace, saying, We will pass through your land to go into our own land, and none shall do you any hurt, we will only pass by on our feet. And they would not open to him. 49 And Judas commanded proclamation to be made in the army, that each man should encamp in the place where he was. 50 And the men of the army encamped, and fought against the city all that day and all that night, and the city was delivered into his hands; 51 and he destroyed all the males with the edge of the sword, and rased the city, and took the spoils thereof, and passed through the city over those who were slain. 52 And they went over Jordan into the great plain near Bethshan. 53 And Judas gathered together those that lagged behind, and encouraged the people all the way through, until he came into the land of Judah. 54 And they went up to mount Sion with gladness and joy, and offered whole burnt offerings, because not so much as one of them was slain until they returned in peace.

55 And in the days when Judas and Jonathan were in the land of Gilead, and Simon his brother in Galilee before Ptolemais, 56 Joseph the son of Zacharias, and Azarias, rulers of the army, heard of their exploits and of the war, what things they had done; 57 and they said, Let's also get us a name, and let's go fight against the Gentiles that are around us. 58 And they gave charge to the men of the army that was with them, and went toward Jammia. 59 And Gorgias and his men came out of the city to meet them in battle. 60 And Joseph and Azarias were put to flight, and were pursued to the borders of Judea; and there fell on that day of the people of Israel about two thousand men. 61 And there was a great overthrow among the people, because they didn't listen to Judas and his kindred, thinking to do some exploit. 62 But they were not of the seed of those men, by whose hand deliverance was given to Israel.

63 And the man Judas and his kindred were glorified exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and of all the Gentiles, wherever their name was heard of; 64 and men gathered together to them, acclaiming them.

65 And Judas and his kindred went forth, and fought against the children of Esau in the land toward the south; and he struck Hebron and the *villages thereof, and pulled down the strongholds thereof, and burned the towers thereof round about. 66 And he removed to go into the land of the †Philistines, and he went through ‡Samaria. 67 In that day certain priests, desiring to do exploits there, were slain in battle, when as ¶he went out to battle unadvisedly. 68 And Judas turned toward Azotus, to the land of the §Philistines, and pulled down their altars, and burned the carved images of their gods with fire, and took the plunder of their cities, and returned into the land of Judah.

6 And king Antiochus was journeying through the upper countries; and he heard say, that in Elymais in Persia there was a city renowned for riches, for silver and gold; 2 and that the temple which was in it was rich exceedingly, and that therein were golden shields, and breastplates, and arms, which Alexander, son of Philip, the Macedonian king, who reigned first among the Greeks, left behind there. 3 And he came and sought to take the city, and to pillage it; and he was not able, because the thing was known to them of the city, 4 and they rose up against him to battle: and he fled, and removed thence with great heaviness, to return to Babylon.

5 And there came one bringing him tidings into Persia, that the armies, which went against the land of Judah, had been put to flight; 6 and that Lysias went first with a strong army, and was put to shame before them; and that they had waxed strong by reason of arms and power, and with store of spoils, which they took from the armies that they had cut off; 7 and that they had pulled down the abomination which he had built upon the altar that was in Jerusalem; and that they had compassed about the sanctuary with high walls, as before, and Bethsura, his city. 8 And it came to pass, when the king heard these words, he was astonished and moved exceedingly; and he laid him down upon his bed, and fell sick for grief, because it had not befallen him as he looked for. 9 And he was there many days, because great grief was renewed upon him, and he made account that he should die. 10 And he called for all his Friends, and said to them, Sleep departs from my eyes, and my heart fails for care. 11 And I said in my heart, To what suffering am I come, and how great a flood is it, wherein I now am! for I was gracious and beloved in my power. 12 But now I remember the evils which I did at Jerusalem, and that I took all the vessels of silver and gold that were therein, and sent forth to destroy the inhabitants of Judah without a cause. 13 I perceive that on this account these evils are come upon me, and, behold, I perish through great grief in a strange land. 14 And he called for Philip, one of his ††Friends, and set him over all his kingdom, 15 and gave him his diadem, and his robe, and his signet ring, to the end he should bring Antiochus his son, and nourish him up that he might be king. 16 And king Antiochus died there in ‡‡the hundred and forty and ninth year. 17 And Lysias knew that the king was dead, and he set up Antiochus his son to reign, whom he had nourished up being young, and he called his name Eupator.

18 And those who were in the citadel shut up Israel round about the sanctuary, and sought always their hurt, and the strengthening of the Gentiles. 19 And Judas thought to destroy them, and called all the people together to besiege them. 20 And they were gathered together, and besieged them in ¶¶the hundred and fifties year, and he made mounds to shoot from, and engines of war. 21 And there came forth some of those who were shut up, and there were joined to them certain ungodly men of Israel. 22 And they went to the king, and said, How long will you not execute judgement, and avenge our kindred? 23 We were willing to serve your father, and to walk after his words, and to follow his commandments; 24 and for this cause the children of our people besieged the citadel, and were alienated from us; but as many of us as they could light on they killed, and plundered our inheritances. ²⁵ And not against us only did they stretch out their hand, but also against all their borders. ²⁶ And, behold, they are encamped this day against the citadel at Jerusalem, to take it; and the sanctuary and Bethsura have they fortified. ²⁷ And if you^o are not beforehand with them quickly, they will do greater things than these, and you shall not be able to control them.

²⁸ And when the king heard this, he was angry, and gathered together all his *Friends, even the rulers of his army, and those who were over the horse. ²⁹ And there came to him from other kingdoms, and from isles of the sea, bands of hired soldiers. ³⁰ And the number of his forces was a hundred thousand footmen, and twenty thousand horsemen, and two and thirty elephants trained for war. ³¹ And they went through Idumaea, and encamped against Bethsura, and fought against it many days, and made engines of war; and they of Bethsura came out, and burned them with fire, and fought valiantly. ³² And Judas removed from the citadel, and encamped at Bethzacharias, near the king's camp. ³³ And the king rose early in the morning, and removed his army †at full speed along the road to Bethzacharias, and his forces made them ready to battle, and sounded with the trumpets. ³⁴ And they showed the elephants the blood of grapes and mulberries, that they might prepare them for the battle. ³⁵ And they divided the beasts among the phalanxes, and they set by each elephant a thousand men armed with coats of mail, and helmets of brass on their heads; and for each beast were appointed five hundred chosen horsemen. ³⁶ These were ready beforehand, wherever the beast was; and wherever the beast went, they went with him; they departed not from him. ³⁷ And towers of wood were upon them, strong and covered, one upon each beast, girded fast upon him with cunning contrivances; and upon each beast were two and thirty valiant men that fought upon them, beside his Indian ³⁸ (and the residue of the horsemen he set on this side and that side at the two parts of the army), striking terror into the enemy, and protected by the phalanxes. ³⁹ Now when the sun shone upon the shields of gold and brass, the mountains shone therewith, and blazed like torches of fire. ⁴⁰ And a part of the king's army was spread upon the high mountains, and some on the low ground, and they went on firmly and in order. ⁴¹ And all that heard the noise of their multitude, and the marching of the multitude, and the rattling of the arms, did quake: for the army was exceedingly great and strong. ⁴² And Judas and his army drew near for battle, and there fell of the king's army six hundred men. ⁴³ And Eleazar, who was called Avaran, saw one of the beasts armed with royal breastplates, and he was higher than all the beasts, and the king seemed to be upon him; ⁴⁴ and he gave himself to deliver his people, and to get him an everlasting name; ⁴⁵ and he ran upon him courageously into the midst of the phalanx, and killed on the right hand and on the left, and they parted asunder from him on this side and on that. ⁴⁶ And he crept under the elephant, and thrust him from beneath, and killed him; and the elephant fell to the earth upon him, and he died there. ⁴⁷ And they saw the strength of the kingdom, and the fierce onset of the army, and turned away from them.

⁴⁸ But they of the king's army went up to Jerusalem to meet them, and the king encamped toward Judea, and toward mount Sion. ⁴⁹ And he made peace with them of Bethsura; and he came out of the city, because they had no food there to endure the siege, because it was a Sabbath to the land. ⁵⁰ And the king took Bethsura, and appointed a garrison there to keep it. ⁵¹ And he encamped against the sanctuary many days; and set there mounds to shoot from, and engines of war, and instruments for casting fire and stones, and pieces to cast darts, and slings. ⁵² And they also made engines against their engines, and fought for many days. ⁵³ But there were no food in the sanctuary, because it was the seventh year, and those who fled for safety into Judea from among the Gentiles had eaten up the residue of the store; ⁵⁴ and there were but a few left in the sanctuary, because the famine prevailed against them, and they were scattered, each man to his own place.

⁵⁵ And Lysias heard say, that Philip, whom Antiochus the king, while he was yet alive, appointed to nourish up his son Antiochus, that he might be king, ⁵⁶ was returned from Persia and Media, and with him the forces that went with the king, and that he was seeking to take to him the government. ⁵⁷ And he made haste, and gave consent to depart; and he said to the king and the leaders of the army and to the men, We decay daily, and our food is scant, and the place where we encamp is strong, and the affairs of the kingdom lie upon us: ⁵⁸ now therefore let's give the right hand to these men, and make peace with them and with all their nation, ⁵⁹ and covenant with them, that they shall walk after their own laws, as aforesaid: for because of their laws which we abolished they were angered, and did all these things. ⁶⁰ And the saying pleased the king and the princes, and he sent to them to make peace; and they accepted thereof. ⁶¹ And the king and the princes sware to them: thereupon they came forth from the stronghold. ⁶² And the king entered into mount Sion; and he saw the strength of the place, and set at nothing the oath which he had sworn, and gave commandment to pull down the wall round about. ⁶³ And he removed in haste, and returned to Antioch, and found Philip master of the city; and he fought against him, and took the city by force.

7 In [¶]the hundred and one and fifties year Demetrius the son of Seleucus came forth from Rome, and went up with a few men to a city by the sea, and reigned there. ² And it came to pass, when he would go into the house of the kingdom of his fathers, that the army laid hands on Antiochus and Lysias, to bring them to him. ³ And the thing was known to him, and he said, show me not their faces. ⁴ And the army killed them. And Demetrius sat upon the throne of his kingdom. ⁵ And there came to him all the lawless and ungodly men of Israel; and Alcimus was their leader, desiring to be high priest; ⁶ and they accused the people to the king, saying, Judas and his kindred have destroyed all your friends, and have scattered us from our own land. ⁷ Now therefore send a man whom you trust, and let him go and see all the havock which he has made of us, and of the king's country, and how he has punished them and all that helped them. ⁸ And the king chose Bacchides, one of the king's ¶Friends, who was ruler in the country beyond the river, and was a great man in the kingdom, and faithful to the king. ⁹ And he sent him, and that ungodly Alcimus, and made sure to him the high priesthood, and he commanded him to take vengeance upon the children of Israel.

¹⁰ And they removed, and came with a great army into the land of Judah, and he sent messengers to Judas and his kindred with words of peace deceitfully. ¹¹ And they gave no heed to their words; for they saw that they were come with a great army. ¹² And there were gathered together to Alcimus and Bacchides a company of scribes, to seek for justice. ¹³ And the §Hasidaeans were the first among the children of Israel that sought peace of them; ¹⁴ for they said, One that is a priest of the seed of Aaron is come with the forces, and he will do us no wrong. ¹⁵ And he spoke with them words of peace, and sware to them, saying, We will seek the hurt neither of you nor your friends. ¹⁶ And they gave him credence: and he laid hands on threescore men of them, and killed them in one day, according to the word which the psalmist wrote,

¹⁷ The flesh of your saints did they cast out,
And their blood did they shed round about
Jerusalem;

And there was no man to bury them.

¹⁸ And the fear and the dread of them fell upon all the people, for they said, There is neither truth nor judgement in them; for they have broken the covenant and the oath which they sware. ¹⁹ And Bacchides removed from Jerusalem, and encamped in Bezeth; and he sent and took away many of the deserters that were with him, and certain of the people, and he killed them, and cast them into the great pit. ²⁰ And he made sure the country to Alcimus, and left with him a force to aid him; and Bacchides went away to the king.

²¹ And Alcimus strove for his high priesthood. ²² And there were gathered to him all those who troubled their people, and they got the mastery of the land of Judah, and did great hurt in Israel. ²³ And Judas saw all the mischief that Alcimus and his company had done among the children of Israel, even above the Gentiles, ²⁴ and he went out into all the coasts of Judea round about, and took vengeance on the men that had deserted from him, and they were restrained from going forth into the country. ²⁵ But when Alcimus saw that Judas and his company waxed strong, and knew that he was not able to withstand them, he returned to the king, and brought evil accusations against them.

²⁶ ††And the king sent Nicanor, one of his honorable princes, a man that hated Israel and was their enemy, and commanded him to destroy the people. ²⁷ And Nicanor came to Jerusalem with a great army; and he sent to Judas and his kindred deceitfully with words of peace, saying, ²⁸ Let there be no battle between me and you; I will come with a few men, that I may see your faces in peace. ²⁹ And he came to Judas, and they saluted one another peaceably. And the enemies were ready to take away Judas by violence. ³⁰ And the thing was known to Judas, to wit, that he came to him with deceit, and he was sore afraid of him, and would see his face no more. ³¹ And Nicanor knew that his counsel was discovered; and he went out to meet Judas in battle beside Capharsalama; ³² and there fell of Nicanor's side about ††five hundred men, and they fled into the city of David.

³³ And after these things Nicanor went up to mount Sion: and there came some of the priests out of the sanctuary, and some of the elders of the people, to salute him peaceably, and to show him the whole burned sacrifice that was being offered for the king. ³⁴ And he mocked them, and laughed at them, and ¶¶lentreated them shamefully, and spoke haughtily, ³⁵ and sware in a rage, saying, Unless Judas and his army be now delivered into my hands, it shall be that, if I come again in peace, I will burn up this house: and he went out in a great rage. ³⁶ And the priests entered in, and stood before the altar and the temple; and they wept, and said, ³⁷ You did choose this house to be called by your name, to be a house of prayer and supplication for your people: ³⁸ take vengeance on this man and his army, and let them fall by the sword: remember their blasphemies, and suffer them not to live any longer.

³⁹ And Nicanor went forth from Jerusalem, and encamped in Bethhoron, and there met him the army of Syria. ⁴⁰ And Judas encamped in Adasa with three thousand men: and Judas prayed and said, ⁴¹ When those who came from the king blasphemed, your angel went out, and struck among them a hundred and fourscore and five thousand. ⁴² Even so discomfit you this army before us today, and let all the rest know that he has spoken wickedly against your sanctuary, and judge you him according to his wickedness. ⁴³ And on the thirteenth day of the month Adar the armies joined battle: and Nicanor's army was discomfited, and he himself was the first to fall in the battle. ⁴⁴ Now when his army saw that Nicanor was fallen, they cast away their arms, and fled. ⁴⁵ And they pursued after them a day's journey from Adasa until you come to ^{§§}Gazara, and they sounded an alarm after them with the ^{*}solemn trumpets. ⁴⁶ And they came forth out of all the villages of Judea round about, and [†]closed them in; and these turned them back on those, and they all fell by the sword, and there was not one of them left. ⁴⁷ And they took the spoils, and the booty, and they struck off Nicanor's head, and his right hand, which he stretched out so haughtily, and brought them, and [‡]hanged them up beside Jerusalem. ⁴⁸ And the people were exceedingly glad, and they kept that day as a day of great gladness. ⁴⁹ And [¶]they ordained to keep this day year by year, to wit, the thirteenth day of Adar. ⁵⁰ And the land of Judah had rest [§]a little while.

⁸ And Judas heard of the fame of the Romans, that they are valiant men, and have pleasure in all that join themselves to them, and make friends with all such as come to them, ² and that they are valiant men. And they told him of their wars and exploits which they do among the Gauls, and how that they conquered them, and brought them under tribute; ³ and what things they did in the land of Spain, that they might become masters of the mines of silver and gold which were there; ⁴ and how that by their policy and persistence they conquered all the place (and the place was exceedingly far from them), and the kings that came against them from the uttermost part of the earth, until they had discomfited them, and struck them very sore; and how the rest give them tribute year by year: ⁵ and Philip, and Perseus, king of Chittim, and those who lifted up themselves against them, did they discomfit in battle, and conquered them: ⁶ Antiochus also, the great king of Asia, who came against them to battle, having a hundred and twenty elephants, with horse, and chariots, and an exceedingly great army, and he was discomfited by them, ⁷ and they took him alive, and appointed that both he and such as reigned after him should give them a great tribute, and should give hostages, and a parcel of land, to wit, ⁸ the country of India, and Media, and Lydia, and of the goodliest of their countries; and they took them from him, and gave them to king Eumenes: ⁹ and how they of Greece took counsel to come and destroy them; ¹⁰ and the thing was known to them, and they sent against them a captain, and fought against them, and many of them fell down wounded to death, and they made captive their wives and their children, and plundered them, and conquered their land, and pulled down their strongholds, and plundered them, and brought them into bondage to this day: ¹¹ and the residue of the kingdoms and of the isles, as many as rose up against them at any time, they destroyed and made them to be their servants; ¹² but with their friends and such as relied upon them they stayed friends; and they conquered the kingdoms that were near and those that were far off, and all that heard of their fame were afraid of them: ¹³ moreover, whoever they will to help and to make kings, these do they make kings; and whoever they will, do they depose; and they are exalted exceedingly: ¹⁴ and for all this none of them did ever put on a diadem, neither did they clothe themselves with purple, to be magnified by it: ¹⁵ and how they had made for themselves a senate house, and day by day three hundred and twenty men sat in council, consulting always for the people, to the end they might be well ordered: ¹⁶ and how they commit their government to one man year by year, that he should rule over them, and be lord over all their country, and all are obedient to that one, and there is neither envy nor emulation among them.

¹⁷ And Judas chose Eupolemus the son of John, the son of Accos, and Jason the son of Eleazar, and sent them to Rome, to establish friendship and alliance with them, ¹⁸ and that they should take the yoke from them; for they saw that the kingdom of the Greeks did keep Israel in bondage. ¹⁹ And they went to Rome (and the way was exceedingly long), and they entered into the senate house, and answered and said, ²⁰ Judas, who is also called Maccabaeus, and his kindred, and the people of the Jews, have sent us to you, to make a confederacy and peace with you, and that we might be registered your allies and friends.

²¹ And the thing was well-pleasing in their sight. ²² And this is the copy of the writing which they wrote back again on tables of brass, and sent to Jerusalem, that it might be with them there for a memorial of peace and confederacy:

²³ Good success be to the Romans, and to the nation of the Jews, by sea and by land forever: the sword also and the enemy be far from them. ²⁴ But if war arise for Rome first, or any of their allies in all their dominion, ²⁵ the nation of the Jews shall help them as allies, as the occasion shall prescribe to them, with all their heart: ²⁶ and to those who make war upon them they shall not give, neither supply, food, arms, money, or ships, as it has seemed good to Rome, and they shall keep their ordinances without taking anything therefore. ²⁷ In the same manner, moreover, if war come first upon the nation of the Jews, the Romans shall help them as allies with all their soul, as the occasion shall prescribe to them: ²⁸ and to those who are allies with their foes there shall not be given food, arms, money, or ships, as it has seemed good to Rome; and they shall keep these ordinances, and that without deceit. ²⁹ According to these words have the Romans made a covenant thus with the people of the Jews. ³⁰ But if hereafter the one party and the other shall take counsel to add or diminish anything, they shall do it at their pleasure, and whatever they shall add or take away shall be established. ³¹ And as touching the evils which king Demetrius does to them, we have written to him, saying, Wherefore have you made your yoke heavy upon our friends and allies the Jews? ³² If therefore they plead any more against you, we will do them justice, and fight with you by sea and by land.

9 And Demetrius heard that Nicanor was fallen with his forces in battle, and he sent Bacchides and Alcimus again into the land of Judah a second time, and the right wing of his army with them: ² and they went by the way that leads to Gilgal, and encamped against Mesaloth, which is in Arbela, and got possession of it, and destroyed much people.

3 And the first month of the hundred and fifty and second year they encamped against Jerusalem: 4 and they removed, and went to Berea, with twenty thousand footmen and two thousand horse. 5 And Judas was encamped at Elasa, and three thousand chosen men with him: 6 and they saw the multitude of the forces, that they were many, and they feared exceedingly: and many slipped away out of the army; there were not left of them more than eight hundred men. 7 And Judas saw that his army slipped away, and that the battle pressed upon him, and he was sore troubled in heart, for that he had no time to gather them together, and he waxed faint. 8 And he said to those who were left, Let's arise and go up against our adversaries, if perhaps we may be able to fight with them. 9 And they would have dissuaded him, saying, We shall in no wise be able: but let's rather save our lives now: let's return again, we and our kindred, and fight against them: but we are few. 10 And Judas said, let it not be so that I should do this thing, to flee from them: and if our time is come, let's die in a manly way for our kindred's sake, and not leave a cause of reproach against our glory. 11 And the army removed from the camp, and stood to encounter them, and the horse was parted into two companies, and the slingers and the archers went before the army, and all the mighty men that fought in the front of the battle. 12 But Bacchides was in the right wing; and the phalanx drew near on the two parts, and they blew with their trumpets. 13 And the men of Judas' side, even they sounded with their trumpets, and the earth shook with the shout of the armies, and the battle was joined, and continued from morning until evening. 14 And Judas saw that Bacchides and the strength of his army were on the right side, and there went with him all that were brave in heart, 15 and the right wing was discomfited by them, and he pursued after them to the mount Azotus. 16 And those who were on the left wing saw that the right wing was discomfited, and they turned and followed upon the footsteps of Judas and of those that were with him: 17 and the battle waxed sore, and many on both parts fell wounded to death. 18 And Judas fell, and the rest fled. 19 And Jonathan and Simon took Judas their brother, and buried him in the sepulchre of his fathers at Modin. 20 And they bewailed him, and all Israel made great lamentation for him, and mourned many days, and said, 21 How is the mighty fallen, the savior of Israel! 22 And the rest of the acts of Judas, and his wars, and the valiant deeds which he did, and his greatness, they are not written; for they were exceedingly many.

23 And it came to pass after the death of Judas, that the lawless put forth their heads in all the coasts of Israel, and all those who did iniquity rose up 24 (in those days there was an exceedingly great famine), and the country went over with them. 25 And Bacchides chose out the ungodly men, and made them lords of the country. 26 And they sought out and searched for the friends of Judas, and brought them to Bacchides, and he took vengeance on them, and used them despitefully. 27 And there was great suffering in Israel, such as was not since the time that no prophet appeared to them. 28 And all the friends of Judas were gathered together, and they said to Jonathan, 29 Since your brother Judas has died, we have no man like him to go forth against our enemies and Bacchides, and among them of our nation that hate us. 30 Now therefore we have chosen you this day to be our prince and leader in his stead, that you may fight our battles. 31 And Jonathan took the governance upon him at that time, and rose up in the stead of his brother Judas.

32 And Bacchides knew it, and he sought to kill him. 33 And Jonathan, and Simon his brother, and all that were with him, knew it; and they fled into the wilderness of Tekoah, and encamped by the water of the pool Asphar. ³⁴ And Bacchides knew it on the Sabbath day, and came, he and all his army, over Jordan. ³⁵ And Jonathan sent his brother, a leader of the multitude, and implored his friends the Nabathaeans, that they might leave with them their baggage, which was much. ³⁶ And the children of Jambri came out of Medaba, and took John, and all that he had, and went their way with it.

³⁷ But after these things they brought word to Jonathan and Simon his brother, that the children of Jambri were making a great marriage, and were bringing the bride from Nadabath with a great train, a daughter of one of the great nobles of Canaan. ³⁸ And they remembered John their brother, and went up, and hid themselves under the covert of the mountain: ³⁹ and they lifted up their eyes, and saw, and, behold, a great ado and much baggage: and the bridegroom came forth, and his friends and his kindred, to meet them with timbrels, and minstrels, and many weapons. ⁴⁰ And they rose up against them from their ambush, and killed them, and many fell wounded to death, and the remnant fled into the mountain, and they took all their spoils. ⁴¹ And the marriage was turned into mourning, and the voice of their minstrels into lamentation. ⁴² And they avenged fully the blood of their brother, and turned back to the marsh of Jordan.

⁴³ And Bacchides heard it, and he came on the Sabbath day to the banks of Jordan with a great army. ⁴⁴ And Jonathan said to his company, Let's stand up now and fight for our lives, for it is not with us today, as yesterday and the day before. ⁴⁵ For, behold, the battle is before us and behind us; moreover the water of the Jordan is on this side and on that side, and marsh and wood; and there is no place to escape. ⁴⁶ Now therefore cry to heaven, that you^o may be delivered out of the hand of your enemies. ⁴⁷ And the battle was joined, and Jonathan stretched forth his hand to strike Bacchides, and he turned away back from him. ⁴⁸ And Jonathan and those who were with him leapt into the Jordan, and swam over to the other side: and they didn't pass over Jordan against them. ⁴⁹ And there fell of Bacchides' company that day about a thousand men; ⁵⁰ and he returned to Jerusalem. And they built strong cities in Judea, the stronghold that was in Jericho, and Emmaus, and Bethoron, and Bethel, and Timnath, Pharathon, and Tephon, with high walls and gates and bars. ⁵¹ And in them he set a garrison, to vex Israel. ⁵² And he fortified the city Bethsura, and Gazara, and the citadel, and put forces in them, and store of food. ⁵³ And he took the sons of the chief men of the country for hostages, and put them in ward in the citadel at Jerusalem.

⁵⁴ And in ††the hundred and fifty and third year, in the second month, Alcimus commanded to pull down the wall of the inner court of the sanctuary; he pulled down also the works of the prophets; ⁵⁵ and he began to pull down. At that time was Alcimus stricken, and his works were hindered; and his mouth was stopped, and he was taken with a palsy, and he could no more speak anything and give order concerning his house. ⁵⁶ And Alcimus died at that time with great torment. ⁵⁷ And Bacchides saw that Alcimus was dead, and he returned to the king: and the land of Judah had rest two years.

⁵⁸ And all the lawless men took counsel, saying, Behold, Jonathan and they of his part are dwelling at ease, and in security: now therefore we will bring Bacchides, and he shall lay hands on them all in one night. ⁵⁹ And they went and consulted with him. ⁶⁰ And he removed, and came with a great army, and sent letters privily to all his allies that were in Judea, that they should lay hands on Jonathan and those that were with him: and they could not, because their counsel was known to them.

††9:54 circa B.C. 160.

61 And those who were of Jonathan's part laid hands on about fifty of the men of the country, that were authors of the wickedness, and he killed them. 62 And Jonathan, and Simon, and those who were with him, got them away to Bethbasi, which is in the wilderness, and he built up that which had been pulled down thereof, and they made it strong. 63 And Bacchides knew it, and he gathered together all his multitude, and sent word to those who were of Judea. 64 And he went and encamped against Bethbasi, and fought against it many days, and made engines of war. 65 And Jonathan left his brother Simon in the city, and went forth into the country, and he went with a few men. 66 And he struck Odomera and his kindred, and the children of Phasiron in their tent. 67 And they began to strike them, and to go up with their forces. And Simon and those who were with him went out of the city, and set on fire the engines of war, 68 and fought against Bacchides, and he was discomfited by them, and they afflicted him sore; for his counsel was in vain, and his inroad. 69 And they were very angry with the lawless men that gave him counsel to come into the country, and they killed many of them. And he took counsel to depart into his own land. 70 And Jonathan had knowledge thereof, and sent ambassadors to him, to the end that they should make peace with him, and that he should restore to them the captives. 71 And he accepted the thing, and did according to his words, and sware to him that he would not seek his hurt all the days of his life. 72 And he restored to him the captives which he had taken aforetime out of the land of Judah, and he returned and departed into his own land, and came not any more into their borders. 73 And the sword ceased from Israel. And Jonathan lived at Michmash; and Jonathan began to judge the people; and he destroyed the ungodly out of Israel.

10 And in ^{##}the hundred and sixties year Alexander Epiphanes, the son of Antiochus, went up and took possession of Ptolemais: and they received him, and he reigned there. 2 And king Demetrius heard thereof, and he gathered together exceedingly great forces, and went forth to meet him in battle.

3 And Demetrius sent letters to Jonathan with words of peace, so as to magnify him. 4 For he said, let's go beforehand to make peace with them, before he makes peace with Alexander against us: 5 for he will remember all the evils that we have done against him, and to his kindred and to his nation. 6 And he gave him authority to gather together forces, and to provide arms, and that he should be his ally: and he commanded that they should deliver up to him the hostages that were in the citadel.

7 And Jonathan came to Jerusalem, and read the letters in the audience of all the people, and of those who were in the citadel: 8 and they were sore afraid, when they heard that the king had given him authority to gather together an army. 9 And they of the citadel delivered up the hostages to Jonathan, and he restored them to their parents. 10 And Jonathan lived in Jerusalem, and began to build and renew the city. 11 And he commanded those who did the work to build the walls and the mount Sion round about with ^{¶¶}square stones for defense; and they did so. 12 And the strangers, that were in the strongholds which Bacchides had built, fled away; 13 and each man left his place, and departed into his own land. 14 Only at Bethsura were there left certain of those that had forsaken the law and the commandments; for it was a place of refuge to them.

15 And king Alexander heard all the promises which Demetrius had sent to Jonathan: and they told him of the battles and the valiant deeds which he and his kindred had done, and of the toils which they had endured; ¹⁶ And he said, Shall we find such another man? and now we will make him our §§Friend and ally. ¹⁷ And he wrote letters, and sent them to him, according to these words, saying, ¹⁸ King Alexander to his brother Jonathan, greeting: ¹⁹ We have heard of you, that you are a mighty man of valour, and meet to be our *Friend. ²⁰ And now we have appointed you this day to be high priest of your nation, and to be called the king's †Friend (and he sent to him a purple robe and a crown of gold), and to take our part, and to keep friendship with us.

²² And Demetrius heard these things, and he was grieved, and said, ²³ What is this that we have done, that Alexander has been beforehand with us in establishing friendship with the Jews, to strengthen himself? ²⁴ I also will write to them words of encouragement and of honor and of gifts, that they may be with me to aid me. ²⁵ And he sent to them according to these words:

King Demetrius to the nation of the Jews, greeting: ²⁶ Forasmuch as you^o have kept your covenants with us, and continued in our friendship, and have not joined yourselves to our enemies, we have heard of this, and are glad. ²⁷ And now continue you^o still to keep faith with us, and we will recompense to you good things in return for your dealings with us, ²⁸ and will grant you many immunities, and give you gifts. ²⁹ And now do I free you, and release all the Jews, from the tributes, and from the customs of salt, and from the crowns. ³⁰ And instead of the third part of the seed, and instead of the half of the fruit of the trees, which falls to me to receive, I release it from this day and henceforth, so that I will not take it from the land of Judah, and from the three governments which are added thereto from the country of Samaria and Galilee, from this day forth and for all time. ³¹ And let Jerusalem be holy and free, and her borders; the tenths and the tolls also. ³² I yield up also my authority over the citadel which is at Jerusalem, and give it to the high priest, that he may appoint in it such men as he shall choose to keep it. ³³ And every soul of the Jews, that has been carried captive from the land of Judah into any part of my kingdom, I set at liberty without price; and let all remit the tributes of their cattle also. ³⁴ And all the feasts, and the Sabbaths, and new moons, and appointed days, and three days before a feast, and three days after a feast, let them all be days of immunity and release for all the Jews that are in my kingdom. ³⁵ And no man shall have authority to exact from any of them, or to trouble them concerning any matter. ³⁶ And let there be enrolled among the king's forces about thirty thousand men of the Jews, and pay shall be given to them, as belongs to all the king's forces. ³⁷ And of them some shall be placed in the king's great strongholds, and some of them shall be placed over the affairs of the kingdom, which are of trust: and let those that are over them, and their rulers, be of themselves, and let them walk after their own laws, even as the king has commanded in the land of Judah. ³⁸ And the three governments that have been added to Judea from the country of Samaria, let them be added to Judea, that they may be reckoned to be under one, that they may not obey other authority than the high priest's. ³⁹ As for Ptolemais, and the land pertaining thereto, I have given it as a gift to the sanctuary that is at Jerusalem, for the expenses that befit the sanctuary. ⁴⁰ And I give every year fifteen thousand shekels of silver from the king's revenues from the places that are convenient. ⁴¹ And all the overplus, which those who manage the king's affairs paid not in as in the first years, they shall give from henceforth toward the works of the house. ⁴² And beside this, the five thousand shekels of silver, which they received from the uses of the sanctuary from the revenue year by year, this also is released, because it appertains to the priests that minister. ⁴³ And whoever shall flee to the temple that is at Jerusalem, and be found within all the borders thereof, whether one owe moneys to the king, or any other matter, let them go free, and all that they have in my kingdom. ⁴⁴ And for the building and renewing of the works of the sanctuary the expense shall be given also out of the king's revenue. ⁴⁵ And for the building of the walls of Jerusalem, and the fortifying thereof round about, shall the expense be given also out of the king's revenue, and for the building of the walls in Judea.

⁴⁶ Now when Jonathan and the people heard these words, they gave no credence to them, nor received them, because they remembered the great evil which he had done in Israel, and that he had afflicted them very sore. ⁴⁷ And they were well pleased with Alexander, because he was the first that spoke words of peace to them, and they were allies with him always. ⁴⁸ And king Alexander gathered together great forces, and encamped near Demetrius. ⁴⁹ And the two kings joined battle, and the army of Alexander fled; and Demetrius followed after him, and prevailed against them. ⁵⁰ And he strengthened the battle exceedingly until the sun went down: and Demetrius fell that day.

⁵¹ And Alexander sent ambassadors to Ptolemy king of Egypt according to these words, saying, ⁵² Forasmuch as I am returned to my kingdom, and am set on the throne of my fathers, and have gotten the dominion, and have overthrown Demetrius, and have gotten possession of our country; ⁵³ yes, I joined the battle with him, and he and his army were discomfited by us, and we sat upon the throne of his kingdom: ⁵⁴ now also let's make friends with one another, and give me now your daughter to wife: and I will be joined with you, and will give both you and her gifts worthy of you. ⁵⁵ And Ptolemy the king answered, saying, Happy is the day wherein you did return into the land of your fathers, and did sit on the throne of their kingdom. ⁵⁶ And now I will do to you, as you have written: but meet me at Ptolemais, that we may see one another; and I will join with you, even as you have said. ⁵⁷ And Ptolemy went out of Egypt, himself and Cleopatra his daughter, and came to Ptolemais in ¶the hundred and threescore and second year: ⁵⁸ and king Alexander met him, and he bestowed on him his daughter Cleopatra, and celebrated her wedding at Ptolemais with great pomp, as the manner of kings is.

⁵⁹ And king Alexander wrote to Jonathan, that he should come to meet him. ⁶⁰ And he went with pomp to Ptolemais, and met the two kings, and gave them and their §Friends silver and gold, and many gifts, and found favor in their sight. ⁶¹ And there were gathered together against him certain pestilent fellows out of Israel, men that were transgressors of the law, to complain against him: and the king gave no heed to them. ⁶² And the king commanded, and they took off Jonathan's garments, and clothed him in purple: and thus they did. ⁶³ And the king made him sit with him, and said to his princes, Go forth with him into the midst of the city, and make proclamation, that no man complain against him of any matter, and let no man trouble him for any manner of cause. ⁶⁴ And it came to pass, when those who complained against him saw his glory according as the herald made proclamation, and saw him clothed in purple, they all fled away. ⁶⁵ And the king gave him honor, and wrote him among his *Chief Friends, and made him a captain, and governor of a province. ⁶⁶ And Jonathan returned to Jerusalem with peace and gladness.

⁶⁷ And in ††the hundred and threescore and fifth year came Demetrius, son of Demetrius, out of Crete into the land of his fathers: ⁶⁸ and king Alexander heard thereof, and he grieved exceedingly, and returned to Antioch. ⁶⁹ And Demetrius appointed Apollonius, who was over Coelesyria, and he gathered together a great army, and encamped in Jamnia, and sent to Jonathan the high priest, saying,

⁷⁰ You alone lift up yourself against us, but I am had in derision and in reproach because of you. And why do you vaunt your power against us in the mountains? ⁷¹ Now therefore, if you trust in your forces, come down to us into the plain, and there let's try the matter together; for with me is the power of the cities. ⁷² Ask and learn who I am, and the rest that help us; and they say, Your foot can't stand before our face; for your fathers have been twice put to flight in their own land. ⁷³ And now you shall not be able to withstand the horse and such an army as this in the plain, where is neither stone nor flint, nor place to flee to.

⁷⁴ Now when Jonathan heard the words of Apollonius, he was moved in his mind, and he chose out ten thousand men, and went forth from Jerusalem, and Simon his brother met him for to help him. ⁷⁵ And he encamped against Joppa: and they of the city shut him out, because Apollonius had a garrison in Joppa: ⁷⁶ and they fought against it. And they of the city were afraid, and opened to him: and Jonathan became master of Joppa. ⁷⁷ And Apollonius heard, and he gathered an army of three thousand horse, and a great army, and went to Azotus as though he were on a journey, and therewithal drew onward into the plain, because he had a multitude of horse, and trusted therein. ⁷⁸ And he pursued after him to Azotus, and the armies joined battle^{‡‡}. ⁷⁹ And Apollonius had left a thousand horse behind them privily. ⁸⁰ And Jonathan knew that there was an ambushment behind him. And they compassed round his army, and cast their darts at the people, from morning until evening: ⁸¹ but the people stood still, as Jonathan commanded them: and their horses were wearied. ⁸² And Simon drew forth his army, and joined battle with the phalanx (for the horsemen were spent), and they were discomfited by him, and fled. ⁸³ And the horsemen were scattered in the plain, and they fled to Azotus, and entered into Beth-dagon, their idol's temple, to save themselves. ⁸⁴ And Jonathan burned Azotus, and the cities round about it, and took their spoils; and the temple of Dagon, and those who fled into it, he burned with fire. ⁸⁵ And those who had fallen by the sword, with those who were burned, were about eight thousand men. ⁸⁶ And from thence Jonathan removed, and encamped against Ascalon, and they of the city came forth to meet him with great pomp. ⁸⁷ And Jonathan, with those who were on his side, returned to Jerusalem, having many spoils. ⁸⁸ And it came to pass, when king Alexander heard these things, he honored Jonathan yet more; ⁸⁹ and he sent to him a buckle of gold, as the use is to give to such as are of the kindred of the kings: and he gave him Ekron and all the coasts thereof for a possession.

11 And the king of Egypt gathered together great forces, as the sand which is by the sea shore, and many ships, and sought to make himself master of Alexander's kingdom

by deceit, and to add it to his own kingdom. ²And he went forth into Syria with words of peace, and they of the cities opened to him, and met him; For king Alexander's commandment was that they should meet him, because he was his father-in-law. ³Now as he entered into the cities of Ptolemais, he set his forces for a garrison in each city. ⁴But when he came near to Azotus, they showed him the temple of Dagon burned with fire, and Azotus and the pasture lands thereof pulled down, and the bodies cast abroad, and those who had been burned, whom he burned in the war, for they had made heaps of them in his way. ⁵And they told the king what things Jonathan had done, that they might cast blame on him: and the king held his peace. ⁶And Jonathan met the king with pomp at Joppa, and they saluted one another, and they slept there. ⁷And Jonathan went with the king as far as the river that is called Eleutherus, and returned to Jerusalem. ⁸But king Ptolemy became master of the cities upon the sea coast, to Selucia which is by the sea, and he devised evil plans concerning Alexander. ⁹And he sent ambassadors to king Demetrius, saying, Come! Let's make a covenant with one another, and I will give you my daughter whom Alexander has, and you shall reign over your father's kingdom; ¹⁰for I have repented that I gave my daughter to him, for he sought to kill me. ¹¹And he cast blame on him, because he coveted his kingdom. ¹²And taking his daughter from him, he gave her to Demetrius, and was estranged from Alexander, and their enmity was openly seen. ¹³And Ptolemy entered into Antioch, and put on himself the diadem of Asia; and he put two diadems upon his head, the diadem of Egypt and that of Asia. ¹⁴But king Alexander was in Cilicia at that season, because they of those parts were in revolt. ¹⁵And Alexander heard of it, and he came against him in war: and Ptolemy led forth his army, and met him with a strong force, and put him to flight. ¹⁶And Alexander fled into Arabia, that he might be sheltered there; but king Ptolemy was exalted. ¹⁷And Zabdiel the Arabian took off Alexander's head, and sent it to Ptolemy. ¹⁸And king Ptolemy died the third day after, and those who were in his strongholds were slain by those who were in the strongholds. ¹⁹And Demetrius reigned in ¶¶the hundred and threescore and seventh year.

²⁰In those days Jonathan gathered together them of Judea, to take the citadel that was at Jerusalem: and he made many engines of war against it. ²¹And certain that hated their own nation, men that transgressed the law, went to the king, and reported to him that Jonathan was besieging the citadel. ²²And he heard, and was angered; but when he heard it, he set forth immediately, and came to Ptolemais, and wrote to Jonathan, that he should not besiege it, and that he should meet him and speak with him at Ptolemais with all speed. ²³But when Jonathan heard this, he commanded to besiege it still: and he chose certain of the elders of Israel and of the priests, and put himself in peril, ²⁴and taking silver and gold and raiment and various presents besides, went to Ptolemais to the king. And he found favor in his sight. ²⁵And certain lawless men of those who were of the nation made complaints against him, ²⁶and the king did to him even as his predecessors had done to him, and exalted him in the sight of all his §§Friends, ²⁷and confirmed to him the high priesthood, and all the other honors that he had before, and gave him preeminence among his *Chief Friends. ²⁸And Jonathan requested of the king, that he would make Judea free from tribute, and the three †provinces, and the country of Samaria; and promised him three hundred talents. ²⁹ And the king consented, and wrote letters to Jonathan concerning all these things after this manner:

³⁰ King Demetrius to his brother Jonathan, and to the nation of the Jews, greeting: ³¹ The copy of the letter which we wrote to Lasthenes our kinsman concerning you, we have written also to you, that you^o may see it. ³² King Demetrius to Lasthenes his father, greeting: ³³ We have determined to do good to the nation of the Jews, who are our friends, and observe what is just toward us, because of their good will toward us. ³⁴ We have confirmed therefore to them the borders of Judea, and also the three governments of Aphaerema and Lydda and Ramathaim (these were added to Judea from the country of Samaria), and all things appertaining to them, for all such as do sacrifice in Jerusalem, instead of the king's dues which the king received of them yearly aforetime from the produce of the earth and the fruits of trees. ³⁵ And as for the other things that pertain to us from henceforth, of the tenths and the tolls that pertain to us, and the salt pits, and the crowns that pertain to us, all these we will bestow upon them. ³⁶ And not one of these things shall be annulled from this time forth and forever. ³⁷ Now therefore be careful to make a copy of these things, and let it be given to Jonathan, and let it be set up on the holy mount in a meet and conspicuous place.

³⁸ And king Demetrius saw that the land was quiet before him, and that no resistance was made to him, and he sent away all his forces, each man to his own place, except the foreign forces, which he had raised from the isles of the Gentiles: and all the forces of his fathers hated him. ³⁹ Now Tryphon was of those who aforetime had been of Alexander's part, and he saw that all the forces murmured against Demetrius, and he went to Imalcue the Arabian, who was nourishing up Antiochus the young child of Alexander, ⁴⁰ and pressed sore upon him that he should deliver him to him, that he might reign in his father's stead: and he told him all that Demetrius had done, and the hatred wherewith his forces hated him; and he abode there many days.

⁴¹ And Jonathan sent to king Demetrius, that he should cast out of Jerusalem them of the citadel, and those who were in the strongholds; for they fought against Israel continually. ⁴² And Demetrius sent to Jonathan, saying, I will not only do this for you and your nation, but I will greatly honor you and your nation, if I find fair occasion. ⁴³ Now therefore you shall do well, if you send me men who shall fight for me; for all my forces are revolted. ⁴⁴ And Jonathan sent him three thousand valiant men to Antioch: and they came to the king, and the king was glad at their coming. ⁴⁵ And they of the city gathered themselves together into the midst of the city, to the number of a hundred and twenty thousand men, and they were minded to kill the king. ⁴⁶ And the king fled into the court of the palace, and they of the city seized the passages of the city, and began to fight. ⁴⁷ And the king called the Jews to help him, and they were gathered together to him all at once, and they dispersed themselves in the city, and killed that day to the number of a hundred thousand. ⁴⁸ And they set the city on fire, and got many spoils that day, and saved the king. ⁴⁹ And they of the city saw that the Jews had made themselves masters of the city as they would, and they waxed faint in their hearts, and they cried out to the king with supplication, saying, ⁵⁰ Give us your right hand, and let the Jews cease from fighting against us and the city. ⁵¹ And they cast away their arms, and made peace; and the Jews were glorified in the sight of the king, and before all that were in his kingdom; and they returned to Jerusalem, having many spoils. ⁵² And king Demetrius sat on the throne of his kingdom, and the land was quiet before him. ⁵³ And he lied in all that he spoke, and estranged himself from Jonathan, and recompensed him not according to the benefits with which he had recompensed him, and afflicted him exceedingly.

⁵⁴ Now after this Tryphon returned, and with him the young child Antiochus; and he reigned, and put on a diadem. ⁵⁵ And there were gathered to him all the forces which Demetrius had sent away with disgrace, and they fought against him, and he fled and was put to the rout. ⁵⁶ And Tryphon took the elephants, and became master of Antioch. ⁵⁷ And the young Antiochus wrote to Jonathan, saying, I confirm to you the high priesthood, and appoint you over the four governments, and to be one of the king's Friends. ⁵⁸ And he sent to him golden vessels and furniture for the table, and gave him leave to drink in golden vessels, and to be clothed in purple, and to have a golden buckle. ⁵⁹ And his brother Simon he made captain from the Ladder of Tyre to the borders of Egypt. ⁶⁰ And Jonathan went forth, and took his journey beyond the river and through the cities; and all the forces of Syria gathered themselves to him for to be his allies. And he came to Ascalon, and they of the city met him honorably. ⁶¹ And he departed thence to Gaza, and they of Gaza shut him out; and he laid siege to it, and burned the pasture lands thereof with fire, and plundered them. ⁶² And they of Gaza made request to Jonathan, and he gave them his right hand, and took the sons of their princes for hostages, and sent them away to Jerusalem; and he passed through the country as far as Damascus.

it to them; and he put them out from thence, and took possession of the city, and set a garrison over it. ⁶⁷ And Jonathan and his army encamped at the water of Gennesareth, and early in the morning they got them to the plain of Hazor. ⁶⁸ And, behold, an army of strangers met him in the plain, and they laid an ambush for him in the mountains, but themselves met him face to face. ⁶⁹ But those who lay in ambush rose out of their places, and joined battle; and all those who were of Jonathan's side fled: ⁷⁰ not one of them was left, except Mattathias the son of Absalom, and Judas the son of Chalphi, captains of the forces. ⁷¹ And Jonathan tore his clothes, and put earth upon his head, and prayed. ⁷² And he turned again to them in battle, and put them to the rout, and they fled. ⁷³ And they of his side that fled saw it, and returned to him, and pursued with him to Kedesh to their camp, and they encamped there. ⁷⁴ And there fell of the strangers on that day about three thousand men: and Jonathan returned to Jerusalem.

12 And Jonathan saw that the time served him, and he chose men, and sent them to Rome, to confirm and renew the friendship that they had with them. ² And to the Spartans, and to other places, he sent letters after the same manner. ³ And they went to Rome, and entered into the senate house, and said, Jonathan the high priest, and the nation of the Jews, have sent us, to renew for them the friendship and the confederacy, as in former time. ⁴ And they gave them letters to the men in every place, that they should bring them on their way to the land of Judah in peace. ⁵ And this is the copy of the letters which Jonathan wrote to the Spartans:

¶Arius, who was reigning among you, to signify that you^o are our kindred, as the copy written below shows. ⁸ And Onias entreated honorably the man that was sent, and received the letters, wherein declaration was made of confederacy and friendship. ⁹ Therefore we also, albeit we need none of these things, having for our encouragement the holy books which are in our hands, ¹⁰ have assayed to send that we might renew our brotherhood and friendship with you, to the end that we should not become estranged from you altogether: for long time is passed since you^o sent to us. ¹¹ We therefore at all times without ceasing, both in our feasts, and on the other convenient days, do remember you in the sacrifices which we offer, and in our prayers, as it is right and meet to be mindful of kindred: ¹² and moreover are glad for your glory. ¹³ But as for ourselves, many afflictions and many wars have encompassed us, and the kings that are round about us have fought against us. ¹⁴ We were not minded therefore to be troublesome to you, and to the rest of our allies and friends, in these wars; ¹⁵ for we have the help which is from heaven to help us, and we have been delivered from our enemies, and our enemies have been brought low. ¹⁶ We chose therefore Numenius the son of Antiochus, and Antipater the son of Jason, and have sent them to the Romans, to renew the friendship that we had with them, and the former confederacy. ¹⁷ We commanded them therefore to go also to you, and to salute you, and to deliver you our letters concerning the renewing of friendship and our brotherhood. ¹⁸ And now you^o shall do well if you^o give us an answer thereto.

¹⁹ And this is the copy of the letters which they sent to Onias:

²⁰ Arius king of the Spartans to Onias the chief priest, greeting: ²¹ It has been found in writing, concerning the Spartans and the Jews, that they are kindred, and that they are of the stock of Abraham: ²² and now, since this is come to our knowledge, you^o shall do well to write to us of your §prosperity. ²³ And we moreover do write on our part to you, that your cattle and goods are ours, and ours are yours. We do command therefore that they make report to you on this wise.

²⁴ And Jonathan heard that Demetrius' princes were returned to fight against him with a greater army than before, ²⁵ and he removed from Jerusalem, and met them in the country of Hamath; for he gave them no respite to set foot in his country. ²⁶ And he sent spies into his camp, and they came again, and reported to him that they were appointed in such and such a way to fall upon them in the night season. ²⁷ But as soon as the sun was down, Jonathan commanded his men to watch, and to be in arms, that all the night long they might be ready for battle: and he put forth sentinels round about the camp. ²⁸ And the adversaries heard that Jonathan and his men were ready for battle, and they feared, and trembled in their hearts, and they kindled fires in their camp ²⁹ But Jonathan and his men knew it not till the morning; for they saw the lights burning. ³⁰ And Jonathan pursued after them, and overtook them not; for they were gone over the river Eleutherus. ³¹ And Jonathan turned toward the Arabians, who are called Zabadaeans, and struck them, and took their spoils. ³² And he came out from thence, and came to Damascus, and took his journey through all the country. ³³ And Simon went forth, and took his journey as far as Ascalon, and the strongholds that were near to it. And he turned toward Joppa, and took possession of it; ³⁴ for he had heard that they were minded to deliver the stronghold to the men of Demetrius; and he set a garrison there to keep it.

³⁵ And Jonathan returned, and called the elders of the people together; and he took counsel with them to build strongholds in Judea, ³⁶ and to make the walls of Jerusalem higher, and to raise a great mound between the citadel and the city, for to separate it from the city, that so it might be all alone, that men might neither buy nor sell. ³⁷ And they were gathered together to build the city, and there fell down part of the wall of the brook that is on the east side, and he repaired that which is called Chaphenatha. ³⁸ And Simon also built Adida in the ††plain country, and made it strong, and set up gates and bars.

³⁹ And Tryphon sought to reign over Asia and to put on himself the diadem, and to stretch forth his hand against Antiochus the king. ⁴⁰ And he was afraid lest perhaps Jonathan should not suffer him, and lest he should fight against him; and he sought a way how to take him, that he might destroy him. And he removed, and came to Bethshan. ⁴¹ And Jonathan came forth to meet him with forty thousand men chosen for battle, and came to Bethshan. ⁴² And Tryphon saw that he came with a great army, and he was afraid to stretch forth his hand against him: ⁴³ and he received him honorably, and commended him to all his ††Friends, and gave him gifts, and commanded his forces to be obedient to him, as to himself. ⁴⁴ And he said to Jonathan, Why have you put all this people to trouble, seeing there is no war between us? ⁴⁵ And now send them away to their homes, but choose for yourself a few men who shall be with you, and come you with me to Ptolemais, and I will give it up to you, and the rest of the strongholds and the rest of the forces, and all the king's officers: and I will return and depart; for this is the cause of my coming. ⁴⁶ And he put his trust in him, and did even as he said, and sent away his forces, and they departed into the land of Judah. ⁴⁷ But he reserved to himself three thousand men, of whom he left two thousand in Galilee, but one thousand went with him. ⁴⁸ Now as soon as Jonathan entered into Ptolemais, they of Ptolemais shut the gates, and laid hands on him; and all those who came in with him they killed with the sword. ⁴⁹ And Tryphon sent forces and horsemen into Galilee, and into the great plain, to destroy all Jonathan's men. ⁵⁰ And they perceived that he was taken and had perished, and those who were with him; and they encouraged one another, and went on their way close together, prepared to fight. ⁵¹ And those who followed upon them saw that they were ready to fight for their lives, and turned back again. ⁵² And they all came in peace into the land of Judah, and they mourned for Jonathan, and those who were with him, and they were sore afraid; and all Israel mourned with a great mourning. ⁵³ And all the Gentiles that were round about them sought to destroy them utterly: for they said, They have no ruler, nor any to help them: now therefore let's fight against them, and take away their memorial from among men.

13 And Simon heard that Tryphon had gathered together a mighty army to come into the land of Judah, and destroy it utterly. ² And he saw that the people trembled and was in great fear; and he went up to Jerusalem, and gathered the people together; ³ and he encouraged them, and said to them, You^o yourselves know all the things that I, and my kindred, and my father's house, have done for the laws and the sanctuary, and the battles and the distresses which we have seen: ⁴ by reason of this all my kindred have perished for Israel's sake, and I am left alone. ⁵ And now be it far from me, that I should spare my own life in any time of affliction; for I am not better than my kindred. ⁶ However I will take vengeance for my nation, and for the sanctuary, and for our wives and children; because all the Gentiles are gathered to destroy us of very hatred. ⁷ And the spirit of the people revived, as soon as they heard these words. ⁸ And they answered with a loud voice, saying, You are our leader instead of Judas and Jonathan your brother. ⁹ Fight you our battles, and all that you shall say to us, that will we do. ¹⁰ And he gathered together all the men of war, and made haste to finish the walls of Jerusalem, and he fortified it round about. ¹¹ And he sent Jonathan the son of Absalom, and with him a great army, to Joppa: and he cast out those who were therein, and abode there in it.

¹² And Tryphon removed from Ptolemais with a mighty army to enter into the land of Judah, and Jonathan was with him in ward. ¹³ But Simon encamped at Adida, near the plain. ¹⁴ And Tryphon knew that Simon was risen up instead of his brother Jonathan, and meant to join battle with him, and he sent ambassadors to him, saying, ¹⁵ It is for money which Jonathan your brother owed to the king's treasure, by reason of the offices which he had, that we hold him fast. ¹⁶ And now send a hundred talents of silver, and two of his sons for hostages, that when he is set at liberty he may not revolt from us, and we will set him at liberty. ¹⁷ And Simon knew that they spoke to him deceitfully; and he sends the money and the children, lest perhaps he should procure to himself great hatred of the people, ¹⁸ and they should say, Because I sent him not the money and the children, he perished. ¹⁹ And he sent the children and the hundred talents. And he dealt falsely, and didn't set Jonathan at liberty. ²⁰ And after this Tryphon came to invade the land, and destroy it, and he went round about by the way that leads to Adora: and Simon and his army marched near him to every place, wherever he went. ²¹ Now they

of the citadel sent to Tryphon ambassadors, hastening him to come to them through the wilderness, and to send them food. ²² And Tryphon made ready all his horse to come: and on that night there fell a very great snow, and he came not by reason of the snow. And he removed, and came into the country of Gilead. ²³ But when he came near to Bascama, he killed Jonathan, and he was buried there. ²⁴ And Tryphon returned, and went away into his own land.

³¹ Now Tryphon dealt deceitfully with the young king Antiochus, and killed him, ³² and reigned in his stead, and put on himself the diadem of Asia, and brought a great calamity upon the land. ³³ And Simon built the strongholds of Judea, and fenced them about with high towers, and great walls, and gates, and bars; and he laid up food in the strongholds. ³⁴ And Simon chose men, and sent to king Demetrius, to the end he should give the country an immunity, because all that Tryphon did was to plunder. ³⁵ And king Demetrius sent to him according to these words, and answered him, and wrote a letter to him, after this manner:

³⁶ King Demetrius to Simon the high priest and *Friend of kings, and to the elders and nation of the Jews, greeting: ³⁷ The golden crown, and the palm branch, which you^o sent, we have received: and we are ready to make a †steadfast peace with you, yes, and to write to our officers, to grant immunities to you. ³⁸ And whatever things we confirmed to you, they are confirmed; and the strongholds, which you^o have built, let them be your own. ³⁹ As for any oversights and faults committed to this day, we forgive them, and the crown which you^o owed us: and if there were any other toll exacted in Jerusalem, let it be exacted no longer. ⁴⁰ And if there be any among you meet to be enrolled in our court, let them be enrolled, and let there be peace between us.

⁴³ In those days he encamped against ¶Gazara, and compassed it round about with armies; and he made an engine of siege, and brought it up to the city, and struck a tower, and took it. ⁴⁴ And those who were in the engine leaped forth into the city; and there was a great uproar in the city: ⁴⁵ and they of the city tore their clothes, and went up on the walls with their wives and children, and cried with a loud voice, making request to Simon to give them §his right hand. ⁴⁶ And they said, Deal not with us according to our wickednesses, but according to your mercy. ⁴⁷ And Simon was reconciled to them, and didn't fight against them: and he put them out of the city, and cleansed the houses wherein the idols were, and so entered into it with singing and giving praise. ⁴⁸ And he put all uncleanness out of it, and placed in it such men as would keep the law, and made it stronger than it was before, and built therein a dwelling place for himself.

⁴⁹ But they of the citadel in Jerusalem were hindered from going forth, and from going into the country, and from buying and selling; and they hungered exceedingly, and a great number of them perished through famine. ⁵⁰ And they cried out to Simon, that he should give them his right hand; and he gave it to them: and he put them out from thence, and he cleansed the citadel from its pollutions. ⁵¹ And he entered into it on the three and twentieth day of the second month, in the hundred and seventy and first year, with praise and palm branches, and with harps, and with cymbals, and with viols, and with hymns, and with songs: because a great enemy was destroyed out of Israel. ⁵² And he ordained that they should keep that day every year with gladness. And the hill of the temple that was by the citadel he made stronger than before, and there he lived, himself and his men. ⁵³ And Simon saw that John his son was a valiant man, and he made him leader of all his forces: and he lived in Gazara.

14 And in ††the hundred and seventy and second year king Demetrius gathered his forces together, and went into Media, to get him help, that he might fight against Tryphon. ² And Arsaces, the king of Persia

⁴And the land had rest all the days of Simon: and he sought the good of his nation; and and his authority and his glory was well-pleasing to them all his days. ⁵And amid all his glory he took Joppa for a haven, and made it an entrance for the isles of the sea; ⁶and he enlarged the borders of his nation, and got possession of the country; ⁷and he gathered together a great number of captives, and got the dominion of Gazara, and Bethsura, and the citadel, and he took away from it its uncleannesses; and there was none that resisted him. ⁸And they tilled their land in peace, and the land gave her increase, and the trees of the plains their fruit. ⁹The ancient men sat in the streets, they communed all of them together of good things, and the young men put on glorious and warlike apparel. ¹⁰He provided food for the cities, and furnished them with ^{¶¶}all manner of munition, until the name of his glory was named to the end of the earth. ¹¹He made peace in the land, and Israel rejoiced with great joy: ¹²and they sat each man under his vine and his fig tree, and there was none to make them afraid: ¹³and there ceased in the land any that fought against them: and the kings were discomfited in those days. ¹⁴And he strengthened all those of his people that were brought low: the law he searched out, and every lawless and wicked person he took away. ¹⁵He glorified the sanctuary, and the vessels of the temple he multiplied.

¹⁶And it was heard at Rome that Jonathan was dead, and even to Sparta, and they were exceedingly sorry. ¹⁷But as soon as they heard that his brother Simon was made high priest in his stead, and ruled the country, and the cities therein, ¹⁸they wrote to him on tables of brass, to renew with him the friendship and the confederacy which they had confirmed with Judas and Jonathan his kindred; ¹⁹and they were read before the congregation at Jerusalem. ²⁰And this is the copy of the letters which the Spartans sent:

The rulers of the Spartans, and the city, to Simon the high priest, and to the elders, and the priests, and the residue of the people of the Jews, our kindred, greeting: ²¹The ambassadors that were sent to our people made report to us of your glory and honor: and we were glad for their coming, ²²and we did register the things that were spoken by them in the ^{¶¶¶}public records after this manner: Numenius son of Antiochus, and Antipater son of Jason, the Jews' ambassadors, came to us to renew the friendship they had with us. ²³And it pleased the people to entertain the men honorably, and to put the copy of their words in the ^{§§}public records, to the end that the people of the Spartans might have a memorial thereof: moreover they wrote a copy of these things to Simon the high priest.

²⁴After this Simon sent Numenius to Rome with a great shield of gold of a thousand pound weight, in order to confirm the confederacy with them.

²⁵But when the people heard these things, they said, What thanks shall we give to Simon and his sons? ²⁶for he and his kindred and the house of his father have made themselves strong, and have chased away in fight the enemies of Israel from them, and confirmed liberty to ^{*}Israel. ²⁷And they wrote on tables of brass, and set them upon pillars in mount Sion: and this is the copy of the writing:

On the eighteenth day of Elul, in †the hundred and seventy and second year, and this is the third year of Simon the high priest, 28 ‡in Asaramel, in a great congregation of priests and people and princes of the nation, and of the elders of the country, ¶was it notified to us: 29 Forasmuch as oftentimes there have been wars in the country, but Simon the son of Mattathias, the son of the sons of Joarib, and his kindred, put themselves in jeopardy, and withstood the enemies of their nation, that their sanctuary and the law might be established, and glorified their nation with great glory: 30 and Jonathan assembled their nation together, and became their high priest, and was gathered to his people: 31 and their enemies purposed to invade their country, that they might destroy their country utterly, and stretch forth their hands against their sanctuary: 32 then rose up Simon, and fought for his nation, and spent much of his own substance, and armed the valiant men of his nation, and gave them wages: 33 and he fortified the cities of Judea, and Bethsura that lies upon the borders of Judea, where the arms of the enemies were aforetime, and set there a garrison of Jews: 34 and he fortified Joppa which is upon the sea, and Gazara which is upon the borders of Azotus, wherein the enemies lived aforetime, and placed Jews there, and set therein all things convenient for their restoration: 35 and the people saw the §faith of Simon, and the glory which he thought to bring to his nation, and they made him their leader and high priest, because he had done all these things, and for the justice and the faith which he kept to his nation, and for that he sought by all means to exalt his people: 36 and in his days things prospered in his hands, so that the Gentiles were taken away out of their country, and they also that were in the city of David, those who were in Jerusalem, who had made themselves a citadel, out of which they issued, and polluted all things round about the sanctuary, and did great hurt to its purity; 37 and he placed Jews therein, and fortified it for the safety of the country and the city, and made high the walls of Jerusalem: 38 and king Demetrius confirmed to him the high priesthood according to these things, 39 and made him one of his Friends, and honored him with great honor; 40 for he had heard say, that the Jews had been called by the Romans friends and allies and kindred, and that they had met the ambassadors of Simon honorably; 41 and that the Jews and the priests were well pleased that Simon should be their leader and high priest forever, until there should arise a faithful prophet; 42 and that he should be captain over them, and should take charge of the sanctuary, to set them over their works, and over the country, and over the arms, and over the strongholds; and that he should take charge of the sanctuary, 43 and that he should be obeyed by all, and that all instruments in the country should be written in his name, and that he should be clothed in purple, and wear gold; 44 and that it should not be lawful for any of the people or of the priests to set at nothing any of these things, or to gainsay the words that he should speak, or to gather an assembly in the country without him, or to be clothed in purple, or wear a buckle of gold; 45 but whoever should do otherwise, or set at nothing any of these things, he should be liable to punishment. 46 All the people consented to ordain for Simon that he should do according to these words; 47 and Simon accepted this, and consented to be high priest, and to be captain and

⁴⁸ And they commanded to put this writing on tables of brass, and to set them up within the precinct of the sanctuary in a conspicuous place; ⁴⁹ and moreover to put the copies thereof in the treasury, to the end that Simon and his sons might have them.

15 And Antiochus son of Demetrius the king sent letters from the isles of the sea to Simon the priest and ††governor of the Jews, and to all the nation; ² and the contents thereof were after this manner:

King Antiochus to Simon the chief priest and ††governor, and to the nation of the Jews, greeting: ³ Forasmuch as certain pestilent fellows have made themselves masters of the kingdom of our fathers, but my purpose is to claim the kingdom, that I may restore it as it was before; and moreover I have raised a multitude of foreign soldiers, and have prepared ships of war; ⁴ moreover I am minded to land in the country, that I may punish those who have destroyed our country, and those who have made many cities in the kingdom desolate: ⁵ Now therefore I confirm to you all the exactions which the kings that were before me remitted to you, and whatever gifts besides they remitted to you: ⁶ and I give you leave to coin money for your country with your own stamp, ⁷ but that Jerusalem and the sanctuary should be free: and all the arms that you have prepared, and the strongholds that you have built, which you have in your possession, let them remain to you: ⁸ and everything owing to the king, and the things that shall be owing to the king from henceforth and for evermore, let them be remitted to you: ⁹ moreover, when we shall have established our kingdom, we will glorify you and your nation and the temple with great glory, so that your glory shall be made manifest in all the earth.

¹⁰ In §§the hundred and seventy and fourth year went Antiochus forth into the land of his fathers; and all the forces came together to him, so that there were few men with Tryphon. ¹¹ And king Antiochus pursued him, and *he came, as he fled, to Dor, which is by the sea: ¹² for he knew that troubles were come upon him all at once, and that his forces had forsaken him. ¹³ And Antiochus encamped against Dor, and with him a hundred and twenty thousand men of war, and eight thousand horse. ¹⁴ And he compassed the city round about, and the ships joined in the attack from the sea; and he vexed the city by land and sea, and suffered no man to go out or in.

22 And the same things wrote he to Demetrius the king, and to Attalus, and to Arathes, and to Arsaces, 23 and to all the countries, and to †Sampsames, and to the Spartans, and to Delos, and to Myndos, and to Sicyon, and to Caria, and to Samos, and to Pamphylia, and to Lycia, and to Halicarnassus, and to Rhodes, and to Phaselis, and to Cos, and to Side, and to Aradus, and Gortyna, and Cnidus, and Cyprus, and Cyrene. 24 But they wrote this copy to Simon the high priest.

25 But Antiochus the king encamped against Dor the second day, bringing his forces up to it continually, and making engines of war, and he shut up Tryphon from going in or out. 26 And Simon sent him two thousand chosen men to fight on his side; and silver, and gold, and instruments of war in abundance. 27 And he would not receive them, but set at nothing all the covenants which he had made with him aforetime, and was estranged from him. 28 And he sent to him Athenobius, one of his ‡Friends, to commune with him, saying,

You° hold possession of Joppa and Gazara, and the citadel that is in Jerusalem, cities of my kingdom. 29 The borders thereof you° have wasted, and done great hurt in the land, and got the dominion of many places in my kingdom. 30 Now therefore deliver up the cities which you° have taken, and the tributes of the places whereof you° have gotten dominion without the borders of Judea: 31 or else give me for them five hundred talents of silver; and for the harm that you° have done, and the tributes of the cities, other five hundred talents: or else we will come and subdue you.

32 And Athenobius the king's ¶Friend came to Jerusalem; and he saw the glory of Simon, and the cupboard of gold and silver vessels, and his great attendance, and he was amazed; and he reported to him the king's words. 33 And Simon answered, and said to him,

We have neither taken other men's land, nor have we possession of that which appertains to others, but of the inheritance of our fathers; however, it was had in possession of our enemies wrongfully for a certain time. 34 But we, having opportunity, hold fast the inheritance of our fathers. 35 But as touching Joppa and Gazara, which you demand, they did great harm among the people throughout our country, we will give a hundred talents for them.

And he answered him not a word, 36 but returned in a rage to the king, and reported to him these words, and the glory of Simon, and all that he had seen: and the king was exceedingly angry. 37 But Tryphon embarked on board a ship, and fled to Orthosia.

38 And the king appointed Cendebaeus chief captain of the sea coast, and gave him forces of foot and horse: 39 and he commanded him to encamp before Judea, and he commanded him to build up Kidron, and to fortify the gates, and that he should fight against the people: but the king pursued Tryphon. 40 And Cendebaeus came to Jamnia, and began to provoke the people, and to invade Judea, and to take the people captive, and to kill them. 41 And he built Kidron, and set horsemen there, and forces of foot, to the end that issuing out they might make outroads upon the ways of Judea, according as the king commanded him.

16 And John went up from Gazara, and told Simon his father what Cendebaeus was doing. 2 And Simon called his two oldest sons, Judas and John, and said to them, I and my kindred and my father's house have fought the battles of Israel from our youth, even to this day; and things have prospered in our hands, that we should deliver Israel oftentimes. 3 But now I am old, and you° moreover, by his mercy, are of a sufficient age: be you^o instead of me and my brother, and go forth and fight for our nation; but let the help which is from heaven be with you. ⁴ And he chose out of the country twenty thousand men of war and horsemen, and they went against Cendebaeus, and slept at Modin. ⁵ And rising up in the morning, they went into the plain, and, behold, a great army came to meet them, of footmen and horsemen: and there was a brook between them. ⁶ And he encamped near them, he and his people: and he saw that the people were afraid to pass over the brook, and he passed over first, and the men saw him, and passed over after him. ⁷ And he divided the people, and set the horsemen in the midst of the footmen: but the enemies' horsemen were exceedingly many. ⁸ And they sounded with the trumpets; and Cendebaeus and his army were put to the rout, and there fell of them many wounded to death, but those who were left fled to the stronghold: ⁹ at that time was Judas John's brother wounded: but John pursued after them, till he came to Kidron, which Cendebaeus had built; ¹⁰ and they fled to the towers that are in the fields of Azotus; and he burned it with fire; and there fell of them about two thousand men. And he returned into Judea in peace.

¹¹ And Ptolemy the son of Abubus had been appointed captain for the plain of Jericho, and he had much silver and gold; ¹² for he was the high priest's son in law. ¹³ And his heart was lifted up, and he was minded to make himself master of the country, and he took counsel deceitfully against Simon and his sons, to make away with them. ¹⁴ Now Simon was visiting the cities that were in the country, and taking care for the good ordering of them; and he went down to Jericho, himself and Mattathias and Judas his sons, in §the hundred and seventy and seventh year, in the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat: ¹⁵ and the son of Abubus received them deceitfully into the little stronghold that is called Dok, which he had built, and made them a great banquet, and hid men there. ¹⁶ And when Simon and his sons had drunk freely, Ptolemy and his men rose up, and took their arms, and came in upon Simon into the banqueting place, and killed him, and his two sons, and certain of his servants. ¹⁷ And he committed a great iniquity, and recompensed evil for good. ¹⁸ And Ptolemy wrote these things, and sent to the king, that he should send him forces to aid him, and should deliver him their country and the cities. ¹⁹ And he sent others to Gazara to make away with John: and to the captains of thousands he sent letters to come to him, that he might give them silver and gold and gifts. ²⁰ And others he sent to take possession of Jerusalem, and the mount of the temple. ²¹ And one ran before to Gazara, and told John that his father and kindred were perished, and he has sent to kill you also. ²² And when he heard, he was sore amazed; and he laid hands on the men that came to destroy him, and killed them; for he perceived that they were seeking to destroy him.

²³ And the rest of the acts of John, and of his wars, and of his valiant deeds which he did, and of the building of the walls which he built, and of his doings, ²⁴ behold, they are written in the chronicles of his high priesthood, from the time that he was made high priest after his father.

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE MACCABEES

The Second Book of the Maccabees is recognized as Deuterocanonical Scripture by the Roman Catholic, Greek Orthodox, and Russian Orthodox Churches.

1 The kindred, the Jews that are in Jerusalem and those who are in the country of Judea, send greeting to the kindred, the Jews that are throughout Egypt, and wish them good peace: ²and may God do good to you, and remember his covenant with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, his faithful servants; ³and give you all a heart to worship him and do his ††pleasure with a great heart and a willing soul; ⁴and open your heart in his law and in his statutes, and make peace, ⁵and listen to your requests, and be reconciled with you, and not forsake you in an evil time. ⁶And now we here are praying for you. ⁷In the reign of Demetrius, in the hundred threescore and ninth year, we the Jews have already written to you in the suffering and in the extremity that has come upon us in these years, from the time that Jason and his company revolted from the holy land and the kingdom, ⁸and set the ††gate on fire, and shed innocent blood: and we implored the Lord, and were heard; and we offered sacrifice and meal offering, and we lighted the lamps, and we set forth the ¶¶show bread. ⁹And now see that you^o keep the days of the feast of tabernacles of the month Chislev. ¹⁰Written in the hundred fourscore and eighth year.

THEY that are in Jerusalem and those who are in Judea and the senate and Judas, to Aristobulus, king Ptolemy's teacher, who is also of the stock of the anointed priests, and to the Jews that are in Egypt, send greeting and health. ¹¹Having been saved by God out of great perils, as men arrayed against a king, we thank him greatly. ¹²For himself cast forth into Persia those who arrayed themselves against us in the holy city. ¹³For when the prince was come there, and the army with him that seemed irresistible, they were cut to pieces in the temple of Nanaea by the treachery of Nanaea's priests. ¹⁴For Antiochus, on the pretense that he would marry her, came into the place, he and his §§Friends that were with him, that they might take a great part of the treasures in name of a dowry. ¹⁵And when the priests of Nanaea's temple had set *the treasures forth, and he was come there with a small company within the wall of the precincts, they shut to the temple when Antiochus was come in: ¹⁶and opening the secret door of the panelled ceiling, they threw stones and †struck down the prince, and they hewed ‡him and his company in pieces, and struck off their heads, and cast them to those that were without. ¹⁷Blessed be our God in all things, who gave for a prey those who had committed impiety.

¹⁸Whereas we are now about to keep the purification of the temple in the month Chislev, on the five and twentieth day, we thought it necessary to certify you thereof, that ¶you^o also may keep a feast of tabernacles, and a memorial of the fire which was given when Nehemiah offered sacrifices, after he had built both the temple and the altar. ¹⁹For indeed when our fathers were about to be led into the land of Persia, the godly priests of that time took of the fire of the altar, and hid it privily in the hollow of a well that was without water, wherein they made it sure, so that the place was unknown to all men. ²⁰Now after many years, when it pleased God, Nehemiah, having received a charge from the king of Persia, sent in quest of the fire the descendants of the priests that hid it. When they declared to us that they had found no fire, but thick water, ²¹he commanded them to draw out thereof and bring to him: and when §the sacrifices had been offered on the altar, Nehemiah commanded the priests to sprinkle with the water both the wood and the things laid thereupon. ²²And when it was done, and some time had passed, and the sun shone out, which before was hid with clouds, there was kindled a great blaze, so that all men marveled. ²³And the priests made a prayer while the sacrifice was consuming, both the priests and all others, Jonathan leading and the rest answering, as Nehemiah did. ²⁴And the prayer was after this manner:

O Lord, Lord God, the Creator of all things, who are terrible and strong and righteous and merciful, who alone are King and gracious, ²⁵who alone supply every need, who alone are righteous and almighty and eternal, you that save Israel out of all evil, who made the fathers your chosen, and did sanctify them: ²⁶accept the sacrifice for all your people Israel, and guard your own portion, and consecrate it. ²⁷Gather together our Dispersion, set at liberty those who are in bondage among the heathen, look upon those who are despised and abhorred, and let the heathen know that you are our God. ²⁸Torment those who oppress us and in arrogance shamefully entreat us. ²⁹Plant your people in your holy place, even as Moses said.

³⁰And thereupon the priests sang the hymns. ³¹And as soon as the sacrifice was consumed, then Nehemiah commanded to pour on great stones the water that was left. ³²And when this was done, a flame was kindled; ††but when the light from the altar ††shone near it, all was consumed. ³³And when the matter became known, and it was told the king of the Persians, that, in the place where the priests that were led away had hid the fire, there appeared the water, wherewith also Nehemiah and those who were with him purified the sacrifice, ³⁴then the king, inclosing the place, made it sacred, after he had proved the matter. ³⁵And when the king would show favor to any, he would take from them many presents and give them some of this water. ³⁶And Nehemiah and those who were with him called this thing Nephthar, which is by interpretation, Cleansing; but most men call it Nephthai.

2 It is also found in the records, that Jeremiah the prophet commanded those who were carried away to take of the fire, as has been signified above: 2 and how that the prophet charged those who were carried away, having given them the law, that they should not forget the statutes of the Lord, neither be led astray in their minds, when they saw images of gold and silver, and the adornment thereof. 3 And with other such words exhorted he them, that the law should not depart from their heart. 4 And it was contained in the writing, that the prophet, being warned of God, commanded that the tabernacle and the ark should follow with him, ¶¶when he went forth into the mountain where Moses went up and saw the heritage of God. ⁵ And Jeremiah came and found §§a chamber in the rock, and there he brought in the tabernacle, and the ark, and the altar of incense; and he made fast the door. ⁶ And some of those that followed with him came there that they might mark the way, and could not find it. ⁷ But when Jeremiah perceived it, he blamed them, saying, Yes and the place shall be unknown until God *gather the people again together, and mercy come: ⁸ and then shall the Lord disclose these things, and the glory of the Lord shall be seen, and the †cloud.

As also it was showed with Moses; as also Solomon implored that the place might be consecrated greatly, ⁹ and it was also declared that he, having wisdom, offered a sacrifice of dedication, and of the finishing of the temple; so we would have it now. ¹⁰ As Moses prayed to the Lord, and fire came down out of heaven and consumed the sacrifice, even so prayed Solomon also, and the fire came down and consumed the burnt offerings; ¹¹ ‡(and Moses said, Because the sin offering had not been eaten, it was consumed in like manner with the rest;) ¹² and Solomon kept the eight days.

¹³ And the same things were related ¶both in the public archives and in §the records that concern Nehemiah; and how he, founding a library, gathered together the books about the kings and prophets, and the books of David, and letters of kings about sacred gifts. ¹⁴ And in like manner Judas also gathered together for us all those writings that had been scattered by reason of the war that befell, and they are still with us. ¹⁵ If therefore you° have need thereof, send some to fetch them to you.

¹⁶ Seeing then that we are about to keep the purification, we write to you; you° will therefore do well if you° keep the days. ¹⁷ Now God, who saved all his people, and restored the heritage to all, and the kingdom, and the priesthood, and the hallowing, ¹⁸ even as he promised through the law,— in God have we hope, that he will quickly have mercy upon us, and gather us together out of all the earth to the holy place: for he delivered us out of great evils, and purified the place.

¹⁹ Now the things concerning Judas Maccabaeus and his kindred, and the purification of the ††great temple, and the dedication of the altar, ²⁰ and further the wars against Antiochus Epiphanes, and Eupator his son, ²¹ and the manifestations that came from heaven to those that vied with one another in manful deeds for the religion of the Jews; so that, being but a few, they ‡‡rescued the whole country, and chased the barbarous multitudes, ²² and recovered again the temple renowned all the world over, and freed the city, and restored the laws which were like to be overthrown, seeing the Lord became ¶¶gracious to them with all forbearance: ²³ these things, I say, which have been declared by Jason of Cyrene in five books, we will assay to

abridge in one work. ²⁴For having in view the confused mass of the numbers, and the §§difficulty which awaits those who would enter into the narratives of the history, by reason of the abundance of the matter, ²⁵we were careful that they who choose to read may be attracted, and that they who wish well to our cause may find it easy to recall *what we have written, and that all readers may have profit. ²⁶And although to us, who have taken upon us the painful labor of the abridgement, the task is not easy, but a matter of sweat and watching ²⁷(even as it is no light thing to him that prepares a banquet, and seeks the benefit of others); yet for the sake of the gratitude of the many we will gladly endure the painful labor, ²⁸leaving to the historian the exact handling of every particular, and again †having no strength to ‡fill in the outlines of our abridgement. ²⁹For as the master-builder of a new house must care for the whole ¶structure, and again he that undertakes to §decorate and paint it must seek out the things fit for the adorning thereof; even so I think it is also with us. ³⁰To occupy the ground, and to indulge in long discussions, and to be curious in particulars, becomes the first author of the history: ³¹but to strive after brevity of expression, and to avoid a labored fullness in the treatment, is to be granted to him that would bring a writing into a new form. ³²Here then let's begin the narration, only adding thus much to that which has been already ††said; for it is a foolish thing to make a long prologue to the history, and to abridge the history itself.

3 WHEN the holy city was inhabited with all peace, and the laws were kept very well, because of the godliness of Onias the high priest, and his hatred of wickedness, ²it came to pass that even the kings themselves did honor the place, and glorify the temple with the noblest presents; ³insomuch that even Seleucus the king of Asia of his own revenues bare all the costs belonging to the services of the sacrifices. ⁴But one Simon of the tribe of Benjamin, having been made guardian of the temple, fell out with the high priest about the ††ruling of the market in the city. ⁵And when he could not overcome Onias, he got him to Apollonius the son of ¶¶Thrasaeus, who at that time was governor of Coelesyria and Phoenicia: ⁶and he brought him word how that the treasury in Jerusalem was full of untold sums of money, so that the multitude of the funds was innumerable, and that they didn't pertain to the account of the sacrifices, but that it was possible that these should fall under the king's power. ⁷And when Apollonius met the king, he informed him of the money whereof he had been told; and the king appointed Heliodorus, who was his chancellor, and sent him with a commandment to accomplish the removal of the afore-said money. ⁸So forthwith Heliodorus took his journey, under a color of visiting the cities of Coelesyria and Phoenicia, but in fact to execute the king's purpose. ⁹And when he was come to Jerusalem, and had been courteously received by the high priest §§of the city, he laid before *them an account of the information which had been given him, and declared wherefore he was come; and he inquired if in truth these things were so. ¹⁰ And the high priest explained to him that there were in the treasury deposits of widows and orphans, ¹¹ and moreover some money belonging to Hyrcanus the son of Tobias, a man in very high place, †and that the case was not as that impious Simon falsely alleged; and that in all there were four hundred talents of silver and two hundred of gold; ¹² and that it was altogether impossible that wrong should be done to them that had put trust in the holiness of the place, and in the majesty and inviolable sanctity of the temple, honored over all the world. ¹³ But ‡Heliodorus, because of the king's commandments given him, said that in any case this money must be confiscated for the king's treasury.

¹⁴ So having appointed a day, he entered in to direct the inquiry concerning these matters; and there was no small distress throughout the whole city. ¹⁵ And the priests, prostrating themselves before the altar in their priestly garments, and looking toward heaven, called upon him that gave the law concerning deposits, that he should preserve these treasures safe for those that had deposited them. ¹⁶ And whoever saw the mien of the high priest was wounded in mind; for his countenance and the change of his color betrayed the distress of his soul. ¹⁷ For a terror and a shuddering of the body had come over the man, whereby the pain that was in his heart was plainly shown to those who looked upon him. ¹⁸ And those who were in the houses rushed flocking out to make a universal supplication, because the place was like to come into contempt. ¹⁹ And the women, girded with sackcloth under their breasts, thronged the streets, and the virgins that were kept in ward ran together, some to the ¶gates, others to the walls, and some looked out through the windows. ²⁰ And all, stretching forth their hands toward heaven, made their solemn supplication. ²¹ Then it would have pitied a man to see the multitude prostrating themselves all mixed together, and the expectation of the high priest in his sore distress.

²² While therefore they called upon the Almighty Lord to keep the things entrusted to them §safe and sure for those that had entrusted them, ²³ Heliodorus went on to execute that which had been decreed. ²⁴ But when he was already present there with his guards near the treasury, the Sovereign of spirits and of all authority caused a great apparition, so that all that had presumed to come in with him, stricken with dismay at the power of God, fainted and were sore afraid. ²⁵ For there was seen by them a horse with a terrible rider upon him, and adorned with beautiful trappings, and he rushed fiercely and struck at Heliodorus with his forefeet, and it seemed that he that sat upon the horse had complete armor of gold. ²⁶ Two other also appeared to him, young men notable in their strength, and beautiful in their glory, and splendid in their apparel, who stood by him on either side, and scourged him unceasingly, inflicting on him many sore stripes. ²⁷ And when he had fallen suddenly to the ground, and great darkness had come over him, his guards caught him up and put him into a litter, ²⁸and carried him, him that had just now entered with a great train and all his guard into the afore-said treasury, himself now brought to utter helplessness, manifestly made to recognize the sovereignty of God. ²⁹And so, while he, through the working of God, speechless and bereft of all hope and deliverance, lay prostrate, ³⁰they blessed the Lord, that made marvelous his own place; and the temple, which a little before was full of terror and alarm, was filled with joy and gladness after the Almighty Lord appeared.

³¹But quickly certain of Heliodorus's familiar friends implored Onias to call upon the Most High, and grant life to him who lay quite at the last gasp. ³²And the high priest, secretly fearing lest the king might come to think that some treachery toward Heliodorus had been perpetrated by the Jews, brought a sacrifice for the deliverance of the man. ³³But as the high priest was making the atoning sacrifice, the same young men appeared again to Heliodorus, arrayed in the same garments; and they stood and said, Give Onias the high priest great thanks, for for his sake the Lord has granted you life; ³⁴and do you, since you have been scourged from heaven, publish to all men the sovereign majesty of God. And when they had spoken these words, they vanished out of sight. ³⁵So Heliodorus, having offered a sacrifice to the Lord and vowed ††great vows to him that had saved his life, and having graciously received Onias, returned with his army to the king. ³⁶And he testified to all men the works of the †††great God which he had seen with his eyes.

³⁷And when the king asked Heliodorus, what manner of man was fit to be sent yet once again to Jerusalem, he said, ³⁸If you have any enemy or conspirator against the state, send him there, and you shall receive him back well scourged, if he even escape with his life; because of a truth there is about the place a power of God. ³⁹For he that has his dwelling in heaven himself has his eyes upon that place, and helps it; and those who come to hurt it he strikes and destroys.

⁴⁰And such was the history of Heliodorus and the keeping of the treasury.

4 But the aforesaid Simon, he who had given information of the money, and had betrayed his country, slandered Onias, saying that it was he who had incited Heliodorus, and made himself the author of these evils. ²And him that was the benefactor of the city, and the guardian of his fellow countrymen, and a zealot for the laws, he dared to call a conspirator against the state. ³But when the growing enmity between them waxed so great, that even murders were perpetrated through one of ¶¶Simon's trusted followers, ⁴Onias, seeing the §§danger of the contention, and that *Apollonius the son of Menestheus, the governor of Coelesyria and Phoenicia, was increasing Simon's malice, ⁵betook himself to the king, not to be an accuser of his fellow-citizens, but looking to the good of all the †people, both public and private; ⁶for he saw that without the king's providence it was impossible for the state to obtain peace any more, and that Simon would not cease from his madness.

to the kingdom, Jason the brother of Onias supplanted his brother in the high priesthood, ⁸ having promised to the king at an audience three hundred and threescore talents of silver, and out of another fund eighty talents; ⁹ and beside this, he undertook to assign a hundred and fifty more, if it might be allowed him through the king's authority to set him up a Greek place of exercise and form a body of youths to be trained therein, and to register the inhabitants of Jerusalem as citizens of Antioch. ¹⁰ And when the king had given assent, and he had gotten possession of the office, he forthwith brought over them of his own race to the Greek fashion. ¹¹ And setting aside the royal ordinances of special favor to the Jews, granted by the means of John the father of Eupolemus, who went on the ambassador to the Romans for friendship and alliance, and seeking to overthrow the lawful modes of life, he brought in new customs forbidden by the law: ¹² for he eagerly established a Greek place of exercise under the citadel itself; and caused the noblest of the young men to wear the Greek cap. ¹³ And thus there was an extreme of Greek fashions, and an advance of an alien religion, by reason of the exceeding profaneness of Jason, that ungodly man and no high priest; ¹⁴ so that the priests had no more any zeal for the services of the altar: but despising the sanctuary, and neglecting the sacrifices, they hastened to enjoy that which was unlawfully provided in the palaestra, after the summons of the discus; ¹⁵ making of no account the honors of their fathers, and thinking the glories of the Greeks best of

all. ¹⁶ By reason whereof sore calamity beset them; and the men whose ways of living they earnestly followed, and to whom they desired to be made like in all things, these they had to be their enemies and to punish them. ¹⁷ For it is not a light thing to do impiously against the laws of God: but these things the time following shall declare.

¹⁸ Now when certain games that came every fifth year were kept at Tyre, and the king was present, ¹⁹ the vile Jason sent sacred envoys, as being Antiochians of Jerusalem, bearing three hundred drachmas of silver to the sacrifice of Hercules, which even the bearers thereof thought not right to use for any sacrifice, because it was not fit, but to expend on another charge. ²⁰ And though in the purpose of the sender this money was for the sacrifice of Hercules, yet on account of present circumstances it went to the equipment of the galleys.

²¹ Now when Apollonius the son of Menestheus was sent into Egypt for the enthronement of Ptolemy Philometor as king, Antiochus, learning that Ptolemy had shown himself ill affected toward the state, took thought for the security of his realm; wherefore, going by sea to Joppa, he travelled on to Jerusalem. ²² And being magnificently received by Jason and the city, he was brought in with torches and shouting. This done, he afterward led his army down into Phoenicia.

²³ Now after a space of three years Jason sent Menelaus, the aforesaid Simon's brother, to bear the money to the king, and to make reports concerning some necessary matters.

24 But he being commended to the king, and †having glorified ‡himself ¶by the display of his authority, got the high priesthood for himself, outbidding Jason by three hundred talents of silver. 25 And having received the royal mandates he came to Jerusalem, bringing nothing worthy the high priesthood, but having the passion of a cruel tyrant, and the rage of a savage beast. 26 And whereas Jason, who had supplanted his own brother, was supplanted by another and driven as a fugitive into the country of the Ammonites, 27 Menelaus had possession of the office: but of the money that had been promised to the king nothing §was duly paid, and that though Sostratus the governor of the citadel demanded it 28 (for to him appertained the gathering of the revenues); for which cause they were both called by the king to his presence. 29 And Menelaus left his own brother Lysimachus for his deputy in the high priesthood; and Sostratus left Crates, who was over the Cyprians.

30 Now while such was the state of things, it came to pass that they of Tarsus and Malus made insurrection, because they were to be given as a present to Antiochis, the king's concubine. 31 The king therefore came to Cilicia in all haste to settle matters, leaving for his ††deputy Andronicus, a man of high rank. 32 And Menelaus, supposing that he had gotten a favorable opportunity, presented to Andronicus certain vessels of gold belonging to the temple, which he had stolen: other vessels also he had already sold into Tyre and the cities round about. 33 And when Onias had sure knowledge of this, he sharply reprov'd him, having withdrawn himself into a sanctuary at Daphne, that lies by Antioch. 34 Wherefore Menelaus, taking Andronicus apart, prayed him ††to kill Onias. And coming to Onias, and ¶¶being persuaded to use treachery, and being received as a friend, Andronicus gave him his right hand with oaths of fidelity, and, though he was suspected by him, so persuaded him to come forth of the sanctuary; and forthwith he §§despatched him without regard of justice. 35 For the which cause not only Jews, but many also of the other nations, had indignation and displeasure at the unjust murder of the man. 36 And when the king was come back again from the places in Cilicia, the Jews that were *in the city pleaded before him against Andronicus (the Greeks also joining with them in hatred of the wickedness), urging that Onias had been wrongfully slain. 37 Antiochus therefore was heartily sorry, and was moved to pity, and wept, because of the sober and well ordered life of him that was dead; 38 and being inflamed with passion, forthwith he stripped off Andronicus's purple robe, and †tore off his under garments, and when he had led him round through the whole city to that very place where he had committed impiety against Onias, there he put the murderer out of the way, the Lord rendering to him the punishment he had deserved.

³⁹ Now when many sacrileges had been committed in the city by Lysimachus with the consent of Menelaus, and when the bruit thereof was spread abroad outside, the people gathered themselves together against Lysimachus, after many vessels of gold had been already dispersed. ⁴⁰ And when the multitudes were rising against him, and were filled with anger, Lysimachus armed about three thousand men, and with unrighteous violence began the conflict, one Hauran, a man far gone in years and no less also in madness, leading the attack. ⁴¹ But when they perceived the assault of Lysimachus, some caught up stones, others logs of wood, and some took handfuls of the ashes that lay near, and they flung them all pell-mell upon Lysimachus and those who were with him; ⁴² by reason of which they wounded many of them, and some they struck to the ground, and all of them they forced to flee, but the author of the sacrilege himself they killed beside the treasury.

⁴³ But touching these matters there was an accusation laid against Menelaus. ⁴⁴ And when the king was come to Tyre, the three men that were sent by the senate pleaded the cause before him. ⁴⁵ But Menelaus, seeing himself now defeated, promised much money to Ptolemy the son of Dorymenes, that he might win over the king. ⁴⁶ Whereupon Ptolemy taking the king aside into a cloister, as it were to take the air, brought him to be of another mind: ⁴⁷ and him that was the cause of all the evil, Menelaus, he discharged from the accusations; but these hapless men, who, if they had pleaded even before Scythians, would have been discharged uncondemned, them he sentenced to death. ⁴⁸ Soon then did those who were spokesmen for the city and the families of Israel and the holy vessels suffer that unrighteous penalty. ⁴⁹ For which cause even certain Tyrians, moved with hatred of the wickedness, provided magnificently for their burial. ⁵⁰ But Menelaus through the covetous dealings of those who were in power remained still in his office, growing in wickedness, [‡]as a great conspirator against his fellow-citizens.

5 Now about this time Antiochus made his second inroad into Egypt. ² And it so befell that throughout all the city, for the space of almost forty days, there appeared in the midst of the sky horsemen in swift motion, wearing robes inwrought with gold and carrying spears, equipped in troops for battle; ³ and drawing of swords; and on the other side squadrons of horse in array; and encounters and [¶]pursuits of both armies; and shaking of shields, and multitudes of lances, and casting of darts, and flashing of golden trappings, and girding on of all sorts of armor. ⁴ Wherefore all men implored that the [§]vision might have been given for good.

⁵ But when a false rumor had arisen that Antiochus was deceased, Jason took not less than a thousand men, and suddenly ^{}made an assault upon the city; and those who were upon the wall being routed, and the city being now at length well near taken, Menelaus took refuge in the citadel. ⁶ But Jason slaughtered his own citizens without mercy, not considering that good success against kinsmen is the greatest ill success, but supposing himself to be setting up trophies over enemies, and not over fellow-countrymen. ⁷ The office however he didn't get, but, receiving shame as the end of his conspiracy, he passed again a fugitive into the country of the Ammonites. ⁸ At the last therefore he met with a miserable end: having been [†]shut up at the court of Aretas the prince of the Arabians, fleeing from city to city, pursued of all men, hated as an apostate from the laws, and held in abomination as the butcher of his country and his fellow-citizens, he was cast forth into Egypt; ⁹ and he that had driven many from their own country into strange lands perished himself in a strange land, having crossed the sea to the Lacedaemonians, as thinking to find shelter there because they were ^{††}near of kin; ¹⁰ and he that had cast out a multitude unburied had none to mourn for him, nor had he any funeral at all, or place in the sepulchre of his fathers.

¹¹ Now when tidings came to the king concerning that which was done, he thought that Judea was in revolt; whereupon setting out from Egypt in a furious mind, he took the city by force of arms, ¹² and commanded his soldiers to cut down without mercy such as came in their way, and to kill such as went up upon the houses; ¹³ and there was killing of young and old, making away of boys, women, and children, slaying of virgins and infants. ¹⁴ And in all the three days of the slaughter there were destroyed fourscore thousand, whereof forty thousand were slain in close combat, and no fewer were sold than slain. ¹⁵ But not content with this he presumed to enter into the most holy temple of all the earth, having Menelaus for his guide (him that had proved himself a traitor both to the laws and to his country), ¹⁶ even taking the sacred vessels with his polluted hands, and dragging down with his profane hands the offerings that had been dedicated by other kings to the augmentation and glory and honor of the place. ¹⁷ And Antiochus was lifted up in mind, not seeing that because of the sins of those who lived in the city the Sovereign Lord had been provoked to anger a little while, and therefore his eye was then turned away from the place. ¹⁸ But had it not so been that they were already bound by many sins, this man, even as Heliodorus who was sent by Seleucus the king to view the treasury, would, so soon as he pressed forward, have been scourged and turned back from his daring deed. ¹⁹ However the Lord didn't choose the nation for the place's sake, but the place for the nation's sake. ²⁰ Wherefore also the place itself, having shared in the calamities that befell the nation, did afterward share in its benefits; and the place which was forsaken in the wrath of the Almighty was, at the reconciliation of the great Sovereign, restored again with all glory. ²¹ As for Antiochus, when he had carried away out of the temple a thousand and eight hundred talents, he departed in all haste to Antioch, thinking in his arrogance to make the land navigable and the sea passable by foot, because his heart was lifted up. ²² And moreover he left governors to afflict the race: at Jerusalem, Philip, by race a Phrygian, and in character more barbarous than him that set him there; ²³ and at Gerizim, Andronicus; and besides these, Menelaus, who worse than all the rest exalted himself against his fellow-citizens. And having a malicious mind ^{¶¶}toward the Jews ^{§§}whom he had made his citizens, ²⁴ he sent that ^{*}lord of pollutions Apollonius with an army of two and twenty thousand, commanding him to kill all those that were of full age, and to sell the women and the younger men. ²⁵ And he coming to Jerusalem, and playing the man of peace, waited till the holy day of the Sabbath, and finding the Jews at rest from work, he commanded his men to parade in arms. ²⁶ And he put to the sword all those who came forth to the spectacle; and running into the city with the armed men he killed great multitudes. ²⁷ But Judas, who is also called Maccabaeus, with nine others or thereabout, withdrew himself, and with his company kept himself alive in the mountains after the manner of wild beasts; and they continued feeding on †such poor herbs as grew there, that they might not be partakers of the threatened pollution.

6 And not long after this the king sent forth ‡an old man of Athens to compel the Jews to depart from the laws of their fathers, and not to live after the laws of God; ² and also to pollute the sanctuary in Jerusalem, and to call it by the name of ¶Jupiter Olympius, and to call the sanctuary in Gerizim by the name of §Jupiter the Protector of strangers, even as they were that lived in the place. ³ But sore and utterly grievous was the visitation of this evil. ⁴ For the temple was filled with riot and revellings by the heathen, who ††dallied with prostitutes, and had to do with women within the sacred precincts, and moreover brought inside things that were not befitting; ⁵ and ‡‡the place of sacrifice was filled with those abominable things which had been prohibited by the laws. ⁶ And a man could neither keep the Sabbath, nor observe the feasts of the fathers, nor so much as confess himself to be a Jew. ⁷ And on the day of the king's birth every month they were led along with bitter constraint to eat of the sacrifices; and when the ¶¶feast of Bacchus came, they were compelled to go in procession in honor of §§Bacchus, wearing wreaths of ivy. ⁸ A decree went out to the neighboring Greek cities, by the suggestion of Ptolemy, that they should observe the same conduct against the Jews, and should make them eat of the sacrifices; ⁹ and that they should kill such as didn't choose to go over to the Greek rites. So the present misery was for all to see: ¹⁰ for two women were brought up for having circumcised their children; and these, when they had led them publicly round about the city, with the babes hung from their breasts, they cast down headlong from the wall. ¹¹ And others, that had run together into the caves near by to keep the seventh day secretly, being betrayed to Philip were all burned together, because they scrupled to defend themselves, from regard to the honor of that most solemn day.

¹² I beseech therefore those that read this book, that they be not discouraged because of the calamities, but account that these punishments were not for the destruction, but for the chastening of our race. ¹³ For indeed that those who act impiously be not let alone any long time, but immediately meet with retribution, is a sign of great beneficence. ¹⁴ For in the case of the other nations the Sovereign Lord does with patience forbear, until that he punish them when they have attained to the full measure of their sins; but not so judged he as touching us, ¹⁵ that he may not take vengeance on us afterward, *when we be come to the †height of our sins. ¹⁶ Wherefore he never withdraws his mercy from us;

but though he chastens with calamity, yet does he not forsake his own people. ¹⁷ However let this that we have spoken suffice to put you in remembrance; but after these few words we must come to the narrative.

¹⁸ Eleazar, one of the principal scribes, a man already well stricken in years, and of a noble countenance, was compelled to open his mouth to eat swine's flesh. ¹⁹ But he, welcoming death with renown rather than life with pollution, advanced of his own accord to the instrument of torture, but first spat forth the flesh, ²⁰ coming forward as men ought to come that are resolute to repel such things as not even for the natural love of life is it lawful to taste. ²¹ But those who had the charge of that forbidden sacrificial feast took the man aside, for the acquaintance which of old times they had with him, and privately implored him to bring flesh of his own providing, such as was befitting for him to use, and to make as if he did eat of the flesh from the sacrifice, as had been commanded by the king; ²² that by so doing he might be delivered from death, and for his ancient friendship with them might be treated kindly. ²³ But he, having formed a high resolve, and one that became his years, and the dignity of old age, and the gray hairs which he had reached with honor, and his excellent education from a child, ²⁴ or rather that became the holy laws of God's ordaining, declared his mind accordingly, bidding them quickly send him to Hades. ²⁴ For it becomes not our years to dissemble, said he, that through this many of the young should suppose that Eleazar, the man of fourscore years and ten, had gone over to an alien religion; ²⁵ and so they, by reason of my dissimulation, and for the sake of this brief and momentary life, should be led astray because of me, ²⁶ and thus I get to myself a pollution and a stain of my old age. ²⁶ For even if for the present time I shall remove from me the punishment of men, yet shall I not escape the hands of the Almighty, either living or dead. ²⁷ Wherefore, by manfully parting with my life now, I will show myself worthy of my old age, ²⁸ and leave behind a noble ensample to the young to die willingly and nobly a glorious death for the reverend and holy laws. And when he had said these words, he went immediately to the instrument of torture. ²⁹ And when they changed the good they will bare him a little before into ill will, because ³⁰ these words of his were, as they thought, sheer madness, ³⁰ and when he was at the point to die with the stripes, he groaned aloud and said, To the Lord, that has the holy knowledge, it is manifest that, whereas I might have been delivered from death, I endure sore pains in my body by being scourged; but in soul I gladly suffer these things for my fear of him. ³¹ So this man also died after this manner, leaving his death for an ensample of nobleness and a memorial of virtue, not only to the young but also to the great body of his nation.

7 And it came to pass that seven kindred also with their mother were at the king's command taken and shamefully handled with scourges and cords, to compel them to taste of the abominable swine's flesh. ² But one of them made himself the spokesman and said,

What would you ask and learn of us? for we are ready to die rather than transgress the laws of our fathers. ³ And the king fell into a rage, and commanded to heat pans and caldrons: ⁴ and when these forthwith were heated, he commanded to cut out the tongue of him that had been their spokesman, and to scalp him, and to cut off his extremities, the rest of his kindred and his mother looking on. ⁵ And when he was utterly †maimed, the king commanded to bring him to the fire, being yet alive, and to fry him in the pan. And as the vapor of the pan spread far, they and their mother also exhorted one another to die nobly, saying thus: ⁶ The Lord God sees, and in truth is ‡entreated for us, as Moses declared in ¶his song, which witnesses against the people to their faces, saying, And he shall be §entreated for his servants.

⁷ And when the first had died after this manner, they brought the second to the mocking; and they pulled off the skin of his head with the hair and asked him, Wilt you eat, before your body be punished in every limb? ⁸ But he answered in the language of his fathers and said to them, No. Wherefore he also underwent the next torture in succession, as the first had done. ⁹ And when he was at the last gasp, he said, You, miscreant, do release us out of this present life, but the King of the world shall raise up us, who have died for his laws, to an eternal renewal of life.

¹⁰ And after him was the third made a mocking-stock. And when he was required, he quickly put out his tongue, and stretched forth his hands courageously, ¹¹ and nobly said, From heaven I possess these; and for his laws' sake I treat these with contempt; and from him I hope to receive these back again:

¹² insomuch that the king himself and those who were with him were astonished at the young man's soul, for that he nothing regarded the pains.

¹³ And when he too was dead, they shamefully handled and tortured the fourth in like manner. ¹⁴ And being come near to death he said thus: It is good to die at the hands of men and look for the hopes which are given by God, that we shall be raised up again by him; for as for you, you shall have no resurrection to life.

¹⁵ And next after him they brought the fifth, and shamefully handled him. ¹⁶ But he looked toward the king and said, Because you have authority among men, though you are yourself corruptible, you do what you will; yet think not that our race has been forsaken of God; ¹⁷ but hold you on your way, and behold his sovereign majesty, how it will torture you and your seed.

¹⁸ And after him they brought the sixth. And when he was at the point to die he said, Be not vainly deceived, for we suffer these things for our own doings, as sinning against our own God: marvelous things are come to pass; ¹⁹ but think not you that you shall be unpunished, having assayed to fight against God.

²⁰ But above all was the mother marvelous and worthy of honorable memory; for when she looked on seven sons perishing within the space of one day, she bare the sight with a good courage for the hopes that she had set on the Lord. ²¹ And she exhorted each one of them in the language of their fathers, filled with a noble temper and stirring up her womanish thought with manly passion, saying to them, ²² I know not how you^o came into my womb, neither was it I that bestowed on you

8 But Judas, who is also called Maccabaeus, and those who were with him, making their way privily into the villages, called to them their kinsfolk; and taking to them such as had continued in the Jews' religion, gathered together as many as six thousand. ²And they called upon the Lord, beseeching him to look upon the people that was oppressed by all; and to have compassion on the sanctuary also that had been profaned by the ungodly men; ³and to have pity on the city also that was suffering ruin and ready to be made even even with the ground; and to listen to the blood that cried to him; ⁴and to remember also the lawless ††slaughter of the innocent infants, and ‡‡the blasphemies that had been committed against his name; and to show his hatred of wickedness. ⁵And when Maccabaeus had trained his men for service, the heathen at once found him irresistible, for that the wrath of the Lord was turned into pity. ⁶¶¶And coming unawares he set fire to cities and villages. And in winning back the most important positions, putting to flight no small number of the enemies, ⁷he especially took advantage of the nights for such assaults. And his courage was loudly talked of everywhere.

⁸But when Philip saw the man gaining ground by little and little, and increasing more and more in his prosperity, he wrote to Ptolemy, the governor of Coelesyria and Phoenicia, that he should support the king's cause. ⁹And Ptolemy quickly appointed Nicanor the son of Patroclus, one of the king's §§Chief Friends, and sent him, in command of no fewer than twenty thousand of all nations, to destroy the whole race of Judea; and with him he joined Gorgias also, a captain and one that had experience in matters of war. ¹⁰And Nicanor *undertook by the sale of the captive Jews to make up for the king the tribute of two thousand talents which he was to pay to the Romans. ¹¹And immediately he sent to the cities upon the sea coast, inviting them to buy Jewish †slaves, promising to allow fourscore and ten ‡slaves for a talent, not expecting the judgement that was to follow upon him from the Almighty.

¹²But tidings came to Judas concerning the inroad of Nicanor; and when he communicated to those who were with him the presence of the army, ¹³those who were cowardly and distrustful of the judgement of God ¶ran away and left the country. ¹⁴And others sold all that was left over to them, and withal implored the Lord to deliver those who had been sold as slaves by the impious Nicanor or ever he met them; ¹⁵and this, if not for their own sakes, yet for the covenants made with their fathers, and because he had called them by his reverend and glorious name. ¹⁶And Maccabaeus gathered his men together, six thousand in number, and exhorted them not to be stricken with dismay at the enemy, nor to fear the great multitude of the heathen who came wrongfully against them; but to contend nobly, ¹⁷ setting before their eyes the outrage that had been lawlessly perpetrated upon the holy place, and the shameful handling of the city that had been turned to mockery, and further the overthrow of the mode of life received from their ancestors. ¹⁸ For they, said he, trust to arms, and withal to deeds of daring; but we trust on the almighty God, since he is able at a beck to cast down those who are coming against us, and even the whole world. ¹⁹ And moreover he recounted to them the help given from time to time in the days of their ancestors, both the help given in the days of Sennacherib, how that a hundred fourscore and five thousand perished, ²⁰ and the help given in the land of Babylon, even the battle that was fought against the §Gauls, how that they came to the engagement eight thousand in all, with four thousand Macedonians, and how that, the Macedonians being hard pressed, the six thousand destroyed the hundred and twenty thousand, because of the help which they had from heaven, and took great booty. ²¹ And when he had with these words made them of good courage, and ready to die for the laws and their country, he divided his army into four parts; ²² ††appointing his kindred to be with himself leaders of the several bands, to wit, Simon and Joseph and Jonathan, giving each the command of fifteen hundred men, ²³ and moreover Eleazer also: then, having read aloud the sacred book, and having given as watchword, THE HELP OF GOD, leading the first band himself, he joined battle with Nicanor. ²⁴ And, since the Almighty fought on their side, they killed of the enemy above nine thousand, and wounded and ††disabled the more part of Nicanor's army, and compelled all to flee: ²⁵ and they took the money of those that had come there to buy them. And after they had pursued them for some ¶distance, they returned, being constrained by the time of the day; ²⁶ for it was the day before the Sabbath, and for this cause they made no effort to chase them far. ²⁷ §§And when they had gathered *the arms of the enemy together, and had stripped off their spoils, they occupied themselves about the Sabbath, blessing and thanking the Lord exceedingly, who had saved them to this day, for that he had caused a beginning of mercy to distil upon them. ²⁸ And after the Sabbath, when they had given of the spoils to the †maimed, and to the widows and orphans, the residue they distributed among themselves and their children. ²⁹ And when they had accomplished these things, and had made a common supplication, they implored the merciful Lord to be wholly reconciled with his servants.

³⁰ And having had an encounter with the forces of Timotheus and Bacchides, they killed above twenty thousand of them, and made themselves masters of strongholds exceedingly high, and divided very much plunder, giving the †maimed and orphans and widows, and moreover the aged also, an equal share with themselves. ³¹ ¶And when they had

⁹ Now about that time it befell that Antiochus had returned †in disorder from the region of Persia. ² For he had entered into the city called Persepolis, and he assayed to rob †a temple and to hold down the city. Whereupon there was an onset of the multitudes, and ^{*}Antiochus and his men turned to make defense with arms; and it came to pass that Antiochus was put to flight by the people of the country and broke up his camp with disgrace. ³ And while he was at Ecbatana, news was brought him what had happened to Nicanor and the forces of Timotheus. ⁴ And being lifted up ††by his passion he thought to make the Jews suffer even for the evil-doing of those that had put him to rout. Wherefore, the judgement from heaven even now accompanying him, he gave order to his charioteer to drive without ceasing and despatch the journey; for thus he arrogantly spoke: I will make Jerusalem a common graveyard of Jews, when I come there. ⁵ But the All-seeing Lord, the God of Israel, struck him with a ††fatal and invisible stroke; and as soon as he had ceased speaking this word, an incurable pain of the bowels seized him, and bitter torments of the inner parts; ⁶ and that most justly, for he had tormented other men's bowels with many and strange sufferings. ⁷ But he in no wise ceased from his rude insolence; no, still more was he filled with arrogance, breathing fire in his passion against the Jews, and commanding to haste the journey. But it came to pass moreover that he fell from his chariot as it rushed along, and having a grievous fall was racked in all the members of his body. ⁸ And he that but now supposed himself to have the waves of the sea at his bidding, so vainglorious was he beyond the condition of a man, and that thought to weigh the heights of the mountains in a balance, was now brought to the ground and carried in a litter, ¶[¶]showing to all that the power was manifestly God's; ⁹ so that out of the body of the impious man worms swarmed, and while he was still living in anguish and pains, his flesh fell off, and by reason of the stench all the army turned with loathing from his corruption. ¹⁰ And the man that a little before supposed himself to touch the stars of heaven, no one could endure to carry for his intolerable stench. ¹¹ Therefore he began in great part to cease from his arrogance, being broken in spirit, and to come to knowledge under the scourge of God, his pains increasing every moment. ¹² And when he himself could not stand his own smell, he said these words: It is right to be subject to God, and that one who is mortal should not §§be minded arrogantly. ¹³ And the vile man vowed to the sovereign Lord, who now no more would have pity upon him, saying on this wise: ¹⁴ that the holy city, to the which he was going in haste, to lay it even with the ground and to *make it a common graveyard, he would declare free; ¹⁵ and as touching the Jews, whom he had decided not even to count worthy of burial, but to cast them out to the beasts with their infants, for the birds to devour, he would make them all equal to citizens of Athens; ¹⁶ and the holy sanctuary, which before he had plundered, he would adorn with goodliest offerings, and would restore all the sacred vessels many times multiplied, and out of his own revenues would defray the charges that were required for the sacrifices; ¹⁷ and, beside all this, that he would become a Jew, and would visit every inhabited place, publishing abroad the might of God. ¹⁸ But when his sufferings did in no wise cease, for the judgement of God had come upon him in righteousness, having given up all hope of himself, he wrote to the Jews the letter written below, having the nature of a supplication, to this effect:

¹⁹ To the worthy Jews, his fellow-citizens, Antiochus, king and general, wishes much joy and health and prosperity. ²⁰ †May you^o and your children fare well; and your affairs shall be to your mind. Having my hope in heaven, ²¹ I remembered with affection your honor and good will toward me. Returning out of the region of Persia, and being taken with a noisome sickness, I deemed it necessary to take thought for the common safety of all, ²² not despairing of myself, but having great hope to escape from the sickness. ²³ But considering that my father also, at what time he led an army into the upper country, appointed his successor, ²⁴ to the end that, if anything fell out contrary to expectation, or if any unwelcome tidings were brought, they that remained in the country, knowing to whom the state had been left, might not be troubled; ²⁵ and, beside all this, observing how that the princes that are borderers and neighbors to my kingdom watch opportunities, and look for the future event, I have appointed my son Antiochus to be king, whom I often committed and commended to most of you, when I was hastening to the upper provinces; and I have written to him what is written below. ²⁶ I exhort you therefore and beseech you, having in your remembrance the benefits done to you in common and severally, to preserve each of you your present good will toward me and my son. ²⁷ For I am persuaded that he in gentleness and kindness will follow my purpose and treat you with indulgence.

²⁸ So the murderer and blasphemer, having endured the most intense sufferings, even as he had dealt with other men, ended his life among the mountains by a most piteous fate in a strange land. ²⁹ And Philip his foster brother conveyed the body home; and then, fearing the son of Antiochus, he betook himself to Ptolemy Philometor in Egypt.

10 And Maccabaeus and those who were with him, the Lord leading them on, recovered the temple and the city; ² and they pulled down the altars that had been built in the marketplace by the aliens, and also the walls of sacred inclosures. ³ And having cleansed the sanctuary they made another altar of sacrifice; and [‡]striking stones and taking fire out of them, they offered sacrifices, after they had ceased for two years, and burned incense, and lighted lamps, and set forth the show bread. ⁴ And when they had done these things, they fell prostrate and implored the Lord that they might fall no more into such evils; but that, if ever they should sin, they might be chastened by him with forbearance, and not be delivered to blaspheming and barbarous heathen. ⁵ Now on the same day that the sanctuary was profaned by aliens, upon that very day did it come to pass that the cleansing of the sanctuary was made, even on the five and twentieth day of the same month, which is Chislev. ⁶ And they kept eight days with gladness in the manner of the feast of tabernacles, remembering how that ¶not long before, during the feast of tabernacles, they were wandering in the mountains and in the caves after the manner of wild beasts. ⁷ Wherefore bearing wands wreathed with leaves, and fair boughs, and palms also, they offered up hymns of thanksgiving to him that had prosperously brought to pass the cleansing of his own place. ⁸ They ordained also with a common statute and decree, for all the nation of the Jews, that they should keep these days every year. ⁹ And §such was the end of Antiochus, who was called Epiphanes. ¹⁰ But now will we declare what came to pass under Antiochus named Eupator, who proved himself a true son of that ungodly man, and will gather up briefly the ††successive evils of the wars. ¹¹ For this man, when he succeeded to the kingdom, appointed one Lysias to be chancellor, and supreme governor of Coelesyria and Phoenicia. ¹² For Ptolemy that was called Macron, setting an example of observing justice toward the Jews because of the wrong that had been done to them, endeavored to ‡conduct his dealings with them on peaceful terms. ¹³ Whereupon being accused by the king's ¶¶Friends before Eupator, and hearing himself called traitor at every turn, because he had abandoned Cyprus which Philometor had entrusted to him, and had withdrawn himself to Antiochus called Epiphanes, and §§failing to uphold the honor of his office, he took poison and made away with himself.

mercenaries, and at every turn kept up war with the Jews. ¹⁵ And together with him the Idumaeans also, being masters of important strongholds, harassed the Jews; and receiving to them those that had taken refuge there from Jerusalem, they assayed to keep up war. ¹⁶ But Maccabaeus and his men, having made solemn supplication and implored God to fight on their side, rushed upon the strongholds of the Idumaeans; ¹⁷ and assaulting them vigorously they made themselves masters of the positions, and kept off all that fought upon the wall, and killed those that fell in their way, and killed no fewer than twenty thousand. ¹⁸ And because no less than nine thousand were fled into two towers exceedingly strong and having all things needed for a siege, ¹⁹ Maccabaeus, having left Simon and Joseph, and Zacchaeus besides and those who were with him, a force sufficient to besiege them, departed himself to places where he was most needed. ²⁰ But Simon and those who were with him, yielding to covetousness, were bribed by certain of those that were in the towers, and receiving seventy thousand drachmas let some of them slip away. ²¹ But when word was brought to Maccabaeus of what was done, he gathered the leaders of the people together, and accused those men of having sold their kindred for money, by setting their enemies free to fight against them. ²² So he killed these men for having turned traitors, and forthwith took possession of the two towers. ²³ And prospering with his arms in all things he took in hand, he destroyed in the two strongholds more than twenty thousand.

²⁴ Now Timotheus, who had been before defeated by the Jews, having gathered together foreign forces in great multitudes, and having collected the *horsemen which belonged to Asia, not a few, came as though he would take Judea by force of arms. ²⁵ But as he drew near, Maccabaeus and his men sprinkled earth upon their heads and girded their loins with sackcloth, in supplication to God, ²⁶ and falling down upon the step in front of the altar, implored him to become †gracious to them, and ‡be an enemy to their enemies and an adversary to their adversaries, as the law declares. ²⁷ And rising from their prayer they took up their arms, and advanced some distance from the city; and when they had come near to their enemies they ¶halted. ²⁸ And when the dawn was now spreading, the two armies joined battle; the one part having this, beside their virtue, for a pledge of success and victory, that they had fled to the Lord for refuge, the others making their passion their leader in the strife. ²⁹ But when the battle waxed strong, there appeared out of heaven to their adversaries five men on horses with bridles of gold, in splendid array; §and two of them, leading on the Jews, ³⁰ and taking Maccabaeus in the midst of them, and covering him with their own armor, guarded him from wounds, while on the adversaries they shot forth arrows and thunderbolts; by reason whereof they were blinded and thrown into confusion, and were cut to pieces, filled with bewilderment. ³¹ And there were slain twenty thousand and five hundred, beside six hundred horsemen.

³² But Timotheus himself fled into a stronghold called Gazara, a fortress of exceedingly strength, Chaereas being in command there. ³³ But Maccabaeus and his men were glad and laid siege to the fortress four and twenty days. ³⁴ And those who were within, trusting to the strength of the place, blasphemed exceedingly, and hurled forth impious words. ³⁵ But at dawn of the five and twentieth day certain young men of the company of Maccabaeus, inflamed with passion because of the blasphemies, assaulted the wall with masculine force and with ††furious passion, and cut down whoever came in their way. ³⁶ And others climbing up in like manner, while the besieged were distracted with them that had made their way within, set fire to the towers, and kindling fires burned the blasphemers alive; while others broke open the gates, and, having given entrance to the rest of the band, occupied the city. ³⁷ And they killed Timotheus, who was hidden in a cistern, and his brother Chaereas, and Apollophanes. ³⁸ And when they had accomplished these things, they blessed the Lord with hymns and thanksgiving, him who does great benefits to Israel, and gives them the victory.

11 Now after a very little time Lysias, the king's guardian and kinsman and chancellor, being sore displeased for the things that had come to pass, ² collected about fourscore thousand footmen and all his horsemen and came against the Jews, thinking to make the city a place for Greeks to dwell in, ³ and to levy tribute on the temple, as ††on the other sacred places of the nations, and to put up the high priesthood to sale every year; ⁴ holding in no account the might of God, but puffed up with his ten thousands of footmen, and his thousands of horsemen, and his fourscore elephants. ⁵ And coming into Judea and drawing near to Bethsuron, which was a strong place and distant from Jerusalem about ¶¶five leagues, he pressed it hard. ⁶ But when Maccabaeus and his men learned that he was besieging the strongholds, they and all the people with lamentations and tears made supplication to the Lord to send a good angel to save Israel. ⁷ And Maccabaeus himself took up arms first, and exhorted the others to put themselves in jeopardy together with him and help their kindred; and they went out with him very willingly. ⁸ And as they were there, close to Jerusalem, there appeared at their head one on horseback in white apparel, brandishing §§weapons of gold. ⁹ And they all together praised the merciful God, and were yet more strengthened in heart: being ready to *assail not men only but the wildest beasts, and walls of iron, ¹⁰ they advanced in array, having him that is in heaven to fight on their side, for the Lord had mercy on them. ¹¹ And hurling themselves like lions upon the enemy, they killed of them eleven thousand footmen and sixteen hundred horsemen, and forced all the rest to flee. ¹² But the more part of them escaped wounded and naked; and Lysias also himself escaped by shameful flight. ¹³ But as he was a man not void of understanding, weighing with himself the defeat which had befallen him, and considering that the Hebrews could not be overcome, because the Almighty God fought on their side, he sent again to them, ¹⁴ and persuaded them to come to terms on condition that all their rights were acknowledged, and †promised that he would also persuade the king to become their friend. ¹⁵ And Maccabaeus gave consent upon all the conditions which Lysias proposed to him, being careful of the common good; for whatever requests Maccabaeus delivered in writing to Lysias concerning the Jews the king allowed. ¹⁶ For the letters written to the Jews from Lysias were to this effect:

Written in the hundred forty and eighth year, on the fifteenth day of Xanthicus. ³⁴ And the Romans also sent to them a letter in these words:

Quintus Memmius and Titus Manius, ambassadors of the Romans, to the people of the Jews, greeting. ³⁵ In regard to the things which Lysias the king's kinsman granted you, we also give consent. ³⁶ But as for the things which he judged should be referred to the king, send one forthwith, after you° have advised thereof, that we may publish such decrees as befit your case; for we are on our way to Antioch. ³⁷ Wherefore send some with speed, that we also may learn what is your mind. ³⁸ §§Farewell. certain of the governors of districts, Timotheus and Apollonius the son of Gennaëus, and Hieronymus also and Demophon, and beside them Nicanor the governor of Cyprus, would not suffer them to enjoy tranquillity and live in peace. ³ And men of Joppa perpetrated this great impiety: they invited the Jews that lived among them to go with their wives and children into the boats which they had provided, as though they had no ill will toward them; ⁴ and when *the Jews, †relying on the common decree of the city, accepted the invitation, as men desiring to live in peace and suspecting nothing, they took them out to sea and drowned them, in number not less than two hundred. ⁵ But when Judas heard of the cruelty done to his fellow-countrymen, giving command to the men that were with him ⁶ and calling upon God the righteous Judge, he came against the murderers of his kindred, and set the haven on fire by night, and burned the boats, and put to the sword those that had fled there. ⁷ But when the town was closed against him, he withdrew, intending to come again to root out the whole community of the men of Joppa. ⁸ But learning that the men of Jamnia were minded to do in like manner to the Jews that sojourned among them, ⁹ he fell upon the Jamnites also by night, and set fire to the haven together with the fleet, so that the glare of the light was seen at Jerusalem, two hundred and forty furlongs distant.

cess, the nomads being overcome implored Judas to grant them friendship, promising to give him cattle, and to help ‡his people in all other ways. ¹² So Judas, thinking that they would indeed be profitable in many things, agreed to live in peace with them; and receiving pledges of friendship they departed to their tents. ¹³ And he also fell upon a certain city ¶Gephyrun, strong and fenced about with walls, and inhabited by a mixed multitude of various nations; and it was named Caspin. ¹⁴ But those who were within, trusting to the strength of the walls and to their store of provisions, behaved themselves rudely toward Judas and those who were with him, railing, and furthermore blaspheming and speaking impious words. ¹⁵ But Judas and his company, calling upon the great sovereign of the world, who without rams and cunning engines of war hurled down Jericho in the times of Joshua, rushed wildly against the wall; ¹⁶ and having taken the city by the will of God, they made unspeakable slaughter, insomuch that the adjoining lake, which was two furlongs broad, appeared to be filled with the deluge of blood.

¹⁷ And when they had drawn off seven hundred and fifty furlongs from thence, they made their way to Charax, to the Jews that are called §Tubieni. ¹⁸ And Timotheus they found not in occupation of that district, for he had then departed from the district without accomplishing anything, but had left behind a garrison, and that a very strong one, in a certain post. ¹⁹ But Dositheus and Sosipater, who were of Maccabæus's captains, went out and destroyed those that had been left by Timotheus in the stronghold, above ten thousand men. ²⁰ And Maccabæus, ranging his own

²⁶ And Judas, marching against §§Carnion and the temple of Atergatis, killed five and twenty thousand persons. ²⁷ And after he had

put these to flight and destroyed them, he marched against Ephron also, a strong city, *wherein were multitudes of people of all nations; and stalwart young men placed †on the walls made a vigorous defense; and there were great stores of engines and darts there. ²⁸ But calling upon the Sovereign who with might breaks in pieces the ‡strength of ¶the enemy, they got the city into their hands, and killed as many as twenty and five thousand of those who were within. ²⁹ And setting out from thence they marched in haste against Scythopolis, which is distant from Jerusalem six hundred furlongs. ³⁰ But when the Jews that were settled there testified of the good will that the Scythopolitans had shown toward them, and of their kindly bearing toward them in the times of their misfortune, ³¹ they gave thanks, and further exhorted them to remain well affected toward the race for the future; and they went up to Jerusalem, the feast of weeks being close to hand.

men bore down upon him and disabled his shoulder, and so Gorgias escaped to Marisa. ³⁶ And when those who were with Esdris had been fighting long and were wearied out, Judas called upon the Lord to show himself, fighting on their side and leading the van of the battle; ³⁷ and then in the language of his fathers he raised the battle-cry joined with hymns, and rushing unawares upon the troops of Gorgias put them to flight.

³⁸ And Judas gathering his army came to the city of ††Adullam; and as the seventh day was coming on, they purified themselves according to the custom, and kept the Sabbath there. ³⁹ And on the day following, ‡‡at which time it had become necessary, Judas and his company came to take up the bodies of those who had fallen, ¶¶and in company with their kinsmen to bring them back to the sepulchres of their fathers. ⁴⁰ But under the garments of each one of the dead they found §§consecrated tokens of the idols of Jamnia, which the law forbids the Jews to have anything to do with; and it became clear to all that it was for this cause that they had fallen. ⁴¹ All therefore, blessing the works of the Lord, the righteous Judge, who makes manifest the things that are hid, ⁴² betook themselves to supplication, beseeching that the sin committed might be wholly blotted out. And the noble Judas exhorted the multitude to keep themselves from sin, forso much as they had seen before their eyes what things had come to pass because of the sin of those who had fallen. ⁴³ And when he had made a collection man by man to the sum of two thousand drachmas of silver, he sent to Jerusalem to offer a sacrifice for sin, doing therein right well and honorably, in that he took thought for a resurrection. ⁴⁴ For if he were not expecting that those who had fallen would rise again, it were superfluous and idle to pray for the dead. ⁴⁵ (And if he did it looking to an honorable memorial of gratitude laid up for those who *die †in godliness, holy and godly was the thought.) Wherefore he made the atoning sacrifice for those who had died, that they might be released from their sin.

13 In the hundred forty and ninth year tidings were brought to Judas and his company that Antiochus Eupator was coming with great multitudes against Judea, ² and with him Lysias his guardian and chancellor, †each having a Greek force, a hundred and ten thousand footmen, and five thousand and three hundred horsemen, and two and twenty elephants, and three hundred chariots armed with scythes.

³ And Menelaus also joined himself with them, and with great dissimulation encouraged Antiochus, not for the saving of his country, but because he thought that he would be set over the government. ⁴ But the King of kings stirred up the ¶passion of Antiochus against the wicked wretch; and when Lysias informed him that this man was the cause of all the evils, the king commanded to bring him to Beroea, and §to put him to death after the manner of that place. ⁵ Now there is in that place a tower of fifty cubits high, full of ashes, and it had all round it a gallery ††descending sheer on every side into the ashes. ⁶Here him that is guilty of sacrilege, or has attained a pre-eminence in any other evil deeds, they ††all push forward into destruction. ⁷By such a fate it befell the breaker of the law, Menelaus, to die, without obtaining so much as a grave in the earth, and that right justly; ⁸for inasmuch as he had perpetrated many sins ¶¶against the altar, whose fire and whose ashes were holy, in ashes did he receive his death.

⁹Now the king, §§infuriated in spirit, was coming with intent to inflict on the Jews the very worst of the sufferings that had befallen them in his father's time. ¹⁰But when Judas heard of these things, he gave charge to the multitude to call upon the Lord day and night, beseeching him, if ever at any other time, so now to help those who were at the point to be deprived of the law and their country and the holy temple, ¹¹and not to suffer the people that had been but now a little while revived to fall into the hands of those profane heathen. ¹²So when they had all done the same thing together, *beseeching the merciful Lord with weeping and fastings and prostration for three days without ceasing, Judas exhorted them and commanded they should join him for service. ¹³And having gone apart with the elders

he resolved that, before the king's army should enter into Judea and make themselves masters of the city, they should go forth and try the matter in fight by the help of †God. ¹⁴And committing the decision to the †Lord of the world, and exhorting those who were with him to contend nobly even to death for laws, temple, city, country, ¶commonwealth, he pitched his camp by Modin. ¹⁵And given out to his men the watchword, VICTORY IS GOD'S, with a chosen body of the bravest young men he fell upon the camp by night and penetrated to the king's §tent, and killed of the ††army as many as two thousand men, and ††brought down the chiefest elephant with him that was in the ¶tower upon him. ¹⁶And at last they filled the §§army with terror and alarm, and departed with good success. ¹⁷And this had been accomplished when the day was but now dawning, because of the Lord's protection that gave *Judas help.

¹⁸But the king, having had a taste of the exceeding boldness of the Jews, made attempts by stratagem upon their positions, ¹⁹and upon a strong fortress of the Jews at Bethsura; he advanced, was turned back, failed, was defeated, ²⁰And Judas conveyed such things as were necessary to those who were within. ²¹But Rhodocus, from the Jewish ranks, made known to the enemy the secrets of his countrymen. He was sought out, and taken, and shut up in prison. ²²The king treated with them in Bethsura the second time, gave his hand, took theirs, departed, attacked the forces of Judas, was put to the worse, ²³heard that Philip who had been left as chancellor in Antioch had become reckless, was confounded, made to the Jews an overture of peace, submitted himself and swore to acknowledge all their rights, came to terms with them and offered sacrifice, honored the sanctuary and the place, ²⁴showed kindness and graciously received Maccabaeus, left Hegemonides governor from Ptolemais even to the †Gerrenians, ²⁵came to Ptolemais. The men of Ptolemais were displeased at the treaty, for they had exceedingly great indignation against the Jews: they desired to annul the articles of the agreement. ²⁶Lysias ‡came forward to speak, made the best defense that was possible, persuaded, pacified, made them well affected, departed to Antioch. This was the issue of the inroad and departure of the king.

14 Now after a space of three years tidings were brought to Judas and his company that Demetrius the son of Seleucus, having sailed into the haven of Tripolis with a mighty army and a fleet, ²had gotten possession of the country, having made away with Antiochus and Lysias his guardian.

³But one Alcimus, who had formerly been high priest, and had willfully polluted himself in the times when there was no mingling with the Gentiles, considering that there was no deliverance for him in any way, nor any more access to the holy altar, ⁴came to king

Demetrius in about the hundred and one and fifties year, presenting to him a chaplet of gold and a palm, and beside these some of the festal olive boughs of the temple. And for that day he held his peace; ⁵but having gotten opportunity to further his own madness, being called by Demetrius into a meeting of his council, and asked how the Jews stood affected and what they purposed, he answered thereto. ⁶Those of the Jews that he called ¶Hasidaeans, whose leader is Judas Maccabaeus, keep up war, and are seditious, not suffering the kingdom to find tranquillity. ⁷Wherefore, having laid aside my ancestral glory, I mean the high priesthood, I am now come shere; ⁸first for the unfeigned care I have for the things that concern the king, and secondly because I have regard also to my own fellow-citizens: for, through the unadvised dealing of those of whom I spoke before, our whole race is in no small misfortune. ⁹But do you, O king, having informed yourself of these things severally, take thought both for our country and for our race, which is surrounded by foes, according to the gracious kindness with which you receive all. ¹⁰For as long as Judas remains alive, it is impossible that the state should find peace. ¹¹And when he had spoken such words as these, at once ††the rest of the king's ‡‡Friends, having ill will against Judas, inflamed Demetrius yet more. ¹²And forthwith appointing Nicanor, who had been master of the elephants, and making him governor of Judea, he sent him forth, ¹³giving him written instructions to make away with Judas himself and to scatter those who were with him, and to set up Alcimus as high priest of the ¶great temple. ¹⁴ And §§those in Judea that *had before driven Judas into exile thronged to Nicanor in flocks, supposing that the misfortunes and calamities of the Jews would be successes to themselves.

¹⁵ But when the Jews heard of Nicanor's inroad and the assault of the heathen, they sprinkled earth upon their heads and made solemn supplication to him who had established his own people for evermore, and who always, making manifest his presence, upholds those who are his own portion. ¹⁶ †And when the leader had given his commands, he immediately sets out from thence, and joins battle with them at a village called Lessau. ¹⁷ But Simon, the brother of Judas, had encountered Nicanor, ‡yet not till late, having received a check by reason of the sudden consternation caused by his adversaries.

¹⁸ Nevertheless Nicanor, hearing of the manliness of those who were with Judas, and their courage in fighting for their country, shrank from bringing the matter to the decision of the sword. ¹⁹ Wherefore he sent Posidonius and Theodotus and Mattathias to give and receive pledges of friendship. ²⁰ So when these proposals had been long considered, and the leader had made the ¶troops acquainted therewith, and it appeared that they were all of like mind, they consented to the covenants. ²¹ And they appointed a day on which to meet together by themselves. And a litter was borne forward from each army; they set chairs of state; ²² Judas stationed armed men ready in convenient places, lest perhaps there should suddenly be treachery on the part of the enemy; they held such conference as was meet. ²³ Nicanor waited in Jerusalem, and did nothing to cause disturbance, but dismissed the flocks of people that had gathered together. ²⁴ And he kept Judas always in his presence; he had gained a hearty affection for the man; ²⁵ he urged him to marry and beget children; he married, settled quietly, took part in common life.

²⁶ But Alcimus, perceiving the good will that was between them, §and having got possession of the covenants that had been made, came to Demetrius and told him that Nicanor was ill affected toward the state, for he had appointed that conspirator against his kingdom, Judas, to be his successor. ²⁷ And the king, falling into a rage, and being exasperated by the false accusations of that most wicked man, wrote to Nicanor, signifying that he was displeased at the covenants, and commanding him to send Maccabaeus prisoner to Antioch in all haste. ²⁸ And when this message came to Nicanor, he was confounded, and was sore troubled at the thought of annulling the articles that had been agreed upon, the man having done no wrong; ²⁹ but because there was no dealing against the king, he watched his time to execute this purpose by stratagem. ³⁰ But Maccabaeus, when he perceived that Nicanor was behaving more harshly in his dealings with him, and that he had become ruler in his customary bearing, understanding that this harshness came not of good, gathered together not a few of his men, and concealed himself from Nicanor.

31 But the other, when he became aware that he had been bravely defeated by the stratagem of ††Judas, came to the ‡‡great and holy temple, while the priests were offering the usual sacrifices, and commanded them to deliver up the man. 32 And when they declared with oaths that they had no knowledge where the man was whom he sought, 33 he stretched forth his right hand toward the sanctuary, and swore this oath: If you^o will not deliver up to me Judas as a prisoner, I will lay this ¶¶temple of God even with the ground, and will break down the altar, and I will erect here a temple to §§Bacchus for all to see. 34 And having said this, he departed. 37 Now information was given to Nicanor against one Razis, an elder of Jerusalem, ‡as being a lover of his countrymen and a man of very good report, and one called Father of the Jews for his good will toward them. 38 For in the former times when there was no mingling with the Gentiles he had been accused of cleaving to the Jews' religion, and had jeopardized body and life with all earnestness for the religion of the Jews. 39 And Nicanor, wishing to make evident the ill will that he bare to the Jews, sent above five hundred soldiers to take him; 40 for he thought by taking him to inflict a calamity upon them. 41 But when the ¶troops were on the point of taking the tower, and were forcing the door of the court, and bade bring fire and burn the doors, he being surrounded on every side fell upon his sword, 42 choosing rather to die nobly than to fall into the hands of the wicked wretches, and suffer outrage unworthy of his own nobleness: 43 but since he missed his stroke through the excitement of the struggle, and the crowds were now rushing within the door, he ran bravely up to the wall and cast himself down manfully among the crowds. 44 But as they quickly gave back, a space was made, and he fell on the middle of §his side. 45 And having yet breath within him, and being inflamed with passion, he rose up, and though his blood gushed out in streams and his wounds were grievous, he ran through the crowds, and standing upon a steep rock, 46 when as his blood was now well near spent, he drew forth his bowels through the wound, and taking them in both his hands he shook them at the crowds; and calling upon him who is Lord of the life and the ††spirit to restore him ‡‡these again, he thus died.

on the day of rest. ² And when the Jews that were compelled to follow him said, O destroy not so savagely and barbarously, but give due glory to the day which he that sees all things has ¶honored and hallowed above other days; ³ then the thrice-accursed wretch asked if there were a Sovereign in heaven that had commanded to keep the Sabbath day. ⁴ And when they declared, There is the Lord, living himself a Sovereign in heaven, who bade us observe the seventh day; ⁵ then says the other, I also am a sovereign upon the earth, §§who now command to take up arms and execute the king's business. Nevertheless he prevailed not to execute his *cruel purpose.

⁶ And Nicanor, †bearing himself haughtily in all vaingloriousness, had determined to set up a monument of complete victory over Judas and all those who were with him: ⁷ but Maccabaeus still trusted unceasingly, with all hope that he should obtain help from the Lord. ⁸ And he exhorted his company not to be fearful at the ‡inroad of the heathen, but, keeping in mind the help which of old they had oftentimes received from heaven, so now also to look for the victory which would come to them from the Almighty; ⁹ and comforting them out of the law and the prophets, and withal putting them in mind of the conflicts that they had maintained, he made them more eager for the battle. ¹⁰ And when he had roused their ¶spirit, he gave them his commands, at the same time pointing out the perfidiousness of the heathen and their breach of their oaths. ¹¹ And arming each one of them, not so much with the sure defense of shields and spears as with the encouragement that lies in good words, and moreover relating to them a dream §worthy to be believed, he made them all exceedingly glad. ¹² And the vision of that dream was this: He saw Onias, him that was high priest, a noble and good man, reverend in bearing, yet gentle in manner and well-spoken, and exercised from a child in all points of virtue, with outstretched hands invoking blessings on the whole body of the Jews: ¹³ thereupon he saw a man appear, of venerable age and exceedingly glory, and wonderful and most majestic was the dignity around him: ¹⁴ and Onias answered and said, This is the lover of the kindred, he who prays much for the people and the holy city, Jeremiah the prophet of God: ¹⁵ and Jeremiah stretching forth his right hand delivered to Judas a sword of gold, and in giving it addressed him thus, ¹⁶ Take the holy sword, a gift from God, wherewith you shall strike down the adversaries.

¹⁷ And being encouraged by the words of Judas, which were of a lofty strain, and able to incite to virtue and to stir the souls of the young to manly courage, they determined not to carry on a campaign, but nobly to bear down upon the enemy, and fighting hand to hand with all courage bring the matter to an issue, because the city and the sanctuary and the temple were in danger. ¹⁸ For their fear for wives and children, and furthermore for kindred and kinsfolk, was in less account with them; but greatest and first was their fear for the consecrated sanctuary. ¹⁹ And they also that were shut up in the city were in no light

²⁰ And when all were now waiting for the decision of the issue, and the enemy had already joined battle, and the army had been set in array, and the ††elephants ‡‡brought back to a convenient post, and the horsemen drawn up ¶¶on the flank, ²¹ Maccabaeus, perceiving the presence of the §§troops, and the various arms with which they were equipped, and the savageness of the *elephants, holding up his hands to heaven called upon the Lord that works wonders, recognising that success comes not by arms, but that, according as the Lord shall judge, he gains the victory for those who are worthy. ²² And calling upon God he said after this manner: You, O Sovereign Lord, did send your angel in the time of Hezekiah king of Judea, and he killed of the †army of Sennacherib as many as a hundred fourscore and five thousand; ²³ so now also, O Sovereign of the heavens, send a good angel before us to bring terror and trembling: ²⁴ through the greatness of your arm let them be stricken with dismay that with blasphemy are come here against your holy people. And as he ended with these words, ²⁵ Nicanor and his company advanced with trumpets and victory songs; ²⁶ but Judas and his company joined battle with the enemy with invocation and prayers. ²⁷ And contending with their hands, and praying to God with their hearts, they killed no less than thirty five thousand men, being made exceedingly glad by the manifestation of God.

²⁸ And when the engagement was over, and they were returning again with joy, they recognized Nicanor lying dead in full armor; ²⁹ and there arose a shout and ‡tumult, and then they blessed the Sovereign Lord in the language of their fathers. ³⁰ And he that in all things was in body and soul the foremost champion of his fellow-citizens, he that kept through life the good will of his youth toward his countrymen, commanded to cut off Nicanor's head, and his hand with the shoulder, and bring them to Jerusalem. ³¹ And when he had arrived there, and had called his countrymen together and set the priests before the altar, he sent for those who were in the citadel; ³² and showing the head of the vile Nicanor, and the hand of that profane man, which with proud brags he had stretched out against the holy house of the Almighty, ³³ and cutting out the tongue of the impious Nicanor, he said that he would give ¶it by pieces to the birds, and hang up the $rewards of his madness near the sanctuary. ³⁴ And they all looking up to heaven blessed the Lord who had manifested himself, saying, Blessed be he that has preserved his own place undefiled. ³⁵ And he hanged Nicanor's head and shoulder from the citadel, a sign, evident to all and manifest, of the help of the Lord. ³⁶ And they all ordained with a common decree in no wise to let this day pass undistinguished, but to mark with honor the thirteenth day of the twelfth month (it is called Adar in the Syrian tongue), the day before the day of Mordecai.

THE FIRST BOOK OF ESDRAS

The First Book of Esdras is recognized as Deuterocanonical Scripture by the Greek Orthodox and Russian Orthodox Churches. It is not recognized by the Roman Catholic Church, but 1 Esdras is placed as an appendix to the Latin Vulgate Bible.

¹ ^eJosias held the Passover in Jerusalem to his Lord, and offered the Passover the fourteenth day of the first month; ² having set the priests according to their daily courses, being arrayed in their vestments, in the temple of the Lord. ³ And he spoke to the Levites, §§the temple-servants of Israel, that they should make themselves holy to the Lord, to set the holy ark of the Lord in the house that King Solomon the son of David had built: ⁴ and said, You^o shall no more have need to bear it upon your shoulders: now therefore serve the Lord your God, and minister to his people Israel, and prepare you after your fathers' houses and kindred, ⁵ according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the magnificence of Solomon his son: and standing in the holy place according to the several divisions of the families of you the Levites, who minister in the presence of your kindred the children of Israel, ⁶ offer the Passover in order, and make ready the sacrifices for your kindred, and keep the Passover according to the commandment of the Lord, which was given to Moses. ⁷ And to the people which were present Josias gave thirty thousand lambs and kids, and three thousand calves: these things were given of the king's substance, according as he promised, to the people, and to the priests and Levites. ⁸ And Helkias, and Zacharias, and *Esyelus, the rulers of the temple, gave to the priests

for the Passover two thousand and six hundred sheep, and three hundred calves. ⁹ And Jeconias, and Samaias and Nathanael his brother, and Sabias, and Ochielus, and Joram, captains over thousands, gave to the Levites for the Passover five thousand sheep, and seven hundred calves. ¹⁰ And when these things were done, the priests and Levites, having the unleavened bread, stood in comely order according to the kindred, ¹¹ and according to the several divisions by fathers' houses, before the people, to offer to the Lord, as it is written in the book of Moses: and thus did they in the morning. ¹² And they roasted the Passover with fire, as appertains: and the sacrifices they sod in the brazen vessels and caldrons with a good savor, ¹³ and set them before all the people: and afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests their kindred, the sons of Aaron. ¹⁴ For the priests offered the fat until night: and the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests their kindred, the sons of Aaron. ¹⁵ The holy singers also, the sons of Asaph, were in their order, according to the appointment of David, to wit, Asaph, Zacharias, and Eddinus, who †was of the king's retinue. ¹⁶ Moreover the gatekeepers were at every gate; none had need to depart from his daily course: for their kindred the Levites prepared for them. ¹⁷ Thus were the things that belonged to the sacrifices of the Lord accomplished in that day, in holding the Passover, ¹⁸ and offering sacrifices upon the altar of the Lord, according to the commandment of King Josias. ¹⁹ So the children of Israel which were present at that time held the Passover, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days. ²⁰ And such a Passover was not held in Israel since the time of the prophet Samuel. ²¹ Yes, all the kings of Israel held not such a Passover as Josias, and the priests, and the Levites, and the Jews, held with all Israel that were present in their dwelling place at Jerusalem. ²²In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josias was this Passover held. ²³And the works of Josias were upright before his Lord with a heart full of godliness. ²⁴Moreover the things that came to pass in his days have been written in times past, concerning those that sinned, and did wickedly against the Lord above every people and kingdom, and how they grieved him [‡]exceedingly, so that the words of the Lord were confirmed against Israel.

²⁵¶Now after all these acts of Josias it came to pass, that Pharaoh the king of Egypt came to raise war at Carchemish upon Euphrates: and Josias went out against him. ²⁶But the king of Egypt sent to him, saying, What have I to do with you, O king of Judea? ²⁷I am not sent out from the Lord God against you; for my war is upon Euphrates: and now the Lord is with me, yes, the Lord is with me hastening me forward: depart from me, and be not against the Lord. ²⁸However Josias didn't turn back ¶to his chariot, but undertook to fight with him, not regarding the words of the prophet Jeremy spoken by the mouth of the Lord: ²⁹but joined battle with him in the plain of Megiddo, and the princes came down against King Josias. ³⁰Then said the king to his servants, Carry me away out of the battle; for I am very weak. And immediately his servants carried him away out of the army. ³¹Then got he up upon his second chariot; and being brought back to Jerusalem he died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his fathers. ³²And in all Jewry they mourned for Josias; and Jeremy the prophet lamented for Josias, and the chief men with the women made lamentation for him, to this day: and this was given out for an ordinance to be done continually in all the nation of Israel. ³³These things are written in the book of the histories of the kings of Judea, and every one of the acts that Josias did, and his glory, and his understanding in the law of the Lord, and the things that he had done before, and the things now recited, are reported in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

³⁴‡And the people took §Joachaz the son of Josias, and made him king instead of Josias his father, when he was twenty and three years old. ³⁵And he reigned in Judah and in Jerusalem three months: and then the king of Egypt deposed him from reigning in Jerusalem. ³⁶And he set a tax upon the people of a hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold. ³⁷The king of Egypt also made King Joakim his brother king of Judea and Jerusalem. ³⁸And Joakim bound the nobles: but Zarakes his brother he apprehended, and brought him up out of Egypt. ³⁹Five and twenty years old was †Joakim when he began to reign in Judea and Jerusalem; and he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord. ⁴⁰And against him Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon came up, and bound him with a chain of brass, and carried him to Babylon. ⁴¹Nabuchodonosor also took of the holy vessels of the Lord, and carried them away, and set them up in his own temple at Babylon. ⁴²But those things that are reported of him, and of his uncleanness and impiety, are written in the chronicles of the kings. ⁴³And Joakim his son reigned in his stead: for when he was made king he was ††eighteen years old;

44 and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem; and did that which was evil before the Lord.

45 So after a year Nabuchodonosor sent and caused him to be brought to Babylon with the holy vessels of the Lord; 46 and made Sedekias king of Judea and Jerusalem, when he was one and twenty years old; and he reigned eleven years: 47 and he also did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, and cared not for the words that were spoken by Jeremy the prophet from the mouth of the Lord. 48 And after king Nabuchodonosor had made him to swear by the name of the Lord, he forswore himself, and rebelled; and hardening his neck, and his heart, he transgressed the laws of the Lord, the God of Israel. 49 Moreover the governors of the people and of the priests did many things wickedly, ††and passed all the pollutions of all nations, and defiled the temple of the Lord, which was sanctified in Jerusalem. 50 And the God of their fathers sent by his messenger to call them back, because he had compassion on them and on his dwelling place. 51 But they mocked his messengers; and in the day when the Lord spoke to them, they scoffed at his prophets: 52 so far forth, that he, being angry with his people for their great ungodliness, commanded to bring up the kings of the Chaldeans against them; 53 who killed their young men with the sword, round about their holy temple, and spared neither young man nor maid, old man nor child; but he delivered all into their hands. 54 And they took all the holy vessels of the Lord, both great and small, with ¶¶the vessels of the ark of the Lord, and the king's treasures, and carried them away to Babylon. 55 And they burned the house of the Lord, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem, and burned the towers thereof with fire: 56 and as for her glorious things, they never ceased till they had brought them all to nothing: and the people that were not slain with the sword he carried to Babylon: 57 and they were servants to him and to his children, till the Persians reigned, to fulfill the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremy: 58 Until the land has enjoyed her Sabbaths, the whole time of her desolation shall she keep Sabbath, to fulfill threescore and ten years.

2 In the first year of Cyrus king of the Persians, that the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremy might be accomplished, 2 the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of the Persians, and he made proclamation through all his kingdom, and also by writing, 3 saying, Cyrus king of the Persians says: The Lord of Israel, the Most High Lord, has made me king of the whole world, 4 and commanded me to build him a house at Jerusalem that is in Judea. 5 If therefore there be any of you that are of his people, §§let the Lord, even his Lord, be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem that is in Judea, and build the house of the Lord of Israel: he is the Lord that dwells in Jerusalem. 6 Of such therefore as dwell in various places, let those who are in his own place help each one with gold, and with silver, 7 with gifts, with horses also and cattle, beside the other things which have been added by vow for the temple of the Lord which is in Jerusalem.

8 Then the chief of the families of Judah and of the tribe of Benjamin stood up; the priests also, and the Levites, and all they whose spirit the Lord had stirred to go up, to build the house for the Lord which is in Jerusalem. 9 And those who lived round about them helped them in all things with silver and gold, with horses and cattle, and with very many gifts that were vowed of a great number whose minds were stirred up thereto. 10 King

Cyrus also brought forth the holy vessels of the Lord, which Nabuchodonosor had carried away from Jerusalem, and had set up in his temple of idols. ¹¹ Now when Cyrus king of the Persians had brought them forth, he delivered them to Mithradates his treasurer, ¹² and by him they were delivered to *Sanabassar the governor of Judea. ¹³ And this was the number of them: A thousand golden cups, a thousand cups of silver, censers of silver twenty nine, vials of gold thirty, and of silver two thousand four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand. ¹⁴ So all the vessels of gold and of silver were brought up, even five thousand four hundred threescore and nine, ¹⁵ and were carried back by Sanabassar, together with them of the captivity, from Babylon to Jerusalem.

¹⁶ ¶ But in the time of Artaxerxes king of the Persians Belemus, and Mithradates, and Tabellius, and †Rathumus, and Beeltethmus, and ‡Samellius the scribe, with the others that were in commission with them, dwelling in Samaria and other places, wrote to him against those who lived in Judea and Jerusalem the letter following: ¹⁷ To king Artaxerxes our Lord, Your servants, Rathumus the recorder, and Samellius the scribe, and the rest of their council, and the judges that are in Coelesyria and Phoenicia. ¹⁸ Be it now known to our lord the king, that the Jews that have come up from you to us, having come to Jerusalem, are building that rebellious and wicked city, and and repair its marketplaces and walls, and laying the foundation of a temple. ¹⁹ Now if this city is built and the walls thereof are finished, they will not only refuse to give tribute, but will even stand up against kings. ²⁰ And forasmuch as the things pertaining to the temple are now in hand, we think it meet not to neglect such a matter, ²¹ but to speak to our lord the king, to the intent that, if it be your pleasure, search may be made in the books of your fathers: ²² and you shall find in the chronicles what is written concerning these things, and shall understand that that city was rebellious, troubling both kings and cities: ²³ and that the Jews were rebellious, and raised always wars therein of old time; for the which cause even this city was laid waste. ²⁴ Wherefore now we do declare to you, O lord the king, that if this city be built again, and the walls thereof set up anew, you shall from henceforth have no passage into Coelesyria and Phoenicia. ²⁵ Then the king wrote back again to Rathumus the recorder, and Beeltethmus, and Samellius the scribe, and to the rest that were in commission, and lived in Samaria and Syria and Phoenicia, after this manner: ²⁶ I have read the letter which you^o have sent to me: therefore I commanded to make search, and it has been found that that city of old time has made insurrection against kings; ²⁷ and the men were given to rebellion and war therein: and that mighty kings and fierce were in Jerusalem, who reigned and exacted tribute in Coelesyria and Phoenicia. ²⁸ Now therefore I have commanded to hinder those men from building the city, and heed to be taken that there be nothing done contrary to this order; ²⁹ and that those wicked doings proceed no further to the annoyance of kings. ³⁰ Then king Artaxerxes his letters being read, Rathumus, and Samellius the scribe, and the rest that were in commission with them, removing in haste to Jerusalem with horsemen and a multitude of people in battle array, began to hinder the builders; and the building of the temple in Jerusalem ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of the Persians.

3 Now king Darius made a great feast to all his subjects, and to all that were born in his house, and to all the princes of Media and of Persia, ² and to all the local governors and captains and governors that were under him, from India to Ethiopia, in the hundred twenty and seven provinces. ³ And when they had eaten and drunken, and being satisfied were gone home, then Darius the king went into his bed-chamber, and slept, and awaked out of his sleep.

⁴ Then the three young men of the body-guard, that kept the king's person, spoke one to another: ⁵ Let every one of us say one thing which shall be strongest: and he whose sentence shall seem wiser than the others, to him shall Darius the king give great gifts, and great honors in token of victory: ⁶ as, to be clothed in purple, to drink in gold, and to sleep upon gold, and a chariot with bridles of gold, and a turban of fine linen, and a chain about his neck: ⁷ and he shall sit next to Darius because of his wisdom, and shall be called Darius his cousin. ⁸ And then they wrote every one his sentence, and set to their seals, and laid the writing under king Darius his pillow, ⁹ and said, When the king is risen, some shall give him the writing; and of whose side the king and the three princes of Persia shall judge that his sentence is the wisest, to him shall the victory be given, as it is written. ¹⁰ The first wrote, Wine is the strongest. ¹¹ The second wrote, The king is strongest. ¹² The third wrote, Women are strongest: but above all things Truth bears away the victory.

¹³ Now when the king was risen up, they took the writing, and gave it to him, and so he read it: ¹⁴ and sending forth he called all the princes of Persia and of Media, and the local governors, and the captains, and the governors, and the chief officers; ¹⁵ and sat him down in the royal seat of judgment; and the writing was read before them. ¹⁶ And he said, Call the young men, and they shall explain their own sentences. So they were called, and came in. ¹⁷ And they said to them, Declare to us your mind concerning the things you^o have written.

Then began the first, who had spoken of the strength of wine, ¹⁸ and said thus, O sirs, how exceedingly strong is wine! it causes all men to err that drink it: ¹⁹ it makes the mind of the king and of the fatherless child to be all one; of the bondman and of the freeman, of the poor man and of the rich: ²⁰ it turns also every thought into cheer and mirth, so that a man remembers neither sorrow nor debt: ²¹ and it makes every heart rich, so that a man remembers neither king nor local governor; and it makes to speak all things by talents: ²² and when they are in their cups, they forget their love both to friends and kindred, and a little after draw their swords: ²³ but when they awake from their wine, they remember not what they have done. ²⁴ O sirs, is not wine the strongest, seeing that it enforces to do thus? And when he had so spoken, he held his peace.

4 Then the second, that had spoken of the strength of the king, began to say, ² O sirs, do not men excel in strength, that bear rule over the sea and land, and all things in them? ³ But yet is the king stronger: and he is their lord, and has dominion over them; and in whatever he commands them they obey him. ⁴ If he bid them make war the one against the other, they do it: and if he send them out against the enemies, they go, and overcome mountains, walls, and towers. ⁵ They kill and are slain, and transgress not the king's commandment: if they get the victory, they bring all to the king, as well the plunder, as all things else. ⁶ Likewise for those that are no soldiers, and have not to do with wars, but use husbandry, when they have reaped again that which they had sown, they bring it to the king, and compel one another to pay tribute to the king. ⁷ And he is ¶but one man: if he command to kill, they kill; if he command to spare, they spare; ⁸ if he command to strike, they strike; if he command to make desolate,

¶4:7 Or, one and alone

they make desolate; if he command to build, they build; 9 if he command to cut down, they cut down; if he command to plant, they plant. 10 So all his people and his armies obey him: furthermore he lies down, he eats and drinks, and takes his rest: 11 and these keep watch round about him, neither may any one depart, and do his own business, neither disobey they him in anything. 12 O sirs, how should not the king be strongest, seeing that in such sort he is obeyed? And he held his peace.

13 Then the third, who had spoken of women, and of truth, (this was Zorobabel) began to speak. 14 O sirs, is not the king great, and men are many, and wine is strong? who is it then that rules them, or has the lordship over them? are they not women? 15 Women have borne the king and all the people that bear rule by sea and land. 16 Even of them came they: and they nourished them up that planted the vineyards, from whence the wine comes. 17 These also make garments for men; these bring glory to men; and without women can't men be. 18 Yes, and if men have gathered together gold and silver and any other goodly thing, and see a woman which is comely in favor and beauty, 19 they let all those things go, and gape after her, and even with open mouth fix their eyes fast on her; and have all more desire to her than to gold or silver, or any goodly thing whatever. 20 A man leaves his own father that brought him up, and his own country, and joins with his wife. 21 And with his wife he ends his days, and remembers neither father, nor mother, nor country. 22 By this also you^o must know that women have dominion over you: do you^o not labor and toil, and give and bring all to women? 23 Yes, a man takes his sword, and goes forth to make outroads, and to rob and to steal, and to sail upon the sea and upon rivers; 24 and looks upon a lion, and walks in the darkness; and when he has stolen, plundered, and robbed, he brings it to his love.

25 Wherefore a man loves his wife better than father or mother. 26 Yes, many there be that have run out of their wits for women, and become bondmen for their sakes. 27 Many also have perished, have stumbled, and sinned, for women. 28 And now do you^o not believe me? is not the king great in his power? do not all regions fear to touch him? 29 Yet did I see him and Apame the king's concubine, the daughter of the illustrious Barticus, sitting at the right hand of the king, 30 and taking the crown from the king's head, and setting it upon her own head; yes, she struck the king with her left hand: 31 and therewithal the king gaped and gazed upon her with open mouth: if she laughed upon him, he laughed also: but if she took any displeasure at him, he was fain to flatter, that she might be reconciled to him again. 32 O sirs, how can it be but women should be strong, seeing they do thus?

33 Then the king and the nobles looked one upon another: so he began to speak concerning truth. 34 O sirs, are not women strong? great is the earth, high is the heaven, swift is the sun in his course, for he encircles the heavens round about, and fetches his course again to his own place in one day. 35 Is he not great that makes these things? therefore great is truth, and stronger than all things. 36 All the earth calls upon truth, and the heaven blesses her: all works shake and tremble, but with ^{}her is no unrighteous thing. 37 Wine is unrighteous, the king is unrighteous, women are unrighteous, all the children of men are unrighteous, and unrighteous are all such their works; and there is no truth in them; in their unrighteousness also they shall perish. 38 But truth remains, and is strong forever; she lives and conquers forevermore. 39 With her there is no accepting of persons or rewards; but she does the things that are just, and refrains from all unrighteous and wicked things; and all men do well like of her works. 40 Neither in her judgment is any unrighteousness; and she is the strength, and the kingdom, and the power, and the majesty, of all ages. Blessed be the God of truth. ⁴¹ And with that he held his tongue. And all the people then shouted, and said, Great is truth, and strong above all things.

⁴² Then said the king to him, Ask what you will more than is appointed in writing, and we will give it you, inasmuch as you are found wisest; and you shall sit next me, and shall be called my cousin. ⁴³ Then said he to the king, Remember your vow, which you did vow to build Jerusalem, in the day when you came to your kingdom, ⁴⁴ and to send away all the vessels that were taken out of Jerusalem, which Cyrus set apart, when he vowed to destroy Babylon, and vowed to send them again there. ⁴⁵ You did also vow to build up the temple, which the Edomites burned when Judea was made desolate by the Chaldeans. ⁴⁶ And now, O lord the king, this is that which I require, and which I desire of you, and this is the princely generosity that shall proceed from you: I pray therefore that you make good the vow, the performance whereof you have vowed to the King of heaven with your own mouth.

⁴⁷ Then Darius the king stood up, and kissed him, and wrote letters for him to all the treasurers and governors and captains and local governors, that they should safely bring on their way both him, and all those that should go up with him to build Jerusalem. ⁴⁸ He wrote letters also to all the governors that were in Coelesyria and Phoenicia, and to them in Libanus, that they should bring cedar wood from Libanus to Jerusalem, and that they should build the city with him. ⁴⁹ Moreover he wrote for all the Jews that should go out of his realm up into Jewry, concerning their freedom, that no officer, no governor, no local governor, nor treasurer, should forcibly enter into their doors; ⁵⁰ and that all the country which they occupied should be free to them without tribute; and that the Edomites should give over the villages of the Jews which then they held; ⁵¹ and that there should be yearly given twenty talents to the building of the temple, until the time that it were built; ⁵² and other ten talents yearly, for burnt offerings to be presented upon the altar every day, as they had a commandment to offer seventeen: ⁵³ and that all those who should come from Babylonia to build the city should have their freedom, as well they as their posterity, and all the priests that came. ⁵⁴ He wrote also to give them their charges, and the priests' vestments wherein they minister; ⁵⁵ and for the Levites he wrote that their charges should be given them until the day that the house were finished, and Jerusalem built up. ⁵⁶ And he commanded to give to all that kept the city lands and wages. ⁵⁷ He sent away also all the vessels from Babylon, that Cyrus had set apart; and all that Cyrus had given in commandment, he charged also to be done, and sent to Jerusalem.

⁵⁸ Now when this young man was gone forth, he lifted up his face to heaven toward Jerusalem, and praised the King of heaven, ⁵⁹ and said, From you comes victory, from you comes wisdom, and your is the glory, and I am your servant. ⁶⁰ Blessed are you, who have given me wisdom: and to you I give thanks, O Lord of our fathers. ⁶¹ And so he took the letters, and went out, and came to Babylon, and told it all his kindred. ⁶² And they praised the God of their fathers, because he had given them freedom and liberty ⁶³ to go up, and to build Jerusalem, and the temple which is called by his name: and they feasted with instruments of music and gladness seven days.

5 After this were the chiefs of fathers' houses chosen to go up according to their tribes, with their wives and sons and daughters, with their menservants and maidservants, and their cattle. ² And Darius sent with them a thousand horsemen, till they had brought them back to Jerusalem ††safely, and with musical instruments, tabrets and flutes. ³ And all their kindred played, and he made them go up together with them.

⁴ And these are the names of the men which went up, according to their families among their tribes, after their several divisions. ⁵ The priests, the sons of Phinees, the sons of Aaron: Jesus the son of Josedek, the son of Saraias, and Joakim the son of Zorobabel, the son of Salathiel, of the house of David, of the lineage of Phares, of the tribe of Judah; ⁶ who spoke wise sentences before Darius the king of Persia in the second year of his reign, in the month Nisan, which is the first month. ⁷ ^kAnd these are they of Jewry that came up from the captivity, where they lived as strangers, whom Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon had carried away to Babylon. ⁸ And they returned to Jerusalem, and to the other parts of Jewry, every man to his own city, who came with Zorobabel, with Jesus, Nehemias, and ††Zaraias, Resaias, ¶¶Eneneus, Mardocheus, Beelsarus, §§Aspharsus, *Reelias, Roimus, and Baana, their leaders. ⁹ The number of

47 But when the seventh month was at hand, and when the children of Israel were every man in his own place, they came all together with one consent into the broad place before the first porch which is toward the east. 48 Then stood up Jesus the son of Josedek, and his kindred the priests, and Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and his kindred, and made ready the altar of the God of Israel, 49 to offer burned sacrifices upon it, according as it is expressly commanded in the book of Moses the man of God. 50 And certain were gathered to them out of the other nations of the land, and they erected the altar upon its own place, because all the nations of the land were at enmity with them, and oppressed them; and they offered sacrifices according to the time, and burnt offerings to the Lord both morning and evening. 51 Also they held the feast of tabernacles, as it is commanded in the law, and offered sacrifices daily, as was meet: 52 and after that, the continual oblations, and the sacrifices of the Sabbaths, and of the new moons, and of all the consecrated feasts. 53 And all those who had made any vow to God began to offer sacrifices to God from the new moon of the seventh month, although the temple of God was not yet built. 54 And they gave money to the masons and carpenters; and meat and drink, 55 and cars to them of Sidon and Tyre, that they should bring cedar trees from Libanus, and convey them in floats to the haven of Joppa, according to the commandment which was written for them by Cyrus king of the Persians. 56 And in the second year after his coming to the temple of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and Jesus the son of Josedek, and their kindred, and the Levitical priests, and all those who were come to Jerusalem out of the captivity: 57 and they laid the foundation of the temple of God on the new moon of the second month, in the second year after they were come to Jewry and Jerusalem. 58^l And they appointed the Levites from twenty years old over the works of the Lord. Then stood up Jesus, and his sons and kindred, and Kadmiel his brother, and the sons of Jesus, Emadabun, and the sons of Joda the son of Iliadun, and their sons and kindred, all the Levites, with one accord started the business, laboring to advance the works in the house of God. So the builders built the temple of the Lord. 59 And the priests stood arrayed in their vestments with musical instruments and trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with their cymbals, 60 singing songs of thanksgiving, and praising the Lord, after the order of David king of Israel. 61 And they sang aloud, praising the Lord in songs of thanksgiving, because his goodness and his glory are forever in all Israel. 62 And all the people sounded trumpets, and shouted with a loud voice, singing songs of thanksgiving to the Lord for the rearing up of the house of the Lord. 63^m Also of the Levitical priests, and of the heads of their families, the ancients who had seen the former house came to the building of this with lamentation and great weeping. 64 But many with trumpets and joy shouted with loud voice, 65 insomuch that the people heard not the trumpets for the weeping of the people: for the multitude sounded marvelously, so that it was heard afar off.

66ⁿ Wherefore when the enemies of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin heard it, they came to know what that noise of trumpets should mean. 67 And they perceived that those who were of the captivity did build the temple to the Lord, the God of Israel. 68 So they went to zorobabel and Jesus, and to the chief men of the families, and said to them, we will build together with you. 69 For we likewise, as you^o, do obey your Lord, and do sacrifice to him from the days of ††Asbasareth the king of the Assyrians, who brought us here. ⁷⁰Then Zorobabel and Jesus and the chief men of the families of Israel said to them, It is not ††for you to build the house to the Lord our God. ⁷¹We ourselves alone will build to the Lord of Israel, according as Cyrus the king of the Persians has commanded us. ⁷²But the heathen of the land lying heavy upon the inhabitants of Judea, and ¶¶holding them strait, hindered their building; ⁷³and §§by their secret plots, and popular persuasions and commotions, they hindered the finishing of the building all the time that King Cyrus lived: so they were hindered from building for the space of two years, until the reign of Darius.

6 Now ¶in the second year of the reign of Darius, Aggaeus and Zacharius the son of *Addo, the prophets, prophesied to the Jews in Jewry and Jerusalem; in the name of the Lord, the God of Israel, prophesied they to them. ²Then stood up Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and Jesus the son of Josedek, and began to build the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, the prophets of the Lord being with them, and helping them. ³¶At the same time came to them †Sisinnes the governor of Syria and Phoenicia, with ‡Sathrabuzanes and his companions, and said to them, ⁴By whose appointment do you° build this house and this roof, and perform all the other things? and who are the builders that perform these things? ⁵Nevertheless the elders of the Jews obtained favor, because the Lord had visited the captivity; ⁶and they were not hindered from building, until such time as communication was made to Darius concerning them, and his answer signified.

year that Cyrus reigned over the country of Babylon, king Cyrus wrote to build up this house. ¹⁸And the holy vessels of gold and of silver, that Nabuchodonosor had carried away out of the house at Jerusalem, and had set up in his own temple, those Cyrus the king brought forth again out of the temple in Babylonia, and they were delivered to Zorobabel and to ¶Sanabassar the governor, ¹⁹with commandment that he should carry away §all these vessels, and put them in the temple at Jerusalem; and that the temple of the Lord should be built in its place. ²⁰Then Sanabassar, being come here, laid the foundations of the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem; and from that time to this being still a building, it is not yet fully ended. ²¹Now therefore, if it seem good, O king, let search be made among the royal archives of our lord the king that are in Babylon: ²²and if it be found that the building of the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem has been done with the consent of king Cyrus, and it seem good to our lord the king, let him signify to us thereof.

²³¶Then commanded King Darius to seek among the archives that were laid up at Babylon: and so at Ekbatana the palace, which is in the country of Media, there was found a scroll where these things were recorded. ²⁴In the first year of the reign of Cyrus king Cyrus commanded to build up the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem, where they do sacrifice with continual fire: ²⁵whose height shall be sixty cubits, and the breadth sixty cubits, with three rows of hewn stones, and one row of new wood of that country; and the expenses thereof to be given out of the house of king Cyrus: ²⁶and that the holy vessels of the house of the Lord, both gold and silver, that Nabuchodonosor took out of the house at Jerusalem, and carried away to Babylon, should be restored to the house at Jerusalem, and be set in the place where they were before. ²⁷And also he commanded that Sisinnes the governor of Syria and Phoenicia, and Sathrabuzanes, and their companions, and those which were appointed rulers in Syria and Phoenicia, should be careful not to meddle with the place, but suffer Zorobabel, the servant of the Lord, and governor of Judea, and the elders of the Jews, to build that house of the Lord in its place. ²⁸And I also do command to have it built up whole again; and that they look diligently to help those that be of the captivity of Judea, till the house of the Lord be finished: ²⁹and that out of the tribute of Coelesyria and Phoenicia a portion be carefully given these men for the sacrifices of the Lord, that is, to Zorobabel the governor, for bullocks, and rams, and lambs; ³⁰and also corn, salt, wine and oil, and that continually every year without further question, according as the priests that be in Jerusalem shall signify to be daily spent: ³¹that drink offerings may be made to the Most High God for the king and for his children, and that they may pray for their lives. ³²And that commandment be given that whoever shall transgress, yes, or neglect anything ††written here, out of his own house shall a tree be taken, and he be hanged on it, and all his goods seized for the king. ³³The Lord therefore, whose name is there called upon, utterly destroy every king and nation, that shall stretch out his hand to hinder or endamage that house of the Lord in Jerusalem. ³⁴I Darius the king have ordained that according to these things it be done with diligence.

7 Then ^rSisnnes the governor of Coelesyria and Phoenicia, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, following the commandments of king Darius, ²did very carefully oversee the holy works, assisting the elders of the Jews and rulers of the temple. ³And so the holy works prospered, while Aggaeus and Zacharias the prophets prophesied. ⁴And they finished these things by the commandment of the Lord, the God of Israel, and with the consent of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, kings of the Persians. ⁵And thus was ^{‡‡}the house finished by the three and twentieth day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of king Darius. ⁶And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the other that were of the captivity, that were added to them, did according to the things written in the book of Moses. ⁷And to the dedication of the temple of the Lord they offered a hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; ⁸and twelve he-goats for the sin of all Israel, according to the number of the twelve ^{¶¶}princes of the tribes of Israel. ⁹The priests also and the Levites stood arrayed in their vestments, according to their kindred, for the services of the Lord, the God of Israel, according to the book of Moses: and the gatekeepers at every gate.

¹⁰And the children of Israel that came out of the captivity held the Passover the fourteenth day of the first month, when the priests and the Levites were sanctified together, ¹¹^{§§}and all those who were of the captivity; for they were sanctified. For the Levites were all sanctified together, ¹²and they offered the Passover for all them of the captivity, and for their kindred the priests, and for themselves. ¹³And the children of Israel that came out of the captivity did eat, even all those who had separated themselves from the abominations of the heathen of the land, and sought the Lord. ¹⁴And they kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days, making merry before the Lord, ¹⁵for that he had turned the counsel of the king of Assyria toward them, to strengthen their hands in the works of the Lord, the God of Israel.

⁸^sAnd after these things, when Artaxerxes the king of the Persians reigned, came Esdras the son of Azariaas, the son of Zechrias, the son of Helkias, the son of Salem, ²the son of Sadduk, the son of Ahitob, the son of Amarias, the son of Ozias, ^{*}the son of Memeroth, the son of Zariaas, the son of Savias, the son of Boccas, the son of Abisne, the son of Phinees, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, the chief priest. ³This Esdras went up from Babylon, as being a ready scribe in the law of Moses, that was given by the God of Israel. ⁴And the king did him honor: for he found grace in hid sight in all his requests. ⁵There went up with him also certain of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and Levites, and holy singers, and gatekeepers, and [†]temple servants, to Jerusalem, ⁶in the seventh year of the reign of Artaxerxes, in the fifth month, this was the king's seventh year; for they went from Babylon on the new moon of the first month, and came to Jerusalem, according to the prosperous journey which the Lord gave them [‡]for his sake. ⁷For Esdras had very great skill, so that he omitted nothing of the law and commandments of the Lord, but taught all Israel the ordinances and judgments.

⁸Now the commission, which was written from Artaxerxes the king, came to Esdras the priest and reader of the law of the Lord, whereof this that follows is a copy; ⁹King Artaxerxes to Esdras the priest and reader of the law of the Lord, greeting: ¹⁰Having determined to deal graciously, I have given order, that such of the nation of the Jews, and of the priests and Levites, ¶and of those within our realm, as are willing and desirous, should go with you to Jerusalem. ¹¹As many therefore as have a mind thereto, let them depart with you, as it has seemed good both to me and my seven friends the counselors; ¹²that they may look to the affairs of Judea and Jerusalem, agreeably to that which is in the law of the Lord, ¹³and carry the gifts to the Lord of Israel to Jerusalem, which I and my friends have vowed; and that all the gold and silver that can be found in the country of Babylonia for the Lord in Jerusalem, ¹⁴with that also which is given of the people for the temple of the Lord their God that is at Jerusalem, be collected: even the gold and silver for bullocks, rams, and lambs, and things thereto appertaining; ¹⁵to the end that they may offer sacrifices to the Lord upon the altar of the Lord their God, which is in Jerusalem. ¹⁶And whatever you and your kindred are minded to do with gold and silver, that perform, according to the will of your God. ¹⁷And the holy vessels of the Lord, which are given you for the use of the temple of your God, which is in Jerusalem: ¹⁸and whatever thing else you shall remember for the use of the temple of your God, you shall give it out of the king's treasury. ¹⁹And I king Artaxerxes have also commanded the keepers of the treasures in Syria and Phoenicia, that whatever Esdras the priest and reader of the law of the Most High God shall send for, they should give it him with all diligence, ²⁰to the sum of a hundred talents of silver, likewise also of wheat even to a hundred §measures, and a hundred firkins of wine, and ††salt in abundance. ²¹Let all things be performed after the law of God diligently to the most high God, that wrath come not upon the kingdom of the king and his sons. ²²I command you also, that no tax, nor any other imposition, be laid upon any of the priests, or Levites, or holy singers, or gatekeepers, or temple servants, or any that have employment in this temple, and that no man have authority to impose anything upon them. ²³And you, Esdras, according to the wisdom of God ordain judges and justices, that they may judge in all Syria and Phoenicia all those that know the law of your God; and those that know it not you shall teach. ²⁴And whoever shall transgress the law of your God, and of the king, shall be punished diligently, whether it be by death, or other punishment, by penalty of money, or by ††imprisonment.

²⁵Then said Esdras the scribe, Blessed be the only Lord, the God of my fathers, who has put these things into the heart of the king, to glorify his house that is in Jerusalem: ²⁶and has honored me in the sight of the king, and his counselors, and all his friends and nobles. ²⁷Therefore was I encouraged by the help of the Lord my God, and gathered together out of Israel men to go up with me. ²⁸And these are the chief according to their families and the several divisions thereof, that went up with me from Babylon in the reign of king Artaxerxes: ²⁹of the sons of Phinees, Gerson: of the sons of Ithamar, Gamael: of the sons of them: ⁵⁵and I weighed them the silver, and the gold, and the holy vessels of the house of our Lord, which the king, and his counselors, and the nobles, and all Israel, had given. ⁵⁶And when I had weighed it, I delivered to them six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels of a hundred talents, and a hundred talents of gold, ⁵⁷and twenty golden vessels, and twelve vessels of brass, even of fine brass, glittering like gold. ⁵⁸And I said to them, Both you^o are holy to the Lord, §§and the vessels are holy, and the gold and the silver are a vow to the Lord, the Lord of our fathers. ⁵⁹Watch you^o, and keep them till you^o deliver them to the chiefs of the priests and Levites, and to the principal men of the families of Israel, in Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of our Lord. ⁶⁰So the priests and the Levites, who received the silver and the gold and the vessels which were in Jerusalem, brought them into the temple of the Lord.

⁶¹And from the river Theras we departed the twelfth day of the first month, until we came to Jerusalem, by the mighty hand of our Lord which was upon us: and the Lord delivered us from assault by the way, from every enemy, and so we came to Jerusalem. ⁶²And when we had been there three days, the silver and gold was weighed and delivered in the house of our Lord on the fourth day to *Marmoth the priest the son of †Urias. ⁶³And with him was Eleazar the son of Phinees, and with them were Josabodus the son of Jesus and ‡Moeth the son of Sabannus, the Levites: all was delivered them by number and weight. ⁶⁴And all the weight of them was written up the same hour. ⁶⁵Moreover those who were come out of the captivity offered sacrifices to the Lord, the God of Israel, even twelve bullocks for all Israel, fourscore and sixteen rams, ⁶⁶threescore and twelve lambs, goats for a peace offering, twelve; all of them a sacrifice to the Lord. ⁶⁷And they delivered the king's commandments to the king's stewards, and to the governors of Coelesyria and Phoenicia; and they honored the people and the temple of the Lord.

⁶⁸Now when these things were done, the principal men came to me, and said, ⁶⁹The nation of Israel, and the princes, and the priests and the Levites, have not put away from them the strange people of the land, †nor the uncleannesses of the Gentiles, to wit, of the Canaanites, Hittites, Pherezites, Jebusites, and the Moabites, Egyptians, and Edomites. ⁷⁰For both they and their sons have married with their daughters, and the holy seed is mixed with the strange people of the land; and from the beginning of this matter the rulers and the nobles have been partakers of this iniquity. ⁷¹And as soon as I had heard these things, I tore my clothes, and my holy garment, and plucked the hair from off my head and beard, and sat me down sad and full of heaviness. ⁷²So all those who were moved at the word of the Lord, the God of Israel, assembled to me, while I mourned for the iniquity: but I sat still full of heaviness until the evening sacrifice. ⁷³Then rising up from the fast with my clothes and my holy garment tore, and bowing my knees, and stretching forth my hands to the Lord, ⁷⁴I said, O Lord, I am ashamed and confounded before your face; ⁷⁵for our sins are multiplied above our heads, and our errors have reached up to heaven, ⁷⁶ever since the time of our fathers; and we are in great sin, even to this day. ⁷⁷And for our sins and our fathers' we with our kindred and our kings and our priests were given up to the kings of the earth, to the sword, and to captivity, and for a prey with shame, to this day. ⁷⁸ And now in some measure has mercy been showed to us from you, O Lord, that there should be left us a root and a name in the place of your sanctuary; ⁷⁹ and to discover to us a light in the house of the Lord our God, and to give us food in the time of our servitude. ⁸⁰ Yes, when we were in bondage, we were not forsaken of our Lord; but he made us gracious before the kings of Persia, so that they gave us food, ⁸¹ and glorified the temple of our Lord, and raised up the desolate Sion, to give us a sure dwelling in Jewry and Jerusalem. ⁸² And now, O Lord, what shall we say, having these things? For we have transgressed your commandments, which you gave by the hand of your servants the prophets, saying, ⁸³ That the land, which you^o enter into to possess as a heritage, is a land polluted with the pollutions of the strangers of the land, and they have filled it with their uncleanness. ⁸⁴ Therefore now shall you^o not join your daughters to their sons, neither shall you^o take their daughters to your sons. ⁸⁵ Neither shall you^o seek to have peace with them forever, that you^o may be strong, and eat the good things of the land, and that you^o may leave it for an inheritance to your children for evermore. ⁸⁶ And all that is befallen is done to us for our wicked works and great sins: for you, O Lord, did make our sins light, ⁸⁷ and did give to us such a root: but we have turned back again to transgress your law, in mingling ourselves with the uncleanness of the heathen of the land. ⁸⁸ ⁸You was not angry with us to destroy us, till you had left us neither root, seed, nor name. ⁸⁹ O Lord of Israel, you are true: for we are left a root this day. ⁹⁰ Behold, now are we before you in our iniquities, for we can't stand any longer before you by reason of these things.

⁹¹ †And as Esdras in his prayer made his confession, weeping, and lying flat upon the ground before the temple, there gathered to him from Jerusalem a very great throng of men and women and children: for there was great weeping among the multitude. ⁹² Then Jechonias the son of Jeelus, one of the sons of Israel, called out, and said, O Esdras, we have sinned against the Lord God, we have married strange women of the heathen of the land, and now is all Israel ^{}aloft. ⁹³ Let's make an oath to the Lord herein, that we will put away all our wives, which we have taken of the strangers, with their children, ⁹⁴ like as seems good to you, and to as many as do obey the Law of the Lord. ⁹⁵ Arise, and put in execution: for to you does this matter appertain, and we will be with you to do valiantly. ⁹⁶ So Esdras arose, and took an oath of the chief of the priests and Levites of all Israel to do after these things; and so they swear.

⁹ ^uThen Esdras rising from the court of the temple went to the chamber of Jonas the son of Eliasib, ² and lodged there, and did eat no bread nor drink water, mourning for the great iniquities of the multitude. ³ And there was made proclamation in all Jewry and Jerusalem to all those who were of the captivity, that they should be gathered together at Jerusalem: ⁴ and that whoever met not there within two or three days, according as the elders that bare rule appointed, their cattle should be seized to the use of the temple, and himself cast out from the multitude of those who were of the captivity.

⁵ And in three days were all they of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin gathered together at Jerusalem: this was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month. ⁶ And all the multitude sat together trembling in the broad place before the temple because of the present foul weather. ⁷ So Esdras arose up and said to them, you^o have transgressed the law and married strange wives to increase the sins of Israel. ⁸ And now make confession and give glory to the Lord, the God of our fathers, ⁹ and do his will, and separate yourselves from the heathen of the land, and from the strange women. ¹⁰ Then cried the whole multitude, and said with a loud voice, Just as you have spoken, so will we do. ¹¹ But forasmuch as the multitude is great, and it is foul weather, so that we can't stand without, and this is not a work of one day or two, seeing our sin in these things is spread far: ¹² therefore let the rulers of the multitude stay, and let all them of our habitations that have strange wives come at the time appointed, ¹³ and with them the rulers and judges of every place, till we turn away the wrath of the Lord from us for this matter. ¹⁴ Then Jonathan the son of Azael and ††Ezekias the son of Thocanus accordingly took the matter upon them: and Mosollamus and Levis and Sabbateus were assessors to them. ¹⁵ And those who were of the captivity did according to all these things.

¹⁶ And Esdras the priest chose to him principal men of their families, all by name: and on the new moon of the tenth month they were shut in together to examine the matter. ¹⁷ So their cause that held strange wives was brought to an end by the new moon of the first month. ¹⁸ And of the priests that were come together, and had strange wives, there were found; ¹⁹ of the sons of Jesus the son of Josedek, and his kindred; ††Mathelas, and Eleazar, and ††Joribus, and §§Joadanus. ²⁰ And they gave their hands to put away their wives, and to offer rams to make reconciliation for their error. ²¹ And of the sons of Emmer; Ananias, and Zabdeus, and *Manes, and †Sameus, and †Hiereel, and †Azarias. ²² And of the sons of §Phaisur; Elionas, Massias, Ishmael, and Nathanael, and Ocidelus, and ††Saloas. ²³ And of the Levites; Jozabodus, and Semeis, and †Colius, who was called ††Calitas, and §§Patheus, and Judas, and Jonas. ²⁴ Of the holy singers; *Eliasibus, Bacchurus. ²⁵ Of the gatekeepers: Sallumus, and †Tolbanes. ²⁶ Of Israel, of the sons of †Phoros; †Hiermas, and §Ieddias, and Melchias, and Maelus, and Eleazar, and ††Asibas, and

PRAYER OF MANASSES
KING OF JUDAH,
WHEN HE WAS HELD
CAPTIVE IN BABYLON

The Prayer of Manasses is recognized as Deuterocanonical Scripture by the Greek Orthodox and Russian Orthodox Churches. It is included in an appendix to the Latin Vulgate Bible.

1 O LORD Almighty, that are in heaven, you God of our fathers, of Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and of their righteous seed; ² who have made heaven and earth, with all the ornament thereof; ³ who have bound the sea by the word of your commandment; who have shut up the deep, and sealed it by your terrible and glorious name; ⁴ whom all things fear, yes, tremble before your power; ⁵ for the majesty of your glory can't be borne, and the anger of your threatening toward sinners is importable: ⁶ your merciful promise is unmeasurable and unsearchable; ⁷ for you are the Lord Most High, of great compassion, patient and abundant in mercy, and repent of bringing evils upon men. ⁸ You, O Lord, according to your great goodness have promised repentance and forgiveness to those who have sinned against you: and of your infinite mercies have appointed repentance to sinners, that they may be saved. You therefore, O Lord, that are the God of the just, have not appointed repentance to the just, to Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, which have not sinned against you; but you have appointed repentance to me that am a sinner: ⁹ for I have sinned above the number of the sands of the sea. My transgressions are multiplied, ^{}O Lord: my transgressions are multiplied, and I am not worthy to behold and see the height of heaven for the multitude of my iniquities. ¹⁰ I am bowed down with many iron bands, that I can't lift up my head ††by reason of my sins, neither have I any respite: for I have provoked your wrath, and done that which is evil before you: ††I didn't do your will, neither did I keep your commandments: I have set up abominations, and have multiplied ¶¶detestable things. ¹¹ Now therefore I bow the knee of my heart, beseeching you of grace. ¹² I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned, and I acknowledge my iniquities: ¹³ but, I humbly beseech you, forgive me, O Lord, forgive me, and destroy me not with my iniquities. Be not angry with me forever, by reserving evil for me; neither condemn me into the lower parts of the earth. For you, §§O Lord, are the God of those who repent; ¹⁴ and in me you will show all your goodness: for you will save me, that am unworthy, according to your great mercy. ¹⁵ And I will praise you forever all the days of my life: for all the army of heaven sings your praise, and yours is the glory forever and ever. Amen.

PSALM 151

Psalm 151 is recognized as Deuterocanonical Scripture by the Greek Orthodox and Russian Orthodox Churches.

151

This Psalm is a genuine one of David, though extra,* composed when he fought in single combat with Goliath.

1 I was small among my brothers, and youngest in my father's house.
I tended my father's sheep.

2 My hands formed a musical instrument, and my fingers tuned a lute.

3 Who shall tell my Lord?

The Lord himself, he himself hears.

4 He sent forth his angel and took me from my father's sheep,

and he anointed me with his anointing oil.

5 My brothers were handsome and tall;
but the Lord didn't take pleasure in them.

6 I went out to meet the Philistine, and he cursed me by his idols.

7 But I drew his own sword and beheaded him, and removed reproach from the children of Israel.

THE THIRD BOOK OF THE MACCABEES

The Third Book of the Maccabees is recognized as Deuterocanonical Scripture by the Greek Orthodox and Russian Orthodox Churches. It is considered to be apocrypha by most other church traditions.

1 Now Philopater, on learning from those who came back that Antiochus had made himself master of the places which belonged to himself, sent orders to all his footmen and horsemen, took with him his sister Arsinoe, and marched out as far as the parts of Raphia, where Antiochus and his forces encamped. 2 And one Theodotus, intending to carry out his design, took with him the bravest of the armed men who had been before committed to his trust by Ptolemy, and got through at night to the tent of Ptolemy, to kill him on his own responsibility, and so to end the war. 3 But Dositheus, called the son of Drimulus, by birth a Jew, afterward a renegade from the laws and observances of his country, conveyed Ptolemy away, and made an obscure person lie down in his stead in the tent. It befell this man to receive the fate which was meant for the other. 4 A fierce battle then took place; and the men of Antiochus prevailing, Arsinoe continually went up and down the ranks, and with dishevelled hair, with tears and entreaties, begged the soldiers to fight manfully for themselves, their children, and wives; and promised that if they proved conquerors, she would give them each two minas of gold. 5 It thus fell out that their enemies were defeated in hand-to-hand encounter, and that many of them were taken prisoners. 6 Having vanquished this attempt, the king then decided to proceed to the neighboring cities, and encourage them. 7 By doing this, and by making donations to their temples, he inspired his subjects with confidence. 8 The Jews sent some of their council and of their elders to him. The greetings, guest-gifts, and congratulations of the past, bestowed by them, filled him with the greater eagerness to visit their city. 9 Having arrived at Jerusalem, sacrificed, and offered thank-offerings to the Greatest God, and done whatever else was suitable to the sanctity of the place, and entered the inner court, 10 he was so struck with the magnificence of the place, and so wondered at the orderly arrangements of the temple, that he considered entering the sanctuary itself. 11 And when they told him that this was not permissible, none of the nation, no, nor even the priests in general, but only the supreme high priest of all, and he only once in a year, being allowed to go in, he would by no means give way. 12 Then they read the law to him; but he persisted in obtruding himself, exclaiming, that he ought to be allowed: and saying Be it that they were deprived of this honor, I ought not to be. 13 And he put the question, Why, when he entered all the temples, none of the priests who were present forbade him? 14 He was thoroughly answered by some one, That he did wrong to boast of this. 15 Well; since I have done this, said he, be the cause what it may, shall I not enter with or without your consent? 16 And when the priests fell down in their sacred vestments imploring the Greatest God to come and help in time of need, and to avert the violence of the fierce aggressor, and when they filled the temple with lamentations and tears, 17 then those who had been left behind in the city were scared, and rushed forth, uncertain of the event. 18 Virgins, who had been shut up within their chambers, came out with their mothers, scattering dust and ashes on their heads, and filling the streets with outcries. 19 Women, but recently separated off, left their bridal chambers, left the reserve that befitted them, and ran about the city in a disorderly manner. 20 New-born babes were deserted by the mothers or nurses who waited upon them; some here, some there, in houses, or in fields; these now, with an ardor which could not be checked, swarmed into the Most High temple. ²¹ Various were the prayers offered up by those who assembled in this place, on account of the unholy attempt of the king. ²² Along with these there were some of the citizens who took courage, and would not submit to his obstinacy, and his intention of carrying out his purpose. ²³ Calling out to arms, and to die bravely in defense of the law of their fathers, they created a great uproar in the place, and were with difficulty brought back by the aged and the elders to the station of prayer which they had occupied before. ²⁴ During this time the multitude kept on praying. ²⁵ The elders who surrounded the king tried in many ways to divert his arrogant mind from the design which he had formed. ²⁶ He, in his hardened mood, insensible to all persuasion, was going onward with the view of carrying out this design. ²⁷ Yet even his own officers, when they saw this, joined the Jews in an appeal to Him who has all power, to aid in the present crisis, and not wink at such overweening lawlessness. ²⁸ Such was the frequency and the vehemence of the cry of the assembled crowd, that an indescribable noise ensued. ²⁹ Not the men only, but the very walls and floor seemed to sound forth; all things preferring dissolution rather than to see the place defiled.

2 Now was it that the high priest Simon bowed his knees near the holy place, and spread out his hands in reverent form, and uttered the following supplication: ² O Lord, Lord, King of the heavens, and Ruler of the whole creation, Holy among the holy, sole Governor, Almighty, give ear to us who are oppressed by a wicked and profane one, who celebrates in his confidence and strength. ³ It is you, the Creator of all, the Lord of the universe, who are a righteous Governor, and judge all who act with pride and insolence. ⁴ It was you who did destroy the former workers of unrighteousness, among whom were the giants, who trusted in their strength and daring, by covering them with a measureless flood. ⁵ It was you who did make the Sodomites, those workers of exceedingly iniquity, men notorious for their vices, an example to after generations, when you did cover them with fire and brimstone. ⁶ You did make known your power when you caused the bold Pharaoh, the enslaver of your people, to pass through the ordeal of many and diverse inflictions. ⁷ And you rolled the depths of the sea over him, when he made pursuit with chariots, and with a multitude of followers, and gave a safe passage to those who put their trust in you, the Lord of the whole creation. ⁸ These saw and felt the works of your hands, and praised you the Almighty. ⁹ You, O King, when you created the illimitable and measureless earth, did choose out this city: you did make this place sacred to your name, albeit you need nothing: you did glorify it with your illustrious presence, after constructing it to the glory of your great and honorable name. ¹⁰ And you did promise, out of love to the people of Israel, that should we fall away from you, and become afflicted, and then come to this house and pray, you would hear our prayer. ¹¹ Truly you are faithful and true. ¹² And when you did often aid our fathers when hard pressed, and in low estate, and delivered them out of great dangers, ¹³ see now, holy King, how through our many and great sins we are borne down, and made subject to our enemies, and are become weak and powerless. ¹⁴ We being in this low condition, this bold and profane man seeks to dishonor this your holy place, consecrated out of the earth to the name of your Majesty. ¹⁵ Your dwelling place, the heaven of heavens, is indeed unapproachable to men. ¹⁶ But since it seemed good to you to exhibit your glory among your people Israel, you did sanctify this place. ¹⁷ Punish us not by means of the uncleanness of their men, nor chastise us by means of their profanity; lest the lawless ones should boast in their rage, and exult in exuberant pride of speech, and say, ¹⁸ We have trampled upon the holy house, as idolatrous houses are trampled upon. ¹⁹ Blot out our iniquities, and do away with our errors, and show forth your compassion in this hour. ²⁰ Let your mercies quickly go before us. Grant us peace, that the cast down and broken hearted may praise you with their mouth. ²¹ At that time God, who sees all things, who is beyond all Holy among the holy, heard that prayer, so suitable; and scourged the man greatly uplifted with scorn and insolence. ²² Shaking him to and fro as a reed is shaken with the wind, he cast him upon the pavement, powerless, with limbs paralyzed; by a righteous judgment deprived of the faculty of speech. ²³ His friends and bodyguards, beholding the swift recompense which had suddenly overtaken him, struck with exceeding terror, and fearing that he would die, speedily removed him. ²⁴ When in course of time he had come to himself, this severe check caused no repentance within him, but he departed with bitter threatenings. ²⁵ He proceeded to Egypt, grew worse in wickedness through his before mentioned companions in wine, who were lost to all goodness; ²⁶ and not satisfied with countless acts of impiety, his audacity so increased that he raised evil reports there, and many of his friends, watching his purpose attentively, joined in furthering his will. ²⁷ His purpose was to indict a public stigma upon our race; wherefore he erected a pillar at the tower-porch, and caused the following inscription to be engraved upon it: ²⁸ That entrance to their own temple was to be refused to all those who would not sacrifice; that all the Jews were to be registered among the common people; that those who resisted were to be forcibly seized and put to death; ²⁹ that those who were thus registered, were to be marked on their persons by the ivy-leaf symbol of Dionysus, and to be set apart with these limited rights. ³⁰ To do away with the appearance of hating them all, he had it written underneath, that if any of them should elect to enter the community of those initiated in the rites, these should have equal rights with the Alexandrians. ³¹ Some of those who were over the city, therefore, abhorring any approach to the city of piety, unhesitatingly gave in to the king, and expected to derive some great honor from a future connection with him. ³² A nobler spirit, however, prompted the majority to cling to their religious observances, and by paying money that they might live unmolested, these sought to escape the registration: ³³ cheerfully looking forward to future aid, they abhorred their own apostates, considering them to be national foes, and debarring them from the common usages of social intercourse.

3 On discovering this, so incensed was the wicked king, that he no longer confined his rage to the Jews in Alexandria. Laying his hand more heavily upon those who lived in the country, he gave orders that they should be quickly collected into one place, and most cruelly deprived of their lives. ² While this was going on, an invidious rumor was uttered abroad by men who had banded together to injure the Jewish race. The purport of their charge was, that the Jews kept them away from the ordinances of the law. ³ Now, while the Jews always maintained a feeling of unwavering loyalty toward the kings, ⁴ yet, as they worshiped God, and observed his law, they made certain distinctions, and avoided certain things. Hence some persons held them in odium; ⁵ although, as they adorned their conversation with works of righteousness, they had established themselves in the good opinion of the world. ⁶ What all the rest of mankind said, was, however, made of no account by the foreigners; ⁷ who said much of the exclusiveness of the Jews with regard to their worship and meats; they alleged that they were men unsociable, hostile to the king's interests, refusing to associate with him or his troops. By this way of speaking, they brought much odium upon them. ⁸ Nor was this unexpected uproar and sudden conflux of people unobserved by the Greeks who lived in the city, concerning men who had never harmed them: yet to aid them was not in their power, since all was oppression around; but they encouraged them in their troubles, and expected a favorable turn of affairs: ⁹ He who knows all things, will not, said they, disregard so great a people. ¹⁰ Some of the neighbors, friends, and fellow dealers of the Jews, even called them secretly to an interview, pledged them their assistance, and promised to do their very utmost for them. ¹¹ Now the king, elated with his prosperous fortune, and not regarding the superior power of God, but thinking to persevere in his present purpose, wrote the following letter to the prejudice of the Jews. ¹² King Ptolemy Philopater, to the commanders and soldiers in Egypt, and in all places, health and happiness! ¹³ I am right well; and so, too, are my affairs. ¹⁴ Since our Asiatic campaign, the particulars of which you^o know, and which by the aid of the gods, not lightly given, and by our own vigor, has been brought to a successful issue according to our expectation, ¹⁵ we resolved, not with strength of spear, but with gentleness and much humanity, as it were to nurse the inhabitants of Coele-Syria and Phoenicia, and to be their willing benefactors. ¹⁶ So, having bestowed considerable sums of money upon the temples of the several cities, we proceeded even as far as Jerusalem; and went up to honor the temple of these wretched beings who never cease from their folly. ¹⁷ To outward appearance they received us willingly; but belied that appearance by their deeds. When we were eager to enter their temple, and to honor it with the most beautiful and exquisite gifts, ¹⁸ they were so carried away by their old arrogance, as to forbid us the entrance; while we, out of our forbearance toward all men, refrained from exercising our power upon them. ¹⁹ And thus, exhibiting their enmity against us, they alone among the nations lift up their heads against kings and benefactors, as men unwilling to submit to any thing reasonable. ²⁰ We then, having endeavored to make allowance for the madness of these persons, and on our victorious return treating all people in Egypt courteously, acted in a manner which was befitting. ²¹ Accordingly, bearing no ill-will against their kinsmen at Jerusalem, but rather remembering our connection with them, and the numerous matters with sincere heart from a remote period entrusted to them, we wished to venture a total alteration of their state, by giving them the rights of citizens of Alexandria, and to admit them to the everlasting rites of our solemnities. ²² All this, however, they have taken in a very different spirit. With their innate malignity, they have spurned the fair offer; and constantly inclining to evil, ²³ have rejected the inestimable rights. Not only so, but by using speech, and by refraining from speech, they abhor the few among them who are heartily disposed toward us; ever deeming that their ignoble course of procedure will force us to do away with our reform. ²⁴ Having then, received certain proofs that these Jews bear us every sort of ill-will, we must look forward to the possibility of some sudden tumult among ourselves, when these impious men may turn traitors and barbarous enemies. ²⁵ As soon, therefore, as the contents of this letter become known to you, in that same hour we order those Jews who dwell among you, with wives and children, to be sent to us, vilified and abused, in chains of iron, to undergo a death, cruel and ignominious, suitable to men disaffected. ²⁶ For by the punishment of them in one body we perceive that we have found the only means of establishing our affairs for the future on a firm and satisfactory basis. ²⁷ Whosoever shall shield a Jew, whether it be old man, child, or nursing baby, shall with his whole house be tortured to death. ²⁸ Whoever shall inform against the Jews, besides receiving the property of the person charged, shall be presented with two thousand drachmas from the royal treasury, shall be made free, and shall be crowned. ²⁹ Whatever place shall shelter a Jew, shall, when he is hunted forth, be put under the ban of fire, and be forever rendered useless to every living being for all time to come. ³⁰ Such was the purport of the king's letter.

4 Wherever this decree was received, the people kept up a revelry of joy and shouting; as if their long-pent-up, hardened hatred, were now to show itself openly. ²The Jews suffered great throes of sorrow, and wept much; while their hearts, all things around being lamentable, were set on fire as they bewailed the sudden destruction which was decreed against them. ³What home, or city, or place at all inhabited, or what streets were there, which their condition didn't fill with wailing and lamentation? ⁴They were sent out unanimously by the generals in the several cities, with such stern and pitiless feeling, that the exceptional nature of the infliction moved even some of their enemies. These, influenced by sentiments of common humanity, and reflecting upon the uncertain issue of life, shed tears at this their miserable expulsion. ⁵A multitude of aged hoary-haired old men, were driven along with halting bending feet, urged onward by the impulse of a violent, shameless force to quick speed. ⁶Girls who had entered the bridal chamber quite lately, to enjoy the partnership of marriage, exchanged pleasure for misery; and with dust scattered upon their myrrh-anointed heads, were hurried along unveiled; and, in the midst of outlandish insults, set up with one accord a lamentable cry instead of the marriage hymn. ⁷Bound, and exposed to public gaze, they were hurried violently on board ship. ⁸The husbands of these, in the prime of their youthful vigor, instead of crowns wore halters round their necks; instead of feasting and youthful celebration, spent the rest of their nuptial days in wailing, and saw only the grave at hand. ⁹They were dragged along by unyielding chains, like wild beasts: of these, some had their necks thrust into the benches of the rowers; while the feet of others were enclosed in hard fetters. ¹⁰The planks of the deck above them blocked out the light, and shut out the day on every side, so that they might be treated like traitors during the whole voyage. ¹¹They were conveyed accordingly in this vessel, and at the end of it arrived at Schedia. The king had ordered them to be cast into the vast hippodrome, which was built in front of the city. This place was well adapted by its situation to expose them to the gaze of all comers into the city, and of those who went from the city into the country. Thus they could hold no communication with his forces; no, were deemed unworthy of any civilized accommodation. ¹²When this was done, the king, hearing that their kindred in the city often went out and lamented the melancholy distress of these victims, ¹³was full of rage, and commanded that they should be carefully subjected to the same (and not one bit milder) treatment. ¹⁴The whole nation was now to be registered. Every individual was to be specified by name; not for that hard servitude of labor which we have a little before mentioned, but that he might expose them to the before-mentioned tortures; and finally, in the short space of a day, might extirpate them by his cruelties. ¹⁵The registering of these men was carried on cruelly, zealously, assiduously, from the rising of the sun to its going down, and was not brought to an end in forty days. ¹⁶The king was filled with great and constant joy, and celebrated banquets before the temple idols. His erring heart, far from the truth, and his profane mouth, gave glory to idols, deaf and incapable of speaking or aiding, and uttered unworthy speech against the Greatest God. ¹⁷At the end of the above-mentioned interval of time, the registrars brought word to the king that the multitude of the Jews was too great for registration, ¹⁸inasmuch as there were many still left in the land, of whom some were in inhabited houses, and others were scattered about in various places; so that all the commanders in Egypt were insufficient for the work. ¹⁹The king threatened them, and charged them with taking bribes, in order to contrive the escape of the Jews: but was clearly convinced of the truth of what had been said. ²⁰They said, and proved, that paper and pens had failed them for the carrying out of their purpose. ²¹Now this was an active interference of the unconquerable Providence which assisted the Jews from heaven.

5 Then he called Hermon, who had charge of the elephants. Full of rage, altogether fixed in his furious design, ² he commanded him, with a quantity of unmixed wine and handfuls of incense infused to drug the elephants early on the following day. These five hundred elephants were, when infuriated by the copious draughts of frankincense, to be led up to the execution of death upon the Jews. ³ The king, after issuing these orders, went to his feasting, and gathered together all those of his friends and of the army who hated the Jews the most. ⁴ The master of the elephants, Hermon, fulfilled his commission punctually. ⁵ The underlings appointed for the purpose went out about evening and bound the hands of the miserable victims, and took other precautions for their security at night, thinking that the whole race would perish together. ⁶ The heathen believed the Jews to be destitute of all protection; for chains fettered them about. ⁷ they invoked the Almighty Lord, and ceaselessly implored with tears their merciful God and Father, Ruler of all, Lord of every power, ⁸ to overthrow the evil purpose which was gone out against them, and to deliver them by extraordinary manifestation from that death which was in store for them. ⁹ Their litany so earnest went up to heaven. ¹⁰ Then Hermon, who had filled his merciless elephants with copious draughts of mixed wine and frankincense, came early to the palace to certify the kind thereof. ¹¹ He, however, who has sent his good creature sleep from all time by night or by day thus gratifying whom he wills, diffused a portion thereof now upon the king. ¹² By this sweet and profound influence of the Lord he was held fast, and thus his unjust purpose was quite frustrated, and his unflinching resolve greatly falsified. ¹³ But the Jews, having escaped the hour which had been fixed, praised their holy God, and again prayed him who is easily reconciled to display the power of his powerful hand to the overweening Gentiles. ¹⁴ The middle of the tenth hour had well near arrived, when the person who sent invitations, seeing the guests who were invited present, came and shook the king. ¹⁵ He gained his attention with difficulty, and hinting that the meal-time was getting past, talked the matter over with him. ¹⁶ The king listened to this, and then turning aside to his potations, commanded the guests to sit down before him. ¹⁷ This done, he asked them to enjoy themselves, and to indulge in mirth at this somewhat late hour of the banquet. ¹⁸ Conversation grew on, and the king sent for Hermon, and inquired of him, with fierce denunciations, why the Jews had been allowed to outlive that day. ¹⁹ Hermon explained that he had done his bidding over night; and in this he was confirmed by his friends. ²⁰ The king, then, with a barbarity exceeding that of Phalaris, said, That they might thank his sleep of that day. Lose no time, and get ready the elephants against tomorrow, as you did before, for the destruction of these accursed Jews. ²¹ When the king said this, the company present were glad, and approved; and then each man went to his own home. ²² Nor did they employ the night in sleep, so much as in contriving cruel mockeries for those deemed miserable. ²³ The morning cock had just crowed, and Hermon, having harnessed the brutes, was stimulating them in the great colonnade. ²⁴ The city crowds were collected together to see the hideous spectacle, and waited impatiently for the dawn. ²⁵ The Jews, breathless with momentary suspense, stretched forth their hands, and prayed the Greatest God, in mournful strains, again to help them speedily. ²⁶ The sun's rays were not yet shed abroad, and the king was waiting for his friends, when Hermon came to him, calling him out, and saying, That his desires could now be realized. ²⁷ The king, receiving him, was astonished at his unwonted exit; and, overwhelmed with a spirit of oblivion about everything, inquired the object of this earnest preparation. ²⁸ But this was the working of that Almighty God who had made him forget all his purpose. ²⁹ Hermon, and all his friends, pointed out the preparation of the animals. They are ready, O king, according to your own strict injunction. ³⁰ The king was filled with fierce anger at these words; for, by the Providence of God regarding these things, his mind had become entirely confused. He looked hard at Hermon, and threatened him as follows: ³¹ Your parents, or your children, were they here, to these wild beasts a large repast they should have furnished; not these innocent Jews, who me and my forefathers loyally have served. ³² Had it not been for familiar friendship, and the claims of your office, your life should have gone for theirs. ³³ Hermon, being threatened in this unexpected and alarming manner, was troubled in visage, and depressed in countenance. ³⁴ The friends, too, stole out one by one, and dismissed the assembled multitudes to their respective occupations. ³⁵ The Jews, having heard of these events, praised the glorious God and King of kings, because they had obtained this help, too, from him. ³⁶ Now the king arranged another banquet after the same manner, and proclaimed an invitation to mirth. ³⁷ And he summoned Hermon to his presence, and said, with threats, How often, O wretch, must I repeat my orders to you about these same persons? ³⁸ Once more, arm the elephants for the extermination of the Jews tomorrow. ³⁹ His kinsmen, who were reclining with him, wondered at his instability, and thus expressed themselves: ⁴⁰ O king, how long do you make trial of us, as of men bereft of reason? This is the third time that you have ordered their destruction. When the thing is to be done, you change your mind, and recall your instructions. ⁴¹ For this cause the feeling of expectation causes tumult in the city: it swarms with factions; and is continually on the point of being plundered. ⁴² The king, just like another Phalaris, a prey to thoughtlessness, made no account of the changes which his own mind had undergone, issuing in the deliverance of the Jews. He swore a fruitless oath, and determined forthwith to send them to hades, crushed by the knees and feet of the elephants. ⁴³ He would also invade Judea, and level its towns with fire and the sword; and destroy that temple which the heathen might not enter, and prevent sacrifices ever after being offered up there. ⁴⁴ Joyfully his friends broke up, together with his kinsmen; and, trusting in his determination, arranged their forces in guard at the most convenient places of the city. ⁴⁵ And the master of the elephants urged the beasts into an almost maniacal state, drenched them with incense and wine, and decked them with frightful instruments. ⁴⁶ About early morning, when the city was now filled with an immense number of people at the hippodrome, he entered the palace, and called the king to the business in hand. ⁴⁷ The king's heart teemed with impious rage; and he rushed forth with the mass, along with the elephants. With feelings unsoftened, and eyes pitiless, he longed to gaze at the hard and wretched doom of the above-mentioned Jews. ⁴⁸ But the Jews, when the elephants went out at the gate, followed by the armed force; and when they saw the dust raised by the throng, and heard the loud cries of the crowd, ⁴⁹ thought that they had come to the last moment of their lives, to the end of what they had tremblingly expected. They gave way, therefore, to lamentations and moans: they kissed each other: those nearest of kin to each other hung about one another's necks: fathers about their sons, mother their daughters: other women held their infants to their breasts, which drew what seemed their last milk. ⁵⁰ Nevertheless, when they reflected upon the help previously granted them from heaven, they prostrated themselves with one accord; removed even the sucking children from the breasts, and ⁵¹ sent up an exceedingly great cry asking the Lord of all power to reveal himself, and have mercy upon those who now lay at the gates of hades.

6 And Eleazar, an illustrious priest of the country, who had attained to length of days, and whose life had been adorned with virtue, caused the elders who were around him to cease to cry out to the holy God, and prayed thus: ²O king, mighty in power, most high, Almighty God, who regulates the whole creation with your tender mercy, ³look upon the seed of Abraham, upon the children of the sanctified Jacob, your sanctified inheritance, O Father, now being wrongfully destroyed as strangers in a strange land. ⁴You destroyed Pharaoh, with his army of chariots, when that lord of this same Egypt was uplifted with lawless daring and loud-sounding tongue. Shedding the beams of your mercy upon the race of Israel, you did overwhelm him with his proud army. ⁵When Sennacherim, the grievous king of the Assyrians, exulting in his countless army, had subdued the whole land with his spear, and was lifting himself against your holy city, with boastings grievous to be endured, you, O Lord, did demolish him and did show forth your might to many nations. ⁶When the three friends in the land of Babylon of their own will exposed their lives to the fire rather than serve vain things, you did send a moist coolness through the fiery furnace, and bring the fire upon all their adversaries. ⁷It was you who, when Daniel was hurled, through slander and envy, as a prey to lions down below, did bring him back against unhurt to light. ⁸When Jonah was pining away in the belly of the sea-bred monster, you did look upon him, O Father, and recover him to the sight of his own. ⁹And now, you who hate insolence; you who do abound in mercy; you who are the protector of all things; appear quickly to those of the race of Israel, who are insulted by abhorred, lawless gentiles. ¹⁰If our life has during our exile been stained with iniquity, deliver us from the hand of the enemy, and destroy us, O Lord, by the death which you prefer. ¹¹Let not the vain-minded congratulate vain idols at the destruction of your beloved, saying, Neither did their god deliver them. ¹²You, who are All-powerful and Almighty, O Eternal One, behold! have mercy upon us who are being withdrawn from life, like traitors, by the unreasoning insolence of lawless men. ¹³Let the heathen cower before your invincible might today, O glorious One, who have all power to save the race of Jacob. ¹⁴The whole band of infants and their parents with tears beseech you. ¹⁵Let it be shown to all the nations that you are with us, O Lord, and have not turned your face away from us; but as you said that you would not forget them even in the land of their enemies, so do you fulfill this saying, O Lord. ¹⁶Now, at the time that Eleazar had ended his prayer, the king came along to the hippodrome, with the wild beasts, and with his tumultuous power. ¹⁷When the Jews saw this, they uttered a loud cry to heaven, so that the adjacent valleys resounded, and caused an irrepressible lamentation throughout the army. ¹⁸Then the all-glorious, all-powerful, and true God, displayed his holy countenance, and opened the gates of heaven, from which two angels, dreadful of form, came down and were visible to all but the Jews. ¹⁹And they stood opposite, and filled the enemies' army with confusion and cowardice; and bound them with immoveable fetters. ²⁰And a cold shudder came over the person of the king, and oblivion paralyzed the vehemence of his spirit. ²¹They turned back the animals upon the armed forces which followed them; and the animals trod them down, and destroyed them. ²²The king's wrath was converted into compassion; and he wept at his own machinations. ²³For when he heard the cry, and saw them all on the verge of destruction, with tears he angrily threatened his friends, saying, ²⁴You^o have governed badly; and have exceeded tyrants in cruelty; and me your benefactor you^o have labored to deprive at once of my dominion and my life, by secretly devising measures injurious to the kingdom. ²⁵Who has gathered here, unreasonably removing each from his home, those who, in fidelity to us, had held the fortresses of the country? ²⁶Who has thus consigned to unmerited punishments those who in good will toward us from the beginning have in all things surpassed all nations, and who often have engaged in the most dangerous undertakings? ²⁷ Loose, loose the unjust bonds; send them to their homes in peace, and deprecate what has been done. ²⁸ Release the sons of the almighty living God of heaven, who from our ancestors' times until now has granted a glorious and uninterrupted prosperity to our affairs. ²⁹ These things he said; and they, released the same moment, having now escaped death, praised God their holy Savior. ³⁰ The king then departed to the city, and called his financier to him, and asked him provide a seven days' quantity of wine and other materials for feasting for the Jews. He decided that they should keep a gladsome festival of deliverance in the very place in which they expected to meet with their destruction. ³¹ Then they who were before despised and near to hades, yes, rather advanced into it, partook of the cup of salvation, instead of a grievous and lamentable death. Full of exultation, they parted out the place intended for their fall and burial into banqueting booths. ³² Ceasing their miserable strain of woe, they took up the subject of their fatherland, hymning in praise God their wonder-working Savior. All groans, all wailing, were laid aside: they formed dances in token of serene joy. ³³ So, also, the king collected a number of guests for the occasion, and returned unceasing thanks with much magnificence for the unexpected deliverance afforded him. ³⁴ Those who had marked them out as for death and for carrion, and had registered them with joy, howled aloud, and were clothed with shame, and had the fire of their rage ingloriously put out. ³⁵ But the Jews, as we just said, instituted a dance, and then gave themselves up to feasting, glad thanksgiving, and psalms. ³⁶ They made a public ordinance to commemorate these things for generations to come, as long as they should be sojourners. They thus established these days as days of mirth, not for the purpose of drinking or luxury, but because God had saved them. ³⁷ They requested the king to send them back to their homes. ³⁸ They were being enrolled from the twenty-fifth of Pachon to the fourth of Epiphi, a period of forty days: the measures taken for their destruction lasted from the fifth of Epiphi till the seventh, that is, three days. ³⁹ The Ruler over all did during this time manifest forth his mercy gloriously, and did deliver them all together unharmed. ⁴⁰ They feasted upon the king's provision up to the fourteenth day, and then asked to be sent away. ⁴¹ The king commended them, and wrote the following letter, of magnanimous import for them, to the commanders of every city.

7 King Ptolemy Philopator to the commanders throughout Egypt, and to all who are set over affairs, joy and strength. ² We, too, and our children are well; and God has directed our affairs as we wish. ³ Certain of our friends did of malice vehemently urge us to punish the Jews of our realm in a body, with the infliction of a monstrous punishment. ⁴ They pretended that our affairs would never be in a good state till this took place. Such, they said, was the hatred borne by the Jews to all other people. ⁵ They brought them fettered in grievous chains as slaves, no, as traitors. Without enquiry or examination they endeavored to annihilate them. They buckled themselves with a savage cruelty, worse than Scythian custom. ⁶ For this cause we severely threatened them; yet, with the clemency which we are wont to extend to all men, we at length permitted them to live. Finding that the God of heaven cast a shield of protection over the Jews so as to preserve them, and that he fought for them as a father always fights for his sons; ⁷ and taking into consideration their constancy and fidelity toward us and toward our ancestors, we have, as we ought, acquitted them of every sort of charge. ⁸ And we have dismissed them to their several homes; bidding all men everywhere to do them no wrong, or unrighteously revile them about the past. ⁹ For know you°, that should we conceive any evil design, or in any way aggrieve them, we shall ever have as our opposite, not man, but the highest God, the ruler of all might. From Him there will be no escape, as the avenger of such deeds. Fare you^o well. ¹⁰When they had received this letter, they were not forward to depart immediately. They petitioned the king to be allowed to inflict fitting punishment upon those of their race who had willingly transgressed the holy god, and the law of God. ¹¹They alleged that men who had for their bellies' sake transgressed the ordinances of God, would never be faithful to the interests of the king. ¹²The king admitted the truth of this reasoning, and commended them. Full power was given them, without warrant or special commission, to destroy those who had transgressed the law of God boldly in every part of the king's dominions. ¹³Their priests, then, as it was meet, saluted him with good wishes, and all the people echoed with the Hallelujah. They then joyfully departed. ¹⁴Then they punished and destroyed with ignominy every polluted Jew that fell in their way; ¹⁵slaying thus, in that day, above three hundred men, and esteeming this destruction of the wicked a season of joy. ¹⁶They themselves having held fast their God to death, and having enjoyed a full deliverance, departed from the city garlanded with sweet-flowered wreaths of every kind. Uttering exclamations of joy, with songs of praise, and melodious hymns they thanked the God of their fathers, the eternal Savior of Israel. ¹⁷Having arrived at Ptolemais, called from the specialty of that district Rose-bearing, where the fleet, in accordance with the general wish, waited for them seven days, ¹⁸they partook of a banquet of deliverance, for the king generously granted them severally the means of securing a return home. ¹⁹They were accordingly brought back in peace, while they gave utterance to becoming thanks; and they determined to keep these days during their sojourn as days of joyfulness. ²⁰These they registered as sacred upon a pillar, when they had dedicated the place of their festivity to be one of prayer. They departed unharmed, free, abundant in joy, preserved by the king's command, by land, by sea, and by river, each to his own home. ²¹They had more weight than before among their enemies; and were honored and feared, and no one in any way robbed them of their goods. ²²Every man received back his own, according to inventory; those who had obtained their goods, giving them up with the greatest terror. For the greatest God made perfect wonders for their salvation. ²³Blessed be the Redeemer of Israel to everlasting. Amen.

THE SECOND BOOK OF ESDRAS

The Second Book of Esdras is included in the Slavonic Bible as 3 Esdras, but is not found in the Greek Septuagint. It is included in the Appendix to the Latin Vulgate Bible as 4 Esdras. It is considered to be Apocrypha by most church traditions. It is preserved here for its supplementary historical value.

1 The second book of the prophet Esdras, the son of Saraias, the son of Azaraias, the son of Helkias, the son of Salemas, the son of Sadoc, the son of Ahitob, ² the son of Achias, the son of Phinees, the son of Heli, the son of Amarias, the son of Azieci, the son of Marimoth, the son of Arna, the son of Ozias, the son of Borith, the son of Abissei, the son of Phinees, the son of Eleazar, ³ the son of Aaron, of the tribe of Levi; which was captive in the land of the Medes, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of the Persians.

¹³ The Lord says, of a truth I brought you through the sea, and where there was no path I made for you highways; I gave you Moses for a leader, and Aaron for a priest. ¹⁴ I gave you light in a pillar of fire, and great wonders have I done among you; yet have you^o forgotten me, says the Lord.

¹⁵ The Lord Almighty says, The quails were for a token to you; I gave you a camp for your protection, nevertheless you^o murmured there: ¹⁶ and you^o triumphed not in my name for the destruction of your enemies, but ever to this day do you^o yet murmur. ¹⁷ Where are the benefits that I have done for you? when you^o were hungry and thirsty in the wilderness, did you^o not cry to me, ¹⁸ saying, Why have you brought us into this wilderness to kill us? it had been better for us to have served the Egyptians, than to die in this wilderness. ¹⁹ I had pity upon your mourning, and gave you manna for food; you^o did eat angels' bread. ²⁰ When you^o were thirsty, did I not cleave the rock, and waters flowed out to your fill? for the heat I covered you with the leaves of the trees. ²¹ I divided among you fruitful lands; I cast out the Canaanites, the Pherezites, and the Philistines, before you: what shall I yet do more for you? says the Lord.

²² The Lord Almighty says, When you^o were in the wilderness, at the bitter river, being thirsty, and blaspheming my name, ²³ I gave you not fire for your blasphemies, but cast a tree in the water, and made the river sweet. ²⁴ What shall I do to you, O Jacob? you, Judah, would not obey me: I will turn me to other nations, and I will give my name to them, that they may keep my statutes. ²⁵ Seeing you^o have forsaken me, I also will forsake you; when you^o ask me to be merciful to you, I will have no mercy upon you. ²⁶ Whenever you^o shall call upon me, I will not hear you: for you^o have defiled your hands with blood, and your feet are swift to commit manslaughter. ²⁷ You^o have not as it were forsaken me, but your own selves, says the Lord.

28 The Lord Almighty says, Have I not prayed you as a father his sons, as a mother her daughters, and a nurse her young babes, 29 that you^o would be my people, and I should be your God; that you^o would be my children, and I should be your father? 30 I gathered you together, as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings: but now, what shall I do to you? I will cast you out from my presence. 31 When you^o offer oblations to me, I will turn my face from you: for your solemn feast days, your new moons, and your circumcisions of the flesh, have I rejected. 32 I sent to you my servants the prophets, whom you^o have taken and slain, and torn their bodies in pieces, whose blood I will require of your hands, says the Lord.

33 The Lord Almighty says, Your house is desolate, I will cast you out as the wind does stubble. 34 And your children shall not be fruitful; for they have neglected my commandment †to you, and done that which is evil before me. 35 I will give your houses to a people that will come; which not having heard of me yet believe me; they to whom I have showed no signs shall do that which I have commanded. 36 They have seen no prophets, yet they shall call their former estate to remembrance. 37 I take to witness the grace of the people that shall come, whose little ones rejoice with gladness: and though they see me not with bodily eyes, yet in spirit they shall believe the thing that I say.

38 And now, O father, behold with glory; and see the people that come from the east: 39 to whom I will give for leaders, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Oseas, Amos, and Micheas, Joel, Abdias, and Jonas, 40 Nahum, and Abacuc, Sophonias, Aggaeus, Zachary, and Malachy, which is called also the angel of the Lord.

2 The Lord says, I brought this people out of bondage, and I gave them my commandments by my servants the prophets; whom they would not hear, but set my counsels at nothing. 2 The mother that bare them says to them, go your way, O my children; for I am a widow and forsaken. 3 I brought you up with gladness, and with sorrow and heaviness have I lost you: for you^o have sinned before the Lord God, and done that which is evil before me. 4 But what shall I now do to you? for I am a widow and forsaken: go your way, O my children, and ask mercy of the Lord. 5 As for me, O father, I call upon you for a witness over the mother of these children, because they would not keep my covenant, 6 that you bring them to confusion, and their mother to a plunder, that there may be no offspring of them. 7 Let them be scattered abroad among the heathen, let their names be blotted out of the earth: for they have despised my ‡covenant. 8 Woe to you, Assur, you that hide the unrighteous with you! O you wicked nation, remember what I did to Sodom and Gomorrah; 9 whose land lies in clods of pitch and heaps of ashes: even so I will also do to those who have not listened to me, says the Lord Almighty.

10 The Lord says to Esdras, Tell my people that I will give them the kingdom of Jerusalem, which I would have given to Israel. 11 I will also take their glory me, and give these the everlasting tabernacles, which I had prepared for them. 12 They shall have the tree of life for an ointment of sweet savor; they shall neither labor, nor be weary. 13 ¶Ask, and you^o shall receive: pray for few days to you, that they may be shortened: the kingdom is already prepared for you: watch. 14 Take heaven and earth to witness, take them to witness; for I have given up the evil, and created the good: for I live, says the Lord.

15 Mother, embrace your children; I will bring them out with gladness like a dove; establish their feet; for I have chosen you, says the Lord. 16 And I will raise those who are dead up again from their places, and bring them out from their tombs: for I have known my name in them. 17 Don't be afraid, you mother of the children: for I have chosen you, says the Lord. 18 For your help I will send my servants Esaias and Jeremy, after whose counsel I have sanctified and prepared for you twelve trees laden with various fruits, 19 and as many springs flowing with milk and honey, and seven mighty mountains, whereupon there grow roses and lilies, whereby I will fill your children with joy. 20 Do right to the widow, judge the fatherless, give to the poor, defend the orphan, clothe the naked, 21 heal the broken and the weak, laugh not a lame man to scorn, defend the maimed, and let the blind man come to the sight of my glory. 22 Keep the old and young within your walls. 23 Wherever you find the dead, set a sign upon them and commit them to the grave, and I will give you the first place in my resurrection. 24 Stay still, O my people, and take your rest, for your quietness shall come. 25 Nourish your children, O you good nurse, and establish their feet. 26 As for the servants whom I have given you, there shall not one of them perish; for I will require them from among your number. 27 Be not careful overmuch: for when the day of suffering and anguish comes, others shall weep and be sorrowful, but you shall be merry and have abundance. 28 The nations shall envy you, but they shall be able to do nothing against you, says the Lord. 29 My hands shall cover you, so that your children see not hell. 30 Be joyful, O you mother, with your children; for I will deliver you, says the Lord. 31 Remember your children that sleep, for I shall bring them out of the secret places of the earth, and show mercy to them: for I am merciful, says the Lord Almighty. 32 Embrace your children until I come, and proclaim mercy to them: for my wells run over, and my grace shall not fail.

33 I Esdras received a charge from the Lord upon the mount Horeb, that I should go to Israel; but when I came to them, they would none of me, and rejected the commandment of the Lord. 34 And therefore I say to you, O you nations, that hear and understand, look for your shepherd, he shall give you everlasting rest; for he is near at hand, that shall come in the end of the world. 35 Be ready to the rewards of the kingdom, for the everlasting light shall shine upon you for evermore. 36 Flee the shadow of this world, receive the joyfulness of your glory: I call to witness my savior openly. 37 O receive that which is given you of the Lord, and be joyful, giving thanks to him that has called you to heavenly kingdoms. 38 Arise up and stand, and behold the number of those that be sealed in the feast of the Lord; 39 those who withdrew them from the shadow of the world have received glorious garments of the Lord. 40 †† Look upon your number, O Sion, and make up the reckoning of those of your that are clothed in white, which have fulfilled the law of the Lord. 41 The number of your children, whom you long for, is fulfilled: beseech the power of the Lord, that your people, which have been called from the beginning, may be hallowed.

42 I Esdras saw upon the mount Sion a great multitude, whom I could not number, and they all praised the Lord with songs. 43 And in the midst of them there was a young man of a high stature, taller than all the rest, and upon every one of their heads he set crowns, and was more exalted. I marveled greatly at this. 44 So I asked the angel, and said, What are these, my Lord? 45 He answered and said to me, These be those who have put off the mortal clothing, and put on the immortal, and have confessed the name of God: now are they crowned, and receive palms. ⁴⁶Then said I to the angel, What young man is he that sets crowns upon them, and gives them palms in their hands? ⁴⁷So he answered and said to me, It is the Son of God, whom they have confessed in the world. Then began I greatly to commend those who stood so stiffly for the name of the Lord. ⁴⁸Then the angel said to me, Go your way, and tell my people what manner of things, and how great wonders of the Lord God you have seen.

3 In the thirties year after the ruin of the city, I Salathiel (also called Esdras) was in Babylon, and lay troubled upon my bed, and my thoughts came up over my heart: ²for I saw the desolation of Sion, and the wealth of those who lived at Babylon. ³And my spirit was sore moved, so that I began to speak words full of fear to the Most High, and said, ⁴O Lord that bear rule, did you not not speak at the beginning, when you did fashion the earth, and that yourself alone, and command the ¶dust. ⁵and it ¶¶gave you Adam, a body without a soul? yet it was the workmanship of your hands, and you did breathe into him the breath of life, and he was made living before you. ⁶And you led him into paradise, which your right hand did plant, before ever the earth came forward. ⁷And to him you gave your one commandment: which he transgressed, and immediately you appointed death for him and in his generations; and there were born of him nations and tribes, peoples and kindred, out of number. ⁸And every nation walked after their own will, and did ungodly things before you, and despised your commandments, and you didn't forbid them. ⁹Nevertheless again in process of time you brought the flood upon those that lived in the world, and destroyed them. ¹⁰And it came to pass that the same hap befell them; like as death was to Adam, so was the flood to these. ¹¹Nevertheless one of them you left, Noah with his household, even all the righteous men that came of him. ¹²And it came to pass, that when those who lived upon the earth began to multiply, they multiplied also children, and peoples, and many nations, and began again to be more ungodly than the first. ¹³And it came to pass, when they did wickedly before you, you did choose you one from among them, whose name was Abraham; ¹⁴and him you loved, and to him only you showed the end of the times secretly by night: ¹⁵and made an everlasting covenant with him, promising him that you would never forsake his seed. ¹⁶And to him you gave Isaac, and to Isaac you gave Jacob and Esau. And you did set apart Jacob for yourself, but did put by Esau: and Jacob became a great multitude. ¹⁷And it came to pass, that when you led his seed out of Egypt, you brought them up to the mount Sinai. ¹⁸You bowed the heavens also, and did §§shake the earth, and movedst the whole world, and made the depths to tremble, and troubled the course of that age. ¹⁹And your glory went through four gates, of fire, and of earthquake, and of wind, and of cold; that you might give the law to the seed of Jacob, and the commandment to the generation of Israel. ²⁰And yet took you not away from them their *wicked heart, that your law might bring forth fruit in them. ²¹For the first Adam bearing a †wicked heart transgressed, and was overcome; and not he only, but all they also that are born of him. ²²Thus disease was made permanent; and the law was in the heart of the people along with the wickedness of the root; so the good departed away, and that which was wicked abode still. ²³ So the times passed away, and the years were brought to an end: then did you raise you up a servant, called David, ²⁴ whom you commanded to build a city to your name, and to offer oblations to you therein of your own. ²⁵ When this was done many years, then those who inhabited the city did evil, ²⁶ in all things doing even as Adam and all his generations had done: for they also bare a wicked heart: ²⁷ and so you gave your city over into the hands of your enemies. ²⁸ And I said then in my heart, are their deeds any better that inhabit Babylon? and has she therefore dominion over Sion? ²⁹ For it came to pass when I came here, that I saw also impieties without number, and my soul saw many evil-doers in this thirties year, so that my heart failed me. ³⁰ For I have seen how you suffer them sinning, and have spared the ungodly doers, and have destroyed your people, and have preserved your enemies; and you have not signified ³¹ to any how your way may be comprehended. Are the deeds of Babylon better than those of Sion? ³² Or is there any other nation that knows you beside Israel? or what tribes have so believed your covenants as these tribes of Jacob? ³³ And yet their reward appears not, and their labor has no fruit: for I have gone here and there through the nations, and I see that they abound in wealth, and think not upon your commandments. ³⁴ Weigh you therefore our iniquities now in the balance, and theirs also that dwell in the world; and so shall it be found which way the scale inclines. ³⁵ Or when was it that they which dwell upon the earth have not sinned in your sight? or what nation has so kept your commandments? ³⁶ You shall find that men who may be reckoned by name have kept your precepts; but nations you shall not find.

4 And the angel that was sent to me, whose name was Uriel, gave me an answer, ² and said to me, your heart has utterly failed you in regarding this world, and think you to comprehend the way of the Most High?

³ Then said I, Yes my Lord.

And he answered me, and said, I am sent to show you three ways, and to set forth three similitudes before you: ⁴ whereof if you can declare me one, I also will show you the way that you desire to see, and I will teach you wherefore the heart is wicked.

⁵ And I said, say on, my Lord.

Then said he to me, Go to, weigh me a weight of fire, or measure me a measure of wind, or call me again the day that is past.

⁶ Then answered I and said, who of the sons of men is able to do this, that you should ask me of such things?

⁷ And he said to me, If I had asked you, saying, How many dwellings are there in the heart of the sea? or how many springs are there at the fountain head of the deep? or how many ways are above the firmament? or which are the exits of hell? or which are the paths of paradise? ⁸ perhaps you would say to me, I never went down into the deep, nor as yet into hell, neither did I ever climb up into heaven. ⁹ Nevertheless now have I asked you but only of the fire and wind, and of the day, things

¹⁰He said moreover to me, Your own things, that are grown up with you, can you not know; ¹¹how then can your vessel comprehend the way of the Most High? and how can he that is already worn out with the corrupted world understand †incorruption?

¹²‡And when I heard these things I fell upon my face, and said to him, It were better that we were not here at all, than that we should come here and live in the midst of ungodliness, and suffer, and not know wherefore.

¹³He answered me, and said, ¶The woods of the trees of the field went forth, and took counsel together, ¹⁴and said, Come! Let's go and make war against the sea, that it may depart away before us, and that we may make us more woods. ¹⁵The waves of the sea also in like manner took counsel together, and said, Come! Let's go up and subdue the wood of the plain, that there also we may make us another country. ¹⁶The counsel of the wood was in vain, for the fire came and consumed it: ¹⁷likewise also the counsel of the waves of the sea, for the sand stood up and stopped them. ¹⁸If you were judge now between these two, whom would you justify, or whom condemn?

¹⁹I answered and said, it is a foolish counsel that they both have taken, for the ground is given to the wood, and the place of the sea is given to bear his waves.

²⁰Then answered he me, and said, You have given a right judgement, and why judge you not in your own case? ²¹For like as the ground is given to the wood, and the sea to his waves, even so those who dwell upon the earth may understand nothing but that which is upon the earth: and he only that dwells above the heavens may understand the things that are above the height of the heavens.

²²Then answered I and said, I beseech you, O Lord, §wherefore is the power of understanding given to me? ²³For it was not in my mind to be curious of the ways above, but of such things as pass by us daily; because Israel is given up as a reproach to the heathen, and the people whom you have loved is given over to ungodly nations, and the law of our forefathers is made of none effect, and the written covenants are nowhere regarded, ²⁴and we pass away out of the world as grasshoppers, and our life is as a vapor, neither are we worthy to obtain mercy. ²⁵What will he then do for his name whereby we are called? Of these things have I asked.

²⁶Then he answered me, and said, if you be alive you shall see, and if you live ††long, you shall marvel; for the world hastens fast to pass away. ²⁷For it is not able to bear the things that are promised to the righteous in the times to come: for this world is full of sadness and infirmities. ²⁸For the evil †‡whereof you asked me is sown, but the gathering thereof is not yet come. ²⁹If therefore that which is sown be not reaped, and if the place where the evil is sown pass not away, there can't come the field where the good is sown. ³⁰For a grain of evil seed was sown in the heart of Adam from the beginning, and how much wickedness has it brought forth to this time! and how much shall it yet bring forth until the ¶time of threshing come! ³¹ Ponder now by yourself, how great fruit of wickedness a grain of evil seed has brought forth. ³² When the ears which are without number shall be sown, how great a floor shall they fill!

³³ Then I answered and said, §§How long? and when shall these things come to pass? wherefore are our years few and evil?

³⁴ And he answered me, and said, You do not hasten more than the Most High: for your haste is *for your own self, but he that is above hastens on behalf of many. ³⁵ Did not the souls of the righteous ask question of these things in their chambers, saying, How long †are we here? when comes the fruit of the ‡threshing time of our reward? ³⁶ And to them Jeremiel the archangel gave answer, and said, Even when the number is fulfilled of those who are like to you. For he has weighed the world in the balance; ³⁷ and by measure has he measured the times, and by number has he counted the seasons; and he shall not ¶move nor stir them, until the said measure be fulfilled.

³⁸ Then answered I and said, O Lord that bear rule, yet even we all are full of impiety: ³⁹ and for our sakes perhaps it is that the §threshing time of the righteous is kept back, because of the sins of those who dwell upon the earth. ⁴⁰ So he answered me, and said, Go your way to a woman with child, and ask of her when she has fulfilled her nine months, if her womb may keep the birth any longer within her.

⁴¹ Then said I, no, Lord, that can it not.

And he said to me, in the grave the chambers of souls are like the womb: ⁴² for like as a woman that travails makes haste to escape the anguish of the travail: even so do these places haste to deliver those things that are committed to them from the beginning. ⁴³ Then shall it be showed you concerning those things which you desire to see.

⁴⁴ Then answered I and said, if I have found favor in your sight, and if it be possible, and if I be meet therefore, ⁴⁵ show me this also, whether there be more to come than is past, or whether the more part is gone over us. ⁴⁶ For what is gone I know, but what is for to come I know not.

⁴⁷ And he said to me, Stand up upon the right side, and I shall expound the similitude to you.

⁴⁸ so I stood, and saw, and, behold, a hot burning oven passed by before me: and it happened, that when the flame was gone by I looked, and, behold, the smoke remained still. ⁴⁹ After this there passed by before me a watery cloud, and sent down much rain with a storm; and when the stormy rain was past, the drops remained therein still.

⁵⁰ Then said he to me, Consider with yourself; as the rain is more than the drops, and the fire is greater than the smoke, so the quantity which is past did more exceed; but the drops and the smoke remained still.

⁵¹ Then I prayed, and said, May I live, think you, until that time? or who shall be in those days?

⁵² He answered me, and said, As for the tokens whereof you asked me, I may tell you of them in part: but as touching your life, I am not sent to show you; for I do not know it.

5 Nevertheless as concerning the tokens, behold, the days shall come, that they which dwell upon earth shall be taken with great amazement, and the way of truth shall be hidden, and the land shall be barren of faith. ² But iniquity shall be increased above that which now you see, or that you have heard long ago. ³ And the land, that you see now to have rule, shall be waste and ††untrodden, and men shall see it desolate. ⁴ But if the Most High grant you to live, you shall see that which is after the third kingdom to be troubled; and the sun shall suddenly shine forth in the night, and the moon in the day: ⁵ and blood shall drop out of wood, and the stone shall give his voice, and the peoples shall be troubled; and ††their goings shall be changed: ⁶ and he shall rule, whom those who dwell upon the earth look not for, and the fowls shall take their flight away together: ⁷ and the Sodomite sea shall cast out fish, and make a noise in the night, which many have not known: but all shall hear the voice thereof. ⁸ There shall be chaos also in many places, and the fire shall be often sent out, and the wild beasts shall change their places, and women shall bring forth monsters: ⁹ and salt waters shall be found in the sweet, and all friends shall destroy one another; then shall wit hide itself, and understanding withdraw itself into its chamber; ¹⁰ and it shall be sought of many, and shall not be found: and unrighteousness and incontinency shall be multiplied upon earth. ¹¹ One land also shall ask another, and say, Is righteousness, is a man that does righteousness, gone through you? And it shall say, No. ¹² And it shall come to pass at that time that men shall hope, but shall not obtain: they shall labor, but their ways shall not prosper. ¹³ To show you such tokens I have leave; and if you will pray again, and weep as now, and fast seven days, you shall hear yet greater things than these.

¹⁴ Then I awaked, and an extreme trembling went through my body, and my mind was troubled, so that it fainted. ¹⁵ So the angel that was come to talk with me held me, comforted me, and set me up upon my feet. ¹⁶ And in the second night it came to pass, that ¶¶Phaltiel the captain of the people came to me, saying, Where have you been? and why is your countenance sad? ¹⁷ or know you not that Israel is committed to you in the land of their captivity? ¹⁸ Up then, and eat some bread, and forsake us not, as the shepherd that leaves in the hands of cruel wolves. ¹⁹ Then said I to him, Go your ways from me, and come not near me for seven days, and then shall you come to me. And he heard what I said, and went from me.

²⁰ And so I fasted seven days, mourning and weeping, like as Uriel the angel commanded me. ²¹ And after seven days, so it was, that the thoughts of my heart were very grievous to me again, ²² and my soul recovered the spirit of understanding, and I began to speak words before the Most High again, ²³ and said, O Lord that bear rule, of all the woods of the earth, and of all the trees thereof, you have chosen you one vine: ²⁴ and of all the lands of the world you have chosen you one §§country: and of all the flowers of the world you have chosen you one lily: ²⁵ and of all the depths of the sea you have filled you one river: and of all built cities you have hallowed Sion to yourself: ²⁶ and of all the fowls that are created you have named you one dove: and of all the cattle that are made you have provided you one sheep: ²⁷ and among all the multitudes of peoples you have gotten you one people: and to this people, whom you loved, you gave a law that is approved of all. ²⁸ And now, O Lord, why have you given this one people over to many, and *have dishonored the one root above others, and have scattered your only one among many? ²⁹ And they which did gain-say your promises have trodden them down that believed your covenants. ³⁰ If you do so much hate your people, they should be punished with your own hands.

³¹ Now when I had spoken these words, the angel that came to me the night before was sent to me, ³² and said to me, Hear me, and I will instruct you; listen to me, and I shall tell you more.

³³ And I said, Speak on, my Lord. Then said he to me, You are sore troubled in mind for Israel's sake: love you that people better than he that made them?

³⁴ And I said, No, Lord: but of very grief have I spoken: for my reins torment me every hour, while I labor to comprehend the way of the Most High, and to seek out part of his judgement.

³⁵ And he said to me, You can not. And I said, Wherefore, Lord, or whereunto was I born? or why was not my mother's womb then my grave, that I might not have seen the travail of Jacob, and the wearisome toil of the stock of Israel?

³⁶ And he said to me, Number me those who are not yet come, gather me together the drops that are scattered abroad, make me the flowers green again that are withered, ³⁷ open me the chambers that are closed, and bring me forth the winds that in them are shut up, or show me the image of a voice: and then I will declare to you the travail that you asked to see.

³⁸ And I said, O Lord that bear rule, who may know these things, but he that has not his dwelling with men? ³⁹ As for me, I am unwise: how may I then speak of these things whereof you asked me?

⁴⁰ Then said he to me, Just as you can do none of these things that I have spoken of, even so can you not find out my judgement, or the end of the love that I have promised to my people.

⁴¹ And I said, But, behold, O Lord, you have made the promise to those who be in the end: and what shall they do that have been before us, or we that be now, or those who shall come after us?

⁴² And he said to me, I will liken my judgement to a ring: like as there is no slackness of those who are last, even so there is no swiftness of those who be first.

⁴³ So I answered and said, Coudest you not make them to be at once that have been made, and that be now, and that are for to come; that you might show your judgment the sooner?

⁴⁴ Then answered he me, and said, The creature may not haste above the creator; neither may the world hold them at once that shall be created therein.

⁴⁵ And I said, How have you said to your servant, that †you will surely make alive at once the creature that you have created? ‡If therefore they shall be alive at once, and the creature shall sustain them: even so it might now also support them to be present at once.

⁴⁶ And he said to me, Ask the womb of a woman, and say to her, If you bring forth ten children, why do you it at several times? pray her therefore to bring forth ten children at once.

⁴⁷ And I said, she can't: but must do it by distance of time.

⁴⁸ Then said he to me, Even so have I given the womb of the earth to those that be sown therein in their several times. ⁴⁹ For like as a young child may not bring forth, neither she that is grown old bring forth any more, even so have I disposed the world which I created.

50 And I asked, and said, Seeing you have now showed me the way, I will speak before you: Is our mother, of whom you have told me, still young? or does she now draw near to age?

51 He answered me, and said, Ask a woman that bears children, and she shall tell you. 52 Say to her, wherefore are not they whom you have now brought forth like those that were before, but less of stature? 53 And she also shall answer you, They that be born in the strength of youth are of one fashion, and those who are born in the time of age, when the womb fails, are otherwise. 54 Consider therefore you also, how that you^o are less of stature than those that were before you. 55 And so are those who come after you less than you^o, as born of the creature which now begins to be old, and is past the strength of youth.

56 Then said I, Lord, I beseech you, if I have found favor in your sight, show your servant by whom you visit your creature.

6 And he said to me, In the beginning, when the earth was made, before the portals of the world were fixed, or ever the gatherings of the winds blew, 2 before the voices of the thunder sounded and before the flashes of the lightning shone, or ever the foundations of paradise were laid, 3 before the fair flowers were seen, or ever the powers of the earthquake were established, before the innumerable army of angels were gathered together, 4 or ever the heights of the air were lifted up, before the measures of the firmament were named, or ever the footstool of Sion ¶was established, 5 and before the present years were sought out, and or ever the imaginations of those who now sin were estranged, before they were sealed that have gathered faith for a treasure: 6 then did I consider these things, and they all were made through me alone, and through none other: as by me also they shall be ended, and by none other.

7 Then answered I and said, what shall be the parting asunder of the times? or when shall be the end of the first, and the beginning of it that follows?

8 And he said to me, From §Abraham to Abraham, inasmuch as Jacob and Esau were born of him, for Jacob's hand held the heel of Esau from the beginning. 9 For Esau is the end of this world, and Jacob is the beginning of it that follows. 10 ††The beginning of a man is his hand, and the end of a man is his heel; between the heel and the hand seek you nothing else, Esdras.

11 I answered then and said, O Lord that bear rule, If I have found favor in your sight, 12 I beseech you, show your servant the end of your tokens, whereof you showed me part the last night.

13 So he answered and said to me, Stand up upon your feet, and you shall hear a mighty sounding voice; 14 and if the place you stand on is greatly moved, 15 when it speaks be you not afraid: for the word is of the end, and the foundations of the earth shall understand, 16 that the speech is of them: they shall tremble and be moved: for they know that their end must be changed.

17 And it happened, that when I had heard it I stood up upon my feet, and listened, and, behold, there was a voice that spoke, and the sound of it was like the sound of many waters. 18 And it said, Behold, the days come, and it shall be that when I draw near to visit those who dwell upon the earth, 19 and when I shall make inquisition of those who have done hurt unjustly with their unrighteousness, and when the affliction of Sion shall be fulfilled, 20 and when the seal shall be set upon the world that is to pass away, then I will show these tokens: the books shall be opened before the firmament, and all shall see together: ²¹ and the children of a year old shall speak with their voices, the women with child shall bring forth untimely children at three or four months, and they shall live, and dance. ²² And suddenly shall the sown places appear unsown, the full storehouses shall suddenly be found empty: ²³ and the trumpet shall give a sound, which when every man hears, they shall be suddenly afraid. ²⁴ At that time shall friends make war one against another like enemies, and the earth shall stand in fear with those that dwell therein, the springs of the springs shall stand still, so that for three hours they shall not run. ²⁵ And it shall be that whoever remains after all these things that I have told you of, he shall be saved, and shall see my salvation, and the end of my world. ²⁶ And they shall see the men that have been taken up, who have not tasted death from their birth: and the heart of the inhabitants shall be changed, and turned into another meaning. ²⁷ For evil shall be blotted out, and deceit shall be quenched; ²⁸ and faith shall flourish, and corruption shall be overcome, and the truth, which has been so long without fruit, shall be declared.

²⁹ And when he talked with me, behold, by little and little the place I stood on^{‡‡} rocked to and fro. ³⁰ And he said to me, These things came I to show you^{¶¶} this night. ³¹ If therefore you will pray yet again, and fast seven days more, I shall yet^{§§} tell you greater things than these. ³² For your voice has surely been heard before the Most High: for the Mighty has seen your righteous dealing, he has seen aforetime also your chastity, which you have had ever since your youth. ³³ And therefore has he sent me to show you all these things, and to say to you, Be of good comfort, and fear not. ³⁴ And be not hasty in regard of the former times, to think vain things, that you may not hasten in the latter times.

³⁵ And it came to pass after this, that I wept again, and fasted seven days in like manner, that I might fulfill the three weeks which he told me. ³⁶ And in the eighth night was my heart vexed within me again, and I began to speak before the Most High. ³⁷ For my spirit was greatly set on fire, and my soul was in distress. ³⁸ And I said, O Lord, of a truth you spoke at the beginning of the creation, upon the first day, and said thus; Let heaven and earth be made; and your word perfected the work. ³⁹ And then was the spirit hovering, and darkness and silence were on every side; the sound of man's voice was not yet.* ⁴⁰ Then command you a ray of light to be brought forth of your treasures, that then your works might appear. ⁴¹ Upon the second day again you made the spirit of the firmament and commanded it to part asunder, and to make a division between the waters, that the one part might go up, and the other remain beneath. ⁴² Upon the third day you did command that the waters should be gathered together in the seventh part of the earth: six parts did you dry up, and keep them, to the intent that of these some being both planted and tilled might serve before you. ⁴³ For as soon as your word went forth the work was done. ⁴⁴ For immediately there came forth great and innumerable fruit, and manifold pleasures for the taste, and flowers of inimitable color, and odors of most exquisite smell: and this was done the third day. ⁴⁵ Upon the fourth day you commanded that the sun should shine, and the moon give her light, and the stars should be in their order: ⁴⁶ and gave them a charge to do service to man, that was to be made. ⁴⁷ Upon the fifth day you said to the seventh part, where the water was gathered together, that it should bring forth living creatures, fowls and fishes: and so it came to pass, ⁴⁸ that the mute water and without life brought forth living things as it was told, that the peoples might therefore praise your wondrous works. ⁴⁹ Then did you preserve two living creatures, the one you calledst Behemoth, and the other you calledst Leviathan: ⁵⁰ and you did separate the one from the other: for the seventh part, namely, where the water was gathered together, might not hold them both. ⁵¹ To Behemoth you gave one part, which was dried up on the third day, that he should dwell in it, wherein are a thousand hills: ⁵² but to Leviathan you gave the seventh part, namely, the moist; and you have kept them to be devoured of whom you will, and when. ⁵³ But upon the sixth day you gave commandment to the earth, that it should bring forth before you cattle, beasts, and creeping things: ⁵⁴ and over these Adam, whom you ordain lord over all the works that you have made: of him come we all, the people whom you have chosen. ⁵⁵ All this have I spoken before you, O Lord, because you have said that for our sakes you made †this world. ⁵⁶ As for the other nations, which also come of Adam, you have said that they are nothing, and are like to spittle: and you have likened the abundance of them to a drop that falls from a vessel. ⁵⁷ And now, O Lord, behold these nations, which are reputed as nothing, be lords over us, and devour us. ⁵⁸ But we your people, whom you have called your firstborn, your only begotten, and your fervent lover, are given into their hands. ⁵⁹ If the world now be made for our sakes, why do we not possess for an inheritance our world? How long shall this endure?

7 And when I had made an end of speaking these words, there was sent to me the angel which had been sent to me the nights before: ² and he said to me, Up, Esdras, and hear the words that I am come to tell you. ³ And

I said, Speak on, my Lord. Then he said to me, There is a sea set in a wide place, that it might be ‡broad and vast. ⁴ But the entrance thereof shall be set in a narrow place so as to be like a river; ⁵ whoso then should desire to go into the sea to look upon it, or to rule it, if he went not through the narrow, how could he come into the broad? ⁶ Another thing also: There is a city built and set in a plain country, and full of all good things; ⁷ but the entrance thereof is narrow, and is set in a dangerous place to fall, having a fire on the right hand, and on the left a deep water: ⁸ and there is one only path between them both, even between the fire and the water, so small that there could but one man go there at once. ⁹ If this city now be given to a man for an inheritance, if the heir pass not the danger before him, how shall he receive his inheritance? ¹⁰ And I said, It is so, Lord. Then said he to me, Even so also is Israel's portion. ¹¹ Because for their sakes I made the world: and when Adam transgressed my statutes, then was decreed that now is done. ¹² Then were the entrances of this world made narrow, and sorrowful and toilsome: they are but few and evil, full of perils, and charged with great toils. ¹³ For the entrances of the greater world are wide and sure, and bring forth fruit of immortality. ¹⁴ If then those who live enter not these strait and vain things, they can never receive those that are laid up for them. ¹⁵ Now therefore why you disquiet yourself, seeing you are but a corruptible man? and why are you moved, whereas you are but mortal? ¹⁶ and why have you not considered in your mind that which is to come, rather than that which is present? ¹⁷ Then answered I and said, O Lord that bear rule, behold, you have ordained in your law, that the righteous should inherit these things, but that the ungodly should perish. ¹⁸ The righteous therefore shall suffer strait things, and hope for wide: but those who have done wickedly ¶have suffered the strait things, and yet shall not see the wide. ¹⁹ And he said to me, §You are not a judge above God, neither have you understanding above the Most High. ²⁰ Yes, rather let many that now be perish, than that the law of God which is set before them be despised. ²¹ For God straitly commanded such as came, even as they came, what they should do to live, and what they should observe to avoid punishment. ²² Nevertheless they were not obedient to him; but spoke against him, and imagined for themselves vain things; ²³ and framed cunning plans of wickedness; and said moreover of the Most High, that he is not; and knew not his ways: ²⁴ but they despised his law, and denied his covenants; they have not been faithful to his statutes, and have not performed his works. ²⁵ Therefore, Esdras, for the empty are empty things, and for the full are the full things. ²⁶ For behold, the time shall come, and it shall be, when these tokens, of which I told you before, shall come to pass, that the bride shall appear, even the city coming forth, and she shall be seen, that now is withdrawn from the earth. ²⁷ And whoever is delivered from the aforesaid evils shall see my wonders. ²⁸ For my son Jesus shall be revealed with those that be with him, and shall rejoice those who remain four hundred years. ²⁹ After these years shall my son Christ die of those who, and all that have the breath of life. ³⁰ And the world shall be turned into the old silence seven days, like as in the first beginning: so that no man shall remain. ³¹ And after seven days the world, that yet awakens not, shall be raised up, and that shall die that is corruptible. ³² And the earth shall restore those that are asleep in her, and so shall the dust those that dwell therein in silence, and the ††secret places shall deliver those souls that were committed to them. ³³ And the Most High shall be revealed upon the seat of judgement, ††and compassion shall pass away, and patience shall be withdrawn: ³⁴ but judgement only shall remain, truth shall stand, and faith shall wax strong: ³⁵ and the work shall follow, and the reward shall be showed, and good deeds shall awake, and wicked deeds shall not sleep. ¶¶³⁶ And the §§pit of torment shall appear, and near it shall be the place of rest: and the furnace of *shall be showed, and near it the paradise of delight. ³⁷ And then shall the Most High say to the nations that are raised from the dead, See you° and understand whom you° have denied, or whom you° have not served, or whose commandments you° have despised. ³⁸ Look on this side and on that: here is delight and rest, and there fire and torments. light, save only the splendor of the glory of the Most High, whereby all shall see the things that are set before them; ⁴³for it shall endure as it were a week of years. ⁴⁴This is my judgement and the ordinance thereof; but to you only have I showed these things.

⁴⁵And I answered, I said even then, O Lord, and I say now: blessed are those who are now alive and keep the statutes ordained of you. ⁴⁶But as touching them for whom my prayer was made, what shall I say? for who is there of those who are alive that has not sinned, and who of the sons of men that has not transgressed your covenant? ⁴⁷And now I see, that the world to come shall bring delight to few, but torments to many. ⁴⁸For an evil heart has grown up in us, which has led us astray from these statutes, and has brought us into corruption and into the ways of death, has showed us the paths of perdition and removed us far from life; and that, not a few only, but well near all that have been created.

⁴⁹And he answered me, and said, Listen to me, and I will instruct you; and I will admonish you yet again: ⁵⁰for this cause the Most High has not made one world, but two. ⁵¹For whereas you have said that the just are not many, but few, and the ungodly abound, hear the answer thereto. ⁵²If you have exceedingly few choice stones, ¶will you set for you near them according to their number things of lead and clay?

⁵³And I said, Lord, how shall this be?

⁵⁴And he said to me, Not only this, but ask the earth, and she shall tell you; entreat her, and she shall declare to you. ⁵⁵For you shall say to her, You bring forth gold and silver and brass, and iron also and lead and clay: ⁵⁶but silver is more abundant than gold, and brass than silver, and iron than brass, lead than iron, and clay than lead. ⁵⁷Judge you therefore which things are precious and to be desired, what is abundant or what is rare.

⁵⁹And he answered me, and said, §Weigh within yourself the things that you have thought, for he that has what is hard to get rejoices over him that has what is plentiful. ⁶⁰So also is the judgement which I have promised: for I will rejoice over the few that shall be saved, inasmuch as these are those who have made my glory now to prevail, and of whom my name is now named. ⁶¹And I will not grieve over the multitude of those who perish; for these are those who are now like to vapor, and are become as flame and smoke; they are set on fire and burn hotly, and are quenched.

⁶²And I answered and said, O you earth, wherefore have you brought forth, if the mind is made out of dust, like as all other created things? ⁶³For it were better that the dust itself had been unborn, so that the mind might not have been made therefrom. ⁶⁴But now the mind grows with us, and by reason of this we are tormented, because we perish and know it. ⁶⁵Let the race of men lament and the beasts of the field be glad; let all that are born lament, but let the four-footed beasts and the cattle rejoice. ⁶⁶For it is far better with them than with us; for they look not for judgement, neither do they know of torments or of salvation promised to them after death. ⁶⁷For what does it profit us, that we shall be preserved alive, but yet be afflicted with torment? ⁶⁸For all that are born are ††defiled with iniquities, and are full of sins and laden with offences: ⁶⁹and if after death we were not to come into judgement, perhaps it had been better for us.

70 And he answered me, and said, When the Most High made the world, and Adam and all those who came of him, he first prepared the Judgement and the things that pertain to the judgement. 71 And now understand from your own words, for you have said that the mind grows with us. 72 They therefore that dwell upon the earth shall be tormented for this reason, that having understanding they have done iniquity, and receiving commandments have not kept them, and having obtained a law they dealt unfaithfully with that which they received. 73 What then will they have to say in the judgement, or how will they answer in the last times? 74 For how great a time has the Most High been patient with those who inhabit the world, and not for their sakes, but because of the times which he has foreordained!

75 And I answered and said, if I have found grace in your sight, O Lord, show this also to your servant, whether after death, even now when every one of us gives up his soul, we shall be kept in rest until those times come, in which you shall renew the creation, or whether we shall be tormented forthwith.

76 And he answered me, and said, I will show you this also; but join not yourself with those who are scorers, nor count yourself with those who are tormented. 77 For you have a treasure of good works laid up with the Most High, but it shall not be showed you until the last times. 78 For concerning death the teaching is: When the determinate sentence has gone forth from the Most High that a man should die, as the spirit leaves the body to return again to him who gave it, it adores the glory of the Most High first of all. 79 And if it be one of those that have been scorers and have not kept the way of the Most High, and that have despised his law, and that hate

those who fear ††God, 80 these spirits shall not enter into habitations, but shall wander and be in torments forthwith, ever grieving and sad, in seven ways. 81 The first way, because they have despised the law of the Most High. 82 The second way, because they can't now make a good returning that they may live. 83 The third way, they shall see the reward laid up for those who have believed the covenants of the Most High. 84 The fourth way, they shall consider the torment laid up for themselves in the last days. 85 The fifth way, they shall see the dwelling places of the others guarded by angels, with great quietness. 86 The sixth way, they shall see ¶¶how forthwith some of them shall pass into torment. 87 The seventh way, which is §§more grievous than all the aforesaid ways, because they shall pine away in confusion and be consumed with *shame, and shall be withered up by fears, seeing the glory of the Most High before whom they have sinned while living, and before whom they shall be judged in the last times. 88 Now this is the order of those who have kept the ways of the Most High, when they shall be separated from the corruptible vessel. 89 In the time †that they lived therein they painfully served the Most High, and were in jeopardy every hour, that they might keep the law of the lawgiver perfectly. 90 Wherefore this is the teaching concerning them: 91 First of all they shall see with great joy the glory of him who takes them up, for they shall have rest in seven orders. 92 The first order, because they have labored with great effort to overcome the evil thought which was fashioned together with them, that it might not lead them astray from life into death. 93 The second order, because they see the perplexity in which the souls of the ungodly wander, and the punishment that awaits them. ⁹⁴The third order, they see the witness which he that fashioned them bears concerning them, that while they lived they kept the law which was given them in trust. ⁹⁵The fourth order, they understand the rest which, being gathered in their chambers, they now enjoy with great quietness, guarded by angels, and the glory that awaits them in the last days. ⁹⁶The fifth order, they rejoice, seeing how they have now escaped from that which is corruptible, and how they shall inherit that which is to come, while they see moreover the straitness and the [‡]painfulness from which they have been delivered, and the large room which they shall receive with joy and immortality. ⁹⁷The sixth order, when it is showed to them how their face shall shine as the sun, and how they shall be made like to the light of the stars, being henceforth incorruptible. ⁹⁸The seventh order, which is greater than all the aforesaid orders, because they shall rejoice with confidence, and because they shall be bold without confusion, and shall be glad without fear, for they hasten to behold the face of him whom in their lifetime they served, and from whom they shall receive their reward in glory. ⁹⁹This is the order of the souls of the just, as from henceforth [¶]his announcer to them, and aforesaid are the ways of torture which those who would not give heed shall suffer from henceforth. ¹⁰⁰And I answered and said, shall time therefore be given to the souls after they are separated from the bodies, that they may see that whereof you have spoken to me? ¹⁰¹And he said, Their freedom shall be for seven days, that for seven days they may see the things whereof you have been told, and afterwards they shall be gathered together in their habitations. ¹⁰²And I answered and said, if I have found favor in your sight, show further to me your servant whether in the day of judgment the just will be able to intercede for the ungodly or to entreat the Most High for them, ¹⁰³whether fathers for children, or children for parents, or kindred for kindred, or kinsfolk for their next of kin, or [§]friends for those who are most dear. ¹⁰⁴And he answered me, and said, Since you have found favor in my sight, I will show you this also: The day of judgement is ^{}a day of decision, and displays to all the seal of truth; even as now a father sends not his son, or a son his father, or a master his slave, or a ^{††}friend him that is most dear, that in his stead he may ^{‡‡}be sick, or sleep, or eat, or be healed: ¹⁰⁵so never shall anyone pray for another ^{¶¶}in that day, neither shall one lay a burden on another, for then shall everyone will each bear his own righteousness or unrighteousness.

¹⁰⁶And I answered and said, How do we now find that first Abraham prayed for the people of Sodom, and Moses for the fathers that sinned in the wilderness: ¹⁰⁷and Joshua after him for Israel in the days of ^{§§}Achar: ¹⁰⁸and Samuel ^{*}in the days of Saul; and David for the plague: and Solomon for those who should worship [¶]in the sanctuary: ¹⁰⁹and Elijah for those that received rain; and for the dead, that he might live: ¹¹⁰and Hezekiah for the people in the days of Sennacherib: and many for many? ¹¹¹If therefore now, when corruption is grown up, and unrighteousness increased, the righteous have prayed for the ungodly, wherefore shall it not be so then also?

¹¹²He answered me, and said, This present world is not the end; the full glory remains †not therein: therefore have they who were able prayed for the weak. ¹¹³But the day of judgement shall be the end of this time, ‡and the beginning of the immortality for to come, wherein corruption is passed away, ¹¹⁴intemperance is at an end, infidelity is cut off, but righteousness is grown, and truth is sprung up. ¹¹⁵Then shall no man be able to have mercy on him that is cast in judgement, nor to thrust down him that has gotten the victory.

¹¹⁶I answered then and said, this is my first and last saying, that it had been better that the earth had not given you Adam: or else, when it had given him, to have restrained him from sinning. ¹¹⁷For what profit is it for all that are in this present time to live in heaviness, and after death to look for punishment? ¹¹⁸O you Adam, what have you done? For though it was you that sinned, the evil is not fallen on you alone, but upon all of us that come of you. ¹¹⁹For what profit is it to us, if there be promised us an immortal time, whereas we have done the works that bring death? ¹²⁰And that there is promised us an everlasting hope, whereas ourselves most miserably are become vain? ¹²¹And that there are reserved habitations of health and safety, whereas we have lived wickedly? ¹²²And that the glory of the Most High shall defend them which have led a pure life, whereas we have walked in the most wicked ways of all? ¹²³And that there shall be showed a paradise, whose fruit endures without decay, wherein is abundance and healing, but we shall not enter into it, ¹²⁴for we have walked in unpleasant places? ¹²⁵And that the faces of them which have used abstinence shall shine above the stars, whereas our faces shall be blacker than darkness? ¹²⁶For while we lived and committed iniquity, we considered not what we should have to suffer after death.

¹²⁷Then he answered and said, This is the †condition of the battle, which man that is born upon the earth shall fight; ¹²⁸that, if he be overcome, he shall suffer as you have said: but if he get the victory, he shall receive the thing that I say. ¹²⁹For this is the way whereof Moses spoke to the people while he lived, saying, Choose you life, that you may live. ¹³⁰Nevertheless they believed not him, nor yet the prophets after him, no, nor me which have spoken to them; ¹³¹so that there shall not be such heaviness in their destruction, as there shall be joy over those who are persuaded to salvation.

¹³²I answered then and said, I know, Lord, that the Most High is now called merciful, in that he has mercy upon them which are not yet come into the world; ¹³³and compassionate, in that he has compassion upon those that turn to his law; ¹³⁴and patient, for that he long suffers those that have sinned, as his creatures; ¹³⁵and bountiful, for that he is ready to give rather than to exact; ¹³⁶and of great mercy, for that he multiplies more and more mercies to those who are present, and that are past, and also to them which are to come; ¹³⁷(for if he multiplied not his mercies, the world would not continue with those who dwell therein;) ¹³⁸and one that forgives, for if he didn't forgive of his goodness, that they which have committed iniquities might be eased of them, the ten thousandth part of men would not remain living; ¹³⁹and a judge, for if he didn't pardon those who were created by his word, and blot out the multitude of ‡offences, ¹⁴⁰there would perhaps be very few left in an innumerable multitude.

8 And he answered me, and said, The Most High has made this world for many, but the world to come for few. ²I will tell you now a similitude, Esdras; As when you asks the earth, it shall say to you, that it gives very much mold whereof earthen vessels are made, and little dust that gold comes of: even so is the course of the present world. ³There be many created, but few shall be saved.

⁴And I answered and said, Swallow down understanding then, O my soul, and let my heart devour wisdom. ⁵For you ^{}are come here without your will, and depart when you would not: for there is given you no longer space than only to live a short time. ⁶O Lord, that are over us, suffer your servant, that we may pray before you, and give us seed to our heart, and culture to our understanding, that there may come fruit of it, whereby every one shall live that is corrupt, who bears the ††likeness of a man. ⁷For you are alone, and we all one workmanship of your hands, like as you have said. ⁸Forasmuch as you quicken the body that is fashioned now in the womb, and give it members, your creature is preserved in fire and water, and nine months does your workmanship endure your creature which is created in her. ⁹But that which keeps and that which is kept shall both be kept ††by your keeping: and when the womb gives up again that which has grown in it, ¹⁰you have commanded that out of the parts of the body, that is to say, out of the breasts, be given milk, which is the fruit of the breasts, ¹¹that the thing which is fashioned may be nourished for a time, and afterwards you shall order it in your mercy. ¹²Yes, you have brought it up in your righteousness, and nurtured it in your law, and corrected it with your judgement. ¹³And you shall mortify it as your creature, and quicken it as your work. ¹⁴If therefore you shall ¶¶lightly and suddenly destroy him which with so great labor was fashioned by your commandment, to what purpose was he made? ¹⁵Now therefore I will speak; touching man in general, you know best; but touching your people I will speak, for whose sake I am sorry; ¹⁶and for your inheritance, for whose cause I mourn; and for Israel, for whom I am heavy; and for the seed of Jacob, for whose sake I am troubled; ¹⁷therefore I will begin to pray before you for myself and for them: for I see the falls of us that dwell in the land; ¹⁸but I have heard the swiftness of the judgement which is to come. ¹⁹Therefore hear my voice, and understand my saying, and I will speak before you.

The beginning of the words of Esdras, before he was taken up. And he said,

²⁰O Lord, you who §§remain forever, whose eyes are exalted, and whose chambers are in the air; ²¹whose throne is inestimable; whose glory may not be comprehended; before whom the army of angels stand with trembling, ²²*at whose bidding they are changed to wind and fire; whose word is sure, and sayings constant; whose ordinance is strong, and commandment fearful; ²³whose look dries up the depths, and whose indignation makes the mountains to melt away, and whose truth bears witness: ²⁴hear, O Lord, the prayer of your servant, and give ear to the petition of your handiwork; ²⁵attend to my words, for so long as I live I will speak, and so long as I have understanding I will answer. ²⁶O look not upon the sins of your people; but on those who have served you in truth, ²⁷ Regard not the doings of those who deal wickedly, but of those who have kept your covenants in affliction. ²⁸ Think not upon those that have walked feignedly before you; but remember them which have willingly known your fear. ²⁹ Let it not be your will to destroy them which have lived like cattle; but look upon those who have †clearly taught your law. ³⁰ Take you no indignation at them which are deemed worse than beasts; but love those who have always put their trust in your glory. ³¹ For we and our fathers have ‡passed our lives in ¶ways that bring death; but you because of us sinners §are called merciful. ³² For if you have a desire to have mercy upon us, then shall you be called merciful, to us, namely, that have no works of righteousness. ³³ For the just, which have many good works laid up with you, shall for their own deeds receive reward. ³⁴ For what is man, that you should take displeasure at him? or what is a corruptible race, that you should be so bitter toward it? ³⁵ For in truth there is no man among those who are born, but he has dealt wickedly; and among them that have lived there is none which have not done amiss. ³⁶ For in this, O Lord, your righteousness and your goodness shall be declared, if you be merciful to them which have no store of good works.

³⁷ Then answered he me, and said, Some things have you spoken aright, and according to your words so shall it come to pass. ³⁸ For indeed I will not think on the fashioning of them which have sinned, or their death, their judgement, or their destruction; ³⁹ but I will rejoice over the framing of the righteous, their pilgrimage also, and the salvation, and the reward, that they shall have. ⁴⁰ Like therefore as I have spoken, so shall it be. ⁴¹ For as the husbandman sows much seed upon the ground, and plants many trees, and yet not all that is sown shall ††come up in due season, neither shall all that is planted take root: even so those who are sown in the world shall not all be saved.

⁴² I answered then and said, if I have found favor, let me speak before you. ⁴³ Forasmuch as the husbandman's seed, if it come not up, seeing that it has not received your rain in due season, or if it be corrupted through too much rain, ‡‡so perishes; ⁴⁴ likewise man, which is formed with your hands, and is called your own image, because he is made like to you, for whose sake you have formed all things, even him have you made like to the husbandman's seed. ⁴⁵ Be not angry with us, but spare your people, and have mercy upon your inheritance; for you have mercy upon your own creation.

⁴⁶ Then answered he me, and said, Things present are for those who now be, and things to come for such as shall be hereafter. ⁴⁷ For you come far short that you should be able to love my creature more than I. But you have brought yourself full near to the unrighteous. Let this never be. ⁴⁸ Yet in this shall you be admirable to the Most High; ⁴⁹ in that you have humbled yourself, as it becomes you, and have not judged yourself worthy to be among the righteous, so as to be much glorified. ⁵⁰ For many grievous miseries shall fall on those who in the last times dwell in the world, because they have walked in great pride. ⁵¹ But understand you for yourself, and of such as be like you seek out the glory.
